Chapter 641 Hulk Vs Captain America

Hoo-hoo~

The ice-blue figure quickly circled around Hulk a few times, while at the same time a large amount of cold air came out of him and covered Hulk's body.

Needless to say, the figure who suddenly appeared at this time is Iceman. Because Rogers has not had the time to explain the current situation to Professor Charles, Iceman directly treated Hulk as a military reformed Soldier.

Soon, under Iceman's cold envelope, Hulk's whole body was frozen by the rapidly condensing ice. At a glance, Hulk, who had maintained his big charge forward, had turned into an ice sculpture, similar to the few Green Giants not far away who had also been frozen up.

Brush!

Iceman, who suddenly icebound Hulk, skied on the ice and stopped in front of the new sculpture, and Iceman recovered from his normal human form. For Iceman, although this hulk seems to be a lot stronger than the previous ones but even this giant can not stop his ice.

Facing the stone-faced Rogers in front of him, Iceman clapped his hands and said he was done. However, Rogers did not relax at all and he still stared at the ice sculpture behind Iceman.

The next moment, Rogers' expression suddenly became extra serious, and he also raised his hand to signal Iceman. Because he saw Hulk's eyes roll when he was frozen.

"Be careful....."

"Is it necessary to be that nervous?" Seeing Rogers's appearance, Iceman muttered somewhat incomprehensibly. However, just as Iceman was muttering in a small voice, a slight sound of something breaking suddenly came in his ears.

Click! Click!

Bang!

Just as Iceman turned around when he heard the sound behind him, the ice sculpture that was shining in the sunlight instantly shattered from the inside, and large pieces of broken ice scattered and splattered in all directions. At the same time as the ice sculpture shattered, a huge green figure had also crashed towards Iceman, who was not far ahead.

"What?!..." With only half of his body turned, Iceman had already seen the huge figure rushing over towards him.

Call!

In the nick of time, Iceman's body instantly crystallized into ice and then he quickly raised his arms in front of him.

In the next moment, a large amount of cold gas gushed out of his arms and it quickly formed a thick wall of ice in front of Iceman.

When Hulk's huge figure crashed over, an ever-expanding wall of ice appeared in front of him. However, Hulk still slammed into the ice wall as if he did not care about the thick ice wall in front of him.

Bang!

After a loud sound, Iceman's hastily condensed ice wall was directly smashed away, not helping Iceman delay the Green Monster. After crashing through the ice wall, Hulk swept a glance at Iceman's ice crystal state and waved his hand towards him.

Snap!

Iceman, a little stunned by the instant destruction of the ice wall created by him was swept away by Hulk's slap and he flew a farther distance than the two K-team members who were also slapped away by Hulk before.

In this way, Iceman, who is a Level 5 Mutant, was slapped flying in the first round of the fight against Hulk. Although Iceman was underestimating his opponent, this scene was enough to show Hulk's strength.

"Cold doesn't affect Hulk!" After slapping Iceman, Hulk said loudly while looking at Rogers who had an ugly expression on his face.

Bang!

Then Hulk continued to rush towards Rogers. It seems that Hulk's goal is SHIELD's Captain America, and no one else is in his eyes. So, when he had a thunderbolt splashed down above his head, Hulk did not even raise his head.

Stabbed!

The powerful thunder released by Storm directly smashed Hulk, but it only left a few shallow marks on Hulk's body, and there was no way to stop him. In addition, the marks made by the thunder were quickly recovered. Ice doesn't affect Hulk and now it looks like Thunder and Lightning also doesn't affect Hulk.

Bang!

The Hulk, who slapped Iceman away and blocked the thunder, has rushed to less than 10 meters in front of Rogers and Hulk can easily cross such a short distance in two steps. Faced with the Hulk rushing towards him, Rogers clutched the Shield in his hand and focused all of his attention on the Hulk in front of him.

Hum!

When Rogers was about to block Hulk's attack, a Space Portal suddenly appeared behind him. It was Blink who made this move as Professor Charles would not watch Captain America being attacked by this extremely powerful Hulk.

However, Captain Rogers only glanced at the Space Portal behind him, but he did not move. Since Dr. Bruce Banner had deliberately transformed into Hulk to test him then how could Rogers choose to retreat at this time? And, what makes people think that he cannot stop him?! He is Captain America!

Brush!

Therefore, ignoring the Space Portal behind him, Rogers spread his legs forward and back, bent his front legs, and held the shield in front of him in a bowed position.

Shout!

The moment Rogers finished this series of actions, Hulk had already jumped in front of his eyes. At the same time, a huge green fist smashed against the Shield raised by Rogers.

Dang! ~ ~ ~

With a loud noise, a shock wave that was not any less than the Hulk Clap rushed out from where Rogers' shield and Hulk's fist collided.

The powerful shock wave directly swept away the dust on the ground where Rogers and Hulk were located, and a huge circular crater appeared centered on where they were standing.

When the shock wave swept around, the Space Portal behind Rogers quickly disappeared, otherwise, Professor Charles and others who were far away from the battlefield would have been hurt by this shockwave.

Huhu~

Two seconds later, the smoke and dust dispersed slightly, revealing the situation in the center of the crater. Captain Rogers and the Hulk are still at their original position, one person holding a Shield in front of him and another green person throwing a fist and hitting the Shield.

Looking at this scene, it seems that the two sides are equally matched.

However, if you look closely, Rogers's legs have sunk into the ground, and the arms holding the Shield are shaking. As for Hulk opposite him, his huge fist on the shield still seemed to have plenty of power.

Hulk's eyes flashed as he looked down at Rogers, who was blocking his punch. Then, he put more power in his fist on the shield.

Pū!

Feeling the power coming from the shield, Rogers kicked off and pulled his legs from the ground, using the Hulk's increased strength. The next moment, he was knocked out of the air by Hulk's fist. But after doing a backflip in mid-air, Rogers landed safely on the ground.

Rogers, who was squatting on the ground with his shield, looked up at Hulk, who had already closed his fist, and a strange look flashed in his eyes.

Chapter 642 Raining Down

Huhu~

The smoke and dust in the center of the battlefield have gradually dispersed, revealing two figures, one large and one small, standing face to face inside. Rogers, who was just half-kneeling on the ground, stood up, and one couldn't tell from Rogers' expression what he was thinking.

As for the Hulk on the opposite side, he seemed to have stopped after punching Captain America and he stood there calmly looking at Rogers on the opposite side.

"That Rogers actually blocked Hulk's punch?! That's shouldn't be possible!" Just after Hulk punched Rogers, Tony, who saw the battle completely through Iron Man's viewpoint in front of him, muttered somewhat incomprehensibly.

Judging from what Tony detected and what he knew about Hulk, Rogers should have been unable to block Hulk's punch. Unless the strength that Rogers showed before was only a small part of his true strength.

However, Tony, who also knows a lot about Super Soldier Serum, thinks that this is unlikely. The Super Soldier Serum claims to be able to create perfect soldiers, but after all, it is a decades-old technology.

In Tony's opinion, the enhancement effect of the Super Soldier Serum on the human body is not as good as Extremis Serum. Even if it shows a very stable effect on Captain America, it can't hide its lack of strengthening the human body. At least, Tony's energy test for Rogers never exceeded Level 3.

"Could it be that... Hulk held back in his punch?" Tony, who didn't think that the situation in front of him was possible, could only guess so in the end, but Hulk is not Bruce Banner, would he really hold back his strength?

Tony didn't know that his casual guess was the real reason Rogers caught Hulk's punch. In fact, just like Banner told Natasha before jumping off the Quinjet, he just wanted to see the strength of Captain America.

Whether it's the K Team directly under SHIELD or X-Men, who belongs to the Alliance with Rogers, Hulk has seen the strength of these people.

However, his goal was Captain America, so he kept rushing towards Rogers. In the end, Rogers' performance made Hulk very satisfied.

For Hulk or Dr. Bruce Banner, the strength of Captain America itself is actually not too important. As a guy who can demolish a Helicarrier with his bare hands after transforming, Dr. Banner knows very well what level of strength he has in his body.

This time, he made a move to see what Captain America is made of, to see if he is worth his future cooperation with him, and to see if he could join SHIELD led by this person.

When Rogers refused to escape with the Space Portal and chose to take his own punch, Hulk or Dr. Banner had initially approved him. And after Rogers' Shield took his punch, Hulk also felt the opponent's powerful strength at the same time.

Rogers, who has a protagonist aura, is not completely incapable of resisting Hulk's fists, not to mention that he has his own weapon: The Vibranium Shield.

"It seems that this is all right, but the consumption of Hulk's transformation is not over yet, so he will be unhappy." Standing in place looking at Rogers, Banner silently thought.

After so many years living in various parts of the world, Dr. Banner is finally able to live in harmony with the Hulk in his body.

Dr. Banner can now not only control his anger but he can also communicate with another personality in his body, that is, the Hulk.

With Dr. Banner's efforts over the years, he has been able to do a switch between him and Hulk at will, but each switch of Hulk has a fixed energy value.

However, Banner's thoughts will be greatly affected every time he transforms into Hulk. Moreover, such a transformation under the control of Banner made Hulk's strength drop a lot.

Because the real Hulk is a completely different personality, under the complete Hulk, his strength will increase infinitely with his anger. Therefore, Hulk at this time is only a weakened version, and no one knows what fraction of the strength of the full version of Hulk this state is.

As just a weakened version of Hulk has been able to compete with the K Team of Shield and X-Men.

"How about two more Hulk Claps! That should consume the remaining energy." Dr. Banner finally thought as Hulk was going to be upset if he didn't make a decision.

Huhuhu!

Just as Hulk stood there thinking about how to release the excess energy after this transformation, he suddenly noticed the Iron Man floating not far above his head from the beginning. Then, an inexplicable look suddenly flashed in Hulk's eyes.

"Then, let's try Mr. Stark's new toy! I haven't seen him for so many years. I didn't expect him to become a guardian and willing to take responsibility for his actions. It's really unexpected!" Dr. Banner silently thought in his heart as he looked at those Iron Mans in the air.

As the world's top scientist, Banner obviously knew Tony Stark. Moreover, Tony Stark also participated in the unexpected experiment that made Banner what he is now.

Dr. Banner still remembers Tony Stark's high-profile look back then, he looked as if he didn't care about anything. Dr. Banner still had a lot of surprises about Tony Stark being able to become a Superhero.

Call!

Hulk, who had already made a decision, had already raised his head to look at the Iron Man in mid-air. When Hulk suddenly raised his head and looked up, the Iron Man who was floating in the air seemed to be stunned for a moment.

"JARVIS, is he staring at us?" Scanning through the Iron Man from the back, Tony saw Hulk raising his head and looking up in the air and he suddenly had a bad feeling in his heart and asked JARVIS.

"It looked like that, sir." From the eyes and sight to analyze, JARVIS quickly gave the results.

Tony: "..."

Huh~

Just as Tony in the back was surprised by Hulk's sudden stare at his Iron Man, Hulk, who had his head up, had turned his foot and drew a semicircle on the ground with his foot. The next moment, Hulk's eyes lit up and his bent right leg slammed on the ground.

Dī Dī Drops!

"Attack intent detected! Choose evasion!" When Hulk had just made his move, JARVIS had already analyzed his next move first and had already started controlling those Iron Man to evade while issuing a warning.

Brush!

Just when the Iron Man in mid-air was quickly scattering and preparing to leave under JARVIS' watch, a huge figure had rushed up from the ground just in the middle of the Iron Man in mid-air. The next moment, the huge figure's open arms closed violently toward the center.

"Hulk Clap!"

Bang!

Rumble!

Chapter 643 Without Match

(Sky Hub II→ Sky Judgement)

Pū Pū Pū!

Before the Iron Man could get far in midair, a powerful shock wave from behind caught up with them. Behind Tony, a dozen Iron Men that could not fly far were shattered by the shock wave, and then their power system was damaged and they directly fell to the ground.

"What the hell?! Why is this Hulk going crazy!?" The instant inexplicable loss of more than a dozen Iron Man caused irritation and anger to rise in Tony's heart as he cursed out loud.

However, Tony only complained a little. He knew Hulk would not recognize anyone in this state and he was in a very unstable mood. Tony could only look on helplessly even if all of his Armors were torn down by Hulk.

Although Hulk doesn't look as scary as he did years ago, Tony doesn't want to see if he still has what he had back then.

So, in order not to provoke Hulk and get his attention, Tony asks Jarvis to take the remaining Iron Man and quickly spread out and stay away from Hulk. He can't hide but he can create more difficult targets. This is what Tony was thinking at that moment.

Tony felt a little helpless as he thought about today's events. Tony's Iron Man army played a big role in the normally planned fight against Kilian at the beginning, but the Iron Man Army did not play much of a role in the battle between the Mutant Brotherhood and the Stryker because of the presence of Magneto.

And now facing the invincible Hulk, Tony can only let his remaining Iron Man army avoid him. Although Tony is a billionaire, his money does not grow on trees and it is a big loss every time Tony loses a single Iron Man Armor and those losses are piling up!

“Sir, the Sky Judgement weapon has left the strike orbit. It will be able to enter the orbit in another half an hour.” Just as Tony watched Hulk destroying his Iron Man Army and complained helplessly, JARVIS’s voice came into his ear.

The Sky Judgement is a space-based weapon system situated on a low-Earth orbit that belongs solely to the Stark Group.

Tony and Lin Rui were surprised when Hydra used Magic Cube’s power in the battle against Hydra on the Golden Gate Bridge, so Tony was ready to use a space-based weapon.

But at the time, the space-based weapon, the Reese Sword system, was a collaboration weapon between Stark Corporation and SHIELD, and Tony alone could not command it alone.

After that, Tony set about building a space-based weapon system entirely owned by the Stark Group. Especially after the former Director Fury of SHIELD stepped down, Tony, who worked with Steve Rogers, could build better space-based weapons.

And Tony’s newly built space-based weapon is called Sky Judgement, and Tony accepted Lin Rui’s suggestion to take this name.

“Just leave it, I don’t think I’ll be able to use the Sky Judgement anyway,” Tony said calmly when he heard JARVIS’s reminder.

If the Hulk in front of Tony was really as crazy and scary as the one he saw a few years ago then whatever is in front of him would have been violently torn apart and if that thing was nothing more than an unstoppable monster, then Tony will still choose Sky Judgement Strike to deal with him.

However, the current Hulk power level never exceeds Level 4 and the damage caused by it is limited, so Tony does not plan to use Sky Judgement anymore.

While Tony had his Armors avoid Hulk because he didn’t want to lose any more of his Armors, Hulk, who had just attacked the Iron Man Army, was a little upset. Hulk, or Dr. Banner, would have liked to see Tony Stark’s new toy and let off some of his extra energy during his transformation.

However, he only saw the Iron Man running away quickly, which made him very dissatisfied. Based on Dr. Banner’s knowledge of Iron Man, if these Iron Man attacked him together then it would be enough to consume a lot of his energy.

“Do you want me to chase them one by one? That would be too silly!” Dr. Banner thought helplessly as he looked at Iron Man Army which was obviously avoiding him and flew away.

Hulk’s eyes began to glance around when he saw that the Iron Man Army was avoiding him and there was still much of his transformed energy to be released.

Hulk’s goal-focused gaze lingers on Captain Rogers but he quickly looked away. Although Captain America is a good player, but he is not powerful enough for Hulk.

If he beat Rogers too much then he'll be embarrassed to work with him later on. While others may not know how well Dr. Banner can now control Hulk, he would be embarrassed.

"Huh? Should I choose them? The Mutants are pretty good, and fighting them will quickly drain the rest of my energy." Taking his eyes off Rogers, Hulk soon saw the X-Men and Professor Charles not far away, and then silently thought to himself.

In the brief battle just now, Hulk could also feel the powerful strength of these Mutants. The guy who can release the ice and the girl who can release the thunder is very strong, at least their attacks can bring some obstacles to Hulk.

However, because Dr. Banner is not familiar with them, it doesn't seem good to trouble them.

"Whatever, isn't that what Hulk is supposed to be anyway? Any more hesitation and Hulk would be really unhappy, anyway, we should also let everyone see Hulk's strength." Dr. Banner did not hesitate much longer in the end and he already rushed towards the X-Men.

Hulk, who was rushing towards X-Men, did not know that Rogers, who had been staring at him closely, had silently sent a sigh of relief in his heart when his eyes moved away from Rogers. However, when he saw Hulk had suddenly rushed to the X-Men side, Rogers hastily sent a message to Professor Charles.

Originally, Professor Charles frowned tightly when he saw Hulk rushing towards them, but when he received Rogers' message, his brows quickly opened. Then, Professor Charles turned his head and looked at Blink beside him.

"Don't mind him, let's just get out of here." Since he knew from Rogers that this powerful guy in front of them is not an enemy, then, of course, there is no point in slamming it down.

Buzzing~

Hearing Professor Charles' words, Blink quickly opened a Space Portal in front of her. Then, they quickly walked in the portal one by one. As for those members of the Mutants Brotherhood who were still unconscious, they were carried in by Colossus and Iceman.

Seeing the X-Men in front of him disappear one by one in the Space Portal, the expression on Hulk's face gradually changed.

Chapter 644 Curious

Huh~

"No! Hulk's anger is about to be overwhelmed!" Hulk, who has no opponents, is about to break out of Dr. Banner's control, but he is also feeling very helpless at this moment.

If it weren't for X-Men's sudden departure which left Hulk with no opponents, Banner would not have fallen into this passive situation now.

Although under Dr. Banner's control, even if Hulk's rage value increased, it would not cause much damage, but this was not the result he wanted.

“Hulk!” Finally, when the green glow in Hulk’s eyes completely turned into a deep green, a roar rushed out from his mouth.

The next moment, Hulk, who suppressed Dr. Banner’s consciousness, looked around. Finally, Hulk’s gaze landed on an Iron Man behind him.

The other Iron Man Army had all flew to high altitude, only this Iron Man, although it was a little far away, was suspended at a low altitude.

“Er... Jarvis, why do I think there’s something wrong with him?” Tony asked Jarvis with a bad feeling in his heart when Hulk suddenly let out a roar and stared at him.

“Sir, Hulk’s energy level is rising.” Hearing Tony’s words, JARVIS quickly replied.

“Damn it. What the hell is going on?!” When he got the news from Jarvis, the expression on Tony’s face looked even worse.

Just as Tony was analyzing why Hulk, who was not too violent, had a sudden increase in his energy level, Hulk who was staring at him stepped on his feet and rushed towards Tony.

“Engaging Emergency Evasion!” JARVIS, who had been monitoring Hulk, responded at the moment he moved, leading Tony to the sky.

Call!

Hulk, who had missed his attack, looked up at Iron Man, who was flying high into the sky and opened his hands violently then closed them quickly in front of his body.

“Hulk Clap!”

Brush!

After a roar, a Half Moon Shaped shock wave rushed out with Hulk as the center. Compared to the two Hulk Claps previously released, the current Hulk Slash is obviously much more powerful.

Everyone only saw a translucent vibrating wave propagating rapidly in the air, and the speed of this shock wave was still increasing. Soon, Iron Man, who had not rushed far enough, was hit by the shock wave from the ground.

Kaka~

“Sir, the Armor is severely damaged, the power system is only thirty percent intact.” After suffering a hard hit from Hulk, Tony’s Iron Man Armor also suffered serious damage.

Pū~huhu! Pū!

“Damn! Why would he suddenly come after me? Don’t tell me it’s because he has no other opponent here?!” Just trying to stay in the air, Tony thought while frowning as he looked down at Hulk, who had fallen to the ground.

Tony didn’t know that his guess was really Hulk’s current situation. And after Tony’s Iron Man Armor had been damaged, the other Armors that had been controlled by JARVIS also flew back.

Whether it's dealing with Hulk or helping Tony, these Iron Man Armors must come back.

"Jarvis, now that we're being targeted, let's stop hiding. Didn't he want to fight? Then let's give him a fight!" When the other Iron Men Armors came back, Tony looked down at the Hulk and made a decision. He would not hide anymore.

"Yes, sir." JARVIS already started to calculate the best attack methods.

Boom! Shoo!

In the next moment, the damaged Armor which was barely flying in the air exploded, dividing into a dozen parts, and those parts quickly left Tony.

While the Iron Man Armor was divided into parts and flew away, a complete new Iron Man Armor that had flown back was broken down into more than a dozen parts in mid-air at the same time, and those parts attached to Tony's body with almost no time difference between the damaged parts leaving him.

Call! Boom!

Tony put on the intact Iron Man Armor again, and a strong flame erupted from his feet, and then he rushed into the high air.

Although Tony had already decided to fight against Hulk, he didn't need to do it himself. At this time, Tony regretted how he had sent most of his Iron Man Army back to New York in the first place, otherwise, his current combat power would be far more than this.

Even if the Hulk is strong, Tony could still almost kill him with a few Hundred Iron Man Armors.

Swipe!

When Tony rushed into the sky, JARVIS had already controlled the remaining Iron Man Armors and launched an attack on Hulk on the ground.

As the Hulk watched the Iron Man attack him, there was some excitement in his deep eyes.

"Hulk!" With a low growl, Hulk has already lunged at an Iron Man in the air.

Boom!

...

Huh~

Just when Hulk was up against Tony's Iron Man Armors because he couldn't find a target for a while, there was another person high in the air who was intently watching the battle below.

This figure was standing on a Hoverboard hovering high in the sky with a serious look in his eyes, seemingly very interested in the battle below.

"Is this the real Hulk? How come he feels so weak?" Lin Rui, who has been watching the situation for a long time, has a lot of doubts about the strength that Hulk has shown today, and now he finally can't help but say it.

For Lin Rui, the normal Hulk's strength is far more than what he sees in front of him. Not to mention that Hulk's power is unstoppable. Even Rogers couldn't completely stop Hulk's punch.

Hulk's signature attack named Hulk Clap made Lin Rui feels very weak and feeble.

Boom!

"But even a Hulk of this caliber can crush Iron Man! It seems that Tony has to go back and make some Hulk Busters." Seeing another Iron Man Armor getting torn apart by Hulk's bare hands, Lin Rui's eyes flashed as he thought to himself.

"Should...I go down and fight him. Judging from the current situation, Hulk's current attacks wouldn't have that much of an effect on me." The more he looked at the battle below, the more Lin Rui wanted to try his hand.

Faced with this Superhero, who represents the pinnacle of strength in Marvel World, Lin Rui really wanted to fight against Hulk personally.

If there was really too much difference between their strengths then Lin Rui will not go up for a fight even if he goes crazy. But now, Lin Rui sees that Hulk is not as strong as he had expected, and he couldn't suppress the thought of fighting Hulk in his heart.

"Let's do it! Or else Tony's remaining Iron Man will really be all destroyed!" Finally, Lin Rui jerked up on his Hoverboard and muttered to himself.

Brush!

In the next moment, Lin Rui drove the Hoverboard from a high altitude and quickly rushed towards the battlefield below.

Chapter 645 Mirage Knight VS Hulk

Boom!

Another Iron Man Armor was torn by Hulk. Looking at the scattered parts, Tony, suspended high in the sky, felt another shock in his heart.

Even a dozen Iron Men combined to release a high-powered beam of light is just like scratching an itch for Hulk, he can withstand these powerful attacks and fly into the air at the same time.

Watching Hulk get more and more excited, the figure in Tony's memory finally gradually overlapped with the guy in front of him.

"Don't tell me that Bruce disappeared for so many years just for this? He can transform himself into Hulk at any time, but he can't control him?" Tony thought as he looked down at Hulk, who was fighting with another Iron Man Armor.

If the Bruce Banner that Rogers retrieved is still an uncontrollable timed humanoid nuke, then Tony thinks he might as well go back and find more of himself.

The world may need more powerful forces to maintain justice and peace and to protect it, but Hulk's uncontrollability is too worrying. If Hulk transformed into an uncontrolled giant in the middle of their meeting in the future then it would be a disaster.

"It seems that it is still necessary to find a way that can restrain Hulk!" Tony thought silently in his heart as there were only three of his own Iron Man left below.

Brush!

While Tony was looking at Hulk and thinking about the future, a figure quickly rushed down beside him. After catching a glimpse of the figure rushing down, the expression on Tony's face instantly became ugly.

"Sir, Mirage Knight had just rushed down." Before Tony could speak, JARVIS gave out a reminder.

"I saw it too! Didn't I tell him not to get involved in this? It would be okay if I lose some Armors but I won't be able to explain anything to his parents if something happens to him!" Staring at the familiar figure that quickly rushed down, Tony said in a worried and angry tone.

Brush!

In the next moment, Tony followed the figure without hesitation and rushed down. Even if the Iron Man is not Hulk's opponent, Tony will not let Lin Rui be in danger alone.

"JARVIS, contact Rogers and Professor Charles for me! This is not a situation where they can watch the show!" While chasing the figure below down sharply, Tony shouted to JARVIS.

"Yes, sir." JARVIS quickly agreed upon hearing Tony's words. Then, he had already started contacting Professor Charles and Rogers.

...

Zizi~

"Jackson! What the hell is going through your head? Why are you rushing down? Don't you know how dangerous this is?!" Tony's angry voice came from Lin Rui's headset as he was rushing down towards the Hulk.

Hearing Tony's words, Lin Rui could feel Tony's concern for him. However, Lin Rui, who has a very clear understanding of his own strength, knows that he will not be in danger.

At the very least, he would be fine with Hulk at his current strength, so he didn't stop his momentum.

"Mr. Stark, don't worry, I will be fine. I just want to see the strength of this Hulk in front of me, and I will not make too much of a mess." While replying to Tony's words, Lin Rui was also ready to strike.

"See it?! Won't make a mess!?" Hearing Lin Rui's reply, Tony, who is behind him, almost didn't get angry. Does he still need to see Hulk's strength? Who would be responsible if he got slapped to death?

Dī Dī Dī Dī!

“Sir, the energy level on Mr. Jackson has instantly reached Level 4.” Just when Tony was still thinking about how to dissuade Lin Rui from going down, JARVIS suddenly opened its mouth to give him a notification.

In order to give Tony some confidence in himself, Lin Rui directly relieved the Phantom Suit’s concealment function of his own strength, allowing JARVIS to detect the energy fluctuations in his body.

The strength of Lin Rui has been greatly improved after a trip to the alien planet, and at this time he is not sure which level he will reach if he goes all out. Moreover, Lin Rui’s strength can’t be completely measured by energy level.

“En?! Level 4! When did Jackson get so strong!” Hearing JARVIS’s report, the expression on Tony’s face became stiff and he couldn’t believe it.

“Sir, maybe... Mr. Jackson is really the best person to deal with Hulk right now.” Without answering Tony’s question, JARVIS said in a fluctuating tone.

Judging from the JARVIS inspection, at least Lin Rui’s energy level will not be much worse than the current Hulk. Moreover, based on JARVIS’s understanding of Lin Rui, he must be stronger than this.

Without the human feelings of Tony, JARVIS, who analyzes the situation solely from the data he receives, really does not worry about Lin Rui at this moment.

“Do you really think so?” Tony asked seriously when he heard JARVIS’s words.

“Yes, Sir.”

“Then, okay, let him try! If it doesn’t work then let Charles and the others take action immediately, I don’t believe that so many people won’t be able to stop Hulk!” In the end, Tony lets Lin Rui deal with Hulk alone.

“Yes, Sir.”

Realizing that Tony was no longer following him, Lin Rui also guessed that he had given up on trying to persuade him. Lin Rui is still very happy about Tony’s trust. Therefore, facing Hulk who had noticed him, Lin Rui silently placed his hand on the Beheading Spirit Sword on his waist.

Boom!

“Hulk, I’m here!” With his eyes fixed on Hulk, who had entered the attack range below, Lin Rui leaped out of the Hoverboard after a low cry in his heart.

“That guy... is he Stark’s teammate?” Just as Lin Rui jumped off the Hoverboard and rushed towards Hulk, Dr. Banner’s consciousness inside Hulk looked at the strange figure and wondered.

Originally, in Dr. Banner’s opinion, after tearing up all of Tony’s Iron Man and then letting Hulk went his frustration on the ruins for another half an hour would be more than enough for Hulk to spent all of his energy.

But now such a guy suddenly appeared again, which made Hulk even more excited.

“Hulk!” It seemed that he felt the momentum from Lin Rui, and Hulk, who was also staring at him, opened his arms after a roar.

Boom!

In the next moment, a familiar shock wave rushed out from the palms of Hulk’s closed hands, and the target point is Lin Rui who had rushed down in the air.

Brush!

Before Tony could even get worried, a flash of Azura light flashed, and the Hulk Clap had been split apart. Behind this Azura light, Lin Rui wearing a Phantom Suit rushed towards Hulk!

Chapter 646 Mirage Knight VS Hulk 2

Whew!

Rumble!

Suddenly, the Azura rays burst out from midair, hurtling towards the Hulk below, but not many people noticed the figure following the Azura rays. However, Hulk, who was under attack, saw the figure rushing towards him through the Azura light.

“Hulk’s Opponent!” The dark green pupils of his eyes were constricted by Azura’s light, and Hulk said dully as he stared at the figure leaping towards him.

Since Hulk appeared on the battlefield, his every strike has been crushing everything. Whether it was against SHIELD’s K-Team or X-Men’s Iceman and Storm, or Iron Man, who was already ready to run away, Hulk didn’t enjoy his fight.

But now, this sudden appearance of this guy surprised him, this guy can break his Hulk Clap, and he also took the initiative to attack him on his own, this strength and courage at least can let Hulk recognize him as his opponent.

Therefore, facing the Azura sword energy rushing in front of him, Hulk raised his arms to block it.

In the next moment, the magnificent Azura Sword Aura had already overwhelmed Hulk, who was in a defensive posture. At the same time that Azura’s rays exploded, the figure following was also covered up and couldn’t be seen.

Rumble!

“JARVIS, can you still detect Jackson?” The battlefield in front of him was enveloped by Azura light, and Tony, who was flying in mid-air, asked JARVIS with a concerned expression on his face.

“Sir, although Mirage Knight and Hulk can still be detected, but due to the internal energy impact, there is no clear battlefield situation for the time being. However, it is certain that Mirage Knight and Hulk are okay.” Hearing Tony’s question, JARVIS quickly answered.

"It's okay, increase monitoring. Also, what's the situation on X-Men now? SHIELD's support should be here, too." Tony nodded and asked feeling a little more relieved.

"The X-Men are ready to provide support. Although SHIELD's support force has arrived, they are still negotiating with the military to prevent them from interfering with the battlefield again." While answering, JARVIS also projected X-Men's location in front of Tony's eyes. As for the SHIELD support team, JARVIS hasn't made a detailed report on them.

Tony felt more relieved as he looked at where X-Men and the others were at this time. X-Men, who had just listened to Rogers's and escaped from Hulk has now returned to the battlefield at Tony's request.

This time, they had sent away all the prisoners of the Mutants Brotherhood, leaving only the combatants. Moreover, Jack, who was with X-Men, already knew that Mirage Knight was fighting with Hulk, and he was definitely looking to help.

However, SHIELD's support was being dragged down by the military, which made Tony feel some anger. "Do the guys in the military have sh*t in their brains? They were the ones who used Banner's genes and serum to make their 3 Minute Fighters. They are messing around when they don't even know what the situation is! If they weren't needed for the Country's security and some good people who manage them then who would even care about them!"

Tony, who has been under pressure from the military and the U.S. Congress from the moment he created his Iron Man Armor doesn't hide his dislike for them at all.

At this time, Tony doesn't need to care about them too much. If it hadn't been for too many things involved in the military's back, Tony wouldn't have maintained his politeness on the surface.

And now that Tony has joined hands with SHIELD, he doesn't care much about the attitude of the military and the council.

"Sir, Spiderman is here." JARVIS suddenly reminded Tony when he lost his temper with the military.

Peter, who had been fighting Killian at the White House with Tony's Iron Man army, finally arrived on his own. Since Killian had been dealt with, Peter had planned to stay in Washington first, not expecting this to happen. By the time he arrived, things had already turned several times, and now Mirage Knight and Hulk were fighting each other.

"Peter? Tell him to stay aside put for now and not get close to the battlefield. Forget it, I'll go over and talk to him myself." Hearing JARVIS's words, Tony planned to have JARVIS let Peter stay aside, but in the end, he felt like he should explain the present situation to him.

Lin Rui had already started fighting with Hulk and if Peter entered the fight because he was worried about his friend then Tony would really pull out his hair in frustration. So, to be on the safe side, he still went over and speak to Peter in person.

Brush!

Just when Tony arranged for X-Men to support Lin Rui at any time by the battlefield, and when he went to find Spiderman by himself, the Azura light in the center of the battlefield finally slowly dissipated.

However, the dust raised by the shock wave generated by the violent explosion still made it impossible to see the specific situation inside the battlefield. However, the obvious huge green figure seemed to be missing.

“That is!... Mirage Knight!” When the smoke finally dispersed, Jack, who had been staring at the center of the battlefield, suddenly called out in surprise.

Standing at the forefront of the X-Men team, Jack is the most worried about Mirage Knight. After all, although the people here are all allies, only Jack is from the League of Defender, and only Jack knows that Mirage Knight is actually a young man.

Therefore, Jack is still very worried about Mirage Knight. However, after the dust gradually dispersed, Jack saw the familiar figure floating in the air, and the huge green figure was gone.

No! Not gone! Rather, it was

Boom!

“Hulk!” As the look in Jack’s eyes changed, a roar suddenly came from the center of the battlefield.

Boom!

In the next moment, a huge green figure suddenly rushed out of the ground. After rushing out of the ground, this huge figure rushed towards Mirage Knight in the air without any reduction in speed.

With arms many times larger than normal, it swung towards the “little man” in front of him.

“So it is impossible to break his defense with 80% of my power. As expected, Hulk is powerful!” Lin Rui thought quietly in his heart as he calmly stares at the figure in front of him.

Just now, Lin Rui leaped down from mid-air and pulled out the Beheading Spirit Sword and attacked with 80% of his strength and this strike was combined with the power bonus of the moment the Beheading Spirit Sword was unscathed, the power of this attack just now can be regarded as Lin Rui’s serious attack.

Otherwise, it wouldn’t be that simple to break the Hulk Clap, and he also smashed Hulk directly into the ground.

However, even though this was the first time Hulk was suppressed a little after he appeared, he still blocked Lin Rui’s attack without taking any damage. At least the two not-so-deep marks on his arms had disappeared.

“So... let’s go all out!” Lin Rui suddenly opened his eyes and let out a low roar as he saw Hulk in front of him was getting closer and closer.

Brush!

In the next moment, Lin Rui left a phantom image in the same place as his real body has disappeared.

Chapter 647 Mirage Knight VS Hulk 3

Hoo!

The moment Lin Rui disappeared from the spot, the phantom he left behind was smashed by Hulk who pounced on him. After shattering Mirage Knight's phantom image, Hulk reacted instantly and turned around to swing his fist to the right side.

However, Lin Rui, who has burst out with his full strength, is obviously more flexible in midair than Hulk who can't fly. Halfway through the punch, the two crossed Azura sword energy attacks had already struck his right shoulder.

Boom!

After a muffled sound, a cross-shaped mark appeared on Hulk's right shoulder. Although it didn't really break Hulk's defense, it was a close one.

After being attacked on his right shoulder, Hulk, who turned half of his body, had no chance to attack Mirage Knight again when he caught sight of Mirage Knight. His right fist that was thrown out was weakly swung because of the attack on his right shoulder, and the next moment Hulk roared and fell to the ground.

Pū!

Stomping two large craters in the ground, Hulk cocked his head and stared at Mirage Knight in mid-air with a dangerous glint in his eyes. Having just been slashed twice by Mirage Knight at close range, Hulk felt enough pain to make him pay attention for the first time.

The wounds that should have been instantly recovered were now still left with cross-shaped marks. Although Hulk's powerful Recovery power was constantly taking effect, that cross-shaped mark also had the Internal Energy left by Lin Rui which was constantly fighting against Hulk's recovery.

"Roar!" It seemed that he knew that even if he jumped into the air, he would not be able to attack the agile Mirage Knight. Hulk stood facing Lin Rui who was in the air and roared.

Buzzing~

Following Hulk's roar, bursts of shock waves produced purely by sound waves quickly rushed towards Mirage Knight in mid-air. However, in the face of Hulk's Sonic attack, Lin Rui just built a layer of internal energy defense on the surface of his body.

This sonic attack is far less powerful than Hulk Clap and Lin Rui doesn't need to spend too much effort to deal with it.

"This seems unfair, after all, Hulk can't fly." After blocking Hulk's sonic attack, Lin Rui thought silently in his heart as Hulk stared at him from the ground below.

Lin Rui really wants to have a good fight with Hulk, but if he stays in the air then Hulk won't be able to show much strength because he can't fly, then this battle won't have much meaning. To truly fight against Hulk, Lin Rui needs to choose a more violent way.

"Then... I'll save some internal energy and have a real head-to-head fight with him! When Hulk becomes famous in the future, then I would be regarded as someone who has fought Hulk one-on-one!" Finally, Lin Rui chose not to fly anymore as he wants to go down and fight a head-to-head battle with Hulk.

Pū! Pū! Pū!

Lin Rui, who had made up his mind, had already stepped a few times in mid-air for the next moment. The air under his feet released a sonic boom.

Lin Rui has left several irregular cuts in mid-air and has quickly pounced on the Hulk below. As Lin Rui races toward Hulk, the light on his Beheading Spirit Sword gets stronger and stronger.

But Lin Rui is not so stupid as not to use his own weapon. If he had fought Hulk with his bare hands then Lin Rui thought he might have been knocked out of his head with one blow.

Brush!

Lin Rui, who left more than a dozen phantoms in the air, finally appeared on top of Hulk's head in an instant. At the same time as he appeared, the Beheading Spirit Sword had also slashed against Hulk's head.

Lin Rui, who already knew the level of Hulk's defense, would not hold back have any hands left, anyway, even if he used 90% of his power, it should not be possible to cause much damage to Hulk.

Hoo!

However, this time Hulk seemed to have been prepared. Lin Rui holding Beheading Spirit Sword has already hacked down when a huge fist suddenly blasted up from below. When Hulk gets serious, the phantoms left behind by Lin Rui are of little use.

Dang!

The next moment, Lin Rui's Beheading Spirit Sword slammed into Hulk's huge fist and made a crisp sound, it was as if it has smashed against a superalloy.

"It's really hard!" Feeling the tremor passed from the Beheading Spirit Sword blade to his hand, Lin Rui thought with a grim expression in his heart.

Boom!

In the next moment, Lin Rui had taken advantage of the recoil of Hulk's fist to flip in mid-air and land on the ground.

The Beheading Spirit Sword held in his right hand is slightly down at his side, Lin Rui just looks like an unparalleled swordsman. At this moment, Lin Rui, facing the huge Hulk in front of her, is no less imposing.

...

Lin Rui slashed Hulk with a sword and smashed Hulk into the ground; then he easily avoided Hulk's counterattack, and then attacked Hulk and hurt his shoulder.

This series of actions only took a few seconds. However, everyone who had been watching the battlefield was shocked by what happened in these few seconds.

“That’s... Hulk actually defended!...” Rogers, who was in contact with the SHIELD support team, couldn’t help but exclaimed when he saw Hulk being attacked or even getting wounded by Mirage Knight.

In order to keep up with the current era, Rogers had to scour the Shield’s internal archives. So, he was fully aware of what a terrifying existence Hulk was.

Rogers had been forced to block Hulk’s punch, and while it looked like Rogers had blocked it, he knew in his heart that in addition to his potential for a burst, Hulk’s inexplicable retreat was also a factor.

Rogers can clearly detect that Hulk had only hit him with a little bit of his strength. Otherwise, Rogers, who has exploded out with all of his powers would not be able to block Hulk’s punch.

“Captain Rogers? Do we need to attack?” Just as Rogers exclaimed, the voice of the head of SHIELD’s support unit came from his ear.

“En? No! It’s not for you to attack! Just stop them, don’t escalate the conflict. However, if the other party has plans to attack, you can also fight back.” Withdrawing his eyes from the battle before him, Rogers heard the voice in his ear and quickly spoke.

“Yes, Captain!” Hearing Rogers’ order, the other party answered loudly.

Then Rogers turned his gaze to the battle before him again. Then, his eyes widened for an instant, and his facial expression changed from calm to unexpected.

...

“Hulk! I’m the invincible Hulk!” Staring at the little figure tens of meters away, Hulk suddenly roared.

Then, standing on the ground, Hulk’s knees slightly bent and then violently straightened. The next moment, a layer of white sonic boom suddenly appeared in front of Hulk.

Bang!

The next moment, a green figure lunged towards the figure a dozen meters away at a speed that exceeded the speed of sound.

Chapter 648 Mirage Knight VS Hulk 4

Bang!

When the green figure broke through the layer of white sonic boom airflow, a loud sound of air being extremely compressed and finally bursting out only then came out.

Seriously, Hulk went straight to the speed of sound by sheer physical force, and within a few tenths of a second, Hulk had thrown herself in front of Mirage Knight, who was standing a dozen meters away.

Hulk Crash!

Although Hulk did not have the time or the need to shout out the name of this move, it has a very dominant name as this move has enough power to crash through a building!

If the guy in front of Hulk went against him in a head-on fight then Hulk had enough confidence to knock him right off his feet. However, Hulk felt that the other side is not so simple.

Faced with Hulk's sudden Hulk Crash, Lin Rui stood there and did not escape. However, the Battle Intent in his eyes came out completely the moment Hulk broke through the sonic boom.

Swipe!

In just a fraction of a second, Lin Rui's Beheading Spirit Sword waved in front of him an unknown number of times.

When the lunging Hulk was already less than two meters away from him, Lin Rui's right hand, which had already turned into a piece of light and shade, swung violently towards the ground.

Pū Chick!

In the next moment, the Beheading Spirit Sword, which was swung a lot in front of Lin Rui, was immediately inserted into the ground by Lin Rui.

"Thunder Strike... Sword Shield!" Staring at Hulk who was hitting him in slow motion, Lin Rui let out a low voice in his heart.

Buzzing!

When Lin Rui finished shouting in his heart, the Beheading Spirit Sword that he inserted into the ground suddenly trembled violently.

Then, countless Azura sword lights suddenly flashed in the midair in front of Lin Rui. These Azura sword lights quickly lined up under the guidance of the Beheading Spirit Sword tremor, and they came to the proper position almost the moment they appeared.

Therefore, when Hulk was about to hit Lin Rui, a semi-transparent Azura Shield that was five meters high and three meters wide suddenly appeared in front of him.

This is the Sword Shield. It is Lin Rui's self-created defensive move based on the power of the thunder strike. It can defend against attacks that are almost the same as the thunder strike.

"I'll stop your attack!" The Sword Shield successfully appeared, and this fiery thought quickly flashed through Lin Rui's mind.

Being able to choose to block an attack from Hulk, Lin Rui felt that he could also be considered a guy who had the guts to fight through the sky. However, this is also the biggest trust he has in his Sword Shield Defense.

The moment Lin Rui's Sword Shield appeared to block him, Hulk's huge figure had already bumped into him. No matter what appears in front of him, the Hulk who has already made a move will not retreat!

Bang!

There was a blast out of thin air, followed by the sonic boom of Hulk breaking the speed of sound earlier, making it almost impossible for anyone who was paying attention to the fight to keep up with it.

Tony and Roger, among others, were aghast in disbelief at both Mirage Knight's previously revealed power and Hulk's now revealed flesh-breaking superspeed.

Huhu~

“Jarvis, can we get a check on them?” Tony asked Jarvis with some concern as he looked at the smoke again.

Tony had just barely managed to stop his scream when Hulk burst out and charged towards Mirage Knight. Fortunately, Tony did not do it as there was a teenager next to him.

“In the moment of exchange just now, both Hulk and Mirage Knight’s energy level has reached above Level Four. And now the energy inside the battlefield is so powerful and chaotic that it cannot be detected for the time being.” Hearing Tony’s question, JARVIS quickly answered.

“Why can’t it be detected?!” Tony was obviously dissatisfied when he heard JARVIS’s answer.

“Mr. Stark, Jackson will be fine! I believe him!” Just when Tony was a little worried for Lin Rui, Spiderman’s voice suddenly came to him.

After Peter arrived, he was told by Tony not to enter the battlefield. After knowing that Lin Rui and Hulk were fighting, Peter was not as worried as Tony.

Peter had already heard from Deadpool about Lin Rui and the mysterious story of their disappearance for so many days. Deadpool, who likes exaggerating facts and making up stories, tells Peter a fairy tale about his and Lin Rui’s experiences on another planet.

Peter is also the first person to hear the story from Deadpool. Both Spiderman and Deadpool have the property of being a chatterbox.

Peter, on the other hand, believed Deadpool’s word, so he now thinks that even though Hulk or whatever is awesome, he is no match for Lin Rui.

“You are probably the only one who would believe that kid so blindly!” Hearing Peter’s words, Tony said helplessly. Mirage Knight is indeed great, but they don’t know the terror of that Hulk.

“Look!” Just when Tony was thinking about whether to go and support Lin Rui, Peter, who had been staring at the center of the battlefield, suddenly pointed to the other side and shouted.

...

Shout!

In the middle of the smoke-filled battlefield, a black figure suddenly came flying out of the smoke. However, look at that figure flight trajectory, it seems that is not the normal self flight. Needless to say, this normal-sized figure is Mirage Knight.

“Cough! Cough! Almost didn’t block it! Hulk’s power is really insurmountable!” Lin Rui, who flew backward out of the smoke and dust, coughed twice and looked at the center of the explosion and couldn’t help but lament.

Just now Lin Rui used his strongest defensive skill, the Sword Shield, to block Hulk’s Hulk Crash. However, although the strong defensive Sword Shield blocked the initial wave of Hulk Crash, it did not block the powerful force coming from Hulk’s body afterward.

After persisting for three seconds, the huge Shield composed of countless sword lights shattered one after another under the impact of Hulk's huge figure.

After the Sword Shield were all shattered, Lin Rui could only pull out the Beheading Spirit Sword inserted into the ground to block the Hulk who continued to rush over.

Lin Rui was prepared for serious injuries after the Sword Shield shattered, but Hulk obviously consumed a lot of strength when he smashed against the Sword Shield.

When he rushed towards Lin Rui Beheading Spirit Sword, he did not have much strength left. Therefore, when the Beheading Spirit Sword was bent to the limit with Hulk's shoulders, Lin Rui abruptly blocked the Hulk Crash.

Then, he didn't give Hulk a chance to take another shot at him, and directly flicked his hand and flew out by the force of the Beheading Spirit Sword's rebound. The moment Lin Rui flew out, a huge palm just happened to pat past his position.

"Eh!?" Lin Rui, who was doing parabolic movement in mid-air, suddenly noticed the movement of the object within the smoke and dust in front of him and had already lifted the Beheading Spirit Sword, which was still trembling slightly.

Buzzing~

With the Internal Energy running through Lin Rui's body, the raised Beheading Spirit Sword revealed a ray of Azura color upon it. Soon, a huge Beheading Spirit Sword made up of Azura sword energy appeared above Lin Rui's head.

"Cut!" The arms holding the Beheading Spirit Sword trembled slightly, and Lin Rui gave a low cry towards the smoke and dust below.

Brush!!

Chapter 649 Mirage Knight VS Hulk 5

Hoo!

As Lin Rui shouted and slashed the Beheading Spirit Sword downwards, a huge green-colored figure came out of the smoke below, and it was Hulk who came out again.

Hulk leaped high before he rushed out and saw the huge Azura sword light that had been smashed in midair. Hulk, who had already tasted the power of Lin Rui's sword energy, had to let out a low roar and raised his arms above his head.

Boom!

The next moment, the translucent Beheading Spirit Sword made up of Azura Sword Energy struck Hulk on top of his head.

This time, Hulk was not directly buried into the ground like before and he slowly raised his head to stare at Lin Rui above him against the sword Energy that was much bigger than himself.

Buzzing~

The hands holding the Beheading Spirit Sword trembled slightly as they felt the powerful force transmitted from the sword energy in the sword, and Lin Rui's eyes grew sharper.

Up to now, although they have only fought for a few rounds against each other, Lin Rui has already used almost 100% of his strength.

However, this level does not seem to pose much threat to Hulk. And Lin Rui didn't want to fight Hulk with the intent to trade injuries.

"As expected of the Hulk of the Marvel World, I'm still far away from him!" Lin Rui thought helplessly in his heart as he could hardly hold the Beheading Spirit Sword in his hand.

However, in the next moment, the Internal Energy in Lin Rui's body instantly oscillated, and the Energy in his body rose again. The slightly trembling hands burst out with blue veins, and the hilt that was almost out of his grip was once again firmly grasped by Lin Rui.

"However, this time...you better go down!" Lin Rui gripped the Beheading Spirit Sword and suddenly pressed it down with a low roar.

Hoo!

With Lin Rui's roar and the pressing of both hands, the Beheading Spirit Sword, which was still in front of Lin Rui, slowly pressed downward, and the huge sword light extending from the Beheading Spirit Sword also slowly cut down.

This time, Lin Rui is unwilling to lose!

As the huge sword energy pressed down, Hulk's eyes flashed against it. It seemed that he did not expect the opponent to increase the power of the attack, and Hulk was slowly suppressed for a while.

However, after his arms were pressed down a few centimeters, Hulk suddenly roared, and the pressed arms were raised up again.

Card!

As Hulk lifted his arms against the downward pressure of the Azura sword light, a faint sound of glass shattering came out in the air. Then, a transparent crack appeared on the huge Azura sword beam on top of Hulk's head from above Hulk's arms.

Kakaka~

With the appearance of the first crack, more and more cracks were created on this huge Azura sword light. In the fight against Hulk, Lin Rui still didn't seem to be able to hold on to the end.

Pū~

As more and more cracks appeared on the Sword light, the Azura sword light on Hulk's arms was the first to crumble into a sky of Azura light with a slight shattering sound.

Then, starting from the top of Hulk's head, the large Azura sword light shattered. Soon, the Azura sword light that had pressed Hulk down to the point that he couldn't raise his head just now turned into a sky full of Azura light.

Under the blanket of Azura light, the green-skinned Hulk looked like he was in a fantasy scene.

“Roar! I am the Invincible Hulk!” After smashing the opponent’s attack, Hulk raised his head and looked at the figure above through the sky of Azura light and roared.

Buzzing~

However, just as Hulk roared, the Azura rays floating above his head suddenly gathered in the middle. In less than a second, those shattered Azura sword lights gathered on Hulk’s head in the shape of a huge hammer!

“Since the sword can’t defeat you, let’s use the hammer!” After controlling the shattered sword aura and turning them into a hammer, Lin Rui in mid-air let out a low shout and swung the Beheading Spirit Sword-shaped like a Hammer down in Hulk’s direction again.

Hoo!

Boom!

After a loud noise, Hulk, who was standing on the ground, was slapped by the huge hammer. This time, he didn’t even have a chance to raise his hand to block it.

...

When Lin Rui magically turned the shattered Azura sword fragments into a hammer and hammered the unreacted Hulk into the ground in one fell swoop, someone on the edge of the battlefield silently drew his eyes.

This person only appeared on the edge of this battlefield not long ago. Lin Rui would be very familiar with this person. This person wore crimson tights with two long Blades stuck in the back, this person is Deadpool.

“I knew it! How could Mirage Knight, who can defeat even that terrifying monster in the primal forest of the alien planet, lose to such a green-skinned ugly guy!” Deadpool didn’t even think for a moment that Mirage Knight wouldn’t be able to beat Hulk as he has full confidence in Lin Rui.

After all, Hulk is still completely inferior to the many monsters in the primal forest of the alien planet in terms of size.

“Up to now, Mirage Knight hasn’t used all his strength!” The battle on the other side of the battlefield seems to have ended with Lin Rui hammering Hulk into the ground and Deadpool thought silently in his heart.

“Eh? Is that the X-Men over there? I can’t let them see me! I don’t want to be lectured by them anymore!” Feeling that the battle is over, Deadpool saw the X-Men in the other direction of the battlefield and then muttered with a shrinking head.

Then, Deadpool quietly took a detour towards Peter while everyone’s attention was on Lin Rui.

When Deadpool appeared on the edge of the battlefield and sneaked over to Peter avoiding X-Men, other people watching the battle on the edge of the battlefield were stunned.

Because when Mirage Knight punched Hulk into the ground, they didn't even think about it. Compared to the surprise of the X-Men, Tony and Rogers, who knew Hulk's power, were shocked.

At this point, Tony has to realize that Peter has a reason to blindly trust Mirage Knight. He's really powerful enough to trust him.

As for Rogers, he was already beginning to wonder if what he was seeing was real or not. Because, with Hulk's strength, he doesn't deserve to be defeated just like that!

"JARVIS, how in the world do you think this kidJackson grew to this point? How did his strength get so strong?" Tony looked at Lin Rui who was floating in the air on the battlefield, and Tony asked JARVIS in a complicated mood.

"Sir, I can't answer this question." Upon hearing Tony's question, JARVIS answered honestly.

"Forget it, it's not a bad thing anyway."

...

Boom!

When these people on the edge of the battlefield thought that the battle should be over, a huge figure suddenly rushed out of the ground under Lin Rui's feet.

Then, this huge figure knocked Mirage Knight, who is suspended in midair and does not react, straight out of the air.

Huhu~

Pū!

Lin Rui quickly fell to the ground as he drew a parabola in the air.

Chapter 650 End

"Jackson!" Peter, standing on the edge of the battlefield, saw Mirage Knight being slammed into the ground by the huge green figure, and he couldn't help but exclaim in worry.

Hoo!

Then, despite Tony's block, Peter directly rushed to where Lin Rui fell. And Tony also rushed out as he didn't want Peter to be in danger, and he himself wouldn't tolerate what happened to Lin Rui.

When Lin Rui was suddenly hit by Hulk's counterattack, and drew a high parabola in the air like a sandbag and fell to the ground, the eyes of those who had been watching the battle flashed unexpectedly.

Then, a golden light suddenly flashed from the X-Men side. After Lin Rui was hit by Hulk, Jack had already constructed a golden magical Space Portal.

Therefore, when Lin Rui fell to more than 20 meters from the ground, a golden halo suddenly appeared beside him. In the next moment, Jack had already rushed out of it.

Call!

Jack, who rushed to Lin Rui's side, stretched out his hands as he wanted to catch Lin Rui who was falling fast, but the moment he touched Lin Rui, the expression on Jack's face changed a little.

Originally, with Jack's strength, there would be no problem at all to catch a person who was falling.

But at this time Lin Rui seemed to have lost consciousness and couldn't cooperate with Jack at all, and the impact he was hit by Hulk gave him huge kinetic energy when he flew out.

Therefore, Jack, who hugged Lin Rui from behind, only felt a strong force hitting his chest.

He was caught off guard and was directly hit by Lin Rui and they fell to the ground together. However, Jack quickly reacted.

When he falls down with Lin Rui in his arms, he has already pulled out one hand and used a few simple magic tricks to help them slow down.

So when Tony and Peter rushed over, they saw a golden light flashing in the air. Then, Jack held Lin Rui, who was unconscious, and slowly dropped to the ground by a parachute composed of golden light.

...

Lin Rui was accidentally knocked unconscious by Hulk's final impact and then saved by Jack, while Hulk, who had just made a successful surprise attack, also fell towards the ground after knocking Lin Rui away.

Brush!

And, with Hulk's fall, his huge body is slowly shrinking. When he was still about ten meters from the ground, he had shrunk to about the embodiment of a normal human, that is, he had changed back to the appearance of Dr. Bruce Banner.

"Ahhhh" When Hulk completely changed back into Bruce Banner, Dr. Banner, who only had a pair of big pants left on his body, opened his limbs in mid-air and waved them once and shouted as he quickly fell.

Pū!

After a second, Dr. Banner, who was falling down, had already plunged into the ground. His entire head was buried in the rubble, and Dr. Banner's limbs were still lying on the ground and shaking from time to time.

Compared to Lin Rui's steady landing, Dr. Banner's landing was filled with pain.

Although the battle with Mirage Knight was short, it had already consumed all the energy of Hulk's transformation this time.

If it wasn't for Hulk not wanting to lose his momentum and having to use his last energy to attack Lin Rui, Dr. Banner wouldn't be in such a mess at this point.

Huhu~Bang!

Two seconds after his head was buried in the rubble, Dr. Banner's arms slowly propped up, and then he pulled out his head. Shaking his head full of dust, Dr. Banner, who was uninjured, looked at the person who had just been hit by the Hulk.

"Huh?! A Golden Parachute?! Did someone follow that guy!" Originally, Dr. Banner was still worried about the guy who was hit by Hulk, but he signed in relief when he saw Lin Rui getting carried by someone with a golden parachute.

Huh~

Dr. Banner got up from the ground in silence and patted the dust on his body, Dr. Banner swept his eyes around him and looked a little embarrassed.

Because, X-Men and Captain Rogers, who was standing on the edge of the battlefield before, have already approached his location. And Dr. Banner, who had been transformed from the end, now only had large indestructible trousers left on him.

Huhu~

There was a breeze on the battlefield, and Dr. Banner, who was under a chill, could not wait for the SHIELD plane to land in front of him from mid-air.

After the battle between Hulk and Mirage Knight was over, Natasha had already let the Quinjet fly down towards the ground.

"But, who is the guy who fought Hulk just now? Seeing Tony Stark's worried look, he should be a very important person!" While waiting for Natasha to pick him up, Dr. Banner watched as the opposite side also fell to the ground.

Originally, Dr. Banner just wanted to try to see if SHIELD was worth his time and he also wanted to see for himself the strength of Captain America, but Hulk, who had nowhere to release his energy fought Tony's Iron Man Army but a guy suddenly came out of nowhere to fight him.

Dr. Banner, who has been abroad for a long time to help the poor people in need, has no idea about the newly Vigilante of New York, the United States. Anyway, in the situation just now, the appearance of an opponent is what Dr. Banner expects most and he didn't care about him as he wasn't planning to kill him.

However, seeing Tony Stark rushing towards the guy, Banner had to think more. If the guy who was knocked out by Hulk just now was really some important person to Tony Stark, then Dr. Banner would be in a difficult position.

After all, he was invited to cooperate with SHIELD when he came back this time, and he certainly couldn't avoid the cooperation with Tony Stark. Moreover, Dr. Banner also really wants to discuss some things with Tony on science.

"Humm! I hope that guy is fine! But I can't be blamed for this. Hulk was out of my control at that time." In the end, Dr. Banner could only think so.

Anyway, it was Hulk's job to knock others out and if Tony Stark finds his own theory then he can just push all the blame on Hulk.

Moreover, apart from Dr. Banner himself, no one knows that he is now in control of Hulk. The uncontrolled Hulk just knocked people into the air without killing them, which was the best in this situation.

Da Da Da~

When Dr. Banner was standing on the rubble wearing a pair of big trousers covered in dust, a steady footstep sounded beside him. Hearing the footsteps beside him, Dr. Banner slowly turned around.

“Hello, Dr. Bruce Banner.”
