Chapter 651 Playing The Fool

As Dr. Banner turned around, he heard an unfamiliar greeting in his ear. Still, Dr. Banner could guess who said it.

So, after turning around and seeing the figure, Dr. Banner also spoke lightly, "Hello, Mr. Rogers."

Huhu~

Looking at Bruce Banner standing on the ruins in front of him wearing big pants, covered in dust but in the hollow shape, Captain Rogers who came over pressed down the feeling of wanting to laugh out loud and looked at Dr. Banner with a gentle smile on his face.

Since taking over SHIELD, Rogers has been thinking about how to enhance the strength within SHIELD. This kind of strength does not mean the amount of personals SHIELD has, but a personal strength like that of the Avengers that can stand alone in front of powerful threats.

Although individual heroism has been weakened by the development of science and technology in the world, the existence of various superpowers still makes individual strength more important than science and technology in many cases.

What's more, Marvel's civilization and technology didn't evolve in a very gradual way, but in a very weird way. As Lin Rui knew a long time ago, Marvel World's cutting-edge technology was hundreds of years ahead of ordinary technology, which should not have existed in early civilization.

Moreover, the Marvel World has many protagonist-level characters with superpowers. As a result, the technology, while impressive, seems to have been weakened.

So if Shield wants to stand firm on the earth and truly exercise its responsibility to encircle the globe then they need strong members. And Dr. Bruce Banner is known to stand at the top of the world in terms of science and technology and in personal strength. That's why he sent Natasha to invite him back.

"Yeah." Looking closely at Steve Rogers in front of him, Dr. Banner said with slight emotion.

Huhu~

Then, another breeze blew and Dr. Banner felt a cool sensation in his lower body. Then a bright light flashed in his mind and he looked as if he had forgotten something. Looking down at his big pants, Dr. Banner's eyes blinked a few times and he suddenly became very surprised.

"Ah! Just now...did Hulk came out!?" Looking at his own big pants, Dr. Banner began to play dumb and shouted.

"....." Seeing Dr. Banner's change of face as well as his words, Rogers heart was filled with helplessness.

Had it not been for Natasha who had already informed him that Dr. Banner was about to transform into Hulk then he might really have believed Banner's words.

But now, Rogers can only let Banner off and pretend that he had unintentionally transformed into Hulk.

Rogers had already inquired about the situation on Mirage Knight. Mirage Knight's situation didn't seem to be very good. So, if Tony comes here for Dr. Banner then Rogers would have to play the peacemaker.

"Well, Hulk did show up just now. Moreover, he has caused us a lot of losses. The most important thing is that he injured one of our allies: Mirage Knight." Looking at Dr. Banner pretending to be stupid, Rogers replied after thinking about it.

"This... an ally!" Hearing Rogers' answer, Dr. Banner, who was playing dumb was even more embarrassed. However, he continued to show shocked expressions on his face.

"Really?! I'm sorry! I really can't control Hulk! I don't know what he did. However, I am willing to apologize for what he did." Dr. Banner said sincerely while pushing everything on Hulk.

At this time, Hulk would have resisted Banner for throwing him under the bus if he had not just vented his anger for a while and fell into a deep sleep. Although Hulk is another personality of Dr. Banner, he wouldn't really take the blame for something that he didn't do.

"I'm sure that's not what you would have liked, and I think we all understand that." Now that Dr. Banner was talking about it, Rogers took the opportunity to make a way for Banner to step out of this situation.

Moreover, Mirage Knight is now injured because he took the initiative to fight with Hulk. According to the situation at the time, while Hulk was venting his anger on the Iron Man Army, other people shouldn't have intervened anymore and they just needed to avoid him, no matter how good he is, what can he do? Although Tony would have lost a lot of Iron Man Armors, it was better than casualties.

"I'm sorry! I will try my best to keep Hulk from coming out!" Hearing Rogers' words, Dr. Banner said seriously.

"Well, that would be for the best." Although Rogers will definitely need Hulk's power in the future, he won't say so directly now.

After Rogers and Dr. Banner got to know each other and talked for a few minutes, Lin Rui, who was several hundred meters away from them, landed on the ground. Lin Rui was still lying unconscious.

Tony and Peter, who had rushed toward this side, and Jack, who had saved him from falling in time, surrounded his lying form on the ground and all three had worried expressions on their faces.

"JARVIS, have the scan results come out yet, is Mirage Knight seriously injured?" Staring at the half of Lin Rui's face that was not blocked by the mask, Tony asked in a worried tone towards JARVIS.

After Tony and Peter rushed over, he had already asked JARVIS to scan Lin Rui. Fortunately, Lin Rui unblocked himself from Phantom Suit in order to reassure Tony so that JARVIS could detect him in the beginning of the fight, otherwise, JARVIS would not have been able to scan Lin Rui's physical condition.

"Sir, Mr. Mirage Knight has multiple fractures throughout his body, with comminuted fractures in both arms and his chest, though his internal organs are unharmed. In addition to that, there are multiple soft tissue injuries and there should be a moderate concussion.” After Tony asked the question, JARVIS answered after waiting for two seconds.

From JARVIS’s report, Lin Rui’s injuries still sounded pretty serious. A mere comminuted fracture can be very worrying, after all, this kind of fracture is very difficult to fully recover from.

And there’s also a concussion, which can cause other problems in the head, especially since Lin Rui is still unconscious. It seems that Hulk’s last hit was also completely unexpected for Lin Rui. Or, he did it on purpose. However, if Lin Rui really did do it on purpose, then the price was a bit too high.

So, after hearing the JARVIS report, Tony, who had already dropped his helmet, instantly became extremely angry. He stared at Lin Rui’s figure on the ground, and Tony then turned his head and looked in the other direction. Over there, Bruce Banner, who has returned to normal, is chatting with Captain Rogers.

Call!

The next moment, a fierce flame spurted from Tony’s feet as he rushed over there.

Chapter 652 Confront

Brush!

“Mr. Stark!” Seeing Tony rushing out with a face full of anger, Peter, who was crouched beside Lin Rui, hastily shouted.

Although Lin Rui’s current injury looks serious, Peter still knows Lin Rui’s recovery capabilities. These are fatal injuries to ordinary people but Lin Rui would recover from them in a few days, so Peter does not want Tony to go to fight with Hulk.

Peter hadn’t noticed that Hulk had turned into a normal person over there, and he was worried that Tony might get hurt.

Call!

So, after looking at Lin Rui who was breathing steadily on the ground, Peter finally stood up.

“Jack, take good care of him! We’ll be right back!” He didn’t want Tony to face the Hulk who injured Lin Rui alone so Peter rushed after him.

Buzzing~

When Tony and Peter both rushed towards Rogers and Dr. Banner, there was a sudden fluctuation in space beside Jack. Then, a familiar purple Space Portal opened beside Jack.

Knowing that this purple Space Portal belongs to X-Men’s Blink, Jack didn’t pay too much attention to it. Although X-Men didn’t help Mirage Knight just now, no one could have predicted Hulk’s final counterattack.

Brush!

After the purple Space Portal opened wide enough, a human figure rushed out directly and instantly appeared on Jack's side.

"Mirage Knight! You..." Staring at Lin Rui who was lying unconscious on the ground, Iceman rushed over and called out worriedly.

"Is he... okay?" Seeing that Lin Rui had not responded, Iceman looked at Jack next to him and asked.

Because Iceman also could not detect Lin Rui's life-breath, so he also did not know whether Mirage Knight was dead or alive now. From Iceman's previous brief encounter with Hulk, Mirage Knight is really likely to be overwhelmed by such a solid hit.

"A lot of broken bones and a moderate concussion. He'll be fine, though." Seeing Iceman's expression, Jack knew he was overthinking it, so he opened his mouth to talk about Lin Rui's situation at this time.

Jack said this not only for Iceman but also for other X-Men who followed Iceman from the Space Portal. As X-Men who is an ally with the League of Defender, Jack will not let them worry too much about Mirage Knight.

Hoo!

"That's good, it's just a few broken bones and a concussion, this is just a minor injury for Mirage Knight!" Hearing Jack's words, Iceman sighed in relief and said.

"Well, he should be waking up soon." Nodding, Jack went on to say.

Buzzing~

And just as Jack finished saying this, his brows suddenly frowned. Because, at this moment, he suddenly felt a vague mental fluctuation slowly approaching. However, just when Jack concentrated on trying to find out where this mental fluctuation came from, he couldn't feel it again.

"En? Did I feel wrong?" Jack thought silently in his heart because he couldn't feel the mental fluctuation at all.

Huh~

And just when Jack thought he was mistaken and scanned around, Lin Rui, who was lying in front of him, suddenly moved.

"Mmmm~ uh ah~" First his arms moved, then Lin Rui let out a grunt.

"Mirage Knight! You are awake!" Hearing Lin Rui's voice, Jack, who was looking for the mental fluctuation just now, quickly looked down at Lin Rui and shouted happily.

"Uh..." After moving his arm with some difficulty, Lin Rui slowly opened his eyes.

"Hey Jack, good to see you."

When Lin Rui woke up under X-Men's onlookers, Tony and Peter had already rushed towards Rogers and Dr. Banner.

“Dr. Banner, let me talk to Stark first.” Rogers frowned and said to Dr. Banner next to him as he watched the Iron Man rushing over.

“Don’t worry, I know he’s going to be pissed right now.” Nodding, Dr. Banner said that he knew the situation now.

Bang!

However, just as Rogers took two steps forward to get in front of Dr. Banner to stabilize Tony first, Tony, who hadn’t even hit the ground yet, had fired a missile directly at their side.

“This... Tony!” Rogers was speechless at the sight of the incoming missile but he raised his shield in front of him at an angle.

Sii!

After a light sound, the missile grazed on Rogers’s shield and then took a turn and flew out.

Huhu! Bang~

The missile exploded in mid-air a few dozen meters after it was launched. Had Rogers not reacted quickly, they would have been hit just now. Looking at the aftermath of the mid-air explosion, both Roger and Banner behind him were not looking well.

Pū~

After launching a missile, Tony drove his Iron Man Armor and fell in front of Rogers and Dr. Banner. With a sound, Tony opened the helmet of his Armor.

“Steve Rogers! So you are just going to let him get away after what he did?!” Tony asked stiffly as he stared at Rogers.

Retrieving Banner or Hulk was what Rogers asked for. At first Tony didn’t even know about it because if he knew, he wouldn’t approve of it. Because Tony had seen with his own eyes how much catastrophe Hulk could bring, he really didn’t know if it was a good thing or a bad thing to call him back.

And today, Hulk’s first appearance on the show today was like that for Mirage Knight. Tony, who already regards Lin Rui as his family, is not going to take that kind of thing lying down without doing anything.

“Stark, you know very well that Hulk is out of control. Anyone could have been hurt in that situation, and isn’t Mirage Knight alright?” Hearing Tony’s words, although Rogers knew that Hulk did something wrong, but as Captain America and the Director of SHIELD, he can’t lose his momentum when facing Tony.

“So you’re saying Mirage Knight asked for it?” When he heard Rogers’ words, Tony asked with an angry expression on his face.

Originally, Tony thought Steve would be on his side, after all, SHIELD is now supported by him and the League of Defender. But he didn’t expect Rogers to open his mouth and say that, and Tony couldn’t take it well.

Mirage Knight may have started it on his own, but it ended up hurting him and leaving Hulk intact. From Tony's point of view, the responsibility lies with Hulk. Lin Rui is the one who has more to do with him.

Chapter 653 Apologized

Huh~

After Tony asked that question, Rogers and Dr. Banner who were present could feel that the aura on Tony's body begins to change.

If Tony who had just arrived had very obvious anger on him, now, the anger on him had been suppressed, and in turn, a sense of gloom appeared on his face.

"That's not what I meant, I just wanted to say that the situation just now was very uncontrollable and it's not good for anyone to get hurt. What we should be doing now is helping Mirage Knight to recover quickly, and I don't think he would want us to get into a fight over this." Seeing the change in Tony's face, Captain Rogers hurriedly explained in a long-winded manner.

Rogers cannot lose the support of Iron Man and the League of Defenders, after all, the current SHIELD's strength has been greatly reduced after various incidents.

Rogers wants the SHIELD that he took over to continue to grow, so he must have the support of Iron Man, and the support of the League of Defenders is also indispensable.

But the help of Banner or Hulk is also urgently needed by Rogers. After all, Tony and the League of Defenders will not join SHIELD, but Banner and Hulk may join in.

Moreover, there has always been a lack of someone inside SHIELD who can completely control the situation. Although Captain America is very strong, Rogers has transformed himself from a pure fighter to a leader. Therefore, the joining of Hulk is extremely important to him.

"Huh! You don't need to worry about Mirage Knight, I will take care of him!" Hearing Rogers' words, Tony said coldly.

Rogers was taken aback by Tony's attitude. Rogers didn't think that Tony would go to these lengths for Mirage Knight. Isn't Mirage Knight the Leader of a Vigilante organization?

Although they are allied, Rogers has never really put League of Defenders on the same level as SHIELD. It's just that Mirage Knight shows great strength, and Rogers needs this kind of personal support.

Huh~

Just when Rogers was taken aback by Tony, Dr. Banner, who had been standing behind Rogers just now, finally took two steps forward.

"Mr. Stark, I haven't seen you for so many years, you are still as willful as ever!" Looking at Tony in his Iron Man Armor, Dr. Banner spoke with a polite tone.

"I also haven't seen you for so many years and you still haven't changed one bit!" Seeing Banner walk out to greet him, Tony looked at him and replied. Obviously, Tony was mocking that Dr. Banner was still controlled by Hulk.

“Mr. Stark, what happened this time is indeed my fault. I am willing to apologize. I don’t know what Mr. Stark wants me to do for this.” Listening to Tony’s insincere greeting, Dr. Banner continued without minding his tone.

Dr. Banner thought that it would be okay if he took the initiative to apologize or take the responsibility to make Tony calm down. Moreover, this time he or the “Hulk” really hurt someone.

Huhu!

Brush!

While shouting, Peter had dashed between Tony and Captain Rogers and stopped between them with open arms. Although he was far away just now, Peter could still see that the atmosphere between Tony and Rogers was not right.

He was worried that the two men he admired would not be able to restrain themselves from fighting, so Peter was very serious in stopping them.

After Dr. Banner took the initiative to apologize, coupled with the appearance of Spiderman, the atmosphere at the scene eased a lot. Tony was angry when he saw Lin Rui’s miserable appearance and Rogers’s attitude. If Dr. Banner had come out to apologize at first then Tony might not have been so aggressive.

“Captain America! Hello! Where is that Hulk monster?” Seeing Tony’s face eased slightly, Peter first greeted Rogers and then asked unexpectedly after scanning the surroundings.

The expression on Rogers’s face changed a few times when he heard Peter’s words, but finally, he didn’t say anything in embarrassment.

“Huh? This gentleman, who are you? How come you’re only wearing a pair of big pants?” Not getting an answer, Peter’s attention focused on Dr. Banner in front of him and he asked curiously when he saw his peculiar sense of dressing.

“You are...” Seeing the guy in the spider suit who suddenly appeared in front of him asking him some questions, Dr. Banner asked back.

“I’m Spiderman! A member of the League of Defenders! Also a good friend of Mirage Knight!” Hearing the question from the Old Guy in front of him, Peter quickly replied.

Although Spiderman’s reputation is now very high and it has surpassed Mirage Knight, who rarely appears in front of the public, but some people do not know him, so Peter is not surprised.

“Spiderman, League of Defender, Mirage Knight’s friend, it turned out to be like this...” Hearing Peter’s answer, Dr. Banner already knew about their relationship.

“So you are Spiderman, I am Bruce Banner, a scientist. Also, I am that Hulk monster you saw just now.” Dr. Banner introduced himself without hiding anything.

He had apologized anyway, and there was no need for him to hide anything from Mirage Knight’s friends now. If he didn’t admit it then Tony would lose his temper again.

Brush!

After hearing Dr. Banner introduce himself as the Hulk just now, Peter reached out to stop his hand in front of him and fiercely withdrew it.

At the same time, the hairs on his arms under the Spiderman suit instantly rooted up, which were his Spider Senses warning him.

“You!... Are you the Hulk?!” Staring carefully at the ordinary-looking middle-aged man in front of him, Peter asked with a trembling voice.

“Yes, he was the one who wounded Mirage Knight. I wouldn’t have listened to your apology so peacefully if it weren’t for the fact that your transformation was out of your control.” After Peter asked, Tony replied from behind him.

“Stark, in that case, would you be willing to accept Dr. Banner’s apology?” Seeing that the atmosphere on the scene has finally eased up, Rogers looked at Tony and asked calmly.

Dī Dī Drops!

Just after Rogers spoke, Jarvis’s prompt suddenly sounded out in Tony’s Armor! Without answering Rogers’ questions, Tony put on his helmet and listened to JARVIS’s news.

Card~

When the helmet was opened again, Tony’s expression had softened a lot again.

“It’s not for me to decide whether to accept the apology or not. It’s always up to the person concerned to take a stand.”

Chapter 654 Doting Parent

Looking at Rogers and Dr. Banner, who was waiting for him to speak, Tony said lightly. Just now, he received a reminder from JARVIS that the unconscious Mirage Knight had woken up. So, Tony decided to let Lin Rui solve this matter by himself.

“Mirage Knight? Is he awake?” Rogers asked when he heard Tony’s words.

“En! Mirage Knight is already awake!” Spiderman replied this time as he had obviously received news from Jack.

“Let’s go over there, we don’t know how he is now?” Without talking to Rogers and the others, Tony had already flown into the air again.

Brush!

In the next moment, Tony quickly rushed back while leaving Rogers and the others behind him.

"This..." Seeing Tony's back quickly moving away, Peter, who was still in the same place, was a little embarrassed.

"Captain Rogers, let go there." In the end, Peter chose to go with Rogers and the others.

After all, Tony hadn't given Rogers and Dr. Banner much face and Peter still had to take care of it. And Peter can't fly. There are only ruins here and no tall buildings for him to swing around. He has to run if he wants to go back so it would be better to go with Rogers and the others.

"Okay." Seeing that Spiderman chose to stay behind, Rogers looked at him and smiled.

"Ah! This...!" Peter waved his hand nervously and quickly said thanks to the people he admired since childhood.

"Hehe, let's go over quickly, too." Seeing Peter's nervousness, Rogers had already raised his foot and walked quickly towards Tony.

As for Dr. Banner, he also followed silently. After what happened just now, Dr. Banner has a lot of things to think about. When Rogers invited him back, he didn't say a lot about Iron Man and the League of Defenders.

Looking at the current situation, the relationship here is much deeper than he had previously thought.

"The world is really messed up! Is it really the right choice for me to come back?" Dr. Banner thought silently as he looked at the surrounding ruins.

While Tony and the others were rushing back, Jack and Iceman were watching Lin Rui who was awake.

"Mirage Knight, how are you feeling now?" Jack asked quickly after Lin Rui woke up.

"Well, my body hurts, my hands are broken, and my ribs are also broken. My head is dizzy, but it's nothing. I can recover after a few days of rest." Lin Rui simply replied when he heard Jack's words.

In the battle just now, Lin Rui had gathered the broken sword lights and turned them into a huge hammer and then smashed Hulk into the ground. This unexpected trick also caught Hulk off guard, but Lin Rui wouldn't think that he had defeated Hulk.

The reason why Lin Rui was hit by the sudden attack of Hulk was that, in addition to the speed of Hulk's blow, Lin Rui himself wanted to end the fight.

That's why he semi-intentionally let Hulk attack himself, and he could also use this to end the fight. However, Lin Rui still misjudged the power of Hulk's last strike, and his internal energy defense was directly broken.

If it wasn't for the Phantom Suit and the protection charm Lin Rui had been carrying, he would have been more than just a little hurt.

Since Lin Rui became a Vigilante, this was the first time that he had been knocked out in a fight and that is saying something considering the fights he had been in.

This shows how powerful Hulk's power is. Lin Rui was just directly stunned by the huge impact. If it were an ordinary person, he would have been killed.

"That's good! It was really worrying to see you being knocked away just now!" Hearing Lin Rui's answer, Iceman, who was also beside him, said with relief.

"Haha, Iceman, sorry to make you guys worry, I'm really fine." At this time Lin Rui had also seen the X-Men and others standing next to him, so he smiled and said.

"It's good that you're okay!" Iceman waved his hand and said with a smile.

"By the way, Mr. Stark and Spiderman went to avenge you." Seeing that Lin Rui was really okay, Jack suddenly opened his mouth and said.

"Huh?! What!" Hearing Jack's words, Lin Rui's eyes widened in surprise as he asked.

Lin Rui comes down to fight Hulk this time was to just satisfy his curiosity. He wanted to fight against a Superhero who represents the peak of Marvel World's strength.

He really has no other ideas or plans. And didn't he talk to Tony before, but he did not seem to grasp the situation and he got himself injured. If Tony and Peter go after Hulk then that's not going to end well for anyone.

"However, since knocking you off your feet, that Hulk seems to have shrunk, and is now nowhere to found." Seeing Lin Rui's worried look, Jack added another sentence.

"Disappeared?... Could it be..." Lin Rui's eyes flashed as he muttered in his heart when he heard Jack's words.

If Hulk had shrunk then doesn't it mean that he had changed back into Bruce Banner? In this case, Tony and Peter would not be in danger. Lin Rui was relieved as he thought of this.

Brush!

Not long after Lin Rui woke up, he spoke a few words with Jack and Iceman. Before he had time to talk to Professor Charles behind them, an Iron Man quickly flew towards them.

Huhu~Bang!

With a sharp turn in the air, the Iron Man has fallen in front of Lin Rui. Then, with a bang, the steel armor helmet opened, revealing Tony's worried face inside.

"Mirage Knight, how do you feel?" Tony asked quickly when he walked a few steps in front of Lin Rui.

"I am okay. It's not like you don't know my body's recovery ability, this little injury will not do anything to me." Seeing Tony's worried look, Lin Rui said with a smile.

"Don't take this as a joke just because you are well! Who said to me before that they would grasp the right measure and not let themselves get hurt?" Hearing Lin Rui's words, and then seeing his smiling look, Tony said in a serious tone.

“Uh...this, it was a moment of carelessness! That Hulk is really amazing! By the way, Mr. Stark, did you go to him just now?” Seeing the serious expression on Tony’s face, Lin Rui shrank his neck and said. Then Lin Rui asked again to change the subject.

“It’s fine if you know how what you did. I have already met him just now. He will come over and apologize to you later, you should know what to say.” Tony’s anger was mostly relieved when he saw that Lin Rui was okay and he answered.

“Huh? Banner... will he come over to apologize?” Lin Rui asked in surprise when he heard Tony’s words. This time it wasn’t a big deal in itself, Lin Rui didn’t think that Hulk or Dr. Banner would apologize to him.

“It’s up to you to handle the situation.”

When he finally finished his reminding, four figures had already walked in from behind him.

Chapter 655 Conference

Hoo!

Seeing the four figures approaching, Lin Rui, who was lying on the ground, hurriedly rolled over and was about to get up.

Pū!

However, he just moved and his body with multiple fractures fell down again.

“Hiss~” Lin Rui, who fell face-to-face, couldn’t help taking a breath of pain, and then he wanted to get up again.

“I’ll help you.” Seeing Lin Rui’s embarrassed look, Jack next to him quickly reached out and helped Lin Rui up.

Then, with Jack’s support, Lin Rui finally stood up. However, in such a short period of time, his injuries are unlikely to have recovered by much. Therefore, Lin Rui can only endure the pain in his body and try to make his eyes look calmer.

“Still trying to act strong” Seeing Lin Rui crawl up in pain, Tony who had been watching him thought helplessly in his heart. Then Tony also turned around to face the four people who came from the back.

Da Da~

When Lin Rui got up from the ground, Captain Rogers and the others had already arrived. Dr. Banner, who has been following Rogers is now fully dressed. As for where the suit on his body came from, one would just need to look at the slim figure behind Rogers.

When Rogers and the others walked towards Lin Rui, Natasha, who had been flying in the air before, had already come down. Natasha, who came down, brought Banner a set of clothes, and then followed Rogers.

This time, it was Captain Rogers who represented SHIELD covering Dr. Banner. When facing the League of Defender, X-Men, and Iron Man, SHIELD seemed to have a few people on this site, so it would be nice to have Natasha with him.

“Mirage Knight! Haha, I knew you’d be fine!” After getting closer, Peter had shouted happily and rushed to Lin Rui.

“En?” When Peter rushed out, Dr. Banner had already noticed the guy who had just fought Hulk for a few rounds. However, Dr. Banner was surprised by Lin Rui’s current state.

“It seems Mirage Knight is not seriously hurt, so things will be much better.” Captain Rogers, who also saw Lin Rui, thought silently in his heart, he was worried that Mirage Knight was seriously injured and Tony would not let this matter go that easily.

Phew~

“Mirage Knight, I apologize on behalf of SHIELD for what happened just now.” Before Dr. Banner could speak, Rogers had already walked quickly to Lin Rui and spoke.

Captain Rogers’s apology not only put down enough attitude but he also indirectly spoke that the things caused by Hulk are on SHIELD. In this way, even if Dr. Banner still hesitated to join SHIELD, it would be hard for him to refuse directly.

Hearing Rogers’ apology, Lin Rui nodded slightly and said nothing. Tony reminded him just now. Even if Lin Rui felt nothing in his heart, he could not appear to be too cheap at this time. After all, their alliance is equal. Therefore, after Rogers apologized, Lin Rui’s eyes slowly moved towards the back in the direction of Dr. Banner.

‘Is this Bruce Banner? If I didn’t know that there is a Hulk with amazing fighting power hidden inside him then he looks really ordinary.’ Looking up and down at Dr. Banner, Lin Rui thought silently in his heart.

While Lin Rui silently sized up Dr. Banner, he had also approached.

“Hello, Mirage Knight, My name is Bruce Banner. I’m sorry that Hulk hurt you just now. He was out of control.” When he walked towards Lin Rui, Dr. Banner introduced himself first and then he apologized.

“So you’re Dr. Banner! I’m glad to meet you! It’s true that what just happened was partly my fault, it’s nothing to do with you.” Seeing Dr. Banner apologize, Lin Rui also no longer put on a show and he smiled and said.

While talking, Lin Rui also wanted to reach out and shake hands with Dr. Banner. However, because his arm bones were broken, he couldn’t even use them. Therefore, Lin Rui shook his shoulders a little awkwardly.

“Um... I’m sorry, my arms have been broken.” Lin Rui couldn’t lift his arms so he looked at Dr. Banner in front of him and said with some embarrassment.

“Uh... it doesn’t matter! I am sorry!” Dr. Banner said quickly when he heard Lin Rui’s words. The broken arm of Mirage Knight was caused by Hulk. How could Dr. Banner now mind that he couldn’t shake his hand?

“Okay, then this matter is resolved today. Mirage Knight, I didn’t know you were this strong. You really opened my eyes today.” Captain Rogers said with a smile after Lin Rui accepted Dr. Banner’s apology.

Now that Mirage Knight had accepted Dr. Banner’s apology, Tony Stark wouldn’t say anything anymore. Moreover, from what Mirage Knight said just now, he obviously knew Banner r he must have heard about him, so his battle with Hulk today may not have been an accident.

Therefore, Captain Rogers is completely relieved now. However, there are other things he needs to worry about.

When Dr. Banner apologized, Professor Charles, who hadn’t come over to the side before, had slowly come over pushing his wheelchair.

Professor Charles did not speak up when Rogers and the others were talking just now, but only observed silently from the sidelines. Although no one said that Dr. Banner was the Hulk just now, but Professor Charles quickly figured it out.

‘Indeed, one can never underestimate this world! There will always be people with great strength that you don’t understand.’ Looking at Dr. Banner, who was not the slightest bit different from an ordinary person in front of him, Professor Charles thought silently in his heart.

Compared with the reformed people researched by the military, he can’t see the limits of the real Hulk and his performance after recovering is normal which also far surpasses those reformed people.

Now, the previously controlled reformer Soldiers have already shrunk from the status of the Green Giant to the status of an ordinary person.

In addition to most of them have fallen into a deep and severely injured coma, there are also a few who directly collapsed and died due to excessive physical exhaustion.

“Hello Professor Charles, I’ve heard about you a long time ago. I’ve always admired what you’ve done for Mutants and for humanity in general.” After listening to Rogers’ introduction, Dr. Banner looked at Professor Charles and said seriously.

Chapter 656 Leaves

Next, in a more harmonious atmosphere, Dr. Banner got to know all the people present. However, the expression on Captain Rogers’s face was not much better because of the harmony between Mirage Knight and Hulk.

After receiving a message, RogersCaptain went ahead and left. As for where he was going and what he was going to do, everyone present can probably guess it.

“Let’s go, too. Although the injury on your body is not serious for you, you should use Recovery Serum earlier.” Seeing that Rogers has left with SHIELD, Tony looked at Lin Rui, who was seriously chatting with Jack, and said.

When Rogers left, besides Team K, Natasha and Dr. Banner left together. And now the battle here is over, so they can take their time. So, Tony, they don’t have to stay in the ruins.

“Well, let’s go.” Lin Rui quickly agreed upon hearing Tony’s words.

Lin Rui disappeared for several days before returning. He just reported to his family that he was safe and he had yet to return home. If his injury does not recover in time for Recovery Serum, then his parents at home will be very worried.

Then, he said goodbyes to Iceman, and X-Men and Lin Rui looked at Jack beside him. Lin Rui has been very interested in him since he learned that Jack learned magic in New York Sanctum, and has been discussing his magic with him just now.

“You are going back to New York, right? I know.” Seeing Lin Rui looking at himself, Jack said with understanding.

Buzzing~

Then Jack directly stretched out his hand and drew a circle in front of him and a Magical Portal appeared in front of Lin Rui and the others.

Compared with the Space Portal created by Blink with her ability, Jack’s Magic Space Portal looks even more magical. Through this golden aperture, Lin Rui could already see the League of Defender base on the opposite side.

“Let’s go! Back to New York!” Finally returning to his base camp, Lin Rui shouted happily and walked into the Magic Space Portal.

Behind Lin Rui, Peter quickly followed, then Jack, and finally Tony. After Lin Rui and the other three entered the Magic Space Portal, the golden aperture quickly shrank, and finally disappeared in front of Professor Charles and others.

“Yes, let’s go back too.” Professor Charles nodded when he heard Iceman’s words.

Brush~

After Charles spoke, Blink also directly waved her hand to draw a Purple Space Portal. Then, several people from X-Men walked in one by one and soon disappeared from the ruins.

When this Purple Space Portal disappeared, only the military reformed soldiers were left on the ruins. Because of the side effects of their transformation, these reformed fighters are already seriously injured even if they are not dead.

It is still a question of whether the military will come to rescue them. However, Lin Rui and Professor Charles, who have left, would not care about this issue.

Poo!

And just after Lin Rui and Professor Charles left, a sneaky figure suddenly appeared near where they were just now. Looking at that familiar head, it turned out to be Deadpool who just came around from the edge of the battlefield.

“What!...the...f~~k! Where is everyone!” Deadpool yelled directly as he stared at the area in front of him.

In order to avoid the X-Men group, Deadpool has been circling around the edge of the battlefield. He had thought that he could wait for X-Men and the others to leave before meeting Mirage Knight and the others, but Deadpool did not expect that it was Mirage Knight and the others who would leave first.

Moreover, Deadpool also came to the battlefield without contacting other people, so Lin Rui and the others did not wait for him.

Poo!

Deadpool, who didn't see anyone, sat down on the ruins. He was tired after walking around most of the battlefield. Now that he couldn't see people, he didn't want to take another step.

In particular, Deadpool found a person halfway around the battlefield, and in the spirit of curiosity, Deadpool carried the half-dead man on his back. Now, Deadpool is lying next to a guy who looks dead.

Pū~

Deadpool, who was sitting on the ground, glanced at the “Corpse” he was carrying on his back and then kicked it boredly.

Just now, when Deadpool was walking around the battlefield, he found this ‘Corpse’ beside a huge alloy iron block. At that time, Deadpool thought he was a dead person. But when Deadpool approached, he found that he was still alive, although it seemed that he was dying.

Originally, with Deadpool's character, he would not care about this kind of thing as the life and death of others had little to do with him. But when Deadpool was about to leave, his heart suddenly trembled, and then he went back to carry him as if he suddenly had a great kindness.

“You, I don't know what kind of nerve I have to carry you, is it just because you are Mutants?” Deadpool spoke to himself after he kicked the almost dead person beside him.

When Deadpool was about to leave, he suddenly felt that this dying guy seemed to be quite important. So, he went back and carried him up.

However, along the way, Deadpool has also discovered that this guy is healing himself physically which means that he is a Mutant. Now, Deadpool is already getting a little impatient with him.

“Ah! Don’t I have my communicator with me? I’ll just contact Sky’s Eye and ask Mirage Knight and the others to come back for me!” After sitting on the ruins and eating dust for a while, Deadpool suddenly remembered that he seemed to be carrying the communicator of League of Defender’s team.

Dī Dī~

“Sky’s Eye, I’m Deadpool, I’m still in Washington, tell someone to come and pick me up.” Soon, the communication was connected, and Deadpool cheekily said to Jerry on the other end of the communication.

“Well, then I’ll wait here.” After receiving the answer from Jerry, Deadpool agreed and hung up the communication.

“Uh... I really want to forget your existence...” Deadpool, who hung up the communication, saw the Anonymous Person at his feet, and then murmured a little embarrassingly.

Buzzing~

Just when Deadpool was thinking about making another phone call to tell Sky’s Eye that there was another person on his side, a spatial fluctuation came out in front of Deadpool. Then, a golden light appeared out of thin air, and soon a magic space door appeared in front of him.

“Jack!” Through this Magic Space Portal, Deadpool saw Jack and League of Defender’s base on the opposite side.

“Come here.” Without any nonsense, Jack said to Deadpool while maintaining the Magic Space Portal.

“Oh! Coming!” Upon hearing Jack’s words, Deadpool quickly agreed.

Whew!

Then, Deadpool carried the nameless man beside him and walked into the Magic Space Portal before him.

Chapter 657 Recovery

Pū!

Deadpool, who passed through the Magic Space Portal, threw the nameless man on the ground. Anyway, Deadpool knew that this guy looked seriously injured, but he couldn’t die. Then, Deadpool looked around and didn’t see Mirage Knight and Spiderman.

“Huh? Didn’t you come back together? Why don’t I see Mirage Knight and Spiderman? Also, Jack, since when are you able to do that? Where did you go and how did you learn this? “Without seeing Mirage Knight and Spiderman, Deadpool asked Jack a lot of questions.

“Mirage Knight was injured, and he followed Iron Man. We don’t have a complete Recovery Serum system here yet, and Spiderman has followed him. As for me? I left to learn new things. My ability is almost non-existence at this point and this is magic. It belongs to a special ability. As for where I learned it, this is a secret and cannot be said.” Hearing Deadpool’s question, Jack briefly explained a few words.

“Oh, don’t worry, I know all about the existence of Sorcerers and I can guess where you learned your magic from. By the way, you don’t know where I went missing before, and what I have experienced?” Hearing Jack’s explanation, Deadpool nodded and said. He then remembered what he thought of and leaned in front of Jack and asked.

Because Deadpool and Lin Rui immediately started their action against Killian after they came back, Deadpool has not had time to share their magical experience on another planet with others.

Except for a Spiderman, Deadpool has only talked to Vanessa. And now, Deadpool really wants to share his magical experience with these partners. If Mirage Knight was allowed to speak first then Deadpool would not have that special sense of accomplishment.

“Uh... were you missing? Oh~ you seem to have disappeared with Mirage Knight, I remember now.” Seeing Deadpool coming up, Jack took a step back in silence and then said lightly.

Jack really forgot about the disappearance of Deadpool. Everyone paid attention to Mirage Knight and no one thought about Deadpool who was brought along with him.

“You...” Upon hearing Jack’s words, Deadpool almost spits out blood in anger.

“So, where did you go during the missing days? Looking at you, something special and memorable should have happened, right?” Jack then asked in order not to let Deadpool feel too embarrassed.

“Well, we went to a place you could never have imagined! You know we were dealing with Killian’s Extremis warriors, and then Sky’s Eye told me Mirage Knight had found a space tunnel, and then I” Seeing Jack finally asking him about his trip, Deadpool organized his emotions and began to speak from the beginning.

However, just after Deadpool said the first two sentences, Jack suddenly saw the anonymous man who had been thrown on the ground by Deadpool at random and then interrupted Deadpool’s words.

“Hey, who is this guy? Why did you bring him into our base?” Jack asked as he looked at the anonymous person on the ground.

“Jack! You!...” After finally sorting out his emotions, he was talking to Jack about his magical experience on another planet these days but he was inter, and the anger in Deadpool’s heart was about to be overwhelmed.

“I don’t know who he is! I just saw him on the battlefield just now, and then I carried him back for god knows why, do whatever you want with him!” Deadpool, who was interrupted in his storytelling, replied impatiently.

Now Deadpool doesn’t care about this guy. What he cares about is him who had come back alive from an Alien Planet.

“Oh, let’s put him here first, maybe he is someone lucky who survived the battle just now. Let’s talk about it when Mirage Knight and the others come back, anyway, he won’t wake up now.” Hearing Deadpool’s answer, Jack said lightly.

“Okay, go ahead. Mirage Knight found a Space Portal, and then?” After asking about the situation of the unknown person, Jack looked at Deadpool again and asked.

Deadpool: “...”

Phoo~

While Deadpool was carrying the nameless man back to the League of Defender base, Lin Rui was lying down in Stark’s private Recovery Serum pod under the arrangement of JARVIS.

Although Lin Rui’s injuries can be quickly recovered by spending Reward points on his own, but Lin Rui will not spend too many Reward points unless necessary, the Reward points he had accumulated were almost consumed on that Alien Planet.

Now Lin Rui has returned to the former state of being poor. However, compared to the past, at least Lin Rui’s current strength is much stronger, and he did not need the Reward Points at his current stage.

Moreover, although the Reward Points are almost spent, Lin Rui is not without gain. Lin Rui intends to wait until the recent things are finished, and then take a good inventory of his recent gains, maybe there is something unexpected there.

“Jackson, are you thinking about something? I found your brain waves are very active.” Just as Lin Rui was lying in the Recovery Serum cabin thinking about it, JARVIS’s voice suddenly came out.

“Hehe, just thinking about some stuff. JARVIS, you are becoming more and more like a person now.” Lin Rui said with a smile when he heard JARVIS’s words.

“Is that bad?” While Recovery Serum was working on Lin Rui’s injury, JARVIS chatted with Lin Rui.

“It’s not bad, but I’m a little worried.” Lin Rui, who knows the plot of the Marvel movie world, doesn’t know if JARVIS will “die” if it develops like this, so he can only say so.

“Worried about what? Worried about the emergence of intelligent life threat to humanity?” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, JARVIS then asked.

According to the evolution of JARVIS and the internal core algorithm, this should be a general concern of human beings about the continuous development of artificial intelligence. Therefore, JARVIS also believes that Lin Rui is worried about this.

No, that’s not what I’m worried about. I’m just, forget it, maybe that kind of thing won’t happen. After all, it’s all changed so much already.” Hearing JARVIS’s words, Lin Rui gently shook his head and replied, then spoke in a somewhat inexplicable tone.

“What has changed?” Not understanding Lin Rui’s words, JARVIS then asked.

“Uh...it’s nothing, how long will it take? I feel itchy inside my arm.” Without saying more, Lin Rui turned the subject away and asked.

“The Recovery Serum had just started working. According to your physical fitness, the first phase of Recovery Serum will be over in about an hour.” Seeing that Lin Rui also has no intention to say more, JARVIS was very sensible and didn’t ask any questions.

Buzzing~

Then, Lin Rui lay at ease in the Recovery Serum cabin to let the Recovery Serum work on his injured body. Taking advantage of this rare break time, Lin Rui can also think about the experience of the past few days.

The past few days he spent on a different planet may be just a fantasy experience for Deadpool, but for Lin Rui, the gains are more than that. As for this accident, Lin Rui came into contact with another protagonist of Marvel World, that is, the Star-Lord mixed in the universe: Peter Quill.

“I don’t know when I will see them again next time. I hope they will be well in the universe.” After giving his blessing to these newly made friends in his heart, Lin Rui closed his eyes and rested.

Chapter 658 Following

Outside the Stark Private Recovery Serum room, Tony and Peter both saw Lin Rui’s mouth moving in the transparent Recovery Serum pod but they couldn’t hear the sound. So they also both knew that Lin Rui was talking to JARVIS, not to them. Moreover, JARVIS hadn’t externalized the conversation between them.

“JARVIS, what did you say to Jackson just now?” Tony asked directly after Lin Rui closed his eyes and rested because he was curious about the conversation between Lin Rui and JARVIS.

“Nothing, Mr. Jackson just asked some questions on Recovery Serum.” After Tony asked, JARVIS quickly answered.

JARVIS, whose internal core system has evolved to a certain degree, will not lie to Tony yet, but he can selectively answer Tony’s questions.

JARVIS did talk to Lin Rui about the Recovery Serum issue just now, but they didn’t just talk about these, so his answer is not a lie. In this case, if JARVIS didn’t say it then Tony wouldn’t know what he was hiding.

“Really?” Tony was a little confused when he heard JARVIS’s answer.

Lin Rui in the Recovery Serum cabin seems to have said a lot just now and it doesn’t seem like they have been talking about the Recovery Serum all the time. However, Tony would not doubt JARVIS’s answer, after all, JARVIS was “Raised” by Tony. So, he didn’t ask anymore.

“Yes, the initial Recovery Serum only takes one hour to end. At that time, Mr. Jackson’s bones will be adjusted to the proper position.” Tony did not ask further, and JARVIS reported the situation about the Recovery Serum.

“Well, let Jackson take a good rest, we won’t bother him,” Tony said lightly when he heard JARVIS’s report.

“Yes, sir.”

“Peter, come with me. I heard that you have heard from Deadpool about Jackson’s disappearance in the past few days, tell me about it.” It will take an hour for Lin Rui to recover and Tony looked at Peter beside him and said.

“Okay, Mr. Stark.” Peter nodded when he heard Tony’s words.

Phoo~

Then, Tony and Peter left the Recovery Serum room, leaving Lin Rui alone, but JARVIS was always with him.

...

While Lin Rui was lying in Stark’s private Recovery Serum cabin, Captain Rogers had already returned to the SHIELD’s headquarters with Team K, Natasha, and Dr. Banner.

However, the expression on Rogers’s face was not so good when he returned to the headquarters. Because Rogers was still in a meeting with the military for a while. Finally, the conflict ended with Rogers handing over Stryker.

Although Rogers knew from the start that Stryker was out of his reach, this was the first time he had encountered such a tough military blockade on a single issue.

Rogers would not have simply surrendered Stryker, at least not until it cost the military a big price but Shield had been concerned about the strength of the U.S. Military.

Through all this, it became clear to Rogers that there was a need to aggressively develop the capabilities within SHIELD. So Rogers is pleased with the addition of Dr. Bruce Banner.

“Dr. Banner, I am glad you chose to join SHIELD. I will do my best to meet all your requirements in SHIELD. No matter what experiment you want to do, I will agree to it as long as SHIELD can provide the materials for it.” Dr. Banner visited the SHIELD Headquarters, and Rogers finally took him to the top floor overlooking SHIELD’s magnificent technology.

“Captain Rogers, I know your trust in me. Don’t worry, since I choose to come back, I won’t hide anymore.” Hearing Rogers’ words, Dr. Banner said seriously.

In order to control the Hulk in his body, Dr. Banner has been hiding for so many years and has been living alone for so many years without any contact with his former friends and relatives.

Now, Dr. Banner, who can roughly control Hulk would not choose to continue to hide. As one of the world’s top genius scientists, Dr. Banner has a lot of ideas he can contribute to science.

Not to mention any contribution to the world’s scientific and technological progress, even Dr. Banner himself wants to achieve something. For him, technological advancement is more exciting than Hulk’s invincible strength.

“So, Dr. Banner, what do you need now?” Rogers asked as he looked down at the airborne Helicarrier in the plaza inside SHIELD.

“Right now, I think what I need most is not any experimental conditions. Rather, I would like to work with Tony-Stark. I have worked with him many years ago, and although his character has not changed much over the years, he does have real talent.” Hearing Rogers’ words, Banner wasn’t smiling as he said this.

“Working with Tony? I don’t think he would refuse as long as you are willing to work with him.” Although it was a little unexpected that Dr. Banner offered this condition, Rogers did not think Tony would refuse.

Because from the beginning, Tony appeared to be looking forward to Dr. Banner’s return. Although their meeting was a bit unpleasant at first because of Mirage Knight, Mirage Knight had already said that it was okay, and Tony would not worry about this anymore.

“Then, the next step is the standard laboratory. I would also need permission to see SHIELD’s internal information. I think you should be able to do this.” If the cooperation with Tony was okay then Banner will need the subsequent material preparation.

“Sure, no problem!”

Da Da~

In the X-Mansion, in the Underground Base, Iceman, who had just finished setting up those from Mutants Brotherhood, arrived outside Professor Charles’ office.

Standing at the door for a few seconds, Iceman, whose face was somewhat torn, finally raised his hand and prepared to knock on the door.

Card~

However, just as Iceman raised his hand to knock on the door, the mahogany door opened automatically from the inside as Storm walked out of the room.

“Iceman, are you looking for the professor?” Seeing Iceman at the door, Storm greeted and asked.

“Uh... yeah.” Iceman nodded and replied calmly.

“Robert? Come in.” After Storm left, the figure of Professor Charles came from the office in front of Iceman’s eyes.

Phoo~

Hearing the professor’s voice, Iceman’s eyes flashed and he finally pushed the door and walked in.

Chapter 659 Thoughts

After walking into Professor Charles’s office, Iceman naturally sat down on the chair opposite to Professor Charles’s desk. However, while sitting down, Iceman just glanced at Professor Charles who was sitting opposite to him and didn’t say anything.

Phoo~

After sitting in silence for several minutes, Professor Charles across the desk slowly put down his book. Then he looked up at Iceman across the desk.

“Robert, do you have something you want to ask me?” Looking at Iceman, whose face was slightly tangled, Professor Charles spoke first.

Hearing Professor Charles’s words, Iceman raised his head and looked at him, “Yes, I do have something to ask you.”

“It’s about Mirage Knight, right?” As if knowing what Iceman wanted to ask, Professor Charles asked.

“Yes! Professor, I know there are many things you won’t tell us. However, on the battlefield just now, I noticed that you used your telepathy on Mirage Knight. Why did you do that?” Iceman looked at Professor Charles’ eyes seriously and asked.

That’s right, that’s what Iceman had been struggling with for a long time this time and came to ask Professor Charles.

On the battlefield, Mirage Knight was knocked out by Hulk’s final blow. Before Mirage Knight was awakened, Professor Charles used his telepathy ability to detect Mirage Knight’s mind very vaguely, that is also when Jack noticed the fluctuation of Psychic Power in his surroundings.

However, when Professor Charles’ telepathy touched Mirage Knight’s body, he had already awakened. So, Professor Charles just withdrew his telepathy.

At that time, Jack was not seeing an illusion, but a real Psychic Power fluctuation, only Jack’s Psychic Power was not strong enough to determine where the psychic fluctuations come from.

In addition to Jack, Iceman, who was also standing next to Lin Rui at the time, also noticed the vague Psychic Power fluctuations. Unlike Jack’s uncertainty, Iceman is very familiar with Professor Charles’ telepathy power.

At that time, Iceman knew that Professor Charles had made a move but due to the situation at the time, Iceman could only endure his question in his heart.

It wasn’t until he returned to X-Men’s base camp that Iceman, who had been holding back in his heart, came over to Professor Charles to ask this question.

“Robert, do you know Mirage Knight?” Without immediately answering Iceman’s question, Professor Charles looked at him gently and asked a seemingly insignificant question.

“Mirage Knight is a very good companion and a person who deserves to be a good friend!” Hearing Professor Charles’s question, Iceman answered without any hesitation.

However, Professor Charles, who heard Iceman’s answer, shook his head slightly, “No, you don’t know him, you just know what he shows to you. Including us, we all just know what Mirage Knight shows us. On the other hand, none of us really know Mirage Knight.”

"This..." Hearing Professor Charles' words, Iceman subconsciously wanted to refute but he didn't know how to refute it for a while.

Indeed, since knowing Mirage Knight, Iceman has never seen Mirage Knight's real face under his mask.

Although half of Mirage Knight's face can be seen and it can be inferred that he is a young man. However, Iceman and the others really don't know what Mirage Knight looks like and who he is in real life.

"But that doesn't stop me from thinking of him as a good friend! Besides, haven't we strategically joined forces with the League of Defenders? Do we still have to use telepathy on our allies? This is not something you should do, Professor." After thinking about it, Iceman still put out his thoughts.

"Indeed, even if we don't know who Mirage Knight really is and what kind of person he is in real life, at least what he showed us is still a very good side. For an ally, Mirage Knight is also doing a very good job, and League of Defender is strong and has a lot of potential for improvement." Hearing Iceman's words, Professor Charles nodded and said.

"So..."

"However, don't you think that Mirage Knight is too mysterious? He is an ally who we can trust to watch our backs but we don't even know who he really is. Moreover, there are many magical things about Mirage Knight that you don't know. For example, he possesses a certain ability to predict or rather foresee the future. Moreover, Mirage Knight can always come up with something that does not exist in this world. For these, you don't know or understand, but I do." When Iceman still wanted to speak, Professor Charles went on to say.

Hearing Professor Charles's words, the expression on Iceman's face gradually changed. Perhaps, he really didn't understand Mirage Knight. He regards Mirage Knight as a good friend but what about the other party?

Iceman had some doubts about Mirage Knight for the first time. However, after thinking about the process of getting along with Mirage Knight, Iceman felt that Mirage Knight treated him very sincerely, and there was no deliberate concealment in his actions.

"No matter what, Professor, you shouldn't have used your telepathy to read Mirage Knight's mind while he was unconscious. If you really want to know Mirage Knight's true identity then I think you could have asked him. I think, if there are no special circumstances then Mirage Knight would be willing to tell us." Iceman spoke again.

"Even if you don't come to me today, I will still find an opportunity to go to Mirage Knight. Because, when I made telepathic contact with Mirage Knight today, I was already discovered by him." Hearing Iceman's words, Professor Charles's eyes flashed as he spoke.

"Eh?! Discovered?!" Hearing Professor Charles say that his telepathy was discovered, Iceman was very surprised. Wasn't Mirage Knight unconscious at that time? Apart from him, no one should have been able to detect Professor Charles' strike at that time.

"Never underestimate anyone, especially someone like Mirage Knight." Professor Charles said in a deep tone.

“Then he...”

“Even though Mirage Knight found out, he wouldn’t tell anyone. Maybe, he’s also waiting for me to come to him.” Professor Charles said with a smile on his face as he looked at the puzzlement of Iceman’s face.

“I will go with you!” Iceman said as he heard this.

If Professor Charles’ telepathy attack on Mirage Knight breaks their relationship with Mirage Knight and even the League of Defenders then that would be something Iceman is very unwilling to see.

“Relax, Mirage Knight is not the kind of person who disregards the overall situation. Perhaps, this time he will take the initiative to tell me who he is.” Seeing Iceman’s nervousness, Professor Charles said indifferently.

“As for now, we have other things to worry about. Erik saw Quicksilver and Scarlet Witch today. Maybe he will visit us soon. We have to get ready.”

“Okay, Professor!”

Chapter 660 Heart of Life

Huhu~

In the Recovery Serum chamber of Stark’s private Recovery Serum room, Lin Rui’s eyes were closed as he peacefully received the most complete Recovery Serum, and while receiving Recovery Serum, Lin Rui also took this free time to organize what he had gained during this time.

After returning from the Alien Planet, Lin Rui once again jumped into the action against Killian, and only now was he able to rest a little because of the injury.

“There aren’t many Reward points left after I used them to survive under the Ancient Relic and the S-Class lifeform.” Thoughts wandered around in his mind as Lin Rui swept a glance at the location where the Reward Point count was placed and thought helplessly.

Before the appearance of Ancient One, Lin Rui relied on the Reward Points he had accumulated before to redeem a lot of life-saving things in the System Shop, otherwise, he might not have lasted long enough for Ancient One to make a move.

Of course, perhaps Ancient One just wanted to see what Lin Rui could come up with when he was pushed to the brink.

“However, this unexpected trip to a different planet is not without any gains. At least, these things I brought back should be worth a lot of money.” He had consumed a lot of Reward Points but Lin Rui gained some things too.

Lin Rui also fought with the local primitive lifeform more than once on the Alien Planet. In addition to the completely unstoppable S-class monster at the back, the two B-Grade lifeforms Lin Rui encountered before were not simple either.

And the plant-like monster that Lin Rui killed after he broke out with all of his strength, even sparing himself from injury left something behind after it was killed by Lin Rui. Now, the things obtained from the B-Grade plant-like lifeform are in Lin Rui's portable space.

Lin Rui guessed that this kind of thing can also be exchanged for a lot of Reward points in the System Shop. And Lin Rui has more than that in his Portable space.

In addition to the remains of the B-grade plant Lifeform, Lin Rui also has a collection of native species from the alien planet. There are not only the plants from the primeval forest but also some lifeforms destroyed by Lin Rui.

In order to collect these things, Lin Rui had a lot of meaningless battles when he crossed over to the forest. As for the reason why Lin Rui collected these things, of course, it was to bring them back to Earth for research.

It's already hard to come to a different planet, and it's a planet with life, and the environment looks very similar to the earth. Wouldn't it be wasteful to go back without something?

In addition, the upgraded Phantom Suit has the ability to record the environment of the Alien Planet, so maybe Lin Rui will be able to simulate the environment of another planet on Earth and then copy the Alien Lifeforms.

He is sure that Tony will be very happy to see that. After all, a scientist like him must be very interested in these exotic lifeforms.

Just look at what happened to Venom. If Tony had more magical alien Lifeforms in his hand then he would have had great success with LifeForm technology.

"It just so happens that Dr. Banner is back, and these things will allow him to study with Tony. After all, in the field of lifeform science, Dr. Banner is still better than Tony." His consciousness wandered in his personal space as he thought about it in his heart.

"Except for those things that needed for research. Let's see how many Reward Points the System Shop gives for this." After scanning his harvest on a foreign planet, Lin Rui's sight finally stopped on a green object.

Huh~hu~

The green object was a ball of light that looked like a sentient furball, with lots of tiny fluffy hairs scattered on the outside of the round sphere. Under a rhythmic flash of green light, those fluffy hairs were also moving in a constant rhythm.

"Could this be the heart of that B-Grade plant-like monster?" Before, Lin Rui had no time to carefully observe this loot from that monster whose strength was not lower than his own, but now he can not help but guess after careful observation.

"Forget it, let's see how much the System Shop can offer." After observing for a while and finding nothing, Lin Rui suddenly put it in the System Shop.

Drop~

“B-Grade Plant Class Lifeform Heart of Life, worth 50,000 Reward Points. Host, are you sure about the exchange?” After Lin Rui put the green ball to the System Shop, the Shop quickly gave an estimate.

“Sure enough, it’s the Heart of Life, and the Reward points given are not low. So, let’s see if System Shop has this in it and what it really does.” Hearing System Shop’s introduction and the price given, Lin Rui wasn’t much surprised.

“Heart of Life~Heart of Life~ Ah! Here it is!” Lin Rui quickly found the corresponding item by searching System Shop according to the keyword Heart of Life.

“Damn! The System Shop is such a pit?! Giving me 50,000 Reward Points for it and selling it for 100,000 Reward Points!” When he saw the price of the B-Grade Plant Lifeform’s Heart of Life in System Shop, Lin Rui directly exploded in his mind.

Then, Lin Rui suppressed the uncomfortable feeling in his heart and saw the usefulness and effect of this Heart of Life, “The Heart of Life has the effect of recovery vitality, and is the best item to supplement the missing vitality. The heart of life only crystallizes most of the vitality of a lifeform. In a specific environment, an intact heart of life can revive the once dead lifeform after a long time...”

After reading the introduction to the Heart of Life in the System Shop, Lin Rui also understood why it was worth so many Reward Points.

The vitality contained in this kind of thing is much higher than that of the Low-Level Holy Spring Water, perhaps only the Top-Level Holy Spring Water would be able to match it.

However, the price of Top-Level Holy Spring Water is more expensive than the Heart of Life. Moreover, if someone is willing to spend a lot of effort and time, this Heart of Life can still be resurrected into that B-Grade plant.

“I don’t need to think about resurrecting it as I simply don’t have that much time and energy. However, according to the introduction in the System Shop, the vitality contained in it is too much, and I don’t need it now, otherwise, my body will directly explode. But, I don’t want to earn Reward Points from the system so vainly!” After learning about the effect and value of the green hairball from the System Shop, Lin Rui fell into entanglement.

“Let’s leave it alone, maybe I can find a way to deal with it later.” In the end, Lin Rui still thought to leave it out for a while, anyway, the life force in it is so tenacious that it will not die.

Then, Lin Rui estimated the value of everything he brought back from another planet in the System Shop. However, apart from the Reward points of the two lifeforms, the rest were worthless.

It seems that even if it is something on a different planet, the System Shop will not give you any price if it has no value.

“Then, I will give it all to Tony for research. With these things, Tony will be busy for quite some time.” After muttering some words in his heart, Lin Rui went on to think about other things.
