Chapter 701 Argue

Pū Pū Pū!

Faced with the monsters who rushed towards him, Hulk unceremoniously slapped and punched them. In a short while, the area before the Portal was already covered with the remains of the monster and patches of dark-red blood.

Although these monsters couldn't cause any substantial damage to Hulk, he was gradually overwhelmed by the monsters that followed because of their large numbers and no fear of death attitude.

Numerous roars came from the middle of the circle, some of those roared belonged to Hulk's, but more came from those monsters.

And when Hulk's body was submerged by those monsters who rushed at him without caring for their lives, those tall figures who had been hiding behind some rocks spoke to each other in a different language and their eyes would repeatedly flash as they looked at the Portal.

Finally, one of the big guys with the big axe seemed to become a little impatient, and he loudly interrupted the two people next to him, and he commanded the monster behind them to rush towards the Portal with a wave of his hand.

Swipe!

After the big tall man-like creature waved his hand, the monster that had been hiding behind them roared and rushed out with red eyes. This time, instead of going to the already submerged Hulk, they went straight towards the Portal.

After discovering the Portal, these guys hidden in the shadows finally couldn't help but try their hand at it.

But they obviously won't take the risk themselves at the beginning, so these unimportant cannon fodder monsters under them became the exploratory teams. After all, no one knows what's over there on the other side of that Portal.

The strength of that big Green Giant who was already flooded with cannon fodder monsters was very strong, and if there were all such guys over there then they would have to think really hard before they do anything.

Bang! Bang Bang!

As those Monsters rushed towards the Portal, all those drones on the road were easily demolished by them.

Then, the monsters rushed into the Portal and disappeared. And from this time onwards, such monsters appeared one after another from the Portal on the Earth side and began to attack everything in sight.

Although many monsters were accidentally teleported to other places or died directly during the teleportation process when they passed through the space portal, many of them still rushed past and reached earth.

In this way, while Hulk was being overwhelmed by the number of these monsters, the guys hiding in the shadows had already made their first try at that Portal.

Similar to the reaction of the people on the Earth, the civilization on this side of the Portal also paid a lot of attention to this Portal that suddenly appeared on their planet.

Moreover, they like the idea of invasion because they think they have good strength, and because their civilization values the will to conquer, otherwise, they wouldn't have sent so many vicious monsters.

If it hadn't been for Dr. Banner's sudden transformation into Hulk, maybe these guys hidden in the shadows would have already rushed towards the Portal after killing Banner.

For their species, the danger of what could be found on the other side of the Portal is not enough to deter them.

"Roar!....."

Monsters kept rushing into the Portal while Hulk's roars have already begun to fade out. It was as if Hulk had been piled up by these monsters with numbers, which was also the original intention of those guys in the shadows.

Although Hulk only showed a part of his strength, it was enough to make the three guys in the dark pay attention to it. Of course, it was also great to be able to kill the green-skinned guy without acting on their own.

"@#&&%....." After a few dozen monsters rushed into the Portal, the big guy with the axe inclined his head and said something to the two guys beside him.

After he finished speaking, the expressions of the two guys beside him changed and those changes in expressions were obvious on their beast-like faces.

"%@"#.....%! #" The red glow in his eyes lit up as the guy holding the hammer replied in a deep tone.

From the tone of their conversation and their expressions, it seemed that they were arguing about something.

And in the next minute, the guy who spoke at the beginning spoke in a more and more impassioned tone, while the guy standing opposite him seemed to slowly accept what he said.

As for the remaining guy among the three, he did not open his mouth from the beginning to end, and his eyes did not even look at his partners who was arguing in front of him, instead, they were locked at Hulk who was buried by the cannon fodder in front of him.

"! #&@%¥!..." Finally, the argument ended after the guy with the axe raised his volume and shouted something.

Then, he walked out of the darkness in the midst of the somewhat nervous gaze of his two partners and walked step by step towards the Portal in front of him.

After he stepped out, all the monsters that had come before and after him bypassed him, and these Monsters automatically cleared the place he walked to.

Although those monsters have good strength, but they seem to have encountered their natural enemy in the face of this guy who came out. No! Not like a natural enemy, it's more like seeing a god that can't be looked up to.

Da Da~

So, when this guy walked over to the Portal, the monsters that had been constantly rushing in at this moment were lying next to each other waiting and not a single one of these Monsters dared to rush in.

Standing in front of the Portal and looking at it, many thoughts flashed through the big guy's eyes. Two seconds later, he didn't hesitate any more and he raised his foot and walked in toward the Portal in front of him.

Hum~

In the next moment, this "Person" representing the local civilization of this planet has disappeared in the Portal. As for the situation he will encounter after passing through this Portal, it may not be what he had expected.

If this Monster-like person had the ability to predict the future then he would definitely not be so determined to go through the Portal to see the situation there in person. At least, he would have waited for one of the cannon fodder to come back.

However, judging from this guy's hasty and impulsive behavior. Either he has enough strength to deal with all accidents, or he is really stupid. However, from the subsequent results, the possibility of the latter may be greater.

"Hulk!"

Bang!

Pū Pū Pū!

Less than ten seconds after the guy with the axe entered the Portal, an explosive roar suddenly came out from the center of the battlefield where the big picture had previously been thought to be settled.

It was Hulk's voice, even if he was piled upon by countless monsters, Hulk couldn't give in.

After the roar that belonged to Hulk came out, the place where monsters that had piled up to a height of more than ten meters was like a huge balloon being pumped up, and monsters on the outer layer were constantly being shaken out.

Many monsters instantly died and were directly shattered by the violent shock wave.

Chapter 702 Invincible

Bang!

As if a balloon had swelled to the point of being unbearable, the circle that had buried the Hulk exploded from the inside in an instant.

Those cannon fodder who buried Hulk with their lives for a full minute now all turned into debris in the sky, not even a complete piece of bone was left, and no one knows what trick Hulk used to cause this.

Shout!

The moment this encirclement burst, a huge green figure rushed high into the air from the ground, and Hulk, who had not shown his strength before, finally broke out.

After seeing Hulk breaking through the cannon fodder and rushing to the sky, the eyes of the guy who had been staring at him suddenly lit up, and the sickle-like weapon in his hand trembled twice.

Huhu!

Boom!

The Hulk leaping high fell from a high altitude and the shock wave generated by his landing wiped out many cannon fodder Monsters. So far, Hulk has killed or seriously injured hundreds of cannon fodder Monsters.

"%&Amp; Amp;@#.....%#&Amp; Amp;.....%#!" Seeing the slaughter unleashed by the Hulk, the guy with the hammer in his hand yelled nervously to the only partner around him.

Obviously, Hulk's current strength had shocked him, at least, he now knows that he would not be Hulk's opponent.

Judging from the fact that the Hulk broke through from so many monsters just now and wiped out hundreds of them, his strength is completely capable of fighting them.

However, the guy holding a scythe-like weapon in his hand is not as nervous as his partner beside him. His hand was trembling slightly, but not with fear, but with a kind of excitement that came from the depth of his heart.

From the fact that he didn't have any interest in arguing with his sidekick, the guy with a scythe in his hand focused his attention on Hulk, it could be judged that he was the one who loved fighting more among the three.

Brush!

Facing his partner next to him, the guy holding a scythe-like weapon didn't react at all. He just circled the weapon in his hand and drew a virtual attack trajectory in front of him. Then, he took his weapon and walked out of the dark, and slowly walked towards Hulk.

"&Amp; Amp;%(... ¥#" When the man-like creature walked out and was about to fight Hulk, the guy with the hammer spoke again, this time his tone was very hasty and he seemed to be persuading the guy of something.

But no matter how loud the partner with the hammer shouted in the back, the man did not even bother to return a word and he walked a few steps to the piece of the battlefield drenched in dark-red blood.

At this point, the Hulk has long purged the monsters that still dare to appear in front of his eyes. So, when that big tall guy with a scythe walked towards Hulk, he also found him.

Chi Chi Chi Chi ~

The half-cut blade dragged on the rocky ground and made harsh sounds, but the owner of this weapon didn't care at all as he stared at the Hulk in front of him.

As a pure militant, the big green-skinned guy in front of him is the best target for practice. Of course, if Dr. Banner knew that Hulk was being used as a training target by the other "People", then I don't know if he would laugh or pity the guy.

Brush!

Hulk's fierce gaze caught the guy who was dragging the scythe and the distance of 50 Meters between them was nothing for the Hulk.

However, it seemed that the new guy in front of him was very different from the cannon fodder who had no IQ, and Hulk also didn't make the first move.

Rub!

Since Hulk didn't make the first move, the guy who took the initiative didn't want to pass up such an opportunity, and he stopped at just 50 meters.

Then he clenched the scythe-like weapon in his hand again, and the next moment with a wave of his right hand the whole thing had vanished.

And at the moment when the scythe-like weapon disappeared from the "Human-Shaped Monster's" hand, the space in front of Hulk seemed to be split and a Half Moon Shaped Bloody Arc rushed out towards the Hulk!

Huhu!

When the bloody arc struck Hulk, the space in front of him seemed to be torn apart, and only this sharp bloody arc was left in front of him. However, the Hulk didn't care at all in the face of the attack that had rushed in front of him, and the disdain in his eyes did not even fluctuate.

"Roar!" The next moment, when the bloody red arc was less than one meter away from Hulk, he suddenly opened his mouth and roared.

Buzzing~

The roar from Hulk is not only a simple sound of intimidation but it is also a powerful shock wave attack.

Layers of sound waves that were almost visible to the naked eye impacted on that bloody arc, and the arc that could cut the space was unable to make any progress in front of this roar. Then, this blood-colored arc broke under the power of Hulk's roar!

“%... ¥ @(!” Seeing his full blow was broken by the big green-skinned guy with a roar, the “Person” holding the sickle said something with a shocked expression on his face.

Boom!

However, before he could make any move, Hulk, who broke his attack with a roar, rushed over.

Although those cannon fodder Monsters were numerous, they did not pose a threat to Hulk and the guy in front of him was not very strong but he could at least make the Hulk take the initiative to attack.

Since had Banner released the Hulk, it means that he wouldn’t passively wait for others to attack him!

“%@#%#*(...&Amp;!” Seeing that the green figure in front of him is rushing over, the guy with the scythe-like weapon quickly tilted his head and said something to the partner behind him, and then rushed in the same way.

Bang Bang!

Brush!

In the next moment, one big green and one small black figure collided against each other in this dim rock. Then, the black figure directly flew backward.

When the guy who was fighting with Hulk with a scythe-like weapon was knocked out with a single blow, the guy with the hammer had quickly arrived at the Portal.

If the other side of this Portal is filled with powerful lifeforms like the big green-skinned guy, then the “Man” who went in before is definitely in danger. If there is a chance, they still want to save him, and then consider how to use this dangerous Portal.

Hum!

In this way, less than a minute after the guy with the axe entered the Portal, one of his partners also followed in because of Hulk’s great power.

And after the second “Person” entered the Portal, the guy who was hit by the Hulk just now also continued to attack Hulk with his scythe-like weapon.

Although his power is not as strong as the Hulk, his physical defense is still very strong, and it will not be abolished in a single blow. Moreover, he has countless cannon fodder Monsters to assist him.

Pū Pū Pū!

In this way, on this side of the Portal, a battle of unequal numbers and even more unequal strength began.

Chapter 703 Rest and Rescue

Huhu~

On Earth,

In the temporary base built by SHIELD to hide the Portal at Siberia. In the huge room that protects the portal inside.

Rogers stood in front of the Portal with a serious look in his eyes as he looked down at the two tall humanoid lifeforms lying on the ground that are different from humans on earth.

At this time, the two tall guys who came out of the Portal were silent and completely dead under the combined blow of the Avengers, X-Men, and the League of Defenders.

However, in order to defeat and kill these two guys who suddenly appeared, the alliance on this side of the earth also paid some price.

Among the injured, Colossus is lying in the corner, and Daredevil is being supported by Spiderman who was also a little injured. As for the others, almost all of them are exhausted, and most of them still have some form of minor injuries.

Even though they had already focused the fire and dropped the guy with the axe in seconds in the beginning, but the guy with the hammer who appeared behind was able to display his full strength.

And most of their ability attacks have no effect on him, and only close-range cold weapons were able to cause obvious and substantial damage to him.

As a result, the main personnels in the battle just now were Captain America, Spiderman, Daredevil, and others who could use Physical Attacks, while Colossus with strong close combat strength was already severely injured by an accident at the beginning.

However, Hawkeye's bow and arrows were a happy accident, and the arrows were obviously cold weapons, and Hawkeye's hundred shots were very helpful in the previous battle.

"If this Portal is connected to a civilization with such powerful individuals then it will only be a disaster rather than an opportunity for the current earth!" Captain Rogers looked up and spoke as he looked at the two corpses on the ground.

Rogers looked at the Portal that was constantly emitting the Spatial Fluctuations in front of him and whispered something to him with a solemn expression on his face.

Then, Rogers looked back at his tired teammates and the seriously injured Daredevil and Colossus and the look in his eyes deepened.

For this Portal, after experiencing the situation just now, Rogers has already begun to think about completely destroying it. However, before that, he had to rescue Dr. Banner or Hulk depending on the situation.

While Rogers was standing at the Portal thinking about how to deal with the crisis caused by the said Portal, Spiderman who was supporting Daredevil behind was helping Daredevil to sit down.

"Daredevil, are you any good?" Peter asked with a worried expression on his face while lowering Daredevil to the ground.

In the previous battle, Rogers and Daredevil rushed to the forefront, while Spiderman was constantly harassing the enemy because of his flexibility.

Therefore, Rogers and Daredevil fought that guy many times, and Captain America, with a shield in hand, was obviously far more resistant to getting beating than Daredevil.

Therefore, after being hit by that big guy several times, Daredevil was seriously injured even with his physical fitness at this time.

“Fortunately, I will be fine after taking a rest.” Daredevil replied faintly while touching his chest and feeling a few broken ribs.

Originally, Daredevil thought that his strength had been greatly enhanced in recent times and he even thought that he might have the power to fight Captain America, but in the previous battle, he wasn’t as effective as Rogers.

In the end, he was seriously injured. This situation was also a wake-up call for Daredevil as he now knows that he is not powerful enough!

Although the big guy came from an extraterrestrial civilization, isn’t their real goal is to rush out of the earth, and his strength is far from enough to do that.

“Well, that ugly guy was really too strong! I almost got hit by the hammer several times just now, but fortunately, I escaped!” Hearing Daredevil’s answer, Peter also felt more relieved and complaint.

“Yeah, he was indeed very strong. However, this happened because we were not strong enough. Moreover, I have a hunch that the enemies we will encounter in the future would likely be of this level.” Hearing Spiderman’s unintentional complaints, Daredevil’s eyes flashed and said.

“Hey!? No! He’s an Alien! Are all our enemies in the future be Aliens?” Peter asked with a surprised expression on his face when he heard Daredevil’s words.

“Why is it impossible? If this Portal is not closed then can you guarantee that there won’t be more people like him in the near future?” Daredevil asked indifferently when he saw Peter’s astonishment.

“This...” Hearing this, Peter suddenly felt as if this may really happen.

“Forget it, I’ll just follow you behind!” Finally, the nervous Peter said with a smile.

Daredevil: “...”

And after the two big guys who came out of the Portal have been jointly killed, the injured person quickly healed and everyone prepared for the next possible danger.

As for Rogers, he quickly arranged a small team to go through the Portal, and they were going there to rescue Bruce Banner.

Although there is still the Hulk in Dr. Banner’s body, it is also possible for there to be more powerful enemies or dangers that can threaten him.

In addition to the ten elites of SHIELD and himself, Roger arranged for Falcon from the Avengers, Jack from the League of Defenders, and Blink from X-Men.

Although there were other people, such as the Little Spider, who tried very hard to participate in it but they were all rejected by Rogers as this course of action is going to be dangerous.

The operation was so dangerous that Rogers wouldn't have risked letting anyone else through if Dr. Banner hadn't already sent back information that gave them some idea of ??what was going on at the portal.

In this way, in the worried eyes of Peter, Daredevil, and others, the 14-person team led by Captain America has come to the Portal. As long as Rogers gave orders, they would walk in without hesitation. Everyone who can be here is not a weak person, and everyone can take on their own responsibilities.

"Guys, let's hope that all Fourteen of us come back as a team! Wrong! I want all fifteen of us to come back!" Standing in front of the Portal, Rogers looked at his team and says out loud.

"Relax, Captain, we will be able to rescue Dr. Banner and come back safely!"

"Yeah!"

After Rogers finished shouting, someone responded loudly.

"Okay! Then, let's..." Looking at his teammates in front of him, Rogers had already turned around and was about to enter the Portal.

Buzzing!

However, just as Rogers just turned around and was about to raise his foot to walk in, a violent Spatial Fluctuation suddenly came from the Portal and this situation only occurs when something or someone is coming out!

Chapter 704 Returns

Buzzing~

Brush!

After the Portal shook for a few times, a black shadow suddenly shot out from it and slammed directly towards him under the gaze of Rogers and the others.

"Be careful!" There was no time to see what the dark shadow was, and Rogers shouted and raised his shield in front of him.

Rogers was originally the closest to the Portal, so the black shadow hit the shield raised by Rogers the next moment.

Boom!

After a loud noise, Rogers only felt a huge impact force coming from the shield in his hand. It was like being hit by a car, and the force behind the impact directly knocked him back by several steps.

However, Rogers was still able to block the black shadow flying out of the Portal. After being blocked by the shield, the dark shadow diagonally flew out and fell to the ground.

“Huh? A sickle?! Could it be...” Rogers whispered as the look in his eyes condensed after seeing the dark shadow that fell on the ground.

Judging from the sickle, it was almost the same as the weapons in the hands of the two guys they had spent so much effort on killing. It’s just that one of the two guys used an axe and the other used a hammer.

Could it be that another Alien is coming over here? At this moment, not only did Rogers think like this but everyone else also became vigilant.

Buzzing~

Call!

Sure enough, when Rogers and the others paused to enter the Portal and waited for it, a tall figure followed the sickle and flew out through the Portal.

“Prepare...” As soon as he saw the figure, Rogers raised his hand and prepared to issue an attack order.

Ka Ka Ka!

As Rogers’ voice came out, Spiderman and others who had been watching were also ready for battle. As long as that figure leaves the Portal, the most powerful blows will be ushered on him in the next second.

However, Rogers still did not issue an attack order even after the figure had completely exited the Portal because he found that something is wrong with the Alien that is coming from the Portal.

Unlike the two Aliens who came here safely, this one flew out. And his posture of flying out is not so natural and he seems to be in an unconscious state.

“This guy...Spiderman, Jack!” After seeing this scene, Rogers thought of a lot in an instant and he quickly called out two names.

With Rogers’ knowledge of Spiderman and Jack, he believed that they would understand what he meant.

Om~Swipe!

When Rogers finished yelling, Jack, who was standing behind him, quickly made some seals on his hands. Soon, a magic rope composed of golden light appeared out of thin air and then insinuated at the person in midair.

It seems that Jack understands the meaning behind Rogers’s words and he is now going to test the figure.

Swipe!

And after Jack made a move, a few spider silk shot out from behind him as Spiderman also understood Rogers’ words.

In this way, the figure that hadn't even landed had been tied up by Jack's magic rope and Spiderman's powerful spider silk. Without any struggle, that guy just fell to the ground. Rogers and others were very puzzled as they saw the scene before him.

The two guys who came out before were quite powerful so why did this guy come like this? Did he experience some deadly situation in the Portal?

If this is the case, then Rogers and the others really have to think about whether to go through the Portal to rescue Dr. Banner. After carefully observing the sturdy big guy who was tied up, everyone began to have their own theories.

"Captain Rogers! This guy... he seems to be dead!" Just as Rogers and the others were watching the guy and were still thinking about what could have happened in the Portal, Spiderman who had courageously approached that guy suddenly shouted.

After hearing Spiderman's words, Rogers thought some more things in his heart. However, from Rogers's point of view, he must go to rescue Dr. Banner. As for Jack and others, they can choose not to go.

Buzzing~

Just when Rogers and the others were entangled with many thoughts about the dead guy, the Portal that had been quiet just now once again moved with spatial fluctuations, and that indicates that something or someone was coming!

Huhu!

This time, no weapons flew out first, but a powerful gust of wind rushed out of the Portal with some rubble. With a warning gesture, Rogers once again stood at the forefront of the Portal.

From the beginning, nothing had appeared from the Portal but now many Monsters and Aliens appeared one after another. So Rogers and the others did not know what else would rush out of this Portal at this time.

Boom!

Just as Rogers and the others were fully alert, a huge green figure directly squeezed through the Portal. That's right! He just squeezed in!

Because although this Portal was already big enough, it looked a bit small for Hulk after the transformation so he would need to bend down if he wanted to come over safely.

However, how could the Hulk simply bend over, so he directly opened this Portal and squeezed over.

Boom!

"Hulk!" Hulk screamed with his feet on the paved alloy floor of this base.

"It's the green-skinned monster from that day! How could it be here?!" After seeing Hulk squeezing out of the Portal, Storm's eyes opened as she pointed at him in surprise and shouted.

Brush!

“Ah! Here comes another bigger guy!” Spiderman directly jumped from the ground, before he yelled and launched a spider web to the top of this secret room.

“It’s him! Isn’t this Portal connected to an Alien Planet, is it possible for it to lead to a secret test site for the U.S. military?” After seeing Hulk, Jack, who was close, also widened his eyes and guessed.

It’s no wonder that Spiderman and Storm were surprised when they saw Hulk. After all, the fighting a few days ago was still vivid in their mind, when the green-skinned monsters caused them a lot of trouble.

Moreover, the strength of the last big green-skinned guy was even more terrifying than all the previous ones combined as he severely injured Mirage Knight of the League of Defenders. After that, the Hulk suddenly disappeared.

And it was unknown whether Rogers and Lin Rui didn’t tell them on purpose or if they genuinely forgot to tell them. But they didn’t explain the situation of Banner to their teammates or allies. Therefore, it is now that Spiderman and the others look at Hulk as if they were looking at an enemy.

Chapter 705 Who Is Who?

Contrary to the situation where Spiderman and others were accidentally alert after seeing Hulk, SHIELD Avengers such as Rogers and Natasha were not surprised, and instead, they were relieved.

Now that Hulk had appeared here, and he had squeezed out of the Portal then they didn’t need to go through their rescue operation. After all, Hulk is Bruce Banner. As for the damage that Hulk might cause to this base, that is totally acceptable.

“Disperse! Don’t make a move, and don’t show any hostility, he is not our enemy!” After seeing Hulk, Rogers recovered in an instant and then waved his hand to stop Spiderman and others.

If Lin Rui was really too busy or didn’t think of talking to Peter about the relationship between Bruce Banner and Hulk, then Captain America is also more inclined to deliberately conceal this situation.

On the one hand, Dr. Banner does not want many people to know that there is a monster in his body, especially after the military has developed a defective test product.

On the other hand, Rogers also felt that SHIELD should have its own powerful power hidden in the dark, even in the face of his allies.

Pū!

But Rogers was still a little late when he shouted as a spider thread had shot from behind him and it directly smeared on the Hulk’s big face.

Only Spiderman, a guy who hadn’t seen Hulk’s power before, would attack so recklessly. Everyone else had seen Hulk’s power and even if Rogers didn’t stop them, they wouldn’t attack at will.

Seeing this scene, several invisible black lines hung on Rogers’ head. While Natasha, Hawkeye, and others all showed worried expressions on their faces.

If Hulk got irritated by this silly cobweb, then the temporary base built by SHIELD would cease to exist. No one here can stop the angry Hulk, and Rogers obviously won't be able to stop him.

Tear!

In front of the nervous gaze of Rogers and others, Hulk raised his hand and tore the spider silk off his face. Then he raised his head and looked at the little spider hanging on the roof.

As if being stared at by some kind of alpha predator, the hairs on Peter's body stood up after Hulk raised his head. Even if he was wearing an advanced Spiderman suit, Peter didn't feel much security in it.

"This is terrifying!" Peter muttered silently in his heart while looking at the Hulk.

Although he was being stared at by the big guy, Peter's spider induction was not triggered, which means there is no danger for the time being.

Sure enough, after watching Spiderman on the roof for a while, Hulk lowered his head without any reaction. It seemed that in Hulk's view, the little Worm above wasn't even worth his interest.

"It's okay! It's okay!" Seeing that the Hulk didn't get angry because of Spiderman's attack, Rogers felt relieved.

But he didn't really think that everything would remain okay. Hulk looked normal at this time but he might become angry at any time and tear down the base in the next second.

"Hulk! Rest!" Then, Hulk loudly spoke under the nervous gaze of everyone in this secret room.

Call!

Then, before Rogers could do anything, Hulk quickly shrunk down, and within a few seconds, he had shrunk to the size of a normal person and changed back to Bruce Banner.

And after Hulk disappeared and Banner appeared, Dr. Banner was quite embarrassed and ran to Rogers with his big trousers that were about to fall off.

"The situation over there is very complicated, but it was temporarily solved by Hulk. But this Portal must be destroyed or blocked, otherwise, a huge disaster will occur on the Earth!" He ran to Rogers while holding his big pants.

Dr. Banner didn't care about the shocked expressions of other people and spoke very quickly.

Hearing what Dr. Banner said, Rogers did not hesitate. He waved his hand to disband the team behind him who was going to follow him through the Portal. Then he issued several commands through the communicator in his hand.

Now that Dr. Banner came back and said something like this, it means that the situation over there is indeed very serious. To be on the safe side, Rogers had better do what Dr. Banner said.

"It turned out to be you! You are the Hulk!" Just after talking to Rogers on Dr. Banner's side, Jack, who was standing behind Rogers, had already stepped forward and pointed at Dr. Banner.

A few days ago, Jack had personally watched Mirage Knight fight the Hulk. Mirage Knight still suffered serious injuries even with his strength. So now Jack was quite shocked when he saw the Hulk getting transformed into Banner.

And at this time, Jack also understood why Mr. Stark's attitude was not very good towards this guy and why did Banner in front of him apologize to Mirage Knight. It turned out that they already knew who that Hulk was!

"Uh... yeah, it's me." Seeing the expression on Jack's face, Dr. Banner returned with embarrassment while holding his big pants.

Call!

"Jack, do you know this guy?" Spiderman had already fallen from the roof at this time and asked with a strange expression on his face after hearing Jack's words.

When Hulk changed back to Dr. Banner just now, everyone had seen it, and Spiderman was even more surprised than everyone here.

Although this was not the first time he had seen this kind of transformation as he had seen the Vampires getting transformed, he had seen some of the X-Men who were able to do this, and the most recent was the Extremis Fighters.

Regardless, only Dr. Banner's transformation gave Spiderman such a sense of crisis.

"He is the big guy who wounded Mirage Knight, but Mirage Knight should have known about him for a long time." Hearing Peter's question, Jack simply answered.

"It turns out that the big guy is him! Dr. Bruce Banner!" When Jack answered Peter's words, other people who didn't know the relationship between Hulk and Dr. Banner also listened carefully, and they were sure of their guesses after Jack finished speaking.

"It was he who wounded Mirage Knight?!" Hearing Jack's answer, Peter didn't care why he changed. What he cared about was that this guy in front of him had hurt his best friend.

"Spiderman, Jack, this is not the time to discuss this. I will tell you some things later. And Mirage Knight also knows the specific situation so you can also ask him. As for now, we have to block this Portal! This is an unprecedented danger for the earth!" Rogers quickly reminded them as he saw the expression on Spiderman and Jack's faces.

Chapter 706 Blockade

Hearing Rogers Captain's words, Peter and others could only temporarily give up. Anyway, Banner is here now and they already know his identity so they can find him anytime they want now. But for now, they really have more important things to do.

Next, Dr. Banner carefully recounted what he had learned at the other end of the Portal, and he also analyzed the monsters and the three humanoid lifeforms. In the end, they came to a conclusion.

That is, there is an extraterrestrial humanoid civilization on the planet at the end of the Portal, and the development route of that civilization should be different from the development route of earth civilization.

At least, their individual differences are relatively small, and each individual is very strong.

And after analyzing the situation on the Portal, Captain Rogers's orders are now being carried out. After SHIELD, a huge organization has been fully operational, a piece of high-tech equipment has been transported to this base.

In addition to some special instruments that Dr. Banner can use to study Portals, there are also many powerful weapon systems here.

After knowing that the Portal is connected to a civilization with powerful strength, and this civilization is obviously not the kind of civilization that would develop peacefully.

Therefore, Rogers will make preparation for the worst outcome. If this Portal cannot be completely sealed off, then they can only do everything possible to destroy this Portal here and now.

"Dr. Banner, you have been there and you are also an expert in this area so tell me how can we achieve the best effect?" Rogers looked at Dr. Banner in front of him and said seriously as the supplies continued to arrive.

"I know, but I'm going to change my clothes first." Nodding, Dr. Banner said embarrassingly.

"Uh... of course, Go ahead!" Roger quickly agreed when he saw Banner's situation.

Afterward, Dr. Banner rushed out of the secret room while holding his big pants. Rogers and others continued to guard the Portal as they wanted to prevent other accidents from happening now.

With the things that had previously come from the Portal, no one will feel relaxed about the situation on the Portal now.

"Peter, can you contact Mr. Stark? I think it is necessary to tell Mr. Stark what happened here. After all, Jackson is not there now and such a big situation has happened in this Portal. We must discuss it together." Just when Rogers arranged SHIELD's personals to block the Portal for the next step, Harry approached Peter and said in a low voice.

And when Harry got to Peter to say this, Storm, who was in the corner with the seriously injured Colossus, was also contacting Professor Charles of X-Men.

For the situation that had occurred in this Portal this time, except for SHIELD, the other three allies have no idea about it. So now they all need to look at their "home" and report.

"Contact Mr. Stark? Let me try! JARVIS should be in my spider suit!" Hearing Harry's words, Peter didn't think much about it. After answering Harry, he was already contacting JARVIS.

"JARVIS, are you there?"

"Hello, Mr. Peter Parker, what can I do for you?" After Peter whispered, JARVIS's response came in his ear.

Sure enough, JARVIS has always kept in touch with Peter Spiderman's suit. When Venom appeared last time, Tony had already seen the consequences of letting this kid play by himself, so this new Spiderman suit not only enhanced his various abilities but it also enhanced the internal communication system, allowing Peter to be able to keep in touch with JARVIS at all time.

"Have you seen everything here? I know Mr. Stark is very busy now, but Jackson has gone out and hasn't come back now, maybe he can see something that we can't." Peter continued after hearing JARVIS's response.

"My System has always been connected to SHIELD. I have seen everything that happened just now. And I have also told Mr. Stark what you have encountered. He has made some arrangements. As for Mr. Jackson, I got disconnected from him halfway through his route and I have sent out an Iron Man to search for his missing link." After Peter finished speaking, JARVIS replied calmly.

It turned out that he had been here all the time and had already reported what happened here to Tony who was still in the New York laboratory.

As for what arrangements Tony had made, JARVIS didn't tell Peter, but Tony must have his own plan. And JARVIS not only talked about Tony's arrangements but he also about the situation of Lin Rui.

"What? So JARVIS you can't contact Jackson?! Please tell me as soon as you find him! And also tell me if you need our help!" Hearing JARVIS says that Lin Rui was missing, Peter was a little worried.

"Don't worry, just before losing contact with Jackson, Jackson was in good condition. Perhaps, he and Iceman encountered another Portal as that would affect the signal transmission." Peter heard JARVIS before he felt somewhat relieved.

"Okay, I see, thank you, JARVIS!" Finally, Peter said in a serious tone.

"You are welcome, Peter, this is what I should do."

Then, the conversation between Peter and JARVIS came to an end. And Peter also knew that Tony had already taken action on what happened here, maybe he contacted Rogers and that would not be something Peter had to consider. As for Lin Rui who is missing, Peter could do nothing even if he is worried.

"What happened, did you get in touch with Mr. Stark?" Harry, who was standing next to him, asked after Peter stopped.

"Well, I just talked with JARVIS. Mr. Stark already knows the situation here, and he is prepared to act if the situation calls for it. And JARVIS also told me that Jackson is missing, for now, maybe he also encountered another Portal over there, so I'm a little worried about him." Peter answered truthfully when he heard Harry's words.

"That's good. And we don't have to worry about Jackson. Even if he does encounter another Portal, I believe he is capable of solving the problem on his own." Hearing Peter's answer, Harry patted him on his shoulder and spoke.

"I hope so!"

Then, except for the injured person who seized the time to recover, the others continued to guard the Portal to prevent accidents from happening. And the Portal was gradually enclosed as some special instruments were brought in.

Chapter 707 Gets Out

A lot of things happened on the SHIELD base, and now Rogers decided to block the Portal. At the same time, on the ice sheet tens of kilometers away, many Iron Man Armors were flying in mid-air at the location where Lin Rui and Iceman were before. Searching carefully.

Swipe!

JARVIS sent some Iron Man over since Lin Rui got disconnected from JARVIS. They just happened to run out of this ice field. Another location on the ice field was the abandoned base that Lin Rui had discovered before.

After JARVIS received the location, there have been many Iron Man waiting there. So after the incident, JARVIS was able to quickly send so many Iron Man here to search.

However, these dozen Iron Mans have searched this area many times, but JARVIS didn't find Lin Rui and Iceman.

JARVIS did find that this area is different from the surroundings, but because the spatial changes here are too obscure, JARVIS can only detect some anomalies, but he cannot determine the specific situation here. In this case, JARVIS can only continue to search.

Buzzing~

At the beginning of the eighteenth search, a strong spatial fluctuation suddenly spread from the center of this area.

This space fluctuation is different from the intermittent space energy detected by JARVIS before, but it is a very powerful space energy level that JARVIS attaches great importance to.

"This is the Spatial Energy Fluctuation of the Magic Cube. Did Mr. Jackson really discover the Magic Cube? Or is there a Portal here, but why can't it be detected?" JARVIS silently analyzed the situation when he suddenly detecting this strong spatial fluctuation.

Pū Pū Pū!

In the moment JARVIS detected this strong spatial fluctuation, the central area of the ice field suddenly seemed to be blown up by something.

The thick snow layer and the ice layer below were all rippled with invisible shock waves in an instant. It was shaken away, and then it rose into the air. In the next moment, this area was already covered by ice and snowflakes in the sky.

"En? The detection signal has been severely disturbed. It seems that this is the main reason that caused Mr. Jackson and Mr. Iceman to lose contact with the outside world." A dozen Iron Man suspended in mid-air staring at the changes in the ice field below while JARVIS continued to collect the information to assess the situation.

Hula la~

“Break it!!” Just when JARVIS’s detection signal was severely disturbed and he could only rely on some optical systems to “See” the changes below, a familiar shout suddenly came out from the exploded ice field below.

Boom!

Rumble!

After the familiar shout came out, another strong shock wave came out from the center of the broken ice field. Then, the detection signal that interfered with JARVIS quickly recovered.

Then, he detected familiar special energy that was different from the space energy of the Magic Cube, and that energy belonged to Mirage Knight! That is the internal energy of Lin Rui!

“Iceman! Get out!” After JARVIS detected the energy fluctuations belonging to Lin Rui, another big shout came out. This time JARVIS was able to confirm that the owner of this voice is Mirage Knight, which is Lin Rui.

Brush!

Then, JARVIS “Sees” an Azura Arc breaking through the sky of ice and snow and rushing out. And behind this Azura Arc, an ice-blue figure rushed out following this Azura Arc.

“Absolutely freeze!” After the icy blue figure rushed out, a loud shout different from the previous two came out, the ice-blue figure that had rushed out is obviously Iceman who lost contact with Lin Rui.

Buzzing!

Then, an ice-blue light spread quickly from the figure. The time in the area covered by this icy blue light seemed to be still, and the scattered ice and snow stopped in midair.

Card!

When this icy blue light spread to the place where the figure had rushed out from before, it was unable to move further, and at the place where the light spread, there appeared white and light blue light that got intertwined with each other.

JARVIS saw everything that happened below. It was exactly the scene that appeared when Iceman’s Absolute Frozen Field was against the Magic Cube space energy attack in the previous battle with Hydra on the Golden Gate Bridge.

It seems that the Absolute Frozen Field is also blocked by the space energy of Magic Cube this time.

“Come out quickly! I can’t stand it anymore!” Iceman’s voice came out again just as the Absolute Frozen Domain and space energies were constantly offsetting and confronting each other.

Pū!

The moment Iceman finished shouting, a soft noise suddenly rang out from where he had rushed out before.

Then, the faint Azura light shrouded in a black figure rushed out, rushing into Iceman's Absolute Frozen Domain from the area enveloped by Spatial Energy.

Call!

After the black figure entered the Absolute Frozen, the area covered by the Absolute Frozen Domain quickly shrank, and soon it had shrunk around Iceman's body, and the figure was hiding behind Iceman at this time.

Then, the two people had quickly left the place and they were already tens of meters away from the central area when they reappeared.

Hum~

After leaving the central area, Iceman immediately retracted the Absolute Frozen Domain and directly collapsed on the ground.

He had also returned from the Ice Crystal State to the normal state. No one knew what he had experienced in such a short half an hour but he looked extraordinarily weak at this moment.

"Cough! This time I lost a lot! I had a hard time training and I came here thinking that I would be able to strengthen my ability, but now I have suffered more serious injuries!" Iceman was tired as he sat down on the down.

While talking, Iceman looked at the guy sitting next to him. If Iceman was severely damaged by the overdraft of power this time then the guy beside him paid even more than Iceman, and he should be worse than him at this time.

But the real situation is similar and at this time, Lin Rui can hardly move a finger.

"Huhu~ It's better to be injured than to be trapped there forever and die! Moreover, we have had a huge gain this time, how can you say that we have lost?" When Iceman looked at Lin Rui, Lin Rui was temporarily unable to move and he said after taking a few deep breaths.

"Of course I know that it is better to be injured than to die, but I clearly got injured because I was with you!" Hearing Lin Rui's words, Iceman went on to say while feeling a little helpless.

If it weren't for Lin Rui, how could Iceman get involved in such a thing? How could he be injured now?!

"Didn't you come voluntarily?" Lin Rui said indifferently when he heard Iceman's words.

Iceman: "..."

Chapter 708 Obtained

Swipe!

Just when Lin Rui and Iceman both sat down on the ground exhausted and could only move their mouths, the Iron Man Armors which had been floating in the air to observe the situation below finally flew towards them under JARVIS's control.

“Mirage Knight, Iceman, are you okay?” More than a dozen Iron Mans fell around Lin Rui and Iceman, and JARVIS’s voice came out of one of them.

“Fortunately, I didn’t die! That is, Iceman was being a little hypocritical!” Lin Rui replied with a sense of security in his heart as he was surrounded by more than a dozen Iron Mans.

“I’m hypocritical?! Would you have been able to get out without me?” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Iceman asked loudly feeling very upset.

This time, Iceman and Lin Rui were trapped together by that kind of weird space area. If Iceman hadn’t ventured to release a trace of his Level 5 Mutants’ power, Lin Rui alone might not have been able to rush out.

But now that they are all safely out. Lin Rui is still attacking Iceman here and he is feeling quite upset with him.

“Okay! Fine! I know you are the best! I just kidding!” Lin Rui quickly waved his hand to appease Iceman.

At this time, Lin Rui has finally recovered some mobility. The experience of the last half an hour is very thrilling even for someone like Lin Rui who has seen a lot of things in his time as a Hero.

The Magic Cube really deserves to be called the treasure of the Universe. As the Space Infinity Stone, it can exert such power even when no one controls it. No one knows how much power they can wield once they have it under their control.

Half an hour ago, Lin Rui and Iceman were confronted by a blast of Spatial Energy from the position they had just emerged from. They were caught off guard and both Lin Rui and Iceman fell for it.

Then, they were both drawn into a specific space by that Spatial Energy. In that particular Space, the rules of Space were chaotic, there was no up, down, left, or right, and there is no stable gravity and many other things that are taken as normal.

While the surrounding landscape looks exactly like the Ice Field below them, Lin Rui and Iceman both knew that they were no longer in the Siberia Ice Field.

Lin Rui and Iceman, who were involved in that peculiar space, would be attacked by some Space Energy from time to time. If they were not strong enough then they might have been destroyed in the first few waves of space energy.

In order to rush out of that Special Place full of unstable Spatial Energy, Lin Rui and Iceman resorted to various methods, but the effects were not very strong.

Lin Rui had no choice but to explode out will all of his Psychic Power to try and detect the exit of this Space and he accidentally discovered something that they had been looking for all this time, that is, the Magic Cube, which is also the Space Infinity Stone!

Under Lin Rui’s full release of Psychic Power, he found that the square Magic Cube was in the depths of that Magical Space, and it is its existence that forms this special space environment.

After discovering that the Magic Cube was hidden in the depths of that Space, Lin Rui discussed some things with Iceman and they immediately concluded that they must obtain the Magic Cube so that they might be able to rush out of this Space and it was also their only hope.

So afterward, Lin Rui and Iceman both broke out with all of their strength without hesitation.

Iceman even took the risk of unleashing his Level Five Mutant power which he couldn't control to help Lin Rui temporarily suppress the chaotic space energy, allowing Lin Rui to rush towards the Magic Cube and put it away.

Lin Rui is the only one who could do such a thing because he has a separate space to carry around various things and he can also carry the Magic Cube very well.

Fortunately, the Space Infinity Stone is currently trapped inside the Magic Cube, otherwise, Lin Rui wouldn't have dared not put it in the Portable Space.

Who knows what kind of impact the Space Infinity Stone will have on Lin Rui's Portable Space, after all, the portable space is also manufactured through the use of space energy and the Space Infinity Stone is something that is an Aspect of Space.

In this way, under the outbreak of Iceman's all-out power, Lin Rui was able to rush into the depths of space without any risk. The process of obtaining the Magic Cube also went smoothly.

The moment after the Magic Cube was put away by Lin Rui, the originally chaotic space suddenly began to violently vibrate, and then it began to collapse upon itself.

Obviously, this weird Space was controlled by the Magic Cube and it is now collapsing without it.

It was the disappearance of Magic Cube that caused the collapse of the space that allowed Lin Rui and Iceman to find a chance to escape.

However, Iceman had already used Level 5 Energy to help Lin Rui and he was seriously injured at that time. So the final breakthrough comes upon Lin Rui, who has retained most of his strength.

Lin Rui looked for the most fragile place in this destroyed space and he attacked that point when he found it, causing a crack to appear in this weird space that leads them both to the real world.

What happened next was seen by JARVIS. Iceman rushed out first and then released his Absolute Frozen Domain to support the opening of the crack and let Lin Rui rush out.

Although they did take many risks this time, and the danger they experienced was very great, the gains were also very great.

"It is good that you both are fine, you should contact your teammates, they are very worried about you," JARVIS replied calmly after hearing Lin Rui's answer.

"Well, I didn't expect to experience these things when I came out this time. But, anyway, we have managed to obtain something huge." Lin Rui nodded and spoke with a smile on his face.

"Obtained something Huge? Mr. Mirage Knight, did you finally find the Magic Cube?" JARVIS suddenly asked when he heard Lin Rui's words.

“Haha! JARVIS, you are really smart! That’s right! We finally found the Magic Cube!” Lin Rui did not hide anything from JARVIS and replied with a smile on his face.

Brush~

Then, Lin Rui, who had recovered some part of his mobility, stroked his right hand across his waist. Then, the Magic Cube emitting a bright radiant light blue light appeared in his hand.

“So this is the Magic Cube! It’s really beautiful!” Iceman, who saw the Magic Cube for the first time was immediately attracted by it the moment he saw it and he spoke with a dazed look on his face.

“Yeah, this is the Magic Cube! It is also one of the Infinity Stones!” Lin Rui was also very excited as he looked at the Space Infinity Stone that can cause massive turbulence in the Universe.

“The Magic Cube...” After Lin Rui took out the Magic Cube, JARVIS was also observing it for the first time.

After simply scanning the Magic Cube, JARVIS seemed to be affected, and its background system became chaotic for a moment. But this chaos only lasted for a moment so no one noticed it.

Phoo~

After taking out the Magic Cube and showing it to Iceman and JARVIS, Lin Rui put it away again. Lin Rui finally lets go of the worries in his heart now that the Magic Cube is finally in his hand.

As long as the Magic Cube is in his hands then no one will be able to use it to open some kind of Portal and the earth will be in a relatively safe development environment.

However, Lin Rui did not know at this time that the Portal on the SHIELD Base was already leading to an extraterrestrial civilization and some Aliens have already come over to the Earth.

Chapter 709 Restore And Return

Iceman showed a look of inexplicable disappointment in his eyes seeing the Magic Cube in front of him being put away.

Although Iceman is not the kind of person who wants to take away the Magic Cube in his own hands, this is one of the most powerful items of the universe and it is normal for Iceman to have such an idea.

“JARVIS, do you bring a powerful Recovery Serum with you? Mine has been used up.” After putting away the Magic Cube, Lin Rui raised his head and asked JARVIS.

Lin Rui had spent almost all of his Reward points on the Alien Planet and the only thing Lin Rui brought back with him were some things that he wanted to keep for later to see what use it could be.

So now Lin Rui is very “Poor”, otherwise, he would not have asked JARVIS for a strong Recovery Serum.

“Yes,” JARVIS quickly answered.

Then, two Iron Men step in and unlock a layer of armor on each arm, which contains a Recovery Serum.

Tony has always known that the Iron Man Armors are not omnipotent and it can not protect the people inside from being hurt, so this efficient life protection Serum must be prepared in advance.

It can be said that each Iron Man is not only a deadly weapon but also a mobile rescue vehicle with a powerful Recovery Serum function.

With the help of JARVIS, Lin Rui and Iceman were injected with the Recovery Serum. Then they sat comfortably on the Ice Field and waited for their injuries to recover.

At this time, they were both seriously injured and could not do anything else. However, the injuries did not stop Lin Rui from asking about the situation on the Shield Base from JARVIS.

“Um, JARVIS, how is the Base? Since we found the Magic Cube here then the Portal over there should be something that the Magic Cube accidentally made, maybe it’s not of much value.” Lin Rui asked JARVIS while quickly recovering from his injuries.

From Lin Rui’s point of view, the last time he and Deadpool passed through the Portal that could connect to other planets in the universe was an accident and it was probably caused by the power of the world that was trying to find some balance due to Lin Rui’s meddlings.

But Lin Rui doesn’t see the Siberia Portal as another possible gateway to a cosmic civilization. After all, the odds of that happening are pretty low. But what Lin Rui neglected to consider is that anything is possible as long as it has to do with him.

Hearing Lin Rui’s question, JARVIS was silent for a while, it was as if JARVIS was thinking about how to answer Lin Rui’s question and Iceman was also waiting for JARVIS’ answer.

“Mr. Mirage Knight, half an hour after you left the base, Captain Rogers had already sent two Drone Teams into the Portal to explore the situation over there. The information sent back by the Drones indicated that they have reached there safely. The place they reached is a place different from the earth, but due to some special reasons, the Drones send too little information. So...”

“So what?!” Unexpectedly, the Portal they found here was also connected to some form of the extraterrestrial universe so Lin Rui asked immediately.

“So, Dr. Banner insisted that he would go through the Portal to see the situation,” JARVIS replied under Lin Rui’s questioning.

Upon hearing this, Lin Rui and Iceman almost thought they had heard it wrong. In Iceman’s view, the doctor named Bruce Banner was being suicidal!

One has to know that this is an incredibly dangerous thing and it’s a Portal that would lead to an unknown place! Lin Rui was also very shocked by the news, but he wasn’t surprised as Dr. Banner is a scientific maniac.

The most important thing is that Dr. Banner still has the Hulk in his body, so at least his life would be guaranteed.

“And what happened? Captain Rogers wouldn’t really allow him to pass, right?” Iceman asked before Lin Rui could speak.

“Dr. Banner finally passed through the Portal under his tight protective clothing...”

“He really went inside!” Hearing JARVIS’s answer, Iceman also had to admire the guts of this guy. If it was Iceman, he wouldn’t really choose to take the risk when the situation on the other side was unclear.

“JARVIS, listening to you say that then Dr. Banner obviously came back safely. Perhaps, there were many other things that happened during this time?” Something flashed across Lin Rui’s eyes when he heard this and then asked.

“Yes, not long after Dr. Banner entered the Portal, many ferocious Monsters rushed out of the Portal, but they were all killed by Captain Rogers and others. After those monsters appeared, two humanoid figures appeared from the Portal. They were powerful, but in the end, they all fell under the combined attacks of the Avengers, X-Men, and The Guardians.” JARVIS quickly answered under Lin Rui’s questioning.

“Monsters and powerful humanoid lifeforms came from the Portal?! Where is this Portal connected to? Why did two portals connected to Planets appeared here?!” Hearing JARVIS’s answer, Lin Rui’s eyes widened and he whispered.

“What happened after that? Did any other lifeforms came out of that Portal again?!” Not only was Lin Rui shocked by the news but even Iceman was also surprised.

“Yes, but this time Dr. Banner came from there and he came back safely. Then Captain Rogers ordered the Portal to be sealed off, and is now fully mobilizing various instruments to do it.” JARVIS replied hearing Iceman’s words.

“That Dr. Banner returned safely? Could it be that the location he went through the Portal and those lifeforms are not from the same place?” Hearing JARVIS’s answer, Iceman was very curious about Dr. Banner’s safe return.

Compared to Iceman’s curiosity, Lin Rui felt that this was not that surprising. Even if Banner fell into the middle of various monsters after going through the Portal, with Hulk’s strength, he could kill every one of them in any situation.

Moreover, since the Monsters and Humanoid Lifeforms that came out of the Portal were solved by Rogers and others then they would be no threat to Hulk.

“It turns out that so many things have happened over there. It seems that we have to go back soon. As for the situation over here... I’ll look for a chance to see it next time.” Finally, Lin Rui decided to go back and see the situation with his own eyes.

After that, Lin Rui and Iceman recovered for some time on the spot and rushed towards the base in two different Iron Man Armors.

Chapter 710 Manner

In the United States, in the New York Stark Beach House, Tony, who has finished a series of experiments, is resting on a sofa while drinking Red Wine.

The discovery of a Portal in Siberia was a major event but there were already enough people over there to preside over the overall situation, and JARVIS had been there, so it didn’t matter if Tony wasn’t there.

However, after Tony had rested for a short time, several messages from JARVIS made his relaxed spirit tighten up again. It turns out that the Portal in Siberia is actually connected to an Extraterrestrial Planet that seems very valuable to Earth.

But, that extraterrestrial planet have Aliens in it, and more importantly, they have humanoid lifeforms. This kind of thing is enough for Tony to take it seriously, so he has to personally contact Rogers after learning about the situation.

After learning that Rogers was going to block the Portal, Tony did not object to it and he also thought that this was the safest way for them.

Tony also knew that Rogers chose to block the Portal instead of destroying it because he wanted to use the Portal to do something more.

Although Rogers' approach was very risky, Tony himself was also a person with risky genes, and he also wanted to use them.

Now, besides sending an Iron Man team to Siberia to help increase the force guarding the Portal, Tony is still waiting for JARVIS to collect news about the missing Mirage Knight.

In Tony's view, nothing will happen to Lin Rui although he has temporarily lost contact with them.

Lin Rui returned from a few days' trips to a Different Planet in the Universe a few days ago. Could it be possible that there is something weirder than that in Siberia?

Of course, Tony was right to think so, but he ignored Lin Rui's special unexpected physique.

Although Lin Rui was not teleported to another planet this time but the situation was no better than that. The Chaotic Space created by the Magic Cube would have crushed them if Lin Rui was not careful!

"Sir, there is some news about Mr. Jackson and Iceman." Just as Tony shook the glass in his hand and wondered how to do something with that Portal, JARVIS's voice came out.

"Oh? How? Did they have some strange encounters?" Hearing JARVIS's voice, Tony put down the cup in his hand and asked with a relaxed expression.

"They found the Magic Cube." JARVIS directly said the main point.

Tony: "..."

This kid is really something else! He had originally thought that the Magic Cube would be on the other side of the Portal but Lin Rui casually found it outside!

Tony said silently in his heart after hearing what JARVIS had said. Of course, Tony still doesn't know what Lin Rui and Iceman went through to find the Magic Cube and bring it back.

"So they found it, how are they doing now?" Tony calmed down and then asked.

"Because the Magic Cube created a special chaotic space. Jackson and Iceman were trapped in it for more than half an hour. They just got out of there just now. Both of them were seriously injured. But they have recovered a bit and are rushing to the SHIELD base."

"Injured again? This kid is going to give me a heart attack one of these days! It's only been a few days!?" Tony whispered with furrowed brows when JARVIS said Lin Rui was seriously injured.

"Forget it, no use crying over spilled milk. I'll scold him when I see him. JARVIS, send another team of Iron Man over. I suspect that the Portal wouldn't remain silent for long. Didn't you say that these humanoid beings were powerful? Although the Portal restricts them, making it impossible for the opponent to have a large number of teams appearing at the same time, but we have to guard against them." Finally, Tony clapped his hands and asked JARVIS to arrange an extra team of Iron Man to support Siberia's SHIELD base.

"Okay, sir." JARVIS has dispatched Iron Man at the same time.

"Is there anything else? If it's okay then I will continue to prepare for my experiment, and there are many things waiting for me to do." After arranging the things here, Tony asked JARVIS.

"Not for the time being, sir." Even if there are other things, JARVIS can solve it on its own.

"Okay, let me know if something unexpected happens." Tony nodded and he had already got up from the sofa.

Then, Tony slowly walked towards the basement, and some of his whispers came out.

"It leads to an extraterrestrial planet with civilization, haha, this is really fun..."

...

When Lin Rui and Iceman returned to the Siberia SHIELD base in their Iron Man Armor, some of the buildings on the periphery of the base that had been destroyed by the two monsters that escaped and had been cleaned up, and it was almost impossible to see what happened here half an hour ago.

"Sure enough, there are a lot of people and equipment. It seems that Captain Rogers is going to turn this base into an Iron Fortress!" Lin Rui couldn't help but think in his heart as he looked at the changed base.

On the way back, JARVIS has already informed Lin Rui of the ongoing changes in this base at this time. Because it has been determined that the Portal may pose a huge threat to the earth, they must use the greatest strength to seal this place, and they cannot allow even a little foreign matter to escape from this base.

Although the strength of those Monsters is not strong for SHIELD or their allies, but who knows what may happen in the future. After all, they are extraterrestrial species, and they may carry many things that do not exist on the earth that may have a fatal blow to the lifeform of the earth.

The probability of this happening is still very high, so for the follow-up treatment of those monsters that are killed, Rogers will destroy the corpses according to the highest level of epidemic prevention.

As for those of them who participated in the battle, they all carried out thorough inspections from the inside to the outside to ensure that no one was affected by extraterrestrial species.

Moreover, the danger level of the secret room where the Portal is located has been raised to the highest level, and it has been in the highest surveillance and armed defense for 24 hours.

“Let’s go, Captain Rogers and the others are there now.” Under JARVIS’s instructions, Lin Rui and Iceman quickly landed towards the center of the base.

Lin Rui is very interested in the Monsters and Humanoid Species that came from the Portal. Although JARVIS has sent some images to Lin Rui to see but it was not the same as seeing with his own eyes.

Lin Rui has a feeling that the emergence of the extraterrestrial civilization this time should be related to something bigger. Moreover, although the images given by JARVIS were not so clear, Lin Rui still felt that the three humanoids seemed a bit familiar.
