Chapter 71 Straight To The Source

Bang-bang~

“Ah!!

“Be careful!”

“Danger!”

The huge floor-to-ceiling windows were instantly broken and the so-called high-ranking characters who were drinking and chatting in the hall all exclaimed and screamed. Today is a banquet hosted by the Frankenstein family, and they never imagined that someone would dare to make trouble on the core site of the family.

Not only did the guests not think of it, but Ross Frankenstein, the host of the banquet, did not think of it. After escaping the broken glass fragments, he waved his arms in an angry manner towards the bodyguards to defend everyone in the hall. He wanted to smash the guys who dared to make trouble at his own party!

“All of you go out and find out the bastards! Don’t kill them, I want to entertain them personally!” Looking a little crazy, Ross scanned the security guards around him and shouted loudly.

“Yes! Master Ross!”

Huh!

With a neat promise, more than a dozen well-trained fighters have rushed out of the hall with weapons and started searching for the assassins.

“Hey! Ross, it seems that I am not the only one who is not happy with you! ” Like Ross, Paul was also guarded by several bodyguards and said happily.

“Humph! Paul! Don’t let me find out that you did this!” Glancing at Paul, Ross said viciously.

“I’m not rich like you to do this kind of things. You’d better think about how to save your party today. Young Master!” Rolling his eyes, Paul slowly walked towards the other side under the escort of his bodyguard.

“This guy!~ Ladies and gentlemen! Don’t worry, it’s all right! Don’t worry!” Watching Paul walk away with ease, Ross walks into the middle of the hall and begins to pacify the chaotic guests. As a member of the Frankenstein family and the host of this gathering, Ross can’t lose face with his family.

“What exactly happened?”

“Are we under attack?”

“It’s nothing, it will be solved immediately, and our party will continue.”

Under Ross’s comfort, the chaotic and tense guests slowly quieted down, they also believed that the Frankenstein Family had the ability to resolve the situation. But while Ross was busy appeasing nervous guests, he didn't notice that three unknown people appeared in the hall. Two of them also wore a pair of big sunglasses, which was a bit strange at the party this evening.

However, the extra three people mingled with other nervous guests and did not attract anyone's attention, especially when Ross dispatched most of the guards to find the perpetrator. The three men who came in during the chaos were Lin Rui and others who came through the secret exit.

"Daredevil, it seems that the organizer of this party is still an important person. You will handle the people in this hall. Jack and I will go up there to find other influential persons. Glancing at Ross, who was in the middle of the lobby with a bodyguard at his side, Lin Rui whispered to Matt next to him.

"Ok, you go up and I'll handle everything here." With a gentle nod, Matt leaned firmly against the wall.

"Hey! Handsome guy, are you alone?" Just the next second after Matt posed against the wall, a beautiful woman came up with a glass, apparently attracted by Matt's handsome appearance.

"Well, Jack, let's go. It looks like we aren't needed here." Seeing this scene, Lin Rui was a little stunned and then said to Jack.

"Hmm." With a faint sound, Jack led Lin Rui to the stairs in the corner of the hall.

After they turned around and left, there was a crash sound behind them. It seems that Matt is already having a good chat with that beautiful woman.

Hoo!

"I'm sorry, you can't go up here." Just as Jack and Lin Rui walked up to the stairs without incident, two big men who stood here reached out and stopped them unexpectedly.

"Uh-sorry, I'm looking for the toilet." Pretending to be drunk, Jack staggered up to a guard. As for Lin Rui, of course, he was beside him holding his friend.

"The toilet is down...oh!"

Pop!

Just as the big man was about to point out the correct location of the guest's toilet, a cold shiver flashed in front of the drunk guest. Then he and his companions slowly fell to the ground.

Hoo!

"Let's go, there should be someone here soon." Pulling the two big men aside, Jack urged.

"Yep."

In the next moment, the two guests on the stairs disappeared instantly.

.....

Rumble ~

Just as the window glass wall of the first-floor lobby was smashed, The Frankenstein Family's real boss and other main members were discussing things in a secret room on the fifth floor of the villa. As the masters of the whole family, they certainly don't get too entangled in Ross's failed deal, but they can sniff something unusual out of it.

And just as Ross's grandfather Hebrew Frankenstein was discussing the Vampire deal with his two sons, there was a sudden uproar downstairs.

"Uhh? What happened?" Sitting firmly in the chair, Hebrew, whose hair was already white, squinted and asked.

Hoo!

As soon as the Hebrew voice fell, a black-clad man standing near the door of the room came up to the door and asked a few questions in a low voice. After a little wait, the man in black came to Hebrew. "Sir, it seems that someone has come to make trouble. However, Master Ross has already dealt with it. Don't worry about it."

"Somebody's making trouble? In our Frankenstein Family? It seems that the recent successive failures in business have given other families some balls to trouble us" Hearing the words of the man in black, Hebrew slowly opened his eyes and said in a flat tone.

"Father, do you want me to warn those who are thinking like that? Even if our Frankenstein Family are in trouble, it's not something they can provoke." Seeing Hebrew's expression, a middle-aged man in his forties sitting below immediately opened his mouth. He's Paul's father: Wade Frankenstein, a powerful figure in Frankenstein Family, who has always been known for his ruthlessness.

"Don't do it now, as long as we solve this problem, those families will shrink their heads and apologize to us." Hebrew shook his head and said ignorantly without taking the advice of his second son.

"Well, now that it's all right, let's go on and talk about the situation. Judging from the recent attack on Jeston Gang by New York police, it seems that they are determined to sever one of our family's hands. But the most important thing is not here. Even without the Jeston Gang, the impact on our family will not be great. The key is our deal with the Vampire forces." Jeston Gang is just the next source of black money of the Frankenstein Family and losing it is acceptable. However, cooperation with Vampire forces is a big cake, which Frankenstein Family cannot abandon.

"Father, from what I've heard recently. Vampire forces seem to have made some big moves recently, which seems to have something to do with the large human transaction they have been asking us to do in recent years. The New York police's action against Jeston Gang seems to be aimed at stopping Vampire from expanding. There should be something we don't know about." Next to Hebrew was a middle-aged uncle who had a striking resemblance to Ross. Although he was not well informed, he had already guessed some key points.

"Don't tell... Are they going to sever their relationship with Congress? Is that why we are involved?!" Hearing his favorite son's analysis, Hebrew suddenly remembered something and said in a worried tone.

It is because of the belief that the ambiguous relationship between Vampire forces and Congress will continue, that Frankenstein Family will so boldly develop their own forces and deal with the Vampires. But if the two superpowers no longer cooperate with each other, the fate of Frankenstein Family, which will be sandwiched in the middle, can be imagined.

“Rhode! Take the time to find out the attitude of Congress. If it’s really what I think, we need to think of something soon! “

“Yes! Father!”

Bang! Bang bang!

Da da da!

“Be careful! There are attackers!”

“Call for support!”

Bang!

Rumble!

While Hebrew was discussing Frankenstein Family’s future in the room, there was a sudden outburst of fierce exchanges of gunfire and the exclamation of bodyguards outside.

“What happened?! Ray!” Hearing the chaotic gunfire outside, Hebrew looked at the man in the black suit and asked him.

One step behind the door, the fellow named Ray listened carefully to the outside.

“Sir! It seems that the movement just below is not an accident, it seems that someone is acting against us. The escort team outside can’t stop it. You need to go” Sticking to the door, he carefully observed the movement outside and after judged the situation outside. He shouted loudly.

“Good!” Without a second’s hesitation, Hebrew had risen from his chair and walked towards the back of the room. His two sons were also behind Hebrew as they were not fighters.

Huh!

When Hebrew and his sons walked behind the room, the thick wall quickly separated to the sides, revealing a secret passage inside. Then, Hebrew and others had already entered.

Boom!

Rumble!

Just as Hebrew’s figure disappeared into the passage, the wall had returned to its original position, the solid door in this room was finally blasted open and two figures quickly rushed in.

Lin Rui and Jack rushed into the innermost room with their weapons in their hands. But there was only one person standing in front of them, a guy in a black suit.

.....

Chapter 72 Level 4 Mutant

“Jack, Didn’t you say that the important members of the Frankenstein Family would be here?” Lin Rui, who came to the secret room all the way through the long corridor, glanced around and asked Jack next to him. There was only a bodyguard-like fellow in front of them, and there was no important person at all.

"This room must have a secret room, we will find it." Although somewhat surprised, Jack quickly figured out the situation.

"Then don't waste time! Hey! Buddy! Did your masters leave you here as cannon fodder?" Hearing Jack's words, Lin Rui had moved inside the room with his blade and asked the man in black who was standing in front of him.

"Humph! I alone am enough!" In the face of Lin Rui's provocation, Ray snorted coldly and rushed towards Lin Rui in the next moment.

"So eager to die!" Lin Rui, who has killed many on the way was already alert and he was feeling tired of all the killing, but he will not be merciful to the guy in front of him. He has already slashed his sword towards him.

As for Jack, when Lin Rui and the man in black started, he had gone around and rushed into the room. He wanted to find the secret passage that might exist in it. However, just before Jack entered the room and started looking for it, a dark shadow had crashed behind him.

Bang!

Sensing the movement behind him, Jack jumped away from the shadow. The black shadow that flew over a wooden frame was actually a person.

"Hey! Mirage Knight, can you be careful here?" Instead of looking at the figure that had been smashed into the corner, Jack continued to walk forward and shouted. Jack takes it for granted that the figure who was smashed was the man in black just now. He should have been kicked by Lin Rui.

Hoo!

"Hey!~ This is not something I can control!" But just as Jack took a step, Lin Rui's voice came from that corner. It turned out that the man who had just flown in was not the man in black who looked like an ordinary bodyguard, but Lin Rui, He did not know what had happened behind him just now.

"What?!" Seeing Lin Rui climbing out of the corner, Jack was stunned as he quickly turned around.

Bang!

Just as Jack turned around, a fiery red fist instantly magnified in front of him, and the punch hit on the cross-knife in front of his chest.

Bang!

Kakaka!

A burst of metal cracking followed by a burst of an explosion. Jack's two knives were shattered directly under this punch! The knife broke and the fist was still pounding fiercely. Jack had to raise his arms to block it.

Bang!

“Avoid it! You can’t block it!” Just as the fiery red fist was about to hit Jack’s arms, Lin Rui suddenly rushed over from one side and kicked him on the shoulder with a shout.

Jack had rolled out with a bone crackling sound. And the man in black fist was still not stopped. Lin Rui kicked Jack out at the last minute and didn’t let him block the fist with his arms. Because Lin Rui knows that with Jack’s strength, he can’t resist the attack at all. Ask him how he knows. Think about how he flew out just now.

Huh!

Jack’s arms hung weakly on his side as he tumbled to the ground in midair. Although he had just touched a little bit, the power of Ray’s fist had already hit Jack’s arms and directly cracked the bones of his arms. Jack might have suffered more than that if his mutant abilities hadn’t been muscular reinforcement.

Feeling the severity of his arm injury, Jack stood still and did not move, just staring closely at the guy who almost killed him with one blow. As for Lin Rui, he was also nervous and stopped in front of the man in black and the Flowing Flame Blade in his hand had burst out with a red flame.

“You’re not dead, Berserk Squad’s main assassin. What’s your name? Viper, right? But today your two poisonous teeth will be knocked out by me.” Neither Jack nor Lin Rui moved, but the man standing in the middle of the room suddenly spoke, looking at Jack in the corner and saying faintly.

Jack’s eyes turned cold when he heard the black man’s words. Frankenstein Family members did not know much about Berserk Squad’s real identity, and even fewer people knew their codes and weapons that way.

“Who are you?!” Controlling the internal energy in his body to quickly repair his injured arm, Jack asked coldly.

“Who am I?” That’s funny! How do you think Berserk Squad’s name came from?” Hearing Jack’s words, the man in black suddenly laughed and then asked back.

“Berserk Squad’s name?... Are you the Level Four Mutant?! It’s no wonder that I never heard of another group of Berserk Squad. There’s no other Berserk Squad at all. You are the only one!”

From the black man’s question, Jack finally understood what he meant. There are no two teams at all. Jack’s Berserk Squad is named after this Level Four Mutant ability. He’s Frankenstein Family’s last and most powerful force.

“You’re not too dumb. I always said that the Berserk Squad is full of bad guys. It seems that you were hiding them.” Seeing Jack guessed his identity instantly, Ray nodded and said lightly.

He does have the strength to back up his words. As a Level 4 Mutant, no matter what level his abilities are in Level 4, he can at least crush Level 3 Mutants and other people with his special abilities.

“Although somewhat unexpected, it is still acceptable. After all, at first we were going to deal with a whole Berserk Squad. Mirage Knight, he is all yours!” Jack shook his head gently and his face showed no more surprise as he shouted and began to retreat. Speaking of it, the situation is better than they had expected. Although there is a real Level 4 Mutant here, since Lin Rui said that he would deal with him, then he must have a way.

“Of course! I already said to leave him to me!” In a loud reply, Lin Rui lifted his Flowing Flame Blade and split it in an instant.

Huh!

The next moment, three fiery red knives appear directly in front of Ray as if they had crossed the space. Jack and Ray have been talking on for so long that Lin Rui can fully mobilize the internal energy in his body. The energy in his knife has already become overwhelmed.

“Humm?!” Ray’s eyebrows frowned as he felt a powerful force coming towards him. In the short battle just now, He didn’t found this Mirage Knight to be this strong. Nevertheless, he can’t do anything about it now.

Hoo!

Boom!

His eyes flashed red as he sent out three punches in a row! Three burst fists! Every punch hits directly in the middle of Lin Rui’s knife. Even Lin Rui himself dares not do so. Ray, however, is totally unafraid of his Mutants abilities.

Bang!

Rumble!

There was almost no time lag. A violent explosion occurred in this sturdy secret room in an instant. The shock wave carrying the heatwave had shattered everything in the room in the next second.

Hoo!

The aftermath of the explosion continues and Lin Rui has come close to Ray, whose sight is blocked by the heat and shock waves. In the secret room, several dark devices have been shot at Ray quickly. They are mutant gene suppressor! Regardless of Ray’s level-4 Mutant ability, if he was hit by the mutant gene suppressor, he would only become an ordinary person.

Hoo!

Puff puff!

However, Lin Rui’s calculations were but the result is not as good as he expected. The mutant gene suppressor disguised as darkeners exploded at the very moment Ray met them and the potion in them evaporated in the air before they had worked.

Ray’s mutant ability is energy explosion, He can store huge bursts of energy in his body and release it in various ways in battle. This mutant ability is very effective in combat, especially in the case of controllable situations.

At this point, Ray has already spread the burst energy all over his body, no matter what attack he receives, it will be directly blown back by the burst energy on his body. Like a bomb that has already started to explode, any attack will only be swallowed up by the explosion, but Ray is a controllable bomb.

Hoo!

“This is going to be difficult!” Seeing that the genetic suppressors were not effective, Lin Rui cursed. He has no experience in dealing with this kind of explosive ability.

Rumble!

No matter how tangled Lin Rui’s is, Ray, located at the center of the explosion, has stepped out. Ray, who is trying his best to use his abilities, is fearless. He’s going to tear the fellow in front of him to pieces!

“No matter! I don’t believe that this guy’s ability can really be used without limit!” Since the original plan was useless, Lin Rui had to adapt to the situation.

Even the top-level Mutants like Professor Charles or Magneto can’t use their abilities constantly without any limit. Lin Rui doesn’t really believe that this guy will be able to use his explode ability all the time. His Internal Energy will win in the end.

The Flowing Flame Blade in his hand was directly waved and several arcs of energy shot out, Lin Rui’s internal energy was surging out. The quality and quantity of the internal energy stored in Lin Rui’s body have changed from before because of the practice of the Advanced Internal Energy Technique. For Lin Rui today, the Flowing Flame Blade seems to have lost some of its strength.

Clang!

With a snap, Lin Rui’s Flowing Flame Blade cut directly on Ray’s shoulder. Nevertheless, Flowing Flame Blade, which has always been so sharp and oppressive, can’t break Ray’s skin for even a millimeter.

Lin Rui’s hand trembled as he held the blade because the blade was cutting Ray’s body at a time when a small, uninterrupted and continuous explosion was taking place so that all the internal energy on Lin Rui’s blade was shaken away.

However, although Lin Rui can’t hurt Ray, Ray can’t bring much life threat to Lin Rui either. After all, Lin Rui is much more flexible than he is and it’s not easy to hurt him. While Lin Rui and Ray were fighting each other, Jack had found the location of the back secret entrance. Without looking at the battle behind him, Jack opened the secret passage and chased in.

Rumble!!

Chapter 73 Trump Card

Puff! Puff puff!

Da da da!

“One, two, three... Eleven, twelve... Humm!? That’s It!” Spiderman, who was guarding the covert exit of the villa, wandered around quickly to defeat the guys who ran out of it and counted the numbers carelessly until no one else ran out of the exit.

After glancing at the guy who was knocked over by himself and was unconscious, Peter disappeared from the exit in the next moment. Guarding the exit without letting anyone go, his mission has been completed. It would be impractical for Peter to stay here anymore.

A few minutes ago, On the first-floor lobby of the luxury villa. Sensing someone walking up the stairs, Matt silently lowered the wine glass in his hand.

“Excuse me, Jessie, I need to go to the bathroom.” Smiling at the beautiful woman in front of him, Matt turned and left the hall.

“Hey! I’ll wait for you here!” The beautiful woman named Jesse was apparently fascinated by Matt and shouted at his departure. But she was obviously disappointed.

Shortly after Matt left the hall, the two security guards who had fallen into the corner of the stairs were found, and the situation was quickly reported to Ross.

“Not good! This is a planned operation! Go and inform my father!” Hearing his men’s words, Ross suddenly shouted at his bodyguard to inform his father.

Boom!

Da da da!

However, just as Ross had just reacted, there was a loud noise from the upstairs, followed by a violent gunshots sound. It seems that a fierce exchange of bullets is taking place up there.

“Quick! Quick! Call everyone back!” Ross shouted nervously at the sound of gunfire upstairs. There are people who dare to attack the Frankenstein Family, which is beyond everyone’s expectation.

However, the newly settled guests were shocked by the gunfire upstairs and rushed out of the gate with loud shouts, which obstructed Ross and his bodyguards. These newly stabilized guests didn’t want to stay anymore, They originally thought it was only a simple fun party and they did not expect it to evolve into a gang fight! They will die if they stay here.

“Make way!” Although the bodyguards were not pushed, They and Ross were stopped in the center of the hall.

The situation was out of control. Ross pulled out his gun directly from his waist and fired three shots in the air.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

“If you don’t want to die then get out of my way!” Seeing that scene, all the bodyguards around him took out their guns and fired in the air and opened the way, Ross brutally squeezed a path through the chaotic hall.

Under the threat of various guns, the chaotic crowd became silent and quickly made a way for Ross. However, just then, several dark shadows suddenly shot out from the corner of the hall, targeting the expensive chandelier above the hall.

Puff puff!

In the next second, the luxury chandelier that illuminated the whole hall was broken directly and turned into countless broken colored glass. And the bright hall also enveloped in darkness, although it was not complete darkness but it is enough so that people wouldn't be able to see clearly.

"What's the matter?!" Ross had been guarded in the middle by his bodyguards when the dark shadows came out from the corner and now darkness covered his eyes and Ross's bad feelings were getting worse and worse.

Puff!

As soon as Ross's voice fell, a figure came rushing from the darkness, instantly knocking down a bodyguard beside Ross.

"Be careful! Protect the young master!" The attack from the darkness made the bodyguards who protected Ross nervous, and they tightened closer to each other.

Kakaka!

More than a dozen loaded guns were pointed out ignoring the frenzied guests who began to flee again. Now, as long as someone dares to rush to their side, shooting is their only choice. However, in the dark, they did not realize that their original team now has one more member to it.

"Er!..." Ross, who was heavily protected in the middle covered his throat, which was constantly bleeding, but he could not speak anymore.

Hoo!

Ross, who was directly killed by Daredevil, fell to the ground and his bodyguards discovered that their master had died. However, they have no time to counterattack, and Daredevil's next attack has already come to them.

Puff puff!

"Ah!"

"This side!"

Da da da !!

The master under their protection is dead and there is a demon-like guy who is constantly harvesting the life of their teammates. The well-trained bodyguards of the Frankenstein Family have also fallen into madness and the guns in their hands are constantly fired bullets. Fortunately, the guests in the hall have already run out by this time, otherwise, this action would have created some unnecessary casualties, although Matt is not particularly concerned about the casualties of those who were here.

Under the cover of darkness, Daredevil is like a grim reaper, shuttling through the random bullets and quickly killing one after another Frankenstein Family fighters.

Bang! Bang!

Da da da!

Gradually, the gunfire slowed down and the shouts in the darkness disappeared. Within two minutes, Daredevil had killed or disabled dozens of people in the hall alone. As for another Frankenstein Family's son, he seems to have slipped away from the secret passage in chaos. But there's Spiderman out there, so Paul wouldn't be able to run.

Bang!

Pop!

There was no one standing around Matt. After defeating these people, Matt looked up at the corner of the hall. There, Spiderman is hanging on the wall.

Hoo!

"Man! That's terrific!" As the spider silk fell in front of Matt, Peter said excitedly.

"You know you were supposed to safeguard the exit. Are you sure nobody's escaping from there?" Ignoring Peter's remark, Matt shook his head and asked.

"Don't worry, I didn't let anyone go" Peter put his fist on his chest to ensure that he had completely sealed the exit there with powerful spider silk.

"Ok then, let's go up and support Mirage Knight. The gunfire upstairs has stopped for a while. I don't know what's going on now?" There has been no news from Lin Rui, and Matt is worried about the situation.

"OK! I also wanted to meet the Berserk Squad you mentioned before! " Peter nodded excitedly and had taken the lead in rushing upstairs.

Hoo!

Daredevil was also behind him and he was not left behind by Spiderman as his strength increased.

.....

Bang bang!

Hoo!

The dark figure and the fiery red figure collided with each other again in the shattered secret room, and the violent storm swept the whole room again.

Crack!

The Flowing Flame Blade, which is covered with a red fire splitted towards Ray and there is a constant explosion of the blade and fist. Lin Rui, who strives for strength and practices Advanced cultivation technique has no idea how much his highest strength can achieve. As for Ray, his power is infinite before his energy is exhausted.

His whole body is surging with turbulent internal energy and Lin Rui's momentum is rising. Holding on to the Flowing Flame Blade, Lin Rui is slowly pressing forward. After blocking the bursting energy on Ray's fist, he was not so unstoppable anymore to Lin Rui.

"Hum!" Ray's fist was suppressed a little, he snorted and the energy in his body burst out again.

Boom!

The energy that was instantly enhanced on Ray's fist did not surprise Lin Rui because he had already figured out Ray's fighting methods. Therefore, when the power rushed out, Lin Rui's momentum increased again and the internal energy on the Flowing Flame Blade became even more turbulent.

Kakaka!

However, just as Lin Rui and Ray once again increased their power, a slight noise came from Lin Rui's Flowing Flame Blade. Then, in front of Lin Rui's surprised eyes, the location where the Flowing Flame Blade touched Ray's fist, a subtle crack appeared and it quickly spread towards the blade.

"No! Can't the Flowing Flame Blade hold up?!" Lin Rui felt helpless when he felt that his internal energy on the Flowing Flame Blade had begun to become unstable.

Hoo!

The light on the Flowing Flame Blade against Ray's fist suddenly faded a little and the downward momentum was pushed up.

Kakaka!

As the radiance of the blade weakened, the crack spread more quickly, and soon it was already spread over half of the blade.

"Haha! Looks like your weird blade can't stand my powers! Without this blade, how can you fight with me?!" Ray apparently observed the change and laughed as he strengthens the power on his fist.

Boom!

Bang!

Kakaka!

This time, the cracked Flowing Flame Blade could no longer block the sudden burst of energy. After a crisp noise, the whole body of the blade crumbled directly under Ray's fist and turned into numerous pieces of debris, flying at high-speed and shooting around the room.

Puff Puff!

The high-speed broken blade pierced the walls of the room in an instant, showing the end of its life.

"Haha! You can die now!" The weapon that hindered Ray has finally collapsed. He slammed his fist directly into Lin Rui, who had no defense.

Lin Rui is still holding the last remaining handle of the Flowing Flame Blade in his hand, and his heart is full of feelings of sadness. Although Lin Rui has long known that the Flowing Flame Blade has failed to keep up with his increased strength, it is sad to see it destroyed.

Bang!

There was a loud noise and Lin Rui, who had just fought with Ray, was bombarded with a blow! He turned over quickly in mid-air and landed somewhat awkwardly on the floor.

Without giving Lin Rui time to breathe, Ray pushed the ground under his feet and rushed towards him like a human shell.

“Spiderman!” Instead of dodging, Lin Rui, half-squatting on the ground, suddenly cried out.

As soon as Lin Rui’s voice fell, several spider threads were coming from the side and heading straight for Ray’s face.

Pop!

However, Peter’s tried-and-tested cobweb had no effect on Ray. Synthetic spider silk is indeed hard, but it also has its own weakness and that is fire. Ray’s energy is more explosive than fire. So Peter’s spider silk had little effect on Ray.

But at the same time as those spider threads were directed at Ray, another spider threads were directed at Lin Rui, pulling him up from the corner. And Lin Rui needs this kind of help because he’s stuck.

Hoo!

When Ray ignored the spider silk and continued to rush forward, Lin Rui had flown to the top of his head with Peter’s help. When Ray looked up, he could only see a black hole in Lin Rui’s hand.

Puff!

A soft sound that was almost inaudible and a white light flashed from the muzzle and in the next moment, it disappeared. Ray who was below Lin Rui stopped and in that moment the look in his eyes began to fade and the tremendous energy surging from his body began to emit unsteadily.

“Avoid it! He’s going to blow up!” With a low shout, Lin Rui gestured to Spiderman to take him away!

The next moment Peter pulled Lin Rui away, Ray, standing in place, swelled up violently and exploded instantaneously.

Bang!

Boom!

...

Chapter 74 Jack’s Revenge

Rumble~

When all the dust settled, the top two floors of the whole six-story villa were directly lifted by the great power of the explosion, the hard walls were blown into numerous pieces, and the rubble and smoke covered everything.

“Hey! Are you all right?!” Hanging on the wall that had been half-destroyed, Peter shouted loudly at him.

It turned out that just before the explosion, Peter and Matt, who were hiding beside him, jumped out of the window at Lin Rui’s reminder. Matt, who could not fly, was of course suspended by Peter with spider silk, and Lin Rui, who was pushed out by the power of the explosion was pulled back by Peter with spider silk to escape the explosion just now.

“Huh! It’s all right!” Suspended by spider silk and dangling by the wall, Lin Rui gasped and answered.

“I’m fine!” Matt, who was next to him also responded.

“Pull us up, I want to know where Jack went!” The explosion was over and the villa didn’t look like it was about to collapse. Lin Rui pulled the spider silk and shouted to Peter up there.

“Ok!” With a promise, Peter, lying on the wall, pulled Lin Rui with his right hand and shot a spider’s silk upward with his left hand.

Huh!

Next second, Peter had brought Lin Rui and Matt back to the dusty chamber that had been blown up. After checking four times, He confirmed that the Level Four Mutant is indeed dead and Lin Rui breathed a sigh of relief. If that Mutant didn’t die he would lose a lot. To kill him, Lin Rui spent a lot of Reward points.

“Mirage Knight, do you know where Jack is?” Without asking about other unimportant things, Matt was most concerned about Jack’s whereabouts.

Although Lin Rui said Jack was a trustable person, Matt would not trust a person so easily. Especially when he came here just now, he saw Lin Rui alone dealing with the Level 4 Mutant and Jack and the high-level Frankenstein Family that he had mentioned before had disappeared, which had to make him suspect.

“He went out after the top of Frankenstein Family, over there!” Not knowing what Matt was thinking, Lin Rui quickly pointed out a direction by glancing at the green spot on Jack’s Armguard(Location tracing magical device). That direction is behind the villa, the secret exit Jack mentioned earlier.

“How did you know that?” Hearing Lin Rui, Peter asked curiously.

“I just know, are you coming or not?” There was no time to explain things to Peter and he might not even understand even if he explains it, So Lin Rui went straight in that direction.

Behind him, Matt followed in silence. As for Peter, after a little hesitation, he went after them.

.....

Behind Frankenstein Family's luxury villa, the secret passageway opens to a secret underground garage. Before Lin Rui and Jack rushed into the room, Hebrew Frankenstein had rushed into the secret passage under the escort of his two sons. Now they're out of the secret lane and into the underground garage that no one else knows except for the Frankenstein Family's core members.

Bang!

Boom!

However, as soon as the group reached the underground garage, a sudden explosion rang out. Then a violent shock came from behind them, throwing them back.

Hoo!

"The Building!" It blew up..." When he got back to his feet and looked back at the bombed villa, Wade Frankenstein whispered somewhat dejectedly. "Paul! He's still inside!" Wade Frankenstein was about to rush back with a roar when he saw the half-collapsed villa.

Hoo!

"It's no use going back now!" Rhode Frankenstein shouted as he hugged his irrational brother. Although his son was also in the villa, they could not turn back now. They can berth more sons but if they die that it will really be the end of the Frankenstein Family.

Compared with the shock of his two sons, Hebrew Frankenstein, the head of the family, had a deep haze in his eyes after seeing the explosion behind him. Among them, besides worrying about his grandson, he also has another person to worry, that is Ray.

Ray is a Level Four Mutant. Even his two sons don't know about Ray. They only know that Ray is one of their father's most trusted bodyguards. In fact, Ray is an adopted son of Hebrew. Of course, there can be no place for foster children in their family. So Ray has been protecting Hebrew as a bodyguard. That's why Ray, a Level Four Mutant was willing to be a close bodyguard for Hebrew, who had always been his father.

Now, Hebrew and his sons have escaped, but Ray did not follow them and the villa had such a violent explosion that Hebrew was sure that Ray was dead or at least seriously injured. Hebrew always felt that Ray had been fierce. If even Ray who is a Level Four Mutant can't stop the attackers tonight, Hebrew doesn't know if any of them could escape. Perhaps the huge family that has lasted for more than a hundred years really has to die out at this time.

"Father! Let's go!" Seeing Hebrew staring at the collapsed villa behind him, Rhode, his eldest son, hurried.

"Let's go!"

At the urging of his eldest son, Hebrew and his sons turned around and stopped looking at the villa behind them. They quickened their pace and rushed to the car parked in front of them. No matter what the villa behind it exploded into, at least they are safe now. Of course, if Rhode and Wade knew Ray was a Level 4 Mutant, they might not be so optimistic.

Hoo!

The black car parked in the secret underground garage quickly opened its door, and the secret driver inside was welcoming the arrival of the Frankenstein Family members.

Da ~

Hebrew, who was walking in front had stepped into the door with one foot and at that moment a crack came from behind them.

Puff!

A flash of silver shot from the direction from which they came, and at the last moment it plunged into the car door just at Hebrew's raised his foot. It's a dagger, a silver dagger.

Stopped by a sudden dagger, Hebrew and others turned to look behind them in surprise. There, a somewhat awkward figure was coming towards them step by step.

"Want to go? Did you ask me?!" In a low voice, Jack, who finally came after them, stared at the three men and asked.

Hoo!

"Jack! What are you doing?!" When Hebrew and Wade were surprised behind him, Rhode suddenly stepped forward and asked.

Obviously, compared to the strangeness of his father and brother to the Berserk Squad members, Rhode who formed the Berserk Squad must know Jack. But Rhode's eyes seem to have something more complicated than a reprimand of Jack's behavior.

"What am I doing? I'm doing what I've always been supposed to do!" Faced with Rhode standing in front of him, Jack's expression became even grimmer. From Jack's words, he seems to have some deep hatred for Frankenstein Family.

"What you supposed to do?! What you should do most is to protect us! Don't forget your identity!" Rhode's eyes flickered at Jack's words and he finally shouted.

"Ha-ha! Don't forget who I am?! Who am I?!" It seems that he heard some funny joke, Jack asked loudly after laughing lightly.

Faced with Jack's counter-question, Rhode, who was showing a tough attitude at first, suddenly stopped talking and slightly stepped back. His eyes had begun to dodge Jack's piercing eyes, and Hebrew's eyes behind Rhode had begun to show some doubts.

"Fortunately you reminded me, otherwise I really would have forgotten that I should have a Frankenstein surname!" Just as Rhode dodged Jack's eyes and Hebrew and Wade wondered, Jack suddenly burst out with such unbelievable news.

Hoo!

Rhode swayed and suddenly stepped back. "I also have a Frankenstein surname!" Jack's words began to echo in his mind, yes, although he deliberately forgot it but this fact can not be changed.

“What’s going on?!” Hearing Jack’s words, Hebrew reached out and pulled his eldest son in front of him and asked aloud.

“It seems that Big Brother has left an amazing illegitimate child!” Before waiting for an answer, Wade had already answered for him.

Hoo!

It seemed that the secret had been torn open. Rhode, who dared not look directly at Jack, broke away from his father’s hand and suddenly walked a few steps forward. “I should have killed you too!” There was a red light in his eyes as Rhode said viciously.

“Then should I thank you for your kindness?! However, my mother was not so lucky! I still remember what she said to me before she died and told me not to take revenge! Let me live well! I have done it. I have been under your hands for more than twenty years. I have done countless bad things for you! But now, it’s time for me to take my revenge!” Faced with Rhode’s madness, The expressions on Jack’s face gradually turned grim as he slowly told his story. Then Jack went towards them step by step.

Faced with Jack’s approaching step by step, They felt deep hatred and death. Rhode knows that his last merciful act 20 years ago created a mine that had exploded. Moreover, this mine will be accompanied by the complete burial of their families.

“Jack! You don’t have to do this! Since you also know your name is Frankenstein, you are a member of our family. There’s no need to do that!” Seeing that his eldest brother was silent, Wade broke in suddenly. He didn’t want to die in the hands of his elder brother illegitimate son.

Puff!

However, in the face of Wade’s persuasion, Jack just waved his right hand mercilessly. In an instant, the same silver light as before shot out and penetrated Wade’s neck in the next second.

“Er!...”

Thump!

Covering his bloody neck unbelievably, Wade slowly fell to the ground.

“Now, what else do you have to say?” With another silver knife in his hand, Jack looked at the people in front of him and asked faintly.

.....

Chapter 75 Genuine Teammates

Bang!

A gunshot broke out in the dark secret underground garage as the driver who had been hiding in the car finally found a chance to shoot.

The bullet passed quickly through Rhode and eventually hit Jack on the shoulder. Puff! A bloody flower soon spread over Jack’s shoulder.

“Hum!” Jack, who was hit by a bullet, grunted and was knocked back a few steps.

Bang! Bang bang!

The first bullet was just the beginning, and as Jack was hit, several more bullets came after him in succession. What’s more, the frightened Hebrew and Rhode took a pistol out of their waist and fired at Jack at the same time. As the rulers of the Mafia clan, Hebrew is not a simple person. It is normal for them to carry guns with them.

Jack, who has been shot wasn’t able to stay in his original position any longer. He rolled a little beneath his feet to avoid all the bullets. For a trained killer like him, face-to-face shooting has become very difficult to pose any threat to him.

Bang! Bang!

“Ah-ah! Die! You should have died twenty years ago!” The pistol kept firing, and Rhode Frankenstein, who had always been known for his calmness, just wanted to kill his illegitimate son in madness.

“Four, three... As he dodged the bullets that kept coming, Jack counted the numbers in his mind.

Bang! ~

Finally, after a burst of intense strikes, the bullets fired at Jack suddenly stopped for an instant.

“Right now!” The sound of the gun paused and Jack’s eyes condensed in an instant.

Siii!

A silver knife flew out in an instant from his hand, aiming at the three people in front.

Puff puff!

Three successive silver flashes passed and the three people who were rapidly changing their ammunition clips, all stopped their movements. The next moment, a large amount of blood sprayed out from them everywhere.

Thump! Thump!

The driver behind the door was dead and Hebrew and Rhode fell to the ground. Hebrew died after he fell to the ground. The influential figure, who had been in charge of Frankenstein Family for decades, finally died in the hands of his grandson, though he had never known such a person before. As for Rhode, it seemed that Jack had deliberately missed his vital spots. Although the knife was inserted in his chest, it avoided the position of his heart.

Da Da!

Without paying attention to the blood flowing out of his shoulders, Jack slowly moved towards his father, who was still struggling on the ground, holding a knife in his hand.

Huh~

“Ah! ~ Ah!” Covering his chest wound, Rhode struggled to climb into the car. However, the sound of footsteps behind him has come to him.

“Ah! ~ Cough!” With a scream, Rhode was kicked over by Jack.

Hoo!

Crouching in front of Rhode and looking at his father’s miserable appearance, Jack’s 20-year-old anger was finally released.

“Jack! Jack! I’m sorry! I’m sorry! Please let me go! Now that the Frankenstein Family is left with you and me, I can give you the whole family! You’re my son. That’s logical!” Feeling his life that was slowly passing, Rhode stared at Jack and shouted. In order to survive, he no longer cared about anything else.

“Let you let go? No problem!” Jack laughed scornfully at what he said and then agreed.

“Eh? Really?!”

“As long as you can bring my mother back to life!” After saying that, Jack put his hand directly on the chest knife.

Stab!

Slowly, the knife inserted into Rhode’s chest and stabbed deeper.

“Ah!” ~” With Jack’s action, Rhode could say nothing but scream.

“Ah!...”

Hoo!

Finally, under Jack’s slow torture, Rhode finally swallowed his last breath and stared at Jack without responding.

After staring at the dead Rhode for a while, Jack finally slowly stood up. “Do you think I care about your so-called family?” Faced with his dead father, Jack murmured expressionlessly.

Later, Jack stood in silence, without leaving or dealing with his wounds. Having endured for more than twenty years, now that his greatest goal in his life has been accomplished, he suddenly felt a sense of loss.

After standing in silence for three minutes, Jack finally slowly turned around and said, “How long are you going to hide behind?” Looking at the secret passage, Jack asked faintly.

After Jack asked that question, there was a sudden movement in the secret passage, and then the three figures came out slowly. It was Lin Rui and others who came after him.

“When did you arrive?” Looking at his three teammates, Jack asked with complicated eyes. Actually, Jack really doesn’t want people to know his life story.

“Long enough for us to piece together a family ethics revenge drama.” In response to Jack’s inquiry, Lin Rui replied truthfully.

Although they had no intention of hearing Jack’s life story, Lin Rui was shocked that Jack was the illegitimate son of the Frankenstein Family.

“Jack, I didn’t expect you to have such a story. Suddenly, I like you a little.” After Lin Rui, Peter suddenly said this. Getting revenge after more than twenty years of humiliation fits Peter’s taste of doing things.

Slap!

“Hey! Mirage Knight! Why are you slapping me?!” But just after Peter had said that, Lin Rui next to him suddenly slapped him.

“Speak less and nobody will think that you are dumb!” Lin Rui was also helpless in the face of Peter’s flourishes on all occasions.

“So, Jack, what are you going to do next?” Walking up to Jack, Lin Rui asked.

Jack’s revenge was so great that he no longer seemed to need the help of Lin Rui’s team. If he opts out, Lin Rui has no good reason to keep him. Although Jack had promised before, he didn’t really want to stay with them, But Lin Rui wants him to stay with the team especially after he knew Jack’s life. Of course, the top of Frankenstein Family has been destroyed, but this huge family will not collapse directly. Without a direct leader, someone else will jump out and take the position.

“Do you want me to stay in your team to deal with your enemies with you?” Instead of answering Lin Rui, Jack asked back. Of course, he knows what Lin Rui means, but now he has no goals and no longer wants to fight.

“Of course it’s best if you want to, or we can help put the Frankenstein Family in your hands. After all, you are a direct member. The Mafia families are lead by strength, I believe your strength is enough to deter those guys.” Lin Rui first nodded to express his point of view, and then he made a suggestion.

Frankenstein Family’s most important members are dead, but it hasn’t been destroyed yet. If Lin Rui helped Jack take control of the family, it would save them a lot of trouble. And then Lin Rui will be ready to deal with the Vampire problem. With the help of a family that has been trading with them, Lin Rui will find it easier.

“Well, no matter what I choose, you don’t mean to let me go.” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Jack said with a chuckle.

“After all, you used me to help you stop the Level 4 Mutant and I’ve been following our previous agreement.” Shaking his head, Lin Rui directly broke Jack’s original plan.

Jack frowned at Lin Rui’s words. Lin Rui was right. He promised to join Lin Rui’s team, which was meant to help him avenge himself. And before that, Jack wasn’t sure Lin Rui or they could deal with Level 4 Mutant. Jack put Lin Rui in a dangerous position to avenge himself. So when Lin Rui broke down his plan, Jack had nothing to say.

“Although I knew from the beginning that you were untrustworthy, I didn’t realize that you really intended to break your promise.” Just as Jack was silent, Matt on the other side finally spoke.

“Oh! So you are using us to avenge you! I don’t like you anymore!” It seems that it’s not until now that Spiderman shouted aloud.

“I don’t like you either, Spiderman! Nevertheless, I will keep my promise. I am willing to join you in dealing with the dark forces.” Glancing at Peter, Jack finally chose to join Lin Rui.

"Welcome, I don't think you'll regret it!" Happily reaching out a hand to Jack, Lin Rui said with a smile. Lin Rui was delighted that Jack finally volunteered to join his team.

Hoo!

"I hope so." Grasping Lin Rui's hand, Jack said lightly.

"So are you ready to take over the ownerless Frankenstein Family now?" Just after shaking hands with Jack, Lin Rui suddenly asked.

"Hey! Didn't you say that just now?!" Hearing Lin Rui's words, Jack shouted uncomfortably.

"You haven't decided to be our partner just now! Now that we are partners, shouldn't these things be okay?" Looking at Jack, Lin Rui said with a smile.

"Is it too late for me to opt-out now?"

Hoo!

"What do you say? Hey hey!" Before Lin Rui answered, Peter had already sandwiched Jack between him and Matt.

.....

While Lin Rui's team was discussing how to solve the Frankenstein Family completely, another man struggling with the dark forces was in great trouble. Blade, a vampire hunter who is half-human and half-Vampire.

Blade fought against Vampires all his life, wandering around Vampire's world and saving people who were treated as food by Vampires. That's why Blade has always been the eyesore of the Vampire forces. But because of Blade's strength, he not only has Vampire's powerful body but also has human advantages. So in the battle against Blade, Vampires never achieved any good results.

Now Vampires has come up with a way to defeat Blade, using his boundless hatred for Vampires. So, will Blade be fooled?

.....

Chapter 76 New York City's Large Lizard

Hoo!

Sitting on Mirage Knight's sofa, Spiderman is used to occupying Lin Rui's territory. Although Lin Rui has reminded him more than once to plan his own territory, Peter always says that he has no time. In fact, he just can't afford to buy his own sofa. But he didn't want to borrow money from Lin Rui. He didn't know if the base had any public funds.

Kabbah~Kabbah~

"Huh! It's boring!" Leaning against the sofa tossing the remote control, Peter shouted.

Peter has lost much interest in the street thieves and robbers since he acted with Lin Rui once. Although Peter is still helping people, these things are too trivial to compare with the Mafia and the mysterious Vampires.

Puff!

"Didn't you just captured two car thieves?" Lin Rui asked lightly as he kicked Peter on the other side of the sofa.

"And now your fame has caught up with me. Although I still think your modified clothes are still ugly, Spiderman is a new and rising Vigilante that New York is very concerned about." Sitting next to Peter, Lin Rui went on.

Compared with Mirage Knight and Daredevil, who spend most of their time at night, Spiderman's activity time is almost 24 hours, which brings him more reputation. Moreover, He is also attractive as he often flies around with spider webs between high-rise buildings. Lin Rui has been asked by his editor-in-chief to take Spiderman's picture as much as possible, and he is now considering whether to take Peter's picture and get a newspaper bonus.

"Teach those two fools who have no technical and talking skill at all! Also, can you stop talking about my clothes? Do you think it's easy for me to modify them?" Faced with Lin Rui's words, Peter shouted in protest.

"I see! I will restrain myself!" With a helpless nod, Lin Rui didn't want to be bothered by Peter all the time.

"So, haven't there been any action lately? Last time I heard Daredevil say that his opponent was very fierce, when shall we go and put him down?" The restless Spiderman will not give up any chance to fight criminals, especially those who are evil.

"Jack is taking over the Frankenstein Family quickly with Daredevil's help, although it is not so smooth, but at least it's in his control. As for Wilson, we will not let him go but we need a plan. I think it's not too far when we will pull him down from his high throne." Lin Rui simply explains the situation to Peter.

"What do you mean... use the power of the Frankenstein Family to confront Wilson's forces so that we can better deal with the last big boss?" After Lin Rui's brief explanation, Peter quickly responded.

"Hmm, that's right, so Daredevil is helping Jack clean up some short-sighted guys in the Frankenstein Family these days. After taking over the Frankenstein Family completely, Jack will fight against Wilson's forces. When Wilson deals with the Frankenstein Family, then it will be the time for us to start." With a nod, Lin Rui told Spiderman his tentative plan.

"Cool! Mirage Knight! You are a genius!"

"So, you don't have to worry, there are always times when you can use the rest. And I have a hunch that you won't have much time to relax." Watching the program on TV, Lin Rui said lightly.

Peter has been Spiderman for some time. Although Lin Rui doesn't know when the giant Lizard appeared in the full story, it should be coming soon. As for Peter, who is familiar with said Lizard, His battle against him will be the next big story.

So while waiting for Lin Rui’s big plan, Peter took time to go to Professor Connors’ laboratory. But when he came to the lab again, Professor Connors wasn’t there and it seemed that he hasn’t been here in a long time.

Peter did not know that Professor Connors had been expelled by Oscoorp for refusing to continue human trials when he became Spiderman and was busy saving the world. On the last day of being forced to leave his office, Professor Connors injected himself with a dose of the serum, he wanted to test on himself with his research results.

Not surprisingly, the serum worked and Professor Connors’ lost right hand grew back quickly. But Professor Connors hasn’t been happy for long and the mutation that appeared in the failed experiment began with his new right hand.

Unlike the original plot, when Professor Connors, incarnated as a giant lizard, wandered across the bridge in search of Dr. Ratha, who expelled him, Peter did not eat at Gwen’s house but wandered in the streets of New York. After all, Gwen was not Peter’s girlfriend at this time. In fact, during this time, Gwen and Harry are getting closer, No one knows which step they have reached in their relationship.

So when he heard the sirens on the road, Peter flew quietly to the tall building with spider silk and quickly rushed to the accident site. By the time Peter arrived at the bridge, Professor Connors had overturned several cars on the bridge.

Boom! Boom!

Constantly overturning the cars in front of him, Professor Connors’s mutant lizard form is getting more and more violent, and he wants to find Dr. Ratha to stop him from going to the Veterans Hospital. He lifted another car in front of him and threw it aside. This time the throw was a bit powerful. The car flew directly over the guardrail and fell down.

“Ah!” The man who had not had time to escape the car shouted inside.

Hey!

Puff!

At this time, Peter finally arrived, and the spider thread from his wrist just stuck to the car and he hung it under the bridge without letting it fall.

Boom! Boom!

Without looking back, Professor Connors’ human side has been slowly suppressed by the lizard’s raging genes, with more and more efforts being made and more cars flying out of the bridge.

Pump!

“Damn it!” Spiderman can only keep firing spider silk in the back to hang the cars flying out one by one near the bridge, but he has been unable to catch up with the Giant Lizard in front of him for the time being.

After overturning more than a dozen cars on the bridge, Professor Connors finally found Ratha’s Mercedes-Benz. The giant mutant lizard’s claws went straight through the roof and grabbed at Ratha trapped in the car.

The sharp claws pulled hard in the car two times, and Dr. Ratha was lucky to escape. However, the seats in the car were not so lucky, almost all of them were scratched.

Bang!

Instead of catching Dr. Ratha, Dr. Connors smashed the window directly, intending to take the car apart. But just as he lifted the whole car, Peter finally came.

“Incoming!” With a loud cry, Peter, swinging by the spider silk, kicked Professor Connors, who was carrying the car.

However, after the Giant Lizard was kicked away, the car he was carrying on his paw fell directly under the bridge. Peter had to give up chasing the lizard and rescue Dr. Ratha again. When Peter came back to look for the lizard again, It had already left. His first mutation was very unstable and has now begun to degenerate.

“Somebody Help! Help me! My son is trapped!” Just as Peter was about to catch up, a cry for help came from behind him.

Without hesitation, Peter quickly turned back to save people. Lightly landing in the car suspended under the bridge, Peter soon saw the little boy trapped inside.

“Ah! ~~” However, the trapped boy suddenly saw a grotesquely dressed man lying on the car glass and screamed with horror.

“Hey! Don’t be afraid! What’s your name?” Quickly removing his mask, Peter, showing his face, gently asked the little boy inside.

“Jack~ My name is Jack.” Seeing Peter’s still reassuring face, the little boy finally reassured himself and answered Peter’s words in a low voice.

“Okay, Jack. Let’s get you out of here, okay?” Successfully comforted the little boy, Peter began to save him while communicating with him.

“Ah! ~~” Finally, at the last moment when the car fell, Peter succeeded in pulling the little boy with spider silk. He climbed up the bridge with the little boy in his arms and gave him to his father safely. Peter was also tired. Without staying in place, Peter quickly left the scene.

That night, the New York police held a press conference about the accident on the bridge. Unlike the original plot, Police Captain George did not want to immediately apprehend Spiderman but said the police would pay close attention to the matter. It seems that they have more important things now and since Spiderman, who boasts of being a hero of justice, It would be okay if he doesn’t care about him for the time being. As for the lizard that wreaked havoc on the bridge, they’ll find it.

Not long after the accident, Lin Rui knew it. Matt didn't pay much attention to it. He thought the big guy should be some Mutant. Of course, Lin Rui knew who the lizard was, so he was very concerned about it and asked Peter about it.

"At the time, I was busy saving people. I didn't have much time to observe that big fellow. But he looks like a predator, and he should be strong." That's what Peter said at the time.

"Well, you have to be more careful now. If this lizard reappears, remember to call me. We can't let such a dangerous fellow run around in New York City." Finally, Lin Rui reminded Peter.

Although The Giant Lizard was destined to be defeated by Spiderman, Peter spent a lot of effort in the original plot and with the help of Police Captain George, he defeated the Lizard with the help of gene detoxification serum. Rather than saying that he defeated it, it would be better to say that Peter won because of his Spiderman protagonist halo.

Since Peter is not alone now, Lin Rui certainly won't mind his helping him to deal with Dr. Lizard, just as he and Daredevil helped Tony beat his uncle Obadiah. Moreover, although Dr. Connors is somewhat paranoid about his research, it cannot be denied that he is still an outstanding scientist. Less than a last resort, Lin Rui didn't want Dr. Connors to end up dead in the end. The best way is to stop Dr. Connors before he can make unforgivable things. This is what Lin Rui wants to do when he wants to intervene in the original story.

Chapter 77 Fighting In The Underground Passage

The day after meeting the lizard, Peter returned to Dr. Connors' private laboratory. This time, he finally met the biogenic doctor, who was already in the original state of Recovery.

"Hey! Doctor, I haven't seen you for a long time." Walking into the lab, Peter greeted Dr. Connors.

"Well, I'm doing another experiment recently. Why did you come to me when you were free?" Dr. Connors replied without any emotions on his face.

"Doctor, I got a free class. I wanted to ask you a question." Sitting down at an empty experimental table, Peter explained the purpose of his visit.

"Well? What's the problem?"

"How would a predator track a reptile?"

"Oh, they don't. Most reptiles are at the top of their respective food chain. Kings of their Domain"

"They gotta have vulnerabilities."

"Why the Sudden Interest in the cold-blooded animals?"

"Just asking a question~ there is a school project that requires biological profiles on them. So because of the cold blood would they react to the sudden changes in temperature?"

"Well, you have to catch one first... Did you know there's a rumor of a new species in New York? Beautiful and quite large... But it can be aggressive if threatened."

"Dr. you all right?" Feeling that Dr. Connors seemed a little different than usual, Peter asked with concern.

"Never been better, Peter. Never been better. Now, if you'll excuse me. Afraid I have to ask you to leave. I have a new project I am working on. I need to be alone."

"Uh-well, Doctor." At the urging of Dr. Connors, Peter followed him and left the laboratory.

"Wonderful things are coming, Peter, wonderful things." As if there was something urgent, Dr. Connors walked out of the lab and left Peter, saying something difficult to understand to Peter.

Looking at Dr. Connors leaving in a hurry, Peter felt something strange. And just as Peter was about to leave, he suddenly heard a noise coming from the side. Without ignoring the movement, Peter looked for the sound and slowly walked to the corner of the lab.

Grrr~

In the corner of the laboratory, there is a mutant mouse running out of the glass box. It is eating the corpse of its companion. It has completely lost the appearance of the mouse and has completely changed into a ferocious monster.

"Fred?" Peter could hardly believe his eyes when he saw the mutant monster in the corner. Dr. Connors's experiment was unsuccessful, and the mice eventually mutated after fusing lizard genes.

"Dr. Connors was the lizard last night?!" Soon Peter linked Dr. Connors to last night's lizard. Dr. Connors is not working on new projects, but experimenting on himself. He is out of his mind.

Hoo!

The next moment Peter rushed out of the lab to tell the New York police the news. That lizard is not a monster, but an experimental variant of Dr. Connors!

.....

"You must find Dr. Connors! He's a dangerous man! We must catch him!" But when Peter found Police Captain George to tell the truth, he was just thrown out.

"This kid, Is he crazy?" Police Captain George frowned as he looked at Peter, who had been driven out by police officers.

There have been so many things going on lately that it seems that all the influential figures, New York and even the New Jersey and Buffalo police have been mobilized. As far as George knows, even SWAT has been transferred out. He really doesn't know what he going to do.

Jeston Gang still has a lot of residual forces on the run, and what seems to have happened to Frankenstein Family needs attention. What's more, New York seems to have recently emerged as a hidden and deep Mafia force. There are several other Vigilantes who are always bouncing around. In such a case, the presence of a big lizard on the streets of New York does not have much police to deal with.

“Jimmy! Give me everything we have on Dr. Curtis Connors!” Captain George arranged for people to start investigating Dr. Connors, although he did not believe Peter’s words. If it was up to him, George certainly couldn’t let him trouble the chaotic situation anymore.

.....

“Spiderman, what’s the matter?” Lin Rui, who was playing games at the base, suddenly got a call from Peter. He had a hunch that something had happened.

“I know who that lizard was last night! I’m looking for him now! I’ll stop him from continuing to destroy everything!” Peter on the other end of the phone seemed to be in a hurry and said aloud.

“Spiderman, where are you now? Don’t act alone. I’ll help you!” Sure enough, Peter has discovered Dr. Connors’ secret. In order to solve this problem better, Lin Rui intends to intervene personally.

“He seems to be hiding in the New York Underground and I’m on Manhattan’s Fifth Avenue right now! I may have found him. I’m going down!” Having said these two words, Peter hung up the phone and went underground.

“Really! Can’t he wait for me?!” Helplessly hanging up, Lin Rui threw the game handle and jumped up from the sofa. The next moment, Lin Rui has rushed out of the base.

Ticking ~ Ticking ~

New York underground drainage channel is dark and humid. Peter puts on Spiderman’s clothes and lies on his cobweb, sensing the movement from all directions. In order to convince the Police Captain, Peter also glued his camera to the wall, and later he would get the best picture of the lizard.

Ticking ~ Ticking ~

Buzz ~

Finally, Peter, who had waited for a long time, finally sensed some movement from a spider web. Peter was on guard as his eyes focused on the cobweb.

Buzz ~

However, another spider thread sounded. Then the third and fourth, more and more directions are coming. Peter, who had been forced by this situation, had to go around and around in the middle of the cobweb, trying to find out the reason.

Peter didn’t wait too long, and soon lizards appeared from the spider silk that shot into each channel. They crawled past Peter as if they were driven by something and left in another direction.

Huh ~

Looking in the direction of the lizards’ escape, Peter did not notice that a huge lizard was quietly appearing on the wall above the passage behind him.

Hoo!

Just like a predator pouncing on his prey, the lizard instantly jumped over the passage toward Peter on the spider web.

At last, he sensed the movement behind him, and Peter turned quickly. But it was a little late. The lizard's huge claws pressed Peter on the cobweb. Ripp! The sharp claws quickly cut two holes in Peter's chest.

"You can't stop me! This will be an important step in human evolution!" Dr. Connors, who has changed his temperament by fusing genes said with murder in his eyes, and the power on his claws is slowly increasing. He's going to pinch the spider to death for his bad deeds.

At that moment, Peter finally slightly broke away from the control of the lizard's claws and shot several spider threads on Dr. Connors face.

Puff puff!

Big targets are better, too. Dr. Connors's giant lizard form was blinded by a cobweb in an instant. When its eyes are blocked, the strength on the claws naturally relaxes a lot.

Bang!

As the lizard loosened its grip, Peter put his foot on him, then shot spider thread aside and quickly left his grip.

"Roar!!" Tearing up the spider silk on his face, Dr. Connors roared at Peter.

How could Spiderman, already out of control, be able to dodge the lizard's attack agilely in this underground passage with his chest wound?

Huh!

However, in this small space, Spiderman's most important spider thread equipment plays a limited role. Dr. Connors's mutant lizard form, however, was well suited to such an environment, and in a few moments, it ripped all the spider silk that Peter had shot off, pushing him into a more dangerous position.

Another claw came and Peter wasn't able to dodge it and was swept to the wall by Dr. Connors. As Dr. Connors said before, once he was threatened, he would become aggressive. Especially this time he increased the dosage of gene serum injection, Spiderman as an individual cannot deal with him anymore.

Before falling off the wall, Peter shot a spider thread and pulled himself to the other side. But just as he was being pulled past, a dark shadow had been drawn. It was a long lizard tail!

Bang!

Peter was hit by the huge lizard's tail and fell to the ground.

"Cough!!" Crouching in the dirty water of the underground drainage channel, Peter couldn't stop coughing twice. Dr. Connors was so strong after the mutation that Peter didn't expect it.

Following Peter and jumping down, Dr. Connors waved his claw to end the "weak" spider.

As spider threads were being fired from his wrist to stop the lizard's pace, Peter was thinking about getting away. He can't stop Dr. Connors alone now. He should wait for Mirage Knight.

"Roar! It's no use!" Continuously tearing apart those annoying cobwebs, Dr. Connors roared and approached Peter quickly.

Peter, who had been pushed to the corner, could not retreat but watched the lizard's claws waving. Maybe he could escape in that empty space at the moment that his claw was swinging over!

However, just as Peter was concentrating on trying to escape, a burst of noise came from behind Dr. Connors that Peter was familiar with.

Puff puff!

"Roar!!" The lizard, which was wielding its claws to kill the spider, suddenly trembled and screamed, and then abandoned Peter, who was in front of him and quickly turned away.

Ripp!

After the lizard turned around, several black objects pierced his huge head.

Puff puff!

Lifting his claws to block the objects, Dr. Connors quickly left his place and ran up and down the aisle. He did not know where the attack came from, but it was clear that it would do him a lot of harm. And the time of his mutation ending is approaching, and he can't continue to play.

Da da!

After Dr. Connors left quickly, a sound of footsteps came from a side passage. Then Mirage Knight appeared in front of Peter.

"Hey! Spiderman, Did you miss me?"

.....

Chapter 78 Mad Connors

Hoo!

Seeing Mirage Knight in front of him, Spiderman Peter finally breathed a sigh of relief, so he leaned back in the corner of the underground passage and stopped moving. Peter was beaten almost from the beginning of the battle and he didn't expect that the cross-gene serum, which Dr. Connors studied, would have such a strong effect on the human body.

Noticing Peter's misery, Lin Rui came to him very quickly and squatting down and took out the Beginner Treatment Spray.

"Hold on, the wound looks quite deep." Reaching out and lifting Peter's broken Spiderman suit with blood sticking to his chest, Lin Rui whispered a warning.

Peter seemed to feel a little breathless and ripped off his Spiderman headgear, exposing his face to Lin Rui. Although he did not know that Lin Rui knew his identity from the beginning, Peter's action also represented his trust in Lin Rui.

"Huh-huh! Don't worry, I can take it!" He took two deep breaths after removing his hood, and Peter stared at Lin Rui and said earnestly.

Tear~

Without saying anything more because Peter uncovered his headgear, Lin Rui quickly ripped all the clothes off Peter's chest. The next moment, Peter's chest wound was exposed to Lin Rui. Three long and deep bloodstains spread from Peter's chest to his stomach, and a lot of blood had been shed.

"Fortunately, it should still be within my sprays healing scope." Checking the wound carefully, Lin Rui said calmly. Although the wound looks serious, it's not much for Spiderman, who has a variant constitution.

"Oh, That's good." Although the wound was painful, Peter couldn't help making fun of it.

"Yes, good news otherwise your recovery would have taken a long time." Picking up the Beginner Treatment spray, Lin Rui directed it at Peter's chest.

Pu~Pu~Pu~

"Hiss~" Peter felt the sudden cold coming from his chest and took a deep breath.

"Ah" But after the initial stimulation, Peter felt a burst of coolness in his wounds and even his pain was suppressed.

"OK, we'll leave after you have a rest. We can't deal with that lizard in this environment. He fled just now, knowing that the time of his mutation is coming to an end." Spraying the medicine on Peter, Lin Rui sat down beside him.

"Well, I didn't expect Dr. Connors to be like that." Looking at Dr. Connors as he disappeared, Peter said in a somewhat low voice. Peter had already shown his face to Lin Rui, and there was no need to hide the lizard's identity.

"Don't worry, we will find a solution." Patting Peter on the shoulder, Lin Rui whispered in consolation. Peter must have had a hard time seeing his mentor like this as he has a lot of respect for him.

But as Lin Rui patted Peter on the shoulder, Peter suddenly turned his head and looked at him seriously.

"Hey~ What?" Suddenly stared at by Peter, Lin Rui asked with some guilt. Lin Rui and Peter have been switching back and forth between Mirage Knight and Jackson's identities these days and he is worried about where he is showing his feet.

"Sometimes you look like a friend of mine, a good friend." Still staring at Lin Rui's masked face, Peter suddenly said.

These days with Mirage Knight, Peter can feel Lin Rui's care for himself. Originally, he didn't care much, but Lin Rui always inadvertently exposed some behavior patterns that usually coincide with his friend, which made Peter very confused.

"Oh! Is it? Should I be happy? That friend of yours should be very good." Laughing, Lin Rui quietly took back the hand he had put on Peter's shoulder.

Sure enough! This guy has guessed something! Trying to calm himself down, but Lin Rui's heart is already rolling. Although it's okay for Peter to know his real identity, Lin Rui doesn't want to expose it now. Moreover, even if exposed, Lin Rui did not want Peter to discover it but admitted it to himself.

"However, this is impossible. My friend is very smart, but he doesn't even have a lot of sports cells. How could he possibly have such great strength as you!" But just as Lin Rui was struggling to tell Peter the truth, Peter suddenly went on.

"Huh?! Ha-ha, is it?" Already looking for a good reason, Lin Rui suddenly heard Peter's words and quickly laughed.

"Well, he doesn't seem very interested in these Vigilantes or anything. No, he doesn't seem to be interested in many things, but recently he found a journalist's internship." The wound was slowly recovering and Peter's tuberculosis attributes were slowly recovering.

"Well, he sounds like a normal person." With a sigh of relief, Lin Rui spoke simply.

"Maybe, but I always thought he would not be ordinary. Maybe that's what I expect of my friends." Speaking of his good friend, Peter's mouth was slightly warped. Maybe he should tell Jackson and Harry what happened to him.

Peter suddenly possessed a special ability far beyond ordinary people. Stimulated by Uncle Ben's injury, he chose to wear his ugly Spiderman suit and go out on the street. Now he joined Mirage Knight's team to deal with the underground forces hidden in the darkness of New York. Peter felt that he had slowly found the way forward. 'With Great power come even greater responsibility'. At last, he understood the meaning of this sentence slowly.

"It seems that you have some good friends. Do they know that you have done so many things?" Seeing Peter's expression, Lin Rui suddenly had an impulse to tell Peter the truth, but he resisted it.

"No, Vigilante is not very popular either. Take you for an example, despite all the good things you've done, there's still the media in New York picking on you, and the police won't thank us for what we've done." Shaking his head, Peter said lightly. He didn't notice the mistakes in Lin Rui's words. Lin Rui just said them. He naturally brought Harry into Peter's friends, but Peter didn't hear them.

"Don't worry, as long as we persist, they will one day know that they are wrong." Knowing that ordinary people have different views on Vigilante, Lin Rui calmly said.

"Well, as long as we stick to it." With a serious nod, Peter repeated Lin Rui's words.

"Most of my strength is already recovered. Let's leave. The longer the delay, the more crazy Dr. Connors gets. We need to stop him before he makes any big mistake." At the end of the chat, Peter felt his wound recovered and said to Lin Rui.

“Well, where’s your backpack?” Holding Peter up, Lin Rui then asked, knowing that every time Peter went out, he would carry a backpack for his clothes.

“Hidden there by me, and the camera on the wall, I hope it’s not broken in the battle just now.” Pointing in a direction, Peter also remembered the camera he used to take pictures of Dr. Connors.

“Well, wait here a minute. I’ll get it.” Holding Peter against the wall, Lin Rui said and ran quickly in the direction he had just said.

In less than a minute, Lin Rui came back, but he only had Peter’s backpack in his hand, and the camera was not brought back.

“Your camera seems to have been taken away by that lizard. Is there anything important in it?” Passing Peter’s backpack to him, Lin Rui went on. Dr. Connors apparently noticed the camera that had taken a few photos of him during the battle and took them away while he was running away.

“There’s nothing important, but now Dr. Connors probably knows who I am. He may go to school to see me, Mirage Knight. We must pay attention to the situation in the school these two days!” Hearing that his camera had been taken away by Dr. Connors, Peter said seriously.

“Well, don’t worry, I will pay attention. Now, let’s go back. There are some things that we need to discuss about this big lizard.” Holding Peter step by step, Lin Rui said seriously.

For Dr. Connors, Lin Rui has come up with a plan to deal with him. Now that he has taken Peter’s camera away, he should go to school to find him in the same way as in the original plot. Lin Rui is going to solve this problem in school. Jack and Matt have almost solved the Frankenstein Family. He has no time to play hide-and-seek with the lizard.

“I must find a way to cure Dr. Connors!”

In this way, Lin Rui helped Peter out of the underground passage, and they would return to the secret base to discuss countermeasures.

.....

Kakaka~

The huge size quickly shrinks, and the muscles and bones that swelled due to genetic variation quickly retracted. Dr. Connors, who returned to his underground lab, quickly recovered to normal and his right hand disappeared again.

After violently smashing a test bed, Dr. Connors has become increasingly unable to control his emotions. The cross-species gene serum brought more than physical variation to Connors, his mind was greatly affected.

After grabbing the camera he had just thrown on the ground, Dr. Connors soon realized that it was Peter’s camera. Originally, He wanted to crush the camera directly, but Dr. Connors, as a normal man did not have the strength to crush it and the camera was still undamaged.

Bang!

Not bad, Dr. Connors threw the camera out directly.

“Peter Park!”

“Spiderman!”

“I am not the one who needs help!”

“There will be no more loneliness, no more outcast! A species-wide distribution could enhance humanity on an evolutionary scale! The survival of the fittest!”

“That, Changing like the snake, I might be free... to cast off flesh wherein I dwell confined.”

“Would you give it all up after all you know you can do? All the power you feel.”

“I can save them! You won’t get in the way of my plan...Peter Parker!”

Like schizophrenia, Dr. Connors has been talking to a voice in his mind. Guided by that voice, Dr. Connors finally made the decision to solve the problem named as Spiderman!

However, Dr. Connors did not notice that while he was talking to the voice in his mind, something seemed to be watching him in the shadow behind him, but nothing was there.

.....

Chapter 79 Lin Rui’s Plan

Peter rested at the secret base for the whole night and he almost recovered from his injuries. With Lin Rui’s Beginner Treatment spray and Peter’s own strong physique and recovery ability, He recovered in less than half a day.

“Spiderman, you said you knew that lizard, and what gene serum mutated it, didn’t you?” Sitting on the sofa, Lin Rui asked Peter. Although Lin Rui has his plans, he can only lead Peter step by step without revealing his identity and knowledge.

“Well, I should be familiar with Dr. Connors. His gene serum was completed with my help, but I didn’t know what will happen in the end. There must be something wrong with the experiment! ” Nodding, Peter answered earnestly. The perfect gene serum should help sick people in recovering their health, not turn them into monsters.

“So, is there any way to eliminate the effect of this gene serum? Since he got mutated by injecting this serum, is there anything like a vaccine that can eliminate this mutation?” Lin Rui, who knows the plot well, began to lead Peter step by step, he wanted to turn Dr. Connor back before he causes a big problem.

“You mean like an antidote?! The antidote to gene serum!” Peter’s eyes suddenly lit up when he heard Lin Rui’s question.

“Yes, Antidote. Is there such a thing?” Seeing that Peter is on the right road, Lin Rui then asked. Although he did not know exactly how the antidote came out, it existed in the original plot, which was also a necessary condition for the success of Lin Rui’s plan.

“Antidote! Gene serum neutralizer! Of course!” Sure enough, Peter nodded sharply and answered. If Dr. Connors was injected with the antidote, the lizard would naturally disappear and the threat would disappear.

“Can you get the antidote now?” Now that the situation regarding the antidote has been identified, Lin Rui wants to get it as soon as possible.

“There is no ready-made, I would need Oscorp equipment to make it!” Peter has jumped up from the sofa. He needs to make an antidote as quickly as possible.

Mirage Knight, I’m going to Oscorp right now. I have a friend over there. I can make the antidotes tonight. If Dr. Connors went to school to find me tomorrow, we would be able to deal with him!” Peter was apparently very excited after finding a way to deal with Dr. Connors.

“Well, go quickly! Tomorrow I’ll go to your school and watch it. I won’t give that lizard a second chance to hurt other people.” Nodding to Peter, Lin Rui assured him. Anyway, he’s going to school tomorrow too. It would be good if Dr. Connors doesn’t come, but if he does come then he will beat him up.

“OK! Then I’ll go first!” With a promise, Peter has rushed out of the secret base. It’s very late now. He hopes that Harry hasn’t slept yet. He’ll wake him up even if he’s asleep.

“I hope everything goes well tomorrow...” Lin Rui whispered as he watched Peter leave. This is the biggest time he had ever intervened in Marvel World’s original plot, and he didn’t know what the consequences would be.

.....

The next day, Peter with the antidote came to school early. Last night Peter woke Harry up and asked him to give him permission to go into Oscorp’s biological laboratory to produce several antidotes.

Speaking of Harry, after a series of actions taken by the company during this period, he is now in control of the real power within the company, even without Norman Osborn, Harry can hold himself up in the company. Harry did not even ask Peter the reason for his request. He was willing to help his friends anyway.

“Hey! Mirage Knight, where are you?” Looking at the bustling classmates in the school, Peter asked Lin Rui over the phone. Peter wanted to evacuate the school, but he could not come up with any reason to do so.

“Don’t worry. I’m already in school. I’ll help you if that big lizard appears.” On the other end of the phone, Lin Rui’s reply came very quickly. In fact, he was standing just in front of Peter and waving to him. Of course, he was not in his Phantom Suit and he is still the average student, Jackson.

“Okay, I’ve got the antidote. I can’t let Dr. Connors run today.”

“Don’t worry, he won’t be able to run.”

“Well, I’ll go to class first. My friend is waiting for me.” Peter was relieved to hear from Mirage Knight. With antidotes in hand and a strong teammate like Mirage Knight, Dr. Connors would not pose any danger if he did show up.

“Ok.” Seeing Peter approaching him, Lin Rui hung up quickly.

“Hey! Jackson, who were you talking to on the phone just now?” Peter walks up to Lin Rui and greets him.

“Spiderman!” Raising the phone, Lin Rui answered with a smile.

“Ha! If you were on the phone with Spiderman, I was talking to Mirage Knight just now!” Hearing Lin Rui’s answer, Peter said incredulously.

“Hey hey! Believe me! I’m a good friend of Spiderman!” Seeing Peter’s reaction, Lin Rui went on telling the truth.

“Er! ~ Jackson, when did you became interested in these Vigilantes?” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Peter asked with an odd look.

Although Peter thought Lin Rui must be joking, What he said is true. Spiderman is himself, and he and Lin Rui are good friends. Aren’t Spiderman and Lin Rui good friends? That’s True.

“Well, after all, I’m a journalist now, and these Vigilantes are always the focus of attention. Let me tell you, our editor-in-chief also said that whoever can take a picture of Mirage Knight or Spiderman will get a big bonus. I was just discussing with Spiderman to see if he could take some pictures for me.” At Peter’s inquiry, Lin Rui’s told him with a straight face.

“And I’m still a member of Mirage Knight fan base, aren’t you?” Finally, Lin Rui added another sentence.

“Right, maybe Spiderman also needs a fan website of his own.” At Lin Rui’s reminder, Peter suddenly found out that he also had fans, so a fans website is very necessary.

“Well, Spiderman has a lot of fans right now.” With a nod, Lin Rui agreed with Peter. Of course, he was already laughing in his heart. Wouldn’t it be funny if Peter started to create his own fan website?

So Peter and Lin Rui chatted and went to class. However, Both of them were secretly watching the situation in the school. Once Dr. Connors appears, they will be ready.

Riinnnggg~

Soon, the first class was over and Dr. Connors did not show up. Peter’s tense nerves relaxed slightly. In order to pay attention to Dr. Connors, Peter didn’t hear what the teacher was saying during the whole class just now. Compared with Peter’s mental fatigue, it’s much easier for Lin Rui, who has upgraded Insight Technique.

“Jackson, what’s your next lesson?” As Lin Rui and Peter walked down the school corridor toward the next class, Peter asked more questions. In fact, Peter was thinking about how to make his friend safer in school.

“History.” Answering Peter’s question, Lin Rui knew Peter was worried about his safety.

“That, Jackson, wait till...” Looking at his friend, Peter didn’t know what to say to him. Say that there will be a big lizard in school today and he should leave quickly? He feared that Lin Rui, like Police Captain George, would think that he’s gone nuts.

Boom!

Boom!

“Ah!~~”

“Ah! Help!”

While Peter and Lin Rui were still talking in the corridor, there was a sudden scream from the toilet at the end of the corridor. When they heard the scream, Peter and Lin Rui both had a glimmer in their eyes and they had sensed Dr. Connors.

Boom!

The next moment, the door of the toilet at the end of the corridor was directly blown open by something. Then a huge lizard monster rushed out.

“Ah!~”

“Help! Ah!!~”

Suddenly the big lizard appeared in the school and frightened all the students around. Everyone screamed and rushed outside. Behind the flurried fleeing students, the lizard saw Peter at the other end of the corridor at a glance and rushed directly to him the next moment.

“Peter Parker!”

“Jackson! Get out of school! Go!” Seeing that Dr. Connors was coming towards him, Peter shouted to Lin Rui, who was still around. Now there are too many students here. He can’t fight Dr. Connors here. He has to lead him someplace else.

“Peter, what about you?” Lin Rui showed a little fear and shouted at Peter.

“It’s coming for me, I’ll take it away! You go! Don’t worry, I will be all right!” Peter had no time to explain to Lin Rui and pushed him away and run in the opposite direction.

“Peter Parker!” Sure enough, Dr. Connors did not care about anyone else at all. He ran after Peter.

Rumble!

The giant lizard turned a corner in front of Lin Rui’s eyes and left. Lin Rui quickly rushed behind him. He couldn’t let Spiderman wait!

Bang! Bang! In a school laboratory, Peter is avoiding the big lizard’s pursuit.

“Peter! I can save these lost souls! You shouldn’t stop me!” Dr. Connors has completely lost himself and he raised his claw and smashed Peter into the wall.

Puff!

However, only one shoe responded to Dr. Connors.

The next moment, Peter, who had changed into a spider suit, rushed out of the big hole he had been smashed into.

Whoa!

With several cobwebs shooting out in succession, Peter wanted to tie up Dr. Connors, who was already mad. However, the powerful lizard just tore the cobwebs that clung to him.

“Doctor! You’re confused!” While the lizard was cleaning the cobweb off of his body, Peter jumped on its back. With an antidote in his hand, Peter shouted loudly and he tried to inject it into Dr. Connors the next moment.

“Oh! ~~~” But just as Peter was about to insert the antidote into Dr. Connors’ back, a claw had grabbed him and thrown him out in an instant.

Pop!

Flying in mid-air, Peter quickly shot out two spider threads and pulled himself.

“Damn it! There’s no way to give him the antidote!” Unless Dr. Connors is tied up, the antidote is really not good enough for him to be injected.

Boom! Boom!

It was not known to Dr. Connors that there was an antidote in Peter’s hand, He rushed angrily at him again, since Spiderman was going to stand in his way, he had to tear him apart.

Just then, a few black rays flashed behind Peter, and instantly they hit Dr. Connors’ giant lizard form.

“Spiderman, I am here!”

Chapter 80 Needle... Broken

Hu~ Lin Rui, who has already donned the Phantom Suit, quickly walks up to Peter and faces the big lizard in front of him.

“You came just at the right time!” Peter said glancing at Mirage Knight.

“Well, Did you use the antidote?” Lin Rui nodded and saw the antidote hidden behind Peter and asked in a low voice.

“This big lizard is too powerful and I can’t control him even for a second to inject the antidote,” Peter explained his dilemma while he quietly handed the antidote to Lin Rui from behind.

“Ok, two-on-one, we can do it!” After patting Peter on the shoulder, Lin Rui rushed out.

Dr. Connors had pulled out his flying knife from his back and threw them on the ground. Then, the wounds on his body started to recover at a speed visible to the naked eye. Then the bizarre lizard, who had been transformed by mutation, looked at the man who suddenly appears in front of him. He should have recognized that Lin Rui was the one who attacked him in the underground passage yesterday.

“Tear them! Tear apart everyone in front of you!” Just as Peter and Lin Rui were discussing quickly, the voice in Dr. Connors’s mind reappeared.

“Howl!” With a loud roar, Dr. Connors rushed towards Lin Rui.

Bang!

In the next moment, two figures, one big and one small, have already collided together in this teaching laboratory. A loud noise came out in an instant. It was like a small explosion had occurred in the laboratory. The violent shock wave swept away the desks and bottles around the laboratory directly. The broken glass and destroyed desks were scattered on the ground.

The giant lizard claws and the seemingly tiny human fists were tied together, and Lin Rui did not retreat at all! In terms of power contest, Lin Rui completely blocked Dr. Connors' mutant power with the power of internal energy.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Unlike Spiderman, who fights the lizard with his flexibility, Lin Rui uses solid power. Lin Rui, who had lost his Flowing Flame Blade, had not yet figured out what weapon he would use next, so he fought directly with his own fists and feet, which were very powerful because of the internal energy flowing in them and strengthening them.

Dr. Connors's lizard claws were waving fast and each blow smashed a desk. But it didn't work so well for Lin Rui. Every time a huge claw was about to hit Lin Rui, Spiderman would shoot his spider silk in time to block Dr. Connors. Although spider silk can only stop the lizard for a while, it's enough for Lin Rui to counterattack.

Bang bang!

While Peter pulled Dr. Connors' claws with his spider silk, Lin Rui punched the lizard on the chest several times in succession and the lizard kept retreating. But Dr. Connors's mutant body has weird scales and a strong muscular defense, combined that with his super regeneration ability, He soon recovered from the damage that Lin Rui had done to him.

"Huh! How on earth did Marvel World's technology tree come into being?!" Lin Rui had to sigh at the lizard, who had been punched so many times by him and still look as if he had not taken any damage at all.

Ordinary people in Marvel World live exactly like Lin Rui's original world, but when it comes to these protagonists or villains, all kinds of weird high-tech products come out. It may have been a hundred years since the top technology surpasses the world's universal standards, especially when there are so many unreasonable things. Of course, this is originally a world where all kinds of demons and monsters have their own secrets. If the tree of science and technology is crooked, it can be tolerated.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

No matter how fast the lizard regeneration is, Spiderman and Lin Rui will not give up. Peter kept firing cobwebs to restrict Dr. Connors' movements, and Lin Rui hit him with one punch after another. After seeing Dr. Connors' defense and regeneration powers, Lin Rui's every punch is stronger than his last, and the internal energy is becoming more violent.

Boom!

Eventually, the lizard, whose claws were tied up by Peter, was hit directly on the head by Lin Rui and flew out in an instant.

Bang!

The huge body fell to the ground and Dr. Connors was injured in many places. This is the first time that he had been beaten and his mind was somewhat muddled.

“Spiderman! Do it now!” Lin Rui shouted when he saw the lizard fall on the ground and did not get up again.

Peter, who had been looking for opportunities, rushed toward Dr. Connors fallen form in an instant and shot countless cobwebs on him. In the face of Lin Rui and Spiderman’s combined attack, Dr. Connors, who fought entirely by instinct, was no longer as fierce as he was at the beginning.

Puff puff!

The next moment, the big lizard lying on the ground was bundled with cobwebs one after another. Even if he wanted to struggle out, it would take some time and that time should be enough for Peter to give him the antidote.

“Dr. Connors, I hope you can recognize your mistakes!” Squatting directly on the bundled lizard, Peter has taken out the antidote again.

In the next second, Peter had put the antidote on Dr. Connors skin.

.....

Clump!

There was a crisp noise. It seemed that something had broken.

“Er!...” Feeling that the syringe needle on the antidote in his hand had broken, Peter looked at it with a frown on his face.

“What’s wrong? Spiderman!” Seeing Peter suddenly pick up his hand and the antidote is still in the small bottle, Lin Rui asked doubtfully.

“The needle is broken. His scales are too thick to inject the antidote!” Faced with Lin Rui’s doubts, Peter answered. Although the syringe in Peter’s hand is not the kind that requires long needles to be inserted into the body but it does need to break the epidermis before injecting the serum in the body. If the needle is broken, the serum in it will not come out.

Lin Rui: “...”

Lin Rui did not expect such a situation. In the original plot, it seems that the antidote was finally blown into a misty shape. Is it not possible to rely on injection?

Karst! Karst!

While Peter and Lin Rui were somewhat distracted by the accident, Dr. Connors, who had been tied to the ground, had begun to struggle violently and had grown a little bigger again. The cobweb trapping him in quickly disintegrated and Spiderman was overturned by him.

KAKA

“Howl!” With a roar, the cobwebs trapping the lizard were all stretched out in an instant, and Dr. Connors was free.

“What The Fuck! Is he upgrading?!” Lin Rui and Peter stared when they saw the large lizard getting enlarged again.

Bang! Bang!

A black shadow flashed, and Lin Rui and Peter were pulled and thrown out by Dr. Connors’ huge tail.

Then, instead of chasing after Lin Rui and Peter, the lizard quickly ran away in the opposite direction. Dr. Connors apparently knew Peter and Lin Rui’s intentions, and he could not risk being injected with the antidote. Moreover, his mutation time is almost over.

“He’s running away!” Peter and Lin Rui rushed back and saw Dr. Connors fleeing. They both shouted at the same time.

“We can’t let him hide again!”

The next second Peter and Lin Rui rushed out after the giant lizard in front of them.

Rumble!

Completely ignoring the obstacles in front of him, the big lizard is running straight across the school and fleeing quickly like a tank. Behind him, Spiderman and Mirage Knight are chasing after him.

Finally, Dr. Connors rushed towards the toilet from where he had appeared before and disappeared from the school.

Less than three seconds after Dr. Connors rushed into the toilet, Lin Rui and Peter had chased in.

“It seems that he has entered the underground passage again. We can’t let him hide anymore!”

“I think so too!”

Hoo! Hoo!

Seeing the big pit in the toilet leading to the underground drainage system, Lin Rui and Peter looked at each other and jumped in one after another.

After Lin Rui and Peter chased Dr. Connors and disappeared into the underground pit, the police who received the alarm surrounded the school, sending people into the school to check and appease the frightened students.

.....
