CHAPTER 751 SUPPORT

On Earth, in an unfinished building on the outskirts of London. Evans, who has notified SHIELD headquarters, is still guarding the dimension space gate, and Darcy has become a little tired, leaning on the stone pillar behind her to rest.

Thor and Lin Rui have disappeared for more than ten minutes. According to the original plan, they should have returned by this time. In the beginning, Darcy was worried, but after the initial nervousness and worry, Darcy calmed down.

“Since they haven’t come back by this time then it doesn’t matter if I wait ten more minutes.” This is what Darcy had just thought.

And Since Evans has been so dedicated to being there, Darcy has taken a break. Darcy plans to go outside to check out Stark’s private jet, but it doesn’t work out because it is still unclear whether Jane is alive or not and she also doesn’t want to go anywhere at this moment.

Buzzing!

While Darcy was boringly counting the time when Lin Rui and the others disappeared, there was an obvious spatial fluctuation in the dimensional space in the front patio.

This spatial fluctuation is different from that slight when the beverage can fell out before, and it’s more like something big coming over!

“Darcy! Something is coming!” Evans, who had been guarding the dimension space, shouted loudly after the intense spatial fluctuations spread out.

As he shouted, Evans quietly added a small pistol to his hand. It’s been determined that this dimension is connected to a place that doesn’t belong to the earth.

The movement was so big this time and if it was not Thor and Lin Rui who went in before then it must be something from another space, and Evans had to guard against it.

Shoo!

“Really? Thor and others are coming back?” Hearing Evans’s shout, Darcy jumped over from the ground and asked with some excitement on her face.

“Hey! Is that a gun in your hand?!” Darcy also noticed that the expression on Evans’s face was not right, and then she saw a small gun in his hand.

“It doesn’t have to be Thor, so we have to be prepared.” Without explaining why he took out the gun, Evans stared at the dimensional space that constantly fluctuated in front of him and replied quickly.

“Not Thor?! What do you mean?!...” Hearing Evans’ answer, Darcy quickly thought of something, and the expression on her face also changed.

Buzzing~

Phoo!

Just as Darcy is looking up at the top of the skywell, the spatial fluctuation finally reaches a peak and two huge figures appear out of thin air above the patio!

But after seeing the two figures, Evans and Darcy's eyes changed. For these figures, appearing out of thin air, are not Thor and Lin Rui! But two giant mutated hound-like monsters!

"Damn it! Something unexpected happened!" After seeing the two giant monsters, Evans frowned and cursed.

At the same time, with a few quick pinches of his left hand, Evans sent a message directly from the communicator that was already in his palm. The situation here is not only beyond the control of Agent Evans, but it is now likely to develop into a big event.

Therefore, Evans decisively sought the support of SHIELD headquarters at this time. As for the message sent back before, Evans still doesn't know what happened.

"Monsters! Run!" After seeing the two monsters that emerged from the dimension space, Darcy was not stunned but shouted loudly before she turned and ran away.

Darcy, who had already experienced a similar incident before, wouldn't be as scared as ordinary people, and her escape skills were quite good.

Evans: "..."

Evans was a little speechless looking at the back of Darcy's running away figure. But he didn't even ask Darcy to stay. Even if Darcy didn't leave, Evans wanted her to leave.

Although the two monsters may not be able to rush out of the dimensional space, it is obviously not safe here. As an ordinary person, it was obviously inappropriate for Darcy to continue to stay.

As for Evans himself, he, as SHIELD's agent arranged by them to observe Jane could not retreat without receiving further orders. Therefore, even if there is no support, Evans will stick to his orders. At the very least, he has to wait for SHIELD's support.

"I hope you keep falling like this! Don't come out!" Evans kept praying in his heart while staring at the two monsters in the dimensional space.

As long as these two monsters can continue to fall, they will be trapped in the teleportation of this dimensional space and they won't be able to threaten them, at least temporarily.

And Evans did not shoot, because he knew that even if he did shoot, the trajectory of the bullet after it entered the dimensional space could not be judged and it would be a waste of bullets.

"Roar!!~" But what happened next made Evans's eyes pop.

Boom!

Suddenly the top of the two monsters that had fallen to the bottom of the courtyard and were about to be transported away again gave a roar and stamped on the back of the bottom monster.

With that step, the monster below accelerated its descent and disappeared directly into the bottom of the patio. The monster above reversed its fall with that kick and shot out toward the edge of the patio!

“Damn it!” Evans couldn’t help cursing when he saw the scene before him, and then he raised the gun in his hand.

Brush!

At the next moment, the front half of the monster that was riding on its companion’s back was bursting out of dimensional space, its huge front feet barely reaching the edge of the patio.

Bang Bang Bang!

Just as the monster’s front foot landed on the stone slab at the edge of the patio, Evans had already shot. The bullets in the pistol almost didn’t stop. As long as he could knock back the monster in front of him, then it would have no chance to rush out again.

But the next scene made Evans feel some desperation, he saw that his bullets had hit the monster’s front leg, but it was of no use at all. It was as if it had fallen into a sponge, and the bullet got stuck in that way.

“Roar~~~” The Monster’s front legs have been stepped firmly on the stone slab, and the monster roared and quickly pulled the back half of its body out of the dimensional space.

Brush!

“Damn it!” Unable to stop the monster, Evans threw his pistol and quickly backed away.

Dī Dī Drops!

“Call headquarters! Call headquarters! This is Level 3 Special Agent Evans! I need military support! Repeat! I need military support!” Evans yelled loudly while taking out the communicator while retreating quickly. He doesn’t care about hiding his identity anymore.

CHAPTER 752 TAKING ACTION

Bang~ Bang~

As Evans retreated and repeatedly called SHIELD headquarters, the monster, which had completely escaped from dimensional space, was advancing toward him. The fact that Evans had shot it had not done him any harm, but it had hurt him a little, and that had just aroused its ferocity.

“Roar!” The big blood-red eyes stared at the tiny prey in front of him as the monster hissed and pounced towards Evans.

“Damn it!” Seeing the monster in front of him pouncing towards him, Evans turned and ran while cursing.

Dī Dī~

“Attention, Agent Evans, the headquarters is aware of your report and backup is on the way. Please protect yourself.” As Evans scurried, a reply came from SHIELD headquarters from his communicator.

“Backup is coming?! Where is it?!” Evans shouted loudly when he heard the reply from his communicator.

Now it’s not the matter of him protecting himself. With the strength of that monster, this rotten building may be torn down by it! If help doesn’t arrive, Evans really doesn’t know how long he’ll live.

Bang!

“Damn it! Damn it!”

Evan avoided the monster’s attack once again but the stone pillar behind him was crashed in half.

The flying debris left tiny gashes on Evans’s body, he is a SHIELD agent who struggled with a seemingly simple mission, and now he is risking his life.

Shoo!

Evans, already flustered, came to a halt as he rounded a corner because the monster was already in front of him with its terrifying gaping jaws.

“Roar!” In the next moment, this monster has already rushed in front of Evans.

“Am I really going to die here? I’m only twenty years old!” There was no way Evans could escape this attack, and the mouth of the monster was drawing nearer and nearer.

Evans could see every tooth and spit in the monster’s mouth as he silently thought in his heart.

“Fortunately, Darcy had already run away, she should be able to survive!”

Swipe!

Just as Evans closed his eyes to welcome his death, a burst of air suddenly came from behind him.

Bang Bang Bang!

Then, Evans heard a continuous burst of rapid-fire shoots popping out of the chamber, but the pain he was waiting for did not come.

Pū Pū Pū!

“Hoho~” The monster’s roar accompanied by the fishy air rushing towards his face made Evans almost unable to breathe, but he knew that he was not dead.

“Is the support from the headquarters here?!” Opening his eyes, Evans had guessed that the monster must have been repelled by something.

Swipe!

As soon as he opened his eyes, Evans saw the monster jumping up and down in the clearing in front of him.

At some point in the empty floor of this half-finished building, there were three more Iron Men, and at this moment, these three Iron Men were all around the monster and they were violently attacking it.

“Is this what headquarters call support? Iron Man?” Evans, standing still, was a little stunned when he saw the monster that had been hit by the three Iron Mans and could only escape.

The collaboration between SHIELD and Iron Man Tony Stark is only known to agents above level 6 in SHIELD Headquarters, so of course, Evans was very surprised by the appearance of Iron Man.

However, thinking of the appearance of Lin Rui piloting Iron Man Armor and the Stark private jet parked outside the unfinished building, Evans quickly accepted this fact.

Bang Bang Bang!

“Roar~Roar~”

“This is amazing!” Evans couldn’t help but sigh with emotion when he looked at the monster who had almost no ability to resist under the attack of the three Iron Mans.

Da Da Da!

As Evans stared at Iron Man brutalizing the monster, there was a sudden sound of high-heeled rushing feet behind him. Darcy then comes running back after running away. But even at this point, Darcy has yet to give up her eight-centimeter heels.

“Evans! What are you still doing here?! Why didn’t you run away?!” Darcy, who rushed up again, did not look at the chaotic battlefield ahead and shouted at Evans.

Shoo!

In the next moment, Darcy rushed towards Evans’s side, and before Evans could react, she pulled his arm to drag him and ran away.

“Darcy, you don’t have to run now! Look over there!” Although Darcy ran back to save him and Evans was very moved by this, but at this time, he really didn’t want to run.

“Look? You still want to look?” Darcy said helplessly while turning her head when Evans said.

Boom! Bang Bang!

“Roar!”

When Darcy turned her head, she saw that the monster was hit by the missiles fired by three Iron Mans. Although its hide was thick, the monster still couldn’t stand under the continuous blows from the Iron Man and fled outside the unfinished building with a roar.

“It’s Iron Man!” Darcy exclaimed excitedly after seeing the battle over there.

Back in New Mexico, Darcy and others were saved because of Iron Man. Darcy has become a total fan of Iron Man ever since and is of course thrilled that it’s Iron Man again helping them fend off the monster.

Boom!

Smashing through the abandoned guardrail on the side of the wrecked building, the monster swooped over the edge of the fifth floor, hurtling straight into the pouring rain outside.

If it does run away then it would be very difficult for even Iron Man to kill it in the big city of London without attracting the attention of ordinary people.

“Ah! Iron Man! The monster is getting away!” Darcy exclaimed after seeing the monster run away from Iron Man, just like a real fan cheering on his hero.

Swipe!

As Darcy shouts, three Iron Men rush out in pursuit of the fleeing monster. Darcy and Evans follow, of course, to the shattered guardrail of the building to see if Iron Man will let the monster escape.

“The plan has changed, and the probability of the monster being caught alive has been reduced to 30%. Now the killing plan is implemented.” Just as the three Iron Mans rushed out, JARVIS made changes to the original plan in the background.

Neither Darcy nor Evans knew that with the strength of three Iron Mans, the monster could have been killed in a short time, but JARVIS kept fighting until now to give it a chance to get out.

It turned out that JARVIS planned to capture it alive. And now, if this monster is allowed to run away, it will bring unpredictable danger to the city of London. Therefore, JARVIS immediately changed its plan.

CHAPTER 753 THE THREAT RELIEVES

Da Da Da~

In the rain curtain, the monster that broke out of the rotten building ran recklessly on the potholed ground, looking from a distance like a comic dog monster that broke free from the rope to run in the rain.

However, compared to the dog in the comics, this monster's running speed is much faster and its goal is also more clear. It is heading towards a place with dense buildings in the distance!

Swipe!

In the mid-air behind this fast-running monster, three Iron Man controlled by JARVIS have been chasing it.

And, unlike the previous use of high-energy bullets and micro missiles that were not too powerful in the unfinished building, laser attack weapons were already exposed on the Iron Man's Armors at this time.

Dī Dī Drops!

“Movement trajectory pre-determination results in a coincidence rate of 93.7%, now begin the laser strike.” JARVIS, which needed no human control, had already analyzed the movement of the monster, and at the same time had activated the laser weapon system on Iron Man's Armors.

Buzzing!

In the next moment, the three Iron Mans above the monster fired laser attacks at the same time, blocking its possible escape position from three directions.

Pū Pū Pū!

Without any accident, the fleeing monster was directly hit by the three lasers, tumbling around in the rain and falling to the ground.

“Yes! Iron Man is amazing!” Darcy, who was still leaning over the fence at the rear of the building, waved and shouted excitedly.

“Darcy, be careful, don’t fall...” Evans reminded helplessly while pulling Darcy back to prevent her from falling downstairs.

Evans was relieved after he saw Iron Man launching their laser attacks. After all, the monster escaped under the attack of the less powerful weapon before. Now that Iron Man has taken out a more powerful weapon, it is impossible for the monster to continue to escape.

“Roar...” The monster who fell in the rain roared feebly, and his breathing became weaker.

Huhuhu~

After the monster fell to the ground, the Iron Man who had been in mid-air all flew down, hovering beside the monster, emitting rays of light and scanning to detect its condition.

“The life fluctuation continues to decrease, the laser strikes were successful, and the threat has been removed.” A few seconds later, JARVIS in the background has determined that the monster is not a threat anymore.

Dī Dī Drops~

Just as JARVIS had dealt with the monster that had suddenly burst out of dimensional space, a communication request came in from SHIELD headquarters.

JARVIS put the call through without a long wait. Tony Stark is no longer on Earth, and JARVIS cannot contact Tony. So, the connection between the Whole Stark Group and the SHIELD was done by JARVIS.

“JARVIS, how is the situation over there? Has the crisis been resolved? Are there any casualties?” After the communication was connected, a somewhat familiar voice sounded inside the Iron Man suit.

“Agent Coulson, the threat has been neutralized and there are no casualties, please rest assured,” JARVIS responded quickly.

It turned out that the person responsible for contacting JARVIS at SHIELD headquarters was Agent Coulson who was previously responsible for contacting the League of Defenders and investigating the mysterious person named Thor.

Although Agent Coulson’s own combat power is only similar to that of an elite fighter, he always has some special abilities to be an agent of SHIELDElite. For example, he has a great character.

“That’s good! Now SHIELD, Mr. Stark, League of Defenders, and the main force of X-Men are not on the earth so nothing can happen to the earth on our watch!” Hearing JARVIS’s answer, Agent Coulson was obviously relieved.

“By the way! Are Jackson and Thor back? None of the situations you mentioned earlier mentioned them.” After learning that the monster’s threat had been resolved, Coulson remembered something and asked nervously.

“They haven’t come back yet,” JARVIS answered truthfully.

“Not back yet? Do you want me to send backup? The K and S Teams have been taken away by Captain Rogers, but I still have some people I can use.” Agent Coulson asks with some concern after JARVIS says that Thor and Jackson haven’t returned yet.

Thor’s identity has always been a mystery within SHIELD. His appearance is very weird, and SHIELD has not found any identification on him.

However, Thor has an unexplainable relationship with the magic hammer at the base in New Mexico. And that same hammer was proven to be produced by an extraterrestrial civilization, and it hides huge secrets.

Therefore, during SHIELD’s internal investigation, Thor, a seemingly ordinary person, was listed as an S-level personal requiring special observation.

SHIELD would have brought Thor back to SHIELD HQ for surveillance if Thor didn’t seem to have a lot of strength that didn’t look normal on an ordinary person and a good relationship with Jackson Lin.

Although SHIELD does not impose any coercive measures on Thor, some hidden surveillance exists, such as agents like Evans scattered throughout Thor’s life.

As for Jackson Lin, the investigation and monitoring of him have been slow and almost nonexistent since Director Fury stepped down and Captain Rogers took control of SHIELD.

It’s not known what SHIELD has planned for this young man who apparently has a huge secret, or if they already know something and are no longer investigating.

So, no matter what, Thor and Jackson are very important figures. If they didn’t come back because they passed through the dimensional space this time, it seems that they would not have much influence on SHIELD, but their hidden true identity can indeed make all major forces turbulent.

“Not for the time being, Mr. Jackson told me before going there that if they don’t come back in half an hour then we will provide support. There are still three minutes left.” JARVIS calmly replied as he heard Coulson’s suggestion.

“JARVIS, why are you so rigid? Do you have to wait for half an hour because that kid said half an hour? What if they’ve been in danger for half an hour?” Coulson spoke with a helpless tone when he heard JARVIS’s reply.

If Coulson had known what was going on, there’s no way he would have left one of the rookie agents, Evans, with JARVIS in charge in London.

It is a multidimensional space leading to unknown areas and only someone like Lin Rui will ask for support after half an hour.

Dī Dī Drops!

“Spatial fluctuations have been detected, something is coming over from the dimensional space.” JARVIS suddenly reminded Coulson as he was complaining.

CHAPTER 754 INSUFFICIENT

Buzzing~

It was not long after JARVIS controlled the three Iron Men and chased the cannon fodder monster of the Dark Elf race out of the half-finished building that the courtyard, which had been quiet again, slowly emitted spatial fluctuations from the dimensional space, and the alpha particle concentration was constantly changing.

By the time JARVIS had dealt with the monster and was talking to Agent Coulson of the SHIELD, the vibrations emanating from the interdimensional space had finally reached the point where he could detect them.

Swipe!

While detecting the changes in the dimensional space, JARVIS had already controlled Iron Man to quickly rush back to the building. Regardless of whether the monsters or Thors come out of the dimension space this time, they will need Iron Man’s help.

Hey! Why did Iron Man suddenly rush back?!” Darcy, who was lying on the side of the unfinished building, said suspiciously when she saw Iron Man who had killed the terrifying monster flying back.

“En? There seems to be a situation on the patio!” Evans, who also saw the Iron Man rushing back, reacted quickly and ran back towards the patio after yelling.

Swipe!

However, after Evans just turned around and ran a few steps, three Iron Mans already rushed over him.

Buzzing!

Just as JARVIS controlled the Iron Man to overtake Evans and Darcy as they arrived at the patio, the fluctuation of the subspace reached its maximum. Then, two figures hugging each other tightly appeared out of thin air from above the patio.

Needless to say, the two figures that appeared in the dimensional space were Thor and Jane Foster who jumped into the dimensional space.

Swipe!

Before Evans and Darcy can get back to the patio, the three Iron Men hurtle into the interdimensional space area. After seeing the two figures, JARVIS could already tell that they were unconscious.

Therefore, JARVIS took decisive action when Thor and Jane could not get out of the dimensional space by themselves.

“That is!.....”

“Jane and Thor!”

By the time Darcy and Evans finally made their way through, they saw that three Iron Men have crashed into dimensional space, where two figures are falling down in a tight embrace.

Hoo!

In the next moment, Thor and Jane, who were falling fast, had been captured by the Iron Man that had rushed in. Then, JARVIS took the unconscious Thor and Jane Foster out of the subspace.

At this point, Jane Foster, who had been missing for several hours, finally returned to Earth.

Huhu~

Iron Man, who took Thor and Jane out of the dimension space, gently laid them on the ground. At this time, Darcy and Evans had already rushed over, looking worriedly at Thor and Jane who seemed to have passed out.

“Jane!”

“Thor!”

Looking at the unconscious Thor and Jane Foster, Darcy and Evans shouted worriedly. However, neither Thor nor Jane showed any response.

Kaka!

“Miss Darcy and Mr. Evans, please move out of the way, I need to check their physical condition.” Just as Darcy and Evans surrounded Thor and Jane and called out their names, an Iron Man eyes glowed twice, and then JARVIS’ voice came out.

“En? Yeah, yeah! You can check them!” Darcy, who is no longer wondering if anyone is inside the Iron Man, quickly steps aside and says.

Hoo!

As Darcy moved away, Evans quickly stood up and retreated to a safe distance. Evans had also received a message from SHIELD headquarters just now, asking him to fully cooperate with Iron Man here, and control the situation here in any way possible.

Buzzing~

Brush!

After Darcy and Evans move out of the way, a few pale blue beams of light shoot from the metal arm of the Iron Man from which the sound was coming, which quickly change into a network of light as it hits Thor and Jane Foster’s bodies and then directly envelopes them.

The network of pale blue lights penetrates Thor and Jane’s bodies, sending data from those lights to JARVIS in the background.

Brush!

After a few seconds, the net-like light covering Thor and Jane disappeared, it seems that JARVIS had already obtained the inspection result.

“How are they? Are they okay?” Darcy asked after seeing that the Iron Man had withdrawn the test light but had not spoken.

However, JARVIS still didn’t answer even after Darcy spoke. No one knows what JARVIS has discovered this time, but he didn’t answer.

“JARVIS, is it? Did you get any results from the tests? What happened to Jane and Thor?” Seeing that Iron Man in front of him did not respond to Darcy’s questions, Evans, who is also anxious, has to speak.

As a newbie agent of SHIELD, Evans knows about the famous artificial intelligence of Tony Stark of the Stark Industries. So by saying JARVIS’s name, Evans was already identifying himself. Evans believes JARVIS would not remain silent once he has spoken up.

“I have the test results, but you two don’t have enough clearance to know anything about it. So, sorry, I can’t answer that question.” JARVIS did speak to Evans, but the answer was not what Evans had been expecting.

Although JARVIS spoke, he refused to answer Thor and Jane’s physical condition at this time. Moreover, he used a very serious reason to refuse, that is, the issue of authority.

After the inspection result came out, JARVIS made a judgment on the inspection result. But Darcy knew a little bit of alien civilization and Evans, the SHIELD agent did not have a high enough clearance level, so JARVIS didn’t tell the result.

“Not enough clearance?! What Clearance?! Who is JARVIS? Evans, do you know what he’s talking about? Why can’t he tell us about Jane and Thor?! We are their friends!” Darcy asked with a look of surprise when he heard JARVIS’s answer, and at the same time, Darcy also found that her intern who had always looked very ordinary and timid, seemed a little bit uncomfortable.

“We don’t have enough clearance... Okay, I see, I won’t ask more.” Without answering Darcy’s questions, Evans quickly responded and agreed after hearing what JARVIS said.

Then, Evans looked at Darcy who was looking at him with a puzzled look on her face, and said. “Darcy, actually... I have always kept some things from you.”

CHAPTER 755 CHOICE

Hearing what Evans said, Darcy froze for a while before her cheeks slowly turned red.

“I knew it! Have you always had a crush on me? !” Before Evans can say anything more, Darcy starts asking questions.

It turned out that Darcy thought that Evans had been secretly in love with her and now he wants to confess his feelings! However, Evans has no crush on Darcy at all, and this is not what he was talking about!

“That... Darcy... In fact, what I want to say is that I am actually an agent of SHIELD, who is responsible for protecting Jane Foster and you.” In order to prevent Darcy from continuing her misunderstanding, Evans had no choice but to bite the bullet and quickly explain.

"I knew, you... Hey?! What did you say? You are an agent of SHIELD?!" After Evans explained, Darcy didn't react at first and was still immersed in being caught by her fantasy but after hearing it, she reacted and started to yell at Evans.

"Darcy, I'm sorry, but I am indeed a SHIELD's Agent."

Snapped!

"Great! I've guessed that you deliberately approached us with ill intentions! I didn't expect that a seemingly simple and cowardly guy would be a SHIELD agent!" After Evans answered again, Darcy slapped him on the shoulder with a look of anger on her face.

Darcy was indeed angry about Evans being an agent of SHIELD, but what she was even angrier about was that she would be so wrong!

The other party was obviously not interested in her but she had believed that he had a crush on her! So she took the fact that Evans had hidden that he was a SHIELD agent to vent her embarrassment and frustration.

Evans: "..."

Regarding Darcy's performance, Evans had no choice but to silently accept it.

"Well, both Jane and Thor need Recovery Serum. There is no complete medical equipment here. So, I will arrange for them to go back to New York immediately." Just as Darcy was hitting Evans, JARVIS on the side continued to speak.

What happened to Thor and Jane is indeed confidential to Evans and Darcy, and their authority is indeed insufficient. Moreover, the test results just now are not optimistic.

Simply put, Jane's body does not seem to be injured, but her vitality is constantly being damaged, and if this continues, she will die sooner or later. Although Thor was seriously injured, his vitality was slowly increasing so it was obvious that he could recover.

"Do you want to take Jane back to New York?! Then I'll go back with her!" Hearing what JARVIS said, Darcy stopped hitting Evans and looked at the Iron Man in front of her and said loudly.

Darcy doesn't care about permissions, she wants to make sure that Jane is really safe. Moreover, they discovered this dimensional space! What is even there to talk about confidential matters when they already knew about it.

"Ms. Darcy, I can take you back to New York," JARVIS replied quickly when he heard Darcy's words.

JARVIS only says that he can take Darcy back to New York with Jane, not that she can stay with Jane forever. With Jane in her current condition, even Stark plus SHIELD technology can't be said to bring her back.

If anyone can save Jane's life in such a situation, it would have been the mysterious Mirage Knight, aka Jackson. But so far, Thor and Jane have returned, while Lin Rui has not.

“Agent Evan, how about you? Are you going back or staying here? Don’t worry, even if you go back, I will stay here. Your mission is over.” After answering Darcy’s question, JARVIS looked at Evans and asked.

“Is my mission over? That’s right, this matter is already beyond my authority when the dimensional space appeared. However, I will still stay here as the headquarters did not ask me to go back.” Evans replied after thinking about it.

As a newbie agent of SHIELD, Evans shouldn’t have been exposed to such a core secret incident. However, the incident occurred in an emergency, and he has also been involved.

So, as a young man who yearned for more adventure, Evans stayed. At least, no other new agent has had the same experience.

Once this is over, Evans will be able to move up in ranks when he gets back to headquarters. As soon as he moves up, so will his clearance level, and then maybe he’ll know what happened.

“All right, but take care of yourself. I am not sure what will happen next.” JARVIS calmly reminded as he was not surprised by Evans’s answer.

“I know.” Evans nodded in response as he heard JARVIS’s reminder.

“Well, Miss Darcy, I’ll get them to the plane and you can go yourself.” JARVIS finally said to Darcy as everything has been settled.

“Row!”

Kakaka~

Then, JARVIS armed Thor and Jane who were unconscious on the ground. Then, in front of Darcy and Evans, the two Iron Man armed with Thor and Jane had already rushed out and soon flew into the Stark private jet parked outside.

Although the Iron Man can fly faster, there is some medical equipment in the Stark private jet, which would allow Thor and Jane to remain stable on the way back.

“Evans, although I am beyond angry right now! But, you must come back safely! I will be waiting for you in New York!” Darcy turned to look at her intern and spoke after Jane and Thor were loaded into the Jet.

“I know, Darcy.”

Da Da Da~

Then, Darcy stepped on her high heels and ran out, leaving Evans and an Iron Man guarding here.

“JARVIS, when do you think Mr. Jackson will be back?” After Darcy left, Evans asked while staring at the Iron Man beside him on the patio.

“I don’t know, but there are only two minutes left to provide support. If Jackson does not show up within two minutes then I will enter the dimensional space.” JARVIS replied faintly hearing Evan’s words.

“Two minutes?...” Evans murmured softly hearing JARVIS’s answer.

Swipe!

Then Evans heard a thud behind him. As he turned his back, Evans was struck straight away by what he saw. Before Evans's eyes, no less than thirty Iron Men had just burst in and surrounded this patio!

CHAPTER 756 PERSEVERING

"Wow... That's a lot of Iron Man!" Evans muttered with wide-eyed eyes looking at so many Iron Man who came from nowhere.

Of course, these Iron Man came out of the Stark Private Plane. The plane had already taken Thor and the other two and had already taken off to New York, and all the Iron Man inside were left behind.

There is an Iron Man team guarding here, so JARVIS will be able to control the situation even if hundreds of monsters rushed out of this dimensional space.

"This is really cool!" Seeing so many of the latest Iron Men up close for the first time, even Evans, a SHIELD agent, couldn't help but be impressed.

Buzzing!

JARVIS had an entire Iron Man team standing by the dimensional space, ready to wait two minutes before entering the dimensional space to support Lin Rui.

The dimensional space that had just been quiet for a short period of time once again buzzed with violent spatial fluctuations, and it looks like there is something coming over!

Brush!

The next moment, with Evans and JARVIS watching at 360 degrees, a tall black figure appeared out of thin air above the patio. The tall figure appeared stunned, but only for a split second, then flapped his limbs in an attempt to rush out of dimensional space.

"That's not Jackson!" Evans cried out in surprise as he took a closer look at the figure writhing in the dimensional space.

"It's Dark Elf! Plan: Hold this dimensional space and don't let any Dark Elf come out!" While Evans shouted out in surprise, JARVIS had also analyzed the identity of the figure and instantly made a plan.

Swipe!

At the next moment, three Iron Man surrounding the dimensional space had already rushed out, and the target was the Dark Elf that was going to rush out of the dimensional space!

Just when Thor and Jane were sent back to New York by JARVIS, on the other side of the subspace, Lin Rui was still fighting with a dozen crazy Dark Elf.

Boom!

The Beheading Spirit Sword blocked the attack of two Dark Elf's blades, Lin Rui flew backward while holding back a mouthful of blood from spurting out.

Because the team of Dark Elf Elite warriors came too fast, even if Lin Rui rushed into the subspace at this time, he would be entangled by them all. So, Lin Rui chose to stay and stop them.

Because Lin Rui can't really let so many Dark Elf Elite warriors go to the other side of the earth.

With the strength of these Dark Elf Elite warriors, it would be impossible for JARVIS's Iron Men to stop them all if they were to cross the interdimensional space to reach Earth.

If a few Dark Elf Elite warriors escaped, it would be a disaster for the ordinary people on Earth.

So even though Lin Rui couldn't stop a team of Dark Elf Elite fighters, he chose to stay.

It has been three minutes since Dark Elf's frantic dash through dimensional space, during which Lin Rui has unleashed all of his strength and he had only just stopped them. However, Lin Rui also paid the price of receiving a serious injury.

"Cough cough! I can't stand it! Do I really have to use that? ! I should have asked JARVIS to send backup sooner! It's still a few minutes to half an hour, and I could be torn apart by these guys in that time!" Lin Rui coughed helplessly as he sped back to the other side of dimensional space to block Dark Elf's path.

Although Lin Rui's strength has already reached a very high level, each of these Dark Elf's strength is not low. One is no match for Lin Rui, but there are thirteen Dark Elf Elite fighters here.

No matter how strong Lin Rui is, it would be impossible for him to deal with thirteen Dark Elf Elite fighters in one go.

One must know that even Thor, who has supernatural power, was just a match for the Kursed (Tn:-The Kursed are any Dark Elves who are altered by the Kursed Stone)(Algrim the Strong was one of the Kursed of the Dark Elves who served the Dark Elves' ruler, Malekith the Accursed in the Movie Thor The Dark World. He was one of the largest and strongest of his kind.). Although these Dark Elf are not at the level of the Kursed, they are quite powerful.

"Roar! %#%&,*&a;&a∓%.....!" Seeing Lin Rui's already exhausted look, the leader of the Dark Elf Elite warrior raised the long blade in his hand and rushed up again with a roar.

In this Dark Elf team, the leader of the Dark Elite fighter poses the greatest threat to Lin Rui. Lin Rui's previous injuries were all from his hands.

If Lin Rui's flexibility had not been stronger than theirs, he would not have persisted at all. However, without other special circumstances, Lin Rui is unlikely to last much longer.

"Huhh! Do you really think that I would be afraid of you if there weren't so many annoying flies here!" Lin Rui, who was standing on the edge of the dimensional space, snorted at the sight of the leader rushing towards him.

However, Lin Rui really has no way to deal with Dark Elf's leader in the present situation. So, Lin Rui quickly dodges again.

Swipe!

In the next moment, three Dark Elf surrounded Lin Rui's escape route with anticipation. Lin Rui could only choose to fight hard at this time. His previous injuries were also formed in this way.

Bang Bang! Pū!

The first two bangs were Lin Rui's sword energy splitting two weapons in front of him, and the third was a third Dark Elf weapon piercing Lin Rui's internal Energy shield.

Huh!

The internal Energy shield on Lin Rui's body is broken and the long black spear grazes Lin Rui's chest and pierced it. If Lin Rui hadn't reacted quickly, this shot would have knocked him out of action.

But the same spear that ripped through his Internal Energy shield also ripped open Lin Rui's Phantom Suit, stabbing a gaping hole in his chest. Instantly, a piece of blood spurted out of Lin Rui's chest!!

This is the first time Lin Rui has suffered such a severe injury in his fight so far, and the Phantom Suit's defenses aren't strong enough to block such an attack!

"Get the fuck out of here!!" A big hole was pierced in his chest, and Lin Rui also roared with blood in his eyes.

Brush!

The next moment, a dazzling Azura light burst out in front of the dimension space. The three Dark Elf who had rushed into the air to besiege Lin Rui flew upside down as quickly as if they had suffered a violent explosion, and one of them seemed to have lost consciousness.

Buzzing~

Lin Rui, whose bloodlust was suddenly stimulated by the injury, was suspended in the air, holding the Beheading Spirit Sword high in his hand, looking coldly at the dozens of Dark Elves who were about to move in front of him.

At this time, Lin Rui had already transferred all the internal energy that had been left in his body into the Beheading Spirit Sword in an instant.

"You fuckers! Die! Thunder Strike!"

Brush!

Rumble!

After a loud shout, Lin Rui had already slashed the high Beheading Spirit Sword down. At the same time, Lin Rui quickly whispered something from his mouth.

-CHAPTER 757 CRISIS!

Dī Dī Drops!

After Lin Rui cleaved his sword, the dazzling Azura light instantly bursts out. In the next moment, Lin Rui's figure was covered by the burst of Azura light and disappeared.

Booming~

In the burst of Azura rays, a huge Azura sword-shaped sword energy quickly took shape.

The Azura sword energy was formed in the process of absorbing all the Azura rays that had been scattered, and the Azura rays that exploded, in the end, were completely absorbed. The scene in mid-air was as magical as if something going back in time.

Buzzing~

Seeing this magical scene in front of him, the Dark Elf leader, whose murderous face was shining with the light of Azura, stared at the huge sword energy with wide eyes.

For a time, they didn't even make any other move. Under such circumstances, the huge sword energy that had absorbed Azura's rays had already slashed straight down.

"¥#%?!...../*&#!" As the other Dark Elfs were overwhelmed by what they were seeing, the Dark Elf Leader suddenly let out a roar.

"Roar!" At the reminder of the Dark Elf leader, the other stupefied Dark Elf also reacted quickly, and the next moment they all roared and waved their weapons and slashed towards the Azura sword energy.

From the initial stupefaction, these Dark Elf have also felt the huge destructive power of the Azura sword energy. If they don't take it seriously, this attack has enough power to seriously injure or even kill them!

And while the Dark Elves brandished their weapons and some special technology to block the giant Azura energy attack, the leader of the Dark Elf who had just roared did not immediately take the lead, but instead looked for something.

In the next moment, his cold eyes lit up as if he had made a discovery.

"¥&#*¥.....!" The next moment, he said something to the only Dark Elf fighter who stayed beside him and didn't rush out, and then he rushed out.

Brush!

Brush!

As the leader of the Dark Elf Elite warriors rushed out, the Dark Elf who had just stood beside him in silence also rushed out.

However, the direction he rushed out was not towards the huge Azura sword energy that had been cut from the cave, but towards the side position.

If he rushed out from the side, as long as he was fast enough, he could rush into the dimensional space before the sword energy smashed down!

It turns out that the Dark Elf Leader has already seen Lin Rui, who has disappeared due to the burst of the Azura's sword energy.

He found out that Lin Rui has quietly retreated to the other side of the dimension and will soon be able to enter it. So, in order not to let Lin Rui, a strong opponent, leave, he immediately chased up after him.

At the same time, he also arranged for his capable subordinates to quietly detour into the dimensional space.

As long as he blocks that powerful enemy, his men can enter the dimensional space in advance. In this way, they can reach the place where the dimensional space connects to.

The reason these Dark Elves are so excited to enter the dimensional space is that their leader Malekith has instructed them that the Aether they are looking for is likely hidden in some special environments, and this dimensional space is the most likely the one.

Therefore, after discovering the dimensional space, these Dark Elves have already determined that their target this time must be here.

These Dark Elfs would all have rushed in if Lin Rui hadn't stopped them. With Malekith's orders, they don't care if there's any danger on the other side.

Rumble!

Although the huge Azura sword energy hadn't been completely smashed down, the strong shock wave emitted from them had directly stomped the mountains around the cave tunnel.

Even if Lin Rui's attack failed to kill many Dark Elves, the collapse of this mountain would at least block their pace. Moreover, Lin Rui has already activated some traps he left behind.

"This should be a chance! I don't believe that my luck would be no better than these Dark Elves!" Hidden behind the huge Azura sword energy floating towards the dimensional space, Lin Rui's eyes kept scanning the area as he silently thought of the changes in the immediate situation.

Having just used up all of his internal energy to make that single sword strike, Lin Rui also asked JARVIS to activate the miniature high-energy bombs he had scattered around.

Therefore, there is not much time left for Lin Rui himself, if he can't pass through the dimension space before the bombs blow up all this space then even if Lin Rui didn't die in the explosion, he would be trapped here and unable to return to the earth.

Shout!

Lin Rui is about to enter the dimensional space behind him, as the sword force in front of him confronts the Dark Elf's team. As for the bombs scattered around this space, they're two seconds away from detonating.

Whew!!

At this moment, a black shadow suddenly shot from below Lin Rui, and the target was Lin Rui, who was about to enter the dimensional space.

The leader of Dark Elves hasn't arrived yet, but his attack has arrived. This black shadow is a not-so-big dagger that has already pierced Lin Rui's chest in an instant.

Pū!

Lin Rui, weakened by internal energy expenditure, was not able to dodge the attack, and the black dagger stuck firmly to Lin Rui's Phantom Suit.

The Phantom Suit's defenses help block some of the impacts but the dagger still pierces the Phantom Suit and goes in. Lin Rui's chest was pierced in the instant and his face turned pale. He has suffered a lot of damage just now!

"Pū! Cough!" With a dagger stuck in his chest, Lin Rui couldn't help but sprayed a mouthful of blood, and then coughed violently.

Brush!

While Lin Rui has suffered a series of injuries and is now critically wounded, the leader of Dark Elves who threw the dagger has already rushed up. He had abandoned his teammates who might have been injured or killed in Lin Rui's final attack.

He rushed alone to stop Lin Rui. Lin Rui really has no other defense power. As long as he comes in, he can defeat this powerful opponent in an instant.

"Cough cough! You want to finish me off here? Don't be so naive!" Lin Rui looked at the Dark Elf Leader who had thrown himself in front of him and let out a low roar with a pale face.

In the next moment, Lin Rui's eyes flashed a few times, and finally, he seemed to become sure of something. Then his right hand slid around his waist, and his hand had already pinched something that showed a hint of green light.

By the time Lin Rui had finished these movements, the Dark Elf leader had rushed up to him, his ferocious mouth gaping as if in laughter. At the same time, the Dark Elf leader raised his thick arms and stretched his claws towards Lin Rui's head.

CHAPTER 758 NOT WONDERFUL

Brush!

"Hum! Trying to hold me up? ! Let's go together then!" Unable to escape the attack, Lin Rui's bloodshot eyes burst out with red light and he gave a low growl.

Call!

In the next moment, after exhausting the last trace of strength on his body, Lin Rui stretched out his left hand and violently grabbed the thick arm that was coming toward him.

At the same time, Lin Rui's Phantom Suit, which had been damaged a lot, shone in with a faint black light. After Lin Rui finally finished these actions within the limited time, that claw had already reached Lin Rui!

Booming~

A second later, a violent explosion occurred simultaneously in various places inside this mountain that hides the dimensional gateway.

The violent explosion shock wave together with the sword energy attack that Lin Rui slashed out just now shook the inside of this mountain, and from time to time, large pieces of debris fell from above, and many cracks appeared in the cave tunnels here.

It seems that even if this mountain is very strong, it is finally unable to hold on under the impact of such a series of internal explosions.

Brush!

The silhouettes of Lin Rui and the Dark Elf Leader also rushed into the dimensional space gate in the shock wave. When the dimensional space gate suffered from the blast wave and became unstable, Lin Rui and the Dark Elf quickly fell and disappeared.

...

On Earth, in the new base of Siberia SHIELD, the people who are participating in the S-Project have not returned. They have passed through the portal for more than half an hour.

After they entered the portal, SHIELD fully armed the base in accordance with the arrangement left behind by Rogers, equipped with all kinds of powerful weapons.

Although they have Mirage Knight's intelligence on the Dark Elves, as well as the combined might of SHIELD, Iron Man Legion, League of Defenders, and X-Men, it does not mean that they can return to Earth safely.

Therefore, before entering the portal, Rogers also prepared for the worst. That is, if they can't come back safely, and the portal still exists then SHIELD will completely destroy it.

At present, the existence of this portal is only known to SHIELD and the alliance. As long as they can really secure an area on the other side of the portal and defend it, then they would be the greatest guardians of the earth! Otherwise, they will do their best to destroy it to protect the safety of the earth.

Dī Dī!

"A drone is back? How is the situation there?" Harry, who was staying behind, stood beside the communications officer in charge of information and asked in a worried tone.

Harry's friends have entered the portal, and apart from the drones that come back every few minutes, he has no way of knowing the situation on the other side. Moreover, there was bad news when the first drone had come back: There was a Dark Elf's team guarding the portal on the other side!

Therefore, the battle began as soon as the team participating in the S-Project left the portal. Since then, every time a drone came back, Harry would approach the officer and ask about the situation.

Fortunately, the news sent back by the drones said that the fighting situation there was not bad for the earth side. At least the strength of the Dark Elf team was judged by JARVIS to be inferior to the earth side.

"The battle is still going on, but the situation has changed. JARVIS's previous judgment was wrong. The Dark Elf's strength was much stronger than what they showed at the beginning. Especially those Dark Elf fighters who are fighting on their home turf. Their strength is exceptionally strong." Hearing Harry's unknown number of questions, the communications officer in charge of the information frowned and answered.

“How could this be? What about casualties? Are there any casualties?!” Hearing this answer, Harry continued to ask.

“Casualties... Some members of the S and K Teams were injured. As for the others, Professor Charles is said to have broken out a large-scale psychic suppression in order to reverse the unfavorable situation and is now in a coma. And Daredevil also received serious injuries during the fight against Dark Elf fighters. Apart from Black Widow and Hawkeye, everyone in the Avengers, including Captain Rogers received various injuries.” The officer quickly told Harry the news he had just received as there was no need to hide anything.

The expression on Harry’s face changed when he heard the communications officer’s answer. JARVIS made a mistake in judgment, and the strength of Dark Elf far exceeded their expectations, and there have been many wounded. Moreover, there are many strong people among these wounded!

Bang!

“Damn it! Why is Jackson not there at such a critical time?!” After slamming the desk in front of him, Harry suppressed the worry and anger in his heart as he silently thought.

Not long after Mirage Knight left Siberia, he confirmed with Captain Rogers and Tony Stark that the plan to pass through the portal was feasible, and he himself lost contact directly after the start of the plan. As Lin Rui flew to London and got into the mess on his own, the world was missing a Mirage Knight and a high school student.

If Mirage Knight was still here, Harry felt that he would definitely be able to take the most correct action for the current situation. However, Mirage Knight is not there and Jackson can’t be contacted either.

Harry didn’t know that while he was here looking forward to Lin Rui’s help and support, Lin Rui’s situation at this time was much more severe than that of Rogers and the others.

“What news do we have on our backup! Also, those injured should be sent back as soon as possible!” Harry could only say that.

“Backup... Except for the K and the S Team, there are not many fighters on SHIELD who can participate in this event. The rest must guard the SHIELD headquarters.”

“You mean... we have no backup?!” Harry’s tone gradually turned cold as he stared at the officer in front of him and continued to ask.

“There was, but according to the news that came back, unless our support is strong enough, the effect will not be enough.” Hearing Harry’s words, the officer replied calmly.

“Then fill in the quantity! Don’t Iron Man have a lot of Iron Man Armors? Send them all, I believe Mr. Stark will do the same.”

“I have communicated with JARVIS just now, and the new batch of Iron Man Armors will arrive in five minutes.” The officer quickly said knowing that Harry was worried.

“If this is the case, then I will be a member of this support team!”

CHAPTER 759 ANXIOUS

Hearing Harry’s words, the officer in charge of the plan frowned even tighter.

Harry, as a member of the League of Defenders, is one of SHIELD’s allies, they are not divided into superiors or inferiors. Therefore, if Harry makes such a request then the person in charge has no right to refuse. Although, he really wanted to refuse.

“Mr. Dark Knight Sir, I know you are worried about your friends but you should know that the situation there can change at any time. Even if you go, it may not be of any help.” In order to reduce unnecessary trouble, the officer still bit the bullet and persuaded Harry.

“Also, we have lost contact with Mirage Knight. I hope you can wait until we hear from him.” In order to make his own words more convincing, the officer also specifically mentioned the disconnected Mirage Knight.

Sure enough, the look in Harry’s eyes changed when he heard the officer mention that they had lost contact with Mirage Knight. Although the situation on the other side of the portal is indeed not good, it doesn’t mean that Lin Rui himself is safe.

That guy has a knack for finding trouble.

“Then I...”

“I will wait until there is any news about Mirage Knight!” Harry finally decided to wait after a long time struggle.

“That’s right! Don’t worry! With SHIELD and Iron Man Legion support, the situation over there will definitely stabilize. At the very worst, they would be able to safely return.” The officer happily said after hearing Harry say that he would wait for Mirage Knight’s news.

“This time our support will not only help Captain Rogers and others reverse the situation, but we will also transfer all the wounded back.” The officer continued to speak to make Harry feel more at ease.

“Of course, the wounded have to be transferred back, but can you really bring them back safely? Or else...” Harry, who had already decided to wait for Lin Rui’s news, was moved when he heard that the wounded would be brought back but he also need to confirm if they can be safely brought back.

Dī Dī!

Harry had barely finished his sentence when a message beeped through the headphones he had been wearing. Then, suddenly, JARVIS’s voice sounded in his ear.

“Mr. Dark Knight, we have heard from Mirage Knight. So, you probably won’t be able to participate in this support.” That was the sound Harry heard, a message sent to him by JARVIS.

“Heard from Mirage Knight? What’s wrong with him? Why can’t I be part of this support again?” Harry asked nervously as he heard JARVIS’s voice.

He noticed that JARVIS seemed to be telling him the news alone and that the officer opposite him was still looking at him with a puzzled expression on his face.

“The situation is still very complicated, there is no way to explain clearly to you in a short time. However, his situation is not very good. Compared to supporting Captain Rogers and the others, Mirage Knight needs your help more now. “Hearing Harry’s words, JARVIS’s voice continued to ring in his ears.

“Okay, I get it! Tell me the details! I will move out now!” Hearing this, Harry probably guessed why JARVIS had to tell him the news alone, something must have happened to Mirage Knight and only those close to him can be made aware of his situation.

Call!

While contacting JARVIS, Harry had quickly left the command room of the base. SHIELD and JARVIS arranged support for the team at the Siberia Portal. Since JARVIS said Lin Rui’s situation was not good, Harry had to quickly figure it out.

“JARVIS, you can speak now. Where is Mirage Knight?” Harry immediately asked after leaving the control room.

“Mirage Knight, he is in London now.”

...

The central patio of a half-finished building on the outskirts of London. Two minutes ago, JARVIS had Iron Man under his control and launched a direct attack after the Dark Elf suddenly appeared from dimensional space.

Although the Dark Elf warrior was a good one, he was hit with Iron Man’s full force before he could fully adjust to the environment after crossing the interdimensional space, and the adjustment didn’t last long before the situation was resolved before Evans’s eyes.

Boom!

The battle was resolved in a dozen seconds, and the two Iron Man threw the body of the Dark Elf warrior, who had lost his life, on the ground next to the patio.

This brief battle, though seemingly simple, ended in such a short period of time because JARVIS already had a rough idea of the strength of the Dark Elf warriors, and it was not unusual for them to be unable to withstand a full-force attack.

This Dark Elf Warrior managed to pass behind Thor and Jane and he was sent here by the leader of Dark Elf on the other side. It can only be said that his luck was really bad.

Originally, a bomb exploded beside him when he was quietly rushing into the dimension space.

Although he had entered the dimension space before the power of the explosion hit him, the dimension space was also greatly affected by the shock wave of the explosion, and he was also seriously injured.

In addition to the injury on his body, this Dark Elf warrior was especially suppressed by the environment on the earth at the moment of transmission, just like Lin Rui’s power was suppressed in that land.

Stacked together, this Dark Elf has been weakened considerably. It would be surprising if JARVIS, who already knows them, didn't get a quick fix in this situation.

"Is this the species that live in this dimensional space? JARVIS, do you know what he is?" After JARVIS killed that Dark Elf warrior, Evans had already come over to observe, and was staring at that Dark Elf's corpse at this time and asked JARVIS.

"Agent Evans, you don't have enough clearance." JARVIS's answered Evans's question but it was not the answer Evans was expecting.

"Uh... Clearance level again... well, okay." Hearing JARVIS's answer, Evans muttered helplessly.

But while Evans's tone was frustrated, the look in his eyes was not. As for the identity of the apparently alien civilization LifeForm, Evans knew he was not authorized to know.

His remark was only a tentative one, and he was very pleased with the result. For, at least, he guessed from JARVIS's answers that JARVIS knew the identity of this humanoid species.

CHAPTER 760 SEVERELY WOUNDED

Buzzing~

Not long after JARVIS had taken care of the ill-fated Dark Elf, there was another burst of space turbulence across the patio.

Brush!

"Something's coming over again!" Sensing this strong spatial fluctuation, Evans hurriedly turned his head to look over.

Kakaka!

As Evans nervously looks over his shoulder, JARVIS has all the Iron Man redirecting all of their weapon systems toward the patio.

There is already one Dark Elf out here, and there are likely to be many more. So, JARVIS is going to have to decide whether to notify SHIELD of what's going on.

Huhu!

At the next moment, amid Evans's strained gaze and JARVIS's 360-degree surveillance, a shadowy black figure suddenly appeared above the patio. The figure is roughly the size of an average human on Earth but is shrouded in a thick black fog that makes it hard to see what's inside.

The figure, shrouded in black fog, is falling fast, and whatever is inside, he must be unconscious at this point. JARVIS couldn't figure out what the black fog was, so he didn't act immediately.

Shout!

And just after the fog-shrouded figure had fallen two meters into the patio, a tall figure had once again appeared out of thin air in the position above him. This time, JARVIS was able to tell immediately, because the creature was clearly a Dark Elf!

“Roar!” Unlike the figure shrouded in black mist in front, the Dark Elf who appeared behind was still alive after passing through the dimensional space, it looked at the black mist below and roared angrily.

The black mist figure and Dark Elf that appeared from the patio were obviously Lin Rui and the Leader of the Dark Elf’s team.

In the Forbidden Area, they rushed into the dimension space together at the moment the explosion started. However, no one knows why Lin Rui is now shrouded in black fog, and what is the situation at this time.

Lin Rui was unable to see what was happening because of the Dark fog surrounding him, but the Dark Elf warrior above had very visible wounds on his body, apparently from the final explosion.

The expression on his face was ferocious, too, and his red eyes were fixed on the black, humanoid mist below, it looked as if he wanted to devour its contents alive.

Brush!

The next moment, when JARVIS was still considering whether to attack the Dark Elf alone or to attack both the Dark Elf and the black mist-shrouded figure below, the Dark Elf attacked first.

“Roar!” With a roar, the Dark Elf, who had fallen low enough to strike the cloud of black fog, lashed at it with his thick claws.

Hoo!

The black mist, which had been gathered together, was scattered under this attack, revealing a picture of an inner corner of the mist. The corner of the picture that emerges is of a human arm, the arm of a young man.

“Dī Dī! The analysis confirmed that this is Mr. Jackson Lin! Starting the rescue operation!” After the black mist dissipated and revealed part of the situation inside, JARVIS, who had been staring at the patio, instantly saw that Lin Rui was in the black mist and had immediately made a rescue plan.

Swipe!

So by the time the Dark Elf swung its claw at Lin Rui in the fog for the second time, no fewer than ten laser beams had been directed at that arm.

Pū Pū Pū!

Although the dimensional space in the courtyard has some effect on the power and angle of the laser beams, three of the laser beams still hit the arm.

The Dark Elf Elite Leader is much stronger than the one before, but his massive arm was still ripped apart by three laser beams.

“Roar!” One of his arms was suddenly ripped apart by the laser beams, and the Dark Elf warrior roared and quickly retracted only half of his arm.

Shoo!

As the Dark Elf warrior continues to attack Lin Rui below, enduring the pain of an injured arm, a dozen Iron Man, just outside of dimensional space, has rushed in. Originally, the space of the patio was not large, but it seemed to be filled up in an instant with so many Iron Men.

Pū Pū Pū!

As the Iron Men burst into the interdimensional space, some attacked the Dark Elf warrior, while others swooped into the Dark fog that was still falling unresponsive. After the attack of the Dark Elf warriors, the Dark fog was now slowly dissipating, revealing the whole person inside.

“Wow! That is amazing!” Evans, who was standing by the patio, muttered with wide eyes as he watched the crazy appearance of Iron Man before him.

Although the Dark Elf that appeared before was quickly struck to death by JARVIS but the scene was not quite as shocking. After all, it was just a Dark Elf fighter just now, and JARVIS still had plans to capture it alive.

But now Lin Rui had appeared and he is still being attacked by the Dark Elf. So JARVIS directly scrapped the plan to capture this Dark Elf alive and focused entirely on protecting Lin Rui. Therefore, JARVIS directly dispatched all Iron Man.

Bang Bang Bang!

Under the uninterrupted strikes of the Iron Man who rushed over, the Dark Elf warrior, who had previously taken down Lin Rui, a powerful enemy, was forced to hide and he could no longer attack Lin Rui. After all, he can't be invincible, as his severed arm just proved.

Brush!

When the other Iron Man surrounded the Dark Elf and attacked, Lin Rui, who was falling continuously, was finally caught firmly by the two Iron Man. At this time, the black mist on Lin Rui's body has finally disappeared, at least he can see his general situation at this time.

“That!... That's Jackson Lin!” As the black mist surrounding Lin Rui dispersed and his falling figure was caught by Iron Man, Evans, who was standing by the patio, finally saw who the figure was and he shouted in surprise.

Evans couldn't help but gasp as he saw the man who was carefully caught by Iron Man and flew outside the patio. Because Lin Rui at this time looked really miserable.

Lin Rui's chest was blurred by Iron Man, and he could not see how serious his injuries were underneath except for a large area of bright red blood. In addition to the chest full of blood, his exposed arms and legs have different wounds of various sizes, it was as if he had just experienced a brutal was.

Whew!

Finally, in front of Evans's worried and nervous gaze, Lin Rui was finally sent out of the dimension space and fell beside him.
