Chapter 771 Situation

Tony's sudden departure did not attract many people's attention, after all, the battlefield is so chaotic now, and there are many more Iron Man Armors here so not many people would have noticed that one Iron Man's flight path is different from the other Iron Man.

But there are always people who are not ordinary, and there are many of them in this field.

Bang!

A shield smashed two Dark Elf into the air. Seeing that they were instantly covered by the firepower falling from the air, Rogers turned his head and looked back with some doubts in his heart.

"Did Stark find something? Why did he get out of the battlefield?" Rogers thought silently as he looked at the Iron Man who had been behind him for a long time.

Dī Dī~

"Rogers, I have to get back to Earth right away!! You will be in charge of the battle here, and JARVIS will cooperate with you. There are one hundred Iron Man here and I except them and you to return to Earth safely!" Just as Rogers was muttering in his heart, Tony's voice suddenly sounded in his ear and his voice sounded very urgent.

"Got it." Hearing Tony's voice, Rogers didn't ask anything, but simply replied that he knew.

After this simple greeting, Tony was silent and then JARVIS's voice came out.

"Captain Rogers, all one hundred Iron Man have passed through the portal, and now I will follow your order."

"Well, let's move the wounded first. The other Iron Man will participate in the battle, and the retreat plan will remain unchanged. This time, let's go back first!" Hearing JARVIS' voice, Rogers gave the order without hesitation.

"Yes, Captain Rogers."

Earth, New York, in the fifth basement of the Stark Industries building, the Iron Man who flew back from London had all returned a minute ago. The return of these Iron Man did not attract much attention, and even SHIELD only got some news from Agent Evans.

Dī Dī Drops!

The fifth underground floor of the Stark Industries building is a huge underground industrial base with all kinds of laboratories and equipment. However, the 100 Iron Man Armors that were originally hidden here have disappeared at this time, and there are only a few Iron Mans that have just flown back from London.

And at this time, the Iron Man who had rescued Lin Rui from London was completely isolated. In the huge underground base, these Iron Mans are locked in an alloy room, like a dangerous enemy.

Not only are they physically isolated, but the JARVIS in the armors are also completely disconnected from JARVIS in terms of information and communication.

The last order these Iron Man received was to send Lin Rui here safely, and the follow-up was self-shutdown. And these Iron Man had completed their mission. After Lin Rui was safely sent here, they were all completely cut off from the internet.

As for Lin Rui, he was sent to the intensive care unit by JARVIS immediately after being sent over. But this time, neither Stark nor OsCorp's combined medical technology could do anything to Lin Rui's injury.

One must know that Lin Rui is a professional injury expert as he had been seriously injured several times. But it was the first time that JARVIS was so helpless.

Every time he tested Lin Rui, the results were very unsatisfactory, and his vitality was sometimes strong and weak. When he is weak, he was almost close to dying, and when he was strong, he was like Hulk, which makes JARVIS very confused.

"Unable to analyze the specific energy present in the wound, Recovery Serum was 100 percent effective, but Jackson's body did not improve." While constantly giving Lin Rui Recovery Serum, JARVIS also kept analyzing Recovery Serum in the background.

Lin Rui was often injured before, and he was seriously injured several times and was healed by the Recovery Serum several times. Therefore, JARVIS has a relatively good understanding of Lin Rui's physical condition.

Even if JARVIS can't calculate and predict Lin Rui's strength change, just like how JARVIS can't figure out the principle of the existence and operation of internal energy but Lin Rui is still a human, even if he is a super strong human being and his basic gene code is similar to humans.

As long as Lin Rui is still human, JARVIS would have a way to use the Recovery Serum on him. After all, Stark Industries was an Arms Giant before but their medical technology is also world-class.

Especially after Stark Industries stopped developing weapons, it began to transform, and they paid more attention to the medical direction along with clean energy. Coupled with the support of Oscorp, whose medical technology itself is strong, it can be said that there are almost no injuries that their Recovery Serum cannot heal in this world.

Of course, Lin Rui and the others are not ordinary people, and the situation they encountered could not be the situation encountered by ordinary people, and the injuries they suffered were definitely not ordinary. Therefore, the existence of Lin Rui and others has brought a lot of problems to super artificial intelligence like JARVIS.

Dī Dī Drops!

Just as JARVIS was trying to analyze Lin Rui's injury, the instrument that detected Lin Rui's physical condition sounded out with a rapid alarm again.

"His heartbeats stopped again!" JARVIS already knew what had happened when the alarm sounded.

This is not the first time that Lin Rui's heartbeat has stopped. JARVIS has been "Shocked" a few times before. But now, although he is still "shocked", his emotional changes are not as strong as before. Moreover, JARVIS is still carefully observing Lin Rui's situation.

Boom! Boom! Bang bang bang!

As JARVIS silently waited, Lin Rui's heartbeat started to beat again after five seconds of stopping.

Moreover, as the first few weak heartbeats ended, Lin Rui's heartbeat became stronger and stronger, and soon exceeded the limit that an ordinary person's heart could handle. After beating beyond the limit of an ordinary person's heart, Lin Rui's heartbeat continued to intensify, reaching an inhuman level.

With the heart beating at this level, it would be impossible to repair and maintain such a heart no matter how good the gene Recovery Serum is. However, Lin Rui's heart has been strong and did not burst out, which is simply a miracle!

And with Lin Rui's heart beating violently, the wounds on his body are also recovering quickly, and those wounds caused by Dark Elf's special weapons are also quickly disappearing.

"It seems that Jackson's physical changes are indeed related to the thing he is holding." JARVIS silently came to such a conclusion after carefully observing Lin Rui's physical changes.

JARVIS had also discovered that Lin Rui had been holding something in his hand, but Lin Rui was in a coma and his hands were tightly squeezed together, and JARVIS did not think about forcibly opening his hands. However, he was able to detect some basic conditions of the item in his hand.

Chapter 772 Complex

During JARVIS's inspection, he could not determine the substance and material of the thing that Lin Rui was holding in his hand. However, JARVIS was able to detect that that thing contained very powerful energy.

Moreover, a green light would shine out from Lin Rui's tightly squeezed hand from time to time, and this green light was emitted by that thing.

"As Jackson's life functions fluctuated, there were some fluctuations in the energy of that thing. So the thing that Jackson has in his hand is the reason he's still in this state." JARVIS was able to determine the effect of the substance on Lin Rui after several cycles of life-breath fluctuations.

"There's no way to detect the energy limit of that thing, and it seems to stay very full. But is it going to save Jackson from this?" While recording Lin Rui's physical changes, JARVIS was also "thinking" on the side.

Buzz~

While JARVIS could do nothing about Lin Rui's injuries but monitor his vital signs, the object in Lin Rui's grip continued to glow with a pale green light.

This magical thing that continuously releases special energy to pull Lin Rui back from the brink of death, again and again, is exactly the Heart of Life that Lin Rui got after destroying the plant monster from another planet.

The Heart of Life is a very special thing, and it is the crystallization of life energy left by the plant-like lifeform in order to prolong its own life. After being obtained by Lin Rui, he also looked at the exchange price of it in the System Shop, which came out at 50,000 Reward points.

However, Lin Rui did not sell it when he was very poor because of its efficacy, which can instantly replenish the powerful vitality and revive the powerful plant monster by chance.

Lin Rui was cornered in the last battle with the Dark Elves. Lin Rui himself thought that if Heimdall could see the danger Thor encountered then he would definitely send an army to support him.

But he was mistaken, Heimdall didn't even know where Thor was. And when Lin Rui fought the enemy in his already injured state, he couldn't match the entire team of Dark Elves, so he had already taken out the Heart of Life the moment the Dark Elf attacked him.

At the time of his almost certain death, Lin Rui also considered blocking the attack once. He was gambling that the last protection of the Phantom Suit would allow him to pass safely through the subspace affected by the explosion.

He was also gambling that this miraculous Heart of Life would allow him to persevere under his certain death-wound; he was also gambling that JARVIS on the other side of the subspace would be able to save him from this Dark Elf warrior.

Although Lin Rui almost left his life in the hands of Lady Luck, it has to be said that Lin Rui's luck was good this time.

The Phantom Suit's final defense did protect Lin Rui from the spatial instability that the Dark Elf warrior suffered while traveling through the interdimensional space, and the Heart of Life in his hand holds his life.

However, JARVIS could not stop the Dark Elf Elite warrior, and Lin Rui would not have survived if Ancient One had not acted at the last moment and reverse time.

Buzz~

And now, the wounds on Lin Rui's body caused by the Dark Elf attacks are not getting any better with Earth's medical technology. In addition to the two very huge and obvious wounds on the chest that have been carefully cleaned, Lin Rui's body also has more than a dozen small wounds.

These minor injuries usually won't require a Recovery Serum, and Lin Rui's own Recovery rate would have been enough for him to recover from them.

But now, some Dark Elf energy remains in these wounds, and Lin Rui's own Recovery power and Earth medical technology have no effect on them. So, even though JARVIS had given Lin Rui the best medicine, his wound showed no sign of healing.

Apart from the Heart of Life that is constantly releasing life force to pull Lin Rui's fading breath of life back, Lin Rui now has no other way to recover.

Perhaps, Lin Rui can find other ways to eliminate the damage caused by Dark Elf in the System Shop after he wakes up. But now, whether Lin Rui can wake up is a question.

Once the Heart of Life is used, its energy will not stop halfway. That is to say if Lin Rui's life physique has stabilized and the dark aura at the wound has disappeared then the energy of the Heart of Life will continue to be infused into Lin Rui's body.

Therefore, if Lin Rui could not wake up, he would either be dragged down by such a serious injury or he would be overwhelmed by the huge life energy of the Heart of Life.

Of course, this situation would be different if Tony rushed back, and if he had some kind of a solution to Lin Rui's plight at this time. But Tony, who hadn't even figured out Lin Rui's secret, would probably be helpless to do anything about his situation.

Dī Dī Drops!

"His Life Signs has dropped again." After a few seconds of vigorous beating, Lin Rui's heart slowly slowed down again amid a sound of an alarm.

Whew~

As for Lin Rui's situation at this time, JARVIS had no other option but to monitor it closely. Therefore, he also gave Lin Rui an absolutely quiet environment outside of providing the best Recovery Serum to ensure the highest quality so that he can maintain his current state. Then, JARVIS began to think about solving another thing.

"The core system has been thoroughly checked and there are no problems. But this is a real system error. What went wrong?" JARVIS, who exists in the independent network of the Stark Industry, is secretly observing those Iron Man, who were isolated and disconnected from the others.

JARVIS had been unable to understand how exactly this system error that should not have occurred had occurred.

While in London, JARVIS's core system had been directly connected to those Iron Man suits that rescued Lin Rui. However, right after the Iron Man rescued Lin Rui and took care of the Dark Elf Elite fighter, JARVIS's core system suddenly found a physical error between the system in the Iron Man suit in London and itself.

The physics error JARVIS discovered was actually a seemingly simple problem: JARVIS's core systems discovered that the Iron Man suit systems in London were several seconds behind him!

It was this physical error that caused the JARVIS core system to fail in some of its calculations. He was unable to figure out how this happened, JARVIS instantly decided to disconnect from the bizarre Iron Man suits, and discovered that there was a disconnection between his core system and those subsystems!

This is something that should never have happened.

Chapter 773 Saving the World

Several Iron Man suits that had been physically isolated and networked by JARVIS stood quietly in the lab, without the slightest movement. They were now the unarmed Iron Man suits that had not been activated and were clearly inspected by JARVIS from inside out.

In fact, there is nothing wrong with these Iron Man Armors and the Iron Man Armors still in London guarding the dimensional space. The reason for the physical errors in their internal systems and JARVIS's core system is actually very simple, that is, Ancient One used the Time Stone to reverse the time in order to save Lin Rui.

Ancient One is powerful, and he does have the ability to use the power of the Time Stone. However, he could not use the Time Stone to reverse the time of the entire world.

So, when saving Lin Rui, Ancient One just reversed the time in the area where the unfinished building was located. In this way, Ancient One can not only save Lin Rui but also minimize the impact of using the Time Stone on the outside world.

However, Ancient One thought that he used Time Stone to reverse time to save Lin Rui is something that only he knows. Unexpectedly, there was still a little trace left, that is the existence of JARVIS.

Although the Iron Man Armors that were also reversed by time also had no "memory", their experiences made JARVIS, who had been connected to them all the time, make a system error in an instant.

After all, the change of time is something that JARVIS has no way of understanding today. And what happened in those few seconds in the unfinished building had no impact on the whole world, and the only one who felt the impact was JARVIS.

"What went wrong? Clearly, there is no problem." JARVIS is already considering giving up on trying to figure out what went wrong despite the sheer volume of calculations he had done.

"The support team had entered the Portal on Siberia and the latest information has not come back. However, with the latest judgment on the strength of the Dark Elf fighters that I brought over, I should be able to bring Mr. Stark back safely." Unable to figure out what went wrong, JARVIS is already "thinking" about his next problem.

When Tony-Stark left the Earth and could not give JARVIS any orders, he could judge what to do according to the situation after executing Tony's last order. So, in such a situation, JARVIS' intelligence developed beyond everyone's expectations.

Dī Dī!

Just as JARVIS was expending a lot of computing power trying to figure out what was going on, a call came in.

"JARVIS, Tony hasn't come back yet?" Then, the voice of Pepper, who had been stood up by Tony, came out.

When he was simply looking for the Magic Cube, Tony didn't intend to do it himself, but then the Dark Elf appeared from the Portal and Lin Rui inexplicably disappeared on the way to find the Magic Cube, so Tony had to stood Pepper up on their date.

Before Tony left, the excuse he gave Pepper was that he was going to save the world. It's been half a day, and the world is still there, but Pepper hadn't heard back from Tony.

"Miss Pepper, Mr. Stark hasn't come back yet," JARVIS replied honestly to Pepper's question.

“JARVIS, tell me, where did Tony go?” Pepper asked seriously after being silent for two seconds after hearing JARVIS’ answer.

“Mr. Stark... he went to save the world.”

Pepper: “...”

There was a long silence on Pepper’s end after JARVIS answered. Pepper didn’t believe Tony when he stood him up. Save the world? That’s just an excuse. Since Tony became Iron Man, he has felt that he should be in charge of everything on earth that he doesn’t like, so Pepper has gotten used to Tony’s frequent, inexplicable absences.

However, JARVIS’s serious answer made Pepper hesitate. JARVIS is a artificial intelligence, no matter how smart he is, he can’t lie. So, did Tony really go to save the world? Pepper couldn’t help but think so. However, it’s also possible that Tony had JARVIS playing along with him.

“Could it be that Killian’s terrorist attack hasn’t been solved yet?” Pepper, who was thinking for a long time, whispered in a low voice.

Pepper knows a lot about Vigilante and Superhero, but she doesn’t have much personal experience. Originally, Pepper was almost caught as a hostage of Killian threatening Tony but she was saved by Lin Ru and others before that could happen. So, Pepper doesn’t really experience much danger.

“It’s not Killian, the terrorist attack with Extremis has been dealt with,” JARVIS replied after hearing Pepper’s whisper.

“What then?... Forget it, Tony wouldn’t let you tell me.” Pepper was going to ask, but she thought better of it. If he could tell her then Tony wouldn’t have used the phrase “save the world” anymore.

JARVIS: “...”

“Never mind. And one more thing, what happened to the two people you just sent to our private infirmary? One of them is Jane Foster, someone I know from college” Skipping over what has often happened since Tony became Iron Man, Pepper then poses another question.

It turns out that Jane Foster and Thor, brought back by JARVIS in Tony Stark’s private plane, have already been seen by Pepper. JARVIS didn’t mean to keep Pepper in the secret, and they were accompanied by Jane Foster’s assistant Darcy. So Pepper soon found out that someone she knows from her college had been brought in unconscious.

“That little girl named Darcy has been making a fuss. When did Stark Industries become a casualty relief center? Except for Jackson. I haven’t seen Tony let outsiders use his private medical room.” Pepper continued to speak before JARVIS could answer.

Although Pepper knew Jane Foster from college, they were just two people who had occasionally seen each other. They were still a few years apart, and they were not friends.

So seeing such a beautiful girl comatose and being sent to Stark’s private medical room, of course, Pepper would think more. After all, Tony used to do this kind of thing a lot.

“Miss Pepper, I’m sorry, this is my fault. Miss Foster and Mr. Thor have been injured for some particular reason, and I’m keeping them here until Mr. Stark comes back.”

“As for Miss Darcy, she’s just a little emotional because she’s worried about her mentor,” JARVIS explained quickly after Pepper finished.

“Really? Injured? Is it serious? I can see that the big man has injuries, but Jane looked fine.” Hearing JARVIS’ answer, Pepper asked in a slow tone.

Chapter 774 Regains Consciousness

“Miss Foster...”

Dī Dī Drops!

Just as JARVIS was about to explain some things to Pepper, he received another reminder. It turned out that Thor had woken up.

“Miss Potts, Mr. Thor has woken up, let’s go over there, and I’ll tell you what I can on the way.” JARVIS then said to Pepper after learning that Thor woke up.

“Is that so? I’m right next to the infirmary. I’ll be there in a minute.” “Pepper said, somewhat surprised by JARVIS’s words.

Then, as Pepper was on her way to the medical room, JARVIS explained it to her. Of course, JARVIS wouldn’t tell Pepper the whole thing, just the edges.

While Pepper was still on the way, Thor in the medical room was standing beside Jane’s bed and talking to Darcy, who had been there.

“You’re telling me that Jane and I were sent here after we got out of the dimension, and you still don’t know if Jackson had got out of the dimension or not?” “Thor asks Darcy calmly while staring at his unconscious ex-girlfriend in the hospital bed.

“Yes, there were monsters that came out of the dimension before you guys came along, they were defeated by Iron Man. So, after you came out, we were sent back here together. I just saw Tony Stark’s girlfriend and she also doesn’t know anything.” Darcy replies darkly to Thor’s question.

“Tony Stark? Is that Iron Man? Where is he now?!” Thor asks in a flash of excitement after Darcy mentions Iron Man and Tony Stark.

The only reason that Thor and Jane can safely return to the earth this time was that Lin Rui secured their exit. Therefore, not knowing whether Lin Rui had returned to the earth safely, Thor is worried about Lin Rui’s situation.

Thor knows another hidden identity of Lin Rui. He is very familiar with Iron Man. Therefore, if he wants to get information about Lin Rui, he can only ask Iron Man.

Card~

Just as Thor was questioning Darcy, the door to the infirmary suddenly opened and Pepper walked in with her head held high.

“Are you looking for Tony? He’s not here now, just ask me if you need anything.” Pepper looked up slightly at the big handsome guy in front of her and said while Thor looked at her curiously.

On the way from the next door to the medical room, JARVIS had already briefly told Pepper the general situation of the matter. With Pepper’s ingenuity, even if JARVIS hadn’t told her the most secret, she’d already guessed a lot.

“This is Miss Potts, she runs the Stark Industries.” Seeing Thor’s puzzled look, Darcy quickly introduced him.

“Miss Potts! Hello, where is Iron Man now? I want to ask him about Jackson’s situation. I’m his friend and I’m worried about him.” With Darcy’s introduction, Thor also knew that the woman in front of him was related to Iron Man, so he directly asked after saying hello.

“Tony is not here now. As for Jackson, he is in a Stark-owned building but he is also injured and recuperating in another place.” Pepper nodded and quickly answered without showing any surprise on her face.

“Injured?! It’s okay! That’s better than being dead! It’s good that he is back!” Thor was obviously relieved when he heard Pepper’s answer.

An injury can always be healed. But if he didn’t come back from the dimensional space, then even a person as powerful as Lin Rui would not be able to withstand the attacks of those monsters. Thor still doesn’t know that those monsters are Dark Elf’s cannon fodder. Thor has never encountered the Dark Elves.

“Mr. Thor, I also know about your situation. During Tony’s absence, you and Miss Foster can rest here and recover from your injuries, and we will do our best to help you.” Pepper continued without minding Thor’s reply.

“Thank you, I’m fine now, just help Jane.” Hearing Pepper’s words, Thor thanked her, and then his eyes shifted to Jane on the hospital bed again.

“Jane’s situation... JARVIS, do you know what happened to Jane?” Hearing Thor’s words, Pepper frowned slightly and then asked JARVIS.

“Miss Pepper, Miss Foster’s condition is very unusual, and I have no way of detecting why she remained unconscious. But, from the test results, it seemed that her body is slowly losing vitality.” At Pepper’s words, JARVIS’s voice rang out from this medical room.

Call!

Stab!

After JARVIS’s voice appears out of thin air, Thor, who is staring at Jane Foster, suddenly looks around with vigilance. And there was a flash of electricity in his clenched fist. After the danger he had just experienced, Thor was very sensitive to this unknown situation.

“Who?! Who’s talking!” Thor asked loudly while clenching his fists.

Although the injuries on Thor's body were not completely healed now, and he had suffered some injuries when he went through the subspace. However, the strength that he had broken out in his previous fight has allowed him to recover a lot of his lost divine power. So, at this time, Thor is no longer an ordinary person.

"Sure enough... this man is not an ordinary person..." Pepper, who had been observing the changes in Thor, muttered silently in her heart.

"Don't be nervous, this is Tony's Artificial Intelligence, his name is JARVIS." Pepper finally opened her mouth to explain when Thor was clenching his fists and was about to explode.

"JARVIS? I think Evans also mentioned that name before? By the way, JARVIS is what Evans used to call Iron Men when he was talking to them!" The expression on Thor's face did not change much after hearing JARVIS'S name while Darcy on the side remembered something and said.

"That's right, Miss Darcy, nice to meet you. Mr. Thor, I'm JARVIS, and I'm also a friend of Mr. Jackson." After Darcy whispered, JARVIS's voice continued.

"Alright! I don't care whatever the hell is an artificial intelligence? What the hell is Jane's condition now? What do you mean her body has been slowly losing its life?!" Without dwelling on the question of who JARVIS was, Thor unclenched his fist that was gathering lightning and asked.

Chapter 775 Dream?

Now that Lin Rui is back, Thor's biggest worry now is the unconscious Jane Foster. Moreover, the artificial intelligence also said that Jane's life was slowly waning, which made Thor very worried.

"That is to say..."

Ahhh!

"What!....."

Just when JARVIS was about to explain Jane's situation, Jane, who was unconscious on the bed, suddenly sat up and screamed as if she was frightened.

"Hey! Jane! I'm here! I'm here!" Seeing Jane suddenly wake up and scream, Thor quickly sits down beside the bed and takes her hand, and says softly.

"Ah!! Thor! Are you alright!?" Jane, who seemed to have had a nightmare, slowly recovered herself under Thor's comfort, and then stared at the ex-boyfriend in front of her and shouted with a worried expression on her face.

"I'm fine! We're all back safely!" Thor's heart hurt seeing Jane in this state and he put his arms around her.

If he had known that Jane's research would expose her to such danger, Thor would not have agreed to break up with Jane even under Loki's threat. Now that Thor is holding Jane in his arms again, it is impossible for him to let her go.

“Have we come back?” Hearing Thor’s words, Jane, who had woken up from the nightmare just now, finally saw where she was.

“Huh? Pepper?” Jane was also a little surprised after seeing Pepper in front of her.

“Jane, I haven’t seen you for a long time.” Pepper greeted Jane with a smile on her face seeing that Jane had recognized her.

“Hello, Pepper. Thor, where are we now?” Jane also nodded in response, and then she asked Thor.

“We’re at Stark Industries now, don’t worry about that. Do you feel any discomfort in your body? You’ve been unconscious for a long time and I’m worried.” Thor asked seriously after giving out a simple answer.

Although Jane has woken up, and there is no visible injury on her body. But Thor still remembered what the AI said just now, so he was very worried about whether Jane was injured. Otherwise, why would a person remain unconscious for so long?

“Discomfort?...” Hearing what Thor said, Jane Foster took a moment to herself.

“It doesn’t seem like it, but I just had a very real umm. I dreamed of...”

“Dreamt of what?!” Thor was relieved to hear Jane say that she wasn’t feeling unwell but was also very interested in her dreams.

“I dreamed there was a war going on somewhere, the situation was very tragic, and the dark side was powerful! At the end of my nightmare, the whole world was invaded by darkness, and nothing was left. It was like, it was like the whole universe was ruled by darkness!” Under Thor’s questioning, Jane told the vague situation that she had just seen in her mind while she was unconscious.

Jane’s description of her nightmare is very simple, and she has some reservations about that. Because what she saw in her nightmare was far more than that. However, she didn’t want to say the rest, because it was just a dream, and she didn’t want her worries to become everyone’s troubles.

“War? Darkness?! Could it be!...” After hearing Jane’s description of the nightmare, Thor seemed to have thought of something.

“What is it?” Darcy and Pepper, who had been listening to the conversation between Thor and Jane, asked in unison when they saw the change in Thor’s expression.

“It should be the Dark Elves.”

Under Pepper and Darcy’s questions, Thor and JARVIS’ voices came out at the same time.

Thor hadn’t been born when the Dark Elves launched a war last time to plunge the Nine Realms into darkness, but he knew this history. Thor didn’t remember anything when he saw those cannon fodder monsters in the forbidden area of ??Asgard.

After all, thousands of years have passed, and Dark Elves cannon fodder technology has changed a lot. But through Jane's description of her dream, Thor recalled the battle in which the Dark Elves swept the Nine Realms thousands of years ago. Wasn't it also an invasion of darkness?

In addition, Thor also learned from Lin Rui that Asgard's current stalemate on the battlefield is due to the addition of the Dark Elves. So it doesn't seem so improbable that they might have stumbled across Dark Elves this time.

"Huh? You know about the Dark Elves?" Thor was a little surprised to hear what JARVIS said.

"Mr. Thor, we don't have permission to talk about this in front of Miss Pepper and others." JARVIS reminded him lightly without answering Thor's words.

"What permissions? That has nothing to do with me." Thor didn't care about JARVIS' reminder.

JARVIS also felt helpless about Thor's attitude. Thor is also right. He is not an Earthling, he is not a member of the SHIELD or any of the other Earth forces. He does not have to follow the rules set by the Earth forces.

Anyway, it wouldn't be a problem if the people in the room knows about the events, they aren't exactly normal people who hadn't experienced this kind of thing. One of them is Thor's ex-boyfriend, another is Iron Man's girlfriend, and there is Darcy, who has already experienced extraterrestrial events twice. So it's not a big deal if they know.

After guessing that Jane's encounter was related to Dark Elves, Thor frowned and didn't know what to think. If it's true that the Dark Elves had reappeared then Thor has to get this news back to Asgard.

Although he hasn't experienced the catastrophe a thousand years ago, Thor could probably guess the strength of the Dark Elves from history. If they really want to launch a dark invasion this time then Asgard must be at the forefront.

"What are these Dark Elves? Thor, what are you talking about?" Jane asked with a worried expression on her face as she was unable to understand what Thor said.

"Jane, if your nightmare is real, then we might be in big trouble!" Thor said in a deep voice while holding Jane's hand tightly.

"But, that's just a nightmare!" Hearing Thor's words, Jane's eyes suddenly flashed with panic, and then she said seriously.

A dream is a dream, no matter how real a dream seems, it is still a dream, and a dream does not become reality.

If the nightmare she had just now experienced really happened in the future, then Jane couldn't accept it. Because, in her dreams, the invasion of darkness was unstoppable, and Thor and the others...

"Yeah, it was just a nightmare! You don't have to worry about it." Thor's tone slowed down as he tried to comfort Jane.

Although Thor doesn't know why Jane has such a nightmare, he has a hunch that this nightmare will not be so simple, and Dark Elves will definitely make a big move.

Chapter 776 In Person

Thor said nothing more about Jane's nightmare but he was already wondering what would happen in the future.

"JARVIS, is Jane all right? Didn't you just say she..." While JARVIS and Thor talked about Classified information that can be shared or not, Pepper didn't ask about the Dark Elves, just remembering that Jane didn't seem to be like this just now.

"I can't detect what's wrong with Miss Foster's body. However, her vitality is weakening. However, her current condition doesn't seem to represent her decreased vitality. Sorry, Miss Pepper, I am right. There is no way to judge Miss Foster's situation." JARVIS also couldn't give a precise answer to Pepper's question.

Because JARVIS has given Lin Rui Recovery Serum many times before, JARVIS used the most scientific way on Earth to recover Serum for general injuries, such as using special Recovery Serum to make human cells divide quickly to make up for wounds.

Moreover, the emergence of gene Recovery Serum enables the Recovery of most injuries in a short time.

However, the Recovery Serum has little to no effect on Lin Rui's previous injuries. Only Lin Rui's own Elven Holy Spring Water showed better results.

That's because there are some injuries at a cellular level that the Recovery Serum can heal and there are some injuries at the mental level for which generic drugs have little effect. The other is a loss of vital force, which is metaphysical but real.

After getting to know Lin Rui, JARVIS's scientific fields have expanded a lot. From the inability to understand the special protective shield issued by the simple amulet at the beginning to the inability to study the ingredients of Elven Holy Spring Water later, JARVIS has also been improving.

Today, JARVIS already has a set of data about this system, which is different from the traditional science of the earth.

Therefore, for Jane's current situation, JARVIS decided that her life force was slipping away. But, as a rule, one can no longer be so lively when one's life force is gone. So JARVIS was also puzzled and he still didn't understand this particular situation any better.

"Is there a way to keep her vitality from diminishing?" Pepper then asked after hearing JARVIS' answer.

Although she couldn't understand why JARVIS explained Jane's situation with something like life force, Pepper also knew that it was not a good situation. So, even if Jane looks normal now, Pepper hopes that nothing bad happens to her. After all, JARVIS has brought these people here, and they can't be allowed to leave with injuries.

"I can only try using gene Recovery Serum. If there are some problems due to decreased vitality, then enhancing Miss Foster's body with the Recovery serum should buy us some more time." JARVIS calmly responded to Pepper's question.

JARVIS first saw something like a decline of vitality in Peter who was possessed by Venom. That's when Venom appeared in their sight. Venom had attached to Peter's body and it continuously absorbed the power of Peter's body to strengthen himself.

At that time, Peter's vitality decreased due to Venom's absorption. However, Venom was later stripped out of his body, and Peter's physique also allowed him to recover after some time.

Later, JARVIS also encountered this situation when Lin Rui was injured. Moreover, Lin Rui has a Serum in his hand that can quickly replenish his vitality, that is, the Elven Holy Spring Water, which JARVIS failed to study with any results.

"So be it, there is no other way." Pepper nodded after hearing JARVIS's answer.

Pepper then looked at Thor and Jane, who were still holding each other, and wondered if she should disturb them.

Dī Dī Drops!

Just when the atmosphere in the medical room calmed down and everyone was quietly thinking about their thoughts, JARVIS received another message.

"Miss Pepper, SHIELD is here, it's Agent Coulson." After receiving the news, JARVIS reported the situation to Pepper.

"Agent Coulson? Well, this sort of thing is supposed to be handled by them, and I already have a lot on my plate. Since Tony got that suit, the whole Stark Industries has been left to Me! I'll quit it sooner or later!" Hearing JARVIS says that Agent Coulson of SHIELD is coming, Pepper's eyes flashed and she muttered to herself.

"Jane, Thor, get some rest, JARVIS will take care of you." Pepper looked at the two people on the hospital bed and said.

"Thank you, Pepper."

Da Da~

Then, Pepper stepped out of the medical room in high heels. Coulson had already landed on the roof of the Stark Industries building with his SHIELD Quinjet, and the hostess, Pepper, had to receive him as Tony still hadn't come back.

...

Buzz~

When Pepper came out of the medical room to receive Agent Coulson, Lin Rui, who had been placed in the secret Recovery Serum Pod under the Stark Industries building by JARVIS, was still showing his strong and weak condition.

The green light in his right hand has not diminished, and the wound caused by Dark Elf on his body still exudes black destructive energy.

However, under the scouring of the powerful vitality of the Heart of Life, the dark energy in some not-so-deep skin injuries has gradually dissipated. The dark energy slowly dissipated, and Lin Rui's wound slowly recovered.

Therefore, as long as the energy of the Heart of Life is sufficient, Lin Rui's injury can be fully recovered. Now, it is up to Lin Rui to persevere in such a dangerous situation. After all, this tug of war is likely to go awry in the middle.

When Lin Rui was lying on the isolated bed in the recovery pod with the heart of life in his hands and frowning brows and receiving Recovery Serum from JARVIS, his mind, which should have been equally quiet, was not so calm.

Brush! Brush! Brush!

In Lin Rui's expanded mind, the spiritual body representing Lin Rui's consciousness sits quietly in the center. The physical injury was so severe that Lin Rui's consciousness fell into silence.

However, in the empty mind, some Azura and pale golden light, which are not controlled by Lin Rui's consciousness, are chasing each other.

The Azura light seemed to be a trace of internal energy retained by Lin Rui, but the golden light is something new. At this time, the Golden light was entangled with the Azura light in Lin Rui's mind. Depending on the situation, the two of them don't seem to be very friendly with each other.

Chapter 777 Change

Lin Rui's body was seriously injured, and he was on the brink of crisis. At this time, his mind was not so calm. Those two rays of light chased and entangled in his mind while Lin Rui's consciousness was dormant, and some rays of light scattered everywhere from time to time.

Originally, the attack of Dark Elf on Lin Rui did not involve the spiritual aspect, but the self-protection mechanism of the human body is to let the consciousness fall into hibernation when the body is severely damaged, which will reduce the pain and allow the body to recover in a quieter environment.

Therefore, Lin Rui did not know what was happening in his mind at this time. He was still waiting for his body to recover and then wake up.

Whew!

Pū~

The two rays of light collided again. This time, the Azura rays of light were scattered by the golden rays of light, and the Azura lights that were originally condensed became much smaller. The golden light is still very solid, and it looks much stronger than the Azura light.

Huhu~

After the Azura light was scattered by the golden light, it seemed a little aggrieved. It carefully avoided the golden light while gathering the scattered Azura light spots. And the fight between the two of them ended in Azura Ray's defeat, and the Golden Ray didn't intend to continue to bully Azura Ray. After wandering for a while in Lin Rui's empty mind, the golden light disappeared in a flash.

Brush!

After the golden light disappeared, the fully gathered Azura light wandered around Lin Rui's dormant consciousness for a while, then slowly drifted away, and finally disappeared into the empty mind.

And Lin Rui didn't know all of this as his consciousness was still silently waiting for the Recovery of body feedback to choose the time to wake up.

Buzz~

After the golden light and the Azura light disappeared, a special wave suddenly came from above Lin Rui's empty mind. Then, the System Shop appeared on its own without Lin Rui's awareness, which is a very rare occurrence.

And after the System Shop appeared, it just hovered in Lin Rui's mind without any movement. However, in the System Shop, the bug that has not moved for some time on the resurrection altar let out some waves.

Lin Rui has already paid several Reward points to revive the bug, as it is a special creature that helped Lin Rui when he was weak.

But as Lin Rui's strength improved and his experiences increased, he had more thoughts and speculations about the existence of the bug-like system. Perhaps, this bug is not as simple as Lin Rui thought before. Therefore, even if Lin Rui has extra Reward points in his hand later, he did not sacrifice all of them to the altar to resurrect the bug.

Lin Rui, who already had other ideas, was much more cautious. Even if he wanted to revive the bug, he would have to increase his strength to a certain level. That way, even if there is a problem, he would be able to handle it.

It can be said that the existence of the previous bug helped Lin Rui a lot and made him pass through the weak stage smoothly. However, Lin Rui has paid something for this.

Because, although the bug can help Lin Rui to pick up the missing pieces in the System Shop, the Reward points always pass through his hands one layer less now. Now Lin Rui has spent many Reward points to revive it.

After gradually becoming stronger, Lin Rui has become very skilled in the application of System Shop and does not need the help of the bug. Lin Rui might not have grown so fast if the bug hadn't 'died'.

But now, without Lin Rui's call, the System Shop appeared on its own, which was caused by a bug in the altar. Although no one knows what happened to the mutation this time, the constant vibration of the altar shows that the bug wants to break through the altar.

However, due to insufficient Reward points, it can only continue to be knocked back and sealed, and will not be fully revived for some time.

Buzz~

After the altar vibrated for a while, the bug seemed to know that it could not break the rules, so it gradually stopped. After the altar stopped shaking, the System Shop suspended above Lin Rui's consciousness quickly blurred and finally disappeared.

When the System Shop slowly disappeared, a disappointed sigh seemed to come from Lin Rui's empty mind, and behind the sigh, there was low self-talk: What a great opportunity~~

Pepper stood on an outdoor deck at the top of the Stark Industry Building and watched Coulson as he quickly came down from the Quinjet. It wasn't the first time that Pepper and Agent Coulson had met.

Coulson was sent to Stark Industries to observe Tony and find out about the Iron Man while Director Fury was still in the SHIELD. At the time, Pepper didn't know much about these special things.

"Miss Pepper! Hello! It's nice to see you again!" Coulson quickly walked over to Pepper and smiled before he extended his hand to greet her.

"Agent Coulson, but I'm not that happy to see you," Pepper spoke in a light tone as she reached out and shook Coulson's hands.

Pepper is not a fool either. There is always trouble whenever a SHIELD agent goes out. Who would want to have all kinds of weird problems around them? If it weren't for a guy like Tony Stark, Pepper wouldn't have to worry so much.

"Uh...hehe, that..."

"Did you come because of Jane and Thor? They're getting Recovery Serum in our infirmary right now. I don't know what happened to them. If you did then it is your problem." Pepper continued, cutting into Coulson's awkward explanation.

"Well, I did come here because of them. We do know about this incident. It's great that you can be so understanding!" Coulson replied happily after hearing Pepper's words.

This time, Tony and the others have temporarily left Earth because they participated in the S Plan, and Thor, who was receiving some attention here, finally something had happened here.

So this time, SHIELD can finally invite this "suspected" extraterrestrial alien back to the SHIELD headquarters. Whether this incident happened to Thor was accidental or inevitable, SHIELD had an obligation to figure it out.

They still have a magical hammer that needs to be researched, and this one called Thor is a very important part of that.

"Well, then let's go down. By the way, who is this guy?" Pepper was about to take Coulson to see Thor and Jane, but at the end, Pepper glanced at the young man standing behind Coulson and asked another question.

"Oh, his name is Evans. He's an agent of SHIELD, and he is also a witness and participant of this incident, so I bought him here with me." Seeing Pepper asking about the young man behind him, Coulson laughed as he replied.

“Is he already an Agent at such a young age? He doesn’t look much older than Jackson.” Hearing Coulson’s answer, Pepper muttered softly, then turned to lead Coulson to Thor and Jane.

Chapter 778 Reappears

Lin Rui and Thor rescued Jane back to the earth through the dimensional space, and then they were taken back to New York by JARVIS for healing. Meanwhile, the Iron Man Armors, who were left by JARVIS guarding the dimensional space outside London, is still fulfilling the last order they received.

Buzz~

Since JARVIS left with Lin Rui, the half-finished building has been constantly emitting spatial fluctuations of varying degrees, and the concentration of alpha particles changes with the intensity of these fluctuations.

If Evans had not also contacted SHIELD headquarters to send someone to pick him up after Lin Rui left, he would have been affected by these frequent space fluctuations.

By this time, the area around the half-finished building had been completely cordoned off. Soon after JARVIS left with Lin Rui, SHIELD headquarters sent someone over. While sending Evans back to headquarters, they also cordoned off the half-finished building in conjunction with the Iron Men armors JARVIS left behind.

Until JARVIS can figure out what’s wrong with these Iron Man suits, JARVIS needs SHIELD’s team to keep an eye on them. If Coulson had known JARVIS felt that way, it is unclear whether he would have been so willing to send in two elite teams.

One must know that if something goes wrong with the Iron Men JARVIS left behind, the SHIELD team would be hit pretty hard.

Fortunately, there was no real system error in these Iron Man suits that were left behind, it was just that JARVIS couldn’t find out what went wrong because of the time-reversal of the Ancient One.

However, because JARVIS has disconnected from these Iron Man, they now seem to be robots that simply execute orders, and they don’t give much response to the people on SHIELD’s side.

“The headquarters only asked us to guard the patio and did not specifically say what enemies were there, and these Iron Man seemed to be a little dumb, I don’t know what’s going on?”

“How can you be so stupid?! Didn’t you see the big guy that was shipped back to HQ with that Evans kid when we came over? Have you ever seen a monster that big and scary before?”

“You mean!... Our enemy this time is that kind of monster!?” Hearing his teammate’s rhetorical question, the soldier who spoke at the beginning asked in a low voice in surprise.

“It’s very possible! But let’s stay here... Could it be...” As he spoke, the soldier looked at the empty patio in front of him.

On the fourth floor of the Unfinished Building near the patio, several members of the SHIELD special team gathered to discuss the sudden move. Due to the discovery of Magic Cube in Siberia and the emergence of a stabilized space portal there, the most elite teams from SHIELD HQ went with Captain Rogers.

Therefore, although the strength of the remaining teams is not bad, their level is not enough to deal with such confidential matters.

However, in the case of insufficient manpower, these teams with insufficient authority but sufficient strength can only be sent over. Moreover, since they are a special team within SHIELD, if they cannot even handle some unexpected situations, how can they be counted as a SHIELD team?

After all, someone like Evans who had just joined SHIELD has been exposed to something deeper, and these events may not be kept secret for long in the future.

Buzz~

Just as these warriors were earnestly guarding the patio, another strong spatial fluctuation came out from the patio, accompanied by Alpha Particles whose concentration instantly increased.

When the alarm sounded from the instrument in their hand, every soldier subconsciously tightened their battle uniform. Before coming here, they have been told that there will be some particles that affect the human body, so the battle uniforms must be worn.

Buzz!!

"I wonder how long it will last this time. And there's no expert to tell us what it means." Looking at the rising numbers on the instrument in his hands, the soldier, who had just been surprised by the monster enemies he might face, muttered with a helpless expression on his face.

"Expert? I think I know what this is! This is Alpha Particle! That means this patio in front of us, it is probably a" Hearing his teammate's muttering, a soldier next to him suddenly thought of something and said.

"A space portal to somewhere else!" Finally, his eyes widened and he stared at the courtyard in front of him.

Buzz!

The moment the soldier guessed what the situation was in the patio, a huge black shadow suddenly appeared from above the empty patio. It was a Dark Elf cannon fodder monster! After defending for so long, the Iron Man team and the SHIELD team left behind finally waited for the first enemy target!

"That's it!... That's the giant monster that was sent back to the headquarters before!"

"It is a portal! So there is such a thing in the world!"

At the sight of the huge black figure falling rapidly from the top of the courtyard, the soldiers who had been guarding near the courtyard were shocked. In the next moment, the Iron Men Armors were rushing out.

Unlike SHIELD fighters who have to guess who the enemy is due to lack of authority, the Iron Men Armors who are left behind know who they are up against and they decided to directly strike.

Brush Brush!

“Remember! Our order is to guard this building and not let anything escape!” The team’s Captain loudly shouted.

Then, he also led the soldiers to surround the courtyard. Because more and more giant monsters appeared from the patio!

Swipe!

“Hoohoo!...”

Boom!

It didn’t take long for the roar of wild beasts and various explosions to be heard from this unfinished building. The battle had already started, and no one knows what the outcome would be.

Time goes back to the last moment when Lin Rui escaped from the forbidden area of ??Asgard. The thunderbolt he sent out after exhausting the internal energy in his body was slashing at the Dark Elf warriors.

He, with the final protection of the Phantom Suit, hurls into dimensional space, shouldering the onslaught of the pursuing Dark ElfElite warrior.

Boom!

The next moment, Lin Rui, shrouded in a black mist from the Phantom Suit, has vanished into dimensional space in a blast of shock waves, along with the Dark Elf Elite warrior who is chasing him.

After Lin Rui and the Dark Elf Elite warrior disappeared into the dimensional space, the explosion in this space continued for a long time before it gradually calmed down.

Chapter 779 Arrives

Huhu~

When the shock wave of the explosion died down, the mountain collapsed. The location of the dimensional space was also buried in the process of the collapse of the mountain, and those Dark Elf figures have also disappeared.

Bang!

About five minutes later, there was a loud noise from the tunnel that used to lead into the collapsed mountain. Then there were two more tremors, but no subsequent collapses.

Boom!

After the loud noise, the covered passageway exploded violently, and a road leading to the interior of the mountain opened again. Then explosions continued to occur in this passage, and the narrow opening was quickly enlarged.

Soon it was opened to two or three meters wide and high. Although it has not fully reached the scale of the original tunnel, it is completely fine to pass.

Da Da~

When it was finally opened, there was a sound of footsteps in the passage. Then a Dark Elf in refined armor, slightly smaller than a normal Dark Elf warrior, sauntered in.

This guy, whose dress and figure are different from ordinary Dark Elf warriors, is also not wearing a mask. He has a few deep scars on his blue-gray face, and his facial features look very different from other Dark Elf warriors.

He looks more like the Elfs mentioned in the magic stories of the earth. He had long slender ears, a pointed nose, and triangular eyes, they look similar to ordinary people, but they are distinctly different.

Whoosh!

After this Dark Elf, with a greater difference than any other Dark Elf, had entered the interior of the ruined mountain, the passage behind him was crowded with tall Dark Elf warriors.

This Dark Elf team is not different on the outside, but they have a deeper sense of power and darkness. As a result, they are far superior to the buried Dark Elf team.

“#@&#...” His long and narrow eyes glanced at the situation in front of him, and the Dark Elf who was standing at the front said something.

The translation of this Dark Elf language into Earth language means: “Found it!”.

Needless to say, this leading Dark Elf is Malekith, the supreme leader of the Dark Elf clan. After the first team looking for the Aether Particle had an accident, the strongest warrior team led by Malekith had already rushed over.

It was also Lin Rui’s luck. If the team led by Malekith was the first to discover Thor then Lin Rui would not be able to stop almost the entire team even if he broke out with all of his strength.

The tall, expressionless Dark Elf warrior standing beside Malekith alone was several times stronger than the guy who wounded Lin Rui, who was the real Kursed transformed by the Aether Particle.

Bang! Bang bang!

Just as the Dark Elf team led by Malekith stood on the ruins and looked around, there was a sudden movement from the gravel pile under their feet. Then, as Malekith waited for Dark Elf to climb out, holes suddenly appeared.

Then, the Dark Elves, who had been slashed by Lin Rui’s sword and buried in the mountain, climbed out of the gravel.

“What happened? Where’s Mitos?!” Malekith asked with a cold look on his face as he looked at the Dark Elf warriors who had emerged from the ground. (The language-speaking will be directly translated to English between Aliens)

“Lord Mitos, he and the enemy were blasted into the dimensional space by the explosion!” Hearing Malekith’s question, one of the Dark Elf who climbed out hurriedly lowered his head and replied.

Mitos, the former leader of the Dark Elf team, is also a powerful threat to Lin Rui’s existence. Except for him and the Dark Elf who sneaked into the Dimension, not all of the remaining Dark Elf fighters survived Lin Rui’s final shot.

Originally there were thirteen Dark Elf warriors in this team, but now there are only eight Dark Elfs that have crawled out of the ground. That said, Lin Rui’s hit and successive explosions took out three Dark Elfs, which is no small feat.

“Enemy? What kind of enemy?” Malekith’s stiff face twitched when he heard his subordinate’s answer, and continued to ask.

This time Malekith did not hesitate to risk being discovered by Asgard to sneak into this forbidden area, to find the Aether Particle hidden by Odin thousands of years ago.

Originally this plan was seamless, even if Malekith and the others were discovered by Asgard, he was confident that he would leave before Odin could make a move. However, the enemy he was talking about was not of Asgard.

Now that there are obvious traces of the existence of the Aether Particles in this mountain, and Malekith’s team has encountered the enemy again, so where the Aether Particles go is very important.

If the Aether Particle is taken away by Odin, then Malekith would have to think about how to get it back from Odin. Odin has not been out of Asgard palace since his last attack on Laufey, the leader of Frost Giant, and it is not known how he is now.

“That is a very powerful enemy, stronger than Mitos! He stopped our entire team by himself!”

Snap!

Before the Dark Elf warrior could finish speaking, Malekith slapped him in the face and knocked him to the ground.

“I didn’t ask you how strong he is! I know he’s better than you just by looking at you! I’m asking you what he looks like? Can you judge his origin?!” Malekith asked angrily.

Hoo!

Hearing Malekith’s words, the Dark Elf warrior who was knocked to the ground immediately got up. He had no complaints at all about what Malekith had done to him.

“My Lord! The enemy was dressed in a special black suit, with a mask on his face, and he used an attack that had never been seen before. But he’s certainly not from Asgard!” The Dark Elf Warrior stood up again before Malekith and answered respectfully.

“Special black costume, wearing a mask, an attack method you haven’t seen before? Could it be...” Malekith muttered silently after hearing the report from his subordinates.

Then, his gaze shifted to the position of the dimension space that was trampled in front of him. Because of the previous explosion, the dimensional space there was already unstable at this time, and the space that people could enter was filled with chaotic rocks.

“Is it someone from over there?...”

Chapter 780 Unimportant

After confirming that the Aether Particle was hidden here and that their enemy was not from Asgard, Malekith had already judged that their enemy should have come from the dimensional space.

After all, the appearance of the Aether particles can create various magical situations, and the dimension space that can access various worlds is the most common one.

“If that’s the case, then we still have to go to that dimension space first.” Malekith thought to himself while staring at the covered dimension space.

Then, after further determining the location of the dimensional space with his subordinates, Malekith began to arrange the cannon fodder monster and his subordinate Dark Elves to clean up the collapsed mountain, and he wanted to clear the position of the dimensional space again.

After they are cleaned up, the dimensional space should be able to recover and stabilize again. At that time, with Malekith leading the team, even if the other side of the dimension is Asgard’s palace, they will be able to breakthrough.

“You go ahead! A dozen minutes later, looking at the newly cleared dimension, Malekith waved forward and ordered.

“Hoohoo!”

Brush Brush!

After Malekith issued an order, all the cannon fodder-level monsters who had been guarding around rushed out with a roar.

Soon, they had rushed into the dimensional space and then disappeared. The dimensional space can indeed teleport objects away, but it is unstable, and Malekith is not ready to experiment with his own life.

“As long as I get the Aether Particle... the whole world will be mine!” Malekith thought silently in his heart as he watched the monsters rush into the dimensional space and disappear.

...

On Earth, the battle in the unfinished building on the outskirts of London intensifies. Giant monsters appeared out of thin air from the dimensional space, and then rushed out of the patio with the help of each other!

Although there were more than a dozen Iron Man Armor blocking their way, there were still many monsters rushing out, and they began to rampaged in this unfinished building.

Pū Pū Pū!

Where Iron Man's firepower couldn't fully cover it, SHIELD's elite warriors stepped up. They held the monsters with their relatively small bodies and carried various powerful weapons to continuously attack those rough-skinned and fast monsters. Moreover, they also focused on avoiding the counterattacks of those monsters.

One must know that these giant monsters can tear a load-bearing column in half with one claw. If this claw is caught on their bodies then even SHIELD's new protective suit and powerful Recovery Serum may not be able to save them. Therefore, the battle in the unfinished building becomes more difficult as more monsters appear.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

"Damn it! What kind of monsters are these?! They can't be killed at all!" A SHIELD soldier who had emptied several rounds of bullets from the rapid-fire machine gun in his hand shouted and turned over before hiding behind a wall.

"Who said it can't be killed?! Two monsters have already fallen over there!" After the hiding soldier finished shouting, another responded.

"We didn't kill them! Give a high-power laser cannon, and I would also be able to kill them!" Hearing the teammate's response, the soldier who reloaded the rapid-fire machine gun raised his head and shouted.

"Number three! Be careful!" Just as he raised his head and shouted, another teammate's loud reminder suddenly came from behind him.

Hoo!

Hearing the shouts of his teammates, no. 3, who was loading, did not hesitate at all. He threw his rapid-fire machine gun directly out of his hands, and then kicked off and rushed to the side.

Boom!

The wall he had been leaning against crumbled as number three flung himself out a little, and the whole wall collapsed in an instant. The next thing he knows, a monster is seen rushing in. It turns out that with Iron Man's pursuit, the monster is in a panic and directly bumps into the wall against which Number three is leaning.

Hula!

"Uh!...My leg! Damn it!" Looking at his right leg crushed by the rubble of the collapsed wall, Number three grunted with a pale face.

Though he tried to get out of the way as quickly as he could, he was crushed under the rubble. He would not have been able to free himself without the help of others.

Moreover, after he was pinned down, the monster, which had crashed into the wall to continue its charge, seemed to notice something and stopped to look down slightly at number three.

"Fuck!..." Noticing the giant monster standing in front of him, No. 3 scolded and quickly shut his mouth.

He heard that some beasts will not attack dead prey. Therefore, after No. 3 found that he could not run away. He immediately lied down in the rubble and pretended to be dead, but turned his head over and squinted at the monster.

Huhu~

When No. 3 pretended to be dead, the monster who stopped walking lowered his head and slowly looked at the “corpse”. Then, it leaned down quickly and opened its bloody mouth.

“Damn it! I’m dead, let me go! Then...” His squinting eyes widened sharply, and No. 3 scolded the monster while his right hand pulled out a grenade from his waist.

As long as this monster dares to bite him, No. 3 will perish with it! Let’s see who is afraid of who!

Brush!

“Go to hell!” Seeing that the big mouth was about to bite him, No. 3’s right hand was instantly thrown from under him, and then he threw the grenade out.

After throwing the grenade, No. 3 stared at the bloody mouth that kept approaching and waiting to die. And the grenade didn’t attract the attention of the monster at all and flew directly into its mouth.

“Vivian! I am sorry I haven’t proposed to you!” At the last moment of his life, No. 3 thought of his beautiful girlfriend.

“No. 3!” Just as No. 3 got resigned to his fate, he heard the nervous and worried shouts of his teammates.

Then, two laser beams shot from the wall that the monster had smashed through, hitting the monster in the head and chest just as it swallowed the grenade!

“Roar!...” The vital parts of the monster’s head and chest were penetrated by the laser beam, and halfway through the roar, the monster raised its head and weakly fell forward.

Hoo!

“Sh*t! I didn’t get bitten to death, am I going to be crushed to death now?!” In between the shouts of his teammates, No. 3, whose soul had returned from the gates of heaven, looked at the monster pressed down from the top of his head and shouted helplessly.

Bang!

Hula!

In the next moment, just as the monster’s huge head was about to crush No. 3 below, its head exploded from the inside. Crimson blood mixed with broken bones and fleshly tissue poured over No. 3’s body, completely burying him in these disgusting tissues.

At the last moment, the grenade No. 3 had just thrown exploded in the monster’s mouth. It was this explosion that saved his life, and it was a burst of luck.
