Chapter 781: Escalating

Da Da!

After the monster was dealt with by two laser beams, two soldiers who had been stationed elsewhere came running. They only saw the monster's huge body fall against Number three but did not notice its head exploding open. Now, they're worried number three might have been crushed to death.

"No. 3! No. 3!" The two soldiers shouted as they rushed to the rubble and monster corpses and the exploding tissue of blood.

Huhu~

Just as they were looking anxiously, underneath where the monster's head should have been, two hands reached out with difficulty from the blood, guts, and various scattered tissues. Then, these two hands slowly lifted up, then began to pull hard at the blood and gore around it. It seems that the soldier named Number three was just buried in.

Brush!

"No. 3! No. 3!" Seeing those two hands picking and pulling, the two soldiers rushed over to help.

Under the quick picking and pulling of two people and six hands, No. 3's mouth and nose finally showed up.

"Bah! Bah! Pei Pei! Almost suffocated me! Whoosh~" Before his eyes were exposed, No. 3 quickly spit out the foreign object in his mouth and then groaned while breathing heavily.

"You are really lucky!" One of the soldiers said happily after pulling No. 3 out of the blood and gore.

In addition, the latest orders have been sent from SHIELD headquarters following the discovery. It's no longer feasible to defend the tailgate, and they're going to blow it up, taking a very valuable research dimension and destroying it with it all these threats.

Buzz!

"Roar!" Stepping on a few monsters as stepping stones, the giant monster rushed out of the patio with a roar.

Shii-Bang!

When the giant monster just landed on the ground beside the patio, more than a dozen laser beams instantly shot from all directions, and the Iron Man, who also judged that it was a threat, had already started their most powerful attack against the enemy.

Chapter 782: Delayed News

Earth, Siberia SHIELD base.

Almost an hour has passed since the strongest team on earth led by Captain America and Iron Man participated in the S-Plan and entered the portal. Since the drone sent back the news that the situation on the battlefield had changed more than ten minutes ago, the wounded have been sent back one after another. Support from earth has already passed through the portal, and further evacuation plans are underway.

Buzzing~

And not long after the 100 Iron Men Armors burst through the portal, there was a strong space wave coming out of the portal. Just when the guards thought there was another casualty, an Iron Man rushed out.

Brush!

The Iron Man, who suddenly rushed out, flipped a few times in mid-air, and then quickly stabilized. Needless to say, the Iron Man who suddenly rushed out was Tony. After learning that Lin Rui's serious injury was unknown, Tony handed over all the hundred Iron Man he supported to Rogers and came back first. He believed that with the support of a hundred Iron Man, Rogers would be able to return safely with the Earth team.

"Mr. Stark, welcome back." JARVIS' voice rang in Tony's ear when he steadied in mid-air.

Returning to Earth, the disconnected JARVIS also reconnected to Earth. Therefore, his voice was more emotional at this time, and Tony could clearly feel it.

"JARVIS, tell me what happened during my absence, and don't miss any details," Tony spoke as he slowly landed on the ground.

"Okay, sir." JARVIS began to tell Tony what had happened recently.

In other words, at opposite ends of the earth, two special Spaces or portals that can connect the earth to other worlds are actually connected to the same place! It's almost impossible, but it's true.

Dī Dī!

Just when the COMM Officer was hit with a headache by these two messages, the third message came.

"An Elite Soldier of the Dark Elf had appeared in the dimension space in London and the combat level has been upgraded to S-level! In the absence of support from other teams, the headquarters will choose to carry out a devastating blow!"

COMM Officer: "..."

Chapter 783: Borrow Something

Buzz!

As the COMM Officer gripped the tablet in his hand, the space portal behind him again sent out strong space waves. Then, one by one, the seriously wounded soldiers continued to be sent out.

Then, without thinking about what to do with the messages coming from headquarters, the COMM Officer hurriedly arranged to receive the wounded soldiers.

"It's not something that I can make a decision about, so let's wait until Captain Rogers and the others come back! Moreover, the HQ has already decided to deliver a devastating attack so they should be able to control the situation." The COMM Officer thought to himself.

Brush!

Just when the COMM Officer was arranging for the treatment of the wounded, two figures rushed out of the portal. The two were clearly different from the other wounded because one of them appeared to be uninjured, while the uninjured man was carrying an unconscious man.

"Spiderman!? This is the mysterious Sorcerer of League of Defenders! Is he also injured?" Seeing the two figures coming out of the portal, the COMM Officer walked over in surprise and said.

"Yeah! Not only Jack but there are also many other people over there who are injured! Now we are all retreating with the support of Iron Man, please be prepared for a counterattack by Dark Elf. Before I come back, it seems that the support from the Dark Elves has arrived on the battlefield!" Hearing the SHIELD officer's question in front of him, Spiderman, who was arranged by Rogers to send Jack back, hurriedly opened his mouth to answer.

But Peter's answer was not good news. If Dark Elves had received their support, then with the strength they have now shown, Rogers will not be able to safely retreat even with the help of 100 Iron Men.

"There is really no good news!" Hearing Peter's answer, the COMM Officer clenched his fists and said in a suppressed voice.

"The rest of the Iron Man Suits are already in support. If you want to get back to New York as soon as possible, you'll have to borrow SHIELD's Quinjet." Soon, JARVIS answered Peter.

call!

"Uh... is there anything else?" The COMM Officer asked blankly when Spiderman suddenly turned to look at him again.

"I need to borrow something!"

"Of course!"

Chapter 784: Hope

Earth, New York, League of Defenders' Base.

Since Mirage Knight and his team left, Jerry, who stayed at the base, has been watching their movements and real-time situation.

Although JARVIS is solely responsible for the network connection, Jerry is also like a god when it comes to the network world and he always has his own way to help check and fill in the gaps. Therefore, Jerry knew everything that had happened without delay.

Click ~ Click ~

His hands turned into two phantoms on the keyboard, and Jerry had been in this state for half an hour without stopping.

There is a portal leading to an extraterrestrial civilization on the side of Siberia. Earth had gathered the strongest team to enter the portal and take the first step out of the earth. Jerry never thought that he would be able to experience it with Mirage Knight and the others behind the scenes. This is such a great thing.

But what happened next made Jerry's whole body tense. The situation on the side of the portal was not good, and there was another accident on the side of Mirage Knight.

Ten minutes ago, Mirage Knight was seriously injured and his life and death were unknown, the S-Plan went bankrupt, and the news of the Earth team's retreat made Jerry's heart tug.

Ka Ka Ka!

And now, Jerry, who has learned about Mirage Knight's situation has been using everything in his own power to find ways to help Mirage Knight on the Internet for a long time.

Ka Ka Ka!

Then, there was the clatter of keyboards again from the League of Defenders base. Jerry was used to being the only one on the base, so he was able to focus on his work.

But in the corner of the League of Defender base that Jerry hadn't noticed, the body of the mysterious man Deadpool had left there shuddered.

This mysterious man has been left here after being carried back from the battlefield by Deadpool. The League of Defenders has also discussed his existence, but in the end, there is no good way to deal with it. After all, he was brought back by Deadpool, so they let Deadpool deal with it.

After everyone else on the League of Defenders base left, the mysterious man who had been in a coma showed signs of waking up.

Chapter 785: Looking For Help

Ka Ka Ka ~ Ka Ka Ka ~

In the quiet League of Defenders base, the sound of Jerry tapping on his keyboard was unmistakable. After Deadpool's unintentional reminder, Jerry suddenly thought of a way to help Lin Rui. Since Lin Rui's life is at stake now because of the dark energies remaining in him, why not find a way to eliminate those dark energies?!

Ka Ka Ka!

His hands turned into two phantoms on the new keyboard, and Jerry was quickly connecting with the X-Men. The way he said there is a way to help Mirage Knight actually depends on one person, and whether or not this person can be found depends on the X-Men. Because, this person is a Mutant, and was once a member of the X-Men.

Even though Jerry was a top hacker before he joined League of Defenders, he was a god in the cyber world. However, even if he knows a lot of things that ordinary people cannot know in their lifetime by relying on the Internet, he can't really know some secrets of the deeper level of the world.

After Jerry joined the League of Defenders, especially after the League of Defenders allied with the SHIELD and X-Men, layers upon layers of deep world secrets unfolded before Jerry's eyes.

Jerry, who had always yearned for this deep-seated world, was particularly excited, so he spent a lot of energy and time expanding his horizon with the help of these open pieces of information.

It was Jerry's research and memorization of these deep situations that made him not only a qualified logistics officer in League of Defenders but he was also able to put forward his own suggestions and additions in some plans.

And now, when everyone could do nothing with Mirage Knight's injury, Jerry figured it out after Deadpool inadvertently tipped him off. He doesn't know if it will work, but it's definitely worth a try.

Ka Ka Ka!

That's right, the person Jerry thought of to help Lin Rui this time was Anne Marie with very special mutant ability. Only someone like her whose mutant ability can absorb the ability and energy of anyone she comes into contact with can help the current Lin Rui. This is also a method that Jerry came up with in combination with Deadpool's ability.

"Are you saying that Mirage Knight's life will always be in danger if we don't get rid of those dark energies?" "The person in the dialog screen asked.

"Not only that, I don't know how long Mirage Knight would be able to last if those dark energies still exist." Facing the other party's question, Jerry told the truth about Lin Rui's situation.

"...Then, I'll help you find her!" After listening to Jerry's answer, the dialog box was silent for a while, and then the affirmative answer came over.

"Thank you! Iceman!"

Chapter 786: Unexpected

Iceman just hung up a video call with League of Defender Jerry at the X-Men underground base at Xavier's School for Gifted Youngsters. Iceman was both surprised and worried about Mirage Knight's situation at this point.

"Robert, are we really going to get Marie back? She finally found some peace in her life." After Iceman hung up the video call, his girlfriend, Kitty, questioned him.

Anna Marie, also known as Marie D'Ancanto by Jerry. However, the X-Men members prefer another interpretation of her nickname, which is Rogue. Because, once Anna-Marie was also their partner and teammate, in the eyes of everyone she is a mischievous sister.

Rogue was once a member of the X-Men. In addition, Rogue was involved in several major incidents involving Mutants years ago, when Mutants were frequently seen in the public eye. Her mutant power is also very special, a mutant power that cannot be graded accurately.

She can absorb the power and energy of others through physical contact and is able to use the power like her own. However, these absorbed abilities and energy does not last long and will fade after a period of time.

Still, Rogue's abilities are enough to qualify as amazing even by Mutant standard. And that was the extent to which she had shown herself many years before, as a teenager. Now, that same girl should have become stronger along with her Mutant ability.

Hearing his girlfriend's words, Iceman puts his laptop aside as he leans on the bed. After coming back from Siberia, Iceman was recommended to take bed rest for some time and he was also on continuous regimes of Recovery Serum.

If it weren't for the absence of Professor Charles, Storm, and Hank the Beast, who usually make decisions at the X Institute, Iceman wouldn't have dragged his injured body to talk to Jerry at this time.

"I know you don't want to disturb Anna's life, after all, she was your best friend once. But, you heard what he said just now. Mirage Knight's life is in danger, if those dark energies are not taken away then he would die! So..." Iceman says with some resignation in his voice.

Speaking of which, the relationship between Iceman, Shadowcat, and Rogue is actually a bit of a story. All three were teenagers, and Iceman was a strong student at Xavier's School for Gifted Youngsters.

So, there was a love triangle between the three of them. After Rogue finally left due to her uncontrollable mutant ability, Iceman and Shadowcat slowly and truly got together.

So Iceman wouldn't want to bother Rogue if things weren't really bad for Mirage Knight.

"In that case, you'd better get in touch with her. If she doesn't want to come back then we'll have more time to persuade her." Kitty continued after Iceman finishes speaking.

Shadowcat is more open-minded than Iceman about the fact that her best friend is her boyfriend's first love. After all, Rogue has been gone for so many years, and it is he who has been by Iceman's side for so many years, sharing all kinds of happy days and difficult days with him. So Shadowcat doesn't mind if Rogue comes back at all.

"Er... All right! I'll call her!" Hearing Shadowcat's words, Iceman looks a little embarrassed, but he still agrees as he cannot delay this any longer.

Then, in front of his girlfriend, Shadowcat, Iceman picks up his cell phone and dials a number he has barely called in years.

Beep Beep~

"Robert? Why are you calling?" The call was connected after a few rings, and then a thick, low male voice rang in Iceman's ear.

Hearing the voice coming from the phone, Iceman's originally embarrassed expression instantly turned into surprise.

"Huh?! Logan?!"

On the top floor of the Stark Industries Building in New York, Pepper is receiving Agent Coulson, while Jane Foster and Thor are also invited up by Pepper. Pepper already knows part of the situation from

JARVIS, and since it's SHIELD's responsibility, she doesn't have to worry about this and she is still wondering where Tony had gone and what he's doing.

"Mr. Thor, Miss Foster, we meet again." Standing in the middle of Stark's luxurious penthouse living room, Agent Coulson looked at the man and woman in front of him and greeted them with a smile.

When Mjolnir was thrown to Earth a few months ago and Thor was thrown after him, Thor and others with him had already come face to face with Agent Coulson as they searched for the hammer. Of course, it wasn't all that pleasant. So, when they saw Agent Coulson, Thor and Jane didn't have a good expression on their faces.

"Agent Coulson, you are the representative of SHIELD," Thor said in a bad tone as he looked at Coulson in a suit and leather shoes.

In Thor's opinion, the forces on earth are all the same and there is no difference between justice and evil. Since the earth is not a unified civilization, the one who is strong is right, and this truth applies to all Nine Realms. So since SHIELD had upset him, especially by locking up his hammer, Thor certainly wouldn't have any nice feeling towards them.

"Hehe, you can say that and I am here to understand the situation." Hearing Thor's words, Coulson replied with the same smile on his face. Coulson had already prepared for Thor's attitude, so he wouldn't be caught off-guard.

"What kind of situation would require SHIELD? By now that subspace I found should have been occupied by you guys long ago, right?" After Coulson finished speaking, Jane also opened her mouth to question him.

Like Thor, Jane's first encounter with SHIELD wasn't all that pleasant. If Lin Rui hadn't spoken for Jane, all her experiment notes would have been taken away by SHIELD. So, this time Jane has found a place of great research value, and she doesn't want to be excluded by SHIELD again.

Until now, Jane doesn't know what Thor and the others have gone through. For her, she just accidentally entered the dimensional space, crossed over to another place, and then came back unconscious. As for Thor and Lin Rui going there to save her, Thor hasn't had time to say anything.

The expression on Coulson's face finally changed when he heard Jane's words. Just as Coulson was about to explain something, a sound of the arrival of the elevator suddenly came from the corner of the living room.

Ding~

Chapter 787: Angry

After the beep of the elevator's arrival, Coulson, who was ready to continue saying something, turned his eyes away first. At the same time, Pepper and Thor, and other people also looked over.

The location of this meeting room is on the top floor of the Stark Industry Building, the general public is not allowed to come up here. Since there was a sound of arrival from that elevator, it was obvious that someone had come up from below.

“JARVIS, has anyone come up? Is it Tony?!” Before the elevator door opened, Pepper hurriedly asked JARVIS.

“Miss Pepper, Mr. Stark hasn’t come back, this is...”

Huhu~

By the time JARVIS answered Pepper, the elevator doors were already open. Then the crowd saw the young man coming briskly out of the elevator.

After seeing the young man getting out of the elevator, everyone in the luxurious living room had different expressions. Except for Thor and Coulson, all the others show surprised expressions of varying degrees.

“Huh?! Mr. Harry Osborn!?” Pepper was the first to speak in surprise after seeing the young man coming out of the elevator.

Harry Osborn, yes, the one who came out of the elevator was Harry who had already seen Lin Rui’s situation. After learning about Lin Rui’s situation, Harry felt that he should have a good chat with Thor, so he rushed over.

Of course, here at the Stark Industries building, Harry didn’t need to wear his exoskeleton armor.

For Pepper, Harry Osborn is one of the most talented and powerful people in New York or America’s new young generation. Before Stark Industries switched from the heavy industry and arms industry, Pepper had been paying attention to OsCorp, a group with great achievements in lifeform engineering.

After Stark Industries switched to clean energy, there was already a technological crossover between them and OsCorp.

With Lin Rui’s help, Stark Industries and OsCorp reached a friendly agreement. OsCorp helped Stark Industries transition smoothly, and Stark Industries also helped OsCorp in its future projects.

Therefore, Pepper is no stranger to Harry as they still have frequent contacts at work. However, Pepper was surprised by Harry’s visit at this time.

“Hello, Miss Pepper.” After Pepper spoke, Harry, who had walked up to them, greeted Pepper politely and then turned to face Thor.

“Harry?! You’re here because of Jackson, right?” Thor asked guessing as Harry suddenly appeared and looked at himself.

Shuo!

However, just after Thor said this, Harry, who was still a short distance away from him, rushed in front of him, and then his fist slammed right in front of him!

Boom!

Under the shocked eyes of several people around him, Harry’s fist directly hit Thor’s chest. However, Thor raised his hand at the last moment to block the blow. However, the power of Harry’s punch, which had been strengthened, still knocked Thor back several steps.

“Harry! What are you doing?!” Thor, who was knocked back several steps by Harry’s sudden punch, asked with wide eyes and doubts as he looked at Harry, who was obviously in a bad mood.

Hoo!

Harry, however, has no intention of explaining himself to Thor, and the next punch had already come. This time, though, Thor was already prepared and ducked directly behind. Coulson and Evans, who were stunned by the unexpected situation, had also reacted and quickly stepped forward to stop Harry.

“Mr. Osborn, this is Stark Industries! You should explain yourself!” Pepper shouted loudly after Coulson and Evans joined forces to stop Harry.

Pepper didn’t know why Harry suddenly attacked Thor. After all, he was the director of OsCorp Industries. Although he was young, he had a lot of experience. How could he do such an irrational act?

However, seeing Harry being stopped by Coulson and Evans, Pepper spoke up. As the owner of Stark Industries, she was responsible for every guest in her house. Besides, Pepper favors Harry in her heart and she didn’t want to see him suffer.

Hoo!

Hearing Pepper’s words, Harry, who was stopped by Coulson and Evans, broke free from their control as soon as he raised his hands. Harry, whose body has been strengthened by the Titan Series Gene Serum, has already stepped into the ranks of the strong people.

Even if Coulson and Evans are much stronger than ordinary people, it is impossible for them to really stop Harry. Just now, Harry was just following his instinct, and he stopped since Pepper had spoken.

“Hmph! I’ll stop because of you!” Harry, who broke free from control, adjusted his clothes and glanced at Thor with an indifferent expression on his face.

“Harry, we both know each other, why did you punch me?” Thor, still confused after hearing Harry’s words, approached again and asked.

Thor also met Harry and Peter because of Lin Rui. Before, Thor also sparred with Peter in private once. As for the results of that sparring session, no one knows except Lin Rui. Perhaps after a long time, when everyone’s identity has been frank and open, Lin Rui will tell the results of that day as a joke. But, even though Thor know Peter or Harry well, he wasn’t going to be beaten up by Harry for no apparent reason.

“Don’t you know Jackson’s situation? !” “Harry shouted angrily as he looked at Thor’s confused face.

“Jackson? Isn’t he recovering from his injuries? Is he seriously injured?” Thor asked suspiciously after hearing Harry’s words and then seemed to have thought of something.

“Humph! Seriously?! If we don’t find some way to save him, Jackson might not make it this time! “Harry shouted angrily at Thor’s surprised expression.

Brush!

Everyone in the room turned pale when Harry shouted this out. Although not all of the seven people present know another identity of Lin Rui, they all know Jackson Lin and he is a very nice young man. But now, Harry says Lin Rui is likely to die and no one present could believe it.

“How is that possible?! How could Jackson be so badly injured?!” Thor muttered to himself after he heard Harry’s words.

“You’re probably the only one who can save him now! Come with me!”

Chapter 788: Coulson’s Departure

After that, Harry stretched out his hand and pulled Thor towards the elevator. After listening to Harry’s words, Thor, of course, followed Harry, and he is now anxious to see what happened to Lin Rui. Thor won’t be able to forgive himself if something happens to Lin Rui for helping him and Jane to return to Earth safely after they broke up.

When Harry pulled Thor away after saying a few words, several people watching this scene were dumbfounded. JARVIS didn’t tell other people the real situation of Lin Rui’s injury, so they all thought that Lin Rui was just injured and needed Recovery Serum. But listening to Harry now, it looks like Lin Rui is in danger.

Ding~

So when Harry pulled Thor into the elevator until the door closed, nobody in the living room stopped him. Pepper is talking to JARVIS after Harry’s words, while Evans and Darcy are recalling the time Lin Rui drove the Iron Man suit into dimensional space without looking back.

Coulson, on the other hand, looked at Jane, who was also feeling a little overwhelmed. Thor is now being pulled away by Harry and the only way to understand the situation on the other side of the dimensional space is from Jane.

“JARVIS, is Jackson’s life in danger?”

“Jackson’s situation is unique and I cannot make an accurate judgment, but it is certain that his life is in danger.”

“Then why didn’t you tell me before? ! Doesn’t Jackson’s situation need more attention than these people?” “Pepper asked angrily when JARVIS answered.

“Sorry, Miss Pepper, I can’t reveal too much about Mr. Jackson. You should ask Mr. Stark when he comes back.” For various reasons, JARVIS still didn’t explain much to Pepper.

“Okay! I’ll wait until Tony gets back to ask!” Hearing JARVIS’ answer, Pepper resisted the urge to punch JARVIS.

If it wasn’t for the accident with Lin Rui, whom Pepper liked a lot, she wouldn’t have cared so much. What Pepper wanted was for these agents and strange people to finish their work early and leave.

“Miss Foster, although we got off on the wrong foot but it was a last resort kind of situation. We had to follow the protocol. Also, we did eventually return your research materials to you in good condition.” Agent Coulson naturally smiled and lowered his stance as he needs to get some information from Jane.

“Agent Coulson, don’t worry, it’s over and I won’t take it personally. Only, what are you trying to take from me this time? Shouldn’t you be familiar with my research by now?” Jane smiled and asked after hearing Coulson’s words.

When Jane questioned Coulson, she glanced at Evans behind him. When Jane said that Coulson should know about her research results, she was referring to Evans, the agent who had been lurking around them for a long time. When Jane looked at Evans, he turned his head in embarrassment.

“We do know something about your research, but that’s not what I care about right now, I’m more concerned about what you experienced in the London Dimension.” With Coulson’s thick skin, Jane’s sentences didn’t embarrass him. So he continued to speak without any nonsense.

Jane: “...”

‘What a guy!’ Jane silently thought in her heart at this time.

“Miss Foster? Do you remember what happened to you in the dimensional space?” Coulson asked, ignoring Jane’s contemptuous eyes.

Dī Dī!

Before Jane could speak, there was an urgent boosting sound from Coulson’s pocket. Hearing this sound, Coulson’s eyes flickered, and then he reached out and took out the communicator from his pocket. On this communicator, an emergency message was being displayed on the screen in large font.

“The Dark Elves humanoid lifeform has appeared in the London dimensional space. The battle has begun, and the London Branch has been notified to send support.” This is the news that Coulson received. It seems that he no longer needs any information from Jane.

“Dark Elves again? Why is this happening? Why are there two portals leading to the same place!” Coulson muttered in surprise when he saw the news.

Coulson didn’t know about Dark Elves until some time ago so he still attaches great importance to the news about extraterrestrial civilizations sent back from the Siberia base. Regarding the information about Dark Elves and those cannon fodder war beasts, Coulson has firmly memorized and analyzed it in his mind in the shortest possible time.

Therefore, since the London side has determined that the lifeform troops of the Dark Elves have come out of the dimensional space, Coulson does not need to ask Jane any more questions.

“How can I know what’s going on? It wasn’t long before I fainted and all I could see were simple caves...” While Coulson was getting an update, Jane opened up about her own experience.

However, her experience did not help SHIELD in any way. Of course, Jane wouldn’t tell Coulson about the horrific visions she had when she was unconscious.

“Well, I see, I know what’s going on there. If you’ll excuse me, Miss Pepper, I’d better go.” There was something going on in London, and Coulson didn’t need to be here any longer, so after responding to Jane’s sentence, he turned his head to look at Pepper and said.

“Huh? We’re done with the investigation?” Pepper asked suspiciously when she heard Coulson’s words.

“Actually, there’s nothing to investigate. I’m glad they’re okay. As for Jackson, if SHIELD can help you in any way, please feel free to ask us.” Coulson said calmly as he nodded toward Pepper.

Word from Siberia is that Plan S has failed, and the team that entered the space portal is already retreating. So Coulson had to at least secure London until Rogers and his crew got back. Although Coulson is very curious about Lin Rui’s situation, he has no time and energy to focus on him.

“Okay, I’ll let you know if there is any news.” Pepper nodded seeing that Coulson was ready to leave.

“Goodbye, then, Miss Pepper, and Miss Foster.”

Chapter 789: Helplessness

Soon, Coulson took Evans back to the Quinjet on the platform outside and left. In the luxurious living room on the top floor of the Stark Industries building, there were only three women left, Pepper as the host, Jane, and Darcy who came over as a guest.

After Coulson and the others left, the atmosphere between the three of them in the living room gradually changed.

“Cough cough! That... Jane, if you’re all right then we should go back. Otherwise, I’d like to see Jackson’s situation. It seems to be quite serious from what Harry Osborn said just now.” When the silent atmosphere became more and more strange, the first person who couldn’t hold on was Darcy, she coughed twice and looked at Jane with a nervous expression on her face.

“Well, I’d love to see Jackson, too. I didn’t know he was hurt so badly.” Jane says with a nod at Darcy’s words.

“Pepper, can we go see Jackson? We’re kind of friends now, and Jackson got hurt because of me.” Jane asks Pepper after answering Darcy.

“This...probably not. As you have seen, I was just made aware of Jackson’s injury and it was because I didn’t have enough authority. So, you really can’t go to see Jackson right now.” Pepper smiled and refused after hearing Jane’s words.

Pepper certainly didn’t mean to keep Jane and Darcy from seeing Lin Rui, the reason she said did exist.

Even she knew that Jackson was in danger because of Harry’s intrusion. Since JARVIS hadn’t told her before, it was obvious that JARVIS thought Pepper shouldn’t know. So of course Pepper wouldn’t let Jane and Darcy go to see Lin Rui.

Jane and Darcy were embarrassed to hear Pepper’s words. But they also knew in their hearts that Pepper didn’t mean to embarrass them, after all, it wasn’t the first time they had encountered a situation of insufficient authority.

"Then... I'll just wait here for Thor to come back and go back. That's not a problem, right?" After thinking for a while, Jane looked at Pepper and asked.

"Of course, it's not a problem, you have just experienced such a horrible thing, you should rest, ask JARVIS if you need anything. However, I have a lot of work so I can't remain here with you." Pepper responded with a smile when she heard Jane's words.

Then Pepper walked towards the side of the table. After walking to the table, Pepper reached out and took a tablet from it.

"Then, I'll go first." Pepper, holding the tablet, turns to look at Darcy and Jane Foster and says goodbye.

"Okay, do your work, don't worry we will be fine here."

"Goodbye Miss Pepper!"

Da Da Da~

Pepper then walks in her heels through the open elevator door ahead of her, leaving Jane and Darcy alone in the grand, empty living room.

"Jane, are we really going to wait here until Thor returns?" Darcy couldn't help asking Jane after Pepper left in the elevator.

"What else can we do? Do you want to leave Thor here alone? I don't know why that Harry Osborn was angry with Thor, but he was pulled over for a purpose. Since you want to know what's going on with Jackson, do you have a better idea than to wait here?" Jane answered Darcy's question very casually as she walked directly to the sofa and sat down.

"Okay... Looks like we are waiting."

"Miss Foster, Miss Darcy, do you need anything?" JARVIS's voice suddenly came out after Darcy and Jane sat on the sofa.

After Coulson left the Stark Tower, Harry, who was pulling Thor, had also brought him to the fifth underground floor. After bypassing several closed labs, Thor finally came to the outside of the medical room where Lin Rui is receiving the Recovery Serum.

After seeing Lin Rui's condition, Thor almost smashed the door of the infirmary with his fist.

Zi Zi~

Standing outside the glass partition of the medical room, He looked at Lin Rui lying unconscious in the hospital bed. Thor clenched his fists and arcs of lightning seemed to cover it.

At the first moment he saw Lin Rui, Thor noticed the dark energy remaining on his wounds. Thor, who had already guessed that he had encountered Dark Elf on the other side of the dimension, was of course aware of these Dark energies, which is why he was so angry.

Boom!

“Damn! Why is this happening?! With such an injury, so much dark energy remains, and the one who injured Jackson was at least the Elite Warriors of the Dark Elf! What plan did they have, and why did they appear in that dimensional space!?” Thor was unable to restrain himself from hitting the glass wall as he spoke with an angry and helpless expression on his face.

Harry’s eyes lit up when he heard Thor’s words. He just brought Thor over and didn’t tell him about Dark Elves, but Thor himself had already judged that the injury on Lin Rui was caused by a Dark Elf. So, Thor must know about Dark Elf, so maybe he really has a way to save Lin Rui.

“So you know! Do you have a way to deal with these dark energies? It’s these dark energies that have been draining Jackson’s life. If it weren’t for the magical thing in Jackson’s hand that kept releasing special energy that supports him, he would have been dead!” Harry quickly asked as he explained Lin Rui’s situation.

“Those are the dark energies unique to the Dark Elves and they have an annoying ability that devours everything. If my powers were recovered to their peak then I would have no problem dealing with these dark energies. But now, look at me.” Hearing Harry’s words, Thor’s expression was deep and he held up his hands as he spoke.

Zi Zi~

After Thor raises his hand, several tiny electric lights flash out, illuminating Harry’s face as he stands before him. After seeing the electric light coming out of Thor’s hand, Harry’s eyes gradually change.

Because he feels a sense of grandeur in these tiny flashes, which are fundamentally different from normal flashes of lightning or the nature flashes controlled by Storm’s mutant ability.

After showing Harry that he had recovered some of his power, Thor retracted his fist. The explosion on the other side of the dimensional space caused serious injuries to Thor, but his constitution has gradually awakened again, so his recovery will be fast. However, it will take some time for his strength to recover.

“So, you’re not an ordinary alien,” Harry said seriously after Thor retracted his fist.

Thor: “...I’m no ordinary alien!”

If this kind of thunder and lightning with great power can restrain those dark energies, then Thor’s full power can eliminate those dark energies. But right now Thor’s only able to unleash some arcs of lightning, even with all his might.

Of course, he could also choose to release all his power after he recovered but Thor wouldn’t be able to control such powerful energy at this time. If those dark energies could not be eliminated, then Lin Rui, who had been wandering between life and death, would suffer.

“So you can’t save Jackson even if you are Asgard’s Prince!” Harry said in a disappointed tone without arguing with Thor.

Harry's original idea was indeed correct. Thor, who is also an alien, actually knew about Dark Elves and knew how to deal with Lin Rui's injuries. Moreover, his power could restrain these dark energies.

However, at this time, he couldn't show much strength and it didn't help Lin Rui's current situation at all.

Thor felt very aggrieved when he heard Harry's words. Looking at the miserable appearance of Lin Rui in the ward, Thor can't wait to recover all of his divine power immediately, and then rush in to wipe out all the dark energy that caused no trouble to his former self!

However, Thor at this time could only stand outside with clenched fists and watch Lin Rui wander between life and death.

"Damn it! Heimdall! Are you just gonna keep watching? ! I need help now!" The more Thor looked, the more depressed he became, but the strength in his body was still suppressed. So, after a moment's silence, Thor suddenly looked up at the ceiling five stories underground and growled loudly.

Thor knows that Heimdall, who is guarding the Bifrost, must be watching him. He didn't ask Heimdall for help when he went through the interdimensional space to rescue Jane (Heimdall couldn't see him if he did).

But now that Lin Rui's life is at stake and Thor has no other choice. With his eyes fixed on the empty ceiling above him, Thor's eyes seem to penetrate the heavy buildings and look up into the sky.

Harry, who was beside him in a depressed mood, was startled by Thor's sudden shout. He turned to look at Thor, who was staring up at the ceiling for no apparent reason. In his heart, he began to wonder whether the guy had suffered some blow and his head had been damaged.

After all, Thor is also a man who has just undergone a dangerous battle, so mental trauma is not impossible.

"What are you... doing?" After a few more seconds, Harry looked at Thor who was still staring at the ceiling and couldn't help speaking.

Huh~

After Harry spoke, Thor lowered his head just as he raised it. Sure enough, Heimdall still didn't give any response, not even if Thor's eyes penetrated the hundred-story building overhead.

"Do I have to be like this for you to see it?" Thor lowered his head, and there was a faint electric light in his eyes, and he whispered to himself.

"Huh? What are you talking about?" Harry asked curiously, not hearing what Thor was saying to himself. The situation on Lin Rui's side hadn't improved at all, and if Thor suddenly went crazy, Harry would feel like his head would explode.

"It's okay! If Lin Rui fails to hold on, I will give it a try." Hearing Harry's words, Thor lifted his head and said quietly.

"How sure?"

“Ten percent!”

Harry: “.....”

Just as Thor and Harry in New York on Earth were watching the changes in Lin Rui’s situation inside the medical room, Heimdall was standing in the center of the Guardian Hall with his eyes closed. Heimdall had heard and seen Thor’s call, but he could not answer it.

“It’s not that I don’t want to help, it’s just that I don’t need to do anything in this situation!” Heimdall opened his golden eyes that seem to pass through the distant space and whispered to himself.

Heimdall had consulted Odin before when Thor disappeared from his sight through the dimensional space from earth. At that time Odin did not let Heimdall mobilize Bifrost’s true power to find Thor, and Thor returned to Earth shortly after.

From his observations of Thor, Heimdall of course also knew of the presence of the Dark Elves on the other side of Earth. Although he was a little surprised, Heimdall didn’t take it seriously. After all, there are many Dark Elves on the battlefield of the Asgard front.

And shortly after Thor returned to Earth, Lin Rui also returned from the dimensional space. Intrigued, Heimdall wanted to see how this boy would survive that situation.

However, just as Heimdall watched Lin Rui almost getting killed by the Dark Elf Elite Soldier, the Ancient One suddenly appeared. If it wasn’t for Heimdall’s quick response, he would probably have been affected by the Time Stone’s ability.

Therefore, Heimdall is very clear that if the Sorcerer Supreme had taken action, then the earth boy named Jackson Lin will be fine.

Even if he looks like he is going to be swallowed by those dark energies now, but since the Ancient One has left, he can guarantee that Lin Rui will survive. Otherwise, wouldn’t it be a waste for Ancient One to use the Time Stone just to watch Lin Rui die at some other time?

“So, I can only watch now!”

“Miss Pepper, Mr. Stark is back.” JARVIS reminded Pepper shortly after Pepper had returned to her office.

Tony, who returned from Siberia’s portal, has been connected to JARVIS on the Earthside. He is now rushing towards New York, and it will only take about ten minutes for him to come back.

“Tony is back?! Has he finished his ‘saving the world’ thing?” Pepper, who had just sat down, asked in surprise after hearing JARVIS’ reminder.
