Chapter 811: Arrives

According to Tony's plan, Venom is interested in Lin Rui's powerful life energy, so he will let it absorb it. The role of Thor is to suppress the dark energy when Venom absorbs the life energy, preventing Lin Rui from being instantly swallowed by the dark energy without the support of the life energy.

And Rogue will make a move at that time. When the dark energy was suppressed and the life energy was absorbed by Venom and the strength of both energies was reduced at the same time, Rogue will absorb all the dark energy in one fell swoop.

And at the moment when all the dark energy was absorbed, Tony would take the magical item from Lin Rui's hand. In this way, the confrontation between the two energies in Lin Rui will disappear in an instant. As long as the process is smooth enough, Lin Rui would be able to completely escape the current dangerous situation.

This plan is perfect. Through precise calculation and arrangement, the three methods that are all dangerous are integrated with each other to minimize the risk. However, it is precisely to integrate the three methods, and the key to this is the connection of each link. If one link fails, the danger may become greater than the danger posed by a single approach.

Dī Dī~

JARVIS received a message shortly after Tony and his team were ready.

"Sir, there is someone from X-Men." JARVIS then reported the situation he had just received.

"Huh? Get them here!" Tony said quickly after hearing JARVIS' report.

Five minutes later, four more guests were welcomed on the fifth basement floor of the Stark Industry building. The four X-Men who came over include two men and two women. Among them, Tony recognizes two of them. They were the couple Iceman and Shadowcat.

No one has seen the two people in the back, but everyone can guess the identity of the beautiful woman with the distinctive hair color, she is obviously Anna Marie. No one noticed the big man who walked beside her. Anyway, the main goal is to save Mirage Knight, and it doesn't matter how many people came from the X-Men side, Rogue is the most important person here.

"Iceman, thank you for your help!" Tony quickly stepped forward after Iceman and the others approached.

"Mirage Knight has also done a lot for us. Now that he is in danger, we will certainly not fail to do our best to help." Iceman reached out and shook hands with Tony as he spoke.

"This is Miss Anna, right? Thank you for coming!" After speaking to Iceman, Tony looked at Anna Marie behind him.

"Hey." With Tony's polite attitude, Rogue also stretched out her hand. Of course, she was wearing gloves.

“How’s Mirage Knight doing now?” But Iceman changed the subject before Tony could finish his words, it was obvious that he did not want to introduce the man standing beside Rogue.

“Well, his condition is still the same. He could die at any moment.” Seeing Iceman change the subject, Tony knew better than to ask any more questions and simply answered.

“We are all set here and we can start anytime you want.” Then, Tony introduced his plan and took Iceman and the others to the Recovery Serum room.

“I’ll try my best,” Rogue replied.

Drop ~ Dī Dī ~ Dī Dī Drop ~

When Tony and others were busy preparing in Recovery Serum, Lin Rui was still in the same state as before lying in the hospital center bed. The device JARVIS used to monitor his condition still sounded alarms from time to time, but JARVIS simply noted them down as this had happened many times over the period.

At this time, it was the time when the damage of the dark energy to Lin Rui was resisted by the pure life energy constantly pouring into his body. Therefore, in the next short period of time, Lin Rui’s life breath will be extraordinarily powerful, until the dark energy is suppressed again.

Such energy mutual resistance and pull is very dangerous in the eyes of the outside world, and also can produce fatal danger to Lin Rui at any time. However, what no one knows is that this delicate balance, although dangerous, is constantly polishing Lin Rui’s body.

The damage of the dark energy will almost completely damage Lin Rui’s body, but the life energy of the Heart of Life will continue to provide energy to stimulate the recovery of Lin Rui’s body. In such constant destruction and recovery, Lin Rui’s body has grown much stronger than before in a short period of time.

If this balance can be maintained, Lin Rui may continue to strengthen his body in this deep coma until the two energies are exhausted. However, this cannot happen because the energies contained in the heart of life far exceed those dark energies.

Even if this balance can be maintained until the dark energy is exhausted, the powerful energy of the Heart of Life has no corresponding consumption, and the energy it releases will burst Lin Rui in an instant.

Of course, Tony and the others couldn’t possibly know the real condition of Lin Rui’s body. If they had known, maybe Tony would have changed his approach. Still, such things are too uncertain. Even if the balance between these two energies continues, there is no telling when the dark energies will be completely exhausted. It could be days, it could be weeks, it could be months, but it won’t be over in a short time.

Therefore, Lin Rui’s experience of coexisting crisis and opportunity is destined to change by Tony and others. However, no one knows what will change now.

Half an hour later, there were already several more people in the medical room where Lin Rui was. In addition to Rogue who needs to get close to Lin Rui, Iceman from the X-Men, Tony, and Spiderman, who finally came back with the Quinjet, also entered the medical room. Harry and the others were guarding outside the medical room, while Deadpool slumped lazily on the chair outside the medical room.

In fact, Deadpool had no strength at all at this time, so he could only lie on the chair like this. Because Rogue had just absorbed his ability. Although Rogue had been able to control her ability after so many years, but the people who are absorbed by her will still be weak for a period of time.

"That young man is the Mirage Knight you went to so much trouble to save this time?" As Harry watched nervously in the infirmary, a low voice came from beside him.

Chapter 812: Rescue

Hearing the figure beside him, Harry turned his head and glanced at the person beside him. It was the burly man who came with Rogue and the others.

"Yes, he's Mirage Knight." Anyone who can enter here are allies so Harry felt that he had nothing to hide.

Moreover, the original purpose of calling so many people this time was to save Mirage Knight, so his identity was obvious. Anyone would be able to see that Lin Rui is Mirage Knight. In fact, Iceman was shocked for a while when he saw what Mirage Knight really looked like.

"I was just doing a little bit of research about the Mirage Knight and what he did, and I couldn't believe that a kid like him could do that." After hearing Harry's answer, Logan said with some emotion in his voice.

Considering Logan's age, Lin Rui is really only a fraction of his age. So there's really nothing wrong with him calling Mirage Knight a kid.

"Doesn't the world need people like him to hold up the sky?" Harry instinctively responds to Logan's comment.

Logan was stunned hearing Harry's answer and his eyes flashed a few times before he realized it.

"That's right, the world really needs people like him," Logan said in a deep tone as his eyes shifted from Harry to the medical room.

Shasha~

Just when Harry and Logan ended their conversation, Deadpool, who was paralyzed on the side, had recovered a little and was struggling to sit upon the reclining chair. Because of his physical weakness, Deadpool's mouth which was always firing curses was also seriously damaged, and it was difficult for him to speak one or words.

"Hey, they're about to start." Deadpool, who had just raised his head with difficulty, had already seen the situation in the medical room, so he tried to say something.

"I see, take a break, Deadpool." Harry and Logan didn't look at him when they heard Deadpool's words while Harry just replied.

Deadpool: "..."

'Do they not see me?!' Deadpool couldn't help but think so. However, Deadpool was already staring at the medical room with all his attention at this time. As he said, the rescue process has officially begun.

...

In a sterile medical room, armed with sophisticated medical equipment, Lin Rui is flanked by two men: a nervous Thor and a relatively calm-looking Rogue. Thor and Rogue are ready to act as soon as JARVIS gives them a hint.

JARVIS, on the other hand, needs to give the cue at the most precise moment, which is important, when the dark energy and Lin Rui's vital energy, which has been supporting him, reach a perfect balance. In this way, Lin Rui can maintain good physical condition when Venom begins to absorb vital energy and Thor moves to suppress the dark energy.

"Be careful, there are three seconds left."

"Three~Two~One~" When Lin Rui's heartbeat on the sickbed just recovered to the normal level, JARVIS's countdown just ended.

Buzz!

At the end of the countdown, a strong emotional wave came out of a metal tube that had been attached to Lin Rui's hand. Then a thin, black tentacle-like substance came straight out of the metal tube into the glowing green Heart of Life. Venom has been released, and the energy contained in the Heart of Life was more attracted to Venom than Tony had detected before.

Buzz~

When Venom separated its thin tentacles and plunged into the Heart of Life to absorb life energy, the line that continuously provided Lin Rui with powerful life energy seemed to be blocked, and it suddenly became slow, and the vital signs that have just recovered to the normal will be suppressed by the dark energy in the next moment.

"It's now! Thor!" Tony quickly shouted after seeing that his plan with Venom was actually working.

Hoo!

At the same time as Tony spoke, Thor's right hand, which had been prepared for a long time, flashed with a shimmer of electricity, and in the next moment, it was lightly pressed on the wound on Lin Rui's chest. In this terrifying wound, the rich dark energy is invading Lin Rui's body all the time.

Siizzle~

The dark energy invading Lin Rui's body immediately detected Thor's power. Most of the black energy was then used to counter Thor's power, and some of it is used to damage Lin Rui.

However, Thor had only recovered a small part of his power, and the dark energy attracted by him was only suppressed in the wound, but could not be completely eliminated.

Dī Dī Drops!

After Venom and Thor made their moves, the delicate balance in Lin Rui's body was directly broken.

"Miss Anna!" JARVIS, who is checking Lin Rui's physical condition, issued a reminder when he discovered this situation.

Rogue had been prepared for a long time and she had already moved her hand when JARVIS's voice came out. She quickly put her hands on Lin Rui's right hand and near his chest.

In the next moment, Rogue's mutant ability was activated. Abnormal peristalsis of the blood vessels and muscles beneath Lin Rui's skin can be seen in the contact of Rogue's hands with Lin Rui's body, which is a manifestation of the strong energy being absorbed from Lin Rui's body.

As Rogue's time in contact with Lin Rui gradually increased, Lin Rui's skin became pale and a trace of black energy and light green energy had been sucked by Rogue from Lin Rui's body. Lin Rui, who has been tormented by the confrontation between these two energies finally has some hope to get out of this state. As long as there are no accidents in the plan, Lin Rui would be able to recover.

Huhu~

After absorbing Lin Rui's energy into her body, Rogue's face becomes very heavy. Because her right hand is dying from the dark energy. However, because Rogue already possessed Deadpool's abnormal self-recovery power, she would immediately recover whenever the dark energy she absorbed hurt her. As for the green life energy that she absorbed, it would also speed up her healing process.

"It works!" Noticing that Lin Rui's situation gradually stabilized after everyone took action, Tony spoke with an excited expression on his face.

As long as this balance is maintained, when all the dark energy is absorbed, or absorbed to the point where Lin Rui can no longer be killed, Tony will immediately take the Heart of Life away from Lin Rui.

Chapter 813: Regains Consciousness?!

Just when Tony and the others were trying to rescue Lin Rui, the situation of Lin Rui's sea of ??consciousness had changed a bit, and the consciousness that had also fallen into a slumber had been slowly awakening after such a long period of training.

Brush!

When Lin Rui's consciousness was ready to move, the Azura light that had been wandering in his consciousness for a while ran out of nowhere. This time, as if knowing that Lin Rui was about to wake up, the Azura ray did not wander around anymore but stayed close to Lin Rui's consciousness.

I don't know how long it took from the outside world but after the Azura light next to Lin Rui's consciousness jumped a dozen times, Lin Rui's sleeping consciousness finally slowly woke up.

Hoo!

The moment Lin Rui's consciousness woke up, the green light spot that had been guarding next to his consciousness rushed in and then melted with Lin Rui's consciousness and disappeared.

"Hmm~" Lin Rui, who had regained consciousness, snorted, and he was still a little confused as he had just woken up.

It took a while for Lin Rui to wake up completely, and then he started to check on himself.

"Huh? I'm still trapped in the sea of ??consciousness. It seems that my physical condition does not allow me to wake up." Lin Rui thought that he could directly wake up but he didn't expect to be still trapped in the sea of ??consciousness, so he reacted instantly.

"It seems that the previous attack of the Dark Elf did a lot of damage to my body. After all, even the Phantom Suit could not protect me. Before losing consciousness, the dimension space was also very unstable during the explosion. I don't know how damaged my body is right now."

"However, since my sea of ???consciousness is fine now, it seems that I should have safely passed through the dimensional space and returned to the earth. Even if the Dark Elf Elite warrior came along with him, JARVIS should be able to deal with him. After all, it is impossible for him not to be Injured." After staying in the sea of ??consciousness for a while, Lin Rui was already wondering what his current situation was.

"It's useless to guess like this. I have to see what is wrong with my body. I can't wait here forever."

"I hope the situation won't be too bad. Although the Dark Elf's attack was powerful, I took out the Heart of Life at the last minute. As long as the energy of the Heart of Life has an effect, it should be nothing." Thinking this, Lin Rui's consciousness has established a connection with the body.

Buzz~

As soon as his consciousness returned, Lin Rui had already received feedback from all over the body. And the most intense pain assaulted his body.

"What! ~Damn! Why..." Although he was already mentally prepared, Lin Rui couldn't help but scream out because of the pain feedback from his body.

Of course, it was Lin Rui's consciousness that was screaming, his body was not able to react at all at this point in time. But, it did give Lin Rui some time so that he would be able to open his eyes!

Dī Dī Dī!

Just when Rogue and the others were concentrating on their work, JARVIS suddenly detected a strange situation.

"Sir, Mirage Knight's brain waves are fluctuating strongly, he seems to be waking up!" JARVIS, who had detected the situation gave out a reminder and his voice also had some emotions.

Tony had also thought about various scenarios that would happen in this process. Among them, Lin Rui's sudden awakening was the most difficult and uncontrollable situation. So, after JARVIS reminded him, the expressions of Tony and the others changed.

"It seems that the anesthetic has no effect on him! Thor! Anna! Step up and try to finish before any accident happens!" Unable to control what will happen when Lin Rui wakes up, Tony has to speed up the process.

A person who has been in a coma for a long time may not be able to do anything at the moment of awakening, because their body has been in a negative state for a long time. But Lin Rui is not an ordinary person.

No one knew how Lin Rui would react to the current situation after waking up from his coma. If Lin Rui responds in time and cooperates with Tony and others then maybe this rescue plan will go well, but if Lin Rui doesn't respond in time, his life may be in great danger.

Hearing Tony's words, Thor, whose right hand was hanging in the air on the dark energy in Lin Rui's chest, shone with a shred of lightning and he erupted with all his power.

Zi! Zi! Zi!

The power of Thor rushed towards those dark energies in Lin Rui's body. Under the continuous absorption of Rogue, the dark energies that had been reduced a lot were scattered under Thor's outbreak. The speed of the destruction of the dark energy dissipates at a faster rate, and Rogue is already using his full strength.

As for Venom, JARVIS has already used most of Venom's body, and he just hopes that this balance will not be broken.

Buzz~

At the moment when Lin Rui is about to wake up, Thor and others are doing their best. However, when the dark energy was still at least two-fifths, Lin Rui's right index finger suddenly bent, and more green light emerged from the gap between the fingers.

In the next second, Lin Rui's closed eyes trembled slightly. Under Tony's nervous gaze, Lin Rui's eyes finally opened.

"Jackson! Can you hear me? We're trying to save you now. Don't do anything else!" At the moment when Lin Rui's eyes opened, Tony shouted quickly.

After Tony finished, Lin Rui blinked his eyes quickly and hard. With the tacit understanding between Tony and Lin Rui, this is enough to let Tony know that Lin Rui is aware of the situation.

Huh~

"Go on!" Tony let out a long breath after seeing Lin Rui blink and continued to urge Thor and the others.

As Rogue tried to suck out the remaining dark energy from Lin Rui's body, Lin Rui, who had woken up, was suffering inhuman pain. The blink of his eyes was the limit of what he could do. Before opening his eyes, Lin Rui already knew what his body was going through.

Lin Rui is familiar with the energy of the Heart of Life and the Dark energy from Dark Elf, as well as the destructive thunder that is fighting against the Dark energy. After all, Lin Rui has seen Thor use it more than once.

The entanglement of these three very different forces in Lin Rui's body is almost too much for Lin Rui's body. But apart from the entanglement of these three different forces, there is another situation that makes it almost impossible for Lin Rui to keep his mind clear. That is the energy absorption from Rogue.

Chapter 814: Critical Moment

If the confrontation between the Life Force of the Heart of Life and the Dark Energy and the Thor Thunder God's Power simply causes infinite pain in the body, then Rogue's Mutant Ability made Lin Rui feel as if his body is being devoured little by little.

After all, Rogue is not simply absorbing the dark energy or the life force of the Heart of Life, she is absorbing every energy that existed in Lin Rui's body.

Therefore, in addition to a large amount of life force and dark energy, Lin Rui's power that originally belonged to him was also being absorbed. Lin Rui is like a bucket at this time, with two tubes filling different colors of ink on one side, and a large tube pumping water on the other. The pipe that was pumping the water couldn't just pump out the two inks of different colors, but also the original water in the bucket.

"Damn it! Where did Tony find this person! She is going to suck me dry!" The skin all over Lin Rui's body was glowing with an abnormally white color as he silently cursed in his heart.

"There is not much dark energy left. If I put away the Heart of Life at this time, I should be able to rely on my strength to suppress the remaining dark energy. However, now I have no power to put away the Heart of Life, and Tony and the others should not know that once the Heart of Life is connected to me, it is useless to take it away." Lin Rui quickly thought, feeling the changes in the dark energy in his body.

In fact, Lin Rui had no other way to seal the activated Heart of Life again. Maybe the Ancient One would be able to do it, but Lin Rui can't. When using Heart of Life, Lin Rui had already figured out how to deal with this thorny problem. That is, when the dark energy is almost offset, he would directly exchange the Heart of Life into the System Shop.

Anyway, Lin Rui can't really absorb the energy in the Heart of Life. Since it can't be stored again and it is also the only one in which Lin Rui would not explode and die. Although it is a bit wasteful, it would at least allow the Heart of Life to play its role.

But now, Lin Rui suspects that if he lets the woman next to him suck his power like this, he won't even have the power to open the System Shop. Because he was almost unable to feel the energies that originally existed in his body. So, Lin Rui, who could only move his eyes, gave Tony a quick wink.

"Stop now! I'll take care of the rest of the dark energies myself!" This was Lin Rui's message to Tony, with just a wink.

After receiving Lin Rui's eyes, Tony was very puzzled. He didn't know what Lin Rui was expressing, but he looked eager.

“Jackson, don’t worry, you’ll be fine soon, we’ll be able to save you!” Although he didn’t know what Lin Rui wanted to express, Tony could still comfort him.

Lin Rui: “...”

If you continue, you are going to kill me instead of saving me! This is the most straightforward thought in Lin Rui’s mind at this time.

“Mr. Stark, get ready to take the thing in his hand, I’m about to stop.” Just when Lin Rui was about to despair, Anna Marie, who had been trying to absorb his energy, suddenly reminded him.

“Huh? What’s wrong? Anna, can’t you hold on any longer before you’ve absorbed all this dark energy?” Tony asked nervously, looking at Rogue.

“No, if I continue, even if he survives, he will probably be in a vegetative state. So, for his good, there is still a ray of hope for recovery if I stop now.” Facing Tony’s question, Rogue quickly explained.

Hearing Rogue’s words, Tony didn’t understand what the reason was, but Lin Rui, whose eyes had been gradually despairing, suddenly lit up again.

“I’m almost there... it’s now!” No matter whether Tony understood what she said or not, Rogue had already taken her hands away from Lin Rui’s body while shouting.

Brush!

At the same time, JARVIS, who had been on standby, had already controlled the robotic arm to take away the thing that Lin Rui was holding tightly in his right hand. However, before the robotic arm touched the thing in Lin Rui’s palm, the green light disappeared in a flash.

The target suddenly disappeared, and the robotic arm was stunned for a moment. Of course, JARVIS has no time to wonder why it disappeared, and the focus has quickly shifted elsewhere.

When the robotic arm shot, JARVIS also removed Venom at the same time. It has absorbed enough life energy that it is no longer needed.

“Thor!” When Rogue stopped, Tony had no time to do anything else, so he could only remind Thor.

If Rogue had misjudged the situation then her actions would cause the remaining dark energy to deal a fatal blow to Lin Rui. Therefore, at this time, only Thor has the opportunity to disperse those dark energies.

“I will destroy it!” In fact, Thor already understood the seriousness of the situation when Rogue reminded him, so he did not hesitate to get hurt again and broke out with all of his unsealed power.

In the next moment, the power of Thor, which suppressed the dark energy, increased again. At this moment, the hairs on Peter’s body, who had been standing nervous and silent, stood on end. The strength of Thor at this moment was enough to cause danger to Peter’s life.

However, after Thor broke out with his powers again, Lin Rui has less than one-tenth of the dark energy left in his body and these dark energies finally couldn’t resist Thor’s power which has been strengthened several times. After paying the price of losing some of the dark energy, the remaining dark energy impacted Lin Rui's body and disappear.

"Damn it!" The expression on Thor's face instantly turned ugly when he saw that trace of dark energy disappear into Lin Rui's body. However, he has no way to eliminate the dark energy that had invaded Lin Rui's body.

Hu~

At this point, the actions planned by Tony and others to save Mirage Knight are completely over. It only took about ten minutes from start to finish, but Tony and the others felt like a long time had passed.

And at this time, they were all exhausted, and even Peter and Tony, who didn't take action, felt mentally fatigued because of the hardships of the rescue process.

"Jackson... Are you all right?" After the dark energy disappeared in Lin Rui's body, Tony asked Lin Rui with a nervous expression on his face.

Lin Rui had already closed his eyes when Rogue stopped. At this time, Tony and his team do not know what happened to Lin Rui.

Chapter 815: Lived

Rumbling~

The sky above the Stark Industries Building was clear but suddenly several dark clouds gathered, and bursts of thunder came from inside.

"Why has the weather suddenly changed?" Pepper frowned slightly as she watched the weather change from the luxurious living room on the top floor.

"I still don't know what's going on down there... eh? The clouds are gone again." Just as she was about to ask JARVIS about the situation, Pepper found that the clouds above her head had dissipated, and the thunder had disappeared.

If Tony and the others had been outside just now, they would have discovered that the clouds and thunder appeared just as Thor's power erupted. Thor, who has slowly awakened his Divine Power, has gradually taken on the appearance of Thor, although it is still very weak.

"I hope everything goes well!" Pepper sincerely prayed after the clouds cleared and the sun shone again.

Of course, they couldn't know what happened outside the Stark Industries building, Tony and the others were staring nervously at Lin Rui on the hospital bed. It had been three seconds since Lin Rui had closed his eyes and Tony and the others had all stopped.

"JARVIS?" Without getting any response from Lin Rui, Tony couldn't help but call out JARVIS.

"Sir... Mirage Knight has... no signs of life..." JARVIS replied hesitantly after Tony asked.

“Impossible! Jackson will definitely hold on!” Tony interrupted loudly almost as soon as JARVIS finished speaking.

Tony couldn’t accept the results JARVIS said. Tony is in full charge of the plan to save Lin Rui. If Lin Rui does not wake up because of their actions, Tony will feel guilty for the rest of his life.

“Damn! You shouldn’t have stopped just now! With Jackson’s current situation, he couldn’t resist that dark energy at all!” After Tony finished shouting, Thor, who was almost unsteady, stared at Rogue and shouted angrily.

Thor’s physical condition is similar to when he just returned from the forbidden area of ??Asgard, and his entire body was exhausted and he was left with injuries. Although Thor tried his best, he still felt that he should have crushed the dark energy at the last minute. Thor’s chances could have been better if the woman hadn’t stopped early.

Seeing Tony Stark’s disbelief, and hearing what Thor said, Rogue didn’t explain anything. If she hadn’t stopped just now, the young man in front of her might have died from her power.

No one has ever been able to hold on for more than five minutes since Rogue discovered her ability as a child, and this Mirage Knight in front of her has already broken that record.

As for Peter, who was standing aside, he was stunned after JARVIS finished speaking. Looking at his friend who was pale and bloodless, Peter felt that the whole world was moving away from him at this moment. Peter’s Spider-Sense was initiated automatically at this moment when no danger came, and this time it was fully used to sense Lin Rui’s situation.

Hu~

Just when Peter accidentally blocked all outside interference and focused on Lin Rui’s body, he suddenly “heard” a slight sound similar to the flow of liquid.

After “hearing” the almost hallucinatory sound, Peter instantly broke away from this special state where only he and Lin Rui were left in the world, and the spider-sense disappeared. After leaving that special state, a layer of fine sweat instantly appeared on Peter’s body, as if he had just gone through a marathon.

“Jackson isn’t dead!” Without hesitation, a gasping Peter cried out.

Although the special state just now was only for a moment, Peter was sure that the sound he heard was from Lin Rui. And that sound should be the flow of blood or other body fluids somewhere in Lin Rui’s body! Since Lin Rui still has this blood flow in his body, he must not be dead yet!

Dī Dī!

The moment Peter suddenly shouted this sentence, a medical device used by JARVIS to monitor Lin Rui’s physical condition also emitted an alert, and Lin Rui, who had apparently lost all signs of life was emitting brain waves. Peter was right. Lin Rui is not dead!

“Mirage Knight’s brain waves have been detected. He’s alive.” After the beep, JARVIS spoke. This time, JARVIS’s tone was much calmer.

Huhu~

After hearing JARVIS 'exact report, Tony and others broke out in a lot of cold sweat, which was caused by the sudden relaxation from their high tension state just now.

As for Rogue, she was relatively calm. After all, she had nothing to do with the young man in front of her. She came to save him because of her friends' request and to adapt to the changes in the world.

Perhaps, she was the only one who thought Lin Rui wasn't dead before JARVIS re-detected his brainwaves. So, after JARVIS determined that Lin Rui was alive, she got up and went out of the medical room.

"Haha! I knew it! How could he die so easily?!" Tony was shouting excitedly when Rogue got up and left.

"You really survived!" Thor couldn't help muttering to himself as he looked at the young man who was still pale.

Then Thor fell down with Peter beside him. It's not easy for the two people who have exhausted their strength and stamina to persist until now. After making sure that Lin Rui is alive, they finally don't have to persist.

Pū Pū~

Looking at the two people who suddenly fell down, Tony was stunned. Then, Tony hurriedly arranged for JARVIS to drag them to the next hospital bed and administered the Recovery Serum.

"Sir, both Mr. Thor and Mr. Peter are overstretched. They would be fine after some rest." JARVIS said quickly after putting Thor and Peter on the other bed.

"Okay. What about Jackson? How is he now?" Tony was still more concerned about Lin Rui's condition after knowing that Thor and Peter were all right. After all, according to what JARVIS just said, he has already died once.

"Jackson's vital signs are weak, but he's not in any danger. This time the plan worked." JARVIS immediately replied to Tony's concerns.

"That's good! Haha! That's good!"

"However, the powerful thing Jackson was holding in his hand is missing."

Chapter 816: Banner's Choice

Just when the operation to save Mirage Knight ended, Rogers and others who had retreated from Siberia had all returned. They were all very surprised by what happened to Mirage Knight. Fortunately, although everyone's condition is not very good, at least their lives are not in danger.

The still-existing crisis in the Siberia Portal attracted most of the SHIELD's attention, and the Helicarrier, which solved the London Dimensional crisis, was also sent there. The debut of the Super Mobile Suit in London was brief, but it has already demonstrated their superiority in combat.

It can be said that every mobile suit is a hero armed with technology. Moreover, their strength is enhanced by the modification of Titan Series Gene-Enhancing Serum. With their support, the Siberia Base would be able to hold on even if Dark Elf appear from the portal.

Therefore, the series of chaotic accidents that happened in the process of searching for Magic Cube seems to have come to an end for the time being. The Magic Cube has also been found and is now in the possession of Mirage Knight.

They just need to wait for Mirage Knight to recover and wake up and then they would be able to find out what's so magical about this treasure from the universe.

Washington, SHIELD Headquarters, all soldiers who came back from the Siberia base are all receiving the follow-up Recovery Serum. Steve Rogers, who has a better recovery force, is almost able to walk now.

Rogers has stood still for more than a dozen minutes against the glass walls of the room he is standing on and looked outside as if the unchanging landscape outside appealed to him.

Da Da~

As Rogers stood there in silence, not knowing what to think, there was a steady sound of footsteps behind him. Then the figure of Dr. Banner slowly walked over to Rogers. Standing next to Rogers by the glass wall looking out, Dr. Banner also said nothing.

Hu~

After a few more minutes, Rogers finally stopped looking out, took a deep breath, and turned to look at Dr. Banner beside him.

"Dr. Banner, have you been wondering why I persisted with Plan S?" Looking at the silent Banner, Rogers spoke first.

Hearing Rogers' words, Banner also looked back.

"Yes, even if we can be sure that there are abundant resources on the other side of the portal. However, with the existing technology on earth or the strength of your SHIELD and the alliance as a whole, is not sufficient to create an extraterrestrial zone of advanced civilization." After Rogers asked, Dr. Banner nodded and responded.

"Captain...you, or you guys, are you hiding something from me?" After saying the previous paragraph, Dr. Banner raised his head and stared at Rogers, who was taller than him and asked in a serious tone.

As for the phrase about you guys, he is referring to Iron Man who formed an alliance with Rogers, Mirage Knight from League of Defenders, and Professor Charles representing X-Men. If it weren't for the support of Tony and others, Rogers's plan would not have been able to go smoothly.

"Dr. Banner, we do have some things we haven't fully said and there are some things that don't need to be made public. But..." Rogers paused.

"If you join SHIELD in an official capacity then I would be able to tell you everything. And, I can guarantee, the things you've always wanted to know will not only solve your doubts but would also give you a deeper understanding of this world.” Rogers finished the rest of his sentence as he stared at Banner.

“Ohh? Turns out something was going on between you two. It seems you can’t say anything to me without tying me to your side.” Hearing Rogers’ answer, Dr. Banner’s eyes lit up and he said.

“That... What if I said I wouldn’t? Will I no longer be able to use resources inside the SHIELD?” Dr. Banner asked again.

“That won’t happen. You would still have access to SHIELD resources. It’s just that when it comes to secretive things, you may not be able to participate.” Rogers responded quickly to Dr. Banner’s question.

“In that case, I still want to know what’s going on between the two of you.” After hearing Rogers’ answer, Dr. Banner said without hesitation.

It seems that this time, Dr. Banner has already made a decision. It’s just that he needs to confirm the situation on Rogers’ side again.

“Then, Dr. Banner, you are a member of Avengers.” Rogers smiled when he heard Dr. Banner’s words.

“The Avengers? Maybe Hulk can do it. I’ll pass. I don’t mind Hulk being an Avenger if you keep him in line.” Dr. Banner said with a faint smile on his face.

“It’s up to you! So, do you want to understand the world we live in?” Rogers suddenly asked seriously after finally pulling Dr. Banner into his team.

“Our world?”

“Yes, our world.”

In the medical room on the fifth basement floor of the Stark Industries building, Harry was standing anxiously at the door. Rogue had already stopped and stood up, and Tony and the others’ expressions changed several times. Harry really couldn’t guess what was going on inside.

Card~

Hoo!

Hearing JARVIS’s words, Harry opened the door and rushed into the infirmary the next moment.

“Thank you!” Harry said as he brushed past Anna who was walking out.

Then, Harry rushed to Lin Rui’s bedside. Just as Harry arrives, JARVIS pulled the fainted Peter and Thor aside and laid them on top of two different beds for them to rest.

“Jackson is all right?! What happened to Peter and Thor?” Harry asked nervously as he looked at Lin Rui, whose situation didn’t seem to have changed, and Peter and Thor, who had passed out beside him.

“He would be fine. As for the two of them, they are just exhausted. Let them rest for some time.” Tony, who has been communicating with JARVIS about Lin Rui’s physical condition, quickly replied.

“That’s good!” Harry was truly relieved when he heard Tony’s answer.

“Well... It could happen at any time.”

Hoo!

Chapter 817: Defense Strengthening

When Tony and others finally put down the worries in their hearts and waited for Lin Rui, who was no longer in danger, to wake up, he actually recovered consciousness, but now he does not want to wake up yet.

At the moment when Rogue stopped, Lin Rui suppressed the dark energy that had not been broken by Thor with the last bit of strength in his body and exchanged the Heart of Life directly in the System Shop.

At this time, Lin Rui is carefully looking at his body. Because, he felt that he was only in a coma for a while, but his body had undergone tremendous changes.

“What’s going on? I was seriously injured by Dark Elf’s attack, and now it looks like I have received some great benefits!” Lin Rui can’t help thinking after confirming that his body was many times stronger than before.

In this life-threatening situation, good luck was ultimately on Lin Rui’s side. With the full help of Tony and others, Lin Rui survived the crisis safely.

He also polished his body from this confrontation between the life energy of the Heart of Life and the Dark energy of the Dark Elf. As a result, Lin Rui’s defense weakness has been enhanced by several times.

“Is it an additional effect of the Heart of Life?” Lin Rui, who didn’t know why his body strengthened so much, could only think so, but it was not far from the truth.

“However, it’s a good thing that my body got strengthened so much. It’s my good luck this time. If it wasn’t for my current physical fitness, I wouldn’t have been able to last this long after consuming the remaining Dark Energy.” Lin Rui is still a little scared as he thought about his experience this time.

Lin Rui wouldn’t be alive if it wasn’t for the fact that the remaining dark energy was weak and scattered and the fact that Rogue had pulled back on time. Although Lin Rui feels that he may have been able to live in some way, the current situation is undoubtedly the best.

Lin Rui then went straight into deep meditation. This time, due to Rogue’s absorption, Lin Rui almost lost all internal energy in his body and he had also absorbed a lot of life energy. So he’d better hurry up and get all the energy he’s lost back.

Lin Rui also wants to see how much his internal energy can increase after his body is strengthened so much.

It can be said that this physical strengthening also enhances Lin Rui's strength from another aspect. After all, how much water can be held in a barrel depends on the strength of the wood that made the barrel.

In the past, Lin Rui paid more attention to his attack power and traded in high-powered weapons and attack skills. He paid little attention to his own defense, mostly handing everything related to it over to Phantom Suit and other defense equipment.

This experience has made Lin Rui realize very clearly that his own attack power is actually strong enough, and he can almost shake the Dark Elf warrior team under the circumstance of being suppressed by a special environment.

However, his defense was obviously unable to keep up with his powerful attack. If Lin Rui's defense was as strong as his attack, this situation probably wouldn't have happened this time.

Therefore, after the Phantom Suit was completely destroyed to protect him, Lin Rui also paid attention to his defense. Even if the confrontation between the Heart of Life and the dark energy did not strengthen Lin Rui's body, he would take the initiative to strengthen it in the future.

One just has to see the Hulk. He has been able to dominate the Marvel power system just by virtue of his almost invincible physical strength.

Dī Dī~

JARVIS, who had been monitoring Lin Rui's physical condition, found himself unable to detect Lin's condition after she entered deep meditation. This time, however, JARVIS did not sound the alarm.

Because JARVIS has seen this situation before. Lin Rui's brain waves will be very calm when he enters deep meditation, but if he continues to monitor Lin Rui, he will find that the energy level in his body will increase rapidly.

JARVIS used to monitor Lin Rui when he was meditating, but most of the time Lin Rui was wearing a Phantom Suit, so the JARVIS scan could not detect him. And now that Lin Rui's Phantom Suit has been destroyed, JARVIS can accurately detect some subtle changes in Lin Rui's meditation.

"Sir, Jackson is recovering on his own and should be fine." After confirming that Lin Rui's life signs are stable, and the energy belonging to Lin Rui in his body was indeed growing, JARVIS calmed down and reported.

Hearing JARVIS' reminder, Tony and Harry were completely relieved. Then, they stopped staring at Lin Rui meditating on the hospital bed. At this time, Lin Rui no longer had the scary-looking dark energy before, and the wounds on his chest and other parts of his body were also recovering quickly under the effect of the Recovery Serum.

And after making sure that Lin Rui was all right, Tony had some other things to worry about. When Tony left the war field in Siberia and rushed back to New York to save Lin Rui, he did not stop receiving all kinds of news from SHIELD.

However, because Lin Rui's situation was too dangerous before, Tony did not care about it even after seeing the news. And now, Tony finally had time to take a look at the situation over there.

However, before dealing with other things, Tony has to deal with the few people in front of him except Lin Rui. After all, to save Lin Rui, Thor, Deadpool, and Rogue paid a small price in one form or another.

With that in mind, Tony walked out of the medical room. There, Rogue was sitting on a chair, resting.

"Anna, is everything okay? I've never seen you use your powers for more than five minutes. Are you alright?" Logan, the wolverine who has been standing by Anna's side with some concern before Tony steps out.

Although so many years have passed and Rogue has been able to use her abilities very well, otherwise, Iceman would not have dared to call Rogue back. However, Rogue has never absorbed so much energy in one go before.

So, Logan was worried that her body wouldn't be able to take it. He knows that absorbing so much energy is a huge burden on Rogue's body.

"It's nothing, I did consume a lot of energy, but the damage I sustained was recovered by Deadpool's ability. And the energy I just absorbed..." Hearing Logan's question, Rogue waved her hands tiredly and said. However, she didn't finish her sentence.

Chapter 818: Request

Rogue accepted Tony Stark's invitation to come and treat Mirage Knight because of X-Men's friendship. Rogue was originally holding a relatively bland attitude towards this whole situation.

However, a series of things that happened during the treatment process surprised her. The first was Deadpool's mutant ability. This abnormal recovery ability is something that Rogue has never encountered before. It is stronger than Wolverine's Mutant ability.

And after Rogue made contact with Lin Rui's body, the three kinds of energy absorbed by her body also shocked her, the dark energy from Dark Elf, the life energy from the Heart of Life, and the special internal energy generated by Lin Rui's body. These energies are things that she has never encountered or seen before.

One is the energy that contains powerful destructive and devouring properties, the other is the energy that has a surging life force and can enhance someone's life by many years, and Lin Rui's internal energy is even more amazing.

Rogue still doesn't know what kind of energy she had inhaled. What are the properties of this energy? And she wants these answers as her body is filled with a lot of these energies.

Because of the particularity of her mutant ability, Rogue can now use these three completely different energies. It can be said that as long as her body can afford it, she has obtained a lot of unexpected gains in this rescue plan.

"What's wrong with these energies? Is it harmful to you?" Logan asked with a nervous expression on his face as he heard Rogue's words.

“No, it’s just that they are all very special and powerful.” Seeing Logan’s worried look, Rogue shook her head and explained.

Buzz~

While speaking, Rogue stretched out her right hand and a faint green light slowly appeared on her right hand.

“This is!?!.....”

“Do you feel it?” Two seconds later, Rogue withdrew her hand and asked.

Facing Rogue’s question, Logan couldn’t react for a while. They had some simple physical contact during the years since Rogue has been able to control her mutant ability.

However, the Life Energy that Rogue had just passed to Logan had restored his lost life force. Therefore, Logan, who felt this, was so shocked that he couldn’t speak.

“It turned out to be this kind of energy?! This is the energy of life!” After another two seconds passed, Logan shouted with an excited expression on his face.

Da Da~

And just as Logan finished shouting, there was a sound of footsteps behind them, and Tony had come over. As Logan and Rogue look around, they see Tony looking at them with a puzzled look on his face.

“Of course, it’s life energy, otherwise how could Mirage Knight persist until now?” Tony said as he looked at the excited expression on Wolverine’s face.

Tony heard what Logan said just now. However, compared to Wolverine’s excitement, Tony was not at all curious about Lin Rui’s magical item that could provide life energy.

One must know that Tony had known Lin Rui for a long time and it was because he drank the Elven Holy Spring Water that Lin Rui quietly gave him that prevented him from suffering the damage to his body from Palladium Poisoning. And Elven Holy Spring Water also provides life energy to the human body so Tony is no stranger to it.

Hearing Tony’s words, Logan withdrew his excited expression with some embarrassment. After all, having lived for so many years, even if his memory is incomplete, Logan still wants to look mature and oldish. Although Wolverine is indeed very interested in this life energy because of his age, it is not limited to showing it in front of outsiders.

“Mr. Stark is... Mirage Knight all right?” Rogue asked as the green light disappeared from her hand after Tony stepped in front of them.

“Yeah, Mirage Knight is no longer in danger and he is recovering. I would like to thank you again for helping us and for the decision you made just now. I don’t know what would have happened otherwise.” Hearing Rogue’s words, Tony replied with a sincere expression on his face.

"If you need any help, or if you have any request then please feel free to mention it, I will try my best to see it fulfilled!" Tony said with a serious expression on his face after thanking Rogue.

For X-Men to bring Rogue back to save Lin Rui, Tony did promise something before, but now it's up to Anna to ask. However, with Tony's identity and wealth, as long as it's not too much, he should be able to fulfill her request.

"This..." Hearing Tony's words, Rogue didn't know how to answer for a while.

Rogue didn't expect anything in return for her help this time. Because she doesn't lack anything. If she cared about something then it would be the few people she has. In terms of material things, Rogue didn't want anything.

"Tony, if you want to express your gratitude, just support Mutants on behalf of Stark Industries." Iceman, who had already seen Lin Rui's situation, came over and said when Rogue didn't answer.

"I would be willing to do that but X-Men can't represent all the Mutants on earth. At least, there are many organizations like the Mutants Brotherhood that we fought with a while ago and they are not so friendly." Tony said after hearing Iceman's words.

"Don't worry, we will handle the Brotherhood. Now the earth is developing at high speed, and if each of us is divided, something will happen sooner or later. Isn't our alliance also for the early establishment of a unified earth federation?" Knowing Tony's concerns, Iceman said with a smile.

After Tony became Iron Man, Stark Industries, a world-renowned business empire-like company, was no longer limited to a weapon manufacturing company. It became a very special existence under the command of Iron Man. If Tony supports the Mutants' rights on Earth as Iron Man then many unpleasant factors will make themselves known. Now, Tony can only support the friendly Mutants force like X-Men.

"I don't care as long as you can handle it," Tony said proudly when he heard Iceman's words.

"Thank you in advance! By the way, Anna, is there anything else you want? I don't think Mr. Stark will refuse."

"I want to... The thing with the energy of life..."

Chapter 819: Blowing

After hesitating for a while, Rogue still put forward her request. She wanted that magical thing that gave Mirage Knight a lot of life energy to keep him going until everyone got here to save him.

In fact, Rogue doesn't need this kind of thing. Although life energy is very attractive to any person or even any living life form, not everyone needs this extra life energy. But Logan definitely needed this energy so Rogue asked for him.

Not to say that Wolverine is getting old, but that he has spent too much of his life energy fighting and getting injured in his previous decades. Even if his mutant ability allows him to recover all his injuries, the internal drain on his body still exists.

Otherwise, Logan would be in his prime state right now. As long as his life energy is replenished, Logan will recover to a full peak state. That way, Wolverine, who made his name in Mutants, will again be able to fight with his full power.

“You want that thing?...” Tony frowned slightly upon hearing Rogue’s request.

Tony knew that Lin Rui had that magical item that could replenish life energy. He had asked Lin Rui for it before, but Lin Rui didn’t give it. And now Rogue had asked for it after saving Lin Rui’s life, and Tony felt that her request was not too much.

However, only Lin Rui has that thing. Moreover, when they stopped just now, that magical thing disappeared instantly.

According to Tony’s guess, that thing was probably put away by Lin Rui. So, if Rogue wanted that thing then she would have to wait for Lin Rui to wake up. Tony thinks it’s perfectly fine if Lin Rui gives her that thing.

“That thing belongs to Mirage Knight so you can talk to him when he wakes up. I don’t think he will refuse. If he can’t give you that thing then I will compensate you with other things.” Tony temporarily agreed for Lin Rui, who had not woken up yet.

“I know this request may be difficult so it wouldn’t matter if it doesn’t work,” Rogue replied after hearing Tony’s words.

Perhaps because he had been exposed to the life energy more than once, Tony did not quite understand its importance. After all, Tony had already used Elven Holy Spring Water once himself and had also worked with JARVIS on this particular thing.

But Tony didn’t find anything. To find out some magical things that often appear in Lin Rui, Tony also opened up a special scientific category, that is magic science.

Compared with Tony’s research on this life energy as a special kind of science, Rogue and Logan simply wanted to get this life energy to replenish their lost life energy in their bodies.

Moreover, compared to other people who can’t bear the extra increase in life energy, Rogue and Logan don’t have to worry about the danger in this regard. Rogue’s ability to absorb various abilities and energies and Wolverine’s mutant gene would allow him to withstand these life energies.

It can be said that if Lin Rui gives the Heart of Life to Rogue then she will become a moving nurse and she would become the kind of nurse who would be able to save lives at any given moment.

“I think it’s going to take a while for Mirage Knight to wake up so you can rest for some time.” Tony also needs to check in with SHIELD after he’s done with the people in front of him.

Iceman and the others nodded and left the basement under JARVIS’s guidance. The fifth floor underground is the place that Tony usually uses for secret experiments, which is not suitable for rest and entertainment.

After Iceman and his team went on break, Tony was able to connect directly with SHIELD. He heard that the evacuation plan on Siberia’s side is going smoothly, at least the casualties are controlled within a small range.

Pepper, who had been waiting for news on the top floor of the Stark Industry building, was alerted by JARVIS just as the rescue of Mirage Knight was coming to an end. Pepper then thought and headed outside to the living room, where Jane Foster was waiting.

Da Da~

"Pepper, is there any news? How is Mirage Knight's situation?" Jane raised her head when she heard the familiar sound of high heels stepping on the floor and she looked at Pepper who was approaching and asked.

"Mirage Knight is all right now, but Thor is feeling a little weak as he used all of his strength to help so he is resting." After hearing Jane's words, Pepper replied simply.

"Thank God, if something happened to Mirage Knight because of me then I would have felt guilty for the rest of my life." Jane was relieved to hear Pepper say that Mirage Knight was all right. As for Thor's situation, Jane wasn't particularly worried.

"I don't know when Thor and the others will be able to recover and it's already past dinner time. If you are hungry then eat something here." Looking at the darkening sky outside, Pepper said politely.

"Thank you." Jane, who was indeed hungry, agreed without being pretentious.

"JARVIS, order dinner for us, the usual please. Jane, do you have any allergies?" Hearing Jane's answer, Pepper asked JARVIS to order her food.

"No."

"Then let's go out for a while, the food will be here soon."

With that, Pepper had already turned and walked out of the living room. Pepper sees the night view almost every day, but it's undeniable that Stark Industries' location in New York City gives the tower a wide view from the top, which Pepper can't help but admire every time she looks out from the terrace. Besides, there's another guest here today, and Pepper is going to show this amazing view to her.

Jane, who had been sitting for a while, was obviously a little bored, so she walked outside with Pepper. However, just when they were walking out, Jane suddenly felt a little dizzy looking at the city view of New York in front of her.

"Well, isn't it a nice view?" Pepper asked faintly, looking at the distant sunset that was split between tall buildings.

However, Pepper got no response from Jane. Just when Pepper turned to look with some doubts, a figure suddenly fell softly towards her.

Huh~

Chapter 820: Emergency Case

As Pepper turned around, Jane fell straight into her. Pepper reacted quickly and put an arm around her to stop her fall but she wasn't successful and they both fell to the ground.

“What’s wrong with you?!” Pepper asked worriedly while supporting Jane who didn’t seem to have any strength in her body.

“I don’t feel well... I feel dizzy.” Leaning against Pepper, Jane struggled to finish the sentence before she passed out.

Pepper: “...”

“JARVIS!” Pepper shouted while supporting Jane on the ground.

Soon, JARVIS had arranged for two Iron Man suits to lift the unconscious Jane into the living room. And again, JARVIS detected that particular wave of energy from Jane’s body.

It was this special energy that had consumed Jane Foster’s strength. The appearance of her being safe and sound just now seemed like an illusion, but now it was finally undetectable.

“What’s wrong with her? Why did she suddenly faint, wasn’t she fine just now?” Pepper asked worriedly after JARVIS helped Jane onto the sofa.

“Miss Potts, Miss Foster’s situation is quite unique, and I don’t know how to explain it. However, I have informed Mr. Stark, and he already knows the situation here.” JARVIS replied quickly after hearing Pepper’s question.

Pepper was speechless at JARVIS’s response, but there was nothing else she could do. If JARVIS didn’t know what was going on with Jane then there’s no way she’s gonna know right now. So she will leave it to the professionals. All Pepper can do now is make Jane more comfortable.

On the fifth basement floor of the Stark Industrial Building, Tony, who was standing by Lin Rui’s bedside and had a video call with SHIELD, had already learned about the situation there. Tony was relieved to know that Rogers and the others were all right. As for the loss of those Iron Man suits, it was nothing compared to human life.

“Sir, Jane Foster has fainted. Through the examination, her life force is still slowly diminishing, and the recovery just now seems to be an illusion.” Just as Tony was chatting with Rogers, JARVIS’s voice rang out in his ear.

“Huh?! Steve, I have an emergency here, I’ll call you later.” Tony raised his brows when he heard JARVIS’s words and then hung up the call after speaking to Rogers on the other side of the tablet.

“What’s the matter? Wasn’t she okay before? You also said that the strange energy in her body doesn’t seem to be doing anything.” Tony quickly asked after hanging up the video call.

“I just can’t detect the effect of that energy, and Miss Foster’s physical condition was really normal just now. However, her life force is slowly dissipating now.” Facing Tony’s questioning, JARVIS replied truthfully.

It’s a very confusing situation, JARVIS did discover that Jane had a weird energy that was affecting her when she was rescued by Thor.

But then she woke up on her own and seemed to be fine, and JARVIS's tests also showed that she was fine, and the energy was gone. Therefore, JARVIS did not pay much attention to her as Lin Rui's situation was more urgent.

But now that Jane is unconscious, JARVIS can detect that energy again. So, it should be that energy that caused Jane's situation at this time.

"Weird energy? What did they experience in that dimensional space? Didn't Lin Rui fight a Dark Elf? And neither Thor nor Jane met any Dark Elf's soldiers, but only encountered a few war beasts." Unable to understand where the special energy in Jane Foster's body came from, Tony muttered to himself helplessly.

"Sir, I've used various Recovery Serum on Miss Foster, but none of them have an effect on that energy," JARVIS spoke again just as Tony was talking to himself.

"Got it! Wake Thor up, I want to know what they encountered in that dimensional space. Only by knowing what that special energy is, can we find a way to deal with it!" Tony made a decisive decision knowing that neither JARVIS nor he had any solution in this matter.

"I didn't even have a single moment to relax, Why should I be in charge of such matters?!" Tony thought helplessly as he watched JARVIS start to give Thor a little stimulation to wake him up.

Since the appearance of the Magic Cube and the space portal connecting earth to the extraterrestrial civilization, Tony has found that many things are no longer under his control. He holds the technology that can dominate the earth in his hand, but recently, he has been helpless to do anything in these situations.

Tony had no previous contact with the alien Thor and he should be under the jurisdiction of SHIELD which means that he is their responsibility but Thor and Lin Rui are friends, and Lin Rui came to help him. But the friend's friend's girlfriend was in an accident now, and it happened in Tony's tower, so he can't ignore it.

Hoo!

"Ah!~~~" Just when Tony was feeling helpless, Thor suddenly cried out and sat up from the hospital bed. JARVIS stimulation seemed to have worked on him.

"What's going on?! What's wrong?!" Thor, who had just woken up, was a little confused. He looked around and shouted.

"Thor, what happened to you guys in that dimensional space? Jane is unconscious and there is a weird energy in her body that is consuming her life force. I need to know what she went through." Tony stared at Thor and asked without giving him much time.

"What? What's wrong with Jane?!" Thor, who only woke up after hearing Tony's words, asked with a worried expression on his face.

"She's okay now, but if you don't think about what she's been through, then she's not going to be okay!" Tony said solemnly as he looked at Thor's dumbfounded expression.

"I don't know, Jane was just lying on her side when I got there and she didn't seem to have any injuries.' Hearing Tony's words, Thor froze and answered quickly.

"However!... Jane told me that she saw some visions when she was knocked out, visions about the Dark Elves!" Thor really didn't know what Jane had encountered and he could only tell him what Jane told him before.

"Visions? That's useless!" Tony was disappointed with Thor's answer.

If Thor doesn't know what Jane is going through, then no one would know. After all, Lin Rui went in after Thor.
