Chapter 821: Aether

Whew!

While Thor was struggling to get up to check on Jane Foster, Lin Rui, who had been lying quietly on the bed beside him, suddenly awakened from his deep meditation.

A few seconds ago, Lin Rui, who was deeply meditating and focusing on his recovery, suddenly found that he seemed to have forgotten something important. After thinking about it carefully, Lin Rui remembered.

It turned out that he had forgotten about the Aether or the Reality Stone. This time, Lin Rui crossed the interdimensional space to save Jane Foster because the Aether would have possessed her.

“How can I forget such an important thing! It would be bad if something happened to the Aether or Jane!” Lin Rui, who had only recovered a little physical strength, had woken up from deep meditation, and he also happened to hear Tony and Thor talking.

“Something is wrong!” Hearing Tony say that Jane Foster’s situation is not good, Lin Rui’s heart jumped, and the next moment he directly opened his eyes and sat up.

Startled by the sudden awakening of Lin Rui beside him, Tony and Thor looked at him with wide eyes, not knowing what to say for a moment.

“Jackson! How are you?” Tony was the first to react, and he quickly walked over to Lin Rui and asked with concern.

“Cough! I’m okay, the most important thing now is not me, but Miss Foster! I heard what you guys just said.” Hearing Tony’s words, Lin Rui waved his hand and quickly said.

“That’s right! I must go and see Jane!” Lin Rui has woken up and looks fine so Thor also struggled to get out of bed.

“Let’s go together! I probably know what happened to Miss Foster!” Holding the edge of the bed, Lin Rui also tried hard to get out of the bed.

“How do you know?!”

“How do you know?!”

After hearing Lin Rui’s words, Tony and Thor asked in almost unison. Jane Foster was the first to go through the subspace, followed by Thor and Lin Rui went through a few minutes after Thor did.

Even if something happened to Jane Foster, Lin Rui couldn’t possibly know anything about it.

“Uh anyway, I just know! Are you guys going to stay here?” Seeing Tony and Thor both staring at him, Lin Rui froze then hurriedly spoke.

“Yes! Let’s hurry up!” Hearing Lin Rui’s reminder, Thor did not dwell on why Lin Rui knew what had happened to his girlfriend, and had hurriedly got off the bed to go.

Bang!

Behind Thor, Lin Rui also happened to have one foot on the ground and was ready to get out of bed. However, the next moment, Lin Rui's legs went soft and he lay down on the smooth floor. Lin Rui, who had only recovered a little, couldn't move on his own.

"Oh for the love of god!" Looking at Lin Rui lying on the ground in a mess, Tony stretched and spoke with a fed-up expression as he held out his hand to help him up.

"JARVIS, get me two wheelchairs."

"Okay, sir."

Soon, Lin Rui and Thor quickly left the fifth basement floor of the Stark Industries building in wheelchairs. As for Harry, he didn't leave. He was here to guard Spiderman, who had not woken up yet.

...

"JARVIS said that a special energy was detected in Foster's body, and it should be this energy that kept her unconscious." In the elevator, Tony briefly talked to Lin Rui about the situation.

"En, I know." Hearing Tony's words, Lin Rui nodded unsurprisingly.

Aether is the Reality Stone among the six Infinity Stones, and it is also a very special one among them. Unlike other Infinity Stones that almost all have a fixed form, Reality Stone's characteristic is that it can constitute illusion and reality, so it has no fixed form.

Moreover, Reality Stone can devour reality, and the more reality it devours, the more powerful its energy becomes. It can be said that if Reality Stone can keep on devouring, it will become the most powerful one among the six Infinity Stones.

It is also because of this effect of Reality Stone that Malekith had always wanted to get it again. Not only can it build reality, but it can also devour reality, which is what the Dark Elves need.

The last time the Aether appeared was a thousand years ago, in the great war that affected almost the entire Nine Realms, Odin's father finally defeated Malekith and got the Aether. At that time, the Aether was not that powerful, and after that, it was sealed in a forbidden place where no one should have been able to find it.

Therefore, Aether Particles should be at their weakest and it may devour the possessed thing to strengthen itself, that is, Jane Foster. In the original movie world plot, Jane Foster almost died at the hands of the Aether.

"Jackson, do you know why Jane is unconscious? Also, what is that energy in her body?" Thor, who was sitting in the wheelchair opposite him, asked nervously after Lin Rui responded.

"The reason why Jane is unconscious is because of that energy in her body, and I know what that energy is. It's just..." Hearing Thor's words, Lin Rui replied with a frown on his face.

"Just what?!"

"It's just that I don't have any good way to remove that energy from Jane's body right now." Looking at Thor's hopeful eyes, Lin Rui said in a deep voice.

Hearing Lin Rui's answer, the expressions on Tony and Thor's faces changed. Then the elevator fell silent for a moment, and the atmosphere gradually became tense.

It's not surprising that Lin Rui gave this answer. In the original movie plot, there was no way to get Aether out of Jane's body even after Thor took her to Asgard so it is not surprising that Lin Rui had no way.

One must know that in the original plot, the Aether was taken out from Jane's body by Malekith himself. And where would Lin Rui go to find Malekith, Lin Rui has not met Malekith before he has been blasted back by the Damascus Reese Sword.

If Lin Rui knew that not long after he passed through the dimensional space and returned to Earth, Malekith chased after him with a few Dark Elf warriors, maybe he would have paid some price to keep him there instead of letting SHIELD directly destroy the dimensional space.

Now, Lin Rui doesn't have a good way to save Jane and he doesn't know what will happen.

Huhu~

After a few more seconds, the elevator stopped as they reached the top floor of the Stark Industries building.

Ding~

As soon as the elevator door opened, Thor got up from his wheelchair and rushed out, while Tony was pushing Lin Rui, who was temporarily unable to move freely, behind him.

"Jane! Jane!" Thor, who rushed out of the elevator, stumbled a little, but his voice shouted anxiously.

Chapter 822: Called

Huhu~

"Jane!" In a few steps, Thor rushed past Pepper, who was walking toward him, as he had already seen Jane lying on the sofa in the middle of the living room.

Not caring about Thor's behavior, Pepper had already seen Tony pushing the wheelchair and Lin Rui in the wheelchair. Pepper's eyes brightened after she saw Lin Rui in the wheelchair.

Through some of the things that JARVIS had revealed earlier and what Pepper asked after Tony returned, she now has a pretty sure guess of the identity of the young man in front of her. However, although Pepper was a little surprised, she also took it for granted.

"Are you okay, Jackson?" Pepper asked as she walked up to Tony as he pushed Lin Rui over.

"I'm fine now, thank you for asking." Lin Rui raised his head and responded when he heard Pepper's words. Anyway, for Pepper and the others, Lin Rui now feels that he doesn't need to hide his identity.

“Jane’s over there, and I don’t know what’s going on with her.” Then, Pepper and Tony walked toward Thor’s side.

Huh~

“Jackson! Come and see! What’s wrong with Jane?” After Lin Rui came over, Thor, who had already checked Jane’s condition, hurriedly looked at him and asked.

“No need to look, first give this bottle of water to Jane and make her drink this.” After seeing Jane’s condition, Lin Rui could already determine that she was unconscious because of Aether, so he directly took out one bottle of Elven Holy Spring Water and handed it to Thor.

If Lin Rui didn’t have any Reward points to exchange for Elven Holy Spring Water before, but after exchanging the opened Heart of Life to System Shop, Lin Rui now has a little more money in his hand, so he feels no pressure in exchanging for Elven Holy Spring Water. Jane’s health is more important right now.

As for Jane’s current situation, other than replenishing her life energy, other medical methods on earth should be useless. As for Rogue, who almost sucked him dry just now, Lin Rui thought it was useless too. Even if Rogue could suck this energy, Aether was after all one of the Infinity Stones, and she cannot suck out infinite energy.

“Huh? That magical potion again.” Tony muttered silently in his heart when he saw the Elven Holy Spring Water that Lin Rui took out of thin air.

Tony wanted to ask Lin Rui for one to study before, but Lin Rui didn’t give it, but now he has it, and Tony will not let it go this time. The new category of magic science he had opened required basic material research, and he couldn’t form a system just from the magic that David and the others demonstrated to Tony last time.

“Okay!” Without hesitation, Thor took the Elven Holy Spring Water handed to him by Lin Rui and poured it into Jane’s mouth.

After giving Elven Holy Spring Water to Jane, Thor waited nervously to see if she would wake up. However, the effect of Elven Holy Spring Water could only replenish Jane’s constantly devoured life force, and there was no guarantee that she would wake up.

“Miss Foster’s life energy is increasing, but the devouring aspect of that special energy continues.” After drinking the Elven Holy Spring Water, JARVIS immediately found that Jane’s slowly diminishing life energy was replenished instantly. But the effect of the Aether is still there.

“Well, one serving of Elven Holy Spring Water will probably delay it for quite a while.” Hearing JARVIS’s reminder, Lin Rui thought silently in his heart.

Then, Lin Rui looked at Thor and said, “Thor, I think you should call someone.”

“Call someone?” Hearing Lin Rui’s inexplicable words, Thor was a little confused.

Seeing the bewildered look on Thor’s face, Lin Rui moved closer and put his head next to Thor.

“There is nothing we can do about Jane’s situation here, maybe there is a way to save her on Asgard. So, you should call someone to get Jane to Asgard in order to help her.” This time, Lin Rui had said it very straightforwardly.

“But even if Heimdall heard and saw what I said to him, he will not give a response.” Thor understood what Lin Rui meant by calling people, but he was worried that Heimdall wouldn’t respond to him.

It should be known that Lin Rui also said something deliberately before Thor went into the dimension, in order to ask Heimdall, who had been watching Thor, to send someone to support them.

However, on the other side of the dimension, Lin Rui was surrounded by a whole Dark Elf team, and Asgard did not respond. So Thor wasn’t sure his summoning would work at this point.

“If Jane had simply been unconscious and injured then Heimdall would not have spoken to you even if you had shouted at him. But if you tell him why Jane is in a coma then I think he will send down someone or he will open the Bifrost.” Understanding what Thor is worried about, Lin Rui then whispers in his ear.

“What reason?!”

“Aether.”

At League of Defender’s base in suburban New York, Jerry, who has been worrying about Mirage Knight’s injury, finally takes his hands off the keyboard. Mirage Knight has survived and Jerry’s idea had worked.

“Huh! ~ That wasn’t easy! Mirage Knight is also lucky!” Jerry was also sighing while resting on the back of the chair.

Shasha~

However, just when Jerry was relaxing and preparing to squint a little, he suddenly heard a slight rattling, as if something was making a sound in the corner.

“Do we have rats? Deadpool never cleans up after eating his junk food!” At the slight rustle, Jerry opened his bloodshot eyes and muttered with a helpless expression on his face.

Hoo!

While muttering, Jerry had already gotten up from the chair. If there was a rat, Jerry wouldn’t let it survive tonight. Picking up the iron baseball bat stuck in the bucket next to him, Jerry walked to the place where the sound came out step by step.

“Well, I think it’s a rat. That corner is where Deadpool hangs out. But... It looks like...” As he got closer to the sound, Jerry felt a little nervous, because he remembered something.

“That’s where Deadpool carried the guy back. Is he dead? Is that why the rats are here?” While thinking, Jerry had already walked to the corner.

It has been so long since he joined the League of Defenders, although he doesn't need to face so many dangers outside as a logistician. However, Jerry has also seen the cruelty of the battlefield in the background with his own eyes.

So, even if the guy carried back by Deadpool is really dead, Jerry will not be afraid. It's just a dead man, and it's not like he had never seen one before.

Chapter 823: Peculiar Circumstance

Clutching the baseball bat, Jerry had moved past the last obstacle in his way: Deadpool's couch. The next moment, Jerry was in the dark corner where the noise was coming from.

But when Jerry saw what was going on in the corner, his mildly nervous expression suddenly turned to panic. Then Jerry stepped back slightly against the back of the couch, letting go of his grip on the bat.

Bam! ~

The baseball bat dropped from Jerry's hand and clattered on the ground. After hearing the sound, Jerry, who had lost his mind and was retreating, realized it and he quickly stood on his feet and picked up the baseball bat again.

Brush!

Raising his right hand and pointing the bat forward, Jerry's voice shook. "You... You, you..... how did you survive?!"

It turned out that it wasn't the mouse making the noise in the corner, but the John Doe who was supposed to remain unconscious or dead. At this point, he had woken up and was slowly standing up from the ground.

For Jerry, the rat was more of a threat than the unconscious or dead John Doe, while the alive and awake John Doe was of the highest order threat. Because when Deadpool brought John Doe back, Mirage Knight wasn't looking into him because they were too busy with other things.

So Jerry has only a few guesses as to who Jane Doe is. And whether Jerry's guess is correct or not, it's dangerous for him to face John Doe alone.

To Jerry's weak question, John Doe didn't answer and he just stood up silently. Then, he raised his head and looked at Jerry in front of him. It seems that because he has just woken up, there is not much energy in John Doe's eyes.

However, John Doe had some reactions when he saw Jerry pointing his baseball bat at him. Then, John Doe took a small step forward.

"You, you... What do you want?! Don't come over!" Seeing John Doe taking a step closer to him, Jerry waved his baseball bat towards him.

However, in the face of Jerry swinging a baseball bat warning, John Doe did not flinch and kept on walking.

Dī Dī Drops!

Just as Jerry is about to cry at the sight of this anonymous man, an urgent alarm sounds from inside the base. Jerry was stunned at the sound of the alarm, and then a surprise came into his eyes.

“Internal threat detected, initiating the secondary defense measures.” As Jerry’s eyes explode with surprise, an electronic tone begins to ring inside the League of Defenders base.

Ka Ka Ka!

Then the wall near Jerry and John Doe’s corner cracked open to reveal holes from which robotic arms and weapons speeded out. The arms quickly changed as they stretched out, and soon formed a large shield in front of Jerry, while the weapons were aimed at John Doe.

“Haha! I almost forgot the defense system in the base! Now, what are you gonna do to me? !” Jerry was able to speak with confidence after he was protected and John Doe surrounded by weapons.

League of Defenders was originally a simple and small place where Lin Rui and his team could only have a short rest. After such a long time of development, it has already become a base integrating leisure and high-tech.

The Transformation of the League of Defenders base has been going on ever since Lin Rui asked Tony for a mini-ARC Reactor. With the tacit consent from SHIELD, the underground area has already been enlarged to give more space to the League of Defenders base.

Therefore, in order to protect this base, which is no longer what it used to be, the internal defense of the League of Defenders base is also very good, and these weapons are set up according to the highest specifications. After the defense system is activated, there should be no problem with Jerry’s safety.

John Doe stopped when the Defenses at the League of Defenders base turned on. Looking at the weapons pointed at him, John Doe’s attention had taken its place away from Jerry. So it was a little embarrassing for Jerry to get no response after he had confidently shouted that line.

Buzz~

Judging John Doe’s level of danger, the weapons aimed at him are already charged. If John Doe makes any unnecessary movement, these weapons will deliver a powerful attack.

Hoo~

As if curious about the various metal weapons in front of him, John Doe, who had already stopped, took another step forward and raised his right hand.

“Attack.” After observing John Doe’s movements, the defense system made a direct decision to attack him.

Pū Pū!

In the next moment, two blinding white laser beams were fired, targeting John Doe. Without any obstruction, John Doe, with his right-hand half raised, was attacked by laser beams. The powerful laser beams went straight through John Doe’s chest, making two penetrating holes in his chest, from front to back.

In order to ensure the absolute security of the League of Defenders base, the internal defense system delivered a decisive blow to John Doe in front of him. Under the attack of these two laser beams, even if John Doe is not an ordinary person, there is no chance of him being alive after the laser beams created two large holes in his chest.

However, the next scene made Jerry, who was hiding behind the defense, widen his eyes again, and the baseball bat in his hand fell to the ground again.

Bam! ~~

“You, you... how is this possible?!” His voice faltered again as Jerry looked at John Doe who should have fallen in front of him and cried out in shock.

In front of Jerry’s eyes, John Doe, who had two large holes in his chest, took only two steps back, then regained his footing. It seemed that he did not understand what had happened, and his brows were tightly knit together.

Chi Chi~

Then, Jerry saw an even more shocking scene. There was a slightly creepy sound coming from the two see-through holes in John Doe’s chest, and then Jerry saw that the holes were shrinking rapidly, and finally disappeared.

In just a few seconds, John Doe’s internal organs, bones, and flesh that were penetrated by laser beams were recovered and it looked as if nothing had happened.

“You are really a Mutant!” Seeing John Doe’s regeneration ability, Jerry has almost confirmed the identity of the person in front of him, at least he knows what group he belongs to.

Of course, John Doe’s ability is already comparable to Deadpool’s recovery speed and that was what shocked Jerry the most. Even Deadpool would fall to the ground and scream a few times under such a powerful attack, although that may have something to do with Deadpool’s character.

(John Doe and Jane Doe are multiple-use placeholder names that are used when the true name of a person is unknown or is being intentionally concealed.)

Chapter 824: You Are...?

John Doe, who Deadpool bought back from a ruined battlefield when Magneto fought against Stryker, is not from the X-Men, the SHIELD, and the Brotherhood of Mutants.

So, there are only two possibilities for John Doe’s identity. One is that he’s one of the lucky survivors of Stryker’s secret base. He might be a transformed Mutant, or he might be an ordinary person, but the odds are against him.

Or, he could have been part of a military support team that lost him when they pulled back. After all, the military definitely didn’t hold back at that time and they released many people who could transform.

Now that John Doe has recovered as well as Deadpool after being attacked by laser beams, it is almost certain that he is a Mutant, and that he is a product of Stryker’s Mutant experimental program.

Hu~

As Jerry shouted those words in surprise, John Doe, who had recovered from the fatal wound in his chest, looked away from the weapon that had attacked him. Then he took another step forward.

“Humph! Even if you have the same ability as Deadpool, you would become nothing under the attack of the base defense system!” Seeing John Doe approaching him, Jerry said in a serious tone.

“Sky’s Eye, a high-intensity energy reaction was detected in the body of the danger source. The energy level has reached level three. Do you want to continue the attack?” Just when Jerry was about to continue to let the base’s defense system take action, the system suddenly reminded him.

“Level 3?! That kind of power could destroy the base!” Hearing the system’s reminder, Jerry let out a low voice.

If the League of Defenders’ base was attacked from the outside, the third-level energy shock would not shake the base. But now John Doe is inside the base, and right in front of Jerry, if he unleashes an energy attack that exceeds level three then Jerry and the base won’t remain unscathed.

“Hey! Hey, hey! That... calm down! Calm down! I have something to say!” So, after thinking for a while, Jerry hurriedly spread his hands and shouted to John Doe.

As he tries to talk with John Doe, Jerry secretly tells the system to beef up its defenses. If John Doe does go all crazy then at least they can minimize the damage.

While Jerry was yelling and gesturing, John Doe seemed to be recovering from his initial state of unconsciousness. After hearing Jerry’s words, John Doe looked up at him and his eyes became clearer.

“Who are you...?” Staring at Jerry for two seconds, John Doe asked in a hoarse voice.

“Uh... I’m... You can call me Sky’s Eye. Don’t get nervous, it was just a misunderstanding!” Jerry finally heard John Doe speak, and replied quickly to stabilize the current situation.

“Sky’s Eye?... Then who am I?” Not caring about the misunderstanding that Jerry had spoken about, John Doe asked a strange question after repeating Jerry’s nickname.

“Uh... Who are you? Isn’t that what I should ask you?” Jerry muttered softly after hearing the strange question from John Doe.

“Who am I? Where is this place? What are these things?!” Without hearing Jerry’s whisper, John Doe asked three questions in a row after scanning the situation at the League of Defenders base.

Jerry: “...”

“Sky’s Eye, the threat energy level has been lowered, do you want to continue the final blow?” Just when Jerry was feeling a little weirded out by John Doe’s continuous questions, the voice of the internal system of the base sounded in his ear.

Because John Doe is already awake, the internal system will not say anything through the base speakers.

“Has the energy decreased?” Hearing the system’s reminder, Jerry, who wanted to continue chatting with John Doe stopped. He thought it would be better to take this opportunity to eliminate this threat.

“Attack!” So, after a little hesitation, Jerry still gave the order.

Swoosh! Shoo, Shoo, Shoo!

The moment Jerry gave the order, five consecutive laser beams were aimed at John Doe. However, at the same time as the laser beams were fired, a silver glint appeared in John Doe’s increasingly agitated eye.

Bang!

In the next moment, John Doe disappears into thin air, and the five laser beams pierce the ground where he was, shooting five holes deep into the solid ground.

Pū!

Just when Jerry’s eyes widened and he didn’t know what strange incident had happened, a figure appeared in front of him out of thin air, it was the anonymous person who just disappeared! Originally protected by the base defense system, Jerry had already withdrawn to a distance of five or six meters away from Anonymous.

As Jerry stared, wondering what was going on, a figure appeared out of thin air in front of him. It was John Doe who had just disappeared! Protected by the base defense system. Originally, Jerry had already withdrawn to a distance of five or six meters away from John Doe.

But now, John Doe cuts right through Jerry’s front internal defense system and appears within 20 centimeters of Jerry, almost in his face.

“You, you!... What are you doing?!” Jerry, who had just ordered the attack, was afraid that the guy in front of him would hurt him.

Judging by the fact that John Doe just disappeared and reappeared out of thin air, it would be prudent to assume that he has more than one mutant ability. Therefore, in addition to the abnormal Recovery ability, he also can teleport.

Well, it wouldn’t be a stretch to say that he has one more or maybe more than one mutant ability. After all, the base’s internal systems just alerted Jerry to a level 3 energy surge in John Doe.

“Who the hell am I?! Where is this place?!” Instead of hitting Jerry, John Doe gets closer and shouts.

John Doe doesn’t seem to be in a delirious state, it’s more like... amnesia!

“Sky’s Eye, it has detected that the threat target’s brain waves are moving violently, and the energy in the body is rising. If you don’t plan to continue attacking, please comfort him. Just a reminder, he may have amnesia now.” Just when Jerry looked confused, the voice of the base system rang in his ears again.

The threat has not been eliminated after two attacks, and the internal system of the base has also raised the threat level of John Doe by one level.

“Uh...that, your name is Jeremy, you are my brother! This is where I work!” Hearing the system’s reminder, Jerry, who had almost peed his pants, had a flash of inspiration and quickly replied.

Hoo!

Hearing Jerry's answer, John Doe seemed surprised, but he still took a step back.

"Jeremy? Is my name Jeremy? Are you my brother?" John Doe who took a step back repeated the name that Jerry casually spoke and his eyes kept blinking but he couldn't remember anything.

"You said your name was Sky's Eye just now, how did you become my brother now?" John Doe found no memories of what Jerry had said but he still what Jerry said just now.

Chapter 825: Bifrost

Hearing John Doe's question back, Jerry was shocked. He didn't expect John Doe to respond so quickly.

"My real name is Jerry, and my nickname is Sky's Eye. We usually talk to each other using our nicknames but I don't know what happened to you, so I called myself Sky's Eye." However, Jerry could judge that the person in front of him has lost his memory so Jerry continues to deceive him.

"Jerry? Jeremy? Who would give two brothers such names?" John Doe asked suspiciously hearing Jerry's answer. However, his mood has gradually calmed down now.

"Your name is Jeremy! I am your brother! Otherwise, why would you wake up here with me standing in front of you!" Seeing that John Doe seemed to believe his words, Jerry chased after the victory.

"You're right, I just woke up. But what did I wake up from?" Hearing this, John Doe looked at himself and muttered softly.

"You were involved in a big fight and were injured by the enemy, I brought you here to rest and recover. I thought you'd be all right when you woke up, but you don't remember anything, Believe me, I am your brother." Jerry, who is getting more and more involved in the drama, is possessed by the drama essence at this time, while secretly asking the system to remove the weapons while he emotionally speaks to John Doe standing in front of him.

"Really?"

"Yes!" Staring earnestly into John Doe's eyes, Jerry has completely regarded himself as the brother of the terrifying Mutant in front of him.

"Okay...I believe you...Brother..."

...

On the top floor of the Stark Industries Building in downtown New York, Lin Rui has explained to Thor what Jane is suffering from. To get Asgard to act, Lin Rui can only expose the existence of Aether.

"Would Heimdall turn on Bifrost to take me and Jane back to Asgard?" Standing on the terrace outside the top of the Stark Industry Building, Thor looks at Lin Rui standing beside him and asked with an uncertain expression on his face.

At this point, Thor was standing on the tarmac where the helicopter was supposed to land, holding the unconscious Jane. Beside him, Lin Rui was in a wheelchair, and Tony was behind him.

A little further away, Pepper and Iceman, who had come from the lounge below, were also standing there watching. Spiderman, who was not fully recovered, came up with Harry's help.

"If my judgment is correct. However, you can only bet on this time." Lin Rui answered Thor's question earnestly.

Lin Rui is also gambling. As the guardian of the Bifrost Bridge, and as its gatekeeper, Heimdall must know about the Aether. So, if Thor says something about the Aether then it shouldn't be a problem for Heimdall to turn on Bifrost and take them back.

This time, to save Jane, Lin Rui will use his power to get the plot back on track for the first time. However, Lin Rui is not sure what will happen even if Thor takes Jane back to Asgard, given that the plot has changed too much.

At least, the current Thor has not fully awakened his power. The plot of Thor is still supposed to be in Thor I, but it looks like it's going straight to Thor II. Lin Rui is now very worried about how much of a role can Thor play without his full strength.

"Then... I'll bet this time!" Thor had no other choice, he wanted to save Jane.

After finishing this sentence, Thor suddenly raises his head and looks at the relatively clear sky of New York with Jane Foster in his arms. His eyes seemed to penetrate thousands of miles into the sky as he spoke.

"Heimdall! Open the Bifrost! The Aether is on the woman in my arms!" The next moment, Thor's loud voice sounded from the roof of the building.

If it weren't for this being on the top floor of the Stark Industry Building, Thor would be considered a lunatic for yelling like that in downtown New York. However, in the eyes of Iceman and others who have not yet been explained, this scene is still strange enough.

And Lin Rui and Tony kept raising their heads and staring at the top of Thor's head after Thor shouted that sentence as only two of them knew what Thor was doing. However, their raised necks were a little sore, and there was still no movement in the sky above their heads, not even a cloud floated over.

Huh~

After waiting for some time, Thor lowered his head in disappointment. It's not that he doesn't believe Lin Rui's judgment, he's just disappointed with Heimdall or himself. In Thor's opinion, Heimdall was reluctant to open Bifrost, perhaps because of his reasons.

"It's here!" However, just as Thor lowered his head, Lin Rui's excited voice came into his ears.

Boom!

Then, the sky in the center of New York, which had been clear, suddenly gathered thick clouds from all directions. In a matter of seconds, the sky over New York was covered with black clouds.

...

"Damn! What's going on?!"

“Why is it suddenly dark! The weather forecast didn’t say there will be heavy rain today!”

“What weird weather!”

People living in the city looked up in surprise when the change happened in the sky of New York. Even a storm or even a typhoon couldn’t have traveled that fast. At this moment, all kinds of aircraft flying smoothly in the sky of New York were stopped and quickly moved away from the location of the center of New York.

In the middle of a seemingly ordinary street in New York, there is a very primitive building. When the sky changes, a mysterious wave of magic comes out of the building. Needless to say, this is the New York Sanctum.

Buzz~

“Asgard’s Bifrost? Landing right in the middle of New York? ! What the hell is going on?!” Rick muttered to himself as he waved his hands in front of him with a frown on his face.

“Whatever’s going on, we’d better go and have a look. That’s not something Asgard has done in a long time.” David had already started moving his hand to create a portal while Rick muttered to himself.

“Okay, let’s go take a look.”

Boom!

“It worked!” Thor exclaimed excitedly as he stared up at the thick clouds swirling in the sky.

“Thor, be careful when you return to Asgard, your strength has not yet recovered. Speak to your father, if you can.” The Bifrost was about to come so Lin Rui reminded the excited Thor.

“Got it!”

Boom!

The moment Thor agreed, a huge rainbow-colored beam pierced through the thick clouds and shot down, targeting the top platform of the Stark Industries building.

Chapter 826: Expand

Boom!

It was a magical sight for most of the people looking up at the strange weather in downtown New York as lightning flashed and a rainbow beam broke through the darkness and hit the ground.

“Damn it! What is that? Are aliens attacking the earth? It’s like something out of a sci-fi disaster movie!” This is the exclamation of sci-fi fans.

“Oh! My God! Colorful beams of light! It must be a miracle! Oh! God bless!” This is the prayer of the believers of God!

“A huge beam of light is falling from the sky! This must be a secret military experiment! Protest! We want to protest against the army’s dangerous experiment!” This is the roar of the anti-war and anti-weapons people.

Ka Ka Ka!

“Just take lots of pictures! The heat in New York has dropped off quite a bit lately, and this rainbow beam should be enough to spark it again!” This is what the street photographer thought when he clicked the shutter.

As the rest of the people in downtown New York watched, the rainbow shot straight into the Stark Industries Building in the heart of New York City. As everyone gasped, the rainbow beam hit the Stark Industries Building.

“The aliens have attacked Iron Man! We are going to rise up and resist!!”

“God... descended on Stark...”

“The military finally took action against Stark! This is a conspiracy! A naked conspiracy!”

“Big news! Big news!”

...

Despite the bizarre assumptions of those who see Bifrost elsewhere in downtown New York, at the top of the Stark Industries Building, Bifrost has landed exactly on the tarmac, just in time to wrap Thor, who is carrying Jane Foster, inside.

Whoohoo!

The Bifrost with a diameter of about five meters enveloped Thor and Jane. At the edge of the Bifrost energy beam, Lin Rui, who was in a wheelchair, had his hair blown and his eyes narrowed.

“Sure enough, he didn’t disappoint me!” Lin Rui relaxed a little as he watched the figures of Thor and Jane slowly disappear from Bifrost.

Regardless of whether Thor can successfully recover his powers in Asgard or not, at least Asgard will pay attention to the re-emergence of the Aether.

Moreover, Lin Rui had already told Thor what he knew about the possible surprise attack of the Dark Elves on the Asgard Palace. If Odin is still sane then Malekith shouldn’t have a chance.

“What a powerful energy! And the control is so precise! Such powerful energy is enough to penetrate the entire Stark Industries building, and even penetrate several kilometers underground and deep into the earth’s crust! However, it was perfectly controlled in this area! This technology ...” Unlike Lin Rui’s focus, Tony, who was standing behind him, has been shocked from a scientific point of view since Bifrost appeared.

“Wow!!~ So... that guy Thor is really an alien!”

“It seems to be true... otherwise ~ What the hell is this thing?!”

Behind Tony, Peter and Harry were also shocked by the sight of Bifrost.

As for Iceman and Pepper, at this time, apart from widening their mouths and eyes, they didn't know what to say.

Buzzing~

The Bifrost was about to disappear just as Thor and Jane's figure had all but disappeared. However, just when Bifrost was about to disappear, a faint wave of spatial energy suddenly came from Lin Rui.

"Not good!" Lin Rui nervously spoke in his heart as he felt the spatial energy fluctuations emerging from his body.

Because this space energy fluctuation comes from the Magic Cube in Lin Rui's portable space. No one knows why but the Magic Cube has changed at this time, and the space fluctuations sent out also spread out of the portable space that Lin Rui thought was safe.

It should be known that the Magic Cube was originally in Asgard, but it fell into the earth for some reason many years ago. If Heimdall or Odin found out, they would definitely take the Magic Cube back to Asgard. And Lin Rui still wants to use Magic Cube to make some progress for humankind and that was the reason why he is so nervous.

Whoosh!

As Lin Rui nervously watched Bifrost waiting for it to disappear, it did not immediately disappear after transporting Thor and Jane. Instead, it seemed to feel something. The energy of the rainbow beam increased again, and the Bifrost which was originally five meters in diameter suddenly began to expand.

"Shit! They found it!" Lin Rui's heart skipped a beat when he saw the scene in front of him.

"Tony!..."

Brush!

Just when Lin Rui opened his mouth to tell Tony to quickly pull him back, the enlarged Bifrost had already enveloped him. The next moment, Lin Rui's figure disappeared instantly from Bifrost.

Boom!

After Lin Rui was teleported by Bifrost, the Bifrost, which had just expanded in front of Tony, retracted directly into the sky with a roar.

Tony: "..."

Tony's eyes twitched several times at the sight of Bifrost, which had just disappeared, clutching the handle of the empty wheelchair.

Just now, the sudden expansion of the Bifrost which covered Lin Rui looked like an accident but it wasn't as it only took away Lin Rui. And when Lin Rui called him before being enveloped by the Bifrost, he obviously didn't want to be taken away.

Huhu~

The Bifrost took Thor, Jane, and Lin Rui with it and they left the earth. The dark clouds that had just gathered had quickly dissipated after Bifrost disappeared, and the faint sunlight that had been blocked out began to fall again.

With the warm light on their faces, those who stood outside the top platform of the Stark Industries Building were stunned.

“Jackson’s gone too!” Harry said absently a few seconds later as he stared at the empty wheelchair in front of Tony.

Although Bifrost had shrouded Lin Rui’s wheelchair just now, it only teleported away Lin Rui, and the wheelchair that Tony was holding didn’t move.

Brush!

After Harry spoke, Iceman, who was standing in the back, rushed to the front.

“What’s going on? Do you plan for this?” Iceman looked at Tony and asked in surprise, looking at the special magic mark engraved on the ground by Bifrost energy.

“I don’t know either.” Tony released his grip on the wheelchair and replied calmly as he looked at Iceman in front of him.

However, Iceman noticed that Tony had left a pair of very distinct handprints on the handlebars where he was holding the wheelchair.

“Then what do we do now? Uh... did Jackson say what to do if this happens?” Iceman asked as he looked at Tony.

“No.”

Chapter 827: Accidental Transmission

Faced with Iceman’s question, Tony’s tone was calm. Lin Rui was still injured, how could he have thought that he would be teleported to Asgard by Bifrost. Although Lin Rui also wanted to go to Asgard, he didn’t plan to go at this time.

Therefore, Tony was as unprepared for the present situation as Harry and others behind him.

Huhu~

“Mr. Stark! The tracks are disappearing! ‘ Just as Tony was looking up at the nearly dark sky, Peter, who had been pushed ahead by Harry, called out.

Following Peter’s voice, Tony and the others noticed the location where Bifrost had just descended, and the marks created were quickly disappearing.

“JARVIS, have you recorded everything?” Tony asked indifferently as he was not as anxious as Peter and the others.

“Sir, I’ve been here the whole time, and I’ve recorded everything that happened just now.” After Tony spoke, JARVIS’s voice quickly came out.

“Okay, then let it go, it can’t be stopped anyway,” Tony said indifferently.

Instead of researching these insignificant things, he need to think about why Bifrost suddenly expanded and teleported Lin Rui away. After all, SHIELD had recorded the marking left behind by Bifrost when he was in New Mexico before but no progress has been made.

Huhu~

In this way, the engraving on the ground has completely disappeared after some time while Tony and the others have not completely recovered from what happened just now.

Buzz!

However, just as those markings disappeared, a golden circle of light suddenly appeared on the top platform of the Stark Industries building where Tony and the others were. This golden halo was particularly conspicuous even in the broad daylight, attracting Tony and the other’s attention.

When they saw the golden circle of light, except for Rogue and Wolverine, who showed surprised expressions on their faces, everyone else knew what this golden circle represented.

Huhu~

After the golden aperture was fully formed, David and Rick came out of it. They were attracted by the Bifrost’s arrival, but they came late as Bifrost had already disappeared, and took Lin Rui with it.

“Mr. Stark...” Stepping out of the magical Portal, Rick saw Tony in front of him and greeted him with an embarrassed expression on his face.

The last time Rick and Tony met was less pleasant, as Rick and David served as test subjects for Tony for over an hour to get information about Mirage Knight and they almost used up their magical energy before Tony released them. So, seeing Tony Stark again, Rick and David still have some dark spots on their mind.

“Rick! David!” In contrast to Rick’s somewhat awkward greeting, Tony’s eyes light up when he saw them and he steps forward with some excitement on his face.

Lin Rui didn’t tell Tony how to establish contact with the Asgard before he was accidentally transported away. However, after seeing Rick and David, Tony suddenly remembers something. When Lin Rui and Deadpool were accidentally transported to another planet, it was the Sorcerer Supreme from Earth who rescued them, and they returned using the Bifrost from Asgard.

Therefore, the Earth Sorcerers must be connected to the Asgard in some way. In this case, to find out why Bifrost took Lin Rui away, or to return Lin Rui to Earth, Tony must receive help from the Sorcerers of Earth.

“Uh... What just happened here? Did a Bifrost land here?” Somewhat surprised by Tony’s enthusiasm, Rick froze for a moment and then asked.

“Bifrost is a rainbow-colored beam of light that must have rushed down from the clouds just now. We noticed that it is located here in the Stark Industry Building.” He was also worried that Tony didn’t understand what Bifrost was so Rick continued to explain.

The light in Tony's eyes brightened when he heard Rick. He was right, the Sorcerers of Earth knew about Asgard, so they must have some way to contact them. Unexpectedly, Earth has been in contact with extraterrestrial civilizations for so many years that it's no wonder Jackson has an alien-like Thor around him. That's what Tony was thinking.

"That's right! Bifrost just came here!" Tony replied quickly without hesitation.

"Someone... uh, did anything show up? I don't think so, judging by the look of this place." Rick asked again after hearing Tony's answer.

"No one came out of Bifrost, but it took a few people with it," Tony said straightforwardly, knowing what Rick meant.

"How many men?" Hearing Tony's words, Rick and David look at each other and both see the surprise in their eyes.

There is indeed an Asgardian on earth, and the identity of that person is not simple, but there is only one. Even if Asgard wanted to take back their prince, who had been exiled by King Odin, the Bifrost would not take away a few people.

"Is there anyone named Thor among those people?" So, David quickly asked.

"That's right! Besides Thor, her sick girlfriend Jane Foster, and..."

Rick, David: "..."

This is the first time they have encountered such a situation. It is normal for Thor to be taken back to Asgard by Bifrost, and it is less trouble for the Sorcerers of Earth. However, the fact that his girlfriend is taken away by Bifrost is not right. Even if Jane Foster is Thor's girlfriend, Asgard is not a public place where anyone can enter whenever they want.

Of course, if Jane Foster was taken as an exception because of her relationship with Thor, what about Mirage Knight? Why was he taken away again? Rick and David were stunned by the information they received.

"Rick, David, can you contact Asgard? Ask them to send Mirage Knight back, he's still injured and we're all worried about him." Seeing the confused expression on Rick and David's faces, Tony continued to ask.

"This... we need to ask for instructions. However, if Bifrost took the initiative to teleport Mirage Knight away, then there must be something that needs him." Hearing Tony's words, Rick said a little embarrassedly.

Chapter 828: Review and Discovery

Ten minutes later, Tony and others were in the living room. Although the arrival of Bifrost caused a lot of panic, it was easy to solve, and Tony had more important things to do.

Buzz~

Sitting on the sofa, Tony and the others watched as David finished a set of uncomplicated magical handprints. Then, a golden light appeared out of nowhere from David's hands and rushed straight out, disappearing in a flash from Tony's luxurious living room.

"I have already sent the situation here to the Ancient One. I think he would have a solution." After the golden light disappeared, David looked at Tony and the others as he spoke.

"Can't you just make a call?..." Peter, who was sitting next to Tony, muttered softly when he heard David.

"Shh~~" Harry signaled Peter to not talk too much as he felt that the current situation was not something they should comment on.

"Thanks!" Tony is now a little more relaxed, at least, he is not feeling as helpless as he was at first.

"By the way, why did Bifrost suddenly come to take Thor and the others back. Based on what we know, it's probably not the right time." After passing the message to the Ancient One, Rick was very curious about the Bifrost's appearance.

"Actually... that was Mirage Knight's idea..." Hearing Rick's question, Tony slowly explained what Thor and the others had experienced before.

"So, to save Miss Jane Foster, Mirage Knight suggested that Thor summon Bifrost. Then, Bifrost appeared and it had disappeared just as you came." It took three minutes to explain why Bifrost appeared, and then Tony continued to look at the two sorcerers in front of him.

"That's..." Rick and David frowned after hearing Tony's explanation.

If Thor was seriously injured and unconscious then perhaps Asgard would send the Bifrost to take him back. However, Jane is just an ordinary human being. It's not that Rick and the others look down on Jane, but, even if she is Thor's girlfriend, Asgard wouldn't care about her.

"Thor had thought that Bifrost wouldn't appear, but Mirage Knight told him what to say," Tony added after seeing the puzzled expression on Rick and David's faces.

"JARVIS, show me what happened at the time." Tony didn't intend to explain it himself and asked JARVIS to show the video of Thor summoning the Bifrost at that time.

Brush!

"Okay, sir." JARVIS projected a light blue screen in the luxurious living room after hearing Tony's order.

After the light curtain appeared, everyone present turned their attention toward it. Although Iceman and the others also watched Bifrost appear with their own eyes, the shock just now was not over. Now, they have a chance to take a closer look at what happened in the video.

"Let's start," Tony said with a wave of his hand when everyone looked up at the light curtain.

Then, the picture on the light curtain began to change. The top platform where no one appeared first, and then everyone's figures appeared in the shot one by one. Because JARVIS controls so many cameras, everyone can see each other's faces from all directions.

Thor, who was walking in the front with Jane in his arms had obvious hesitation on his face, while Tony, who was walking behind and pushing Lin Rui, was calm. As for Iceman and others at the back, they were puzzled. They didn't know what the people in front were going to do.

Although the current picture was not important, the people present here did not do anything and quietly waited. Soon, Thor was standing at the center of the platform with Jane in his arms. He stood there holding Jane and said a few words to Lin Rui. The next thing was crucial and everyone was staring at the light curtain seriously.

"...The Aether is in this woman in my arms!" While everyone was watching intently, Thor lifted his head and shouted.

Then, just as Thor bowed his head in disappointment, countless dark clouds suddenly gathered in the sky, which was a sign that Bifrost was about to come. After that, Bifrost, which shocked countless people in New York, came and enveloped Thor and Jane Foster.

Rumble!

The sound system in the luxurious living room is very good, and the roar of the arrival of Bifrost is very clear to Tony and others.

"It's now!" Tony suddenly said as the figures of Thor and Jane in Bifrost had gradually disappeared.

"Tony!..." Then, everyone heard Lin Rui in the light curtain suddenly shout out to Tony in surprise.

Hum!

Boom!

In the next moment, the Bifrost, which had already teleported Thor and Jane, suddenly expanded its range, and just shrouded Lin Rui, who was sitting in front of Tony. After shrouding Lin Rui in, the Bifrost withdrew from the top platform of the Stark Industries building in an instant.

Boom!

Then the light screen continued for another two minutes but there was nothing left to see for the next two minutes.

Brush!

The light curtain was retracted and everyone looked at each other. Through the multi-angle playback, everyone now knows what happened when the Bifrost appeared.

"Looking at this... it seems that Bifrost didn't plan to take Mirage Knight away in the first place," Rick said with a twinkle in his eyes after the light curtain disappeared.

"That's right. Mirage Knight realized that the Bifrost was about to expand and he called out to me. If I had just reacted a little faster and pulled him back then maybe..." Tony continued to speak after hearing Rick's words. Hearing the regret in Tony's words, it was obvious that he blamed himself.

"Mr. Stark, it would have been useless even if I had reacted on time, Bifrost was taking Mirage Knight away on purpose." David shook his head when he heard Tony's words.

“That’s all I see in the video, nothing else than what Mirage Knight himself seems to have discovered ahead of time.” Tony wasn’t relieved after hearing what David said and continued.

“Sir there are some other discoveries.” Just as Tony finished speaking, JARVIS’ voice suddenly came out.

“Huh? What did you find?”

Chapter 829: I believe that he will come back

Tony and the others had very confused looks on their faces when they heard JARVIS’s words. Then Tony spoke again.

“JARVIS, just tell me what you found,” Tony spoke directly with no intention of letting JARVIS hide anything.

Brush!

After Tony finished speaking, the light curtain that had just been withdrawn was projected onto the luxurious living room again. This time, however, instead of those videos, the screen displays a piece of data.

“This is!... Space energy fluctuations?” Tony asks in surprise after seeing the data on the screen.

“Yes, sir. Before the sudden expansion of Bifrost, a small wave of spatial energy suddenly appeared on Mirage Knight. I think it should be the energy of the Magic Cube.” After Tony spoke, JARVIS then confirmed his guess.

“Magic Cube?! So someone at Asgard sensed the Magic Cube on Mirage Knight through Bifrost and suddenly enlarged the Bifrost to teleport him away?” Hearing this, Rick has finally figured out why Mirage Knight was teleported away.

Then, Rick and David looked at each other again, and they had confirmed each other’s conjectures. If the Magic Cube is really on Mirage Knight then it would be pretty normal for him to be taken away by Asgard.

“Rick, what the hell is going on? Why did the people on Asgard take him away when they knew that the Magic Cube was on Mirage Knight?” Tony asked anxiously after seeing the expressions on Rick’s face.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Stark. If it’s because of the Magic Cube, then Mr. Mirage Knight’s life will not be in any danger. Asgard would probably just want the Magic Cube, just like the Aether.” Rick replied with a smile.

“Want the Magic Cube, like the Aether?” Tony was still puzzled after hearing Rick’s answer.

Lin Rui had explained about the Magic Cube and the six Infinity Stones before but he didn’t say where they have come from and why they were on earth because the six Infinity Stones were not owned by any one person. So, Tony didn’t know that the Magic Cube, the Space Gem originally belonged and was guarded by Asgard.

“We can’t explain this as long as we’re sure that Mirage Knight is going to be okay,” David spoke as he did not plan to explain anything.

"How can you be so sure? Besides, we were the ones who found the Magic Cube so why did Asgard take away Mirage Knight with it?" Tony asked as he was very dissatisfied with David's indifferent attitude.

"Well, maybe Mirage Knight would be able to explain this to you when he comes back. Now that we know the reason why Bifrost appeared in downtown New York, it's time for us to go back. The Sanctum still needs someone to guard it." Rick said awkwardly after seeing Tony's aggressive look. Then, they both got ready to leave.

Huh~

Rick and David were already getting up from the couch in front of Tony's disapproving look. Then, they have already begun to outline the magic Portal.

Huhu~

"We will call you if we get any information from the Ancient One." The Magic Portal appeared and Rick glanced at Spiderman in the corner and said. No one stopped the two of them from leaving, and after saying those last words, Rick and David left.

After Rick and David left, the lavish living room fell into silence again, with everyone minding their own business. After a while, Tony, still the host, made the first move.

Clap Clap~

Standing up from the sofa, Tony clapped his palms lightly, "We have worked hard today. I hope you can keep quiet about Mirage Knight. You heard what the two sorcerers said, Mirage Knight will always come back."

"Don't worry Mr. Stark, we also hope that Mirage Knight can return safely as soon as possible," Iceman replied after hearing Tony's words.

Although Iceman has yet to fully accept and understand everything he had seen today, he can still make a statement on behalf of X-Men in this regard.

"Thank you, Robert. As for the matter of you guys coming here to rescue Mirage Knight, I will pay you what I promised. As for what Miss Anna wants, I think it will probably have to wait until Mirage Knight returns." Tony smiled as he spoke to Iceman.

"Mr. Stark, do we have no other choice than to wait for some kind of news?" Peter asked with a worried expression on his face.

"We can do nothing but wait at this point. And even without Mirage Knight, we still have a lot of work to do. At the very least, we're going to have to sort out some of the problems while Mirage Knight is gone." Tony answered Peter seriously.

"Okay!"

"Then, if there is nothing else, you may go home. I'll talk to Professor Charles personally about the Magic Cube." Then, Tony has already started to give his goodbyes.

"Okay, Mr. Stark." With a yes, Iceman and the X-Men were already standing up to leave.

However, before leaving, Iceman still said one more sentence, "I believe in Mirage Knight, please believe in him too!"

"Don't worry, of course, I believe in him."

Then Iceman left with Rogue and Logan. In addition to bringing Rogue in to help Mirage Knight, the X-Men also want to keep Rogue and Logan around again. After all, now that the X-Men have decided to come out into the open, they need strong, reliable teammates. And Rogue and Wolverine are certainly very reliable teammates, so the X-Men bought them here with the intention for them to join the X-Men again.

After Iceman and his crew left, Tony, Pepper, and Peter were the only ones left in this plush office at the top of the Stark Industry Building. Deadpool is still asleep on the couch, his drained powers still not fully recovered.

"Harry, you and Peter should also go back. Jackson will be fine. If he doesn't come back then I will think about how to reach him even if I have to rush into Asgard." Tony said in a soothing tone as he looked at the two people in front of him.

"Mr. Stark, do you believe that Jackson will come back on his own?"

"Not only do I believe he will come back, but I also believe he will come back with the Magic Cube!"

Chapter 830: Negotiation

Earth, on a snowy mountain in the Himalayas, in the home of the sorcerers of the Earth. A golden light appeared out of nowhere from the sky and then rushed into the courtyard below which was located on the platform halfway up the snowy mountain. This courtyard is also the residence of the Ancient One.

Buzz!

The Ancient One walked into the courtyard patio and casually stretched out his hand when the golden light rushed in, and then the golden light disappeared into his palm. Then, the Ancient One frowned slightly.

"This kid, he was just rescued from the brink of death, why did Bifrost take him to Asgard again?" The Ancient One whispered to himself after receiving the message from New York.

Ancient One has been paying attention to Lin Rui, who does not belong to the Marvel World. However, he doesn't intend to get too involved in Lin Rui's affairs. He just wants to stand behind the scenes and see what this kid can do.

However, as Lin Rui becomes stronger and stronger, his team and Allies become more and more powerful, everything he encounters becomes more and more difficult, and the Ancient One had to get involved.

Whew!

Just when Ancient One was still confused because there was not much news about other situations, another golden light rushed in. After catching this golden light, Ancient One received more news about Mirage Knight being taken away by Bifrost.

“So it’s like this... It seems that Asgard wants to recover the Space Gem... However, since Odin put it on the earth at the beginning, and now it was obtained by that kid, isn’t it a bit unreasonable to take it back?” The corner of Ancient One’s mouth, who already knew that Lin Rui was taken away by Bifrost because the Magic Cube was discovered, twitched slightly as he silently muttered to himself.

“It’s fine if you acquire the Aether, but the Magic Cube should be left to Earth. After all, that kid’s plan needs the support of that thing.” The Ancient One slowly walked into the room as he continue to talk to himself.

Buzz~

Just when Ancient One was walking towards the room, his footsteps suddenly stopped and he looked up to the sky slightly, as if there was something worth his attention up there.

“Odin, you are already old and you aren’t as strong as before. What’s the use of guarding so many Infinity Stones on Asgard? It will bring disaster to you and Asgard, so let the Earth share some of the burdens. “Looking up at the clear sky above the snow-capped mountain, Ancient One said as if he was talking with someone.

After saying these two sentences, Ancient One paused, as if listening to something. However, during the silence, the look in Ancient One’s eyes changed.

“Huh? You don’t trust those young people? Hehe... I don’t trust your two unreliable sons?” After a while, Ancient One chuckled and continue to speak.

“Insufficient strength? That’s no reason. Your two sons’ abilities are nothing in my eyes, though Thor is slowly awakening his true powers a little.”

“If you don’t bring the boy back, I’ll go and get him myself. Anyway, he might bring you a very important piece of news so treat him well or it might become too late for regret.”

“I’ve said all I need to say, and you needn’t ask me any more questions. Let’s meet and talk when we have the chance. Aren’t you tired of talking like this?” Finally, Ancient One seemed to be dissatisfied and unilaterally cut off this mysterious dialogue.

“That Odin, he is still putting on airs when he is this old. Kid, I have paved the way for you, it’s up to you to seize the opportunity.” After cutting off the conversation with the mysterious man just now, Ancient One lowered his head and walked into the room while muttering to himself.

Washington, SHIELD headquarters building. Rogers, who has recovered has returned to normal work, and now he is on a video call with Tony.

“Is Mirage Knight all right?” Rogers, who had just connected with Tony, asked about Lin Rui’s situation. After all, Mirage Knight’s situation was very dangerous before.

The connection between Tony and Rogers was suddenly disconnected unilaterally so something must have happened there. So, Rogers doesn’t know yet that Lin Rui has been rescued. As for the incident of Bifrost’s arrival, SHIELD only got the news and didn’t have time to report it to Rogers.

“Well, the plan to save Mirage Knight was perfect. He has just woken up. But... he is no longer on Earth, he was teleported away by Bifrost.” Tony didn’t plan to hide anything from Rogers as he spoke with a calm expression on his face.

“It’s good that he woke up... eh?! No! What did you just say? Mirage Knight is not on Earth?! He was teleported away by Bifrost, what the hell is that?!” Rogers looked normal when he heard that Mirage Knight had woken up, but he was unprepared for what Tony said afterward.

“Bifrost, a special phenomenon that once appeared in New Mexico. In fact, it is a method used by extraterrestrial civilizations for teleportation. And Mirage Knight was taken away a little over ten minutes ago by Bifrost, which descended on the roof of my building.” Tony knew that Rogers didn’t know the origin of Bifrost so he briefly introduced it in a few words.

Swipe!

“Wait Wait Wait... Just wait a minute!” Hearing Tony’s words, Rogers turned pale and did a quick search on the computer in front of him.

Soon, Rogers had searched inside the SHIELD for information about the last S-class event in New Mexico. After taking a closer look at the event, Rogers also understood what a Bifrost might be. Similarly, Rogers also remembered the flying hammer that was suppressed by the people he led before. Speaking of which, as one of SHIELD’s few S events, the hammer is as important as Magic Cube.

“So, the man named Thor is an alien. Has he been teleported away as well?” Rogers asked after learning the details of the last incident in New Mexico.

“Yes, according to our judgment, perhaps Mirage Knight was teleported away because of the Magic Cube on him. This time, the extraterrestrial civilization named Asgard might want to take the Magic Cube back.” Tony nodded and told the news he got from the earth’s sorcerers.

“So, can Mirage Knight come back safely?”

“I believe in him.”

“Then I believe him, too.”
