Chapter 841: In the Past!

Lin Rui and Heimdall both widened their eyes as the pale golden light curtain shattered. However, Lin Rui and Heimdall must have been shocked in different ways.

“This is impossible! How can an attack of this magnitude break the defense?!” Heimdall shouted in disbelief as he stared at the Palace.

“It seems like... the crack didn’t appear at the very center where it was attacked at first.” Lin Rui said in a serious tone after he had recovered from his shock, he had indeed seen the scene of the collapse of the defense just now.

“You mean... we have a traitor among us?!” Heimdall’s eyes flashed sharply when he heard Lin Rui’s words.

Lin Rui: “...”

If Loki was still on Asgard then Lin Rui would naturally think he was a traitor. But now Loki is not on Asgard. So, of course, it wouldn’t be Loki, and there should be no traitor.

“Maybe... it is also possible that the Dark Elfs sent someone to destroy your defense system when the golden light curtain concentrated all of its energy in the attack.” After thinking about it, Lin Rui analyzed it thoughtfully.

After all, this is not the first time that Asgard has been infiltrated by an enemy. Last time, Laufey also infiltrated Odin’s Treasure room, although he did it with Loki’s help. This time, the Dark Elfs have sent eight combat Spaceships on the surface so it is also possible that they may have sent other teams to sabotage Asgard’s defense.

“Rights! That should be it!” Heimdall nodded in agreement with Lin Rui’s analysis after hearing Lin Rui’s analysis.

Asgard Palace’s first layer of defense has been broken, and the unstoppable Dark Elf Spaceship continues to drive in.

“So, are you sending me there to help or sending me back to Earth?” “Lin Rui asked Heimdall again while looking at the Dark Elf Spaceships that had already rushed into the city.

“If you want to go there... then go!” Heimdall stopped arguing after hearing Lin Rui’s words, and after a loud shout, he stabbed the Bifrost Sword in his hand on the ground in front of Lin Rui.

Pū!

The sharp Sword was inserted directly into the Bifrost Bridge in front of Lin Rui’s face, and only half of the sword body remained outside.

“You!... Does this count as vandalism? ~” Just when Lin Rui was feeling puzzled by Heimdall’s actions, a colorful light suddenly rushed out from under Lin Rui’s feet and directly enveloped him.

Brush!

“Ahhh~~”

The next moment, the colored light that enveloped Lin Rui directly took him into a colored lightning bolt that rushed towards Asgard City along the Bifrost Bridge. Lin Rui's surprised shout came from inside as the colored rays of light advanced rapidly.

Pū Scoff!

“Kid, although I don't know why the King didn't let me take the Magic Cube from you by force. However, since you want to help, let's see if you have the ability to do so!” Heimdall, who had pulled out the Bifrost Sword from the Bifrost bridge, murmured as he looked at Lin Rui's figure rushing towards the Palace.

Then, Heimdall turned and walked towards the Guardian Hall. While he won't be fighting the Dark Elf invasion himself, he will use Bifrost's greatest strength to help Thor and the others.

Just when Lin Rui was suddenly sent to the palace by Heimdall, the Dark Elf Spaceship that broke through the defensive barrier had already crossed the large urban area and was about to reach the central palace. At the same time, Thor, who rushed out of the palace, has assembled the four warriors under his command.

Although the battles on the front line now need high-level warriors to support the scene, these four high-level warriors are Thor's team, and they will not follow Loki even if he promises them a world to rule. So, when they learned that Thor was back, the four warriors were very excited.

“I didn't expect you to come back to fight with us, Thor!” Standing beside Thor, Sif said with a smile on her face.

“Haha! The last time we went to Midgard to find you, you were an ordinary useless person! Have you recovered your divine power now?” After Sif spoke, the bearded man beside her laughed and joked.

In their opinion, since Thor has returned to Asgard, it is obvious that he has recovered his magic power. Otherwise, he would not have come out now to lead them against this unexpected invasion. But they were obviously wrong.

Thor was a little embarrassed after hearing the words of his friends. However, he didn't intend to hide the fact that he hadn't recovered his powers yet.

“Actually, I haven't fully recovered my powers yet,” Thor clenched his fists as he answered.

Sizzle~

Then, in the surprised expressions of Sif and others, a bolt of blue lightning flashed from Thor's fist. Thor's eyes widened after this lightning flash appeared. However, Thor's surprise and the Warrior Four's surprise were obviously different.

“Thor, you're not going to tell us... Is that all you have now?” Staring at the thunder light on Thor's fist, the bearded man asked after holding back for a long time.

“Haha!” However, while Sif and the others were feeling sorry for Thor, he suddenly laughed.

“Haha! My strength has increased a lot! Hahaha!” Thor clenched his fists and shouted with a loud laugh amid the speechless expressions of Sif and the others.

Hearing Thor’s words, the Warrior Four looked at each other a few times, and they were worried whether Thor had become stupid. Back then, his strength was a hundred times stronger than it is now, and they have never seen him this happy before.

The bearded men and the others, of course, couldn’t understand Thor’s mood at this time, it was the joy from the heart that he slowly awakened his divine power through his own efforts.

Sizzling!

“Ha ha! Now I have more confidence in the fight ahead!” Thor said in a serious tone after crushing the blue electric light in his hand.

“Although Thor is much weaker now than before, but... Don’t you think he seems so different now?” When Thor was immersed in the joy of awakening his power, Sif said with serious eyes to the bearded man beside her.

“Uh... is that so? I don’t see it!” Hearing Sif’s words, the bearded man said in a daze.

Sif: “...”

Brush!

“Stop wasting your time! Since they didn’t attack the city, it must mean that their target is the Palace. Therefore, we must stop them outside the gate!” Thor said without looking back to the Warriors Four as his eyes were watching the eight Spaceships approaching them.

“Asgard! Victory!”

“Victory! Victory! Victory!”

Chapter 842: Fight

Brush brush!

At Thor’s roar, Asgard’s soldiers rushed out like a tidal wave. The first to rush out of the Palace were hundreds of small combat aircraft, as well as heavy anti-air combat weapons similar to Tanks from the ground. In addition to being powerful in close combat, Asgard also has no shortage of powerful technological weapons.

Bang Bang Bang!

The Dark Elf Combat Spaceships, which had survived one round of attacks were finally held back by hundreds of small combat aircraft and ground attacks.

Except for the two obviously higher-level Spaceships in the front, which were still rushing towards the palace under fire, the other six Spaceships quickly lowered their heights, as if they were about to land.

Kakaka!

Sure enough, when the six Spaceships that were being held back lowered to more than ten meters above the ground, the bottom of the Spaceship quickly opened its multiple hatches. Then, small combat aircrafts belonging to Dark Elves burst out from the Spaceship cabin.

This was a landing force attack, the Dark Elves were actually going to use the battle power of these eight Spaceships and the troops they carried to break through Asgard!

Brush Brush!

Despite Asgard's best efforts, the Dark Elf's landing was successful, and the battlefield in front of Asgard Palace was soon filled with hundreds of Dark Elf combat aircraft. And under the cover of these combat aircraft, more and more Dark Elf soldiers are pouring out of the cabins.

"Kill! Rush into the palace!"

"Break Asgard!"

The landing Dark Elf warriors brandished various weapons and roared at the Asgard warriors who also rushed forward.

"Stop them!"

"Don't let them set foot in the palace!"

Facing Dark Elf's charge, Asgard's soldiers were even more imposing. No one would be able to bear being challenged on their doorsteps much less a race like Asgardians who were born to fight!

Soon, the Dark Elf warriors and the Asgard warriors converged like two rivers. However, the golden torrent representing Asgard is obviously much more powerful than the black torrent representing Dark Elf. After all, this is Asgard's home ground.

Bang Bang Bang!

The next moment, the Asgard warriors in golden armor and the Dark Elf warriors in black armor were already fighting each other. The battle had already reached a fever pitch from the very beginning, and both sides were in a desperate stance.

Brush Brush!

Bang!

The small combat aircraft on both sides shuttled through the air. All kinds of firepower were sprayed indiscriminately, and all kinds of aircraft from both sides were constantly being blown up and dropped from the air.

Pū Pū Pū!

The ground battle is being fought by Soldiers with sci-fi-looking guns and swords. From time to time, black and golden rays of light flash on the chaotic battlefield, which is the movement of the elite warriors of Asgard and Dark Elves.

Bang!

“Roar! Who else?!” A Dark Elf Elite warrior kicked an Asgardian Soldier in front of him before killing all the enemies surrounding him and roared with a long sword in his hand.

Although Asgard has a large number of fighters but the Dark Elf fighters who can follow the eight Spaceships to the Asgard Palace are obviously not ordinary fighters, and their individual strength can be worth the two Asgardian Soldiers.

Moreover, the Dark Elves have more elite warriors who seem to be at the level of the Malekith’s personal warrior. One must know that even Lin Rui, before he experienced this unexpected increase in strength, was just a little bit more powerful than these Dark Elf Elite fighters.

Therefore, these Dark Elf Elite fighters have almost no opponents on the battlefield. Even if the Asgardian soldiers use multiple people to besiege them, it will not be effective and they will instead fall into the trap created by the Dark Elves. To this end, Asgard has sacrificed a lot of warriors.

Brush!

When the Dark Elf Elite warrior was shouting arrogantly and no one was rushing towards him for a while, a shadow shot towards him from a distance.

Although this Dark Elf Elite Warrior roared arrogantly, he did not forget to pay attention to the surrounding situation. When the black shadow collided with him, his eyes flashed as he raised the long blade in his hand.

Cling~~~

The next moment, the shadow hit the long blade and a crisp sound accompanied by a shock wave spread out in all directions, shaking the surrounding warriors and pushing them away.

“Haha! What a snob! I will take that head of yours!” After the Dark Elf warrior had blocked the unexpected attack, a hearty laugh was heard behind the Asgardian team.

Then, the Asgardian Soldiers who had been surrounding the Dark Elf Elite fighter spontaneously spread out. At the back of the road, Volstagg, with a long bushy red beard, quickly strode towards him.

“Come here!” Volstagg shouted as he rushed out of the crowd.

Brush!

The next moment, the dark shadow that had been blocked by the Dark Elf Elite warrior quickly flew back under Volstagg’s call. When the shadow flew close, it became clear that it was a hammer with an exaggerated shape. Unlike Thor’s Mjolnir, Volstagg’s hammer is more combination between a mace and hammer, with sharp spikes sticking out of the face.

Shout!

Seizing the hammer as it flew back, Volstagg kicked off and jumped into the air, aiming at the tall Dark Elf Elite soldier not far ahead. Although Volstagg looks fat, he also possesses supernatural power, and he jumped directly to a height of more than ten meters.

“Bite on this!” When he flew to the top of the Dark Elf warrior’s head, Volstagg shouted with his hammer held high above his head and the next moment it was already falling down.

Whoosh!

The Dark Elf warrior standing on the ground looked a little more restrained as he looked at the bearded man falling on his head from above and he clenched the sword in his hand, and his legs were slightly separated. In the face of Volstagg’s attack, the Dark Elf Warrior is ready to take it head on!

Shout!

However, when Volstagg was falling at a high speed and the Dark Elf warrior below was waiting for him. A silver spear suddenly shot out from the Asgardian team with lightning speed, aiming at the Dark Elf warrior.

Pū!

The next moment, the Dark Elf, who had spent almost all his energy on the bearded guy above, only had time to tilt his head, and then the silver spear penetrated his chest. Then, Volstagg on top of his head just happened to smash him with his hammer.

Bang!

Chapter 843: Broken

After a loud bang, the Dark Elf Elite warrior who was standing in the center of the battlefield with his head held high just now was directly knocked down by the Volstagg’s hammer.

Bang!

Standing up from the fallen Dark Elf warrior with the hammer in his hand, Volstagg glanced at the lifeless enemy before him and looked back. On the side of the Asgardian team, the gallant Sif was striding up. It was clear that the long silver spear thrust into the chest of the Dark Elf Elite Warrior had been shot by Sif.

Da Da~

“This is a battlefield! Do you want to fight one on one?” Sif said in a serious tone as she walked between Volstagg and the fallen Dark Elf warrior.

“Hey... I could have taken him out pretty quickly even if it was one-on-one.” Volstagg explained embarrassedly after hearing Sif’s words.

Pū!

While Volstagg was explaining, Sif had stepped on the Dark Elf Elite soldier’s chest, and then pulled out her silver spear.

After Sif and Volstagg cooperated to kill the Dark Elf Elite Warrior with one blow, the Dark Elf team that had surrounded them, though nervous and ready to attack, did not dare to attack Sif and Volstagg.

“Let’s go, there are several high-level Dark Elf warriors in other places!” She glanced at the temporarily frightened Dark Elves in front of her as she spoke to Volstagg.

“Yeah! Let’s crush them!” Hearing Sif’s words, Volstagg laughed before he rushed towards the Dark Elf team ahead with his big hammer.

“Haha! Come and meet your makers!”

Crackle Crackle!

While the ground team and the low-altitude battlefield are all locked in a battle, Thor is still standing at the front of the palace, directing the battle from the Fortress balcony.

Because this was Asgard’s home turf, the battle began with Asgard’s golden guards holding the Dark Elf team back from the palace gates with absolute numerical superiority.

However, the two Spaceships, which obviously had a higher defense level, hardened themselves against the strikes of various air-to-air weapons and quickly rushed to the location of the palace.

“First team, second team! We have to stop those two Spaceships even if we have to fight for our lives!” Thor roared seeing that the two Spaceships in front of them were about to break through the last layer of defense.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!!

Under Thor’s order, dozens of small aircraft rushed out quickly and started desperately intercepting the two Spaceships. Even if it was by ramming, they still had to stop them! At the same time, the war Fortress on the ground also turned on the maximum firepower, each attack made sure to punch a hole in those two Spaceships.

Bang Bang Bang!

Under Asgard’s desperate interception, the two Spaceships finally couldn’t hold on. The external black decks had long been scarred, and a burst of fire was coming from the holes blasted out by the cannons.

The most critical thing was that their electrical system was destroyed, and the two Spaceships, which were flying in mid-air, fell straight down after shaking a little.

Boom!

“Shit! Suicide attack?!” Thor, who was originally happy that the two Spaceships were destroyed, couldn’t help but curse after seeing the direction they fell in because the direction they fell was exactly where Thor was.

“Get out of the way!” Thor shouted as he dashed to the edge of the balcony.

Whoosh!

Thor just dashed to the very edge of the balcony when one of the Spaceships was already ramming over. Feeling the shadow over his head, Thor didn't lift his head, and the next moment, he jumped off the balcony that was more than ten meters high.

Bang!

Ka Ka Ka ~

As Thor jumped, the falling Spaceship smashed into the first wall of the Asgard Palace gate just over his head. For a time, the wall broke and debris was flying everywhere. This thick city wall was directly smashed by the falling Spaceship.

Moreover, the Spaceship, which had collapsed the city wall, was not stopped and continued to slide into the palace for a distance before it stopped completely.

Bang!

Thor, who jumped off the balcony, rolled around on the ground, luckily avoiding the big boulders that fell behind him. Before Thor could stand up, another shadow flew over his head. It was the second wrecked Spaceship that fell, and the direction of the crash was still the location of the palace. Moreover, this time it fell closer to the depths of the palace.

"Damn it! They did it on purpose!" Quickly getting up from the ground, Thor glanced at the door that had been crashed open and the Spaceship that had fallen inside the palace and couldn't help but curse.

The purpose of the Dark Elves' invasion of Asgard this time is not to destroy Asgard at all. Their only goal is to get the Aether. Therefore, no matter how fierce the fight was outside, as long as some Dark Elves rushed into the palace, they had a chance to get the Aether.

Boom~

Sure enough, the Dark Elf team, which had been entangled with the Asgardian soldiers on the battlefield ahead, seemed to go crazy just as Thor realized something was wrong. Everyone's eyes burst with a blood-red light as they angrily rushed towards the broken door.

In the face of the sudden outbreak of Dark Elf warriors, although Asgardian Soldiers had tried their best to block them, there were still many Dark Elves who were able to rush towards the Palace. It seems that they have vowed to rush into the palace to create more chaos.

Zi!!~

Standing in front of the smashed gate, Thor held his head high, his fists clenched together without a hammer. Flashes of blue lightning rushed from him. Even at this moment, if Thor's power were not one-hundredth of what it used to be, he would resolutely stand in the way and stop the Dark Elves.

"Teams three and four check the two crashed Spaceship and if there are any survivors, kill them!" Stopping at the ruined gate, Thor directed Asgard's guards to check on the two Spaceships which had crashed into the palace.

Under normal circumstances, the Spaceships that had been blown up like that and crashed would have no survivors. But Thor won't be careless. If the purpose of Dark Elves is the Aether then it would be necessary to check the two Spaceships and kill any survivors.

On Thor's orders, two palace guard units quickly circled the two Spaceship, while other Asgardian soldiers swathed over to Thor.

Boom! Rumble!

As the red-eyed Dark Elf soldiers rushed towards him with roaring fury, a flash of colored light suddenly appeared from behind the battlefield. The flash of light soon crossed the main battlefield and appeared in front of Thor.

Chapter 844: Entry

Brush!

The next moment, the colored lightning stopped violently in front of Thor. Then the colored light faded and a figure appeared out of thin air. As if not adapted to this particular mode of transport, the man who emerged from the colored light nearly fell over as the light faded.

"Jackson! What are you doing here?!" Thor shouted with wide eyes when he saw the man suddenly appearing in front of him.

According to Thor's thoughts, Asgard is now being invaded by the Dark Elves. Shouldn't Heimdall have sent Lin Rui back to Earth long ago? Why is he even here?

"Er... Thor! I'm here to help." Upon hearing Thor's cry, Lin Rui, who was a little dizzy just now, quickly responds and looks at him and replies.

Hearing Lin Rui's words and seeing that he was still dizzy, Thor felt helpless.

"Then don't be so dazed! Turn around and look at the situation!" Now that Lin Rui has arrived, Thor can only improvise at this critical moment.

Hearing Thor's reminder, Lin Rui quickly turned to look behind him. Then, he saw hundreds of Dark Elf warriors charging toward them like crazy.

Brush!

"Shit!" With a low shout, Lin Rui directly pulled out his Beheading Spirit Sword.

When the earth passed through the dimensional space and entered the place where the gods hid the etheric particles, Lin Rui suffered a loss under Dark Elf because his strength was inexplicably suppressed.

Lin Rui suffered a loss at the hands of Dark Elf when he was on the forbidden ground where the Aether was hidden because his strength had been inexplicably suppressed by a lot.

Now, Lin Rui's strength has increased, and it is not being suppressed. So Now Lin Rui will show these Dark Elf what revenge is all about!

Boom!

“Roar!” The Dark Elf warriors who burst out with more powerful strength seemed to have lost some of their senses as well and they raged with words that Thor and the others couldn’t understand and quickly rushed over.

Clatter!

“I never thought that we would have time to fight together side by side!” Standing beside Lin Rui with clenched fists, Thor said with a serious face.

‘I want to go back to Earth, too! But Heimdall won’t send me back!’ Hearing Thor’s words, Lin Rui thought silently in his heart. Of course, he would not say this out loud.

“I didn’t expect it either! But are you sure you’re all right?” Therefore, Lin Rui asked in a calm tone after glancing at the electric light emanating from Thor.

Although Thor is much stronger than he was before leaving earth, he is still not strong enough in Lin Rui’s opinion. Moreover, his hammer is still being researched by SHIELD on Earth! Without a weapon, is he going to smash so many enemies with his fist?!

“Humph!” Thor snorted proudly after hearing Lin Rui’s questioning.

Although he had not recovered his full power, but using his current power to protect himself is not a problem for Thor. The current Thor is no longer the prince who used to rely on his strength to show off his power. He is just an ordinary person, and he will stand up to protect Asgard.

“In that case...” Seeing Thor’s serious look, Lin Rui thought for a while, then stretched out his hand across his waist.

Brush!

“You still lack a weapon... Pick it up!” The next moment, Lin Rui already had a heavy sledgehammer in his hand, and then he threw it toward Thor.

After exchanging the Life Heart to the system mall, Lin Rui gained a lot of Reward Points. So, in order to let Thor play a greater role in the fight ahead, Lin Rui directly bought a weapon for him. Moreover, this hammer also has the thunder attribute.

Whoosh!

Catching the hammer thrown by Lin Rui, Thor waved it twice in shock.

“Although it’s not as easy to use as Mj?lnir, it’s okay,” Thor said bluntly after feeling the thunder energy inside the hammer in his hand.

“Since you’re so confident, let’s see who kills more enemies!” Seeing that the Dark Elf fighters in front of him were already close at hand, Lin Rui shouted one last time and rushed out.

Brush!

As soon as Lin Rui’s voice reached Thor’s ears, he turned into a blurred figure and rushed towards the Dark Elves ahead. After surviving the ordeal, Lin Rui, whose strength has been fully recovered, just needs a fight without holding anything back to test what level his strength has reached.

The invasion of the Asgard by The Dark Elves presents Lin Rui with the opportunity to strike without fear.

“Haha! Die, you ugly bastards!!”

Buzz!

Bang!

Lin Rui, who had already rushed into Dark Elf’s rank, let out a loud shout, then directly released a big move. In a burst of Azura light, countless sharp sword energy shot out in all directions with Lin Rui as the center. He has more internal energy now so Lin Rui can make more powerful skills.

Pū Pū Pū!

For a moment, before the mad Dark Elf warriors knew what was going on, rays of Azura’s sword energy had penetrated their bodies. Then, with Lin Rui at the center, the Dark Elf warriors surrounding him began to fall down.

One move!

Lin Rui defeated nearly twenty Dark Elf warriors in one move!

Lin Rui’s first real appearance in Asgard was remembered because of his move, and everyone remembered him deeply, remembering this young, very “thin” guy.

“You really surprise me every time!” Thor, who had not yet attacked, muttered helplessly when he saw the result of Lin Rui’s attack.

“I can’t show weakness either!... Soldiers of Asgard! Charge with me!” Thinking of this, Thor raised his hammer and rushed out.

Besides Thor, the Asgardian Soldiers who had already gathered around him followed and rushed out. As Lin Rui told him just now, it depends on who can deal with more enemies, but there is no rule that says that he cannot find helpers.

This is Asgard. As the Crown Prince of Asgard, it is normal for Thor to lead the team by his side.

Pū Pū Pū!

“I know that Thor would cheat! However, I wonder if the leader of the Dark Elf will come over this time?” Lin Rui kept thinking about the direction of the plot as he kept swinging his sword to destroy the enemy.

Bang!

“If Malekith had come then he should be inside those two crashed Spaceships now!” Lin Rui looked at the black Spaceships over the crashed gate as he muttered while killing the enemies.

“I hope Odin’s situation isn’t so bad, at the very least, he should be able to protect his wife!” Lin Rui, who got some information about Odin’s situation from Heimdall thought.

Chapter 845: Gambler

In fact, Lin Rui had just come out of the Bifrost transport and had noticed the two Spaceships that had crashed inside Asgard Palace. But he did not go there at once. Instead, he chose to help Thor guard the smashed gate.

Because, although Lin Rui knows the original plot in which the Dark Elves break into Asgard palace and kills Thor's mother and Odin's wife. But that was because Loki put the Dark Elves in there on purpose and Odin didn't show up at all, and Frigga didn't have much of a bodyguard.

It's different now, the plot has been completely changed, Loki is not in Asgard at all, and no one is showing the way to Dark Elves. And Odin should be fine. If his wife is really in danger then Lin Rui doesn't believe that he really won't take action.

The most important point is that Lin Rui does not know whether Asgard can save Jane Foster. However, Malekith, the Dark Elf leader, surely knows how to extract Aether from the human body. Therefore, Lin Rui is also gambling. He is betting that Malekith can break into the palace and meet Jane Foster, but he won't be able to hurt Jane Foster or Frigga.

If they are lucky, Odin would appear when Malekith finally finds Jane and discovers the Aether. Then Odin would defeat Malekith and order him to take the Aether out of Jane's body.

Of course, all this is the most perfect ending in Lin Rui's mind. There are also many imperfect endings, such as the fact that the guards in Asgard Palace would not be able to stop the Dark Elves and let them hurt Jane and Frigga.

And Odin could be in a really bad state, so he wouldn't make a move in this situation. Then, Lin Rui might have to use his last resort.

Pū Pū Pū!

"Hoo! I hope it won't come to that!" Lin Rui silently thought in his heart as he attacked another Dark Elf in front of him.

Afterward, Lin Rui saw that Asgard's team, led by Thor, had finally intercepted the Dark Elves as well. Together with the team chasing after them from the heart of the battlefield, they were going to kill all these crazy Dark Elves!

Pū Pū Pū!

Then scuffles broke out again, more violently than before. All Dark Elf warriors are doubled in strength, putting a lot of pressure on Asgardians. Except for Lin Rui, the Big Four, and a few Elite fighters, the rest of the warriors can only work with numbers to block the Dark Elf's charge.

In this way, Lin Rui has fully adapted to his suddenly enhanced physique and strength. Many times, when Lin Rui was besieged by multiple Dark Elves, he couldn't dodge all the attacks and had to block them with his body. However, those attacks that could deal a lot of damage to Lin Rui in the past only left minor injuries now.

Pū Scoff!

“This was really a blessing in disguise! Now I don’t have to use any other defenses such as the Phantom Suit or the Guardian Talisman, my body is strong enough. I don’t know what will happen if I fight Hulk again now.” Lin Rui simply glanced at the small wound on his arm and thought triumphantly.

But Lin Rui didn’t notice something. While these crazy Dark Elf fighters aren’t as high level and their damage to him is low, these small injuries have accumulated so much, and there is already a lot of dark energy in Lin Rui’s body. Although it is not fatal, it was enough to make Lin Rui feel bad after the battle.

As a result, none of the Dark Elfs from the outer battlefields burst through the shattered Asgard palace gates, with Lin Rui and Thor trying to stop them. As for the two Dark Elf Spaceships that crashed inside the palace, Thor hasn’t received any bad news.

Da Da Da~

While the battle continued outside Asgard palace gates, Thor’s guard’s team quickly surrounded the two Dark Elf Spaceships which had crashed inside the palace. Although the destruction of both Spaceships was high, the guards were not careless, each holding their weapons tightly at any gap that might allow the enemy to escape.

Sizzling!

Huhu~

While the guard team was surrounding the Spaceships, sparks and electric light spurted out from time to time from the location of the Spaceships. It seems that the situation inside Spaceship is very bad indeed.

Kaka~

When the guard team had raced around the outside of the Spaceship twice to start some in-depth testing, a sound different from the normal situation suddenly came from the Spaceship that had fallen closer to the inside of the palace.

The sound immediately caught the attention of the guard team, and their weapons were instantly raised and aimed at the location where the sound was made.

Ka Ka Ka ~

Bang!

The sound continued to come out, and then at a loud bang, a thick black deck suddenly flew out from the location where the sound came from.

Pū Pū Pū!

The team of guards who didn’t have time to react were directly smashed by this black deck and several were sent flying, while the rest all aimed their weapons at the hole that was exposed enough for people to come out because the deck flew out.

Shoo, shoo shoo!

As they stood at attention, many broken pieces of iron and various Spaceship scraps flew out of that hole once again. However, the already prepared guard team was not likely to be hit again, and each of them dodged nimbly.

At the same time, they have also been ready to strike at any time, anyway Thor's order is to kill anything that comes out of the Spaceships and they do not have to think too much.

It looked as if everything that could be used had been thrown away, and the creature that had been hiding in that hole was finally ready to come out, but it was no ordinary enemy.

Boom!

The next moment, a tall Dark Elf Elite warrior over two meters tall wearing exaggerated bone armor slammed open the hole that was a little too small for him and rushed out.

"Attack!" The Guards also attacked when they saw the apparently formidable Dark Elf warriors in front of them.

Pū Pū Pū!

In this instant, dozens of energy beams shot this large Dark Elf Elite warrior who had just come out. Not only that, but several miniature bomb-like weapons rolled under his feet.

Bang!

Boom!

At this moment, the Dark Elf Elite warrior who had only just rushed out was already covered by various attacks on all fronts and was even more directly engulfed in the shockwave of several chain explosions.

"Is it dead? He should be an Elite Soldier!" One of the Guards asked nervously as he looked at the destruction in front of him.

Chapter 846: The Kursed

When the guard spoke, the others did not let down their guard. If the tall Dark Elf soldier had survived the Spaceship crash then maybe he would survive their attacks.

Huhu~

After the blow was over, the smoke from the explosion just now gradually dissipated. The vigilant guard team didn't see any movement after the smoke, and the guy seemed to have really been dealt with.

"No! He just dodged!" Before the smoke and dust completely dispersed, a guard who had been staring over there shouted.

Brush!

Pū Pū Pū!

At the same time as that guard shouted, a black shadow suddenly rushed out from a corner they hadn't noticed. Before anyone could react, it had already circled the field and pierced through the chests of a dozen guard warriors one after another, and finally flew back to where it had appeared.

Ka!

When the black shadow flew back to its original position and stopped, it became clear that it was a short blade with an odd shape. And while it was suspended in mid-air, the tall Dark Elf warrior who was clearly covered by fire before stepped out of the shadows and reached out and grabbed the short blade in front of him in his hand.

Pū Pū Pū!

In the moment that the Dark Elf warrior grabbed the Dagger, the guard team that had not moved since just now all fell one by one. Their chests were all pierced by that dagger and they were all killed in an instant.

And the Dark Elf warrior, who had withdrawn his dagger looked at the scene in front of him very calmly. Perhaps to him, there was nothing in this world to care about.

Da Da Da~

After all the Asgardians outside the Spaceship had been dealt with, there was another sound of footsteps coming from the hole where the Dark Elf warrior appeared just now. Then, Malekith, who was extra thin from the other Dark Elf warriors, walked out.

After being blasted by the Damascus Reese Sword, Malekith, who had returned to the base camp for a while, set off almost immediately to Asgard. Because he got a prophecy from one of the most mysterious creatures from the Dark Elves: The Aether will appear in Asgard's palace.

So, despite not fully recovering from his injuries, Malekith set out with his troops. And this time, Malekith brought their most powerful fighting force, The Kursed.

As a high-level warrior once transformed by Aether, The Kursed is super powerful in addition to being almost indestructible. With The Kursed present, Malekith has great confidence in breaking into the Asgard Palace and recovering the Aether.

"Algrim, is everything cleaned up?" Malekith, who walked out of the spaceship, glanced at the fallen Asgardian warriors and then asked the big guy in the shadow ahead.

Hearing Malekith's words, The Kursed named Algrim didn't answer and just nodded.

"Well, then, it's time for us to get the Aether. According to the prophecy, the Aether seems to be easier to obtain now." Then, Malekith walked out of the ruins and walked towards the depths of the Asgard Palace as he spoke.

Da Da~

Behind Malekith, The Kursed began to follow him.

...

Buzz~

As the battle erupted outside the palace, Frigga inside the palace was not distracted from the battle outside but concentrated on solving the problem of Aether in front of her. Many fluctuations of magic came out from the room where Jane was placed.

Frigga had also guessed that the invasion this time should be aimed at the Aether in front of her, so she just had to strip it from Jane's body and put it away. Then, if the Dark Elves really broke into the palace then they would get nothing.

Shout!

Another blue light flew out from Frigga's hand and soon merged with the Aether flying in front of her. However, the blue light only lasted for a while, and the next moment it was swallowed up by the crimson flying sand.

"It still won't work! The Aether will become stronger and stronger as the time passes!" Frigga has tried several ways for energy or element separation, but none of them have any effect on the Aether giving her a headache.

Hoo!

After devouring Frigga's magical energy, the Aether jumped around seemingly in a happy mood. Moreover, it also enhanced Jane's life absorption a lot. Frigga has used many means to maintain Jane's life energy, but her lifeforce is still being absorbed.

"Anna! Go get the Frost Heart!" Seeing that she couldn't get the Aether out before it drained the life out of Thor's girlfriend, Frigga hurriedly shouted to the maid who was standing by her side.

The Frost Heart was Frigga's dowry when she had married Odin. That is the heart of a true Frost Titan, capable of providing the power of extreme cold to freeze everything. Frigga, who could no longer delay the flow of Jane's life energy, had no choice but to use other methods to save her life, which would allow her more time to find a solution to the Aether.

"Yes!" Upon hearing Frigga's order, the maid Anna who had been standing beside her hurriedly agreed, and then quickly walked out of the room.

"I wonder what's going on outside? Thor should be all right." Looking at the Earthling whose life and death are unreadable at the moment, Frigga couldn't help but worry about her son.

Soon, Anna returned with a wooden box. Apparently, it contained the Frost Heart that Frigga needed.

Hu~

Taking the wooden box from Anna's hand, Frigga opened it without any hesitation. The next moment, a cold air that could penetrate a person's heart gushed out from the wooden box.

Buzz!

At the same time that the cold air drifted out, Frigga quickly cast spells to protect herself and Anna. As for Jane lying on the bed, the cold air that just drifted over was absorbed by the Aether, so they couldn't reach her at all.

“My Queen, will it work?” Anna asked with a worried expression on her face as she looked at the cold energy being absorbed by the Aether.

“Don’t worry, this is just some excess energy of the Frost Heart. You can’t imagine its true energy.” Hearing Anna’s words, Frigga briefly explained.

Then, Frigga slowly approached the bed holding the wooden box. She began to cast a spell that would stimulate the full energy of the Frost Heart, thereby freezing Aether and Jane Foster.

Buzz~

“Who?! Stop!”

Pū Pū Pū!

When Frigga was just beginning to start her spell, there was a sudden shout of anger from the guards stationed outside the room.

Chapter 847: Intrusion

Bang!

“Be careful!”

Pū Pū Pū!

The shouts outside the room came in one after another, and both Frigga and Anna’s expressions were not very good. The warriors guarding outside the room are already the strongest guards in the Asgard Palace. If they can’t stop the enemy that had appeared then how powerful is the enemy.

Soon, the sounds of fighting outside the chamber gradually ceased, no one was shouting anymore, and there was no more sound of weapons clashing. However, Frigga and Anna’s eyes sank completely.

Because, if the enemy outside was eliminated, the guards would have given them a hint. And now they did not receive any hint, which means that the guards guarding the outside have ..... all been killed by the enemy.

Shout!

“My Queen! Hurry up and leave! I’ll stop the enemy!” After the quiet outside the chamber, Anna stood behind the chamber door and then shouted toward Frigga.

As Queen’s maid, Anna is also a powerful Sorcerer. Even if the enemy outside was very strong, she would stand in front of Frigga to protect her.

“Anna, no, stand by my side. I also want to see what kind of person can break into this place.” Seeing Anna’s actions, Frigga smiled and shook her head as she spoke.

Back in the day, Frigga was also a beauty and magic sorcerer who was well-known throughout the Nine Realms. After so many years, the peaceful environment made everyone forget the power and brutality of Asgard, and also the power of this beautiful Sorcerer.

So what if the current Asgard is the weakest it has been in a thousand years? So what if Odin's strength has declined due to old age? So what if Asgard's two princes are not enough to keep the peace? She is the Queen of Asgard and she is strong enough to hold it up!

"My Queen!" Anna shouted worriedly when she heard Frigga's words.

"Come here." Knowing that Anna was worried about herself, Frigga still smiled and waved at her.

Knowing that Frigga would not leave, Anna walked back to her side and faced the door of the chamber with her.

As Frigga and her maid focused on the enemy outside the chamber, behind them, the Aether, which had been pulsating at random, seemed to sense something and slowly contracted back towards Jane Foster's body.

Bang!

Shout!

Finally, after a few seconds of silence outside, the door to the chamber was blown open with a loud bang, and large pieces of debris shot toward the inside.

Without much hesitation, Frigga and Anna both struck at the moment the door of the chamber was blown open. First, a golden ray of light swept the rubble aside, and then several red rays shot out of the blasted door.

Swoosh!

When the golden light blocked the flying rubble, a black shadow passed through the rubble, and then directly penetrated the golden light curtain and shot towards Frigga's back.

"Be careful My Queen!!!" Seeing the shadow shot towards Frigga, Anna rushed over without thinking.

Pū!

The next moment, the shadow that had been aimed at Frigga was inserted into Anna's chest as she put herself between them. It was a dagger. The dagger was so powerful that it drove into Anna's chest and then took her body and slammed against Frigga's back.

Shout!

"Anna!" Frigga cried and hugged her as she watched the maid she had been with for hundreds of years slam into her.

Hum!

While Frigga was holding Anna, the dagger that was stuck in Anna's chest vibrated and it was going to pierce through Anna's chest and stab into Frigga's body. However, how could Frigga, who was already holding Anna, let such a thing happen.

"Get out of here!!!" Holding Anna, who was losing consciousness, Frigga let out a low shout with a sharp look in her eyes.

Buzz!

As Frigga shouted, a powerful wave of energy gushed out from her body, that belonged to the high sorcerer! Then, a golden light that was like a substance spread out from Frigga's body.

Bang!

As the golden light spread to Anna's chest, the dagger, which was still trying to penetrate Anna's heart, jumped straight away and flew backward out of Anna's chest. After blowing off the dagger, the golden glow spread for about two meters and completely enveloped Frigga and Anna before it stopped expanding.

Hoo!

While the golden light was forming a defensive circle around Frigga and Anna, the dagger that had been sent flying was grabbed by a hand that had come out from the destroyed door. Then, the owner of that hand slowly walked in, it was a very tall figure.

Da Da Da~

There was a slightly thinner figure that followed in behind that tall figure. Once they had fully entered the chamber, Frigga could also finally see who the enemy was this time.

"Malekith?!" Seeing the normal Dark Elf walking in, Frigga called out his name with a cold look in her eyes.

How could the Queen of Asgard not know the leader of the Dark Elves? Back then, the other party was also one of her many suitors. However, Frigga really couldn't see her with this guy who only wanted to drown Nine Realms into darkness.

"Long time no see... Frigga." Hearing Frigga's words, Malekith responded with some emotion in his voice.

"Humph! Then this should be The Kursed." Ignoring Malekith's tone of reminiscence, Frigga turned her eyes towards the expressionless warrior.

"Well, Frigga, you should hand over the Aether now." Nodding, Malekith said with a sullen look on his face.

Until now, Malekith hadn't noticed Jane whose figure was blocked by Frigga. Otherwise, he should be able to see the Aether floating above her at a glance.

Whew!!

Without answering Malekith, Frigga's right hand slowly rested on the wooden box containing the Frost Heart. Then a great chill came out of the box and soon enveloped Anna, who was already dying. By the time the chill had lifted, Anna was frozen in a blue ice sheet.

"Extreme cold air?!" Seeing the scene in front of him, Malekith's eyes flashed and he couldn't help shouting.

Malekith, it seems, is also afraid of the power of the Frost Heart.

Buzz!

While Malekith was staring at Frigga, thinking about how to get the whereabouts of the Aether from her, a strong energy fluctuation suddenly came from behind the golden curtain.

Chapter 848: Regain Consciousness?!

Frigga's expression did not change much when she sensed the energy fluctuations coming from behind her, because she knew that it was the energy fluctuations emitted by the Aether Particle.

From the beginning, Frigga didn't plan to leave, so she didn't hide Jane Foster. Because she knew that ordinary magic couldn't completely isolate the energy of Aether.

Although Frigga didn't react much. Malekith, who hadn't noticed the situation just now, widened his eyes instantly after sensing the energy fluctuation of Aether. Then, his eyes passed through Frigga's golden protective cover to see Jane Foster in the bed in the middle of the secret room.

"That's it!... The Aether!" Malekith shouted excitedly after seeing the Aether that looked like flying sand.

Brush!

The next thing anyone knew, Malekith disappeared from his place in an instant.

Frigga was clearly prepared for Malekith's disappearance as she quickly waved her hands and a strong wave of magic energy rushed out of the golden shield and rushed to the position of Jane's bed behind her.

Brush!

Just as Frigga's magic was released, the disappearing Malekith appeared beside the unconscious Jane Foster.

"Haha! The Aether is finally mine!" Malekith exclaimed with uncontrollable excitement as he stared at the Aether that was so close.

Then, Malekith reached out and grabbed the Aether that were floating in the air. Malekith didn't care about Jane lying on the hospital bed at all. In Malekith's view, she was just a sacrifice whose life force had been devoured by the Aether.

Buzz!

As Malekith's outstretched hand reached the edge of the bed, light blue beams of energy shot from the edge. If Malekith hadn't stopped, his hand would have been cut off by this energy beam.

"Humph!" Feeling the power of these energy beams, Malekith snorted and quickly retracted his hand.

Although Malekith is the leader of the Dark Elves, he is not the most powerful of the Dark Elves. It would be better to let The Kursed behind him make move. However, when Malekith withdrew his hand, Frigga's magical attack arrived in front of him.

Bang!

This time, Malekith, who was excited by the proximity of the Aether did not dodge the attack and a surge of magical energy crashed right into Malekith's heart.

Crunch!

With a crunching sound, Malekith's inner armor that he had just replaced was instantly broken, and his entire body was blown away. He flew back and crashed into the stone wall, creating a large crater on the wall before falling down.

Whoosh!

After blowing Malekith away, Frigga also controlled the bed fixed in the middle of the room and the bed began to fall. Now that Aether and Jane are connected, Frigga can't let anything happen to her. Although Jane's life energy would be consumed, it is still better than dying right now.

"Algrim! Stop her!" Rising from the ground, Malekith shouted after seeing the Aether in front of him and being stopped by Frigga.

Bang!

The moment Malekith finished shouting, the tall figure standing at the door had come to the rapidly falling bed in a trance. Algrim ignored the energy beam that surrounded the entire bed and punched the bed's stone base.

Ka Ka Ka!

The huge fist directly passed through the powerful energy beam and slammed into the base, and the huge force directly ripped the entire stone bed into pieces. Those energy beams disappeared quickly after the bed was smashed open, and Jane Foster, who was originally lying on the bed, naturally fell down with the crumbling bed.

Brush!

After The Kursed Algrim smashed the bed to pieces, Malekith had already pounced towards him again, asking him to come in person to collect the Aether.

As for Frigga, Algrim, who smashed the bed with a punch, was stopped outside the golden shield. As long as Frigga makes a move, he will be able to block the attack, anyway, he will not die at all.

Buzz!

However, when Malekith was finally able to collect the Aether, the Aether that was still flying outside seemed to be frightened, and when Malekith stretched out his hand, it slammed into the fallen Jane Foster. Soon, the Aether Particles that were just flying outside had completely disappeared on the surface of Jane Foster's body.

"How is that possible?!" Grabbing the empty space, Malekith shouted in shock as he watched the Aether Particles disappear into the woman's body.

In Malekith's view, no ordinary person can withstand the possession of the Aether Particles, which is like suicide. Even Malekith himself can't let the Aetheric Particle possess his body, he just wants to use the energy of the Aether to fulfill his goals.

However, what shocked Malekith was yet to come. After all the Aether particles returned to Jane's body, Jane, who had been unconscious all the time, suddenly opened her eyes, and her wide eyes were filled with crimson light.

Whew!

Then, under the shocked gazes of Malekith and Frigga, who was breaking through Algrim's defense, Jane Foster, who was falling, suddenly stopped in suspension at a position about half a meter above the ground.

Then, a powerful energy surged from her body, and she quickly lifted her whole body from the ground, and soon she was suspended in the center of this room.

Bang!

"Jane Foster! Are you awake?!" With an attack spell that repels The Kursed, Frigga shouts to a seemingly awake Jane Foster, who is suspended in mid-air.

Hearing Frigga's voice, Jane, who was suspended in mid-air, turned her head slightly and glanced below, her eyes full of crimson light that showed no emotion.

"Am I awake? ....." Then, the same emotionless response came out of Jane's mouth.

"This is impossible! How could the Aether use such a weak person as its host!" Malekith shouts wildly as this unbelievable scene unfolds before his eyes.

The next moment, he had already swung the repaired Scepter in his hand and struck at Jane Foster in mid-air. Regardless of the current situation of the woman in front of him, Malekith would not allow Aether to remain inside her body.

Whew!

However, when Malekith's scepter was about to hit her, Jane who seemed to be in a trance and somewhat confused suddenly extended her hand.

Chapter 849: Power

Pū~

Then Jane Foster was seen lightly gripping Malekith's weapon as if she were gripping something of no importance.

"What?! How is this possible?!" His attack was so easily blocked by an ordinary woman that Malekith did not know what else to say.

Moreover, Malekith couldn't shake the Scepter that Jane was holding, no matter how hard he tried. Those powerful dark energies were swallowed up the moment they came into contact with Jane.

However, Malekith still thought too simply, Jane didn't just block Malekith's attack. When she grabbed Malekith's scepter so that he couldn't withdraw it, Jane also glanced at him with some absent-minded eyes. Then, Malekith could clearly feel the disgust in the eyes of the "ordinary" woman in front of him.

"You!....."

Hoo!

The next moment, Malekith only felt a huge force from the side of the scepter that Jane Foster was holding. Malekith didn't have time to let go as his whole body was already swung up. Perhaps, he also does not want to let this scepter, which symbolizes his status, be taken away by the enemy again.

Whoosh!

Bang!

In this way, Malekith was suspended in mid-air by Jane, who grabbed the scepter and swung it around several times, and finally threw it out like a sandbag.

Malekith, who had just been smashed into the stone wall by Frigga once, was smashed into the stone wall again in less than a minute, and another mannequin was printed on the wall of this chamber.

And the scene of Malekith attacking Jane scared everyone in the room, in fact, there were only three people in total. Neither Frigga nor Malekith could understand why such a thing would happen when the Aether possessed Jane.

One must know that even being of a "God Race" may not be able to control the power of an Infinity Stone, how could Jane Foster, an ordinary person from Earth, exert such power from the Aether.

Frigga and Malekith certainly don't think this situation is Jane's ability because the energy fluctuation of the Aether is too strong.

"What the hell is going on here?" Looking at Malekith falling from the stone wall, Frigga turned her eyes to Jane Foster, who was still suspended in mid-air.

"Could it be..."

Hoo!

"The Aether is controlling her!" Malekith, who got up from the ground again, shouted as Frigga guessed what the situation was. Other than the fact that it shouldn't have happened, Malekith couldn't figure out what the hell was going on in front of him. After all, that seemingly ordinary woman doesn't seem to have much of her own consciousness now.

"Sure enough... the worst situation still happens!" After hearing Malekith's words, Frigga thought silently in his heart.

"Algrim! Kill her!" Judging that the Aether was doing something, Malekith continued to give orders to The Kursed.

Now that Aether is possessing this woman, she uses her consciousness to fight against the dangers of the outside world. Then, as long as Jane is dead, the Aether will naturally have no object to possess and it would be collected by Malekith.

Shout!

The moment Malekith spoke, the black dagger in Algrim's hand disappeared, and when it reappeared, it was less than half a meter away from Jane's body, stabbing her in the chest.

It seems that Jane's current situation is quite special, and it seems that she has a very powerful strength because of the Aether. However, she couldn't really control such a powerful force, seeing that the dagger was about to penetrate her chest.

Hoo!

At this critical moment, a red light suddenly burst out of Jane's body, which spread out in an instant, and also enveloped the dagger.

Huhu~

The next moment, the red light had spread to the point where it enveloped the entire room. Frigga, who had been watching the situation on Jane's side, only felt a trance, and then the scene in front of her had completely changed.

One moment she was in the Asgard Palace chamber, with Dark Elf Malekith, The Kursed Algrim, and Jane Foster possessed by Aether in front of her, but now she was in a beautiful garden, and it was as beautiful as Asgard's royal garden.

"This is!... an illusion?" Frigga was a little surprised after seeing the sudden change in the environment in front of her but she reacted instantly.

The red light that swept over just now was produced by the Aether, which is the Reality Stone and its special ability is able to alter reality and even the laws of nature. As for making something like an illusion, it is also very simple, if the user is strong enough, the illusion can also become reality.

Surprised by the change in her immediate environment, Frigga already judged that she has been affected by the Aether Particle's ability. So she didn't do anything else because of the change in her environment and stood still.

Frigga knew that with Jane Foster as the host, the Aether could not exert much power and that the illusion would not last long.

While Frigga was trapped in the Garden Vision by Aether's abilities, Malekith and The Kursed were also trapped in different visions.

Malekith is trapped in the Dark Realm of the Dark Elf lands, where he stayed for a hundred years after the defeat of the Dark Elves thousands of years ago. And The Kursed is trapped in a dark place with nothing else.

Malekith, who was trapped in the illusion, apparently knew what he was getting into and didn't do anything. Malekith, like Frigga, planned to wait for the illusion to end by itself.

However, neither Frigga nor Malekith knew that while they were trapped by the illusion of Aether, Jane Foster, who had just been suspended in mid-air, had landed safely.

And, after glancing at the three people who stood still, Jane Foster quickly walked towards the door of the room. Then, before the illusion ended, Jane Foster's figure had disappeared from the room.

Hu~

When Jane Foster disappeared, the illusion that enveloped the entire chamber also disappeared. Frigga and Malekith can finally see the real world in front of them again. However, Aether and Jane Foster, which were very important to them, were gone.

...

Chapter 850: Chaotic

The illusion disappeared, looking at Jane Foster and Aether, who had disappeared before their eyes, both Frigga and Malekith froze, and then they looked at each other at the same time with uncontrollable anger in their eyes.

"Malekith! You killed her?!"

"Frigga! Hand over that woman!"

The next moment, Frigga and Malekith looked at each other and shouted. Frigga believes that Malekith killed Jane and took over the Aether while she was trapped in the illusion. Malekith, on the other hand, was convinced that Frigga was hiding Jane while he was trapped in the illusion.

However, after hearing the other party's angry shout and the expression that did not seem to be fake, both Frigga and Malekith froze again. If neither Jane nor Aether's disappearance had anything to do with them, then ..... Jane must have left on her own under the influence of the Aether!

"Algrim! Go!" His target was only the Aether and after the target disappeared, Malekith immediately shouted to The Kursed. They were going to retrieve the Aether.

Then, Malekith and Algrim walked towards the door. The Aether is not with Frigga, and they don't need to spend energy to attack this powerful sorcerer.

"You want to go? Do you think you can?!" However, how could Frigga let Malekith and the others go to chase Jane?

Buzz!

After letting out a low shout, an icy blue chill poured out from Frigga's hand, filling the entire room in an instant.

Ka Ka Ka!

The next moment, the entire room has been completely frozen by ice. Malekith and Algrim were still running forward ignoring the ice that now filled the entire room and soon they were frozen in ice. And Frigga was also frozen inside. But there was a faint golden light around her, which slightly separated her from the ice layer beside her.

In order to stop Malekith and The Kursed, Frigga directly used the most powerful force of the Frost Heart to trap both the enemy and herself. Although this method can't trap Malekith and The Kursed for a long time, Frigga should be able to hold out until the end of the battle outside before Malekith and The Kursed are freed.

As long as the fighting outside is over, Malekith and The Kursed would face the entire palace guards. At that time, Frigga would have support from an army, and Malekith and Algrim would not be able to escape after being unfrozen.

In this way, as Jane woke up unexpectedly and gained the power of the Aether for no reason, the Queen of Asgard, Frigga, used the Frost Heart to freeze Malekith who came to snatch the Aether Particle.

Now, the unconscious Jane is walking aimlessly in the Asgard palace. Because of the battle outside the palace, almost all the guards inside the palace have gone out to support, so the "wandering" Jane has coincidentally not encountered anyone else along the way.

Da Da Da~

"Where is this? ... Why am I here?" Wandering aimlessly, Jane mumbles to herself as she stares at the palace-like buildings around her.

Jane's current situation is very special. Frigga and Malekith, who are familiar with Aether, can't understand Jane's situation at all. The Aether is indeed possessed by Jane and has been devouring her life energy before. But now, the Aether did not continue to devour her life force and instead gave her power.

However, although the Aether supported Jane with its own energy, her current situation did not improve much. If someone wants to describe Jane's situation, then it should be easier to understand by saying that she is similar to a person parasitized by Venom.

The current Jane seems to be parasitized by the Aether Particle. While being devoured by it, which consumes life energy while simultaneously becoming stronger with its power.

Moreover, Jane's emotions and thoughts are very unstable, and she may not know who she is at this time. If someone attacks her, she will respond in a similar manner as he did again Malekith.

Da Da Da!

After Jane had been walking aimlessly around the magnificent palace for two minutes in a trance, there was a sudden rush of footsteps ahead. One of the teams checking the two Spaceships that had crashed inside the palace had sacrificed, and the palace guards had assembled a team to search inside the palace after discovering their death.

Hoo!

Jane Foster stopped when she heard footsteps ahead of her. Then a line of about twenty or thirty men rushed from the front corner.

Brush!

The golden armored team rushing out of the corner stopped instantly after seeing the unfamiliar face of Jane Foster, and then the Captain running at the front took a step forward.

“Who are you?! Why are you here?” The Captain stared at Jane who was clearly in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Jane frowned when she heard the Captain’s question.

“Who am I...? I am...” At this moment, Jane struggled to find herself because of this question.

“I’m... Foster! I’m Jane Foster!” After frowning and thinking hard for a while, Jane suddenly shouted.

Buzz~

After Jane shouted these words, the red light in her eyes quickly faded away. Soon, Jane woke up from her confused state. It appears that the effect of the Aether Particle on her has worn off.

“She doesn’t look like a Dark Elf... but she is also an unidentified person. Keep an eye on her.” Hearing Jane’s answer, the Captain thought for a while, and then made a decision.

Now that the battle outside the palace is coming to an end, the invasion of the Dark Elf was finally repelled, but they secretly infiltrated the palace. So the Guards did not dare to relax their vigilance even in the face of a weak woman who looked harmless. It is already good that they have not killed her on the spot.

“Capture her.” Thinking so, the Captain waved his hand to let his men go and grab Jane Foster.

“What are you doing?! Who are you?!” Jane, who had just recovered her thoughts, shouted when she saw the strangely dressed guy in front of her coming to catch her.

While shouting, Jane was also struggling violently. The seemingly weak Jane tough girl at this moment, punching and kicking the two soldiers when they walked in front of her.

Bang!
