Chapter 851: Turning Back

Pū Pū Pū!

The next moment, the two golden-armored warriors who were about to capture Jane flew back upside down. Jane's punches and kicks without any discipline caused the mighty warriors to fly out like this!

Bang Bang!

The two warriors who flew back were caught by their unprepared teammates, and the Captain of the team looked at Jane with a serious expression on his face. This frail-looking girl was able to knock those two warriors into the air so easily. Possessing such strength, the woman in front of him had surpassed all of them.

So, after a brief thought, the Captain quietly made a gesture and the soldiers behind him silently made preparations for battle seeing the gesture. They will attack ruthlessly as long as their Captain gives the order.

"Uh... how are you..." However, when the soldiers were getting ready to fight against Jane, Jane, who had beaten two big men, still had a confused expression on her face.

It's true that she struggled as hard as she could against the soldiers due to fear, but she was too weak a woman to have the potential to knock off those two warriors in gold armor. It was a violation of the laws of physics in her eyes.

"It wasn't me! They flew out on their own!" Jane hurriedly shouted, seeing that all the soldiers in front of her were preparing to rush towards her.

Whatever the hell those guys did, Jane didn't think she could have knocked them out.

Hoo!

Despite Jane's explanation, the Captain has given the order to attack and then he took the lead and charged at her with a weapon in his hand.

"Ahhhh!~"

Sizzling!

As Jane cried out in horror at what she was seeing, a bolt of thunder suddenly came from the side, striking just in front of her.

After seeing this familiar sight, the soldiers immediately stopped, and then their eyes shifted to the direction of the thunder at the same time.

"Stop!" An anxious cry came as the thunder strike stopped the soldiers.

At the sound, Jane's eyes brightened and she turned to look in the direction of the sound. Then, to her surprise, she saw a tall, familiar figure running quickly toward her.

"Thor!"

A few minutes ago, when Malekith broke into the palace with The Kursed, Thor, who was fighting outside, finally got this unexpected news. Therefore, instead of fighting with Lin Rui for the number of enemies to kill, Thor directly went back to the palace with his men (he would definitely lose anyway).

As for Lin Rui, of course, he was with Thor. Although Lin Rui has the mentality of a gambler, if he can be around when things happen, he may be able to use his power to make some minor changes. After all, it's not the first time Lin Rui has done this.

When Thor went all the way back to the depths of the palace, he was more and more worried when he found out that the warriors had died blocking Malekith. Thor made another breakthrough in his power in the battle just now, and now he is much stronger than he was on the earth.

Therefore, he rushed ahead leaving the soldiers following him and rushed to the location of the chamber where Jane and his Mother were, and of course, Lin Rui could easily follow him.

When Thor and Lin Rui were approaching the location of the secret chamber, Lin Rui was keenly aware of the movement nearby. So, he alerted Thor and went over there. Needless to say, the movement Lin Rui sensed was when the Soldiers encountered Jane Foster.

When Thor and Lin Rui arrived, the support team was attacking Jane. In a hurry, Thor directly sent a thunderbolt to stop them and then ran over with Lin Rui. Now. He was already standing next to Jane.

"Jane! Are you alright?!" Thor said in surprise as he stood in front of Jane and carefully looked at her.

"I don't know... Did anything happen to me?" Jane was a little confused when she heard Thor's words, she didn't know what happened to her.

Whew!

"It's alright! Haha, my Mother must have saved you!" Thor hugged her and said without caring about Jane's doubts.

"Mother? Thor, where the hell is this place? Who are these weirdly dressed guys?" Jane felt safe in Thor's arms, but there were still many doubts in her mind.

Hearing Jane's words, Thor was somewhat puzzled and let go of her, while Lin Rui, who had been observing her for a long time, also showed a puzzled expression on his face. The current Lin Rui has a mask on his face, which is supposed to keep Jane from discovering his identity.

If Jane was really saved by Thor's mother then she shouldn't be ignorant of the current situation, and it's even less likely that she was almost attacked by the guards while she was wandering in the palace.

"Could it be..." Carefully sensing Jane's physical condition, Lin Rui began to think about other possibilities.

"Jane, haven't you met my mother, she's a very beautiful and generous woman, it must have been my mother who saved you when you woke up," Thor asked seriously as he carefully looked into Jane's eyes.

“My memories of waking up were not so clear but I woke up in a room where someone was going to hurt me and I was scared so I left. But there seems to be a woman in that room.” Hearing Thor’s words, Jane frowned and thought for a while before speaking.

“Not good!” Hearing Jane’s answer, Lin Rui’s face turned pale as he silently swore in his heart.

“Thor, where is the room?!” Lin Rui then asked Thor with an anxious expression on his face.

“Not far ahead! We’ll go together!” After seeing Lin Rui’s reaction and combining it with Jane’s words, Thor also judged something and gave a quick answer.

“I’ll go first! You’re not as fast as me!”

Brush!!

Leaving such a sentence, Lin Rui’s figure disappeared in front of Thor and others. Lin Rui’s speed has reached an extremely fast level after his strength has been improved, not to mention that he was originally good at fighting with his speed.

He followed Thor just now because he didn’t know the way. Now that the chamber is not far ahead, Lin Rui certainly doesn’t need to wait for Thor.

“Let’s go!” Thor also shouted worriedly when he saw Lin Rui’s disappearing back.

Whoosh!

Chapter 852: Lin Rui VS The Kursed

Ka Ka Ka!

Shortly after Jane left the chamber, the sound of ice cracking was heard in the room, which was completely frozen by the extreme cold power of the Frost Heart. Malekith and The Kursed Algrim are still stronger than what Frigga originally thought, and she can’t trap them for too long.

Ka Ka Ka ~ Bang!

Finally, when there were more and more cracks in the ice condensed by the Frost Heart energy, it finally collapsed completely with a loud noise.

In the shattered pieces of ice, the extreme cold power of the Frost Heart is mixed with traces of dark energy, which was used by Malekith and The Kursed to break free from the blockade in a short period of time.

Hoo!

“Damn it!” Malekith, who had escaped the trap, shook off the remaining ice fragments from his body, and cast a gloomy look at Frigga, who was in a much better state and cursed.

If Malekith hadn’t given a chance to Frigga before then she wouldn’t have had a chance to trap them with Frost Heart. Now, the woman who the Aether is gone, and he doesn’t know what would happen now.

“Go! Algrim! I can still sense the location of the Aether, it’s not far from us!” Malekith shouted to Algrim and prepared to leave the chamber.

Brush!

However, just when Malekith and Algrim turned around, a figure suddenly appeared at the destroyed door of the room. The guy who appeared suddenly seemed a little surprised by the situation in front of him, and stopped when he rushed to the gate.

“Kill him!” Without even thinking about who this person was, Malekith, who was already a bit mad because of the unexpected situation of Aether Particle, directly pointed at that person and gave the order.

Brush!

The next moment, Algrim had already attacked as his figure appeared in front of the man in a flash, and then punched him.

“Fuck!” Facing Algrim’s sudden attack, the man seemed surprised and shouted.

Bang!

Then, after a muffled sound, that person who had only appeared had been knocked back. As for whether or not he had been killed by Algrim’s punch, it was impossible to tell anything by looking at Algrim’s expression.

“Humph!” Like seeing a fly being swatted to death, Malekith didn’t even look at the man who flew out, and after a cold snort, he stepped out of the room.

Then, Algrim also followed Malekith out.

Gooooooooo~

And just after Malekith and The Kursed walked out of the door of the chamber, several metal orbs suddenly rolled around their feet. These metal orbs stopped after rolling to their feet, and then quickly blinked a few times.

Dī Dī!

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! ~

In the next moment, the metal orbs exploded, and a strong shock wave and electromagnetic storm enveloped Malekith and The Kursed in an instant.

Boom!

Not far from the door of the chamber, a man was half-crouched on the ground, his right hand still in a throwing motion. Apparently, he was the one who threw those exploding metal balls.

And this guy who was punched out of the room by The Kursed, and then threw a bomb outside the room to attack Malekith and the Kursed was Lin Rui, who ran over earlier than Thor. It’s just that Lin Rui didn't expect that he would be punched out before he could even understand the situation in front of him.

If it weren't for Lin Rui's current strength and defenses being greatly improved, the punch just now would be enough to make him lose most of his combat effectiveness. And he was punched inexplicably, of course, Lin Rui would not bear it. So, after flying out, Lin Rui was ready to fight back immediately.

"Cough! It really hurts!" Lin Rui coughed and muttered to himself while looking at the area shrouded by the explosion in front of him.

Hu~

In the next moment, a black body suit appeared on Lin Rui's body. Lin Rui wore a mask just now, but now he has re-exchanged the Phantom Suit. After all, the Phantom Suit can still add some basic attributes to Lin Rui's power. Moreover, Lin Rui didn't want the enemy's blood to soil his clothes.

"If one of those two guys was Dark Elf leader Malekith, then they couldn't have been killed by these stun bombs." After replacing the new Phantom Suit, Lin Rui stared at the explosion position and silently muttered in his heart.

Although Lin Rui only stood at the door of the secret chamber for less than two seconds just now, he also saw the situation inside the secret chamber. The tall man who struck him was obviously a very high-level Dark Elf, but he took orders from the less powerful Dark Elf behind him. Therefore, Lin Rui can see who has a high status at a glance.

As for the beautiful woman standing in the middle of the secret chamber holding a girl surrounded by a layer of golden light, it should be Thor's mother, Frigga. Lin Rui was thankful that Frigga didn't seem to be hurt. However, it also looked like Odin didn't make a move.

Huhu~

While Lin Rui was staring over there, there was a sudden burst of strong energy fluctuations from the turbulent flow of the explosion. Lin Rui, who had already fought against Dark Elves outside, easily recognized this energy fluctuation as dark energy, so the Beheading Spirit Sword in his hand had already started to shine with Azura light.

Pū!

Finally, while Lin Rui was waiting, a black energy shock wave sweeps away those firelight and electromagnetic vibrations. Then, a tall figure first rushed toward Lin Rui, it is The Kursed! I don't know why he was able to lock on Lin Rui's location even within blast range.

"I'm afraid you won't succeed!" Seeing the guy who had almost beaten him with a punch just now lunged towards him again, Lin Rui's eyes flashed with a sharp light as he clenched his hands and the Beheading Spirit Sword also swung forward.

Brush!

The Kursed and Lin Rui are both very fast, but it seems that Lin Rui's burst speed is still a little faster than Algrim's. When Algrim's huge fist slammed into his chest again, Lin Rui stepped out a little, and his whole body jumped up in an instant to avoid the punch.

Buzz!

Lin Rui, who flew into mid-air, raised his Beheading Spirit Sword in his hand, and his entire essence quickly coalesced in his hand weapon.

The Beheading Spirit Sword, which was constantly trembling, seemed to be unable to withstand Lin Rui's power, and an Azura sword-shaped aura broke out from the Beheading Spirit Sword and arranged itself around Lin Rui in layers.

In less than a second, with Lin Rui's body as the center, a mountain of sword-shaped energy had quickly taken shape.

"Thousand Mountain Slash!" The hands that held the Beheading Spirit Sword high trembled violently as Lin Rui finally shouted out after a long time.

Boom!

In the next moment, the Beheading Spirit Sword slammed down.

Chapter 853: Lin Rui VS The Kursed Part 2

Boom!

Different from Lin Rui's elegant style of firing thousands of sword strikes together when he used sword energy before, Thousand Mountain Slash is more like crushing people with force.

The Thousand Mountain Slash which was like a mountain filled with sword energy slash was directly pressed down and it really looked like a mountain falling from a high altitude. Although it is not as cool as countless sword energy flying towards the enemy, the shock and oppression of falling sword mountain seem to be more intense.

Huhu~

On the ground, when The Kursed Algrim, who had punched the air, looked up, he saw the rapidly forming mountain of sword energy smashing towards him. Although he didn't know what kind of energy the Azura rays were, Algrim could clearly sense the enormous energy they contained.

Therefore, without any hesitation, Algrim bent his knees slightly, and he was ready to escape the attack range of Sword Mountain.

Indeed, the power of Lin Rui's move is indeed powerful, and it is greater than his previous strongest attack. However, its attack speed is a lot slower, and if the enemy is fast enough, it can still be avoided.

Of course, such a powerful move could not have such a big and obvious loophole. With this powerful sword mountain, there is also a move to trap the enemy, but Lin Rui has not had time to use it. So, he used something else instead.

"Huh! Do you want to leave?! It's not going to be that easy!" With the Beheading Spirit Sword already slashing down and the mountain of swords already whistling down, Lin Rui's eyes were cold as he saw the movement of that tall Dark Elf warrior and let out a low bellow.

Pū Pū Pū!

In the next moment, a few small metal balls suddenly exploded on the ground beside Algrim, who was about to use his strength to leave the attack range of Sword Mountain in an instant. Then, a strong force field instantly enveloped Algrim, which was caused by Lin Rui who quietly threw the weapons that could produce such effects to the ground to avoid Algrim's fist just now.

Under the cover of this powerful force field, the tall figure of Algrim who was about to rush out suddenly sank and he didn't even take a step forward. It's not that Algrim is completely taken over by this resistance, it's just that the sudden change of situation is too much for him.

Boom!

By the time Algrim adapted to this powerful force field, the Thousand Mountain Slash above his head has also smashed down, and he couldn't escape at all.

"Haha!" Looking at the Dark Elf warrior who couldn't move under his Sword Mountain, Lin Rui let out a laugh in mid-air.

Whoosh!

In the next moment, The Kursed, who could not escape the attack could not escape the situation of being smashed down by the giant sword mountain. Therefore, he could only quickly raise his strong arms above his head. This is the first time that Algrim had been put into such a passive position after he started following Malekith.

Bang!

The Sword Mountain composed of sword energy is like a real mountain, and the huge gravity accompanies it smashed to the ground. Algrim is like a poor little Worm being smashed by a huge stone, and his entire figure was pressed to the ground.

However, if it was a normal Worm, it would have been flattened by the rock. But Algrim isn't just any Worm. He's at least a Roach and is quite difficult to kill.

When the giant sword mountain was pressed down, Algrim's raised his arms and dark energy rushed out of his body and violent energy fluctuations occurred when the sword mountain energy came into contact with those dark energies below, and countless sword-shaped energy strongly began to resonate.

Soon, the layer of dark energy was directly broken by the sword mountain. Then, Algrim's arms went on top.

Ka Ka Ka!

When the sword mountain hit him, Algrim's raised arms sank sharply to his head and made a sound similar to that of bone being broken. Although Algrim's arms were constantly trembling under the pressure of Sword Mountain's enormous force, his entire body was even bent. However, he actually blocked Lin Rui's attack.

"This is really amazing! How can you stand it?!" Seeing that the tall Dark Elf warrior below was able to withstand his attack, a golden light flashed in Lin Rui's eyes as he spoke in a low voice.

Brush!

While speaking, Lin Rui threw the Beheading Spirit Sword out of his hand. The thrown Beheading Spirit Sword turned into a dark silver light and directly shot through the giant sword mountain below to the top of Algrim's head, who was still holding on.

Lin Rui doesn't believe that the Dark Elf warrior below would be able to block his Beheading Spirit Sword while blocking the sword mountain. For the Dark Elf warrior below, Lin Rui also roughly guessed his identity. However, even if he is that guy, Lin Rui will not be afraid of him.

Sure enough, Algrim, who had already started to bend under the pressure of Sword Mountain, also noticed the silver light that shot towards him. So, Algrim pulls his arms back before the Beheading Spirit Sword has fully crossed the Sword Mountain, then he threw his head in his arms and quickly falls to the ground.

Pū!

Boom!

The next moment, the huge sword mountain directly pressed down on his body.

Huhu~

"This...that guy did it!?... " Thor murmured in disbelief as he looked at the smoke and dust blowing in front of him.

Although Lin Rui was very fast, he left Thor and the others behind at the beginning. However, when he was fighting with The Kursed, Thor and the others had already come after him. Therefore, when Lin Rui flew into the air and unleashed Thousand Mountain Slash, Thor and others saw it.

Thor and the others also saw the development of the situation afterward and everyone had a shocked expression on their faces as they watched the powerful performance of the guy in the black suit. Among these people, Jane Foster was probably the one who was most surprised. Because she recognized who the man in black who was floating in the air was.

"That... is that Mirage Knight? He's not..." After confirming that the guy suspended in mid-air was someone she knew, Jane Foster muttered to herself in surprise.

Fortunately, Thor's muttering was very low, and Jane was also frightened by the scene in front of her, otherwise, she would have heard Thor say Jackson's name.

Boom!

Under the shocked expressions of Thor and the others, the sword mountain that hit the ground slowly dissipated. However, the hard ground of the Asgard Palace has been smashed into a huge pothole by the sword mountain, and the target of the sword mountain's attack is now invisible.

"With such a powerful attack, the Dark Elf warrior should have only left behind ashes." Seeing the huge pothole, the Golden Armored Guard Captain next to Thor couldn't help but say.

"I don't know, but it's time we get there." Thor shook his head as he spoke before he rushed towards Lin Rui with his team, and Jane Foster, who seemed to have recovered, was also with him.

Chapter 854: Lin Rui VS The Kursed Part 3

Huhu~

The mountain of swords made up of countless Azura sword qi has quickly dissipated, but the huge crater in the ground is a reminder to all those who saw that scene just now, that what just happened was real.

"That...is that the kid that Heimdall mentioned?" Frigga, who left the chamber after Malekith and his friends, looked at the scene and said to herself.

In front of Frigga, where Lin Rui had left the bomb trap, Malekith was staring angrily at Lin Rui, who had landed slowly from mid-air. Just now Malekith and The Kursed were caught in Lin Rui's blast trap, and Algrim quickly locked on to Lin Rui's position and struck, leaving Malekith behind.

Therefore, Malekith saw all the short encounters between Algrim and Lin Rui. It was when he saw The Kursed, the most powerful single combat force of The Dark Elves, disappear in a single move made by a nameless and unknown person that he became angry.

Malekith was not worried at all about whether Algrim would fall under the shocking attack just now. If The Kursed can't even handle this level of attack, then he doesn't deserve to be called The Kursed. It's just that Malekith couldn't hold back his anger at seeing an Ant stomping on his greatest weapon.

Brush!

So, staring at Lin Rui who was slowly falling in mid-air, Malekith waved the scepter in his hand and struck. As Lin Rui was slowly falling after releasing a big move, a strong dark energy shot from below.

"En!? Sneak attack!" In the middle of the air, Lin Rui, who was observing the result of his last move, suddenly sensed the danger that was approaching him.

Swoosh!

As Lin Rui's attention shifted to the dark energy that was shooting toward him, a light blue magic energy also came after him from below. When the dark energy was about to attack Lin Rui, it directly overtook it and then turned back to stop it.

Bang!

Then, two completely different energies exploded in front of Lin Rui, and the violent shock wave pushed Lin Rui to the ground.

"Looking at the appearance of the Dark Elf, he should be Malekith, the leader of the Dark Elves. However, he doesn't seem to be that powerful. Even Thor's mother can stop him." With the help of this shock wave, Lin Rui quickly landed on the ground while silently thinking as he looked at the two people over there who were fighting because of him.

"I don't know if the Aether was taken away by Malekith but looking at Jane's condition, she seems to be fine. So, what about the Aether?" Lin Rui thought quickly in his heart as he stared at Malekith.

Although Lin Rui could not remember Malekith's strength in the original story, he should have a good strength since he was able to take away the Aether.

Moreover, in the original story, Malekith was able to fight against Thor on equal ground in the end. Malekith, who does not use the energy of Aether is not inferior to Thor, and the strength of Thor with his divine power can be said to be abnormal.

Click~

While Lin Rui was standing on the ground observing Malekith, whose attack was caught by Frigga, a crack of a stone was suddenly heard from the crater in front of him, which was smashed by the Sword Mountain. Then, a figure rushed out of the hole, aiming directly at the somewhat distracted Lin Rui.

"He's really fine!" The figure instantly swooped down in front of him, and Lin Rui, who had no time to make any other moves, could only subconsciously put the Beheading Spirit Sword across his body.

Ching~~

With a crunching sound, Lin Rui was knocked out by the huge impact. Unlike The Kursed's previous attack on Lin Rui with his fists, Algrim, who came out of the big pit, used his black short dagger to attack him this time.

Phew!

Algrim, who had cut off Lin Rui with his dagger, was in a strong position and he wasn't keen on showing any mercy. With a flick of his right hand, the short black dagger had turned into a black shadow and chased the backward figure of Lin Rui and shot towards him.

During the flight, the black dagger changed its position several times, and each change of position blocked the possible escape route of Lin Rui at that time.

"This power... It's comparable to Hulk!" Lin Rui, who flew out, grabbed the Beheading Spirit Sword with trembling hands and thought helplessly.

This time, because of the confrontation between the dark energy and the Heart of Life energy, Lin Rui's strength has been greatly improved. Originally, Lin Rui thought that he could already compete with the powerful warriors in this world. However, this Dark Elf incident made Lin Rui understand that this improvement in strength is not something to be proud of.

Therefore, as the black dagger was approaching him, the Beheading Spirit Sword in Lin Rui's hand also released some Azura light along the trajectory of Lin Rui's backward flight according to a certain rhythm. The stronger the internal energy in the body, the more skills Lin Rui can unlock, which is something he couldn't think of before.

Whew!!

Finally, the short black dagger chased Lin Rui and then stabbed Lin Rui's chest without any hesitation.

Faced with this additional attack, Lin Rui knew that he couldn't trust the defense of the Phantom Suit. Therefore, he could only raise the Beheading Spirit Sword again to block it in front of his chest. The next moment, the short dagger had already hit the blade of the Beheading Spirit Sword.

Brush!

There is no one-shot kill so the short dagger flashed in front of Lin Rui's chest and flew back towards the back. In the back, Algrim has almost reached Lin Rui's position.

"You want to kill me?! It's not going to be that easy!" Looking at Algrim's fast pace, Lin Rui spoke in a low voice as he started his layout.

Buzz!

The next moment, when Lin Rui swung the Beheading Spirit Sword, Azura energy lines appeared on Algrim's way forward. These energy lines were not very powerful, and Algrim rushed forward regardless.

However, when he found that he had a lot of Azura energy lines wrapped around him, the speed of his forward charge had involuntarily decreased a lot.

These Azura energy lines were secretly released by Lin Rui when he was chased by the black dagger, and now, these lines are now stopping Algrim's pursuit.

"I don't need to take another shot at the back! I really just want to see what the Aether looks like!" When he landed again, Lin Rui looked at Algrim who was almost trapped by the trap he set in front of him.

Moreover, when he was in the air just now, Lin Rui had already seen Thor rushing over with someone. Therefore, he has been making a fuss until now, and the protagonist should take over.

Moreover, when he was in mid-air just now, Lin Rui had already seen Thor rushing over with his men. So, it was always time for the protagonist to take over the situation just now.

Bang Bang Bang!

The Kursed was entangled by the Azura rays and he struggled to break free from them one by one but it gave Lin Rui enough time to escape.

Chapter 855: Deadlock

Boom!

Boom!

Boom!

While Lin Rui blocked that short dagger attack and ran towards Thor and others, Algrim had also disintegrated a strip of Azura light that was wrapped around his body. After breaking free from these annoying energy beams, however, Algrim did not continue his pursuit but turned back to look at Malekith after sweeping a look at the fleeing Lin Rui.

Brush!

Then, Algrim abandoned Lin Rui and turned to run towards Malekith. Algrim was under the command of Malekith, but he wasn't a fool. The two of them who went deep into the Asgard Palace were strong enough to force their way out, and if they dragged on, the situation would get worse and worse. Therefore, he chose to return to Malekith as defeating both of them would be difficult.

And when Algrim gave up on chasing Lin Rui to help Malekith, Frigga, who tried her best to stop Malekith, also stopped. If Malekith was in his prime, Frigga wouldn't have been able to hold him back for so long. With the addition of The Kursed, Frigga is definitely going to retreat.

Bang!

In this way, in a flash of magic, Frigga was enveloped in a burst of green light. When the light dissipated, her figure also disappeared. When she reappeared, Frigga was already standing in front of Thor.

And after Frigga and Thor reunited, Algrim also returned to Malekith. At this point, Malekith's plan was almost a complete failure.

Originally, he wanted to use the outside army to attract most of the fighting power of the Asgard, so that he and Algrim could go deep into the palace to capture the Aether. Their plan is mostly based on sneaking inside the palace, after all, this is Asgard.

But now, the Aether is possessed by the unidentified woman. And Malekith suffered from Frigga's attack when she tried to stop him from taking the Aether, plus the inexplicable attack of the Aether host so that Malekith has not touched it until now. It can be said that the current situation is very unfavorable for Malekith.

Whoosh!

Opposite to Malekith and Algrim, Lin Rui has also run to Thor's side. Moreover, in addition to the Golden Armor team that originally came with Thor, more and more Asgard warriors had come to support them.

It seems that the battlefield outside the palace has stabilized, and the invasion of the Dark Elves has obviously been stopped.

"Mother! Are you okay?" Thor asked worriedly after Frigga flashed beside him.

"I am okay, Malekith can't hurt me." Frigga shook her head when she heard Thor's words.

"Where's Father? Could it be true what Sif told me? He..." Although Frigga said that he was fine, Thor was still very angry, so he asked about Odin's situation.

"Your father is all right, but he's not suitable to come forward right now. Besides, can't we solve this kind of thing on our own?" Seeing Thor's question about Odin's situation, Frigga simply explained.

"He is not suitable to step in for you to take action? I've never seen you fight anyone in my life!" Hearing Frigga's explanation, Thor said with great dissatisfaction.

With his Divine power sealed, Thor has to go all out in the face of opponents who he could smash with a single hammer before. Now, Thor is very upset seeing that his usually gentle and generous mother is fighting with the enemy.

“Don’t talk so much now, the Aether is still in your girlfriend’s body. Although I don’t know why the Aether does not continue to devour her life energy but we still have to take the Aether out.” With so many questions, Frigga’s eyes shifted to the side toward Jane as she spoke.

Swipe!

After Frigga finished saying this, Lin Rui, who was still staring at Malekith, turned his head to Jane Foster. Jane didn’t know what was going on at this time and she happened to be looking at Lin Rui, the Mirage Knight she knew.

“So the Aether is still in Jane’s body! What should I do now in this situation?” Ignoring Jane’s look, Lin Rui looked at her and thought.

“Then!... What should I do now?!” Thor asked with a worried expression on his face as he looked at Jane who knew nothing about her situation.

Knowing that Thor wanted to help Jane, Frigga silently shook her head, and she had no other choice. The current situation regarding the Aether is very special, one that neither Frigga nor Malekith has ever encountered.

Depending on the situation, it seems that Aether has some consciousness of its own, and it is using Jane’s body to exert its own power.

“No matter what, there will always be a way!” Thor’s heart sank when he saw Frigga shaking her head, but he still stubbornly said that.

‘If you can’t do it then maybe Malekith would be able to. It’s just, how do I make sure that he doesn’t escape after taking the Aether out of Jane’s body?’ Lin Rui, who also saw Frigga’s action, was not as disappointed as Thor and was already thinking of other ways.

As Thor and the others converged and chatted about Jane’s situation, Malekith and The Kursed stood on the other side and stared at them. They obviously saw Jane’s appearance and they knew that the Aether is in this woman’s body.

As long as they caught this woman, they would be able to get their hands on Aether. This is something that Malekith knows very well.

However, with the full support of the Asgard’s best soldiers behind her, Malekith and Algrim knew that they wouldn’t be able to catch Jane no matter how strong they were.

“Malekith, what should we do now? Should we retreat or fight?” Algrim spoke for the first time as he looked at the people on the opposite side.

Algrim wasn’t able to do anything against the masked guy and from the outside, it looked as if he was still on the losing side. After all, the Sword Mountain was visually stunning.

However, he hasn’t shown his full strength otherwise, the Sword Mountain wouldn’t have been able to suppress him and that is saying something considering that it is Lin Rui’s strongest attack at the moment.

“Retreat? How can I retreat when the Aether is right in front of me?!” Hearing Algrim’s question, Malekith replied with a cold light in his eyes.

“Then we...”

“As long as Odin doesn’t show up, we have a chance. The Aether is in that woman’s body and she is our sole target!”

Chapter 856: Suggestion

Buzzing~

When more and more soldiers came to support Thor and others, a sudden burst of energy fluctuations came from Jane, who was being held by Thor’s hand.

“Ah! It hurts!” At the same time as this burst of energy fluctuations came out, Jane also screamed in pain while holding her head.

Obviously, the Aether will not really get attached to Jane who is an ordinary earth woman. She will die soon if the Aether is not stripped away from her body.

Hoo!

As Jane held her head and screamed in pain, Frigga waved her hand in front of her. Then, after a flash of green light, Jane fell silent. Frigga directly used magic to put her to sleep, which could not heal the damage that Aether had done to her, but it could ease her pain.

“No! This is not happening!” Thor said distressedly when he saw Jane frowning in pain in his arms.

“Jackson! I know you are very smart, and you have a lot of ideas about every kind of situation. I saw the battle between you and The Kursed just now. You weren’t that strong before. So, I ask you now as a friend, is there any way you can save Jane? !” After confirming that his mother could do nothing, Thor looked at Lin Rui, who had been silent for a while, and asked with an anxious expression on his face.

“Uh...this...” Lin Rui was a little stunned when Thor suddenly asked him if he could do anything.

Of course, Lin Rui knew how to strip the Aether from Jane’s body, and let Malekith, who was standing not far from them, do it. However, how can Lin Rui guarantee that Malekith won’t hurt Jane when he strips the Aether out? So he’s afraid to say anything now.

“You have a solution?!” Although Lin Rui didn’t say anything, his hesitant look gave Thor infinite hope.

Frigga, who also saw Lin Rui’s hesitant expression, was also surprised. Even with the advanced technology of Asgard, she couldn’t handle the current situation, how could this kid from the Midgard solve it?

However, after staring at Lin Rui for a while, Frigga’s eyes flashed as if she had thought of something.

“Could it be... he wants to use that?...” After looking at Lin Rui, Frigga thought silently in her heart.

The reason why Lin Rui was teleported to Asgard by Bifrost, of course, is known to Frigga. Heimdall sensed the Space energy of the Magic Cube from Lin Rui when he was bringing Thor and Jane. Therefore, Frigga is also aware of the fact that Lin Rui has the Magic Cube in his hand.

So, since Lin Rui seems to have a way to help Jane Foster, all Frigga can think of is that he would be thinking about using the Magic Cube.

After all, the Magic Cube is also Infinity Stone. According to legend, each Infinity Stone has an energy rivalry which means that they wouldn't exist with each other without a containment unit of some kind. If that's true, maybe using the Magic Cube will actually save Jane Foster.

However, Frigga is clearly out of her mind in thinking that Lin Rui has no idea what connection or rivalry there is between Infinity Stones.

He also knew that he had been transported to Asgard because of the Magic Cube, so how could he even think of using it?

"My method is dangerous, and..." Seeing Thor's expectant eyes, Lin Rui couldn't hold back.

"And what?! I would do anything as long as you can save Jane!" Thor asked anxiously, seeing Lin Rui's hesitant expression.

"And... we have to give up the Aether!" Finally, Lin Rui said the cost.

No matter how many changes have been made in the previous plot, Lin Rui seems to push the plot to the right track with his own hands for the safety of Jane Foster. Although Malekith and The Kursed are now surrounded in the palace, there is no guarantee that he doesn't have a way to escape.

So, if Malekith does try to rip the Aether out of Jane's body then they'll probably break through and pose a threat to the Nine Realms. And this time, there is no Thor with his full power to stop him.

"Then we give it up! It wasn't a good thing in the first place! If it wasn't for it, Dark Elf wouldn't have invaded Asgard, and Jane wouldn't have become like this." Thor replied without any hesitation after hearing the price mentioned by Lin Rui.

When Lin Rui said the price and Thor answered quickly, the expressions on Frigga's face changed a few times, but in the end, she didn't say anything.

"Also, I haven't mentioned the dangers yet..." Lin Rui continued, knowing that Thor would give up the Aether for Jane.

"What danger?"

"My solution is to... let Malekith strip the Aether out of Jane's body... and I think you should be aware of the dangers involve in this." After hesitating for a long time, Lin Rui still spoke out about the solution.

Thor: "..."

After listening to Lin Rui's solution, Thor's hopeful eyes went blank. He couldn't imagine that Lin Rui would propose such a solution. The solution was undoubtedly to push Jane into the fire pit, and Thor would need to do it himself.

“Are you sure Malekith has a way to strip out the Aether?” After a while, Thor, who was sure that he had heard correctly, stared at Lin Rui and asked again.

“I’m sure of it!” At this point, Lin Rui couldn’t drag it any longer as Jane may not be able to hold on any longer.

“That’s good! I’m going to negotiate with him! As long as he can strip the Aether out of Jane’s body without hurting her then I will let him go today!” After confirming Lin Rui’s answer, Thor took a look at Jane Foster, who looked increasingly pale, and said it with a serious expression on his face.

“Thor.....” Hearing Thor’s decision, Frigga began to speak with some concern.

“Mother! Don’t try to persuade me, haven’t you always taught me to take responsibility and protect those who are weaker than me? If I can’t even protect my own woman then how can I protect the others?” Thor’s expression became very serious as he interrupted Frigga.

“No, I didn’t intend to persuade you. I just wanted to say that I can negotiate with him. I am the Queen of Asgard, my words should hold more value than the current you.” Upon hearing Thor’s words, Frigga smiled and explained.

A minute later, Thor came out of the defensive line alone. As a responsible prince, how could Thor allow his mother to negotiate with the other party, even after knowing that he would not be able to block a blow from Malekith or The Kursed with his current power.

Chapter 857: Negotiations

Not long after Thor walked out, Lin Rui silently followed. Lin Rui is still a little worried about Thor going towards the enemy alone when it comes to negotiating with Malekith. After all, Thor is relatively weak right now. If Malekith took Thor as a hostage then they might not only be unable to save Jane but also lose a lot more.

Of course, although Lin Rui’s strength has been greatly enhanced, he also knows that he is no match for The Kursed after his brief encounter with him. However, in addition to his own strength, he has other cards, such as Magic Cube, which has been in Lin Rui’s personal space.

If it really came to a crisis then Lin Rui would use the power of the Magic Cube against Malekith even at great risk. In order to make his cards work at the last minute, Lin Rui redeemed a guide to using the Magic Cube in the System Shop.

After all, even Hydra was able to develop a lot of time-travel technology based on the Magic Cube, which means that ordinary people can use the power of the Magic Cube.

Therefore, Lin Rui directly searched for the use method of Magic Cube in the System Shop and redeemed part of the user guide within the range of Reward Points that he could bear at this time.

Anyway, Lin Rui will return to the earth after the Asgard event. If he can take the Magic Cube back with him, the user guide he redeemed can save them a lot of initial research and experiments on the Magic Cube. Therefore, Lin Rui will not lose anything.

“Jackson, I’m glad you’re here with me. This matter is completely unrelated to you. If Heimdall hadn’t teleported you too, you’d be on Earth having fun with your friends.” Thor walked towards Malekith and said to Lin Rui beside him.

“At this point, I’m really glad that I can come to Asgard with you. Don’t worry, things are looking even worse for Malekith. He will be willing to negotiate with us if he still wants to get the Aether.” Lin Rui said calmly after hearing Thor’s words.

For Lin Rui, the opportunity for Convergence between Nine Realms is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, as long as his memory is correct. Malekith must seize this opportunity if he is to complete his grand plan for complete domination. So Malekith could not drag it out much longer.

“Huh, if Malekith wants to make a move then you can run, I have a way to deal with him,” Thor said. Although he was thankful for Lin Rui’s support, he didn’t want him to be in real danger.

“I know.” Lin Rui replied indifferently to Thor’s concern.

At this point, they were already less than ten meters away from Malekith. Then the footsteps of the two gradually slowed down, and finally stopped at a position of about five meters.

From the beginning, when Thor and Lin Rui broke away from Asgard’s team and came to him, Malekith speculated about their purpose. After all, the situation is not good for him and the other side can use their army tactics to drag him and The Kursed to death. But they lingered and now they sent two men.

Malekith knows Thor, after all, Thor is the Crown Prince of Asgard, and his various deeds were quite famous among the races of the Nine Realms.

However, he heard that some time ago, the Crown Prince of Asgard went to the Frost Giant’s home and fought their leader which caused the current war between Asgardians and Jotun, so he was exiled by Odin. Now, Thor had appeared in Asgard, but his strength is not what it used to be.

Malekith would not be afraid of him even when Thor had access to his full power. Malekith is someone who has been leading the Dark Elves before Odin’s time and he wouldn’t be letting any new prince walk all over him.

However, Malekith didn’t know who the masked fellow who came along with Thor was. From his battle with The Kursed just now, although his strength is not top-notch, he is already quite powerful.

Also, he attacked in a way that Malekith had never seen before. That kind of Azura energy was something Malekith had never seen before.

“Is he someone outside of the Nine Realm?” Malekith also made some guesses about Lin Rui’s identity.

However, his guess is quite normal. Lin Rui can indeed be regarded as a kind of person outside the Nine Realms and even outside the entire Universe, but he is someone who knows the plot.

Not being able to read their purpose from Thor and Lin Rui, Malekith's eyes scanned the Asgard team behind them several times. After seeing the situation of the woman possessed by the Aether, Malekith's eyes flashed, and he seemed to think of something.

For Malekith, the Aether is worth far more than anything else. In his opinion, a woman who is about to be swallowed by the Aether is worthless. So he didn't take Jane seriously at first, and he thought the same should be true for the people on the opposite side. As long as the woman dies, the Aether will naturally return to its natural form.

But now, looking at the woman, unconscious but well taken care of by Frigga, Malekith felt as if he had caught her by a point. That is, they don't want to sacrifice that woman to get the Aether, they want to save her.

Therefore, when he saw Thor and Lin Rui coming to a stop in front of him, Malekith looked at them and his expression became extremely cold.

"For you two to come here... do you plan to capture us all on your own or do you plan to let us go?" Malekith spoke as he looked at Thor and Lin Rui with a cold expression on his face.

"If I let you go now, would you be willing to leave?" Thor asked in disdain after hearing Malekith's words.

Now that he's ready to negotiate, Thor also understands the importance of Aether. Therefore, he can't let the other party take the initiative.

"Didn't you invade Asgard this time for the Aether? Now that you haven't got the thing, will you be willing to leave empty-handed?" Thor continued to ask before Malekith could continue to speak.

"Humph! It seems that you already know our purpose. Yes! I'm here for the Aether!" Malekith said unceremoniously after hearing Thor's words.

"That's good! If I gave you a chance to leave now with the Aether, would you take it?" Thor asked loudly as he stared at Malekith.

Thor originally thought that Malekith would be excited after he said this or he would at least show some other expression on his face. But he was disappointed. Malekith seemed to know what Thor would say and the expression on his face remained cold.

Chapter 858: Bringing to Light

Seeing Malekith's unchanging icy expression, Thor's heart skipped a beat, but his face remained calm.

"What? Do you really think that with the two of you, you can snatch the Aether from us and leave safely? Don't underestimate us!" When Malekith didn't answer, Thor stepped forward and asked in a serious tone.

Hearing this, Malekith's eyes jumped, Thor had seemed to attack the already damaged nerve.

"Do you really think you can scare me? Be realistic, that woman who is housing the Aether cannot hold on anymore. If you didn't come here to ask me for help then I'd be happy to wait a little longer. Anyway, you and I and everyone know that my purpose is the Aether and only that, I don't care about that woman's life or death." Malekith raised his eyes and stared at Thor, who was pretending to be strong in front of him, and said in a disdainful tone.

Whatever the identity of the woman was, Malekith was pretty sure that the Asgard didn't want her to die because of the Aether. What gave them a chance to walk away with Aether was that they couldn't separate Aether from the woman. So, Malekith is no longer playing around with Thor.

"You!..." Hearing Malekith's words, Thor was so surprised that he did not know how to respond.

Malekith had seen through his own plan to trade the Aether for Janer's safety, and if he could have handled it, Thor would be passive. But, they really don't know how much longer Jane Foster will last.

"Hmm! ... Malekith, right?" When Thor did not know what to say because Malekith pointed out the situation, Lin Rui, who stood by without opening his mouth, coughed and answered.

"Who are you? This is a conversation between the Dark Elves and the Asgard. Although Thor is still young, at least he can represent Asgard. What and who are you?!" As soon as Lin Rui opened his mouth, Malekith's cold eyes directly swept towards him as he asked back.

Hoo!

At the same time, a bleak mental impact quickly pounced on Lin Rui. It appears that Malekith is trying to test or disable this guy of unknown origin.

Shout!!

When the mental shock came, the light in Lin Rui's eyes condensed instantly, and the Psychic Power belonging to Lin Rui also poured out of his body, forming a solid defense.

Pū~

The next moment, an invisible collision occurred in front of Lin Rui. The collision of the two Psychic Powers made Lin Rui frown slightly, but he didn't take a step back. After so many battles and various accidents, Lin Rui's Psychic Power has also grown to a very high level.

"Jackson! You..." Sensing that there had been an invisible confrontation around him, Thor looked at Lin Rui and opened his mouth with some concern.

Hearing Thor's words, Lin Rui silently shook his head at him.

"Humph! It seems that you are also a Sorcerer!" Malekith said with a cold snort when he saw that Lin Rui was doing fine after suffering under the impact of his Psychic Power.

In Malekith's eyes, only the Magic-using Sorcerer has a powerful amount of Psychic Power. Although ordinary warriors have strong willpower and can resist the impact of other Psychic Powers, it is impossible for them to form a Psychic Power defense like Lin Rui just did.

"You don't need to worry about who I am, it's just... can you really drag it on?" Lin Rui asked indifferently as he stared at Malekith with his unmasked eyes, not caring about Malekith's guess about his identity.

Brush!

“What do you... mean!” Hearing Lin Rui’s words, Malekith, who had a cold expression on his face, suddenly stared at him and asked fiercely.

“As you can guess, we really don’t want that woman to die because of the Aether, and we do need your help. However, no one knows how long she can last, and I think you have experienced it yourself as to what happened before, and that situation may happen again.” Seeing the change in Malekith’s expression, Lin Rui continued to speak.

Since the negotiation just now allowed Malekith to seize the initiative, now, Lin Rui will take the initiative back again!

Malekith certainly knew what Lin Rui was talking about. If the Aether had not suddenly exerted some of its power to trap him in the illusion, he would have left Asgard with the Aether by now.

“What do you mean? !” Therefore, when Lin Rui mentioned this, Malekith asked in a deep tone.

“I mean... we may be able to delay it for a while, but you have no time to delay it any longer. After all, you have been waiting for this opportunity for a thousand years!” Looking into Malekith’s eyes, Lin Rui struck his final blow in a flat tone.

Boom!

When Lin Rui finished the last sentence, a huge amount of dark energy came out of Malekith’s body and his expression became very hideous. It seems that Lin Rui’s guess is correct, Malekith can’t miss the Convergence.

“How...how did you know that!?” Staring at Lin Rui in front of him, Malekith, who was constantly surging with dark energy, asked with a restrained expression.

“It’s none of your business how I know. Currently, I just want to ask you one thing, are you willing to seize this opportunity to take the Aether and leave? Or, wait until the woman dies because of the Aether and then Asgardians would have nothing to hold them back and I don’t think even you would survive such an assault without fleeing with your tail between your legs.” Lin Rui asked unmoved as he looked at Malekith’s almost threatening appearance.

Huhu~

Hearing Lin Rui’s words, the dark energy pouring out of Malekith’s body retracted. It seemed that Lin Rui finally made the right bet this time. Convergence is the most important matter to Malekith.

“Do you swear that you would let me go after I take the Aether out of that women’s body?” Withdrew the dark energy, Malekith looked at the mysterious man in black and asked. Finally, the initiative returned to Lin Rui.

“No, the only thing we negotiated is that you take out the Aether and we want that woman to be safe. As for how you leave Asgard after you get the Aether, that’s up to you.” Lin Rui shook his head when he heard Malekith’s words.

Now that the initiative is back, Lin Rui can no longer let the other party take advantage of them. Moreover, Lin Rui still remembered that in the original plot, Malekith had used the Aether on Earth to plunge the entire Nine Realms into permanent darkness. So, he can’t just let him go.

Chapter 859: Condition Achieves

The expression on Malekith's face became even uglier after hearing Lin Rui's rude words! But this man was also right, he really couldn't put it off any longer. As Lin Rui said just now, Malekith has been waiting for this Convergence for a thousand years, and he can't miss it.

"No! If I take out the Aether from that woman's body then you must also swear to let us go and the Aether belonged to me." Although he was very anxious, Malekith still wanted a chance for himself and The Kursed to leave safely.

"I have made it very clear just now that the transaction content is Aether for the woman's life. As for letting you go, even if I agree, Asgard won't." Hearing Malekith's request, Lin Rui also stood by his words.

Lin Rui is not convinced that Malekith doesn't have a way to run away from Asgard, maybe there is a hidden ship somewhere around here that can take him and The Kursed away.

And after Lin Rui rejected Malekith's request, Thor, who was standing beside him, tried his best to keep his expression calm. Thor has tried to keep such expression since Lin Rui started talking to Malekith, even though he was surprised by what Lin Rui said. Especially when Lin Rui rejected Malekith's request just now as Thor had almost agreed.

"Humph! You're planning to let me save your women without letting me go!" Malekith said with a cold snort when he heard Lin Rui answer.

"The choice is in your hands. The only condition I can give you is this. Besides, I also believe that you have the strength to leave." Hearing Malekith's words, Lin Rui's mouth curled slightly as he continued to speak.

From Malekith's words just now, Lin Rui has basically confirmed that he will compromise. Whether Malekith can escape the Asgard after getting the Aether depends on the game between Asgard and Malekith. Anyway, Lin Rui promised to save Jane so he is already doing the best he could at the moment.

As the negotiation has reached this level, Malekith has nothing to talk about with Lin Rui. After finishing the negotiation, Malekith took a look at The Kursed. Malekith is now making sure that if he gets the Aether, he can break through before the Asgardians attack him with their full strength.

Two seconds later, Malekith had pulled his gaze back. If Odin was really in Odin Sleep then Malekith thinks he can still have a fighting chance.

"I accept your terms and hope you will do what you say you will." Then, Malekith looked at Lin Rui in front of him and said coldly.

"The terms of the negotiations made by Asgard will of course be followed, but I hope that you will not do anything else in the process. Otherwise, I will not let you leave Asgard alive." Hearing Malekith's words, Thor, who had been holding back until now, finally spoke, in a very imperious and threatening tone.

"Humph, I am not someone who breaks their words!" Knowing what Thor meant, Malekith snorted coldly as he spoke.

“Thor, go back and bring Jane, I’ll wait for you here.” After Malekith finally agreed to this condition, Lin Rui looked at Thor and said quickly.

Malekith couldn’t wait because of the Convergence, and Lin Rui and the others couldn’t wait because of Jane’s condition. If they continue to drag the situation then it will become difficult for Jane to be rescued.

“Be careful, I don’t trust them!” Thor reminded after hearing Lin Rui’s words, then turned around and walked back.

There is no reason for Lin Rui to stay and wait for Thor, but he still chooses to believe him. As for Thor’s last sentence before turning around, it was actually for Malekith, to make him feel uncomfortable and reduce the possibility of attacking Lin Rui.

“Don’t worry, I’ll be fine.” Lin Rui said lightly as he watched Thor’s back.

Then Thor went back to pick up Jane Foster, and Lin Rui stood calmly in front of Malekith and The Kursed.

“Are you really not afraid that we will catch you and use you as a bargaining chip?” Malekith asked as he stared at Lin Rui, who seemed to have no worries.

In fact, when Lin Rui said that he wanted to stay, Malekith was indeed ready to make a move at that moment.

“Actually, I was a little worried, given how powerful you and The Kursed are. Still, I’m a little hard to catch. Besides, the point of my staying is to reassure you that our deal is fair. After all, no one knows how many elite soldiers are lying in wait on the Asgard side.” Hearing Malekith’s words, Lin Rui answered calmly.

“You’re quite confident!” Malekith said with a pretense of disdain as he looked at Lin Rui’s calm look.

Now, Malekith is curious about Lin Rui’s identity, such a powerful young man can’t be someone anonymous. And he is obviously familiar with Asgard and even has some kind of influence that he could negotiate with him and make demands regarding the Aether.

Moreover, Lin Rui knew that he not only needed the Aether but also needed to finish the plan before the Convergence passed. You see, Malekith’s plans are unknown to anyone but the grand elder wizard of the Dark Elves.

“Where are you from? Judging from your previous combat performance, you can’t be from Asgard. Could it be... Are you from Alfheim?” Seeing that Lin Rui didn’t answer, Malekith continued his speculation.

After Asgard established its dominance over the Nine Realms thousands of years ago, the major kingdoms in the World Tree have been stable for a long time. Although there have been small frictions between the various kingdoms over the past thousand years, those are irrelevant.

It is precisely because of this peaceful development environment that the connection between Nine Realms is not so close and frequent. (Earth is in a state where almost no one would visit them.)

The older generation has almost all retired or died, and the outstanding characters of the new generation have not fully grown up. It is also because of Asgard's status that Thor has a little reputation in the Nine Realms. The outstanding young people of several other kingdoms are not as dazzling as Thor.

So Malekith didn't know where the kid in front of him came from. However, judging from Lin Rui's previous performance, he is most likely from Alfheim.

After all, the only attack method that Malekith could not see was probably only the mysterious spell of the Alfheim sorcerers.

Chapter 860: Change

Hearing Malekith's words, Lin Rui was stunned for a moment. He didn't know what the Alfheim was, but Lin Rui quickly reacted, listening to the name of Alfheim, it should be one of the Nine Realms.

"No, I'm not from Alfheim." So, Lin Rui shook his head and denied Malekith's guess.

Lin Rui is from Earth and he is someone from the other Realms. However, Lin Rui will definitely not tell Malekith where he is from. Malekith may go to Earth to harm the whole world after getting the Aether.

"No? Then you can't be from other realms, unless... you are from the universe outside the World Tree!" Hearing Lin Rui's answer, Malekith's eyes flashed as he seemed to have guessed something.

"Uh..." Seeing that Malekith seems to be very tangled about his identity, Lin Rui is also feeling very helpless.

However, since Malekith wanted to know so much, Lin Rui wouldn't keep hiding it from him. So, after a little hesitation, Lin Rui answered.

"Yes, I do come from the universe outside the World Tree. My name is Peter Jason Quill, and I also go by my other nickname, Star-Lord. So, have you heard of me?" Lin Rui generously reported the origin of "himself" as he looked at Malekith.

"Star-Lord? I haven't heard of it. Maybe you are not famous enough. The universe is still very big, and there are many people with good strength like you." Hearing Lin Rui's serious self-introduction, Malekith searched in his long memory and came to an answer.

During the period when Thor went back to pick up Jane Foster, Malekith actually talked with Lin Rui. Although it was all about something unimportant, the atmosphere eased a lot. If Malekith had known that few of Lin Rui's words were true, I wonder if he would have directly shot this fine young man to death.

While they were chatting, Thor had already walked over with Jane in his arms. In addition to Thor, Frigga and the four warriors were also next to him.

"Young man, if you're visiting the Nine Realms this time then I suggest you go home when this is over. Sooner or later, the universe will fall into permanent darkness, and if we meet again in the future, perhaps I will show you some mercy." Malekith warned Lin Rui as he looked at Thor and others who came quickly behind him.

If Malekith can successfully leave with Aether then his plan will be more than half successful. As long as he unleashes all the power of the Aether when the Convergence starts, he would be able to devour the World Tree in a short period of time and plunge all the Nine Realms into eternal darkness.

After plunging the Nine Realms into darkness, his next goal is the vast and boundless starry sky. Since the young man in front of him is from the universe, Malekith might as well give him a warning, if he is really famous in the universe.

“Well, thank you in advance. But I have a feeling we’ll meet again soon, and not in the way you think.” Hearing Malekith’s words, Lin Rui chuckled twice and said.

Currently, it’s not clear whether Malekith can leave with the Aether but if he can really break through Asgard’s siege with the Aether then his next goal will be the Earth. Therefore, Lin Rui must return to Earth to stop his plan. Well, their next meeting will surely surprise Malekith.

After saying that, Lin Rui turned around. Behind him, Thor was already walking toward them with Jane in his arms. As for Frigga and others, in addition to not trusting Malekith, they also need to guarantee the safety of Thor and others.

“Now then, shall we start?” Seeing Thor walking forward with Jane in his arms, Malekith spoke faintly with narrowed eyes staring at the unconscious Jane Foster.

Hearing Malekith’s words, Thor and Frigga looked at each other a few times, then looked at Lin Rui again. After receiving the affirmative look from Lin Rui, Thor took another two steps forward while holding Jane.

“Let’s start!”

Buzzing~

A minute later, Jane Foster, who was being held by Thor, emitted a special wave of energy belonging to the Aether Particle. After Malekith’s action, Aether is finally about to be removed from Jane’s body by him.

After the wave of energy appeared, Thor and the others focused their attention on Jane and Malekith’s situation. If Malekith dares to make any unnecessary move at this time, Thor and the others will definitely kill him at any cost.

However, Lin Rui, who was also standing aside and watching all this in front of him, blinked quickly, and the expression on his face covered by the mask was also changing rapidly.

Since the energy fluctuation of the Aether Particle emanated from Jane, Lin Rui noticed a little unusual movement in the Magic Cube in his personal space.

“Damn it! I don’t need any problem with the Magic Cube at this time!” Lin Rui muttered helplessly in his heart with his brows furrowed as he continue to sense the movement of the Magic Cube in the portable space.

If there is a problem with the Magic Cube at this time, the space energy it emits will completely ignore Lin Rui's portable space and transfer to the outside, just like it did when the Bifrost appeared before.

Lin Rui didn't know what impact the Magic Cube's energy would have on the current situation. After all, both the Magic Cube and the Aether Particle are Infinity Stones, so there might be some connection between them.

Huhu~

While Lin Rui was worried about the Magic Cube's movement, the situation in front of him had changed further. As the energy fluctuations of the Aether became more and more intense, some crimson flying sand slowly floated out of Jane's body, which are the Aether particles with no fixed form.

"This is the Aether!" Looking at the Aether Particle he extracted, the red light in Malekith's eyes became exceptionally bright.

Then, he struck out with more strength, and the Aether Particle detached from Jane's body faster. Looking at the situation, it would not be long before the Aether Particle could be completely stripped out by Malekith.

"Shit! The Magic Cube's energy is going to rush out!" Although Lin Rui was also attracted by the emergence of the Aether in front of him, he now had more difficult problems to solve.

"I don't know if the Magic Cube can be controlled by me in the portable space. If not, I'll just have to dodge!"
