

Marvel 921

Chapter 921: Departure

Lin Rui and Bucky had a conversation with an old man for a while. The old man told Johnny that it would be best for him to stay with him in this sacred place in order to live a peaceful life.

However, Johnny was not willing to spend the rest of his life in this way, especially since he did not see the evil spirits as particularly powerful, as he had casually killed one of them the night before.

"After talking for a long time, I still don't know anything about you. Judging by the appearance of the two of you, you shouldn't be ordinary people." The chat was deadlocked, and the old man turned his eyes to Lin Rui and Bucky and asked.

The old man asked Lin Rui and Bucky about their origins, as he noticed that they were not ordinary people. In fact, he had noticed the difference between them from the moment they entered the cemetery, and Johnny had a strong reaction to seeing them, indicating that they had some prior experience.

"We are merely passing through and came out of curiosity. We have no connection to your hells, ghosts, or Ghost Riders," Lin Rui replied with a smile upon hearing the old man's words.

"What is your plan now that you've heard all these stories? Do you want to leave right away?" The old man asked, ignoring Lin Rui's dismissive response.

Lin Rui turned to Bucky and asked, "Bucky, what do you think? I think this situation is quite dangerous. If we can't help Johnny deal with these evil spirits, we might end up in hell ourselves."

Although Lin Rui is very intrigued by this world of hell and Ghost Riders, the old man's warning has made it clear that their strength may not be enough to truly help Johnny. Additionally, Lin Rui is unsure of his own capabilities. Even though Bucky is strong, he is no match for someone like Johnny.

"I'll do whatever I want, you decide." Bucky, who has always been indifferent to danger, maintained his usual calm attitude. He was just watching the young man in front of him do whatever he pleased at the moment.

"I see...then we should probably continue on our journey. It's too risky to stay here," Lin Rui said, finally speaking after a few moments of hesitation.

After hearing Lin Rui's response, both the old man and Bucky were surprised. Bucky had assumed that Lin Rui would continue to stay and listen to the old man's stories, given that he had followed him all the way to the cemetery.

The old man, on the other hand, did not expect Lin Rui's attitude to change so drastically after hearing everything he had to say.

Despite the old man's earlier insistence that the situation was dire, he still believed that Johnny had a chance of winning, particularly against Blackheart. As a Ghost Rider of the older generation, the old man understood the power of the Ghost Rider well.

However, in order to help Johnny break free from the control of the demon Mephistos, the old man still hoped that he would stay and protect this Land.

Hoo!

"Let's go, Bucky," Lin Rui said as he stood up from the stool and gestured for Bucky to do the same.

"Oh," Bucky replied, quickly standing up.

"Then, we'll be going. Johnny, good luck with whatever you decide. I don't think you'll regret it." Lin Rui said a final blessing to Johnny before turning and walking towards the gate, with Bucky following behind him.

Ka~

Neither Johnny nor the old man said anything as they watched Lin Rui and Bucky leave. The old man was still stunned by Lin Rui's sudden change in attitude, while Johnny was lost in thought about his future path and he didn't care what Lin Rui and Bucky had decided.

In this way, Lin Rui and Bucky spent the day investigating a miraculous and magical event and ultimately decided to leave after hearing the full story. This decision was made entirely by Lin Rui, with Bucky simply following along.

"Jackson, are you really planning to just leave like that? I don't think you're the type of person to do that," Bucky asked as they walked down the road outside the cemetery, looking at Lin Rui who was walking next to him with a distracted expression.

"Of course not, but it's not safe for us to stay here any longer," Lin Rui replied with a smile on his face as he spoke to Bucky.

"Why not?" Bucky asked, despite expecting that Lin Rui would not want to leave easily.

"Bucky, do you truly believe what the old man said earlier?" Lin Rui asked Bucky while stepping on the grass in the cemetery.

"Well, don't you believe it? I mean, even though this may sound like a supernatural event, but with aliens appearing and all, it's not too surprising to think that hell and heaven might exist too," Bucky responded with a rhetorical question.

"Yeah, if aliens can appear, what's to say that the story of hell, which has been around since ancient times, couldn't be true?" Lin Rui said without any surprise at Bucky's answer.

"Then do you believe it?"

"Of course I do, otherwise I wouldn't have decided to help Johnny."

"Huh? When did you decide that?"

"Haha, just now!"

Bucky: "...". He was left speechless by Lin Rui's response.

In this way, Lin Rui and Bucky drove back to Rochester in the old jeep, with Bucky feeling helpless towards Lin Rui's decision. Lin Rui believed that Johnny would definitely choose to fight as he was not the type of person who would want to stay in a small cemetery for the rest of his life.

...

Not long after Lin Rui and Bucky left the cemetery, Johnny also left on his own bike. Just as Lin Rui had guessed, Johnny could not bring himself to stay and guard the cemetery with the old man for the rest of his life.

Although he knew the true nature of his situation, he still chose to fight. After all, he saw it as just Blackheart and a few fallen angels. He felt he still had a chance.

Additionally, learning about his situation from the old man made Johnny realize that his future life might not be as peaceful as he had thought. There might be some things he still needed to pursue, like the love he lost due to his contract.

Johnny wanted to have no regrets, especially since he didn't have a chance to have a proper conversation with his first love because of Lin Rui's interference the day before.

Boom~~

As Johnny rode off on his bike, the old man standing at the edge of the cemetery whispered, "I hope you can come back safely."

Chapter 922: Squatting

When Johnny returned to Rochester on his bike, he found that the area where he had transformed into Ghost Rider the previous night was now surrounded by engineering teams. The police were also investigating the scene, as Blackheart had shot and killed two innocent people the previous night.

Police Captain Dolan of the Rochester police department had personally come to the scene to investigate this matter, but even with a large number of police forces, they were unable to fully understand the damage caused by the Ghost Rider or the deaths of the two innocent people at the hands of Blackheart.

With Roxanne's help, Captain Dolan had a clue about a religious fanatic, but there were still many strange aspects to the deaths of the two men from sulfur poisoning. As Johnny slowly pushed his bike back to his residence, he saw Roxanne who was interviewing a chubby young girl near the scene.

This fat girl had been robbed the previous night and was rescued by Ghost Rider. Therefore, despite Ghost Rider's terrifying appearance, the fat girl tried to describe him as a normal human being in her interview.

Johnny, who was standing nearby and listening to the girl's description, silently touched his face and thought, "Is that what I look like?"

"Thank you for your help. Here is the report from Roxanne Simpson from the scene," Roxanne said with a suppressed smile, ending the interview in front of the camera. As she put down the microphone, she saw Johnny walking towards her.

Originally, Roxanne had planned to leave, as Johnny had not spoken to her much the previous day. However, now that Johnny knows his true nature, he wants to have no regrets at the end of his life.

Therefore, he stopped in front of Roxanne and greeted her with a smile. "Hey, Roxanne!" His burly body stood directly in front of her.

If there is no way for Johnny to escape his fate as Ghost Rider, he will probably die while trying to capture Blackheart. Therefore, since he has now reunited with his first love, whom he has never forgotten, Johnny doesn't want to miss her again. Even if he can't escape death in the end, he wants to have some good memories in his final days.

"Who are you?" Roxanne asked rudely as Johnny blocked her way and tried to stop her from walking around him.

However, Johnny was not willing to let her go. "Roxanne, I was wrong before, but I have my own problems too and I've learned some things. I don't want to keep regretting it, so I came to you," Johnny said, trying to explain himself sincerely despite knowing that Roxanne was angry with him.

"Regret? That's why you came to me? Johnny, have you always had feelings for me?" Roxanne asked bluntly after hearing Johnny's words.

"Roxanne, of course, I have," Johnny started to say, but Roxanne interrupted him.

"My father was right, you're just a phase and this regret is just a whim," She said. "If you really had feelings for me, you wouldn't have acted the way you did yesterday."

Without giving Johnny a chance to explain further, Roxanne pushed him away and walked towards the interview car on the stage. With a loud slam, she shut the door and drove away, leaving Johnny feeling helpless.

Boom! Slamming the door shut, Roxanne had already thrown Johnny out of her mind. Under the admiring gaze of the cameraman, Roxanne directly pointed her eyes at him and told/ordered him to drive.

Johnny felt helpless seeing her leave but he also knew that Roxanne must be angry now, and he would still have a chance.

Then, Johnny pushed the bike back to his residence. After Johnny left, two people who had been watching the scene from the sidelines emerged: They were Bucky and Lin Rui.

They had driven back earlier and had been standing in the crowd watching Roxanne's interview with the fat girl, and they had overheard the conversation between Johnny and Roxanne.

"I didn't expect Johnny to be in such a difficult situation and yet still thinking about flirting with a girl," Bucky said.

Lin Rui chuckled and replied as he looked at the expression on Bucky's face. "Well, he's pretty calm. Maybe he has accepted his fate."

“Accepted his fate?” Bucky replied and his low emotional intelligence showed itself. “I don’t think that’s possible. Johnny doesn’t strike me as a guy who gives up that easily. But I’m curious to see what will happen tonight. Do you think we should keep an eye on him tonight?”

Lin Rui looked at the street, which had been destroyed several times by Ghost Rider, and said with a twinkle in his eye, “Aren’t you worried about those evil spirits and fallen angels from hell that the old man talked about? Your weapons probably won’t be able to deal with them.”

Bucky responded with uncertainty, “I’m just planning to hide on the side and see what happens. But I have a feeling that I might be able to help somehow.”

“Ok, I should be able to help him too.” Knowing that Bucky was concerned for him, Lin Rui squeezed his fist as he replied. As he did so, Bucky could clearly feel a special energy fluctuation coming from him. Lin Rui had apparently gained more control over his internal energy since the previous day.

Lin Rui also felt like he had an endless supply of power. Even if these things really do come from hell, his subconscious was telling him, “Don’t be a coward! Just do it!”

Feeling the powerful energy fluctuations on Lin Rui, Bucky’s eyes became firmer as he said, “Alright, I’ll continue to join you on this crazy adventure. Even if this situation exceeds our expectations, it doesn’t matter and maybe those guys from hell are just scaring people, maybe they aren’t that scary.”

Hearing Bucky’s words, Lin Rui patted him on the shoulder and said with a smile, “Let’s go find a good spot to hide and observe Johnny’s residence.” The two of them left the line of spectators and searched for a suitable place to hide nearby.

The next step is to wait for the night to come. After Bucky and Lin Rui left the scene, the forensic team continues to diligently search the area. They discover various clues, including a partially burned and unrecognizable license plate. As night approaches, the team must wait for further developments.

The license plate that was discovered by the forensics team at the scene is the same one that Johnny had lost the previous night. It is also the license plate of his beloved motorcycle. However, it is still possible to restore the license plate if it is taken to a professional laboratory.

As Lin Rui and Bucky observe from outside Johnny’s house, they witness Johnny confessing to Roxanne, who is shocked by his outburst. Suddenly, police cars arrive and surround Johnny. Lin Rui and Bucky remain in their crouched position until nightfall, observing the scene that is unfolding before their eyes.

Bang Bang Bang!

As the officers emerged from the police car, they shouted, “Hands up! Don’t move!” This classic phrase is often used by law enforcement to indicate that a person is under arrest.

Chapter 923: Hideaway Status

Woo Woo Woo Woo! ~

Johnny was surrounded by more than a dozen police officers with their guns raised and pointed at him, and Police Captain Jack Dolan personally handcuffed him. He was then escorted to the police station.

Roxanne, who had just left, was unaware of what happened to Johnny after she left. However, Lin Rui and Bucky, who were watching from an upstairs window, saw Johnny being escorted away by the police.

“What’s going on here?” Lin Rui, lying on the edge of the roof, watched as the police cars drove away with Johnny.

Originally, he had been hoping to see the Ghost Rider that night and find out more about these Demons and Fallen Angels from Hell. But now, the main protagonist Johnny had been taken away by the police.

“It seems that something happened in the police investigation, and Johnny’s true identity may be revealed soon,” Bucky said calmly as they watched the police take Johnny away.

“That’s exactly why we can’t trust those stories. The police are all about science, except for the guns they’re carrying. Even if Johnny tells them the truth, I bet they’ll react just like Roxanne did – 100% disbelief,” Lin Rui said with a fed-up expression on his face.

“So what do we do now? Should we continue to follow?” Bucky asked as the police cars disappeared down the street.

“Of course, we have to follow. If what the old man said is true, it would be a very bad decision to leave Johnny in the hands of the police,” Lin Rui replied as he jumped off the roof.

Hoo~

When Lin Rui jumped off, Bucky followed suit, leaping off the roof behind Lin Rui. As they fell, Lin Rui used a few bursts of energy to slow his descent, while Bucky passed him on the way down.

Pū Pū!

Then, Bucky and Lin Rui landed on the ground, one after the other. Bucky rolled twice on the ground to soften the impact of jumping from the building, while Lin Rui landed lightly and steadily, showing a mastery of his powers. It seems that Lin Rui has discovered more ways to use his own power.

“We have to go! It’s getting late, and I’m worried Johnny will burn down the entire police station,” Lin Rui shouted as he rushed to the jeep parked by the road.

Bucky followed, admiring Lin Rui’s agile figure and recognizing the many hidden strengths in the young man. In just a few days, Bucky felt that he may have found a valuable ally in Lin Rui.

Hoo hoo!

The two got into the jeep and followed the police car heading to the police station. Bucky understood Lin Rui’s anxiety, as the key to the situation lay with Ghost Rider. If what the old man said was true, combined with what Johnny had said about what happened last night, then Johnny’s situation at the police station could be dire.

“The Penance Stare is a powerful force that can see into the soul. I don’t know what will happen if Johnny is imprisoned in a cell at the police station,” Lin Rui thought to himself as he stepped on the accelerator.

Brush!

...

Meanwhile, as Johnny was taken away by the police, and Lin Rui and Bucky followed, Blackheart was causing trouble with the bishop in St. Michael's Church, he wanted to find the Contract of San Venganza.

Contrary to the old man guarding the cemetery's belief, Blackheart was able to enter a holy place like a church due to his demonic powers.

As the son of the demon Mephistopheles, Blackheart has his strengths without the usual weaknesses that lower demons possess. Even if Johnny had listened to the old man and hid in the cemetery, it would have been useless against Blackheart.

Blackheart sat in the middle of the first row of pews in an empty church, staring up at the statues of Jesus and Michael with disdain. After a while, he turned his head towards the side door of the church hall, where he heard footsteps approaching.

...

At the police station, Johnny was unable to convince Police Captain Dolan and Agent Edward of his innocence and was taken to a cell.

Looking at Johnny's reaction, Police Captain Dolan and Agent Edward who had just interrogated him frowned as they felt that Johnny is hiding something. Johnny was also very sure that he had nothing to do with the two victims that the police had found.

Despite his efforts to resist, the officers had their doubts about his story, given their decades of experience as detectives. They decided to detain him for 24 hours while they investigated further.

"Agent Edward, do you think Johnny is telling the truth?" Police Captain Dolan asked as they watched Johnny being led away.

"In my opinion, I don't think Johnny is responsible for the deaths of those three victims. However, I believe he is hiding something else from us. And whatever he's hiding maybe even more serious than those two murders," Agent Edward replied with a serious expression on his face.

"More serious than murdering three people in a single night? How could anything be more serious than that?" Captain Dolan asked in disbelief.

"There are many mysteries in this world, Captain Jack. Just like the alien invasion that occurred a few days ago. Who would have believed in the existence of aliens before it happened?" Agent Edward said with a cryptic expression.

"How is this situation even remotely comparable to that?" Captain Dolan asked.

"It's different, but I have a feeling that this case won't be as straightforward as it seems," Agent Edward replied with a sense of foreboding.

Dī Dī Drops!

As Agent Edward and Police Captain Dolan were discussing Johnny, a series of electronic prompts sounded from Agent Edward's device. Hearing this sound, Agent Edward showed some surprise on his originally calm face. Then, under Captain Dolan's curious eyes, Agent Edward took out a small instrument from his waist.

Turning slightly, Agent Edward glanced at the instrument at an angle that Captain Dolan couldn't see and his eyes widened in shock when he saw the information.

"Agent Edward, what is it? Is there something else you're hiding from me?" As the city's police captain, Dolan felt that the other man had nothing to hide from him.

"It's nothing, it's just that I reported the situation here to my superiors. I didn't expect to get any response but I didn't expect that they would actually find something. They just gave me the news that more support will be arriving soon so we don't have to worry about anything" Hearing Captain Dolan's words, Agent Edward replied with a smile.

"Superiors?"

"Don't you know where I came from to support you?"

"Could it be!... SHIELD?!"

Chapter 924: Changes

Boom!

"Let's go!" Captain Dolan shouted to Agent Edward as they rushed out of the interrogation room. "We can't waste any more time!"

Meanwhile, Johnny was being forcibly led to a temporary cell by the guards. "No! No, no! Can you please put me in a separate room!" He protested, trying to contain the intense heat that was emanating from his body.

"You're a murder suspect now, and you don't have many privileges," One of the guards sneered as he continued to speak. "You think you're some kind of big shot?"

Hoo!

Click!

With a loud clang, Johnny was thrown into the cell, which was already crowded with other prisoners. The guards locked the iron gate and left, enjoying the opportunity to teach someone like Johnny a lesson.

It was a common practice in the police station to rough up uncooperative suspects during interrogations. However, it was unclear who was really teaching whom a lesson in this situation.

Johnny was pushed into the cell and immediately sought out a quiet corner to sit in, ignoring the other people around him. His body was experiencing a strong burning sensation and he just wanted to be left alone.

Unfortunately, his desire to be left alone was not respected by some of the other people in the cell, who recognized him and gathered around him menacingly.

“Hey, isn’t this the famous and amazing Johnny Blaze?” A middle-aged man asked, his tone dripping with sarcasm. “What brought you here? Did you do something wrong?”

“No, please leave me alone!” Johnny shouted, trying to fend off the people closing in on him. “I don’t want to cause any trouble!”

“You don’t want trouble, but I do!” Someone else yelled. “That’s a nice jacket you’ve got there. It’s mine now!”

“Mine!” Another prisoner echoed.

Call!

In the midst of the chaos, Johnny was surrounded by a group of seasoned prisoners in the cell. A dozen hands were pulling at him, and some were even hitting his body.

“Come on Man, leave him alone, don’t do this!” A teenager tried to intervene when Johnny was surrounded and had his clothes pulled by the other people.

“Get out of here! You have no business being here, kid!” One of the larger men snarled, pushing the boy away.

Tear!

With a loud rip, Johnny’s jacket was torn, revealing a hole in the middle. At some point, his arms had loosened from his head, and as the wild laughter of the men reached a crescendo, flames erupted from Johnny’s body.

Hoo hoo!

“Hahaha!” Johnny exclaimed, shaking his arms and sending the men around him flying. The Ghost Rider, who had been suppressed until now, was finally unleashed.

...

Whooooo! !~~

A minute later, the fire alarm went off, filling the police station with the sound of blaring sirens. The transformed Ghost Rider summoned his mount and escaped from the police station, leaving a trail of destruction behind him.

Whirring Whirring!

As Ghost Rider rode away from the police station on his motorcycle, Captain Dolan and Officer Edward rushed out of the station to find chaos and destruction left by the Ghost Rider and they could still hear the ghastly laughter echoing in the air.

“It seems the higher-ups were right to send in additional support,” Seeing the figure that was flaming and leaving quickly, Edward squeezed the gun in his hand and said to himself.

“That... That’s Johnny Blaze?!” Exclaimed Dolan, the police captain, unable to believe his eyes as he saw the back of Ghost Rider. In contrast, Agent Edward seemed to have an easier time accepting the unexpected sight.

“If you review the surveillance footage, you’ll have your answer. However, it’s probably best to keep this kind of incident under wraps to some extent. I suspect that’s why the higher-ups are sending in additional support,” Agent Edward reminded Captain Dolan after he heard his words.

“I see, what should I do now?” Captain Dolan asked Agent Edward after hearing his reminder as he didn’t know what to do next.

Edward replied, “We should dispatch all police forces to chase him. He’s a high-risk individual now and we need to be able to take him down if he poses a threat to public safety before backup arrives.”

Hurrah!

At Edward’s command, dozens of police cars were sent out to pursue the flaming figure of Ghost Rider. Though his speed was impressive, the combined forces of the police were able to block and chase him. And among these dozens of police cars, there was also an unremarkable jeep that was also following the flaming figure

“It’s a bit late, I wonder if Johnny has already destroyed the police station,” Lin Rui said, frowning as they followed the flaming figure of Ghost Rider.

“That’s the Ghost Rider the old man told us about, right? A flaming skeleton,” Bucky said as he stared at the fast-moving figure in front of them.

Lin Rui and Bucky, with their superior vision, were able to get a clear view of what the Ghost Rider scurrying about in the street looked like. Compared to the description given by the fat girl they interviewed earlier in the day, the image of the Ghost Rider was even scarier.

In their eyes, the Ghost Rider appeared to be a skeleton wearing clothes and still engulfed in flames. This image would be enough to frighten children.

“I can’t believe that Johnny has become like this. It seems like the Ghost Rider and Johnny are completely different people, and the Ghost Rider doesn’t seem to have Johnny’s thoughts,” Lin Rui said as he stared at the figure in front of them who seemed to have been cornered by the police.

“Maybe this is the result of the contract. If Johnny retained his own mind after transforming into the Ghost Rider, how could he fulfill the demon’s mission?” Bucky replied after giving it some thought.

“That makes sense. But in that case, the flaming skeleton wouldn’t recognize us either,” Hearing Bucky’s reminder, Lin Rui suddenly realized something.

“That should be the case,” Bucky replied in his usual monotone voice.

Boom!

Lin Rui and Bucky were in pursuit of the Ghost Rider among dozens of police cars when the Ghost Rider was finally cornered by a police car in front of a building. There was only one road leading to the front square of the building, and it was the same road that the Ghost Rider had just come from.

“Report! I’ve cornered the target!” The police officer in the car shouted into his walkie-talkie as he saw the flaming figure come to a stop in front of him.

“Hahaha!” However, as the police officer finished his report, he heard a burst of wild laughter coming from the front.

Hula la!

The policeman watched in shock as the man on the flaming motorcycle laughed maniacally and drove straight toward the building. Rather than crashing into it, the motorcycle seemed to defy the laws of physics as it climbed up the side of the building.

“How is this possible!... Reporting, the target is climbing upwards!” The officer reported with a shocked look on his face.

Chapter 925: Breakthrough

As Ghost Rider raced up the side of the building, defying the laws of physics, the flames emanating from him melted the glass, causing shards to shatter and fall to the ground.

Roxanne, who was packing up her things and getting ready to leave the hotel across from the building, happened to witness the scene.

Roxanne was surprised as she remembered the things Johnny had said to her just earlier.

“Oh! God!” She exclaimed, dropping the clothes she was packing and rushing out. When Roxanne saw Ghost Rider climbing up the building opposite the hotel she was staying in, Lin Rui and Bucky had also got off the station and looked up at the fiery figure who had climbed hundreds of meters high outside the police encirclement.

“As expected, you can’t think of him with normal reasoning. If Johnny has such driving skills, what records in the world can’t he break?” Lin Rui couldn’t help but say to himself as he looked up at the flaming figure climbing up the tall building.

“He’s already climbed up, and this place is surrounded by the police. We don’t seem to have a way to make a move,” Bucky said to Lin Rui as he stared at Ghost Rider.

“I have a feeling that I could also climb it but with so many cops around, one angry guy is surprising enough. If another one climbs up, I think we’ll be in the headlines tomorrow,” Lin Rui replied with a twinkle in his eyes when he heard Bucky’s words.

“Then you shouldn’t go up,” Bucky said with a strange expression on his face when he heard Lin Rui’s muttering.

“Well, it’s the same from here. Although he had run up, he will eventually come down. I don’t believe he can grow wings and fly away,” Lin Rui said as he was unable to make a move in front of so many policemen.

Just like that, Lin Rui and Bucky skillfully hid in the shadows in front of the building, and the policemen who had surrounded the building didn’t notice the two people who had been observing their target alongside them.

Hurrah!

As the ground officers surrounded the building, the police helicopter flew to the roof to confront the convict. However, Ghost Rider brandished a whip and nearly caused the helicopter to crash on the roof. In response, the helicopter wisely retreated from the dangerous individual.

The roof of the building was left to Ghost Rider and Abigor (the Demon of Wind) who had come to stop him. The battle ended very quickly as, in less than a minute, the low-intelligence Abigor (the Demon of Wind) had been wiped out by Ghost Rider.

Then, Ghost Rider drove his mount directly off the roof of the building. Under the shocked gazes of dozens of people below, the flaming figure rushed down from a height of several hundred meters along the glass wall of the building.

Hoo hoo!

Boom!

With a loud boom, the flaming figure slammed into the ground in front of the building a few seconds later, creating a strong shock wave that caused all the surrounding police officers to retreat several steps and some even fell down. However, Lin Rui and Bucky, who were hiding in the shadows, were unaffected by the shock wave.

At this time, Roxanne had already rushed over and watched in shock as the flaming skeleton fell in front of her.

"Attention everyone!!" Police Captain Dolan raised his hand and shouted loudly, looking at the flaming skeleton in front of him. No matter what kind of demon this guy is, his appearance is already scary enough. Perhaps he is a monster created by some organization. Therefore, the best action for the police is to nip the danger in the bud.

"Johnny!..." Compared to the shock and nervousness of the surrounding policemen, Roxanne, who had heard the truth from Johnny's mouth, was worried and took two steps forward while calling Johnny's name.

Huh~

Hearing Roxanne's voice, Johnny, who had turned into Ghost Rider, seemed to regain some of his thoughts and the fiery skull looked toward Roxanne. Seeing the movement of the skull, Roxanne bravely took two steps forward.

When Roxanne took these two steps, the color of the flame on Ghost Rider's head changed unexpectedly, from fiery red at the beginning to blue. Moreover, he also took two steps toward Roxanne.

"Huh? Could this be the power of love?" Lin Rui, who was hiding in the dark and saw this scene, muttered with a surprised expression on his face.

However, before Roxanne could continue to take two steps forward, Police Captain Dolan, who was startled by Ghost Rider's approaching figure, waved his hand and gave an order. "Fire!!"

Bang Bang Bang!

The police officers, who had already prepared, opened fire the next moment. The bullets struck Ghost Rider's body but had no effect, it was as if they were hitting an alloy wall.

After the first round of gunfire, everyone was shocked to see that Ghost Rider remained unharmed. In fact, the attacks seemed to only fuel the flames on Ghost Rider's head, which turned red again from the initial blue state in was in before.

Boom!

Ghost Rider swung his hands forward with great force, causing a flame to surge toward the police officers in front of him. However, just before the flame could burn the officers, it stopped and formed a wall of flames in front of them.

Rumble!

Ghost Rider then turned around and reappeared on his mount, which had the appearance of a flaming skull. He quickly drove the flaming bike out of the encirclement and escaped.

Pū Pū Pū~

After the Ghost Rider left arrogantly, Donal, the police captain, and Edward, the special officer who stayed at the scene, looked at the messy scene around them and the scene they had just witnessed. They didn't know what to think. In the end, Donal had no choice but to have people clean up the scene and return to the station first. They needed to go back and think about countermeasures for what had happened today.

Donal, the police captain, was so stunned by Ghost Rider's appearance that he didn't notice a jeep leaving quietly while they were cleaning up the scene. The jeep's departure was also in the same direction that the flaming figure had escaped through the encirclement. Lin Rui, who had not yet seen Blackheart, had not given up. He wanted to see the demonic entities from hell with his own eyes.

However, Lin Rui stopped the car halfway through the chase. "Huh? Why are we stopping now?" Bucky, who was sitting in the passenger seat sorting out his weapons, asked suspiciously after Lin Rui stopped.

"That direction leads to the cemetery, so Johnny is probably looking for the old man. There's no need for us to go there. If Johnny's transformation into Ghost Rider is for the purpose of hunting down those hell demons, then there must have already been a battle on the roof of the building that we didn't see," Lin Rui quickly said and his eyes flickering as he thought.

"So?" Bucky still didn't understand what Lin Rui was trying to say.

Chapter 926: Analysis

"In the story that the old man told, didn't the final Ghost Rider escape with the contract of San Venganza? And isn't Blackheart's goal of seeking greater power and taking his father Mephisto's place to obtain that contract? So, Blackheart will surely continue to try and prevent Johnny from chasing him." Lin Rui replied with a wise look in his eyes under Bucky's questioning.

"So?....."

“So, if Blackheart can’t handle Ghost Rider, what about Johnny? He’s just an ordinary person, and ordinary people have many weaknesses,” Lin Rui continued, not paying attention to Bucky’s continued confused expression.

“What do you mean.....”

“If I were Blackheart, I would look into the important people and things in Johnny’s life and use them to blackmail him. After all, you saw Ghost Rider’s performance just now and it’s clear that Johnny is still influenced by his human self. This is why I think Blackheart would try to use these vulnerabilities against Johnny,” Lin Rui finally explained his thoughts fully.

“You mean... Roxanne?!” Hearing this, after all, he was finally fully enlightened.

“That’s right, it’s not effective for us to chase after Ghost Rider since he will turn back into Johnny during the day. But if Blackheart really does try to use the tactics I mentioned, we can continue to monitor Johnny’s residence and be ready for any potential threats from Hell,” Lin Rui said as he skillfully turned the steering wheel.

“Jackson, I have to say that your intelligence is above average. And if those hell visitors do appear, do you plan on taking action against them?” Bucky asked with some emotion after listening to Lin Rui’s complete analysis.

“If Johnny doesn’t realize the danger and take steps to protect Roxanne, then I may have to intervene. Protecting the people we care about is important,” Lin Rui replied with a twinkle in his eyes as he drove towards Johnny’s residence.

“That’s true, it might be a good idea to get some more powerful weapons just in case. We can’t let our guard down,” Bucky spoke after hearing Lin Rui’s words and he also agreed with Bucky’s suggestion.

“Haha, those visitors from hell might not be as scary as we think. With the right weapons, we might be able to take them out with just one shot,” Bucky said with a chuckle. It’s important to be prepared for any potential threats, but it’s also important to maintain a sense of confidence and optimism.

Hoo hoo!

In this way, while Ghost Rider was busy defeating the Wind Demon and breaking through the police blockade to reach the old man’s cemetery, Lin Rui and Bucky returned to Johnny’s residence to continue their vigil.

The police, on the other hand, were busy cleaning up the battlefield and trying to regain their composure. Captain Dolan and Agent Edward had already returned to their offices at the police station. It’s important to be vigilant and prepared for any potential threats, but it’s also important to know when to trust in the capabilities of those who are trained to handle such situations.

“Agent Edward, have you ever encountered a situation like this before?” Seeing the flaming skeleton with his own eyes, Captain Dolan’s understanding of the world was on the brink of collapsing.

“No, I’m just a low-level agent in SHIELD. But our backup should be here soon,” Agent Edward replied with a wry smile, shaking his head in response to Captain Dolan’s question.

“Do you think SHIELD’s support will be able to handle this situation?” Captain Dolan asked, aware that SHIELD has many powerful individuals, such as superheroes who can withstand alien invasions, but this particular situation seemed more supernatural in nature.

“I’m not sure about that now. But they are more powerful than us. Plus, I’ve already reported the situation and there should be a corresponding solution. We just need to try to maintain the status quo,” Agent Edward said, trying to reassure Captain Dolan’s worries.

“I’m not sure if we can sustain this situation.”

“By the way, it seems that the flaming skeleton had a response to the reporter. Can you tell me more about her?”

...

The Ghost Rider rode his bike through the night and arrived at the cemetery where the old man was. However, he found that Blackheart had already beaten the old man and was attempting to extract information about the whereabouts of a contract from him.

Despite the old man’s refusal to reveal this information, Blackheart eventually left with Wallow (the Demon of Water). It was similar to what Lin Rui had suspected, Blackheart had plans to attack the people close to Johnny.

The old man reminded Johnny that Blackheart may be planning to attack Roxanne. In response, Johnny quickly returned to his bike. However, he knew that he would not be able to catch up with Blackheart and the Water Demon.

As the evening approached and the sunset in the west, Lin Rui stood on the roof near Johnny’s residence, looking down at Roxanne as she got out of her car. He muttered, “Roxanne is indeed here, and Johnny’s agent is also in his residence. If Blackheart were to come at this time, both of them would be in grave danger.”

As the evening approached, Roxanne, who had already been sought out by the Police Captain, couldn’t resist coming to look for Johnny. Before Roxanne arrived, Johnny’s manager, Mack, had already come. Mack was unaware of the situation and only knew that Johnny had been taken away by the police and was now missing.

After meeting Mack at Johnny’s apartment, Roxanne began searching for the reason behind Johnny’s strange behavior. As she was flipping through the books that Johnny had read in an attempt to control the flames within his body, she suddenly felt a chill coming from behind her.

Hoo!

Feeling the coolness emanating from behind her, Roxanne immediately turned to see who was there. She saw a pale man in a black windbreaker standing behind Mack. When Roxanne looked at the man, he smiled at her with his lips slightly raised. However, this smile was terrifying. It was Blackheart, who had come to visit and no words were needed to explain his presence.

Brush!

As he smiled at Roxanne, Blackheart reached out and thrust his hand into Mack's back. If Mack were to be stabbed, a large amount of sulfur would pour into his body, causing him to suffer a miserable death within seconds.

Bang Bang Bang!

However, just as Roxanne watched in horror and shouted a warning to Mack, a burst of rapid gunfire filled the room. Blackheart, who had been shooting at Mack, was directly repelled by more than a dozen bullets that were fired from the side. His hand did not successfully enter Mack's back.

"Mack! Be careful!" Roxanne shouted out in warning.

"Ah!!" Hearing Roxanne's shout, Mack snapped out of his stunned state and screamed as he ran away from Blackheart.

Even if they didn't know who Blackheart was, it was clear from the cold aura he exuded and the fact that he only took a few steps back after being hit by a bullet that he was not a normal person.

"Who?!" Shaking off a dozen bullets that had struck his windbreaker, Blackheart shouted angrily after being interrupted.

Hoo!

As Blackheart yelled, he also revealed his true face, which was a horrifying sight to behold.

Chapter 927: Seeing Blackheart

Da Da Da Da Da!

As Blackheart revealed his true identity and angrily yelled, he was met with a hail of bullets from the window. However, Blackheart was ready and managed to deftly dodge the attack and he even rushed towards the window.

Hoo!

Blackheart, who intended to attack Mack and harm Roxanne, was surprised when someone intervened and disrupted his plan with their skilled marksmanship. In his anger, he disregarded the fear of Mack and Roxanne and focused on finding the person who had interrupted him.

Boom!

Gulu Gulu~

However, just as Blackheart rushed towards the window, a small black ball just flew in from the window, hit the ground, and just rolled towards Blackheart's position.

"What is this?..." Looking at the ball that rolled down to his feet, Blackheart looked down at the ball suspiciously and muttered to himself

Boom!

The next moment, the ball exploded at Blackheart's feet, releasing a thick cloud of white smoke that enveloped him and spread throughout the room. It became clear that this was a smoke bomb.

Call!

As the smoke bomb detonated and filled the room with thick smoke, another figure entered through a window adjacent to the previous one. This person was athletic and heavily armed, carrying a rapid-fire machine gun and several grenade-like metal balls on their waist. He also wore tactical goggles on his head, giving the appearance of a highly skilled soldier.

It is clear that the soldier who interrupted Blackheart's attack was Bucky, who had been hiding outside the window. It is unknown how Bucky obtained such a full set of weapons, but it is possible that he may have snuck into the police arsenal to obtain them.

Bucky burst into the room and saw that Blackheart was surrounded by smoke from the smoke grenade. He quickly raised his machine gun and pointed it toward the smoke, but when he looked through the infrared sensor in his tactical goggles, he didn't see any movement. It took Bucky a moment to realize that the enemy was from hell and therefore he may not show up on the infrared sensor.

Brush!

As Bucky prepared to make a tactical shift in response to the threat, he was taken by surprise as Blackheart appeared behind him and reached out with a sly grin. Despite Bucky's efforts to defend himself, it seemed that he would not be able to escape Blackheart's sneak attack.

Boom!

Just as Blackheart's sneak attack seemed to be successful, Bucky was rescued by a powerful bullet that came from the side and struck Blackheart directly in the face. The force of the blow smashed half of Blackheart's face, exposing the rotten flesh and bones beneath.

As Blackheart turned angrily to see where the attack had come from with half of his face smashed, Bucky quickly rolled away and turned back to face Blackheart, raising the Sub Machine gun in his hand to deliver another blow.

Da Da Da Da Da!

Despite Blackheart's formidable powers and apparent fearlessness, Bucky and the yet-to-arrive Lin Rui were able to repeatedly attack and weaken him. By the time Blackheart had even engaged the enemy, he had already sustained numerous bullet wounds and suffered severe damage to half of his face.

"Roar! You damned ants!" As Bucky continued to attack, Blackheart, who still had one eye functioning, roared in anger and released a cloud of black air from his entire body.

Call!

The black mist emanating from Blackheart rapidly approached Bucky, who was preparing to shoot again, and Bucky immediately turned and fled. However, the mist was too fast and quickly caught up to him. Just as the mist was about to envelop Bucky, a figure rushed over from the side and intervened.

Hoo Hoo!

The black mist quickly surrounded Bucky and the mysterious figure that had rushed in.

"You insignificant ants!" Blackheart sneered, his blood-red eyes glowing with malice as he spoke in a low voice. Despite having recovered from the damage to his face, he still seemed angry and dangerous.

However, just as Blackheart thought he had taken care of the two intruders with his black mist, he suddenly raised his eyebrows in surprise, sensing a strange energy wave emanating from within the mist.

"How?!....."

Buzz~ Bang!

Blackheart was shocked when the black mist that surrounded Bucky and another figure suddenly burst. The mist dissipated as it flew in every direction before disappearing completely. This surprised Blackheart even more, as the other party had actually managed to eliminate the energy from hell!

When the black mist disappeared, the scene inside was revealed. Bucky and Lin Rui were standing there, supporting each other.

"Bucky, are you okay?" Lin Rui reached out to support Bucky, who was in a weakened state. He had rushed out at the last moment to block the black mist with internal energy from affecting Bucky but he was still weakened and a worried expression appeared on Lin Rui's face.

Even though Lin Rui had released an internal energy defense before the black mist enveloped Bucky, Blackheart's hell energy was a very special attack and Lin Rui's internal energy was not able to completely block it. While Lin Rui's own body was strong enough to resist the attack of the remaining black mist, Bucky was still somewhat affected.

"I'm fine, just a little dizzy." Bucky shook his head as he spoke and stood straight with Lin Rui's support, reassuring him.

"It looks like ordinary attacks aren't effective against him. Bucky, you should go to the side and rest. I can handle Miss Roxanne and the manager. You just take care of yourself." Lin Rui quickly said after checking Bucky's condition.

"Are you sure you're going to be okay?" Bucky asked with a worried expression on his face after hearing Lin Rui's words.

Bucky was a little helpless to find that his attacks were useless against the opponent, as he had expected. He knew that the opponent probably had many attack methods that he wouldn't be able to understand or guard against. He had felt a sense of impending death when Blackheart had approached him earlier.

"Don't worry, I'm sure! And you need to watch out for other people too. Remember those fallen angels who can control natural elements?" Lin Rui reminded Bucky while answering his question.

"Got it!" Bucky nodded and rushed over to Roxanne and Mack in the corner with his weapon in his hand.

Chapter 928: Lin Rui VS Blackheart

Lin Rui used his internal energy to disperse the black mist, allowing Bucky to leave. Blackheart watched them intently as they did this and after observing them for a while, Blackheart's focus shifted to Lin Rui.

"Who are you?!" Blackheart asked Lin Rui, who had just shown the ability to disperse energy from hell. Blackheart found Lin Rui more threatening than the warrior with accurate marksmanship.

Lin Rui looked up at Blackheart and replied lightly, "I'm just passing by and I heard about you and I just couldn't stand you."

"Hahaha... Couldn't stand me?! There are easier ways to take your own life!" Blackheart laughed maniacally and roared in anger as he transformed into a black mist and rushed toward Lin Rui.

Lin Rui saw the mist coming towards him quickly and spoke with a cold expression on his face, "I knew you would sneak attack!" As he finished speaking, an intense energy burst out of Lin Rui's whole body.

Boom!

As the wave of energy and the Azura light burst forth from Lin Rui's body, a bright light appeared in his mind, causing his eyes to sharpen. This sudden burst of energy and light seemed to give Lin Rui a burst of inspiration or clarity.

Lin Rui raised his right hand and waved it forward while shouting out the command "Cut!" as a sudden idea came to him.

Buzz Buzz!

As Lin Rui shouted and waved his hand, the Azura light coming from him suddenly transformed into a huge Azura lightsaber. With a swift motion, Lin Rui used the lightsaber to slash through the incoming black mist.

Rumbling!

Bucky, Roxanne, and Mack watched in shock as the Azura sword energy collided with the black mist, causing a powerful shock wave as if two physical objects had collided and exploded. Even though both the Azura sword energy and the black mist were invisible and intangible, the force of their collision was palpable.

The collision of Lin Rui's Azura sword energy, which was transformed from his internal energy, and Blackheart's hellish dark energy resulted in a violent explosion. When the Azura sword energy struck the black mist, it shattered into thousands of small sword energies that sliced through the group of black mist.

However, the black mist, which was imbued with powerful energy by Blackheart, was able to withstand the attack of the tiny sword energy and they were swallowed up by the mist.

Boom!

Hoo Hoo! ~

Finally, after a few seconds of the explosion caused by the collision of the Azura sword energy and the black mist, the Azura light in the center of the explosion completely disappeared, having been completely consumed by the black mist.

This seems to indicate that Lin Rui's attack, inspired by a sudden flash of inspiration, was not strong enough to overcome Blackheart's strength. It is possible that Blackheart's power surpasses Lin Rui's, giving Blackheart the advantage in this confrontation.

Feeling the gusts of strong wind blowing in front of him, the Azura light on Lin Rui's body flickered brightly. Despite the energy shockwave of the previous collision, Lin Rui did not take a step back.

He has realized that he can use the magical energy within his body for a variety of purposes, and he has gradually learned how to harness his internal energy. At this moment, he is like a businessman guarding a gold mine, seeking the most effective ways to extract and use this valuable resource.

"Roar!" As Lin Rui stood facing the black mist, a piercing roar suddenly erupted from within it.

Hoo!!!!

In the next moment, the black mist churned and Blackheart's half-formed body emerged, he roared as he charged toward Lin Rui.

"Do you really think that this would work now?!" Lin Rui exclaimed, showing no fear despite the disgust Blackheart's true form evoked in him.

Shout!

As Lin Rui waved the ordinary baseball bat in his hand, the Azura light covering him also enveloped the bat. Holding the bat, Lin Rui charged toward Blackheart as his disgusting mist form rushed toward him.

Boom!

The first collision was straightforward, with Lin Rui's baseball bat striking Blackheart's swung paw. Lin Rui, protected by his internal energy, was not afraid of Blackheart's hellish dark energy attack.

And Blackheart was also able to counter Lin Rui's internal energy attack. As a result, the huge explosion force from the collision sent both of them flying backward.

Hoo hoo!

Lin Rui's right hand holding the baseball bat trembled slightly as he took several steps back before regaining his balance. Across from him, the black mist that had taken on the form of Blackheart rolled and scrambled around the room, continuously roaring in apparent pain from the backlash of the attack.

After tumbling through the air, Blackheart charged toward Lin Rui on the ground once more. As the son of a demon from hell, Blackheart has never before been so humiliated as to be beaten by an ordinary-looking young man. However, Blackheart no longer views Lin Rui as ordinary, although he has not yet identified the Azura light energy emanating from him.

"Hmph!" Lin Rui snorted coldly as he watched the black mist continue to charge toward him and he also stepped forward without showing any fear.

Blackheart possesses the pride of a demon from hell, and Lin Rui has his own pride as well. Although he has not yet recovered his memories, his subconscious mind tells him that he should not retreat even when facing real demons.

"I'm going to see it today! What's so great about a demon from hell!" Lin Rui declares.

Bang Bang Bang!

...

As Lin Rui and Blackheart fought, Bucky watched the strange and fierce battle from the corner of the room, where he was hiding with Roxanne and Mack. Despite the unusual nature of the conflict, Bucky and the others were hardly surprised by it anymore. It seems that they have accepted the fight as a reality.

Despite his willingness to accept strange situations, Bucky's hands were tied as he watched the fierce battle between Lin Rui and Blackheart. Clutching his weapon tightly, he was ready to assist Lin Rui at any moment, but the intense conflict made it difficult for him to find an opportunity to act.

"Who... who are you? Who is that scary-looking guy who can turn into black mist? And who is that young man who is fighting him?!" Roxanne, who had recovered somewhat from her initial shock, asked several questions in quick succession.

"Is this even important right now? No matter who they are, the important thing is that we should get out of here immediately!" Mack, who had narrowly escaped death at the hands of Blackheart, whispered as he squinted his eyes.

He did not want to know about the identities of those two people fighting in front of him and he just wanted to escape as soon as possible.

"You're right! We really should leave!" Bucky agreed with Mack's words and responded immediately.

Chapter 929: Wallow

Bucky is so focused on the upcoming battle that he doesn't have time to think about Roxanne and Mack. As a result, he urges them to leave while Blackheart and Lin Rui are fighting. Despite this, Bucky is unsure of what Blackheart is capable of, as Lin Rui had previously reminded him of angels who could control the elements of nature. However, the three of them fail to notice a puddle of sewage water that has appeared behind them.

"Okay! I'm leaving now!" Hearing Bucky's words, Mack responds without hesitation and turns to leave.

Roxanne, having witnessed the intense and strange battle ahead, no longer questions Bucky and Lin Rui's identities and follows Mack to leave. However, just as Mack takes a few steps, he suddenly stops.

"What's the matter? Mack?" Roxanne, who was following behind him, asked suspiciously when he saw Mack stop.

Mack, who stopped walking, slowly lowers his head and looks at his feet without responding to Roxanne. At this moment, he realizes that his front foot has stepped into a puddle of sewage water that is acting like glue and it won't allow him to pull his leg out.

“My feet...it feels like something is pulling me in!” Mack says with a trembling voice as he failed to pull his feet out of the water.

“What?” At Mack’s words, both Roxanne and Bucky looked down at Mack’s feet.

Gulu Gulu!

As Bucky and Roxanne look down, they see the puddle of sewage water begin to flow and climb up Mack’s feet in a strange manner. This unsettling scene causes Mack, who is caught in it, to tremble in fear, and Bucky and Roxanne become frightened as well.

“Help me!!” The sewage water has now climbed up to Mack’s calves, causing him to cry out in fear.

Brush!

In response, Bucky quickly pulls out a tactical dagger from his waist and tries to slash at the climbing sewage water. However, no matter how sharp the dagger is, it is unable to cut through the flowing water and Bucky’s attack proves to be ineffective against it.

Gulu Gulu~

Bucky and Roxanne watched in surprise as the mass of living water suddenly wrapped around Mack, just like a boa constrictor would with its prey. Mack’s face turned red from being strangled and he was unable to speak.

“Go!” Realizing that Mack could not be rescued, Bucky decided to quickly pull Roxanne away.

At this moment, he had already guessed that the strange scene in front of them was probably caused by a fallen angel who could control natural elements, as the old man in the cemetery had mentioned.

Lee!

However, just as Bucky and Roxanne took a couple of steps back, they heard the sound of liquid slapping against the ground beneath their feet and the expressions on their faces immediately changed upon hearing this.

Gulu Gulu~

...

While Bucky and Roxanne were dealing with Wallow (the Demon of Water) in the corner, Lin Rui and Blackheart were still locked in an intense fight in the middle of the room.

However, Lin Rui seemed to be getting more and more comfortable with the fight as it progressed, it was as if he was an old blacksmith who had not struck iron in over a decade and was getting back into the swing of things.

Lin Rui had entered this state intentionally, allowing him to be more flexible and changeable in the way he used the internal energy in his body.

Boom!

With a loud boom, Lin Rui smashed Blackheart into the air with his baseball bat. He felt a surge of inexhaustible strength coursing through his body. On the other hand, Blackheart had strange abilities, but Lin Rui's internal energy was able to block the invasion of hell's dark energy. As a result, Blackheart was getting worse and worse in the battle.

Whistling ~

"Hahaha! You are nothing more than that!!" Looking at the black mist flying in midair, Lin Rui shouted rudely with a baseball bat in his hand.

"Who the hell are you?!" Blackheart was taken aback when he encountered Lin Rui, a powerful and strange enemy. He was extremely frustrated and angry.

"Didn't I say that at the beginning? I'm just a passerby who couldn't stand you!" Lin Rui replied with a smile on his face when he heard Blackheart's angry shout.

"Hmph! Do you really think you can stop me with your meager power?" Seeing Lin Rui's arrogance, Blackheart, who was in the form of black mist, shrank down and revealed his human form.

"What are you talking about? Didn't I just do that?" Lin Rui asked back, pretending to be puzzled.

"Look behind you." Without answering Lin Rui's question, Blackheart, who had completely transformed into a human form remarked with a cold look in his eyes.

The look in Lin Rui's eyes changed instantly when he heard Blackheart's words, and he already had a feeling that something bad had happened. So, while still keeping an eye on Blackheart, he quickly turned around and looked. He saw that Bucky, Roxanne, and Mack were all tangled up by Wallow (the Demon of Water), with running water constricting them. Mack was having difficulty breathing at this time, while Bucky, due to his physical fitness, was in better condition. However, Roxanne and Mack were already showing signs of hypoxia.

"Are you still going to stop me? I don't mind, because my goal has already been achieved." Blackheart's voice sounded from behind Lin Rui as he turned around and saw that scene.

Whew! Shout!

Hearing the sound coming from behind him, Lin Rui swung his baseball bat, hitting Blackheart and causing him to turn into black mist, Blackheart floated to the side of Wallow (the Demon of Water) after being hit by Lin Rui.

"Let them go!" Lin Rui raised his baseball bat and pointed it at Blackheart as he reappeared in the human form beside Wallow (the Demon of Water)..

"Let them go? You think too highly of yourself! I originally just planned to capture this little beauty here, but seeing your strength, I think maybe I can have another helper this time," Blackheart said with a cruel smile, on his face as he responded to Lin Rui's low threat.

Blackheart had been unable to get the Contract of San Venganza from the old man in the cemetery, so he had no choice but to use Roxanne to threaten Johnny into asking the old man for it.

Now that Lin Rui and Bucky had gotten involved, Blackheart saw an opportunity to have another pawn to threaten with. He may even be able to use the strange and powerful young man in front of him to deal with his father.

“Listen to me, if you dare to hurt them, I promise I won’t let you go!” Lin Rui couldn’t make a move because Bucky and Roxanne were in the opponent’s hands, so he could only threaten Blackheart.

“Haha! Do you think these threats will work on me? Tell the Rider to go to the Gravekeeper and bring me the contract to San Venganza, I’ll be waiting there.” Blackheart sneered at Lin Rui’s threats and made it clear that he was not intimidated.

Hoo hoo!

With that, Blackheart turned into a cloud of black mist and enveloped the three people beside him.

Chapter 930: Lin Rui VS Ghost Rider

Hū whistling!

Blackheart enveloped Bucky and the other two in a black mist, picked them up, and flew quickly toward the window. He circled the room in front of Lin Rui and then flew out through the window. After Blackheart took Bucky and the others away, Wallow (the Demon of Water) also disappeared into the puddle of sewage water on the ground.

Pū!

As Blackheart flew towards the window, Lin Rui tried his best to stop him with a cold expression on his face. Simultaneously, a burst of energy fluctuations much stronger than before erupted from his body.

“Leave him alone!” Lin Rui shouted in anger, and an invisible mental wave rushed out of his body and struck Blackheart, who had already reached the window

Pū Pū Pū!

Under Lin Rui’s unexpected psychic attack, the black mist that had enveloped Blackheart suddenly stopped, twisting and changing shape violently at the window. Blackheart’s hoarse roar could also be heard coming from the black mist, indicating that he had been injured by Lin Rui’s psychic attack.

Boom!

Suddenly, Lin Rui took this opportunity to catch up, and the black mist spit out a person, who flew towards Lin Rui. Lin Rui had no choice but to slow down and reach out to catch the person. However, the delay allowed Blackheart to accelerate and he quickly rushed out of the window again.

“Hahaha! You should obediently come to me with the Contract of San Venganza! Otherwise, the fate of these two people will not be very good!” As the black mist flew into the air, Blackheart’s flamboyant laughter and reminder could be heard.

“Damn it!” Holding the half-dead Mack in his hands, Lin Rui stood on the edge of the window and looked up at the black mist that had quickly left and cursed in frustration.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

As Blackheart took Bucky and Roxanne away, the sound of engines roaring could be heard approaching in the dark night. Johnny finally arrived, but by the time he got there, all he could see was the shadow of Blackheart leaving in the form of a black mist.

“Damn it!” Upon seeing the black mist flying away in mid-air, Johnny, who had driven his bike to downstairs his residence, changed his expression and stopped instantly.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Then, Johnny rushed into his home. After rushing out of the elevator, Johnny saw the young man who had left the cemetery standing in the living room of his home, while Mack lay motionless on the ground.

“What did you do?!” Seeing the scene in front of him, Johnny roared angrily and rushed over.

When Johnny came out of the elevator, Lin Rui had already noticed him. As Johnny rushed over angrily, Lin Rui took two steps back, allowing Johnny to rush to Mack’s side.

Shout!

“What did you do to him!?” Johnny, who had forced Lin Rui back, immediately saw Mack lying on the ground with bruises on his face and obvious injuries. He angrily asked Lin Rui what had happened.

Shout!

As he questioned Lin Rui, Johnny had already raised his foot towards Lin Rui and approached him. Additionally, Johnny’s body was emanating bursts of heat, indicating that he was about to transform into Ghost Rider.

It was clear that Lin Rui, a man whose origins were unknown and who had caught Johnny’s attention from the beginning, was the primary suspect in this situation.

Lin Rui did not explain anything to Johnny’s questioning. If Johnny had not been so aggressive, Lin Rui would have explained clearly what had happened. However, now that Johnny was starting to transform into Ghost Rider, Lin Rui saw no point in explaining.

Since Johnny is showing this kind of attitude then Lin Rui doesn’t need to bother. If it’s a fight he wants then it’s a fight he would get. Lin Rui, who was in a fit of rage, still had no place to vent his anger and this presented a perfect punching bag!

Boom!

Upon seeing Lin Rui’s calm expression, Johnny finally couldn’t suppress the heat in his body and transformed into a flaming skeleton, becoming Ghost Rider.

“Roar!” After transforming into Ghost Rider, Johnny, who was gradually losing his mind, let out a roar and rushed toward Lin Rui.

Shout!

The next moment, a skeleton fist wrapped in scorching flames blasted toward Lin Rui.

“Hmph! Let me see how strong you are!” Lin Rui’s eyes flickered as he faced the powerful force of the skeleton fist, and he let out a low growl.

Boom!

Then, Azura light, which had just disappeared from Lin Rui’s body, surged out again. Facing Ghost Rider’s fiery fist, Lin Rui smashed it with the baseball bat that was still in his hand.

Boom!

Lin Rui and Ghost Rider crossed paths after a loud noise. Their first fight was intense and head-to-head. Ghost Rider swung at Lin Rui, but Lin Rui, who had just faced off against Blackheart and remained determined, managed to dodge Ghost Rider’s attack.

Ghost Rider continued to pursue Lin Rui, but Lin Rui was able to avoid his attack at every turn.

Brush!

Lin Rui, who was able to deftly evade Ghost Rider’s pursuit, discarded half of the baseball bat that he was holding. In their previous exchange, Ghost Rider’s hellfire had burnt Lin Rui’s internal energy and damaged the baseball bat.

Lin Rui had noticed the effect of the flames on Ghost Rider’s body on his own energy and decided to retreat strategically after the initial attack.

“Is this Hellfire? I’m lucky I didn’t get hit with his fist earlier,” Lin Rui said to himself as he stood a few meters away from Ghost Rider, observing the flames on Ghost Rider’s body.

He could tell that the power of Hellfire was stronger and at a higher level compared to the dark energy of hell used by Blackheart.

“Hahaha! You can’t escape from me!” Ghost Rider seemed to know that Lin Rui was afraid of his Hellfire and let out a wild laugh.

Hula la!

Ghost Rider then pulled out the iron chain wrapped around his shoulders. The chain was enchanted with Hellfire, which made it more deadly. Ghost Rider swung the flaming iron chain toward Lin Rui.

“Hmph! You want to attack me with that. Do you think I will remain still while you attack?!” Lin Rui snorted in disdain as he saw Ghost Rider swinging the iron chain toward him and jumped to avoid the attack.

However, the iron chain enchanted by hellfire seemed to be able to grow infinitely, and despite Lin Rui’s efforts, he was unable to escape the iron chain. The next moment, Lin Rui, who was jumping into the air, was tied up by a flaming chain!

“Damn it!” Lin Rui cursed in frustration as he was caught by the iron chain. He had not expected to be caught by the enchanted weapon and was taken off guard.

Lin Rui struggled to break free from the chains that trapped him in mid-air. He tried to use his internal energy to break free, but the consumption of energy by the Hellfire was too great. He could barely maintain control and prevent himself from being burnt by the flames.

Shout!