

Master Odell's Secret Ex-wife by Eggsoup

Chapter 1082

Chapter 1082 Shannon's face turned ashen again. After a long time, she raised her chin and looked at Sherry with cold contempt and disdain.

"I thought you just didn't want to go home. I didn't expect you to act so lowly. You ran here to be Master Stockton's lover?" If Sherry and John got back together, John would not choose another wife. Thus, Sherry was only here as his lover. Sherry took a sip of orange juice and ignored her. Shannon glared at her. "Sherry Fowler, I'm about to get married to Master Stockton soon. If you don't want people to know that you interfered in your sister's marriage, get the hell out of here and stop staying here!" "You should say that to John, not me." Sherry glanced at the bodyguards outside the door. "See those bodyguards? John stationed them here to watch me." Shannon was shocked. "You mean, you're being held here by Master Stockton?" "Yep. If you don't believe me, just ask those bodyguards or Julie. She knows too." Shannon glared at her coldly. Sherry started to gnaw on the second drumstick. The air was quiet for a while. Seeing that Sherry's expression was still the same as before, Shannon snorted coldly, turned around, and soon walked out of the courtyard. From afar, Sherry watched Shannon walk up to Julie, and then they left together in the shuttle car. The maid hurriedly went up to Sherry and asked, "Who's that woman? Why did she call you her sister? Also, why is she together with Ms. Julie?" "She's Shannon Fowler, my sister, but we're not related by blood. She's the wife that John chose not long ago." The maid's eyes widened in shock. "...Does Master Stockton not know that she's your sister?" "He knows." The maid frowned. "He knows, but he still chose her?" Sherry took a gulp of juice. "It's because he's despicable." The maid was speechless. Meanwhile, the car drove toward the main gate. In the car, Shannon's face was pale, and her eyes were red. Her head was half-lowered as she sat beside Julie. Julie said apologetically, "Ms. Shannon, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to hide it from you, but John instructed everyone not to let others know that she was here, so I couldn't tell you." "It's not your fault." Shannon choked a little. Julie sighed. "Ms. Sherry isn't at fault either. John was the one who locked her up here. Without his order, none of us can let her go. Not even Mom can change his mind." Shannon was silent. IL TU Julie hesitated and asked, "Ms. Shannon ... What do you plan to do next?" "My mind is a mess right now. I don't know." The car stopped in front of the main gate. Julie got out of the car and said in a kind voice, "Ms. Shannon, you should go home first and get some rest." "Okay." Shannon got into her own car. Julie waited for her to leave before she turned around and went back into the shuttle car. The look on her face also suddenly turned cold. Not long after, her phone rang. Seeing that it was from Madam Stockton, she immediately put on a respectful smile and brought the phone to her ear. On the phone, Madam Stockton asked in a cold voice, "Has she left?"
