

Master of Time 119

Chapter 119 Lost and Found

Allison is wet and slick and very tight, massaging my meaty length as I slam in and out of her arousing body from below.

"Oh. Oh! Oh Fuck! Fuck me! Fuck me, Max! Fuck me!"

Allison screams loudly as her arms and legs pull me into her full wetness again and again, from around my shoulders and lower back respectively.

Her nails also dig deep into my flesh, trying and failing to break the skin.

And her endowing and bountiful chest, parched with our glistening sweats, heaves with each powerful thrust and squeezes against my strong frame, hugging and kissing my body tightly.

"Ugh! Take it. Take it. Take it, sweetie! Ugh! Fuck!"

I response and hammer home hard and fast, pounding that sweet, sweet pussy of hers. I didn't realize that I have stopped calling her by her name in my grunting and groaning. I am fully immersing myself in the blissful pleasure.

There is no need to think about anything anymore for the both of us.

Just let our bodies do the work.

Our lips soon join in on the heated action, muffling our screams and cries and grunts, allowing our wet tongues to meet after being apart for so, so long.

It has been about half a minute since our lips last met after all.

That is far too long.

Her unique sweetness roll across my tongue as I lap it all up hungrily, enjoying the delightful pleasure of doing so.

My hard cock did the same from below, plunging in and out deeply into her tight well and rolling itself within the nectarous juices.

More and more juices soak my throbbing cock as Allison reaches climatic rapture.

Screams escape her throat, vibrating our adjoining mouths and swirling around our dancing tongues, seeking desperately for a way out.

Those screams of hers eventually did as soon as I fill her up with my own hot and steamy fluids, mixing with her love juices and breaking our long and passionate kiss.

I join her screams with a vicious roar of my own.

"Fuck yeah! Take my seeds, sweetie! Take it all! All for you!"

Her body convulses at the unrestrained flooding in her cunt and tunnel, surging deeply into her womb while her arms and legs tighten around my body, embracing me desperately to prevent any leakage.

That attempt fails as my balls continuously churn and pump the hot and milky baby batter directly into her oven, filling it to the brim and squirting the excess out of her pussy lips and onto the sofa.

"Max... Max... ugh... ugh..."

Allison gasps as my hips hump and buckle raggedly, trying to pump out the remaining seeds within my hardened shaft. My balls also contract rather painfully as she is completely filled up.

"So tight! You're so fucking tight, sweetie! Ugh! Ugh! Ugh! Ah! Ah fuck!"

My arms and hands found themselves around her back and ass, holding her tight.

And with a powerful push against the soft sofa and floorboard from my knees and legs, I instantly pull myself into an upright, taking Allison with me.

My cock remains locked into her overflowed vaginal tract, and with both of my hands supporting her weight, I proceed to bounce her onto my thick cock, pumping out all the remaining baby batter within my shaft and balls.

All while cum constantly squirts and drips onto the floor in response.

"It's hot! It is so hot, Max! It's so hot!"

Allison calls out, arcing backwards as her arms hold tight around my neck, trying to stabilize herself as I proceed to pound her flooded cunt hard and fast with extreme recklessness and abandonment.

Her legs barely hanging on around my violently jerking hips while my erupting cock bottom out inside her again and again, filling her already overflowing tunnel.

So much cum explodes out of her abused pussy, running down my thighs. It makes a mess on the floor as well on the sofa. But I didn't care. I didn't care!

"I have a shitload of cum with your name on it, Allison. I'm going to fucking dump all of it in you right now! Right fucking now! Ugh! Take it"

My balls feel like they have just retreated into my body as my hard cock fills her cunt completely and unloads everything within regardless of whether she wants it or not. Whether she wants it or not!

But with the looks on her face, she definitely wants it!

Her eyes roll backwards while feeling her body being pumped full of hot and thick cum. Her arms lost their strength around my neck, letting her falls onto the sofa. My dick is released from her wet confine in the process, allowing it to jerk and blast ropes and ropes of cum over her panting body, marking her again and again.

One of my hands wraps around my cock as I lean forwards, pumping my seeds all over her ample chest and face and body. The other hand supports my entire weight by holding onto the backrest of the sofa as I proceed to give Allison a one-man bukkake shower.

It is very doable since Selene continuously pumps stamina liquids into my body. The liquid is extracted and refined from Stamina Potions.

Since Legion is not allowed to float around in my bloodstreams and within my organs, Selene takes on the task herself. Find authorized novels in Webnovel, faster updates, better experience, Please click for visiting.

Whatever Legion can do, Selene can do better as her nanomachines are more advanced.

Allison is in a complete hazy delight once the one-man bukkake finally dies down. Her body is coated from top to bottom with my spunk. Her tongue flexes and licks her lips every now and then, taking in the steamy cum that splashes against her face and features.

Her eyes slowly focus and look at my oozing cock before she lifts her head up and opens her mouth, allowing me inside. Her lips close around my shaft as my cock slides into her mouth, heading towards the back of her mouth and into her throat.

"Ah. You're getting very good at sucking dick, Allison. Use your tongue a bit more."

Allison did, lapping and massaging my shaft as it pumps slowly in and out of her mouth. The pace did not last as milky treats are being manufactured in my balls at an alarming rate. And before long, I am fucking her face, forcing the back of her head against the sofa.

As long as I desire it, I will always have a tasty treat for her or anyone for that matter. It would be more interesting if the magical viagra solution is also within her body, but I must test all the side effects out myself first.

"Fuck! Take my cock! Take my cock! Take it all in your throat, sweetie. Daddy have a huge milky treat for you."

Allison eyes me at the comment, wanting to say something about that, but her mouth is fully occupied with my cock right this moment.

Despite our familial connection, she obviously didn't like this roleplaying very much due to our relative appearance. I am actually younger than her in appearance, so it didn't make sense to roleplaying as father and daughter.

Our differences in appearance just breaks the illusion to be honest.

In addition, I am not actually her father, logically and scientifically speaking. I am her progenitor, which is different than paternal relationship.

But calling myself granddaddy or even older breaks the arousal. And mum never gives me a sexy sister to fantasize about, I have absolutely no interest in calling Allison as such. I am the only child since mum died when during birth. I will correct that problem when the time comes.

But regardless of whatever Allison wanting to protest to me about, she soon has her incredibly thick and milky treat. Her eyes bulge at the flooding in the back of her throat, forcing her to swallow rather frantically.

I eventually pull out halfway so that she can taste me in full. My seeds coat her tongue in its entirety before filling her mouth up from the brim. I stroke exposed part of my cock outside her mouth, trying to squeeze out everything into her orifice.

Allison helps out by cupping my balls and rubbing the base. Unlike the first time she has sucked my cock and drink my milk, she does not show signs of disgust in her expression.

Instead, Allison actively tries to get as much of the treat as possible. Once my balls are emptied, I pull my cock out and stroke it lightly. Allison leans back against the sofa, feeling the milky richness within her mouth.

"Show me it?"

I request, and she did, arching her head back and opening her mouth. Seeing the pool contains within with her tongue taking a swim brings me to hardness once more. It is just too damn hot!

"Fuck, that's hot. Now, swallow it all. I promise I will give you another treat afterwards."

Allison did just before I hammer her throat with my shaft once more. She groans and moans whenever I pull my cock out and slap her face with it, trailing her saliva and pre-cum upon her features.

And as I have promised just now, I pump her hot mouth, tight throat and full stomach with just a lot of myself before pounding her flooded pussy against on the sofa and refilling that to the brim too.

Several times, in fact.

I am so fucking horny and full of energy!

"Ah! Ugh... Gugh...! Gakh! Ah, it hurts... it hurts, Max! Ugh! Gah! Ahhh!"

Allison protests as she grips the cushion of the sofa tightly with both hands while her ass is being split open by my mushroom crown from behind. Her knees are weakened as I force myself into her rectum slowly.

I did promise to claim her anal virginity the first time I had fucked her.

Did I fuck her again after that first time?

Yup, totally.

But I didn't break her ass cherry, opting to save it for later.

This is as good as any other time, especially with the roleplaying going on. It just makes me super hard, thinking about claiming her virginity, even if it is anal virginity.

"Just a bit more, sweetie. Daddy must claim his prize."

I response and force a little bit more of myself into her rectum.

Allison claws into the sofa and pants heavily at the huge intrusion. And soon enough, my balls hug her soaking cunt and recoating itself with my spunk once more. Her cunt constantly oozes out the cum as I did pump a lot inside her.

She is definitely pregnant if I am wasn't infertile.

Can't have a bunch of mini-me running around just yet.

"See, it wasn't so bad, sweetie? Now, tell daddy, who was your first? Also, when was your first? Don't like to me now, or I will have to punish you like a bad little girl you are with this steel rod."

My cock throbs in her ass, making her grunts. She then takes in a deep breath and steadies herself for what about to begin.

With that and my hands around her glossy waist thanks to the one-man bukkake, I slowly pull back an inch or two and then slam back in without hesitation, forcing Allison to see stars.

"Tell me, sweetie, who was your first? Tell me!"

I repeat my question. My hips already repeat its assault, spearing her tight rectum again and again. It is fucking tight! A lot tighter than her pussy.

"It was... it was with a boy... when I was fifteen! We... we... were... were... drunk... Ah! Slow... please slowly down, Max. Ah! Argh! Aghhhhhh!"

Allison shouts as I pound her ass hard and fast, bringing myself towards climax. My cock is actually in pain due to how tight her backdoor is.

"Fuck! You must be constipated all the time, sweetie. Let me give you a dose of medicine."

Not long after I have announced that, I roar and blast several doses of steamy medicinal fluids into her tight ass.

"Hot! So hot! Oh God, it's so hot!"

Allision screams as the hotness fills her inside.

My cum quickly lubricated my cock as it plunges in and out of her hole, bringing much more enjoyment to the both of us. I proceed to pound her harder and harder, forcing strings of cum to hang out of her cunt.

At the brutal assaults, Allison arches her body upwards, allowing me to grope and fondle her breasts as well as giving her several incomplete kiss. Her arms and hands also try to feel me awkwardly, but it is hard for her in that position.

And somehow, Allison and I soon find us both standing and humping in an upright position. It didn't stop me wrecking her ass with my cock. My heavy thrusting forces her across the room and away from the completely drenched sofa.

Shit! I must have cum gallons.

Luckily, we did not slip on the floor.

However, our combined juices trail our wakes.

The far wall within the apartment stops us and the full body mirror in front allows her to see everything happening from behind as well her messy appearance, covered in my spunk.

I slow down to let her take a breath as she holds herself against the mirror.

"Dad. Harder. Fuck me. Fuck your daughter! Claim my ass! It's yours! It's yours!"

Allision speaks up, finally settling in the roleplay.

"Take my cock. Take it, sweetie. Take it!"

And I obliged, ripping apart her ass and flooding her inside with the brim.

Cum erupts out of her asshole, running down to her cunt once I pull my cock out and spray her bubbly ass and nicely-toned back.

"This is mine too, isn't it, sweetie?"

I question as two of my fingers spread her nether lips, coating themselves in our mixed juices. She did orgasms multiple times as her ass get the pounding of its entire life.

My spitting cock lines itself up against her drenched cunt, readying to spear it once more. However, I have another plan in mind.

"Yes, dad. It's yours. It's yours! Oh God, it's yours!"

Allison calls out and rubs her pussy and ass against me, urging me on.

"Then how dare you let a boy claims it? How dare you!? You must be punished. Must be punished!"

I call out and grab her slender waist. My cock slams into her virgin cunt, spreading the passage entirely and drawling blood in the process.

Her eyes go utterly wide as sharp pain shoots through her body and crashes against her mind. Her face crashes against the mirror in front and pressing onto her teenage reflection.

Allison is now fifteen, and she is getting fucked for the first time.
