Chap 364 CEO, When Did You Come Back?

“I’ll contact C.U. They won’t let Jiang Xun off for what she did!” After Sister Ran finished speaking, she immediately called C.U.

After a while, Youlan saw her hang up and asked, “How is it? What did C.U. say?”

“They’ll contact Jiang Xun immediately,” Sister Ran said.

Yicheng had also driven to Mufeng’s house.

He had been busy these two days, and he still had to pass the message to Jiang Xun through the phone, which was still a little inconvenient.

He might as well look for Jiang Xun. If anything happened, Jiang Xun would know immediately.

He also knew what Jiang Xun was planning to do.

Jiang Xun really didn’t play by the rules. He just didn’t pay attention for a moment, and Jiang Xun let herself go.

Fortunately, it was Sunday. He had asked and Jiang Xun was at home.

What was even more fortunate was that Mufeng was not around.

He had gone to the company!

This way, Yicheng would not have to face the huge pressure from Mufeng.

As soon as Yicheng entered the door, he received a call from C.U.

Just then, Yicheng put it on speaker for Jiang Xun to listen.

“CEO Wang, what does Jiang Xun mean? It’s not appropriate for her to make the announcement on our behalf, right?” The other party said, “We have been planning for the official announcement and choosing a date. In the end, Jiang Xun just posted a simple sentence on Weibo and turned our plan into waste paper. She’s breaking the industry’s rules like this, does she still want to take brand endorsements in the future?”

Yicheng wasn’t afraid of him. He sneered at him. “Why don’t you ask Su Youlan what she’s done? Since she has accepted your endorsement, she should do her best to fulfill her responsibility. Don’t cause so much trouble, and we will naturally not do anything. She looked for a marketing account to trample on Jiang Xun. First, she said that Jiang Xun wanted to work with you, and then Jiang Xun personally rebuked the rumors. She didn’t say anything else, didn’t say anything bad about your brand, and didn’t drag Su Youlan into it. Our artiste is already very restrained, and she’s been very kind to you.”

“Although you were the ones who took the initiative to contact us to talk about the endorsement at the beginning, then you went back on your word later, and although we were actually prepared to reject your endorsement a long time ago, no matter what, our artiste has never said anything to wrong you. Su Youlan insisted on using this to trample on our artiste, and after we clarified things, she said that it was because you guys didn’t like Jiang Xun, so should we not say anything after being slandered?”

“Before you blame us, you should take care of your spokesperson first! After accepting the endorsement, she didn’t play her part and wanted to use the endorsement to step on our artiste. In the end, our artiste exposed her. Didn’t she deserve it? You still have the face to come and find us?”

“How fucking unlucky!” Yicheng had wanted to scold them for a long time. He had suppressed his temper and talked to them nicely in order to find out who they had changed to be their spokesperson. Now that they had come to him on their own initiative, Yicheng couldn’t bear it anymore. “Su Youlan is so noisy. Your good fortune has yet to come! That’s the spokesperson you found yourself, so you’ll have to suffer!”

“But you can’t announce it on our behalf in advance!” The other party said angrily.

“Why can’t I? Did we sign a contract with you in black and white that we can’t make an official announcement on your behalf? We did not!” Yicheng sneered. “Not convinced? Sue us if you can! If you can win the lawsuit, I, Wang Yicheng, will quit the industry!”

Sue us if you can!

Qin Yang’s strongest team of lawyers was still waiting!

In China, someone who could win against those hooligans was probably not even born yet.

If there were, they would be absorbed into the team of lawyers.

They were just that rogue!

Jiang Xun directly announced Youlan on behalf of C.U. They would either come out to refute the rumors and change the spokesperson, or they would have to bite the bullet and continue using Youlan.

“Your own spokesperson is the one who started it first. If you have any opinions, go and talk to your idiot spokesperson first!” After Yicheng finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

Jiang Xun: “...”

Yicheng clenched his fist weakly and covered his mouth as he coughed awkwardly. “I was too absorbed in my cursing and accidentally said some vulgarities.”

After Yicheng finished speaking, he suddenly felt that the atmosphere in the room had changed.

The hair on the back of his neck stood up unconsciously.

Yicheng raised his head subconsciously and saw Mufeng standing in the living room.

Yicheng: “!!!”

Yicheng quickly stood up. “CEO, when did you come back?”

“How fucking unlucky.” Mufeng said.

Yicheng: “...”

He must have been too immersed in his scolding that he did not hear the sound of Mufeng entering the door.

“I remember that you guys were talking about an endorsement deal. It was C something?” Mufeng asked.

“C.U.” Jiang Xun said.

Mufeng nodded and did not say anything else. He went to the study room.

He gave Chengnan a call. “Does C.U. have a store in Qin Yang department store?”

“There is.” Chengnan immediately said.

Mufeng vaguely remembered that there was one. He asked again, “How much longer is the lease?”

“I’ll check.” The sound of someone typing on the keyboard could be heard. After a while, he heard Chengnan say, “It’s due at the end of next month. We’re talking about renewing the contract.”

There were too many brands that wanted to enter Qin Yang department store, so the store had always been rented once a year, and only one month before the lease expired would they begin to discuss the renewal of the lease.

Whether they wanted to extend the lease or switch to another brand would depend on the brand’s position and the rent.

“There’s no need to.” Mufeng said, “C.U.’s store. Change it to another brand.”

“Yes.” Chengnan was not surprised.

Before Mufeng’s call, Chengnan was reading on Weibo.

However, who would have thought that Mufeng, who had suspected Jiang Xun of seducing him on purpose, could not bear to see Jiang Xun suffer even a little.

After Yicheng finished talking with Jiang Xun, he quickly left.

Since Mufeng had returned, Yicheng did not want to be a third wheel.

Not long after Yicheng left, the doorbell rang again.

Mufeng went to open the door. After a while, Jiang Xun heard the sound of people talking at the door. Out of curiosity, she also went to take a look.

She saw a young man in C brand’s uniform standing at the door, holding a tall stack of C brand’s iconic boxes in his hands.

Mufeng took the things over. After the other party left, Mufeng came in with the box.

“Try them on and see.” Mufeng placed the box on the coffee table.

Jiang Xun opened the boxes one by one. They were filled with clothes from C brand.

“I told the staff about your age and style and let them choose as they saw fit. Try them on and choose a set to wear tomorrow. I happen to have a dinner with the CEO of C brand Asia tomorrow, so you can come with me.” Mufeng said indifferently.

Jiang Xun was surprised. “You’re not trying to get me to cooperate with C brand, are you? Although I’m very confident, with my current strength, it’s still too much for me to work with C brand.”
