

Master Qin 391

Chapter 391 Did She Despise Him Or Praise Him?

Shuixin saw that Mufeng did not think that Jiang Xun's threatening behavior was bad. Instead, he smiled at her gently!

Didn't Mufeng feel that Jiang Xun's threatening behavior was very despicable?

"How do you want her to apologize?" Mufeng asked, "Do you want her to publicly apologize on set tomorrow or on Weibo?"

Shuixin was speechless.

Was Mufeng the devil?

She had wanted to fool him, but Mufeng had actually given her two ways!

"Teacher Jian, you can choose for yourself," Jiang Xun said. "Do you want to apologize to me in front of everyone on set tomorrow or on Weibo?"

"Choose," Mufeng said coldly.

He was gentle to Jiang Xun, but not so patient to Shuixin.

His eyes seemed to be quenched with ice, and he spoke to Shuixin coldly.

Shuixin was shocked by the speed of Mufeng's change of expression.

When he turned to look at Jiang Xun just now, his voice was gentle and his eyes were smiling. He really looked like a gentle young master.

However, when he turned around to face her, he was just a cold, emotionless, blood-sucking, cruel capitalist.

Shuixin was silent.

With Mufeng around, Shuixin didn't dare to say a word.

"I'll apologize to you on set tomorrow," Shuixin gritted her teeth and said.

"Remember, it's a public apology. It's useless for you to apologize to me in private," Jiang Xun reminded.

"I know."

Shuixin had thought about it. If she apologized on Weibo, it would be embarrassing in front of the whole internet.

Although it was embarrassing to apologize to Jiang Xun in person, it was also a test of one's mental strength.

However, it was at least spread within a small area.

Most of the crew still followed the rules of the entertainment industry and would not easily reveal it to others.

Even if someone were to spread the news, it would only be spread in private.

As long as she apologized quickly enough, no one in the crew would have time to film her.

Without the video, so what if someone spread the news?

No video meant no evidence.

If there were only words, she could just say that it was made up.

Jiang Xun could guess Shuixin's thoughts, but she didn't care. She pulled Mufeng back to their room.

They had been filming for the whole day, and because they were acting in a mythological drama, they had to wear wigs.

It was still a little cold in the capital at this time of the year, but it was already hot in Hengcheng.

She had been wearing a wig and a complicated ancient costume the whole day.

Since she had time tonight, Jiang Xun rushed into the bathroom to take a shower as soon as she entered the door.

Not to mention Jiang Xun, even Mufeng had rushed over directly from Qin Yang and did not have time to change his clothes.

In Hengcheng, he was wearing the shirt and suit he had worn in Qin Yang. Layer after layer, he was sweating a little from the heat in Hengcheng.

Therefore, when Jiang Xun came out, Mufeng also went to take a shower.

She handed the clothes to the hotel to be washed.

Fortunately, he had brought a change of clothes and pajamas.

Mufeng was taking a shower inside, while Jiang Xun started to watch the contents of the class that Yicheng had recorded during the day.

Yicheng had communicated with Beijing University's school and arranged for someone to set up some equipment in the back row to film the contents of the class for Jiang Xun. After Jiang Xun finished filming, she would make up for the daytime lessons.

She didn't fall behind on the homework assigned by the teacher and handed it in on time.

Although Jiang Xun had only added 10 points to her brainpower so far, it was enough for her to have a photographic memory and to be able to digest and absorb the content of the class by just watching the recorded videos.

Jiang Xun could even play it at double speed.

It was because of this that she was able to watch the videos in class every day.

Jiang Xun was watching when Mufeng came out of the shower.

Jiang Xun subconsciously turned her head to take a look. She muttered in her heart, "A man's face is really a source of calamity."

No wonder he excited Shihe.

Mufeng was wearing his ordinary pajamas. His hair was also dried.

He didn't bring any toiletries and was using hers.

As a result, he had the familiar scent of shampoo and shower gel on him.

As the weather in Hengcheng was hot, Jiang Xun bought shampoo and shower gel with a faint minty smell of vervain.

Strangely, when it was on her body, she didn't feel that the minty smell was very clear. She only felt that her body was cool.

However, after Mufeng used it, the refreshing minty fragrance seemed to be stronger.

Mufeng raised his eyebrows. He did not understand why Jiang Xun was looking at him with such a complicated gaze.

There seemed to be a bit of liking, but there was also a hint of dislike.

Mufeng suddenly felt a strong sense of danger.

He quickly leaned closer to Jiang Xun. "Why are you looking at me like that? What have I done to make you unhappy?"

"No, you haven't done anything." Jiang Xun looked at Mufeng's face that was right in front of her.

His face was magnified in front of her eyes, but she could still bear the scrutiny.

His facial features, regardless of whether they were placed together or if they were taken out individually, did not have a single bad look.

"I just feel that you're a big man, so you're too much of a trouble." Jiang Xun pouted and looked at Mufeng carefully from left to right. "Even if you're the best looking, clean and honest, and you're also the CEO of Qin Yang, does that Mu Shihe have to keep staring at you? Does she not even care about her image?"

Mufeng: "..."

Did she despise him or praise him?

Mufeng took it as a compliment from Jiang Xun.

After all, he was extremely good-looking and clean.

However, before Mufeng could be happy, he was pushed away by Jiang Xun.

"I'm watching the video of today's class." Jiang Xun looked at the laptop screen again. She watched the class video seriously and no longer looked at Mufeng.

Mufeng: "..."

He was still at the top of his attractiveness index, but he was no longer able to attract her.

Mufeng could only obediently sit next to Jiang Xun and lean against the bed beside her.

Jiang Xun was focused on watching the video. Mufeng would watch the video from time to time, then look at Jiang Xun.

Thanks to the fact that he had worked so hard and worked overtime this week, he could spend more time with her.

As a result, he was free when Jiang Xun was busy.

He looked at the class video that was playing on Jiang Xun's computer for a while and then at Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun was wearing headphones, so she couldn't hear anything and could only watch the video.

However, Jiang Xun could see from the corner of her eye that Mufeng was looking at her from time to time. His gaze was fixed on her, and his presence was so strong that she could not ignore it even if she tried her best.

Jiang Xun ignored him and finally finished watching the video at double the speed. Mufeng immediately asked, "You're done?"

"Yes." Jiang Xun felt that he was too idle. "You didn't bring any work?"

Mufeng's tone was faint. "In order to be able to concentrate on being with you, I settled all my work before I came."

"Ahem." Jiang Xun touched the tip of her nose. "I don't have a choice. I can only make up for the day's lessons in between filming. I've already doubled the speed of the playback, and I'm doing my best to speed it up."

"When you went back to the capital two days ago, why didn't I see you watching the video of your class at night?" Mufeng remembered and asked.

"You still have the nerve to say that." Jiang Xun rolled her eyes at him. "I originally wanted you to go to the office during the day, and I would go to school. After all, watching a video is different from attending the actual class."

Chapter 392 Mufeng Was Here Too?

In the end... Jiang Xun was too embarrassed to say it out loud. If she did, she didn't know how smug this man would be.

She pursed her lips, closed her laptop, and placed it on the bedside table. She could take the opportunity to avoid Mufeng's gaze so that he would not see through her guilty conscience.

Jiang Xun took the opportunity to put down the computer and turned the back of her head to Mufeng. "But in order to see you earlier, didn't I rush back overnight? In addition, I was too tired from filming during the day and woke up late the next day, so I missed class. I simply didn't go and continued to watch the class videos at home."

"I finished watching it during the day. Of course, you won't know when you come back at night." Jiang Xun only turned around after she finished speaking.

Who knew that Mufeng would suddenly approach her from behind. She had just turned around when she directly leaned into Mufeng's arms.

"It's actually not because I made you tired?" Mufeng's low and warm voice was accompanied by a light laugh from her forehead.

Mufeng lowered his head to look at the stubborn woman in his arms. When he spoke, his hot breath sprayed on her forehead and eyebrows.

Jiang Xun: "..."

"Then it seems like I'll have to work hard after you're done filming," Mufeng continued. "Otherwise, why would you have to beat around the bush to express your dissatisfaction?"

Jiang Xun's eyes widened in disbelief. "What did I express?"

"Are you trying to say that I'm not working hard enough?" Mufeng squinted his eyes slightly. His eyes seemed to be curved in a teasing manner. "You still have to film tomorrow. I can't tire you out. I'll wait until you're done filming."

Jiang Xun seemed to have heard another sentence in her stomach. "Wait until you're done filming. Watch how I'll deal with you."

Jiang Xun: "..."

When Mufeng said this, his thin and hot lips were already on Jiang Xun's lips.

He didn't give Jiang Xun a chance to speak, and covered her lips with his.

boxn ov el. c o m

Jiang Xun jolted on the huge ship that was in a heavy rain and on monstrous waves. Facing the storm, the deck kept tilting. She had no place to hold on to and no place to borrow strength from. She suspected that she could fall off the deck at any time.

Jiang Xun bit Mufeng's shoulder in anger.

And he still remembered that she had to film tomorrow?

That bastard!

At 3:45 in the morning, Jiang Xun was woken up by her phone's alarm before dawn.

Mufeng opened his eyes in a daze. He was drowsy and even his hair had become fluffy.

“It’s still dark.” Mufeng’s voice was hoarse from his sleep.

Jiang Xun yawned and forced herself to get out of bed. I have to go to the set at four o’clock to get ready for my makeup and hair.

In order to get more sleep, she didn’t even wash her face every morning. When she arrived at the set, she would ask the makeup artist to clean her face.

Even Jiang Xun found it difficult to have an appetite when she got up too early in the morning.

Usually, she would catch up on sleep while the makeup artist was putting on makeup for her. Jiang Xun would eat more after seven o’clock, before the shooting started.

As long as she was careful not to smudge her makeup, she would be fine.

Jiang Xun was afraid of dazzling Mufeng’s eyes and did not intend to turn on the lights. However, Mufeng turned on the main switch first and turned on all the lights in the room.

The room suddenly brightened up, and it also seemed a little warmer than when it was dark.

“I’ll go with you.” Mufeng followed her.

“You can rest here.” Jiang Xun was surprised. What was he doing up so early?

“I’ll go to the set with you. I won’t disturb you. I’ll wait in the RV.” Mufeng stood up and quickly put on his clothes.

Jiang Xun had woken up so early to film. How could he still be in the mood to sleep here?

The sky was still dark, and the two of them went to the set.

Mufeng came in a low-profile manner and did not show his face outside of the RV.

Jiang Xun, on the other hand, went to the dressing room.

The makeup artist picked up the clothes for the first few scenes and prepared to help Jiang Xun change.

Jiang Xun took off her outer clothes, leaving only the thin halter top inside.

The crew would send the costume to be washed, but Jiang Xun still felt that it wasn’t her own clothes and didn’t feel good, so she still wore a halter shirt with a layer between them.

If the weather was cooler, she could even wear an inner top.

However, it was too hot right now, and coupled with the heavy costume, it was so hot that she couldn’t breathe. A halter top was already her limit.

In the end, the makeup artist saw a few dark red marks on Jiang Xun’s fair skin exposed above the low neckline of her halter top.

The makeup artist was stunned for a moment before realizing what it was.

Immediately after, she thought of the gossip that had blown up on Weibo last night.

Mufeng had come to Hengcheng to look for Jiang Xun.

It was obvious who had left the mark on Jiang Xun's body.

The makeup artist blushed and turned her head away, too embarrassed to look.

Jiang Xun's skin was too fair, like milk.

The red plum blossoms bloomed on it, making it hard for people not to imagine how intense and charming the battle last night was.

Seeing the makeup artist's expression, Jiang Xun lowered her head to take a look.

Jiang Xun was dumbfounded.

Even Jiang Xun blushed in embarrassment. She quickly grabbed the clothes from the makeup artist and put them on.

As she put it on, she did not forget to scold Mufeng for being a bastard.

He was quite good at positioning, and the skin that was exposed outside her clothes was not visible at all.

The makeup artist came back to her senses, coughed, and helped Jiang Xun tidy her clothes.

Jiang Xun's sleepiness was swept away by this incident.

However, she still closed her eyes to take a nap while she was putting on her makeup to avoid the awkwardness.

At 7:30 a.m., Jiang Xun started shooting her first scene.

In the middle of the break, Jiang Xun saw Shuixin resting as well.

Jiang Xun held a small portable fan in her hand and walked to Shuixin. "Teacher Jian, you haven't apologized to me today."

Jiang Xun arrogantly held a small fan in one hand, blowing her long hair back. It was extremely elegant.

With one hand on her waist, she waited for Shuixin to apologize. In Shuixin's eyes, Jiang Xun really looked like a vicious villain in the drama.

No wonder the director let Jiang Xun play the role!

Shuixin stood up with a dark face. When she was about to speak, Jiang Xun said, "You got to do it louder! You said you'd apologize in front of everyone, so it doesn't count if you keep your voice down and no one else can hear you."

Shuixin was so angry that her face turned red. She gritted her teeth and clenched her fists. She had thought about it well yesterday, but now she found that she couldn't say anything.

That was why Shuixin didn't take the initiative to look for Jiang Xun, trying to cover up this matter.

Who knew that Jiang Xun would take the initiative to find her!

This person had no emotional intelligence!

Don't you know how to get along well with others and be kind to them?

Seeing that Shuixin didn't speak, Jiang Xun put her hands on her waist and said, "Qin Mufeng is here too. He's in my RV. If you don't want to apologize, I can ask him to come over and take a look. Maybe it's better for you to apologize in front of him?"

Shuixin: "..."

Mufeng was here too?

Really?

She was so angry that she did not dare to offend Mufeng.

Seeing Shuixin's suspicion, Jiang Xun called him directly through WeChat voice call.

"You're done filming?" Jiang Xun turned on the speaker, and Mufeng's low and rich voice came out clearly from the phone.

Chapter 393 It Really Is Suspicious

It was just that Mufeng's voice was a little too coy.

Jiang Xun was also caught off guard. She quickly coughed and said to Mufeng, "I'm on speaker."

Mufeng: "..."

Mufeng covered his eyes and said helplessly, "Why would you turn on speaker for no reason?"

Jiang Xun also wanted to ask him why he was acting like this.

"Didn't I ask Jian Shuixin to apologize? If she wants to fool me, then I can only ask you for support." Jiang Xun said without hiding anything.

Shuixin was furious.

Ever since Jiang Xun's official announcement she would not hide her villainous ways of taking advantage of others in the future.

She might as well keep a low profile when there was no official announcement!

If she had known earlier, she would not have used Jiang Xun and Mufeng's matter to provoke Jiang Xun.

Now that Jiang Xun had been provoked and released the official announcement, she had no more scruples.

[Merit points +1]

Jiang Xun was confused.

Jiang Xun thought, "Is Jian Shuixin suddenly so sincere? She hasn't even said it out loud, and she's already feeling sorry in her heart?"

The system said, "The system has detected that Jian Shuixin regretted provoking you and Qin Mufeng. She thinks that it was her provocation that led to the official announcement between you and Qin Mufeng. That's why the merit points were generated."

boxn ov el. c o m

Jiang Xun: "..."

This was a huge misunderstanding.

Shuixin was not so thick-skinned as to push for the official announcement between her and Mufeng.

It was only because they had long wanted to make the official announcement.

"I'll head over now," Mufeng said through the phone.

"I'm sorry!" Shuixin said hurriedly.

She really did not want to face Mufeng. The pressure was too great.

Shuixin was afraid that Mufeng couldn't hear her, so her voice was exceptionally loud.

So much so that the crew also looked over.

"I'm sorry," Shuixin said. She also saw the other crew members looking at her, and her face burned.

She could only try her best to ignore those gazes.

Although Mufeng was not in front of her, he could hear it through Jiang Xun's phone.

Shuixin didn't dare to just say sorry, so she apologized honestly, "I shouldn't have mocked you for being with Mr. Qin. I said you were trying to hype up the ship for the popularity. I misunderstood you. I'm sorry."

[Merit points +1]

At first, Jiang Xun didn't have much hope for Shuixin's merit points. Most likely, Shuixin was just apologizing verbally, but she didn't feel that way.

She did not expect Mufeng to be so useful.

Even though he wasn't in front of her, Shuixin could still apologize seriously even though he was only listening to her on the phone.

"Alright, I accept your apology." After Jiang Xun finished speaking, she left arrogantly with her hands on her hips while blowing the small fan.

After making sure that Mufeng would not come over and could not hear her, Shuixin then said to Xuyi indignantly, "Isn't she just relying on Qin Mufeng's support? What's so great about it! She had better promise that she could always be with Qin Mufeng. Otherwise, the more arrogant she is now, the harder her days will be after she is dumped by Qin Mufeng!"

Xuyi passed the phone to Shuixin, who said angrily, "Why are you giving me your phone?"

“Take a look at this,” Xuyi said.

Shuixin looked down and saw the Weibo page on her phone.

Xuyi had shown her his phone.

Shuixin took the phone and looked at it.

Shuixin was happy when she saw it.

Now, there was another very loud voice on Weibo saying that Jiang Xun and Mufeng were actually in a relationship through an agreement.

[In the past, I felt that Jiang Xun was not valued by the Jiang family, so I thought that Qin Mufeng did not like her. However, after this incident, I realized that Jiang Xun’s status in the Jiang family is actually very high. It might not have been high in the past, but with Jiang Jixuan as the confirmed successor of the Jiang family and Jiang Jixuan’s support, Jiang Xun is definitely the most valued daughter of the Jiang family. In this case, I suddenly don’t find it strange that Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun made an official announcement. I don’t believe that there’s no such thing as aligned interests.]

[Yesterday, Jiang Jixuan said it himself. The so-called richest man in Macheng might be powerful in Macheng, but what is he in the capital? There are too many rich people in China, and even more so in the capital. In the capital, the Jiang family would only be much more powerful than the Mu family. In the past, Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun did not make an official announcement. However, after Jiang Chengye and Jiang Jixuan stood out to support Jiang Xun and expressed their dissatisfaction yesterday, Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun suddenly made an official announcement. Anyone with a discerning eye can see that the Jiang family is definitely putting pressure on Qin Mufeng.]

[I’m also inclined to believe that it’s just an agreement between the two of them. There must be some kind of cooperation between the Jiang family and the Qin family. The two families want to maximize their benefits, so Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng came to an agreement to fall in love.]

[The timing of the official announcement is too suspicious.]

[Could it be that there’s still someone who can’t tell that Qin Mufeng’s pairing with Jiang Xun on variety shows was very artificial?]

[We’ll know when we see if they’ll come out for business in the future. If they were a real couple, they would definitely keep a low profile. If it’s for business, there must be a beneficial relationship.]

Spicy JJ: [the antis have changed their perspective again. Is it so uncomfortable to see other people’s relationship?]

Eating Jiang: [Great CEO Qin and Jiang Jiang were obviously so sweet on the show.]

Jiang Jiang Shredding: [It’s obviously the sweetness of a real couple. Why are you antis pulling something out of nothing and saying that it’s artificial?]

Shuixin automatically ignored the rebuttal of Jiang Xun’s fans and smiled. “Now that you put it that way, it really is suspicious.”

Xuyi guessed, "They will either end the agreement because of the end of the cooperation between the Jiang and Qin families, or they will directly marry each other. However, if it's a marriage, I personally feel that the Jiang family isn't even close to the Qin family. Unless the Qin family can confirm Jiang Xun's position in the Jiang family and obtain Jiang Jixuan's full support, then it's not impossible for Jiang Xun."

Shuixin returned the phone to Xuyi and pouted. "It must be the first kind. How can you get married in this kind of contract relationship? Even if they're really married, they'll have to get a divorce sooner or later."

Jiang Xun also saw these comments when she returned to the RV during her lunch break.

However, she didn't take it seriously.

If those people were willing to comfort themselves with delusion, she would not stop them.

However, even though Shuixin felt the same way, she didn't dare to be rude to Jiang Xun in the production team anymore. She stopped.

Jiang Xun's ears were also quiet.

Jiang Xun completed her filming and returned to the capital ahead of time.

This time, she reached home in the afternoon.

She tidied up and looked at the time. She could still make it for the afternoon class, so she went to school first.

It was not even 18 o'clock when Jiang Xun returned home after class. Mufeng had not returned yet.

He usually reached home around 19 o'clock.

Jiang Xun unpacked her luggage and sorted out the clothes. She threw the clothes that could be machine-washed into the washing machine and the clothes that needed dry cleaning into the laundry basket. She then handed them over to the auntie to send them to the dry cleaning shop.

She didn't bring a lot of luggage to the set, unlike other female stars who would pack many cardboard boxes that had to be transported separately.

Chapter 394 Delete Her Scenes

Jiang Xun only dragged her suitcase over.

Hence, after she returned, she unpacked pretty quickly.

She took out her luggage and unpacked it in 40 minutes.

She left the empty suitcase at the door and planned to put it in the opposite house at night.

The moment Mufeng entered the door, he saw the luggage at the door.

He changed his shoes, opened the shoe cabinet, and put his leather shoes in. He saw that next to the place where he had put his shoes, there was a pair of white joggers in the empty space.

Mufeng's mood could not help but rise as he walked in.

However, he didn't see her in the living room, kitchen, or dining room.

Mufeng went to the study to take a look and thought that Jiang Xun was studying in the study.

She wasn't there either.

He then turned to the bedroom.

The bedroom door was open.

He had just reached the door when he heard the sound of the shower coming from the bathroom.

Mufeng walked to the bathroom door and opened it. Indeed, he saw Jiang Xun inside.

"When did you come back?" Mufeng asked in surprise.

boxn ov el. c o m

When did this girl develop the habit of not greeting him every time she came back? She had to give him a surprise.

Jiang Xun was washing the last bit of shampoo off her hair with her eyes closed when she suddenly felt a cool breeze.

Jiang Xun wiped the water off her face. She had yet to open her eyes when she heard Mufeng's voice.

She opened her eyes and saw Mufeng standing at the bathroom door.

No wonder she felt cold just now!

Jiang Xun quickly took a bath towel and wrapped it around herself. The shower had soaked the bath towel.

Even though she had been extremely intimate with Mufeng, Jiang Xun's body was burning up when he looked at her so arrogantly in broad daylight.

"Close the door immediately!" Jiang Xun urged with a red face.

"Alright," he said. Mufeng responded. Who would have thought that he did not go out and close the door. Instead, he came in and closed the door behind him.

"What are you doing? Why are you taking off your tie?" Jiang Xun grabbed the bath towel tightly and saw Mufeng's long fingers pinching his tie. The muscles and veins on the back of his thin hand were exposed as his fingertips exerted force.

"Taking a shower before dinner." Mufeng pulled off his tie without changing his expression and threw it on the ground casually.

He took off his suit and threw it on the ground.

There were still some water stains on the ground. Jiang Xun's lips trembled as she stammered, "I remember that your clothes can't get wet, right?"

Mufeng's formal clothes were all specially tailored and custom-made. The materials used were exquisite. They had always been sent to special shops for dry cleaning. Ordinary dry cleaning shops could not do it.

"It's fine." Mufeng did not mind. He unbuttoned his shirt as he walked to the door of the shower.

Then, he unbuttoned his shirt with one hand and opened the door of the shower room with the other. He strode in with his long legs and reached out to pull Jiang Xun into his arms.

His shirt was completely soaked by the water on Jiang Xun.

His body was cold. Jiang Xun left the hot water in the shower and suddenly shivered when his body touched her.

Mufeng lowered his head and kissed her. At the same time, he took a step forward and the two of them were under the shower together.

This time, Jiang Xun was not cold anymore.

But soon after, she could no longer stand.

The bath towel fell, and her feet left the ground.

Mufeng carried Jiang Xun out of the bathroom. Jiang Xun gritted her teeth and left two rows of teeth marks on his shoulder.

"Before you went into the bathroom just now, you'd better have already ordered takeout for me." She was famished.

Mufeng: "..."

"I'll order it immediately. I'll cook you a bowl of noodles while we wait for the delivery." Mufeng quickly said.

When Jiang Xun heard that the man had eaten his fill while she was so tired that she didn't even have anything to eat, she became even angrier. She left two rows of teeth marks on his other shoulder.

It was symmetrical to the previous one.

Mufeng ordered takeaway and went to cook noodles for Jiang Xun.

Although he said he was called cooking noodles, it was actually instant noodles.

He really didn't know much about other things.

He cooked two packets of instant noodles for Jiang Xun. He used the seasoning packages for seasoning and beat two eggs into the noodles.

Mufeng picked the nearest store to place his order for takeaway.

Hence, after Jiang Xun finished eating the instant noodles, the takeaway arrived just as Mufeng threw the bowl into the dishwasher.

By feeding Jiang Xun, he had coaxed her.

Jiang Xun returned to her normal school life.

After the filming was completed, the production team held a wrap party.

Jiang Xun was too lazy to attend since she was in the capital.

However, she did not know that Shihe had actually appeared at the wrap up party.

The Mu Corporation was one of the investors of “Yu Jun, The Legend of Qing Yan.”

The more Shihe thought about it, the angrier she got.

The Mu Corporation had invested in many projects, and it was impossible for her to know every one of them.

Moreover, at that time, she did not know that Jiang Xun was Mufeng’s girlfriend.

By the time Mufeng and Jiang Xun made the official announcement, Jiang Xun was already on the verge finishing up her shooting.

It was obviously unrealistic to ask the director to replace Jiang Xun and find someone else to reshoot.

It involved the shooting cost and the schedule of other actors.

The Mu Corporation was only one of the investors. The other investors would not let Shihe do that.

But no matter what, as the Mu Corporation was one of the investors, Li Guangshu, the director of the drama, still gave Shihe a lot of face.

Who knew if the Mu Corporation would become his biggest investor in the next drama?

During the meal, Guangshu kept chatting with Shihe.

Shihe did not beat around the bush with Guangshu and said directly, “Director Li, there’s something I’ll be direct about. Is Jiang Xun’s part very important in this drama?”

Guangshu had his fair share of gossip. As he tried to guess Shihe’s intentions, he said cautiously, “As the second female lead villain, she pushes for the development of the story between the male and female leads. Of course, she is important.”

“I’m not asking you to delete all her scenes. However, if you can reduce her scenes as much as possible without affecting the development of the male and female leads’ story, I would be very grateful,” Shihe said. “If you help me with this, the Mu Corporation will definitely give you their full support for the next drama.”

Guangshu thought about it carefully and asked in a low voice, “CEO Mu, you said you want to cut her scenes. How much do you want to cut?”

“Naturally, the more the better,” Shihe said. “Of course, you’ll just need to cut them out without affecting the story. Also, the less scenes the supporting characters have, the more scenes the main characters have, and the happier the audience will be, right?”

“This...” Guangshu said. “I can only say that I’ll try my best. Because the number of episodes was already confirmed and put on record, if it’s reduced by too much, I won’t be able to explain it to the other investors.”

“I understand.” Shihe did not ask for much. “You just have to reduce the number of appearances of the character Jiang Xun plays as much as possible. I’ll definitely support the show when it’s broadcasted and watch it every day.”

At the same time, she wanted to see how much Jiang Xun’s scenes had been reduced and whether she would be satisfied.

Guangshu understood what Shihe meant. He thought about it and nodded with a smile. “I’ll try my best to satisfy CEO Mu too.”

After the official announcement with Mufeng, Jiang Xun’s popularity was unparalleled.

Many variety shows took advantage of the fact that Jiang Xun had just finished filming a drama and had yet to join the next crew, so they invited her.

Chapter 395 How Are You Going To Compensate Me?

“There are too many of them. Can you pick one that you’re interested in?” Yicheng added, “Of course, it’s fine if none of them catches your interest.”

There was no artiste who had more freedom than Jiang Xun.

It was up to Jiang Xun to decide what role she wanted to play and what job she wanted to do.

Yicheng never interfered.

However, Jiang Xun still took a look. Since she had nothing to do, if there was a variety show shooting on the weekend with good content, she could still participate.

In the end, Jiang Xun really found a suitable one.

It was her old acquaintance, Ji Junjie’s new variety show, called “Our Day.”

“This one’s fine,” Jiang Xun took out the variety show plan and told Yicheng.

“I also think this is good.” Yicheng smiled when he saw Jiang Xun’s choice. “This is Director Ji Junjie’s new variety show. It’s planned to be livestreamed every Tuesday all day. The actual show will be released on Friday at 12:00 p.m. on Feng Videos. The program is mainly to film what the celebrities are doing during the day, so they have specially chosen a working day to do the livestream. However, this also means that there will not be many people watching the livestream. The students who happen to have no classes might watch it, and the audience would enter the livestream room to watch it during non-working hours. But that’s good too. This way, the actual show’s viewership ratings will be higher.”

“Although it’s a livestream on a working day, this program is to film your daily life, so you can do what you usually do. There’s no need to deliberately disrupt your rhythm for the program. It won’t disturb your lessons,” Yicheng said.

Jiang Xun thought for a moment and said, "But I'm in class. It's not convenient for so many people from the production team to follow me to the classroom. It'll disturb other students."

"If you're sure you want to participate in this show, then we'll discuss the details with Ji Junjie," Yicheng said. "We're quite familiar with him now. You've always had a good time working with Feng Videos. If we work together, there shouldn't be any problems."

What Yicheng didn't say was that with Jiang Xun's current popularity, as long as she could be invited to the show, no matter what request Jiang Xun made, the production team would cooperate as long as it could be met.

Because of some matters, Jiang Xun felt that it would be better for her to discuss it in person. After all, they would be filming her daily life.

Therefore, after Yicheng and Junjie agreed on the time, Jiang Xun went with Yicheng to see him.

boxn ov el. c o m

Junjie gave Jiang Xun a brief overview of the program, which was similar to what Yicheng had mentioned before.

"If you have any problems, just tell us. We'll see how we can work together to solve them," Junjie said.

It was not only Jiang Xun. All the celebrities who participated in the show had such questions and requirements.

In fact, Jiang Xun was the best artiste he had worked with.

Other than not delaying her studies, Jiang Xun had no other requirements, and everything could be discussed.

Unlike some artistes, the production team even had to pay for the expenses of the entire artiste team.

Some artistes would have this and that kind of request for the various details of their daily life, which caused the production team to be in a terrible fix.

"The program will be livestreamed on Tuesdays. I don't want to disturb the teachers and other students in the same class on Tuesday when I'm in class. So, is there any compromise on this point? If the production team follows me into the classroom, not only will it affect other students in class, but it will also take up the seats of the students who are actually in class."

Junjie thought for a while and said, "How about this? You can bring the equipment into the classroom during class, and we'll wait outside. We'll provide you with as small a device as possible, so you can film yourself in class. Our people will help you adjust the angle of the device before the class starts and tell you what content you want to take."

"Don't worry, it's not very complicated. We'll only pick two or three angles. You just have to move the camera occasionally. It won't affect your class or the other students." Junjie promised.

Jiang Xun nodded. "Sure."

After the matter was settled, Jiang Xun told Mufeng about it during dinner.

Mufeng expressed that there was no problem.

“But if we put cameras in every corner of the house for the variety show, it’ll definitely disturb our normal life,” Jiang Xun said. “That’s why I’m thinking that I’ll go to the opposite side during the livestream.”

Mufeng thought about it. With the cameras around, it would be inconvenient for him to do anything with Jiang Xun. Moreover, he would not be able to see Jiang Xun when he went to work during the day.

“Alright,” Mufeng agreed. “Then you can film on the other side during the day and come back at night.”

However, Jiang Xun hesitated.

“What’s wrong?” Mufeng asked upon seeing this.

“Ahem, the livestream will last until night. I’ll have to say good night to the camera.” Jiang Xun touched the tip of her nose and explained.

Mufeng: “...”

“The camera will be turned off by then, right?” Mufeng asked.

“Yes.” Jiang Xun nodded.

“Then you can come back after you turn it off.” Mufeng said.

Jiang Xun: “...”

“This is not impossible.” Jiang Xun paused for a moment and said, “But the livestream is only for one day a week. It’s not a big deal if I stay over alone for a night, right?”

The program team was there. Could it be that they would see her sneakily coming back after turning off the camera in the middle of the night?

Mufeng: “...”

“Just one day a week!” Jiang Xun said, “Besides, when I’m filming outside, won’t I be away from home more often?”

Mufeng glanced at her and sneered. He said in an unpleasant tone, “You’re out of town, so there’s really no way. But now you’re here, and you’re living opposite me.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

It wasn’t as big a separation.

“One day a week, it’s not that I can’t stand it,” Mufeng continued. “However, I’ll be making such a huge sacrifice. How are you going to compensate me?”

Jiang Xun: “...”

Compensation?

“You’re in the capital. We were originally living together, but you suddenly have to move to the opposite side because of the filming.” Mufeng wanted to reason things out with her. “It can’t be helped if you’re filming in another city. However, you’re clearly just opposite me, yet I can’t walk around with you.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

The way Mufeng looked at her now was as if he was looking at a scumbag who had a home and did not return.

Jiang Xun started to blame herself under his gaze.

Thinking about it, it made sense. Mufeng cooperated with her in every way.

Mufeng was already busy enough. When she was filming outside, he still went to visit her every weekend.

He did not expect her to be busier than him.

It was not easy for her to finish filming and come back to the capital. She also took on a new variety show and even asked Mufeng to cooperate.

“What do you want as compensation?” Jiang Xun asked.

Mufeng raised his index finger.

Jiang Xun blinked. What did this mean?

But when she saw Mufeng’s faint smile, Jiang Xun felt that he was going to become a dog.

Chapter 396 The Bastard Was Already Eager To Give It A Try

“You will be living across the street every week and can’t come back, so you owe me once every week. With one the compensation, that’ll be two times,” Mufeng smiled and said. “You can make it up to me on whichever day of the week. You can choose for yourself.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

Do people say that?

However, she had promised him, so she had to do it no matter what.

“Make it Wednesday then,” Jiang Xun said through gritted teeth.

If she was tormented by him on Monday, she definitely wouldn’t be able to stream in a good state on Tuesday.

She could only finish the livestream on Tuesday and quickly compensate the man on Wednesday. The sooner she paid off her debt, the easier it would be for her.

She did not like to be in debt!

Mufeng suddenly stood up and leaned over across the table. He suddenly kissed her on the lips. “When are you starting to film?”

The bastard was already eager to give it a try. He couldn't wait for Jiang Xun to hurry up and film the show.

Jiang Xun: "..."

"It starts in two weeks."

The program would officially start livestreaming in two weeks.

But three days in advance, Feng Videos' official Weibo and the show's official Weibo accounts started to hype up the event.

boxn ov el. c o m

The official Weibo account of "Our Day" posted the show's poster and guest list.

Apart from Jiang Xun, there were also Shao Yuxi, Zhang Xiangyou, and Huang Zhengqiao, a total of four guests.

Of course, the guests would also invite their friends, etc., And spending time with their friends was also one of the highlights of the show.

In the end, there were comments that questioned Jiang Xun's ability.

[If I remember correctly, Jiang Xun is still in her second year, right? She's been filming one drama after another, does she have time for classes?]

[If you don't go to class, then don't set up some Beijing University genius image!]

[She doesn't even go to class. Beijing University hasn't expelled her?]

[Don't tell me it's a special treatment for celebrities?]

[She's been in the entertainment industry since her first year. I'm curious if she can pass her final exams since she doesn't attend many classes. How could she pass?]

[Her second year is about to end, and she should be in her third year. She's only attended a few days of classes, and no one has questioned this before?]

[@Beijing University, aren't you going to come out and explain? Or does a certain someone really have special privileges?]

Eating Jiang: [Jiang Jiang livestreamed before. She filmed during the day, watched videos of her class during her lunch break, and at night. She isn't behind any classes at all, okay?]

Spicy JJ: [Those who have followed Jiang Jiang's livestream should know. Antis, stop hating on her.]

[Hehe, does Jiang Xun live stream every day? Does she watch her lesson videos every day? Don't force it.]

[She has quite a lot of classes each day, right? Are you sure she can finish it in one night? Won't she have to watch all night? According to the schedule released by the crew, Jiang Xun has to do her makeup and wait for filming at four in the morning. By the time she finishes filming at night, it would be eight or nine at the earliest. Even if she started watching it as soon as she entered the door, she would have to wait until three or four o'clock to finish it, right? Does she not sleep every day? Is she up 24 hours a day? Only the fans would believe this kind of thing, it's so funny.]

Fengjiang Harder: [I'm a student of Beijing University. Our school's intranet will publish the list of outstanding students. [Picture]. Jiang Xun is in it, and her results are also in it. If you say that our school faked our results, you are insulting Beijing University. Beijing University really wouldn't go so far as to fake it for a single student. Many people in our school know that Jiang Xun learns by watching videos of the classes. I also know that she promised the head of department that she would never delay her studies and that she would be expelled from Beijing University if she did not do well in any subject. And so far, Jiang Xun's results have been very good.]

Cold Jiang Island: [Wow! My sister is actually a Beijing University genius!]

Because Jiang Xun's three dormmates knew first-hand information about Fengjiang, they were unwaveringly on Fengjiang's ship and even fed many small essays to other shippers.

Zhou Daxin's original name was "Did Fengjiang Come True Today." After Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun's official announcement, she removed the word "Did" and changed her ID to "Fengjiang Came True Today."

Huang Jiajia discovered her talent in writing through her short essays, and began to devote herself to writing short story fan fiction about Fengjiang.

Her ID "My Ship Set Sail" had already become "Fengjiang Shipper"

As for Ma Haina's "Fengjiang Harder," because the ID was too outstanding, it was remembered by the other fans as soon as the name appeared.

Jiajia was in charge of the doujin short videos, while Haina and Daxin were writing short essays.

The three of them were quite famous in Fengjiang's fan page.

As soon as Jiang Xun was questioned, the three of them immediately refuted on her behalf.

Morning Star: [@Fengjiang Harder. Sister, do you know Jiang Xun?]

Fengjiang Harder: [Cough, to be honest, @Fengjiang Came True Today, @My Ship Set Sail, and I are Jiang Xun's roommates. That's why we know that those people are lying when they say that Jiang Xun doesn't attend classes. Even though Jiang Xun hasn't been in school, she did not miss a single class. Our teachers are very satisfied with the thesis she submitted. Even our professor felt that if Jiang Xun didn't go into acting, she would be a good candidate for journalism.]

Disney Jiang: [Then, did you guys already know that Jiang Jiang was with Great CEO Qin?]

Wish Fulfilled: [I remember now. The three of you appeared in the fan page at the same time! Those were the names you came up with!]

My Ship Set Sail: [Ahem, the official announcement has to be left to the parties involved. We just came here to join you.]

Smiling Child When Given Candy: [I remember now. Later on, there were a few brothers and sisters who seemed to be in the industry who said that they were straight in the rabbit hole. Every time the Fengjiang ship was rumored to have a bad end, other than the three sisters, there were a few other brothers and sisters who came out and were very determined to die. They must all know about the matter of Fenjiang!]

Slow Ice: [Right right right! At that time we also guessed that Great CEO Qin said that just as an excuse, but who knew he was talking about Jiang Jiang?]

Cold Jiang Island: [@Slow Ice, hahahaha sister, I remember now. Do you remember when someone went to the company to look for CEO Qin, CEO Qin clearly told her that he had a girlfriend?]

Hou Manman: [Yes yes yes! At that time, we were wondering if Great CEO Qin was just saying it, but we didn't expect that the person he was talking about was Jiang Jiang!]

The comments questioning Jiang Xun's absence from class were twisted by her fans.

But very quickly, someone persevered and continued to question.

As such voices grew louder and louder, more and more people questioned the fairness of Beijing University. Many netizens were taken by the momentum and began to question it.

It had already affected Beijing University's reputation.

Beijing University's official Weibo also posted an announcement, directly showing Jiang Xun's results.

It said that although Jiang Xun was not in school, she had never missed class. If there were students who could do both social practice and study, Beijing University would also welcome students to leave the school and enter society. Of course, all of this was under the premise that the students had to ensure their own results.

Chapter 397 Either Sincere And Coquettish Or Was Up To No Good

Beijing University's results had even been posted. What else could the antis say?

All that was left was to ask Beijing University to release Jiang Xun's test paper for people to check for themselves.

Jiang Xun turned on her computer and took several pictures of the class videos stored in her folder.

Jiang Xun Jiang V: [Those who spread rumors that I don't go to class, apologize to me. The pictures I've uploaded are the class videos I receive every day, and they're all stored on the computer. [Image] [Image] [Image]]

On the computer screen that Jiang Xun had taken a picture of, the folder was filled with a list of videos.

The date could even be seen when it was zoomed in.

Jiang Xun Jiang V: [Those who said that I don't have time to watch all the videos that day, apologise. I watched them at 2x speed. I can finish them. It can't be helped, people who are admitted to Beijing University are smart.]

Ballad: [I'm dying of laughter. Jiang Jiang really knows how to express herself.]

Warm Sweet: [Yes, I didn't get into Beijing University. I admit that there's a gap between me and a top student. I'm not like some people who think that a top student is at the same level as them. [snickering]]

Living Away From The Heart: [Don't try to guess the IQ of Beijing University's school genius based on your qualifications.]

Eating Jiang: [Picture] The list has been compiled and updated on the top of the fanpage of Weibo. Apologize as soon as possible, thank you.]

[Merit points +1355]

Jiang Xun took a look. As long as there were no accidents and she did not encounter any natural or man-made disasters, she could live to 59 years old.

Jiang Xun touched her chin. Although her lifespan was enough to support her to slowly accumulate merit points, she still needed to increase various skill points and buy skills from the system store.

She was still in need of merits points!

The day before the livestream, Jiang Xun tidied up the opposite house.

She had used the place as a warehouse before, so there were a lot of miscellaneous things piled up in there.

They seemed to be things that she didn't use often, and they were all placed here.

Jiang Xun tidied up the room and placed new toiletries here.

It would save her the trouble of having to move things back and forth every week.

Jiang Xun also checked on it and found nothing missing. It also looked like somewhere she would live.

In the evening, the people from the production team arrived early and installed cameras in every corner of the house.

The assistant director, Ning Kejia, also came and told Jiang Xun the specific shooting direction for tomorrow.

"Teacher Jiang, how will you be when arranging your time?" Kejia took out a notebook and jotted it down. "What time do you usually sleep and wake up? And can you tell me about tomorrow's schedule?"

"I usually start from 7:30 to 8 a.m. And I'll have class at 9 a.m. tomorrow, so I have to get to school earlier," Jiang Xun said.

"Alright." Kejia nodded.

The production team found an unremarkable place in the room where there were no cameras and set up a small tent as their work area.

“Our staff will hide in this small tent during the day and go outside to the car at night,” Kejia said. “The cameraman will only follow you when you go out. When you’re at home, there are enough cameras at home. We don’t want to disturb your normal life.”

“This is your first time participating in a reality show of this form, so you should be very experienced in these scenes. You just have to relax and be yourself. Just do what you do on a daily basis during the livestream. Don’t worry about the cameras,” Kejia said.

Jiang Xun expressed that she understood.

The people from the production team did a final check and only left after making sure that there were no problems.

Before leaving, Kejia said, “Since you’ll wake up early tomorrow, we won’t disturb you in the morning. We’ll wait downstairs. We’ll meet up downstairs when you are leaving for classes tomorrow morning.”

“By the way, the cameras in the room will be on starting ten minutes before you wake up tomorrow morning,” Kejia said. “You will be filmed directly when you get up. If you don’t want to show your bare face in the camera, you can tidy yourself up in the morning and then pretend to be awake.”

“But I think you already look very good without makeup,” Kejia added with a smile. “We’ll let you know when we turn on the camera so that you can be mentally prepared. You can also call this morning service.”

Jiang Xun didn’t care about being filmed waking up in the morning, but it was hard to explain to Mufeng.

After sending Kejia and the team off, she went back to find Mufeng first.

Mufeng was working in the study.

Jiang Xun walked to the door of the study, which was not closed.

Anyway, no matter what kind of noise Jiang Xun made, Mufeng would not feel that it was a disturbance.

On the contrary, he preferred to work with the door open and hear Jiang Xun’s voice at all times.

Jiang Xun hid behind the wall. Mufeng heard a “Mr. Qin” that was a little coquettish.

Mufeng raised his head and saw her two fair hands grabbing onto the door frame like a squirrel’s claws. Then, a pair of eyes slowly peeked out from behind the wall.

Mufeng: “...”

He leaned back in his chair. “What do you want my cooperation for now?”

Jiang Xun: “...”

“How did you know?” Jiang Xun walked in.

“When you’re so gentle to me, it’s only when you need me to cooperate.” Jiang Xun was the so-called person who was either sincere and coquettish or was up to no good.

She always called him a dog man. He hadn’t even heard her call him Mr. Qin for a long time.

At first glance, he even felt that it was rather gentle.

Perhaps it was because of the difference in their state of mind.

When he heard Jiang Xun call him Mr. Qin, he always felt that she was a little distant.

But now that he heard Jiang Xun call her that, it was very sweet.

It was really like a wife addressing her husband.

Jiang Xun: "..."

Jiang Xun puffed up her cheeks and came in. "I'm usually very gentle to you too, okay!"

Mufeng smiled but did not say anything. He let her experience it herself.

Jiang Xun: "..."

This dog man didn't see how she treated others!

It was obvious at a glance how gentle she was to him!

Mufeng waved at her. Jiang Xun walked around his desk and went to his side. She had wanted to lean on his desk.

However, her hand was held by Mufeng. He exerted some force and pulled her onto his lap.

Mufeng wrapped his arms around Jiang Xun's waist and smiled calmly. "What is it? Tell me."

Jiang Xun put on a sweet smile at Mufeng and said, "I'm going to sleep opposite tonight."

Mufeng raised his eyebrows. "Aren't you only starting filming tomorrow?"

"Yeah, but the production team just told me that the camera in the room will be turned on and the livestream will start ten minutes before I wake up tomorrow morning," Jiang Xun explained. "'Our Day' starts in the morning. So, I'll be going to sleep over there tonight."

Mufeng: "..."

Seeing that his jawline had become sterner, Jiang Xun had no choice but to reach out and pinch it. "Is that okay?"

Mufeng helplessly exhaled and said, "You can go over to sleep. I'll go over too."

Jiang Xun: "..."

Chapter 398 Jiang Xun Was Shocked Speechless By Mufeng's Calculation

"Even if the camera catches us getting up together, it's not like I will be that embarrassed or anything..." Jiang Xun said casually while looking at Mufeng.

Mufeng laughed at her. "I'll go back before the filming starts."

Anyway, he got up at about the same time every day.

“Alright then,” Jiang Xun agreed. “Continue with your work, I’ll go over first.”

She had tidied up the whole day and had to wake up early the next day, so she was a little sleepy.

Jiang Xun wanted to get up, but she was still trapped in Mufeng’s arms. Mufeng only let go of her after he kissed her.

Jiang Xun went to the opposite side and took a shower. After washing up and changing into her pajamas, she burrowed into the blanket and fell asleep in a short while.

When Mufeng came over, Jiang Xun had left the light on for him.

In the past, electricity was a scarce resource, and it was distributed according to level.

Humans in the post-apocalyptic world were really clearly divided into different classes.

The people at the top enjoyed the best and most abundant resources, and all the resources that could be obtained during the apocalypse could be used without any restrictions, including electricity.

The middle level had electricity, but it had to be used sparingly. The daily supply of electricity was fixed, and the price of the excess would be several times higher.

Therefore, a family’s electricity must be controlled well.

And the bottom level had no money for electricity.

In the apocalypse, all resources were extremely expensive, and these high expenses, in addition to supporting the “normal” life of the higher-ups, were also used for huge experimental research funds against zombies.

boxn ov el. c o m

Jiang Xun was used to the darkness of the apocalypse. When she came here, she found that electricity was so abundant, and she cherished it every time she was under the light.

Jiang Xun was really sleepy. She slept well even with the lights on.

Mufeng came over after changing into his pajamas.

He turned off the lights, relaxed his hands and feet, and lay down beside Jiang Xun.

Jiang Xun rolled into Mufeng’s arms.

She even adjusted herself in his arms a few times to find the most comfortable position and angle. She arched her face against his chest before staying still.

Mufeng lowered his head to take a look. Seeing that she did not open her eyes, he did not disturb her.

After a while, he heard Jiang Xun say in the dark, “What time is it now?”

Mufeng recalled the time he turned off the computer and said, “It’s about 12:30.”

“I still woke you up,” Mufeng said in a low voice.

Jiang Xun shook her head. “I’m a light sleeper.”

In the past, during the apocalypse, she didn't dare to sleep.

Moreover, the environment of the apocalypse did not allow her to sleep well.

It was a habit developed over the years, so much so that her body already had an instinctive reaction.

Even in the modern era, this habit had not changed. She was still vigilant at all times and slept very lightly.

When she first came to this world, even if it was late at night, there would be the sound of cars roaring on the road from time to time, and the sound of young men and women playing until midnight talking loudly on the road.

Every time she heard these sounds, she would immediately wake up.

Later on, she gradually got used to the sounds of this world and learned to control herself so that she would not be affected by these sounds and wake up.

But she was still used to sleeping alone.

When she first started living with Mufeng, she was not used to having another person by her side.

After she fell asleep at night, she would wake up at the slightest noise beside her.

Mufeng often worked until very late.

He was afraid of waking her up, so his movements were very light, but he didn't know that she was already awake.

This situation slowly improved.

After Jiang Xun got used to the two of them sleeping together, she would still wake up when Mufeng came back from work. However, she would not wake up as suddenly as before.

Just like now, when she knew that Mufeng had returned, Jiang Xun woke up from her light sleep, went into his arms and fell asleep again.

Mufeng kissed the corner of her eye. His gaze fell on the wall opposite the bed. There were cameras installed in the corner of the wall and directly facing the bed.

There was another one by the bedroom door.

Mufeng sighed. Even if he was sure that the camera was not turned on, he could not do anything to Jiang Xun in front of so many cameras.

With so many cameras facing him, he felt weird even if they weren't turned on.

"If that's the case, I can't do it every Monday night."

Jiang Xun was half-asleep in a daze. When she heard Mufeng's words, she did not react for a moment.

She opened her eyes and looked up at Mufeng. "What can't you do on Monday?"

In the dark, her good eyesight that she had trained in the apocalypse allowed her to see Mufeng tilt his head to the camera on the wall opposite the bed. “Even if they are not turned on, I still feel uncomfortable with these cameras facing me.”

Jiang Xun: “...”

“You owe me one for every day, so it’s two times. Including tomorrow’s, you owe me four times in total.” Mufeng had calculated it clearly.

Jiang Xun was so shocked speechless by Mufeng’s calculation. She thought to herself that he was indeed a big capitalist and a big profiteer!

Even the interest of the usury wasn’t as high as his!

“Go to sleep.” Mufeng touched the back of her head. “Once you’ve rested enough. You can start paying you debts the day after tomorrow.”

At half past six, Mufeng got up.

There was a sound beside her, and Jiang Xun also woke up in a daze.

Mufeng lowered his head and kissed her. “It’s only half-past six. You can continue to sleep. I’ll go over and pack up before heading to the office.”

“Oh,” Jiang Xun replied. She narrowed her eyes and watched Mufeng leave before she continued to sleep.

After about half an hour, she heard the sound of the door closing opposite her. Mufeng came back and kissed her on the eyelid. “I’m going to the office.”

Jiang Xun nodded and squinted as she watched Mufeng leave.

At half-past seven, Jiang Xun received a WeChat voice call from the production team.

Kejia told her that the camera would be turned on in ten minutes.

After that, Jiang Xun was in a daze for another twenty minutes.

At 7:50 am, the alarm on her phone rang.

Jiang Xun fumbled for her phone, turned off the alarm, and sat up.

She didn’t look at the camera and didn’t care if it was turned on or not. She didn’t mind at all that her bare face was in the camera.

[Does this bare face really exist? It’s too strong!]

[Don’t be in such a hurry to boast, fans. The camera is so far away, what can you see?]

As soon as this comment was sent, Jiang Xun went to the bathroom.

The mirror in the bathroom was also installed with a camera.

As soon as Jiang Xun came over, the camera immediately switched to the camera on the side of the mirror and showed a close-up of her face.

Nowadays, whether it was a TV drama or variety show in the country, there was no one who didn't use filters.

Especially in variety shows, celebrities who cared about their looks paid more attention to this aspect.

Since they had added a filter to others, they had to add it to all the members.

Therefore, Jiang Xun's shots had some filters.

But even so, people could tell that Jiang Xun had good skin.

Although Feng Videos' variety shows added filters, they would only add a shallow layer, unlike many variety shows that looked like they had worn out skin. They were foggy as if they were short-sighted.

A thin layer of filter could not cover up all the problems on the skin.

Chapter 399 Qin Mufeng Is A Winner In Life

The camera on the mirror gave Jiang Xun a huge slap on the face.

The audience who were watching the livestream was suddenly flashed.

[Damn, Jiang Xun's face suddenly came close, and my heart beat faster. It's not because I was scared, it's because my heart beat faster because of her beauty.]

[I've never seen Jiang Xun up close for such a long time. There were close-up shots in the TV series before, but they weren't this long. Also, because she was wearing a costume, she always felt a little distant. It's not like this time, when she doesn't have any makeup, I can see it so clearly.]

[I suddenly understand why Mufeng likes Jiang Xun. Who wouldn't want to see such a beauty every day!]

[I'm envious of Qin Mufeng. Qin Mufeng is so lucky!]

[Qin Mufeng is a winner in life. He's rich and handsome. That's why he can have such a beautiful girlfriend. So greedy!]

[How did Jiang Xun grow up? I've seen Jiang Chengye and Jiang Jixuan. Jiang Jixuan is handsome, but it might be because they don't have the same mother. There are still some differences in their facial features. Jiang Chengye looks very ordinary. Why is Jiang Xun so pretty?]

[It's not just Jiang Chengye and Jiang Jixuan, but Jiang Yuexi as well. Jiang Yuexi looks 50 – 60% similar to Jiang Xun, but she's far from Jiang Xun's level. Jiang Yuexi is indeed good-looking, but when she's placed next to Jiang Xun, she's like a puppet.]

[How did Jiang Xun's eyebrows grow? They're so thick and black.]

[My friend has put on makeup for Jiang Xun. She said that Jiang Xun's eyebrows are naturally in good shape and are easy to fix. If she wants wild eyebrows, she doesn't even need to cultivate them. Besides, she only needs to use the eyebrow styling liquid. She doesn't need to use any colors, unless she needs to change the color of her eyebrows, she'll need to use eyebrow powder.]

[Jiang Xun has always been good at fighting without makeup. The first time she participated in the variety show "Accelerated Flight," she didn't put on any makeup because of the high amount of exercise. Her skin was fine and white, even more delicate than foundation. When she applied foundation, it was equivalent to directly opening the skin. If the production team gave her another layer of skin treatment, her face would have been be smashed.]

[Is this skin that a human can have? It's too fine and white, like jade. It's as if the thin layer on the outside is transparent, and the inside is jade white, with a light pink.]

[Her lips are pink. With her skin and lips, she'll look good with any color of lipstick.]

[I suddenly want to see Jiang Xun challenge the death barbie pink lipstick.]

[Where are the people who said that the fans were bragging? Where are the people who said that we couldn't see Jiang Xun's bare face clearly because the camera was too far away?]

[Merit points +69]

Jiang Xun couldn't see the bullet screen. When she suddenly received the merits, she didn't know what had happened. She was dumbfounded.

The system replied, [At first, some viewers questioned your bare face. But after seeing the direct shot of your face, they realized that you really look good without makeup. So, they contributed merit points to you.]

Jiang Xun looked at the time. It was only eight o'clock.

Jiang Xun said, "Oh, it's a pity that it's too early now. There are only a few viewers watching the livestream. Otherwise, I could have earned more merits points.

The system: "..."

Well done, host, that's all you can think of.

Jiang Xun covered the camera and only revealed it after changing out of her clothes. She didn't put on any makeup and went out without makeup.

[Holy! Jiang Xun didn't put on any makeup and just went out like this?]

[A real beauty really leaves the house very quickly.]

[Even if she puts on makeup, it's useless.]

[Wait, why is she wearing sportswear? She's even wearing sports shoes.]

[She can't be thinking of running all the way to Beijing University, right?]

[Cough! I, a Jiangfam, can take responsibility and tell you that Jiang Jiang does run to school every day.]

[How far is her house from the school???)

[I don't know. In order to prevent people from finding out her address, the fans didn't ask and Jiang Jiang didn't say. Jiang Jiang livestreamed running to school every morning. She chatted with us while running and brought us out for a run. Sometimes, when she was coming back from school in the afternoon, she would chat with us while running and bring us along.]

[I feel bad for the cameraman.]

[Jiang Xun: Cameraman, you don't know what you're going to experience next. [Dog head]]

Jiang Xun went downstairs and met up with the people from the production team.

The cameraman followed her. Jiang Xun was already very experienced in shooting variety shows.

As she warmed up, she explained to the camera, "My house is not too far from the school. When I moved out, I thought that since I'm always filming movies and variety shows, I would definitely go in and out of the dormitory more frequently. Moreover, if I had to shoot this kind of reality show at the dormitory, it would really disturb my roommates. My roommates are all very nice and have never disliked me, but I'm afraid of disturbing their daily studies. Beijing University's pressure for studies is very high. If one relaxes a little, they'll fall behind, so I moved out."

Jiang Xunde said in advance that with her ability to attract antis, it didn't matter if she attracted them. In fact, she even welcomed them. However, she was afraid that there would be rumors would make her excluded by her roommates.

Although it might not happen, Jiang Xun explained clearly in advance to prevent those antis from having an opening.

"I chose a place near the school so that it's convenient for me to go back and forth to the school. Running back and forth every morning and night is a form of exercise," Jiang Xun said as she warmed up.

[She's really going for a run!]

[Jiang Xun is participating in a variety show. What a waste of a cameraman!]

[Am I seeing things? I think I felt the camera shake.]

[Cameraman: I didn't expect this. I thought it was a slow life reality show, but it actually requires me to carry the equipment while chasing after her.]

When the cameraman looked at the camera, he did shake a little.

He turned to look at Kejia nervously.

Every variety show director in Feng Videos had their own team.

The team would always follow the same director.

Therefore, the team that Junjie led this time was also full of old acquaintances of Jiang Xun.

They were also part of the team for “Find A Way Out.”

Back then, they had clearly seen how Jiang Xun had scared their colleagues so much that they couldn't move.

The cameraman looked at Kejia silently. “I've never heard that you have to run to shoot this variety show.”

Kejia covered her face helplessly.

She was an old member of the team and had followed Junjie for a long time. She was highly regarded by Junjie.

On one hand, Junjie was very happy about Jiang Xun's popularity and hot topic, but on the other hand, he was worried about the extent of the trouble Jiang Xun would bring.

Junjie was even more worried after her conversation with Hou Guanglin and Shi Shuli.

Therefore, Junjie went to Guanglin and Shuli for a drink.

After that, Junjie became even more nervous.

He quickly sent Kejia, who he valued the most.

However, Kejia had never encountered such a situation before!

Jiang Xun raised her legs and ran and jumped on the spot while saying to the cameraman, “Cameraman, you can sit in the car and film. Just drive slowly on the side of the road.”

Chapter 400 You Should Start Chasing

Jiang Xun ran off after she finished speaking.

The cameraman: “...”

Production team: “...”

If you were to start running, you should at least give a heads up earlier!

The cameraman expressed that he didn't even know how to react!

Jiang Xun was already running!

And she was running so fast!

After a while, Jiang Xun was only a small black dot in the camera.

[Where's Jiang Xun?]

[Cameraman, you should start chasing!]

[Cameraman, Jiang Xun asked you to get in the car. She's asking you to get in! She was hinting that you wouldn't be able to catch up to her even if you weren't carrying a camera. She didn't say it out loud, so she's giving you face, cameraman!]

[Why aren't you getting in the car and chasing after her?]

The audience was getting anxious.

Kejia was the first to react and hurriedly dragged the cameraman into the car.

She didn't care that her voice would be included in the livestream and hurriedly urged the driver, "Mister, start the car!"

The car was still much faster than Jiang Xun and caught up with her in no time.

The driver slowed down and followed Jiang Xun.

Kejia took out a small notebook and wrote down, "Get Jiang Xun a head-mounted camera for the next episode."

If Jiang Xun ran by herself, the cameraman wouldn't have to be so scared that his face turned pale.

[Oh my God, when Jiang Xun said she ran to school, I thought she was only jogging, but now she's running like crazy!]

[Aren't you tired after running for so long?]

[Hahahaha, if she was jogging, she wouldn't need to do such a long warm-up. Jogging is no different from walking to Jiang Jiang.]

[I, a Jiangfam, who follows her livestreams, tell you that this is Jiang Jiang's usual speed and she can even chat with us at the same time. Don't you think it's amazing?]

The livestream cut to the other guests.

Junjie was worried that if Jiang Xun ran, someone would recognize her running route and find her address.

[Don't switch to the camera. I still want to see if Jiang Xun can continue running!]

[Is she really going to run for that long?]

[You switched the camera away. We won't even know if she stops halfway.]

[Jiang Jiang doesn't need you to supervise her running, and she doesn't want to make a bet. So what if she stops halfway?]

[Of course, Jiang Jiang will not stop. This distance is nothing to Jiang Jiang.]

At this moment, a message from "Our Day" rolled on the screen: [When Jiang Xun arrives at the school, we'll switch the livestream to her.]

When Jiang Xun arrived at the entrance of Beijing, the livestream camera cut to her.

[I didn't expect that one day, I would be able to tour Beijing University with a female celebrity.]

[To be honest, I've never seen what Beijing University's main entrance looks like in my life.]

[Although I'm in the capital, I've never been to the capital's main entrance.]

[I've passed by the main entrance, but I've never entered.]

[Other things aside, just being able to visit a famous university with Jiang Xun is worth it!]

[Livestream every Tuesday? Does that mean Jiang Xun can take us to Beijing University every Tuesday?]

[@Our Day, can the production team film Jiang Xun's class? I won't have the chance to attend classes at Beijing University in this life, so I want to experience it.]

[Yes, yes, yes. Let's feel the atmosphere and content of Beijing University's classroom.]

Junjie saw the bullet screen and smiled. "Satisfy them. When Jiang Xun is in class, the camera will cut to Jiang Xun for a while and let the audience watch for ten to twenty minutes. Then, the camera will cut to the other guests."

"Yes." The colleague nodded. "But is 10 to 20 minutes enough?"

"That's enough. Beijing University's lessons are so deep. The audience will feel sleepy after listening to it for a long time," Junjie said while staring at the screen.

Her colleague: "..."

What she said made sense.

The cameraman followed Jiang Xun into Beijing University. Jiang Xun's speed transitioned into jogging then to walking.

Jiang Xun didn't forget to say to the camera, "Everyone, don't suddenly stop to rest after such an intense exercise. Gradually slow down. Then, walk a little and adjust your speed."

Beijing University was very big. Jiang Xun walked slowly for a while and adjusted her state of mind before entering the cafeteria.

The audience saw Jiang Xun looking at her phone. After a while, she looked up and looked around. She saw a girl waving at her not far away.

The audience only saw three girls sitting at a table not far away.

[Could they be Jiang Xun's roommates?]

[Eh? Could it be that I'm going to meet the three young ladies, Fengjiang Harder, Fengjiang Came True Today, and My Ship Set Sail?]

The camera followed Jiang Xun to buy breakfast. Jiang Xun turned to the camera and smiled. "Is everyone curious about Beijing University's cafeteria? Do you want me to show you all the dishes first? There are many canteens at Beijing University, so I always eat nearby. During the program, I can take everyone around."

[I want to see the cafeteria! I want to watch the eating stream!]

[I'm going to have breakfast too!]

[I haven't decided what to eat for breakfast yet. Let's see what Jiang Xun will eat.]

[Here's a friendly reminder from Jiangfams. Since you've seen Jiang Jiang eating like a thief, follow her to lose weight and gain weight. Be prepared.]

Although there were many cafeterias at Beijing University, the uncles and aunties in each cafeteria were very familiar with Jiang Xun and had a very clear understanding of her appetite.

Without waiting for Jiang Xun to say anything, she placed the food on her plate, spoonful by spoonful.

She even had to scoop the porridge with a skimmer ladle and put it into Jiang Xun's bowl.

[Oh my God, I think Auntie can't wait to use a skimmer to scoop porridge for Jiang Xun.]

[Auntie, why don't you just give her rice?]

[Auntie: Don't worry, there will be rice later. [Dog head]]

Sure enough, after scooping up a bowl of thick porridge with almost no soup and not knowing if it could even be called porridge, the auntie added two large scoops of rice and six eggs for Jiang Xun.

In the end, Jiang Xun carried two large plates of breakfast that were as tall as a hill and went to find her three roommates.

[If it were me, I'd find Jiang Xun's plate heavy with both hands. I'm also afraid that my hands would shake and spill the rice. Jiang Xun is really awesome.]

[Jiang Xun has the strange power to push the big iron door open and push the person inside out with one hand when the person is holding the door!]

Jiang Xun carried the plate and met up with her three roommates.

The audience saw that the three of them were already used to Jiang Xun's appetite.

Jiang Xun introduced her three roommates to the camera.

"Are we also in the frame?" Jiajia covered her face nervously.

Daxin and Haina were also checking if they looked good and if there was food on their faces.

They even bent down to avoid the camera and secretly grinned to see if there was food on their teeth.

"Don't you want to be on camera?" Jiang Xun asked.

"That's not it!" The three of them said in unison.

The three of them only revealed their faces again after the inspection. It was their first time on camera, so they were all a little shy.

[Jiang Xun's relationship with her roommates seems really good!]

[Jiang Xun is a female star now, but she's still so close to her roommates.]
