

Master Qin 411

Chapter 411 He's Probably Here To Thank You

[I really can't tell that they're in love.]

[It's a contract relationship, so of course they don't have to go on a date. Once the agreement is signed, the official announcement of the breakup will be made when the time is up.]

[In the last two seasons, the guests didn't usually come in pairs, but they could already sprinkle some industrial sugar essence. When they come on the romance variety show, the other guests would all be real couples, so wouldn't the two of them be exposed? It will be strange if the two of them dare to participate.]

[Hehehehe, I'm giving Fengjiang another vote. Let's see if they dare to go on the variety show. If they don't, it means they don't dare to.]

Qin Yang Corporation.

After Slow Ice and Cold Jiang Island met, they agreed to have lunch together.

As fans, they had endless topics to talk about.

At this moment, the two of them were eating together, but they were both angry.

"Those antis are too much!" Slow Ice said angrily. "Can't they be in a low-key relationship? If they are not in the same frame, they'll say it's a contract relationship."

"Moreover, if they don't participate in variety shows, those antis say that they don't dare to." Cold Jiang Island was also furious. "Don't you see how busy the CEO is? Does he have time for an entire season of a variety show? Not participating means they don't dare? It's really laughable that the antis could say all that!"

Slow Ice poked the rice with her chopsticks and said, "It would be great if the CEO and Jiang Jiang could go on the show. It would be a slap in the face for those antis."

Cold Jiang Island nodded. "That's right! Although I know that no matter what, those antis will always have something to say, as long as they get slapped in the face, I'll still be very happy."

With the previous experience as a lesson, Chengnan had been getting people to monitor the topics about Mufeng and Jiang Xun on Weibo.

When he saw the antis' doubts, he immediately told Mufeng.

Mufeng had intended to clarify things on Weibo personally, but he was stopped by Jiang Xun.

boxnovel.com

"Even if you tell them, the antis won't believe you." Jiang Xun laughed. "We're going to sign the contract and be on the show anyway. When the program's official announcement is made, we'll just give those antis a slap in the face."

Even if she and Mufeng had cleared things up now, the antis could still say that she and Mufeng were in a contract relationship. If he clarified now, it was just because he felt guilty.

Mufeng only cared that Jiang Xun would be unhappy if she was criticized.

However, seeing that Jiang Xun did not take it to heart, he ignored the antis' words.

Shuixin's studio had revealed to their big fans that Shuixin and Xuyi would be participating in "My Other Half" later.

The big fans revealed it in the fan group.

Shuixin's fans were called Xinshui.

The Xinshuis, Xuyi's fans, and the fans of the couple were all celebrating.

[Some people are in a contract relationship, but love at first sight is definitely real.]

[The love at first sight couple will be announced officially, fall in love openly, and be on the show openly.]

[The love at first sight couple's interactions are also super sweet. They would even comment on each other's Weibo and reply to fans' questions together.]

[Hahahaha, falling in love at first sight with a public fund. It even fulfills our wish to see love at first sight!]

[Love at first sight] also made it to the hot search.

Shuixin saw that the popularity was all hers, so she said to her manager, Zhou Yuxin, proudly, "I'm guessing that the show's popularity is all thanks to me. Shi Shuli must be very glad to have invited me."

As soon as she finished speaking, Yuxin's phone rang.

Yuxin picked up her phone and saw that it was Shuli.

Yuxin smiled and said to Shuixin, "Look, Shi Shuli is calling. He's probably here to thank you."

Shuixin shook her head and smiled complacently.

Yuxin picked up the phone and said happily, "Director Shi."

"Hey, Teacher Zhou." Shuli's voice came from the phone.

However, when Yuxin heard this, she felt that Shuli's voice didn't sound happy at all.

"Director Shi, this is...?" Yuxin asked hesitantly.

Shuli sighed and said, "Teacher Zhou, why did Teacher Jian give the official announcement in advance?"

Yuxin was stunned for a moment before she explained, "It was the staff in charge of communicating with the fan club who accidentally let it slip. At that time, he had specifically instructed the fan club not to spread this news to the fans, but who knew that they would still spread it. I'm really sorry, did... this bring trouble to the production team?"

Shuli didn't believe Yuxin's words.

Whenever something happened, the employees would take the blame.

This was a common strategy used by many studios, and he had seen it too many times.

The [Love at first sight] hot search was not something that the fan circle could make.

It'll only get a little more hot if you click on it!

It was obvious that Shuixin's studio had bought it.

Since Shuixin's studio had bought the hot search, it meant that they had deliberately spread the news that Shuixin and Xuyi was participating in the show.

Shuli pursed his lips tightly and exhaled heavily in displeasure.

"We had already thought of a plan for the official publicity. But now that the news of Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng coming on the program has been announced in advance, our previous official publicity plan can't be used anymore!" Just because Jian Shuixin wanted to steal the limelight, the plan that the production team had come up with by staying up late and working overtime was invalid and they had to come up with a new plan.

And there were only three days left until the official announcement.

For the next three days, his production team would probably have to sleep in the office.

"There are only three days left. If we think of a new plan, I'm afraid it won't be as good as the previous one."

"Aiyo, this..." Yuxin pretended to be guilty. "It's all because of our negligence that caused so much trouble for the production team. I'm really sorry."

"Originally, we were also very nervous because the fans leaked the news in advance. We were afraid that it would cause trouble for the production team," Yuxin said. "But it seems like the publicity for the production team is pretty good. Perhaps it's even better than the original official announcement plan?"

Shuli couldn't help but sneer.

He must've been so lucky and blessed for Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun to agree to go on the show, that the heavens must have given him Jian Shuixin, such a wronged seed, to torture him.

Shuixin was as self-righteous as her manager.

"The plan we designed for Teacher Jian at the beginning was really good," Shi Shuli opened his mouth and said. "After all, Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng are the most popular couple on our show. Of course, we had to use as many official publicity resources as possible on Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng."

As if!

Mufeng and Jiang Xun were the most popular couple on their show.

However, in order to be unbiased and avoid the other guests' opinions, the resources for the official announcement were almost equally divided among the four pairs of guests.

However, since Shuixin didn't want it, he didn't mind sharing Xuyi's and her share with Jiang Xun and Mufeng.

However, even though he had such thoughts, he couldn't say it out loud.

Shuli had deliberately said that he thought most highly of Shuixin. Shuixin was the most important person, but because of her own dirty tricks, she had missed out on these resources.

Chapter 412 Shi Shuli Will Still Have To Coax You

As expected, after hearing Shuli's words, Yuxin's expression turned ugly, as if she had just lost a million dollars.

"Ai!" Shuli put on an act and let out a heavy breath. "Now that Teacher Jian has made an official announcement, we will have to change our official announcement plan. Of course, we will still promote Teacher Jian. It's just that the netizens already know that Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng are guests, so we can't create any surprises. We can only use a different publicity method from the other guests."

"There's no more suspense, so the effect will definitely be a little worse." Shuli was too lazy to play along with them. "So I just wanted to just give you a heads up. When the publicity plan changes and the new official publicity announcement comes out, Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng's publicity will not be satisfactory. This isn't what the production team wanted, and we didn't want to do it like this. We just had no choice."

In other words, you've ruined the rhythm of our official announcement and made our original plan unusable.

If we don't promote you properly, you can just bear with it and don't come to us.

Yuxin immediately said, "Director Shi, it's really our studio's staff's fault this time. We didn't want this to happen. We definitely had no intention of ruining the program's official announcement. We'll contact Weibo immediately to remove the hot search and pursue the responsibility of our studio staff for their negligence."

Shuli pitied the poor employees who had been used as a scapegoat and might even be fired.

However, he only pitied them.

He couldn't do anything.

This was the business of Shuixin's studio, and he had no right to interfere.

Shuli laughed twice. "I don't care about this. The confirmation of Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng to participate in our show is on the top hot search. Many netizens have already seen it. Therefore, the withdrawal will not affect the subsequent changes in the official announcement plan of the production team. I'm just here to let you know beforehand to avoid any unnecessary misunderstandings."

Yuxin was speechless.

Since Shuli had already said this much, Yuxin had nothing more to say.

After hanging up the phone, Shuixin saw that Yuxin's expression wasn't quite right, so she asked, "Sister Zhou, what's wrong? What did Shi Shuli say?"

No matter how stupid Shuixin was, she could tell from Yuxin's expression that Shuli definitely didn't call to thank her for helping their show gain popularity.

boxn ov el. c o m

Yuxin pursed her lips and took a moment to digest the information before saying, "You announced in advance that you and Zheng Xuyi would be participating in his show. Shi Shuli is unhappy and came to warn us."

"He's complaining that you made the announcement in advance, causing their original plan to be unusable. They'll have to change it to a new plan."

"Just change it then." Shuixin pouted. "Is it worth getting angry over this? It's a fact that I've increased the popularity of their show. Aren't they unhappy because they have to change the proposal and work overtime?"

Shuixin sneered. "But compared to me helping them raise their popularity, that is nothing. It's normal for them to work overtime. They didn't have any objections before, so why are they suddenly having objections now?"

"To be a social animal, you should have the awareness of being a social animal. What's there to be unhappy about?" Shuixin said coldly.

"Shi Shuli has become crazy after doing a few popular variety shows." Shuixin snorted coldly. "What a joke."

Yuxin sighed and said, "Shi Shuli said that you and Zheng Xuyi were originally the most popular and anticipated couple among the guests on the show. They had a plan with you two as the main focus. Most of the publicity resources would be focused on you two. But now, because of the early announcement and the early exposure of the surprise, the publicity resources that they had prepared for you can't be used. He could only split it equally for the others and give them another official announcement plan. But because it was leaked in advance, there was a lack of surprise. From what he said, it sounded like even if they did your publicity, it wouldn't be very good."

"He didn't call to thank us at all, but to warn us. He told us not to complain that the publicity they will give you is not good enough. If you want to blame someone, blame yourselves for the publicity first and disrupting their original plan," Yuxin said coldly.

Shuixin stood up angrily and walked back and forth in the living room. "Shi Shuli is really arrogant now!"

"Now that you've already publicized it, it's impossible for you not to participate in the show. He's so arrogant because he's sure of this." Yuxin was also filled with anger at Shuli's words.

"Forget it. Anyway, you and Zheng Xuyi are the most popular couple in the show," Yuxin said. "There's no need to be calculative with Shi Shuli. The publicity given by the production team can't compare to the popularity you've given yourself these days. So, we don't need to care about the publicity plan he mentioned."

"Besides, we're only listening to him right now. We can't be sure if it's true or not. Anyway, the previous publicity plan can't be used anymore, so we'll just let him say whatever he wants." Yuxin exhaled heavily. "So, you didn't suffer any losses at all. As long as you and Zheng Xuyi perform well on the show and keep the popularity of the couple in the show, Shi Shuli will still have to coax you."

Shuixin nodded, but she still felt unhappy.

Shuli didn't thank her, but instead blamed her.

The "My Other Half" production team officially announced it on Weibo.

At first, everyone thought that Shuixin and Xuyi, who were the most popular, would be the finale.

Who knew that it would be the first official announcement.

They even came before the intern couple.

Originally, according to everyone's guess, the intern couple should be in the first official announcement.

This had nothing to do with the popularity of the intern couple. It was simply because they were interns.

It would be strange for them to be mixed in with the real couples.

Then there was the most popular official announcement, which was based on popularity.

Unexpectedly, Shuixin and Xuyi, who were expected to be the finale, were the first to be officially announced.

[It can't be helped. Jian Shuixin's fans revealed that they've confirmed their participation in the program in advance. It doesn't matter whether it's an official announcement or not. The production team might as well put them first.]

The second group for the official announcement was the intern couple.

Unexpectedly, the production team had invited the singer Tan Jingsheng and the actress Zhang Qiyao.

[The production team's special guests are pretty good!]

[The production team carefully selected the candidates. The chosen ones won't easily cause the fans to fight. I love it.]

[I hope the production team doesn't do clickbait editing for the sake of traffic]

[I don't think so. From the guests chosen by the production team, it can be seen that they've made a measure of all aspects.]

[Tan Jingsheng is a singer. Although he just started, he's popular. Changle has many popular OST's, so it's a combination of strength and popularity. Moreover, his fans are rational and he doesn't have many girlfriend fans, so they didn't object to him being a couple with the female guest. This way, they can first reduce the situation of fans fighting.]

Chapter 413 The Production Team Is So Sneaky

[Tan Jingsheng's older brother is a director, his younger brother is an artist, and his sister is an all-rounded genius who is also a scriptwriter. His teacher is Liu Chengtai, his eldest senior is the top composer and singer, Liu Jingshen, his second senior is the rock star Ji Jiayi, and his third senior is the music king, Lu Xiangchen. It can be said that Tan Jingsheng's background is extremely solid, and his senior brothers dote on him very much. The Tan family is famous for the good relationship between siblings. These people will definitely help him promote. I don't even dare to imagine how much traffic the production team will get!]

[The production team is so sneaky! Tan Jin Sheng has just started out, and his reputation is still alright, but he's not among the top. He has a lot of traffic and a high price-to-performance ratio.]

[Zhang Qiyao is also very good. She's a straightforward person and doesn't look like she's putting up a front. I heard that her personality is like this because her family is impressive, and she wasn't spoiled by anyone. If you pair up with Zhang Qiyao, it'll look good if you take the route of love and hate.]

[Tan Jingsheng is the second oldest in the family. As for the second, since ancient times, the second's sense of existence was not as high as the first, and he was not as favored as the youngest. He had to listen to the boss, while having to give way to the younger siblings. In theory, Tan Jingsheng should be very tolerant. It's also possible for him to form a gentle singer x actress couple with Zhang Qiyao.]

Half an hour later, the official Weibo account of "My Other Half" announced the third pair of guests.

It was a celebrity couple, Zhang Shuidong and Fan Mingxia.

[Damn, the production team is good! They even invited the best actor! Teacher Zhang Shuidong has always paid a lot of attention to family privacy and doesn't like to expose his family's life in front of the camera. He's very protective of his family and this time, he's actually willing to go on a variety show.]

[It should be thanks to the production team's money. [snickering]]

[I'm looking forward to the old-timer husband and wife relationship.]

[The special guests invited by the production team seem to have a deeper meaning. An intern couple is not at the stage of being a couple yet. Their interaction could be used as a reference for those who are not yet a couple and are still in the ambiguous period. Jian Shuixin and Zheng Xuyi should be a couple in love, and they could make the audience who are in love feel very immersed. And Zhang Shuidong and his wife could show the couples life after marriage in advance. Although everyone's marriage life is different, it can more or less show how different marriage life is from love.]

[Now that you've said it, it's true! In that case, three couples should be enough. I wonder who the last couple is.]

[According to the production team's hierarchical selection method, they're either a couple who's been in a relationship for a long time and has already left their honeymoon period or a newly-wedded couple.]

[In that case, it's nothing to do with the Fengjiang couple. TAT]

[However, I still want to look forward to the Fengjiang couple. What if the production team really managed to invite them?]

[Didn't you say that Fengjiang was a contract relationship? Other than the intern couple, between the other two couples, one is a passionate couple and the other is an old couple. They would definitely get along very naturally. If Fengjiang's is a contract relationship, it'll be easy to be exposed when compared with them.]

Morning Star: [Don't talk about a contract relationship. Do you have a hammer?]

Spicy JJ: [The person who started the rumor must have known that Qin Mufeng is busy with work. It's impossible for him to participate in a variety show for an entire season. They kept saying that Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun are in a contract relationship if they didn't go on the variety show. So, Fengjiang only had one choice, and that was to go on the variety show? They can't just not go, right? The artis are really saying all this.]

No matter who was invited, the netizens were all waiting for "My Other Half" to continue its official announcement.

According to the official account's usual frequency of an announcement every half an hour, the netizens waited for half an hour before coming to the official account to check.

[Why hasn't the official account announced it yet?]

[Who is the last couple? You've made it so mysterious.]

Eating Jiang: [Can I really look forward to it?]

Jiang Jiang Shredding: [The official Weibo account is keeping us in suspense. If the netizens are not satisfied with the last couple, be careful. You might screw up.]

After another half an hour, the official Weibo account released the last couple.

My Other Half's official Weibo: [Dang dang dang! We know that everyone has been waiting anxiously! However, our director doesn't allow us to reveal too much. We can only risk being fired by the director and show everyone their silhouette in advance. It's the last couple of "My Other Half!" They're super sweet and super tough! [picture]]

[We've been waiting for so long, and you're only showing us a silhouette?]

[Do you think we can make out who these are?]

Split Underpants: [I dare to put this silhouette on Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng's bodies. Do you dare to agree, production team?]

Disney Jiang: [I'll have to whisper. I really think they look like Jiang Jiang and CEO Qin.]

Wish Fulfilled: [Production team, you've made it look like this. You've raised everyone's expectations. If the guests aren't Jiang Jiang or CEO Qin, it wouldn't make any sense, right?]

[Enough, Jiang Xun's fans. Only Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng are worth watching, not the others? Those who don't know better would think that Jiang Xun is the top in internal entertainment.]

Jiang Xun's fans simply stopped commenting on the official Weibo.

The fans returned to their own groups and talked amongst themselves in their social media.

Smiling Child When Given Candy: [Guys, I seem to have found a bright spot! [picture] [picture] Of these two pictures, the first picture was a scene of Great CEO Qin taken from "Accelerated Flight". The second picture is of Jiang Jiang, which I took from "Unfulfilled Lovers". I Photoshopped these two screenshots together as [picture], Don't you think they look like that silhouette?]

Slow Ice: [You don't say, it really does look like it!]

Smiling Child When Given Candy: [Variety shows are dynamic, so the pictures I took might not be in the same frame as the production team's. I didn't use any video editing software. I just paused the pictures when there were similar parts in the video, so they must be different from the ones the production team took. But I think it's really similar.]

Ballad: [Yes, although there's a slight deviation in the angle, they do look alike.]

Li Zixin: [Can we imagine it boldly?]

Living Away From The Heart: [Don't tell me that the production team is planning to only let us know when the guests have come out on the day of the broadcast?]

Unscholarly Internet Girl: [The production team kept me in suspense and raised my expectations. If in the end it really isn't Jiang Jiang and Great CEO Qin, I'll be really disappointed.]

The next day, the official Weibo of My Other Half released new clues.

One of them was a close-up of her hand, while the other was a close-up of his Adam's apple.

Jiang Xun's fans couldn't wait to take a magnifying glass to watch Jiang Xun's past shows and take close-up screenshots of her hands for careful comparison.

As for Mufeng's Adam's apple, it was really not easy to compare.

The official Weibo of "My Other Half" was releasing a little clue every day like squeezing out toothpaste.

They didn't forget to pay marketing accounts to post it together, making the show's popularity reach a peak.

When Shuixin saw the news about "My Other Half" posted by the marketing accounts every day, she knew that the production team had paid the marketing accounts to post it.

Chapter 414 Give In

Not only did the marketing account post about the couple that had not been officially announced, but it also attracted guests that netizens were looking forward to.

The marketing accounts were also following closely behind the production team, promoting the intern couple Jingsheng and Qiyao, as well as Shuidong and his wife.

However, there just wasn't any posts about Shuixin.

"These days, the marketing accounts have been promoting the official announcements of the production team. It has already surpassed the popularity of my post on the hot search." Shuixin said angrily, "The other two pairs of guests are on the hot search every day. Although the last couple is not officially announced, Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun are also on the hot search every day."

Shuixin couldn't understand the relationship between Mufeng and Jiang Xun.

She didn't know if the production team had really invited them and bought the marketing.

Or was it the netizens' own guess that Mufeng and Jiang Xun were going to participate and that they were really relying on their fans to get them on the hot search?

Yuxin's face was cold as well. "No wonder Shuli told me that he wouldn't give you any publicity resources that day. He wanted me to be mentally prepared. I was wondering how big difference it could be, but I didn't expect it to be so big. He might as well have not given it to you."

Without Shuixin's reminder, Yuxin contacted Shuli.

"Teacher Zhou, didn't I already tell you a few days ago? Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng made an official announcement in advance, so we can't do anything about it," Shuli said. "To be honest, Teacher Zheng has also contacted us, but there's no other way. You've publicized it clearly with Teacher Zheng's side and mentioned all the publicity points that we've prepared in advance. We really can't find any new publicity for Teacher Jian and Teacher Zheng."

"But you are you not going to mention us at all when you and the marketing accounts are promoting, right?" Yuxin suppressed her anger and said, "Can't you at least say a word or two?"

"Previously, you said that there would be some differences in the focus of the publicity, but I really didn't expect that you wouldn't give any publicity to my artiste at all." Yuxin replied. "Yes, we made a mistake previously and made an official announcement in advance. I understand that you're angry. However, I also promptly meted out appropriate punishment to the staff who made the mistake and promised that such a thing would never happen again in the future. Please help our artiste with the publicity."

Shuli laughed and said, "Teacher Zhou, you and I both know what the so-called negligence of the staff meant. Do you think I'll believe you? Are you doubting my intelligence by giving me this excuse?"

"The staff was careless, but it's been on the hot search for so long, why hadn't it been removed? Which staff member's negligence is this?" Shuli smiled. "I understand that Jian Shuixin wants to stir up the topic and increase her popularity. But don't use our production team as a scapegoat."

"I don't buy it! I'll tell you clearly, I won't include Jian Shuixin and Zheng Xuyi in all the promotions before the show starts," Shuli said.

boxn ov el. c o m

Xuyi had also contacted him and he had told him the same thing.

He did not care about Xuyi's attitude toward the announcement and whether he was included in it.

Since Xuyi and Shuixin were bound together, they were one.

No matter who made the decision, the other half would definitely agree.

"If you're not happy, you can choose to back out. It's fine." Shuli said.

At most, he would only have three pairs of guests on this show.

They could find new guests to add in later on, or they could choose not to.

With Mufeng and Jiang Xun around, the show had already won.

But would Shuixin and Xuyi be willing to back out?

Of course not.

Shuli's unyielding attitude made Yuxin cower. She softened her attitude. "Director Shi, your words are too serious. We've already signed the contract, how can we back out? The advance announcement had already caused trouble for the production team. If we suddenly quit right before the shoot, wouldn't it be even more troublesome for the production team if they can't find someone else?"

Shuli laughed coldly.

Even at this point, Yuxin didn't forget to warn him that if they quit, the production team wouldn't be able to find new guests to replace them.

Shuli sneered. Would he be afraid of this?

"If Teacher Jian really wants to quit, I have no problem with it," Shuli said with a smile. He sounded like he had a good temper, but the words he said were not at all accommodating.

Yuxin was completely terrified and could only say, "Director Shi, we will definitely not back out. This is our studio's problem. You're not promoting us before the broadcast. We also admit that it's our fault. What I'm worried about is that you won't reduce Shuixin's shots when the show officially starts shooting, will you?"

"Of course I won't, that's a separate matter." Seeing that the other party had given in, Shuli said, "I'll give them as much screen time as they want. I'll give them more if it's exciting. I'll give them less if it's boring. This has always been how variety shows are filmed."

"As long as Teacher Jian can cooperate with us during the shooting and don't do anything that will make things difficult for us, we will definitely not miss out on Teacher Jian's scenes," Shuli said.

He was really afraid that if he didn't say it directly enough, the other party wouldn't understand, or they would understand but play dumb.

"Of course, Shuixin didn't do it on purpose. Our Shuixin is the most dedicated, and we'll definitely shoot with all our heart. We won't cause any trouble for the production team, so don't worry," Yuxin promised.

“What did he say?” Shuixin asked hurriedly after she hung up the phone.

Yuxin said unhappily, “Shi Shuli is quite unyielding. He clearly said that they didn’t promote you because you made an official announcement in advance. This caused their show to suffer losses. So this time, it’s purely to teach you a lesson. He even said that we can choose not to participate if we are not satisfied.”

Shuixin pounded the sofa angrily. “I already announced it in advance. How can I not attend?”

If the production team had announced it, she could still explain that she had suddenly found a job and so on, and she would not lose face.

But this time, she released the news herself and let her fans hype it up.

She would be the one who was embarrassed if she refused to participate.

“That’s why he’s taking advantage of this,” Yuxin said. “He’s trying to beat you down. Because you caused trouble before the official announcement, he’s afraid that you’ll do something beyond his control when you’re shooting, so he told us in advance. If you cooperate with the production team’s shooting, your scenes won’t be reduced. But if you don’t cooperate, he’ll delete your scenes.”

“Ha!” Shuixin sneered in anger. “Shi Shuli has filmed several popular variety shows. He’s really tough!”

“Then what can we do?” Yuxin could only try to persuade Shuixin, “He can decide how much screen time you have. Shuixin, let’s just give in.”

“But no matter what, you’re still the most popular one on his show,” Yuxin advised.

Chapter 415 What Nonsense Are You Saying?

“The last couple hasn’t been officially announced yet, but it can’t be Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun. If it’s really them, why would the production team keep us in suspense? They would have announced it a long time ago to make it popular,” Yuxin said.

Shuixin frowned and said unhappily, “Sister Zhou, do you also think that Qin Mufeng and Jiang Xun’s couple is more popular than Zheng Xuyi and I?”

Yuxin was speechless.

Wasn’t this obvious?

Shuixin was really confident.

Did she really think that Xuyi’s and her popularity could be compared to Jiang Xun and Mufeng’s?

Although Jiang Xun’s status was not good, in terms of popularity, few people could compete with her.

Yuxin didn’t say it out loud, in case Shuixin made a fuss again.

“Of course not. How popular can Jiang Xun be? Her popularity was actually raised by Qin Mufeng. If the CEO of the Qin Yang Corporation participates in the variety show for the entire season, the audience will definitely pay more attention to him out of curiosity,” Yuxin explained.

Shuixin reluctantly accepted Yuxin’s explanation.

Yuxin continued, "Although Tan Jingsheng has a strong background and his seniors and his siblings are very strong, he's less popular. He'll easily live under the halo of his seniors and siblings. He can't compare to you. As for Zhang Shuidong and his wife, even though Zhang Shuidong is the best actor, if you really wanted to attract attention and cameras, how could he be your opponent? Zhang Shuidong usually only cares about acting in movies. The only variety show he had participated in before this was "Rural Distant," which was a slow variety show. He didn't need to grab any shots, and the shots would be evenly distributed among them. It's different from the variety show this time."

"Think about it carefully, isn't that the case? Individually, the other guests seem pretty good, but in reality, they're not as experienced as you in variety shows. You know how to attract the camera, but they're all newbies, so they don't. When the time comes, just do your best. If Shi Shuli wants you to cooperate, just cooperate. Don't throw a tantrum. First, protect your own screen time, understand?"

Shuixin nodded. "I know."

In the blink of an eye, it was the day that "My Other Half" officially began its livestream.

boxn ov el. c o m

"My Other Half" was livestreamed on Saturday, so most of the netizens had time to watch it.

In order to find out who the mysterious last couple was, many netizens had entered the livestream room early to wait.

On Jiang Xun and Mufeng's side, the livestream started after the two of them got into the car.

The camera was very good at not directly capturing their faces.

The two of them sat together in the car. The camera first focused on Jiang Xun's hand and then moved to Mufeng's arm.

The camera panned up slowly.

[I'm so nervous. I really can't tell who it is.]

The camera was already on their necks and was about to capture their faces.

The livestream screen suddenly changed to Shuixin and Xuyi.

The two of them first arrived at the homestay villa arranged by the production team.

There were four rooms in the villa.

[Wow, falling in love at first sight and dating openly. They're so sweet even when they're standing together without talking!]

[No, @Shi Shuli, turn the camera back and let us see who the guests are!]

[I don't mind falling in love at first sight, but can you at least satisfy our curiosity first?]

[@Shi Shuli, you're keeping the audience in suspense. Be careful not to screw up!]

[@Shi Shuli, the more you hide it and don't release the last pair of guests, the more curious I am. You've piqued my curiosity. If the guests can't satisfy me, it's best that you turn off the comments in the livestream room. Otherwise, I'll report you if I see you. Just you wait!]

Everyone in the production team: "..."

This is really annoying the audience!

Everyone turned to look at Shuli in unison. "Director? Are you still trying to whet the audience's appetite?"

"They've already been hanging to this extent. Continue hanging." Shuli's eyes were glued to the screen, and he didn't even turn his head.

"Director, what if the audience is not satisfied that the last pair of guests is Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng?" Zhang Zhisheng asked.

Shuli finally turned to look at him. "What nonsense are you saying? If Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng can't satisfy the audience, then we won't be able to find anyone who can."

Zhisheng looked at the anxious audience on the bullet screen and secretly thought that Shuli was really inhumane.

As soon as Shuixin and Xuyi entered the villa, Shuixin asked in a false voice, "Hello, is anyone there?"

"We can't be the first to arrive, right?" Shuixin asked Xuyi.

[Our Shuixin is so polite!]

[Yes, you are the first to arrive.]

[Even Shuixin and Zheng Xuyi have different expressions when they talk!]

"Rest in the living room for a while. You don't have to run up and down the stairs. I'll go and take a look," Xuyi said to Shuixin.

[Ah, ah, ah, Brother Zheng dotes on Shuixin so much!]

Xuyi first looked at the rooms on the first floor.

The first floor had a spacious living room, dining room, kitchen, public bathroom, and a large balcony.

The balcony was directly connected to the courtyard outside.

The yard was quite big, enough for a barbecue and picnic.

Xuyi looked around the first floor and came back. He said to Shuixin, "There are no bedrooms on the first floor. I'll go upstairs to take a look."

"I think I'll go with you." As Shuixin spoke, she put the suitcase in the living room and went up to the second floor with Xuyi.

There were three bedrooms on the second floor, one of which was a master bedroom that was large and luxurious.

The floor-to-ceiling windows had excellent lighting, and the view was the green color of the courtyard downstairs.

Shuixin's eyes lit up when she saw the bedroom.

However, they were the first to arrive. In order to highlight their humble and polite side, they could not choose the best room. They even had to choose the worst room.

The only thing that comforted Shuixin was that the rooms in the villa weren't that bad at all.

At most, the room was a little smaller and not as beautiful as the master bedroom.

Anyway, she would only come here to record for one day a week. She could bear with it.

So the two of them went to look at the other two rooms.

One of the rooms faced south, just like the master bedroom. The lighting was good, but the room was a little small.

There was only a small row of wardrobes, two single beds, and a television cabinet. On the television cabinet was a television that looked to be only about 40 inches.

The third room was facing north, and it was a little cold as soon as they entered. This room had a double bed, and there was a TV hanging on the wall facing the bed.

"There are only three rooms on the second floor, and the fourth room is upstairs?" Xuyi said as he went with Shuixin to the stairs on the second floor.

The two of them went up the stairs.

They realized that the third floor was an attic.

The attic's ceiling was slanted, and the two of them couldn't even straighten their backs at the narrow part.

Therefore, they could only stand where there was a higher ceiling.

Although the attic seemed to be quite large, it was actually limited by the height of the ceiling, and the area that they could move around in was pitifully small.

Moreover, the windows were small, so the lighting was particularly poor. As soon as they entered the room, they felt that it was more than half as dark as the second floor.

Chapter 416 She's Waiting For Us

This room also had a double bed, which meant that only the second bedroom on the second floor facing south had two single beds.

The common feature of these rooms was that they all had a television.

But when they were recording a program, who would watch TV for no reason?!

Shuixin didn't look too good. Shuli must have set her up on purpose and arranged for her to be the first to arrive.

The first ones to arrive would suffer the most. In order to show their modesty, politeness, and good upbringing, they had to choose the worst room and leave the good rooms for others.

They would be scolded for being selfish even if they chose a middle-grade room.

If it was the same environment as the second floor, Shuixin would have accepted it.

However, she really didn't want to stay in the attic, so she put on a fake smile and said to Xuyi, "Let's wait for everyone to arrive before choosing rooms."

"Alright," Xuyi said and heaved a sigh of relief. He didn't want to stay in this room either.

[Shuixin is so well-behaved and polite.]

[Her fans are too dense. Isn't it because Jian Shuixin doesn't want to stay in the attic? That's why she wants to wait until everyone is here. If everyone is humble, she and Zheng Xuyi might not need to stay in the attic.]

Jiang Xun and Mufeng were also watching the livestream in the car.

The two of them were decided to be the last to appear, and other than the first few shots on their hands and necks, they would not be shown again until they appeared.

In the car, the cameraman had even turned off his camera.

Jiang Xun unscrupulously took out her mobile phone and entered the livestream room to watch the show.

boxn ov el. c o m

Mufeng saw this and moved closer to Jiang Xun. He held Jiang Xun's phone and moved it between the two of them.

"If you want to watch, then go into the livestream room yourself." She had to turn her head to look at the phone. How uncomfortable was that?

"The audio will clash if both of us are watching on our phones," Mufeng said indifferently.

"It's okay, I'm wearing my earphones." As Jiang Xun spoke, she took out her bluetooth earphones' case from her bag and handed it to Mufeng. "Do you want it?"

Mufeng: "..."

"Don't do it." Mufeng said decisively.

However, Jiang Xun opened the lid of the earphone case, took it out, and was about to put it in her ear.

Mufeng: "..."

"If you put it on, what am I supposed to listen to?" Mufeng quickly held her hand.

"Look at your phone," Jiang Xun said.

Mufeng: "..."

"I just want to look at the same phone as you." Mufeng dug out the earphones that Jiang Xun was holding in her fingers and put them back into the earphone case. He also put them in his pocket.

Confiscated.

Jiang Xun: "..."

This bastard!

They could have each had a phone to watch comfortably, but she had to share one with him!

Everyone in the production team: "..."

The relationship between the two of them was really hard to explain.

If one really had to say it, Jiang Xun was at most a little too unromantic.

Anyway, seeing how Mufeng was so clingy to Jiang Xun, Great CEO Qin maintained his image of a great CEO with few words while secretly insisting on sharing the same phone with Jiang Xun.

This can't be a contract relationship!

The cameraman was anxious and really wanted to film of the interaction between the two.

Many people would definitely love to watch this!

Jiang Xun saw that Shuixin wanted to wait for everyone to arrive before they got their rooms. She smiled and said to Mufeng, "She's waiting for us."

Mufeng raised his eyebrows. He did not quite understand the entertainment industry.

Jiang Xun said, "There are four rooms. One of the rooms is a double bed room. It must be reserved for Tan Jingsheng and Zhang Qiyao. They are an intern couple, not a real couple. They couldn't possibly let the two of them sleep on the same bed, right? The fans of the two people can't agree to it."

"There are three rooms left. According to the status and experience of the entertainment industry, if everyone is here, the master bedroom will definitely be reserved for Old Brother Zhang and his wife. After all, he is the best actor. Furthermore, he has a good relationship with the people in the industry and is guaranteed box office sales. He is one of the top brothers in the film industry," Jiang Xun said.

When everyone in the production team heard Jiang Xun call Shuidong "Brother," the corners of their mouths twitched.

Other people called him "Teacher" or "Brother," but when it came to Jiang Xun, she referred to him as "Old Brother."

However, on second thought, Jiang Xun had recorded an entire season of "Rural Distant" with Shuidong and was indeed very familiar with him.

"The remaining two rooms are divided between us. Let's see who's unlucky enough to stay in the attic," Jiang Xun pouted. "But I'm guessing it's her."

"Why?" Mufeng asked with a smile.

“Because you’re here.” Jiang Xun looked at him from the corner of her eyes. “Why? Are you planning to let me stay in the attic?”

“That’s definitely not possible.” Mufeng chuckled. “Actually, it’s also not impossible for you to stay in the master bedroom.”

It was nothing to be a movie king.

He had already started to think about investing in movies and TV series.

No matter how big a movie king was, he couldn’t beat the investors.

“Forget about the master bedroom.” Jiang Xun shook her head. “Brother Zhang is old. The house facing north is rather cold. We’d better not let Brother Zhang suffer.”

Everyone in the production team: “...”

Teacher Zhang will thank you.

If Jiang Xun wanted to sleep in the master bedroom, Shuidong would not have the chance.

And so what if the netizens scolded her?

Would Jiang Xun be afraid of being scolded by netizens?

At this time, the villa welcomed the second pair of guests.

It was Jingsheng and Qiyao.

The two of them came in the same car and were already very familiar with each other.

Tan Jingsheng was talkative and didn’t have any awkward silences.

Qiyao wasn’t humble either, so the two of them talked about their work achievements.

Qiyao: “I acted as the female lead the moment I started my career.”

Jingsheng: “As soon as I started singing, I sang for the popular show’s OST, and I sang for as many seasons as the show aired.”

Qiyao: “I’ve successfully made people remember my acting skills in ‘Hell on Earth.’ I’ll be the female lead in the next drama.”

Jingsheng: “I’m going to have a concert soon.”

Qiyao: “I’ve even worked with Jiang Xun a few times. Jiang Xun likes me a lot.”

Tan Jingsheng: “...”

Is it something worth showing off that Jiang Xun likes you?

Jingsheng: “My big brother is the director of the popular drama I was talking about. You know ‘Shattered Continent,’ right? The screenwriter is my sister.”

Qiyao paused and said dryly, “You got in through connections?”

Tan Jingsheng was speechless.

Did this person know how to chat?

Weren't you the one who showed off first?

"If I don't sing well, how can my song be popular no matter how close we are? In the end, it's all because of my outstanding ability."

Qiyao: "Me too. In the end, I'm still a really good actor."

Everyone in the production team was speechless.

The two of you really don't recognize strangers at all, and your mouths didn't stop chattering the whole way.

The two of them got out of the car and entered the villa.

Shuixin and Xuyi were sitting in the living room.

She turned around when she heard the two of them enter.

Shuixin's heart sank when she saw Qiyao.

This Qiyao didn't get along with her either!

As a top A-list celebrity, her status was much higher than Qiyao's, but who knew that Qiyao had never taken her seriously.

Chapter 417 You Don't Have To Expose That, Second Brother Tan

It was really infuriating!

"Sister Jian, brother Zheng, you guys are the first to arrive? Is anyone else here?" Qiyao asked.

"No one else is here," Xuyi smiled and said. "We're the first to arrive."

Tan Jingsheng was a newcomer, so he greeted Shuixin and Xuyi.

When Jingsheng saw that Shuixin's luggage was still in the bedroom, he asked, "You guys haven't packed your bags?"

"We haven't chosen a room yet. We're waiting for everyone to get together," Shuixin said with a smile.

"Let's take a look first." Qiyao also put the luggage in the living room first and pulled Jingsheng upstairs. She said in a low voice, "Let me tell you, they said something about choosing together when everyone arrived. There must be a room that's really bad. They don't want to live in it and left it for us."

Qiyao pouted. "She's just bullying the newbies because we have the lowest status and experience among the guests."

Tan Jingsheng: "..."

What's up with this girl?

Should these things be said out loud?

“Ahem.” Jingsheng turned to look at the cameraman who was following them. He carefully avoided the camera and secretly pointed at her ear-mic to hint that they would be heard.

“What are you afraid of?” Qiyao rolled her eyes. “Do you really think the audience is stupid? Who can’t see through Jian Shuixin’s little plan?”

[Hahahahaha, Sister Yao is still as straightforward as ever. How are Jian Shuixin’s fans going to clear her name if you say that? If I say that Jian Shuixin is innocent, they’re just proving themselves stupid.]

[That’s true. Other than Jian Shuixin’s fans, the audience has seen through it.]

boxn ov el. c o m

Tan Jingsheng was speechless.

“But didn’t you say you were very powerful in the car? How did you become the lowest ranking now?” Jingsheng looked at Qiyao suspiciously, as if to say, “So you were just bragging to me!”

Qiyao: “...”

“I’ve just started cultivating not long ago, okay? Other than myself, everyone else here has been famous for a few years.” Qiyao was not to be outdone. “I’ve only been a Taoist for two years, but my results are already very good.”

“It seems like Jiang Xun started her cultivation later than you,” Jingsheng pointed out.

Qiyao: “...”

[Hahahahahaha, you don’t have to expose that, Second Brother Tan!]

[You’re the second brother of the Tan family who can’t find a girlfriend!]

[How can you not give face to a girl? How can you not give my Sister Yao face?]

[Sister Yao looks like she wants to kill Second Brother Tan.]

[I suspect that if it weren’t for the cameras, Sister Yao would have already made a move on Second Brother Tan.]

“Jiang Xun is different.” Unexpectedly, Qiyao said, “Jiang Xun is the best. You can’t use common sense to judge her.”

Audience: “...”

[I’m dying of laughter. Sister Yao is a brainless fan of Jiang Xun.]

[Why is Sister Yao so cute after becoming Jiang Xun’s brainless fan?]

When it came to the best, Tan Jingsheng was not convinced. “My sister is the best too.”

Qiyao thought, “I don’t know your sister, I don’t care if she’s the best.”

Jiang Xun was the best anyway.

The two of them looked around the second and third floor. When they came down, Qiyao laughed like crazy and deliberately said loudly, “Aiya, I didn’t expect there to only be one double bed room! Then it must be for me and Teacher Tan.”

Shuixin: “...”

It’s just a double bed room, but look at Qiyao gloating!

However, Qiyao was not in a hurry to move her luggage up after the peace talks.

After a while, Shuidong and his wife also arrived.

Shuidong saw that Shuixin had not picked a room yet and only Qiyao had picked one. The couple also put their luggage in the living room for the time being.

“Alright, now that all three pairs are here, there’s only one pair left. The production team refused to say who they are. They’re finally going to show their faces!”

[I made a wish that it’s Fengjiang.]

[Fengjiang doesn’t dare to come on the show. Dream on.]

[If you want Fengjiang to fail, then make a wish?]

[If they’re in a contract relationship, then they shouldn’t come out to make their presence known. It would be a wonder if they rushed to be on the show.]

Even the guests were discussing it.

“Do you guys know who the last pair of special guests are?” Shuixin asked.

Shuidong shook his head. “When I was invited, I asked but they didn’t tell me. But at that time, I wasn’t sure if it was because the guest hadn’t been decided yet, so I didn’t ask again.”

“I’ve asked the director,” Xuyi said. “But the director didn’t say anything.”

Qiyao also shook her head, indicating that she didn’t know.

At this time, another car arrived at the entrance of the villa.

“They’re here, they’re here!” Qiyao curiously went to the door.

The others were also curious, so they all followed.

Shuixin was still trying to act modest, but she didn’t stand out in the crowd.

[Quiet down! I can’t even see their faces clearly!]

[Don’t count on Fengjiang, they can’t possibly come.]

The livestream cut to the entrance of the villa.

The camera focused on the car door.

The door opened, and the audience and guests looked into the car with anticipation and curiosity.

The camera then turned to the guests' reactions.

Bullet screen: "..."

[@Shi Shuli, enough! I'm really going to report the livestream room!]

[People should not become someone like Shi Shuli!]

Following that, they saw that the guests had different reactions.

Shuidong smiled in surprise, as if he had met an old acquaintance.

Shuidong's wife, Fan Mingxia, was smiling as well, her face full of love.

Qiyao jumped up in surprise.

There was no reaction from the Jingsheng. He probably wasn't familiar with the other party, so he only smiled politely and looked a little awkward.

Shuixin and Xuyi's reactions were very intriguing.

Whoever they saw, their expressions were unnatural. Although they were smiling, compared to the others, their smiles were much more fake.

Then, the camera turned back to the guest who got out of the car.

[Only Jiang Jiang can make Sister Yao so excited. Can I look forward to this?]

[Film the guests' reactions first before turning the camera around, this shot is so familiar that it feels like we're back in time to the first episode of "Rural Distant."]

[@Shi Shuli, you've already whetted my appetite. I'm already prepared to report the livestream room.]

Zhisheng and Shuli were both speechless.

"The audience who wants to report the livestream is looking forward to Jiang Xun and Qin Mufeng, right?" Zhisheng said with uncertainty, "What if they're looking forward to someone else? What will we..."

Shuli: "..."

"Think of something good!" Shuli said in a bad mood.

They were still thinking about what would happen if their livestream room was reported?

There were a lot of people watching the livestream, and there were always some who said things that were unpleasant and violated the rules.

The production team specifically asked a colleague to be the administrator to keep a close eye on the comments and ban any comments that violated the rules.

But he couldn't guarantee that he didn't miss anything.

What if he missed out on any comments?

The camera started to film the entire scene. It first captured the feet of Mufeng and Jiang Xun as they got out of the car.

And then it moved up.

[I don't know if you guys are them, but I'm holding my breath now.]

Chapter 418 Who Can Keep Up With Her Popularity?

[Me too, I'm nervous.]

[Why are there so few comments now?]

[Because everyone's so nervous that they are not even bothering to send bullet comments.]

The camera finally moved to Jiang Xun and Mufeng's faces.

Jiang Xun looked at Shuixin with a smile, who looked like she had just been dealt a blow and was so angry that she could not control her expression.

With me around, don't even think about fighting for the most popular couple spot.

Mufeng smiled and lowered his head to look at Jiang Xun.

This girl was evil to the core.

[!!!!!!!!!!!!]

[It really is Fengjiang!]

[Okay, @Shi Shuli, I won't report the livestream room. We can still get along well.]

[The production team is really something. They actually managed to invite Fengjiang!]

[Who said that Fengjiang is a contract couple and doesn't dare to come on the show?]

[Isn't Fengjiang here?]

[I remember some people saying with certainty that except for intern couples, the others are all real couples. Contract couples like Fengjiang will easily be exposed on the show, so they don't dare to go on it at all.]

boxn ov el. c o m

[Just listen to the artis' words. They'll all end up apologizing to Jiang Xun.]

[I've always thought that Jiang Jiang and Great CEO Qin are a good match. Now that they're standing side by side after the official announcement, I think they're even more compatible.]

[When the two of them are together, their aura is ten meters wide.]

[I heard from my friends who work in Qin Yang that Great CEO Qin has a very strong aura. It's easy to be tongue-tied in front of him.]

[But Jiang Jiang has been very comfortable in front of Great CEO Qin since the beginning. She's so cool!]

[It means that Jiang Jiang's aura is very strong.]

[Jiang Jiang's aura is really strong. The villain roles she played in the past all required a strong aura.]

Shuixin didn't expect that Jiang Xun would be able to persuade Mufeng to go on romance variety show together.

Of course, she did not think that Mufeng had taken the initiative to participate.

[No wonder Shi Shuli arranged for them to appear last and kept us in suspense during the official announcement. Jiang Jiang and Great CEO Qin are the most powerful weapons!]

[At first, Jian Shuixin thought love at first sight was the most popular one this time, hahahahaha!]

[Once Fengjiang is up, who can compete with them!]

[Fengjiang has arrived, let's see how love at first sight can still be smug after seeing them.]

Soon after, [The last pair of guests for My Other Half] was in second place on the hot search.

And the first one was [The Fengjiang couple released their first photo together since the official announcement]

The third was [Fengjiang couple's first variety show after official announcement]

Fourth place was [Qin Mufeng's first permanent appearance in a variety show]

Jiang Xun and Mufeng suddenly occupied the top four most searched spots.

Because they were so popular, Shuixin and Xuyi couldn't make it to the hot search.

The production team only bought the first spot on the hot search. Before the show started filming, the production team focused on promoting Shuidong and his wife, as well as Jingsheng and Qiyao's ship.

In order to maintain the sense of mystery of Mufeng and Jiang Xun being the last pair of guests, they only mentioned the last pair of mysterious guests during every publicity. They did not promote them separately like they did when they promoted Shuidong, Jingsheng, and Qiyao.

However, since Jiang Xun and Mufeng had been treated as trump cards by Shuli, it was naturally impossible not to promote them.

They had been saving money for publicity, waiting for them to be on the top of the hot search list today.

However, he did not expect Jiang Xun and Mufeng to be so awesome.

The production team only bought the first spot on the hot searches, but the two of them took the second, third, and fourth hot searches with their own strength.

Shuli couldn't help but laugh as he scrolled through Weibo. He said to Zhisheng, "I think Jiang Xun is one of the top celebrities. Who can keep up with her popularity?"

Shuixin had thought that she and Xuyi would be the most popular couple on the show. Who knew that they would be defeated by Jiang Xun and Mufeng in seconds?

She and Xuyi paid to be on the hot search, but they were still far from fourth place.

Jiang Xun and Mufeng walked over and greeted everyone.

“Brother Zhang, sister-in-law!” Jiang Xun called out happily.

It was a joke to call Shuidong “Uncle” in “Rural Distant.” Shuidong was still young, so she couldn’t really keep calling him “Uncle.”

Because they had filmed “Rural Distant” together, they had even had a meal together.

Zhang Kangwang and Shuidong had brought their wives along. At that time, Jiang Xun had not been with Mufeng yet, and Zhang Jian was also single.

Jiang Xun got to know the wives of Kangwang and Shuidong, whom she had met at that time. She had a good relationship with the two of them.

This time, they were very familiar with each other.

“Jiang Jiang!” Qiyao quickly called out.

Jiang Xun also walked over and was hugged by Qiyao. “Aiya, I didn’t expect to be able to participate in the variety show with you.”

“Mr. Qin,” When Jingsheng saw Mufeng, he called out.

Although Jiang Xun did not know Jingsheng, Jingsheng and Mufeng knew each other. Although they were not close, they had met a few times because of their relationship with Wei Zhiqian and Tan Mo.

“You know each other?” Jiang Xun had thought that Mufeng did not know anyone else in the entertainment industry other than her.

“I’ll tell you later.” Mufeng laughed.

“Teacher Jiang,” Jingsheng called out.

“Sigh, you’re an intern couple with Sister Yao. She’s already calling me Jiang Jiang. It’s not appropriate for you to call me Teacher Jiang anymore,” Jiang Xun said. “And you know Mr. Qin. You can call me Jiang...”

Before Jiang Xun could finish speaking, she could feel Mufeng’s burning gaze without even turning her head.

The name “Jiang Jiang” could be used by the same gender, but not the opposite gender.

Jingsheng agreed with a smile.

Jiang Xun knew everyone except for Jingsheng, so there was no need to introduce herself to anyone else.

Everyone entered the room. Jiang Xun watched the livestream on the way there and knew that they had not been assigned rooms.

“Everyone’s here,” Shuixin said at this time. “Let’s divide our rooms, shall we?”

As soon as Shuixin’s voice fell, the people of the production team gave them a mission card.

Shuixin: “...”

Shuidong took the mission card and opened it. “Welcome to the sweet villa. The production team has prepared different rooms for the guests. The guests need to complete the mission to decide which room they will stay in tonight. You’ll be given priority in choosing your rooms according to your ranking in the competition.”

“What?” Qiyao was dumbfounded. She looked at the production team, then at Jingsheng, and said to the production team, “We’re just an intern couple!”

“Don’t worry, the rest of us are real couples. Brother Zhang and sister-in-law can’t sleep in a double bed room. If no one chooses a double bed room, the room is yours.” Jiang Xun hit the nail on the head.

Mufeng, that dog, would definitely not choose a double bed room.

Even if a double bed room fell into their hands, Mufeng would still squeeze into a single bed with her at night.

As for Shuixin, her desire for a couple bonus was almost written on her face. How could she sleep separately from Xuyi?

Jingsheng secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Qiyao had just heaved a sigh of relief when she heard Jiang Xun say, “Of course, we can’t rule out the possibility that some brothers and sisters might deliberately choose the double bed room and leave the king-sized room for you. After all, if that’s the case, the show’s effects will definitely be explosive.”

Chapter 419 Jiang Xun Is Really A Genius

Qiyao: “...”

Jingsheng covered his mouth and coughed. “Our brothers and sisters wouldn’t do this to us, would they?”

[Hahahaha, if that’s the case, it’ll be fun.]

[But the guests are afraid of getting scolded by Zhang Qiyao’s fans, so they probably wouldn’t do that, right?]

[Jiang Xun would definitely dare to, but she’s close to Zhang Qiyao, so she won’t trick her, hahahaha.]

[Hahahaha, Jiang Xun is so evil. Look at how scared Sister Yao is. She wants to drag her luggage and run away, hahahahaha!]

Jiang Xun added, “We definitely won’t intentionally do this to you.”

Jingsheng felt that he had heaved a sigh of relief a little too early.

When he heard Jiang Xun's words, he somehow felt that there might be a twist in the story.

Sure enough, Jiang Xun said, "However, if the production team gives some special hidden mission to the guests and asks them to leave the king-sized room for you, then there's nothing we can do."

Jingsheng and Qiyao were both speechless.

[It's such a pity that Jiang Xun didn't go to the production team to be a planner!]

[Does the production team really have such a plan?]

[I suspect that the production team didn't think of this before, but they probably added it at the last minute after Jiang Xun brought it up.]

[Jiang Xun is really a genius lol!]

boxn ov el. c o m

Behind the screen, Shuli squinted his eyes and looked at the production team with a dangerous expression.

"Why didn't you think of this when you were planning the mission?" Shuli asked with squinted eyes.

Everyone was speechless.

Perhaps it was because they weren't so... mean?

They really didn't expect this!

"How did Jiang Xun come up with such a wonderful and mean move just by saying it casually?" Shuli questioned his subordinates' souls.

Everyone: "..."

You said it was a mean move.

Shuli sneered. "If a variety show isn't a little mean, who will watch it?"

Shuli waved his hand. "Hurry up and add this one to my list!"

Staff A quickly went to get it done.

It was a good thing they had many blank mission cards.

When Shuixin and the others came to the villa to look at the rooms, there was actually another room in the villa that the production team had used as a studio.

They had informed the guests beforehand, so they would not come to see this room when they were looking at the different rooms.

They had moved all the necessary work items over.

Other than a computer and various filming equipment, there was also a printer.

Staff A printed out the new mission card and asked Shuli, "Director, who should we assign this hidden mission to?"

Shuli chuckled. "I'll leave it to the person who thought it up. Give it to Jiang Xun."

Hence, when the other guests weren't paying attention, staff A secretly called Jiang Xun over and gave her a mission card.

"Teacher Jiang, please take a look at it now," Staff A said softly.

Jiang Xun opened the mission card.

"Hidden mission. Get first place and choose the double room. The production team will provide you and CEO Qin with a luxurious lunch tomorrow afternoon."

Jiang Xun: "..."

She had never thought that the hidden mission that she had just casually mentioned would actually land on her hands.

[Hahahahaha, I feel like the production team has Jiang Xun in their grasp.]

[The director knows Jiang Xun well. He knows that she can eat!]

[Jiang Jiang, do you want to reflect on yourself? Why does everyone know that you love to eat?]

"Jiang Xun was silent for a few seconds. Did the director do it on purpose?" she asked.

Staff A laughed gloatingly. "We didn't think of it at first, but after hearing you say it just now, we feel that it's especially..."

Staff A was too embarrassed to say the word "mean" and changed his words at the last minute. "Amusing, so this hidden mission was added at the last minute. The director specifically asked you to complete it."

Jiang Xun: "..."

[I think brother is actually trying to say "mean."]

[It's not just this brother. I also want to say that Jiang Xun is really mean.]

[Hahahaha, I just didn't expect that this would land on Jiang Xun so quickly. Shi Shuli is meaner.]

"That's not right. If I were to get first place, I could choose the most luxurious room," Jiang Xun said.

"But according to the requirements of the production team, I won't be able to live in the best room even if I get first place. Why should I work so hard to get first place?"

Staff A smiled. "The double bed room is the best room, second only to the master bedroom. You arrived late and didn't have time to check the rooms. The master bedroom and the double bed room are facing south, and the rooms are bright. The double bed room is only a little smaller than the master bedroom, not much smaller. Of the remaining two rooms, one is on the second floor, facing the north. The room is much smaller than the double bed room, and it is cold with poor lighting. The third floor is an attic, and there is limited space for standing up and moving. It is facing north, and the windows are small, so the lighting is very poor. That's why if you choose the double bed room, it is second best room."

Staff A didn't say it directly. Even if someone else got first place, they would probably be too embarrassed to choose the master bedroom and would definitely leave the master bedroom for Shuidong.

This was the way of the world.

Not only would it make her look like she respected those older than her, but she could also take the opportunity to get some connections through Shuidong.

Of course, you couldn't expect to have a good relationship with Shuidong right away, but it was at least a start.

Shuidong's status in the film industry was extremely high. If he was the middleman, it would definitely not be a problem for her to act in a film.

Therefore, under normal circumstances, even if one got first place, they would not choose the master bedroom.

Therefore, the double bed room became the best choice.

However, the bad thing about the double bed room was that they could not get their fans high.

After all, they were clearly a couple, but they had to sleep separately. How could they give out candy?

However, staff A could not say these things in front of the camera.

Jiang Xun agreed.

She was not trying to please Shuidong. Her relationship with Shuidong was already quite good, and there was no such thing as pleasing him or not.

Moreover, she didn't have any obsession with acting in movies. As long as it could help her earn merit points, it didn't matter whether it was a movie or a TV series.

She didn't even care about the role in the TV series. She didn't care whether she was the main character or a supporting role, so why would she care about a movie role?

She wanted to give it to Shuidong purely because she had a good relationship with him and could not bear to see her brother and sister-in-law living in a room that was not as good.

"The room is secondary," Jiang Xun said.

"The main thing is that I don't have to have a luxurious lunch," Jiang Xun said with a straight face. She had brought a lot of food this time as well.

[Sob, sob, sob. I'm touched. Jiang Xun didn't even want her favorite food so that she wouldn't do Sister Yao dirty.]

[Friendship between Immortals.]

Fortunately, Shuli had already expected this, so he had informed staff A in advance.

At this moment, staff A chuckled and said, "Teacher Jiang, I can tell you in advance that tomorrow's mission will be outside, and lunch will not be easy. So, you won't lose anything if you get the reward."

Chapter 420 I Can't Let My Mr. Qin Suffer

Jiang Xun: "..."

"Ahem, I don't mind. I brought a lot of compressed biscuits anyway. I'll be full no matter what," Jiang Xun said.

Everyone in the production team was speechless.

The audience was speechless too.

As expected of you!

"I'm used to suffering, but I can't let my Mr. Qin suffer, can I? He's never suffered this kind of grievance before," Jiang Xun said seriously. "In order for Mr. Qin to eat well, so that he doesn't have to eat compressed biscuits with me, I will work hard to complete the task.

Everyone in the production team: "..."

Mufeng: "..."

He wanted to tell Jiang Xun that she did not have to be so "considerate," but when he looked at Jiang Xun's face, he felt that he did not want her to feel so aggrieved.

It was better to let her have a good meal.

[Hahahahahaha, Great CEO Qin's expression right now is inexplicably like he's been wronged, hahahaha!]

[Jiang Xun, did you really not just want to eat?]

[Great CEO Qin, you should just take the hit for this.]

[When Jiang Jiang said Mr. Qin, it was so sweet! What a big bite!]

Staff A did not dare to face Jiang Xun again after completing his task.

If he stayed with Jiang Xun any longer, he might hear Jiang Xun say something that would make him lose control of his expression.

Staff A hurried back to the production team's room.

Jiang Xun then pouted at Mufeng. "Director Shi is definitely taking this opportunity to take revenge on me."

Mufeng narrowed his eyes. His expression was dangerous. "He's taking revenge on you?"

Shuli: "..."

Shuli stood up, his body covered in cold sweat.

Damned Jiang Xun had tricked him to death!

What revenge!

Could Jiang Xun be more careful with her words?

“Ai! It’s not a big deal.” Jiang Xun’s words suppressed Mufeng’s aura again. “He’s just trying to set me up.”

“Why is he setting you up?” Mufeng’s imposing manner rose again.

Shuli: “...”

Shuli’s brothers and sisters all began to show him tender affection.

Why did you provoke Jiang Xun?

It looked like he had set Jiang Xun up, but looking at the situation now, he was going to be set up too!

It’s really anyone’s guess who’s setting who up.

“I don’t know either!” Jiang Xun looked innocent. Maybe I said or did something that offended him without him knowing.

“He’s petty!” Jiang Xun said.

Shuli: “!!!”

Everyone in the production team were anxious.

Jiang Xun was right about this.

The entire Feng Videos’ variety show department knew that Shuli was petty!

Just now, Jiang Xun had only casually mentioned a mean trick, but Shuli had turned around and pushed it on to Jiang Xun.

Now, it was completely a backlash.

The production team’s staff gloated as they watched the show.

That’s what you get for setting people up!

[Hahahahaha, did Great CEO Qin almost lose control of his 40-meter long knife just now?]

[Shi Shuli was on the verge of death just now.]

[I want to know how big of a shadow is currently looming over @Shi Shuli psychologically.]

[Is there a cameraman around? Film @Shi Shuli’s reaction!]

[I’m begging for the production team’s reaction. If nothing else, I just want to see the director’s reaction. @Shi Shuli.]

[Shi Shuli: I can't afford to offend them, I can't afford to offend them.]

Shuli broke out in a cold sweat after being set up by Jiang Xun, and he collapsed on the chair without caring about his image.

He really couldn't afford to offend Jiang Xun!

Jiang Xun and Mufeng returned to the living room and joined the guests without anyone knowing. No one actually realized that they had just left.

Everyone followed the production team to the outdoor area.

Shuixin let out a sigh of relief when she heard that the rooms would be chosen according to the ranking of the completed task.

She didn't need to get first place. As long as she didn't get last place, she didn't need to live in the attic.

Shuli and his team were waiting for them outside the villa.

Shuli stood outside the camera and said, "As the saying goes, When husband and wife work together, their benefits can cut through gold. When man and woman work together, work is not tiring. Therefore, for this mission, each pair would form a group and take turns. Everyone could discuss who would be the first to start. However, after the first person has been chosen, the following person must take on the next part. One person can't take two consecutive parts."

"There's another special rule. You have to choose the first person before you know the task," Shuli said.

"Isn't this the same as drawing lots? It all depends on luck." Xuyi said in surprise.

"Indeed," Shuli admitted. "I'll give everyone two minutes to discuss."

"What's there to discuss?" Qiyao said, "It depends on luck. There's no way to decide on a strategy based on the mission's content."

Everyone discussed for a while and decided to let the man go first.

No matter what the first task was, let the man test the water first.

"Alright, our first task is to ask the male guest to choose a cardboard box. Inside the box is your means of transportation," Shuli said. "You will need to use the transportation of your choice to go to the mountainside to get the door card for the villa's gate and return. For the second part, the female guest would carry the male guest up the mountain to the next mission point on the vehicle chosen by the male guest. After getting the mission prop, the male guest would carry the female guest back here. The order of room selection will be decided based on the rankings. The production team will follow you along the way. If anyone breaks the rules, their ranking will be canceled and they will automatically be last."

The guests followed the production team out of the villa's courtyard and came to the roadside outside the villa.

The villa was built on the mountainside near the top of the mountain. Because it was a holiday resort, the mountain road was quite well-maintained and the road was flat and spacious.

Everyone saw four square boxes that were half the height of a person lying horizontally in the middle of the road.

The cardboard boxes were all of the same size and were tightly wrapped, so they didn't provide any clues for the guests.

At this moment, a line of words rolled out on the screen of the livestream room.

[For the sake of the program's safety, the production team has already rented the nearby area. [Please pay attention to traffic safety on a daily basis and do not imitate it.]]

"They're all similar, so how do we choose?" Shuidong smiled and walked to the box that he was facing. "I'll choose this one."

Mufeng silently walked to the box that he was facing.

Seeing this, Xuyi stopped picking and walked to the box in front of him.

"After you've made your choice, you can open the box," Shuli said.

Shuidong opened the box, and inside it was a two-wheeled children's scooter.

Shuidong grinned. "I've never ridden this before."

Xuyi opened his box and found a pair of roller skates inside.

"Aiyo, that one is good!" When Jingsheng saw that, he was extremely envious.

Xuyi held his roller skates and wanted to cry but had no tears. "But I don't know how to skate..."

"Then quickly put it on and practice!" Shuixin said anxiously.
