

Chapter 129

Days passed quickly, and the day had come for Sophia to go to another pack to attend a pack meeting with Bryan.

In the last few days, Bryan did not get angry with her for anything. Just like she requested, he talked to her softly.

She was delighted that he had changed himself for her. But only she could see that change. To others, he remained the same Bryan Morrison, the man everyone feared.

"Sophia, what are your plans for tomorrow? It's the weekend."

Sophia turned her head and looked at Sara.

They were sitting in the cafeteria after finishing their classes.

"I am going to another pack with Alpha."

Sara's eyes widened in shock. "Are you serious?"

Sophia had not told her about it because she was unsure whether her mother would agree to let her go to another pack. But last night, Beta Robert called her mother and told her that Sophia had to go out of the pack for business purposes.

Her mother was startled at first, but when she learned that the head Alpha would be with her daughter and would take care of her safety, she agreed.

Sophia wanted to tell her that she would not have to worry much because she was going with her mate. However, she remembered Bryan's warning not to tell anyone about it. So, she forbade herself from revealing it to her mother.

"WHAT!"

Sara could not stop herself from screaming in shock. Then her shocked expression lightened as she smirked at Sophia.

"Wow, babe!"

Because Sara screamed, other people stared at her and gave her looks.

Sara returned their looks and asked,

"What? Can't I be happy now?"

They returned to what they were doing, and Sara turned her attention back to Sophia.

"So? When did you come up with this plan? You didn't tell me about it before. I am angry with you, huh?"

Sophia would not have to go to the company today since Bryan had given her a day off. So she could relax and spend her time with her friends.

She held Sara's hand and said, "I was not sure about it. Last night, Beta Robert called Mom and asked for his permission."

"Alpha is so caring! I can't imagine your romantic date there." Sara said, resting her chin on her palm.

"We are just going to attend a meeting."

Sara sneered at Sophia. "Come on. You are going to visit a pack together. It's impossible that nothing will happen there."

Sophia blushed upon hearing Sara's words. She did not think so.

Every time Bryan got close to her, she always hugged him to stop him from going deeper. It was because she was afraid that if she gave in, he would change back to his old self. The attraction he felt for her would not be the same after getting her fully.

"Don't be afraid of anything. He is your mate. You can trust him." Sara patted her hand to assure her.

"You are right."

"By the way, be careful when you talk to the other Alphas there," Sara warned her.

Sophia was confused as to why she said that. Sara chuckled as she thought about something and reminded her,

"Have you forgotten how he talked to the professor about breaking up your study group?"

Sophia inhaled, recalling the night she went to dinner with Bryan at her favorite restaurant.

That night, when he dropped her home after dinner, he told her she did not have to do anything with Bruce. She assumed he would speak with Bruce about it. But instead of speaking with Bruce, he spoke directly to the professor.

He told her to break the group. When the professor asked how he would divide the marks because it was in the middle of submission, Bryan ordered him to tell the four students to submit whatever they had worked on up to this point and then give the group full marks.

The professor could not deny it because it was an order from the head Alpha. In fact, he felt lucky that Bryan himself called him. He believed that Bryan did that because of Bruce.

However, he was unaware of the truth. One brother set him up to form the group, while another brother forced him to break it.

They had just one girl in mind, and that was Sophia.

"It's just that Bruce is my ex-boyfriend, so..."

"Don't make excuses. I have seen him get jealous a few times."

Sophia chuckled as she admitted that.

"Where is Nolan?"

"He is with his dad. He said he had something to do, so he did not come today."

"I see."

"When are you leaving?"

"Tonight."

After talking with Sara for a long time, Sophia left the university to go to her house.

When she got home, she found her mother preparing food for her.

She spent the whole day with her mother.

In the evening, Sophia packed her luggage.

After having dinner with her, she got ready to leave.

"Take care of yourself, okay? Don't go anywhere and stay close to Alpha. It will keep people away from you when he is around."

Sophia hugged her mother and comforted her. "Mom, I will stay safe. Don't worry about me. I promise I will take care of you. But promise me, you will take your medicine on time."

"I promise," her mother replied with a smile.

Sophia got a call from Bryan and received it.

"Ma—"

She paused when she realized she had nearly called him mate in front of her mother.

She glanced at her mother. She cleared her throat and said,

"Alpha, I am leaving my house to head to the airpo—"

"What's the time?" Bryan's deep voice reached her ear.

She checked the time on her watch and saw that it was late at night. However, she still has time for the flight. She could easily get to the airport.

"Alpha, it will take me an hour to get to the airport. I will be there on time," she said, assuring him that she would not miss the flight.

Bryan remained quiet for a few seconds after hearing her.

Then, after a while, Sophia heard him again.

"I'm outside your house."
