

Chapter 231

"I don't know what's wrong with you. Why can't you just tell her what her boundaries are? She always speaks to you disrespectfully."

Beta Robert's irate voice echoed throughout the study room. He was in Bryan's home study with the other two officials to have a conversation with Bryan.

The moment Sophia left the party, they did not continue to stay there any longer, and they left as well.

Bryan's family and Mila's parents tried to stop Bryan, but he did not even remain there for ten minutes. Mila requested that he at least wait for the dinner, but he did not listen to her.

"If you will allow it, let me speak with Sophia. I will make her understand that what she is doing is not right. The past is past, and she should move on. Revenge is not a way," Delta Edger said.

Theta Noble nodded his head in agreement.

However, their Alpha was silent. In fact, he fell silent as soon as Sophia left his sight.

"Are you going to speak or not?" Robert asked with a frustrating tone.

He had a long night tonight. He was terrified because of the man sitting on the couch in front of him. He was afraid that he would lose control.

His fear was that Bryan would attack Victor after the conversation he had with Sophia and Abraham. However, to his surprise, Bryan was calm all the way. He did not even glance at Victor and left the party hall with a blank face.

Suddenly, someone flung the door open in the study room.

"Brother."

It was Bruce. He looked really mad.

Robert rubbed his forehead. He glanced at Theta Noble and muttered,

"Didn't I tell you to stop him from going to the party?"

"I tried. I believe his friends informed him about what happened at the party," Theta Noble replied.

Meanwhile, Bryan was listening to everyone in silence.

He ignored his officials' gazes and focused on Bruce.

He spoke for the first time since returning home.

"What?"

Bruce walked inside and replied,

"What am I hearing? Sophia is going to marry Alpha Victor? How is that even possible?"

With a clam face, Bryan replied, "You heard right. She is the soon-to-be Luna of the Moon Valley Pack."

Bruce's eyes widened. He shook his head with a disgusted face.

"H-How could you allow all of this to happen?"

Bryan raised a brow and asked,

"Now, what do you want me to do?"

Bruce was about to say something, but then he paused. He looked into his brother's eyes and then let out a chuckle.

"I also heard about what you did at the party, brother. I heard how you reacted."

After diverting his attention away from Bruce, Bryan reached out and grabbed the packet of cigarettes that was sitting on the tea table in front of him.

He lit a cigarette and inhaled the smoke. "I have a history with that man. I don't like him; that's why I wanted to stop it. But it looks like both of them want this marriage."

Bruce smirked at his big brother. "Brother, I had to sacrifice my love for you. Now the karma is returning to you. I know you don't want to share her with anyone. You want to keep her for yourself. But you can't stop the wedding now. Everything has already been announced."

Brayn's fingers around the cigarette froze, and his eyes darkened. He glared at his brother.

"Just because of mom and dad, I am letting you go today. Don't dare speak to me in that way ever again."

His deep voice shook everyone in the study room. He had gotten back to himself.

Bruce dropped his head and clenched his jaw. He was mad at his brother. He did not let him get close to Sophia, but now he had to give her up to another Alpha.

He turned around and stormed out of the study room in fury.

Bryan turned his gaze at Theta Noble and said,

"Go and see if he does anything stupid."

"Yes, Alpha."

Theta Noble exited the study room and followed Bruce.

After a long silence, Delta Edger spoke up.

"Bryan."

After brushing the ash from the smoke onto the ashtray, Bryan turned his attention to them. Taking a deep breath, Delta Edger uttered,

"Your silence is killing us, bro."

Beta Robert shook his head and muttered, "Why can't you just accept it already? How long will you behave like this?"

Bryan ignored his remarks and looked away from them. He got up from the couch and walked to the window beside the couch.

He stood near the window. It brought back memories of the time when he followed Sophia and saw her standing close to the window earlier tonight.

He could not put her out of his mind.

His friends stared at his back for a while. They were at a loss for words with him. Still, they tried to talk to him.

"Everything is messed up, Bryan. Victo—"

Bryan interrupted Edger, saying,

"I don't want to remind him of the past. For that one incident, I went calm and changed myself over the years. But if he keeps pushing my boundaries, I am not sure how long I will be able to control myself."

Robert and Edger exchanged a glance. Edger walked towards Bryan and said,

"We don't know what to say."

Robert shook his head and asked Bryan,

"Why can't you just clarify to us what you want? It is heating up. As your beta, I am not sure what to do. That man is just getting on my nerves."

"What will we do to Sophia?" Edger asked carefully.

Bryan frowned as he gazed at Edger.

The two men were nervous. Robert approached Bryan and said,

"You never let your own brother escape your punishment. But today, you let go of Abraham just because of Sophia. How long will you tolerate her disrespecting you? Should we teach her a lesson and burst the bubble she lives in?"

Bryan turned around to look outside the window. The forest view and the long trees caught his attention.

He could not help but scoff in his mind.

Disrespectful? She even dared to slap him a year ago, and he did not hurt her. In fact, he had rushed to save her from the orphanage in a single call.

He let out a sigh and muttered,

"She may be naive, but she is mine. No one is allowed to hurt my woman."
