

Chapter 301

After the long run, they returned home and shifted back.

Sophia was delighted after meeting Bryan's wolf. His wolf was giant. But it was as if he liked to play with her. He loved her and her wolf.

Sophia went to take a shower. She felt addicted after the run and the closeness of her mate.

However, when she came out of the shower, she felt a little dizzy.

She immediately grabbed the doorknob of the bathroom. She shook her head and walked to the dressing table while wiping her hair with a towel.

She thought it was because of her weak health. But she began to feel something different.

She glanced at herself in the mirror and saw her eyes turn ocean blue.

She experienced a sensation in her lower abdomen. She grabbed her belly and clutched her nightgown until she realized what was happening to her.

She bit her bottom lip and mumbled,

"I'm in my heat!"

She left the bedroom and went to the staircase.

She saw Bryan in a black night robe that was loosening around his chest.

Sophia gulped as her eyes scanned him like prey.

She was losing her mind with every passing moment.

But there was something else that she needed to discover, and that was Bryan's strange behavior.

"Bryan."

She called him. He was sitting on a couch. When he heard her voice, he ignored her.

He stood up and spoke up without looking at her.

"Sophia, I'm leaving the house for tonight. Please don't come out of the house and sleep in the room. I will be back tomorrow morning."

Sophia did not know what had happened to him suddenly. She could not even tell him about her heat.

She saw him avoiding her gaze as he made his way to the door to leave the house.

She shook her head, as she did not want him to leave, not tonight.

Her wolf started to growl as she wanted their mate. So Sophia rushed downstairs to stop him.

Just as Bryan touched the door to open it, Sophia hugged him from behind.

"Please, don't leave me."

Bryan grabbed her hand and turned to him. "I am not leaving you, but I am only going out for tonight."

He paused when he saw her eyes, which were different from other times. The eyes that were filled with tears and the lips that were swollen beckoned him to devour them.

But his eyes widened when he smelled her different scent.

"Are you..."

Sophia nodded her head innocently and replied,

"I am in my heat, Bryan. I want you. I don't want you to leave me."

The softness of her voice and the broken tone of her voice caused his wolf to growl. She could see him clenching his jaw as if he were mad.

She placed her hand on his slightly exposed chest, slowly moving down her fingers until it reached his member.

She was shocked when she found it hard.

She gasped when Bryan grabbed her wrist tightly and pushed her away from him.

His veins appeared to pop on his neck and forehead, and his eyes turned red. It appeared as though he was trying to exert control over himself.

"Don't try to seduce me, Omega. I am in my root tonight. If I hover over you, I will ruin you."

Sophia was surprised. She understood that their heat and root came to them together following their encounter with each other's wolves.

In their roots, alphas lost their minds. It was the time they wanted to have sex, as they did not feel tired and they could take their mate all night long.

Meanwhile, she-wolves in heat also wanted the same. They desired to mate with a male wolf who would be willing to take them throughout the night.

It looked like fate had planned the night only for them. It was extremely rare for mates to get heat and root together.

It might be very pleasurable for others, but not for Bryan.

He was trying his best to control himself, but the scent of pheromones that Sophia's body was releasing could not help him.

All he wanted to do was take her right now.

"I can't do it," he muttered, fighting with his lust.

He was in his senses, so he was trying to stop his wolf from taking over.

But Sophia did not want that. She wanted Bryan to have sex with her tonight.

She did not think about anything else as she moved toward him. She cupped his cheeks with her soft hands and tilted her head.

"I want you so bad, Alpha. Please do it to me," she said, smashing her lips against his.

That was the time he lost all control over himself. He wrapped his arms around her body and kissed her deeply.

Taking her in his arms, he made his way upstairs. She moaned, as she could not handle herself. She began to feel pain in her lower abdomen as she felt herself wet.

After throwing her onto the bed, Bryan climbed up on top of her body.

As if he had lost his sanity, he pressed his body against hers and started to kiss her roughly.

She felt his hard member poke her upper thigh. She let out a hiss as his hand moved down to her nightgown and gently stroked her thigh before reaching her entrance.

In a blink of an eye, he ripped her dress. He took off his night robe and tossed it where he did not even know.

"Aaahh!"

She moaned when his hard member touched her core. He rubbed it against her entrance while sucking her breast and kneading the other one.

When he was on the bed, he transformed into a real beast. It was his groans that prompted her to moan even more than she already had.

He had gone crazy when he felt how wet she was for him. She was slicking, and the scent was killing him, turning him even more than before.

He looked into her eyes before shoving his member inside. She moaned loudly, feeling full after a long time.

He groaned and said,

"I will fuck you tonight for as long as you want."
