

Chapter 336

"Ryan"

Ryan looked at Joey and smiled at her.

"Oh my beautiful Aunt! Still looking so beautiful, even more than my mother." He came and hugged her.

Allison frowned at him. 'Is he flirting with my mother? At least let my mother leave!!! Now I know why my father dislikes this boy so much.' She thought.

Joey hit his arm lightly and chuckled. "You and your cheeky lines. When did you become like this?"

Ryan shook his head. "I just say what's true. But people don't believe me." He said and glanced at Allison.

Allison rolled her eyes. "Mom, I am going to meet Alpha and Luna." She said as she walked to the right side.

Ryan looked at her dress and then at her.

"Don't mind her, Ryan." Joey said as she thought Ryan took it in mind about Allison not greeting him.

"Not at all. What do you think about her new looks?" He asked her, still looking at Allison.

"It is good. But she does not look happy. She always stays in her room. Sometimes I really feel worried about it."

Ryan nodded. "Stop worrying. She will be fine soon."

"Ryan, frankly you were not here so you could not get along with Ethan and Allison well. That's why the situation is awkward between you three right now." She tried to make him understand that it was not his fault.

Ryan turned to her and smirked,

"Don't bother. I will get along really well."

"Okay, now I go and meet your parents."

"Sure."

Meanwhile, Allison talked to Alpha Neil and Luna Ella.

"Allison, my daughter!" Alpha Neil said and stroked her head.

"Alpha, how are you?"

"I am fine, tell me about you. How are you now?"

"I am totally now, Alpha."

"I am glad you arrived early. "Where has your mother gone?"

"She is talking..." Allison glanced around and saw her mother approaching them. "Here she is."

Her mother greeted them. Her father eventually joined them. He arrived late since he had some outside duties to do.

Allison felt lonely at the party. Because she only had one friend, and that was Teresa. She did not attend this party since it was just for royals and pack officials. The Alpha and his officials' families were the only ones invited.

Allison sat on a sofa and gazed around the corridor. The birthday boy had not come to his celebration yet.

Allison reminded herself that she did not care.

She returned to the pack house after two years. She was last here for a get-together. The pack house had not changed in the least.

"Feeling bored alone?"

Allison turned her head and saw the person she did not want to see. Ryan was that person.

He was dressed all in black. In suits, he seemed more mature than in casual attire. He even back-brushed his hair, revealing his deep brow.

Allison did not respond. She kept her gaze fixed on the opposite side.

He sat next to her. "Are you mad at me?"

When she heard his whisper, her eyes stopped moving.

She turned to him and glared at him,

"Stay away from me."

"Tsk. So we came back to the first stage when we met in the club?" He asked with a grin.

"This is all fun for you, right?"

Ryan shook his head. "Can you just relax?"

"No, I can't. Just go. Why are you here? Don't you dislike Ethan? Just leave his party."

"Sure. But in one condition."

"What?"

"If you come with me." He smirked.

"Don't talk to me again."

She stood up and went to another side. She was pissed off by him.

Her father saw everything and came to her.

"Is Ryan disturbing you?"

"No, Dad. Why did you think so?"

"I saw him talking to you."

"He was just talking about school things."

"Be careful of him."

"Yes, Dad."

The party went well as Allison started to chat with Teresa on her phone.

Suddenly Allison's eyes fell outside. She saw Ethsn entering the pack house. He was also in a black suit and white shirt. Look like a dashing man.

Allison looked away. She should avoid him. He destroyed her birthday night totally, now she came to his birthday. How funny was it!

Everyone met him. They looked straight at him and tried to introduce their daughters to him.

Some of them tried to meet with Ryan too. But how silly they were! They did not even know that their daughters already had done everything with him.

When it was 12 am, everyone gathered around Ethan. A cake was arranged for the birthday boy which was decorated with black food color. White pearls were scattered over the cake.

He cut the cake and others clapped. He fed the pieces of cake to Alpha Neil and Luna Ella.

Then he shocked everyone including Allison.

He came to her with a piece and reached it close to her mouth.

Allison was stunned. Everyone was looking at them. If she did not eat the cake, they would think of something else. She ate the cake and mumbled,

"Happy Birthday."

To her surprise, he smiled at her and nodded.

He said something to her father and her father said,

"Allison, Ethan has something to talk to you about. Go with him."

"What?"

"Just go and listen to him."

Allison did not know why his father ordered her to go with him.

She went to the garden with Ethan.

They were walking in the garden side by side.

"What did you tell my father?"

"I have discussed something with him so I just confirmed it."

"What confirmation?" She asked and walked ahead, Ethan was following her behind.

"You will begin training here tomorrow. You must practice to become a strong wolf."

"I don't need it." You don't have to worry about my safety any more."

Ethan stopped walking and looked at her back.

He was silent for some time. Then he did not know what came to his mind.

He rushed to her with a speed that an Alpha had, grabbed her arm, and turned her to him.

She was taken aback by the sudden closeness. He looked into her eyes and said,

"Allison, forgive me."
