

Chapter 384

"What are you saying? Who attacked him?" Alpha Neil asked.

"Who knows? Maybe some of their enemies." Beta Glen replied.

Alpha Neil's eyes turned dark. "Though I stopped the boundary, that did not mean I would forgive Alpha Easton for what he did with my son."

"Oh really? What will you do?" Ryan spoke out.

Everyone's eyes shifted to him. He was sitting on the couch, leaning his back against the backrest.

"Let me guess." He put his finger on his chin and dabbed for a few seconds as if he was thinking of the possibilities.

"Yes, I got it. You will stop the pack business with him. Or maybe ask another pack to do the same because I don't think you have the guts to announce a war against that Alpha."

"RYAN"

Luna Ella yelled and glared at him.

"Mom, stop yelling. I am telling you all the facts."

Ethan sent a quick glance in the direction of his father, Alpha Neil, who was incensed by Ryan's statement because it was so openly disrespectful to him.

"Ryan, can't you just shut your mouth?" Ethan said.

"Listen, Big bro. I did not have any interest in staying here. Your father was the one who told me to join in. Now that I have just spoken out my opinions, you all are trying to shut my mouth. Is it a fact? You all are bullying me." Ryan replied with an innocent face.

Allison rolled her eyes at this sassy man. She assumed he was intentionally doing or saying something to enrage others.

"Do you think declaring a war is easy? What do you think? What is a war? You have never been to war. You know nothing about fighting. So don't say anything nonsense." Beta Glen said to Ryan. He could not control himself to defend his Alpha when Ryan talked about those things.

Ryan looked at Beta Glen and was about to say something, but stopped when his eyes fell on Allison. She was staring at him.

He nodded his head and replied to Beta Glen,

"You are right. I know nothing about fighting and war."

Alpha Neil did not argue with Ryan since his answer was given by his Beta.

After a minute of silence, everyone again started to talk again.

However, Allison's eyes did not move away from Ryan. Her eyes were following his every move.

She had no idea why this man constantly made his parents dislike him.

Ryan began to use his phone once again. He got a call, so he went to receive the call in the garden.

When he returned, everyone was headed to the dining room.

"Join us for dinner." Luna Ella requested Ryan.

Ryan did not reject her request and joined them at the dining table.

Allison sat down on a chair. Ethan sat beside him. Surprisingly, Ryan sat opposite her.

She tried her best to avoid him.

"Allison, what is your future plan?" Alpha Neil asked her.

"Yes, Alpha?" She turned her head at him.

"What will you do after graduation?"

"I want to get a good job after graduation."

"Job? Why would you work outside? You are welcome to join my company. You can work with any of my companies. You are free to choose any position. I have faith in your abilities."

She smiled at him but said nothing. She desired to pursue something based on her own credentials.

"You don't need to do anything outside because you will have to handle the entire pack with me in the future." Ethan spoke to her in hushed tones.

She put down her fork and looked at him. When he observed her reaction, he laughed.

She turned back to her plate, but she froze when she noticed Ryan staring at her.

His eyes were profound and dark. He looked indifferent. But his eyes were telling her that he was enraged.

Her heart was beating like a marathon. Inside, her wolf was wailing. She felt distressed in her heart for no reason.

He looked away from her and continued eating. She did not comprehend what was happening to her.

After dinner, Beta Glen asked Alpha Neil to permit them to leave.

"Allison, you are like my daughter. Even though Ethan is fully recovered, you are welcome to visit this pack house at any time. I miss you daily, honey." Luna Ella said to Allison.

Allison hugged her. In one month, she became close to Luna Ella. They spent a lot of time together while she was taking care of Ethan.

About Ethan, she felt it was her responsibility to take care of him since he had saved her.

"I will." Allison replied to her.

Ryan walked out of the pack house as if he was getting bored.

He stood outside and was about to light a cigarette but stopped when he heard a voice behind him.

"Ryan"

He turned around and smiled at Allison's mother, Joey.

"Yes, Aunt?"

She walked to him and said, "I am leaving, so I thought to talk to you."

"Yeah."

"How are you?"

He stared at Joey for a while before replying,

"Good."

"You know how Alpha Neil is, dear. Don't worry about his words. He adores you tremendously. The same is true for your mother. Don't be disrespectful to them. They truly love you." She attempted to persuade him of the facts.

He shook his head and replied, "They only love Ethan. But it doesn't matter to me anymore."

"Look, what you do in your personal life will affect your future. Your mate will be upset about your actions."

Ryan scoffed when he heard her. "Yeah, mate."

"What?"

"Nothing, Aunt. Tell me. How are you? Don't mind if I somehow spoke inappropriately to your husband." He said and winked at her.

She chuckled. "You are a good boy. You can be happy with others if you stay calm."

He nodded his head. Beta Glen, Jennifer, and Ethan came out of the pack house. They noticed them and approached them.

Beta Glen gave Ryan a sidelong glance but did not say anything.

Joey smiled at Ryan and went to the car with Beta Glen.

Only Ryan, Allison, and Ethan were left there.

Allison headed to the car when Ethan stopped her.

"Allison"

She turned to him, and he pulled her into a hug.

She was stunned at first, but then she hugged him back.

"Bye." Ethan said, breaking the hug.

"Bye." She replied.

She glanced at Ryan. He started to walk to the other side while smoking.
