

Chapter 397

Ryan paused eating when he heard Ethan. Everyone turned their heads at him.

Allison was perplexed. She did not know that Ryan went to live beside the Black Moon's pack.

"For a few months? Why did he go to live in the Black Moon pack's neighbor pack?"

Ryan looked at Ethan. His eyes turned dark.

"Who told you about it?"

Alpha Neil was the one who responded to him instead of Ethan, saying,

"You were always under my men's eyes. I was aware of your location at all times. I never stopped keeping an eye on you."

Ryan turned his head to him and smirked,

"Yeah, I can see how you kept your eyes on me. You know everything about me. Great."

Alpha Neil clenched his fists. "Stop mocking your own father. It was only due to the fact that you discovered who my spy was. That was the reason why you were able to cut ties with us."

"Since you just mentioned yourself as my father, allow me to tell you one thing. I told you when I left this pack that I do not have any relationship with any of you, and I stand by that statement. You were the one who invited me to attend the coronation of your son, and I gladly accepted. Who knows what you have in your mind? Perhaps you thought my eyes were on your son's throne."

"RYAN"

Luna Ella yelled at Ryan. It did not affect him at all.

Alpha Neil glared at Ryan and said,

"What did you say? I thought your eyes were on my son's throne? Are you kidding me, young man? Do you even have the capability to handle a few pack fighters? You are talking about ruling the whole pack!"

Allison's eyes were on Ryan. Alpha Neil's words hurt her.

"Why is he taunting Ryan like this? I know he is ill-mannered, but why does Alpha Neil always talk about his weakness?" She thought about it and felt a pain in her heart.

She was feeling like Alpha Neil was not scolding Ryan, but her. She lowered her head and listened to the conversation silently.

"Dad, let it go." Ethan said to Alpha Neil.

"Let it go, you said? How? Can't you see how he is behaving with his parents? People respect me because of my manners, but my own son is mannerless."

Ryan rose up from his seat. Joey looked at him and tried to stop him.

"Ryan, my son, please sit down. Don't leave without finishing your food."

"No, Aunt. I am not this family member, they all know this better than me. I was eating quietly, wasn't I? Why do they keep lighting the fire when they have no chance of putting it out?"

Everyone fell into complete silence. Ryan had made his way to the door and stopped there.

He spoke out without turning around,

"And yes. I know many people from the Black Moon Pack. You were interested in learning more about their Alpha, right? Let me inform you. He is so cruel that his pack members call him the ice king. It is not necessary for him to travel to another pack in order to butter up the other Alphas. Because as soon as someone has the audacity to discontinue doing business with his pack, he will begin an attack on that pack and destroy it to the end."

The statements of Ryan were mocking Alpha Neil and Ethan.

Alpha Neil stood up in anger. The loud sound of his chair being moved resounded across the entire dining area.

"You! You dare to say that I went to butter up Alpha Axel? You meant that Ethan is not capable of fighting with that Black Moon pack's Alpha if he attacks this pack?"

Ryan turned his head to his father and smirked,

"He is the ruler of the biggest pack for a reason, Alpha Neil. Stop dreaming that he will even attack your small pack one day."

After saying that, Ryan left the dining room.

Everyone stared at the door for a second, then turned their heads to Alpha Neil.

He was fuming. His eyes turned red. He looked like he would shift in no time.

Ethan was equally as enraged. But all he was attempting to do was put his father at ease.

Alpha Neil left the dining room while Ethan ran after him.

"He crossed the bottom line today." Beta Glen said that and went after Alpha Neil.

Luna Ella's tears began to fall, Joey comforted her by patting her on the back.

Allison left the dining room and went upstairs.

She knew what Alpha Neil told Ryan was not good. But Ryan reacted in a very disrespectful manner toward his father.

How could he tell his father that some other Alpha would come and destroy his pack?

It was an impolite thing to say to anyone.

Allison stood outside his room and was hesitant to knock on the door.

She touched the doorknob and saw that the door was not locked from inside.

She opened the door.

Ryan came to her view. He was smoking while standing beside the window.

She closed the door and heard him,

"Leave me alone."

She paid him no attention and continued walking in his direction. She snatched the cigarette out of his hand and flung it out the window.

He glared at her. She folded her arms against her chest.

"Why did you say those things to your father?"

He looked away from her and said,

"Not now. I am already enraged. I don't want to take out my anger on you."

"No, you have to tell me. Why did you say those things? Why do you continually treat your family with such disrespect? You could have answered nicely when Ethan asked you something."

She saw him closing his eyes and clenching his jaw as if he was trying to keep his anger under control.

"Ryan, what hap-"

She was interrupted by a loud sound. He punched the wall next to the window with his fist. She was startled by his action.

"Just leave me alone, Allison." He muttered.

Due to the force of the strike, his hand was bleeding. Allison could not stop herself and grabbed his hand. She felt her tears running down her cheeks.

"Ryan, y-your hand is b-bleeding."
