

Chapter 476

Allison's eyes were fixed on Ryan. The alphas of different packs gathered around him just to greet him once.

He was the main character of the party. In fact, he was the most wanted man in all of the packs.

She could see others' behavior in front of him. At such a young age, he built such a massive castle that others could not even dare touch one stone of it.

He was the Alpha with the most success and an accomplished businessman who effortlessly maintained his dominance over them.

"Did the two of you have a fight?" Allison heard Ella's question.

"No. We can't fight. He believes that I am not strong enough to converse with him. Therefore, the conflict is not even close to it." While she was looking at Ryan, she whispered.

"What are you saying? Did Ethan say that? I am going to grab his ear and tell him that he needs to apologize to you."

"Ethan?" Allison asked and came back to her senses.

She turned to Ella and smiled at her. "Don't do anything. I was just-"

"No, Allison. I think it's normal to have fights in couples. Do you know something? Fights and distance make love stronger. Because when people own their shortcomings and comprehend their blunders, they move closer to one another."

Allison glanced at Ryan and cursed herself for relating him to every single thing.

"But I think he is extremely regretful. He was really upset and angry when he returned to the pack house today."

Allison frowned in confusion. "Returned? Where was he?"

"He left last night and did not come back until early in the morning. He looked distressed. I asked him what had happened to him. He just said that he was out for a run."

"Run?"

She recalled that before her, he left the pack house after telling her that his driver would drop her home.

"So he ran for the whole night? Why?" She thought about it and tried to locate him.

As her eyes wandered, Ella understood that she was searching for Ethan.

"He is drinking nonstop. I think you two should clear up your misunderstandings. He is the head Alpha of this pack. Other Alphas are trying to greet him, but he is not giving them a chance and has made himself busy."

"Don't worry, Aunt. I will talk to him."

Ella gave her a nod in relief and gestured her toward the bar area.

Allison found Ethan sitting on a stool. He was looking somewhere while drinking.

Allison walked to him and stood next to him. He was so lost looking somewhere that he did not realize that she came to speak to him.

Allison followed his eyes and looked in the direction he was looking.

"An apple juice for her." Someone ordered the bartender.

Allison was stunned and turned her head beside her. She saw Vernon standing beside her.

She raised her brows at him. He glanced at her and asked,

"What?"

"Nothing." She replied with a warm smile.

She was surprised that Vernon remembered what drink she preferred.

He formerly worked as a bartender in a club that belonged to this pack. At the time, she was unaware of the fact that he served as one of the authorities for a powerful pack. She could not believe how effortlessly Ryan and his officials hid their identities and carried on as if they were just living a normal life here. Despite the fact that they were the wealthiest people, they did not exhibit any signs of arrogance.

"Here is your drink." The bartender handed her a drink. She grabbed the glass and turned her head toward Ethan. Now he was looking at her.

He glanced behind her at Vernon with a pair of incensed eyes. But Vernon ignored him, as if he did not sit there for any fight but only to have drinks.

"You were so busy looking somewhere. I can see these days. You are lost. What happened to you, Ethan?" Allison asked him.

Ethan looked away and chugged down the drink from the glass in his hand.

He did not respond to her. She stared at him while observing him carefully. She sipped her drink and then roamed her eyes around the hall.

Her eyes met a pair of dark eyes. She immediately averted her eyes.

Ethan got on his feet, and she also followed him.

"Alpha, nice to meet you. We were looking for you. We thought you would be the one who introduced us to Alpha Ryan."

A few Alphas approached them and said to Ethan.

They glanced at Allison and greeted her.

"Should we call you Luna? We got the invitation to your wedding. We are eager to attend your wedding next month."

Allison could only smile at them politely. She did not know what to answer. She knew Ethan and the whole pack's reputation would be destroyed when a girl rejected the marriage proposal or called off the wedding with the head Alpha.

"I thought it was Alpha Ryan's day. So I gave you all the time to meet him freely." Ethan replied calmly.

"You should count your blessings that he is your brother. Alpha Neil never introduced him to us before. We wonder why. Perhaps he has no interest in your pack and went for the biggest pack to rule." Another voice came from behind the Alphas, who were standing there.

These Alphas made a slight movement, which allowed the man who was speaking to go closer to them.

"Alpha Easton."

Ethan recognized the man who approached them slowly. He was the second biggest pack, the East Flow pack's head Alpha.

Allison was taken aback by looking at the young man. She remembered that he was the one who attacked Ethan two years ago. Because of him, he almost lost his life.

"How are you, Alpha Ethan?" He asked and smirked.

Ethan's fists tightened, which Allison noticed clearly. She held his hand and patted his hand with her palm to prevent him from doing anything that would leave a bad impression later.

"Oh! Beauty! Who is she?" Alpha Easton asked as his eyes fell on Allison.

"She is our future Luna." Wade replied, and he came to handle the situation.

"I can't believe it. What a fate! She is gorgeous." He muttered.

Ethan almost growled at him, but Ryan's voice stopped him.

"Not more than your sister, East."

Everyone's attention was drawn to Ryan. It was Elora who brought him there.

Easton rolled his eyes. His amazed face turned grim.

"Ryan, long time no see." He let out an enraged tone.

"No see? Did you want to see me? You should have contacted me. I am always free for vacation. Can't you see me right now? I am here for vacation." Ryan said and let out a chuckle.

Everyone laughed when they heard Ryan but paused when they heard his next sentence.

"Until someone provokes me because, after that, my vacation turns into war."
