

Chapter 505

When Neil heard his son, he was overjoyed beyond measure. His joy knew no bounds.

"Are you taking us to your pack for a visit?" He asked Ryan with a grin on his face.

"You don't have to visit that pack. That's also your pack. You all are going to live there since I won this pack."

Neil hugged his son. "I don't have any regrets that you won this pack. You deserve it. You even saved your brother. You saved your father, too. I can't express to you how much I am feeling proud of you."

Allison was staring at them. For a moment, she forgot about her pain and felt the father-son moment.

She wiped her tears, witnessing the hug. It reminded her of about two years ago. She wanted Ryan to be with his family like this. She always wanted him to feel his family's emotions.

Now, she could understand why he did not want to forgive her.

She deserved his anger.

She had promised him that she would always be with him, but he felt betrayed by her, just like he felt by his family. That time, he was all alone. He had no one to make him feel what love was. She was the only one with him. However, she broke his heart. He had been waiting for her for two years, but she could not end up going back to him.

Now, when everything was getting fine, how could she go to him and expect him to forgive her?

He closed his heart for her. He would not love her back.

Allison found Ryan glancing at her while hugging his father.

She turned around and walked toward the door. However, her steps halted when she heard Alpha Neil.

"Glen told me that you had a conversation with him. He said you talked to him about making Allison your Luna. I am very happy about your decision, Ryan."

Allison turned her head to look at Ryan. When her eyes met his, he looked away from her and replied to his father,

"It's her destiny. Since she is my mate, she will have to be my Luna. The Black Moon Pack is waiting for their Luna anyway."

Allison's eyes widened. She could not believe her ears. She thought he would reject her when he told her that their relationship would not be like before. But he actually considered her his Luna, which surprised her.

She bit her lower lip and left the room in happiness. She did not know if she should cry or laugh.

"He will not reject me!" She mumbled and headed back to the room where she was staying.

Her cheeks flushed when she remembered Ryan's words.

"Am I destined to be with him? Yeah, he is right. We are destined to be with each other."

She came to her room and closed the door. She rushed to the bed and hissed when she felt pain in her wrist.

She pushed the pain aside and thought about her future.

"Oh my god! I will be his Luna!"

She still could not believe it. She had never imagined that they could be with each other again.

Was she dreaming?

She sat on her bed for a while. Although everyone told her to take a nap, after hearing all of this, how could she sleep?

"No, I need to try to sleep. We will all depart for the Black Moon Pack. If I don't take a rest, what will the pack members think about their Luna's gloomy face?" She started to feel self-conscious.

"I can't let Ryan feel down in front of them." She said and fell on the bed.

Her eyes were fixed on the ceiling. She thought about how broken Ryan could be.

"I promise you, I will try my best to win your heart, My Alpha. I will never break your heart again. Just give me this last chance."

She felt that she had her whole life to grab the chance. She would win his heart one day.

When it was night, everyone was ready with their bags. Neil and Ella were very excited about going to their son's pack.

"Calm down, Neil." Ella said and chuckled.

"How can I? I can't stop feeling excited. This is what I thought about him. Whenever I scolded him, I always thought that one day he would do something to make me proud. But I was a fool. My son was a true blood Alpha. How could we not know that, Ella? Do you know how I felt when he called me Dad? He told me his pack was ours now. He wants to be with us together."

Ella nodded at him and hugged him. "I am thrilled, Neil. I hope all the evil eyes will stay away from us."

"I am feeling like everything is going to be fine now." Neil replied and hugged her back.

When everyone came to the living room, all the maids came behind them, assisting them to hold their luggage.

Meanwhile, Allison was getting ready in the room. Her mother and Teresa were with her.

"Let's go. We are getting late." Her mother, Joey, said to her.

"Yes, Mom." Allison said and turned to her. There was a bright smile on her face.

Joey felt like crying when she saw the smile on her daughter's face after a long time.

Teresa hugged Joey. "Aunt, don't cry. We have a long way to go now."

Joey nodded and signaled them to leave first.

Allison was wearing a long black gown. It was so simple, without any design, yet it looked gorgeous on her.

She wore black intentionally. Teresa helped her to get this dress. Teresa was so ecstatic at hearing the news that Allison was going to be their Luna that she even instructed a set of the female members of their pack to prepare a warm welcome for Allison in their pack house.

Allison reached the living room and noticed that everyone was leaving the pack house.

Her eyes caught Ethan, and he waved at her. She smiled and waved at him back. There was no misunderstanding now. In fact, she should say thanks to him for helping her when he heard her life was in danger.

When Allison exited the pack house, she noticed a bunch of cars standing outside. Everyone was getting in the car. She saw Ethan get in his car. In the back seat, Eora was sitting there. She wanted to go and say hi to her. But Teresa grabbed her hand and gestured to another car.

"Talk to others later. Now focus on your man. He is leaving alone."

Allison saw Max open that car's back door and was about to get in. Teresa shouted and called him,

"MAX"

Max turned to them. Teresa dragged Allison with her and walked to that car.

"Babe, I am not feeling well. Come with me." Teresa said to her mate.

"But you should go with Elora. She needs you right now."

Teresa glared at him and then signaled him with her head to Allison. Max understood what she was trying to do.

"Ah, yeah. You are right. We can both go with Elora. That car has two more seats."

"Right." Teresa said and chuckled.

Max bent to the window. That time, Allison realized that it was Ryan's car. He was sitting in the back seat.

Max looked at Ryan and said,

"Bro, Tess is not feeling well. I am going with her."

Ryan gave him an annoyed look and glanced at his driver.

The driver was about to start the car, but before that, Teresa pulled Allison's hand and pushed her inside the car beside Ryan.

Allison fell on Ryan's chest with a pair of wide eyes. She heard the loud sound of the door closing.

Allison shut her eyes and scolded Teresa in her mind. She slowly raised her head to look at Ryan.

She could see his cold eyes. She immediately moved away from him and sat properly.

She turned her head to him and grinned sheepishly.

"S-Sorry."

Ryan looked away from her and ordered the driver,

"Start the car."
