

Chapter 511

Allison was trying to know everything that she should know about the pack from Teresa. She took some rest in her new bedroom.

When it was afternoon, maids came to wake her up. They served her late lunch and informed her that everyone had their lunch in their own rooms.

Allison thanked them for serving her meal, which surprised the maids. They were happy that they were getting a very soft-hearted Luna. Because Elora was cold toward them all these times.

Allison thought she should not behave coldly toward anyone. She could get back to her old self now.

A maid came to her room with a dress in the evening.

The stunning black dress with the stones completely astounded Allison. It had a shiny appearance when viewed under the lights. After a while, Teresa came to her room and asked,

"Did you get the dress?"

"Yeah, you sent me that dress?"

"Yes, I called our royal designer to organize the best dress for you. She chose this dress for tonight."

"Thanks, Tess. You are really my sister from another mother."

"Anything for my honey. I was feeling so regretful when you told me the truth in your room that day. I was upset that I could not be there with you to help you. But this time, I am here with you. You should wrap the man around your fingers."

Allison chuckled at Teresa's words. Her best friend was funny.

Teresa helped Allison put on makeup. She gave her a perfect look for tonight. In between doing makeup, Teresa kept telling her about sub-Alphas and their families. She enlightened her about the rules and regulations of the Black Moon Pack.

When Allison put on the dress and styled her hair, she looked gorgeous.

"I am at a loss for words to fully convey how stunningly gorgeous you are looking at this very moment. The instant he lays eyes on you, that iceberg will begin to melt." Teresa made a statement while laughing.

Allison thanked Teresa. She told her to go and get ready. After giving her the advice to pair the outfit with black heels, Teresa exited the room.

Allison took a glance at her reflection in the mirror. She was staring at herself.

"Can my look move your heart? Or are your pack members right that you are a cold-hearted man? I know that's not true, but just a wrong assumption."

She glanced at her wrist. A few hours ago, when she took a shower before getting ready, she opened her bandage and realized that her wrist had healed. She understood how the wound could heal so quickly. Ryan helped her without letting her know about it, just like in past times.

She smiled while stroking her wrist.

When it was time for her to go, she heard a knock on the door.

A few of the housemaids approached her and informed her that the party had begun in the living hall.

Allison came out of her room and took a few moments to take in her surroundings. She was able to see the doors to a number of other rooms. She made a move to head in the direction of the stairway. At that time, Teresa emerged from the room.

"Going downstairs?" Teresa asked with a grin. Allison gave her a nod.

"Let's go."

Teresa and Allison went downstairs. As soon as the people in the living hall noticed them getting down the stairs, everyone fell silent and gave Allison their undivided attention. They were already familiar with Teresa because she was Beta's wife at the time. But they understood that next to her was Allison, their Alpha's mate, and their soon-to-be Luna.

Allison looked at the decoration of the hall. It looked breathtaking.

She glanced at the two women who were smiling at her. She walked to them.

"Aunt Ella, Mom." She said.

"My daughter-in-law is such a stunning lady!" Ella said and stroked her hair. Meanwhile, Joey stared at her daughter with affection in her eyes.

Allison glanced around and saw many new faces. Due to the fact that she was a trained Luna, she did not experience any nervousness about meeting them. She was no stranger to social gatherings, having done so previously.

However, she was nervous to meet a man. Her eyes caught a glimpse of that man. She saw him standing with their fathers. Ethan was also with them.

"Go to your man. Just do it. Keep your head up and have faith in who you are." Teresa spoke to her in a hushed tone.

Allison began to move in Ryan's direction as she walked. Her steps almost halted when his eyes met hers.

But she did not stop and walked to him. She could see his eyes fall on her dress and then shift back to her face. She could not read his eyes as he was standing there expressionless.

"Come here, my beautiful daughter." Neil said and patted her head. Glen smiled at her. On the other hand, Ethan was silently standing there. In spite of the fact that he wanted to compliment her on her appearance, he refrained from doing so for Ryan. He did not want to have any conflict with his brother again.

Allison stood beside Ryan and looked at him. The other three men left them alone to have a conversation.

But she could not talk to him because other Alphas came to meet them.

"We have our Luna here." One of them said.

Ryan introduced Allison to them and their families.

Allison could see their nervous faces while standing before Ryan. Allison did not want to make them feel any more nervous about the situation. She addressed them in a manner that was respectful, and this caused them to feel extremely drawn to her.

Allison observed that Ryan was getting ready to go away from her as soon as they were back to being alone together.

She immediately reached out and locked her arm with his, then asked,

"Where are you running away from me, Alpha Ryan?"

Ryan turned his head toward her and frowned at her without replying.

Allison chuckled and asked,

"Why are you not saying anything? Let's try to think of something to chat about, shall we? What about my look?"

"Venom."

Her jaw dropped as she scowled at him. "Excuse me? What did you just say?"

"You are poisonous to me. I should keep my distance from you." He replied calmly.

She tried to control herself, though she was convinced that this man would not melt down so quickly.

"If you don't want me, why did you announce our marriage?" She asked him without breaking eye contact, nor did she unlock their arms.

"Because you are my mate."

She leaned toward him and asked, "What about your heart?"

"I don't have a heart."

"But I do."

"Bad for you." He muttered.

"Did you say something?"

"No. Leave my hand. I have to go somewhere."

"Where?"

"Somewhere where no one can disturb me."

She grinned at him and let go of his arm before saying,

"Make it a habit, Alpha Ryan. Because I'm going to disturb you just like you disturbed me two years ago. Let me see how many days you can keep your distance from me."
