

EVERYTHING IS TOO EASY AFTER MAXING MY TALENTS

Chapter 12

Human Tyrannosaurus Li Yueming, Everyone is Shocked!

Below the reception hall.

The bosses were furious.

In their opinion.

Cao Xin's act of spreading knowledge and culture to a group of refugees was undoubtedly a complete betrayal.

If not for Zhou Shenhai's reputation,

This group of bosses had probably torn Cao Xin into pieces by now.

But even so...

The atmosphere was tense.

Following Zhou Shenhai's order, a group of strong men rushed over.

These were the most elite personal guards under the three kings, known as the royal guards.

Every attack contained the wrath of the three kings.

It stirred up the storm in the Underground World.

Cao Xin was scared out of his wits and sat down on the chair.

After all, even if it was him.

He had only heard of the legend of the guards.

In the past, Zhou Shenhai had only mobilized less than twenty guards.

It nailed the head of a powerful boss to the door.

And this time, it was just to capture him.

The guards had mobilized nearly 20 people.

Cao Xin would never have dreamed of it.

He had actually enjoyed such treatment one day.

No doubt.

As long as he fell into their hands, it would definitely be a miserable outcome.

Cao Xin gritted his teeth.

He was prepared to commit suicide as soon as possible to preserve his last shred of dignity.

And yet, at this critical moment, a voice suddenly sounded, "Wait a minute!"

The young man's voice was very indifferent.

But it was extremely clear.

Instantly, the entire venue fell silent because of these three short words.

The group of bosses looked at each other.

They saw the bewilderment in each other's eyes.

They finally calmed down.

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice.

Behind Cao Xin, a handsome young man slowly stood up.

And so, the group of bosses widened their eyes even more.

Li Yueming's identity had previously aroused speculations.

A more unified view, this confirmed to them that Li Yueming should be Cao Xin's illegitimate son.

After all, the fat woman was not an ordinary person.

Li Yueming could still act as if nothing had happened after offending her and even obtained Cao Xin's protection.

Other than the fact that he was Cao Xin's illegitimate son, there was no other better explanation.

And now, Cao Xin himself was already in trouble.

Li Yueming, a little brat who hadn't even gone through puberty, actually dared to get involved?

He really didn't know the meaning of 'death'!

A boss snorted coldly. "How dare you? Your father is about to be killed. Who do you think you are?"

He heard someone reprimanding him.

The other bosses also came back to their senses.

They all stood up and said, "Little brat, Lord Shenhai even mobilized the Royal Court's guards. You really don't know the severity of the issue. Do you think this is your family's territory?"

In the crowd.

The fat woman's eyes were cold as she sized Li Yueming up.

A cruel smile appeared on his face.

She turned her head to look at Zhou Shenhai who was not far away. She licked her lips and said, "Sir, don't kill this young man later. I have a use for him!"

Zhou Shenhai had naturally heard of the fat woman's reputation.

Li Yueming had offended the fat woman before.

If he fell into her hands, he would probably suffer the same fate.

At the same time, it was also useful for him to have her owe him a favor.

Therefore.

Zhou Shenhai naturally had no objections.

Therefore, he nodded.

After getting permission.

The fat woman licked her lips.

She looked at Li Yueming greedily.

As for Li Yueming's opinion...

Apparently, Li Yueming had no right to speak at all.

At this moment, the Royal Court guards who had surrounded them finally came to their senses.

They suddenly quickened their pace, they wanted to capture Li Yueming and Cao Xin together.

Li Yueming was not annoyed by this.

After all, he had been mentally prepared for this before coming.

A strong man from the Royal Court's guards rushed over.

He reached out to press Li Yueming down.

Li Yueming's gaze was like lightning. The moment he stretched out his hand, he attacked first.

He grabbed the man's wrist.

The next second, Li Yueming's fingers exerted a little force.

There was an audible click.

The wrist of the burly man from the Royal Court's guards was actually crushed by him.

"Ahhh!"

Screams resounded throughout the entire hall.

The group of sewer bosses who thought that it would be easy were all shocked by this sudden scene.

Damn it.

'What the hell is this?'

When they finally made sense of what was going on, the group of bosses looked over.

The man from the Royal Court's escort team had his wrist crushed by a brat like Li Yueming.

In an extremely humiliating position, Li Yueming placed him upside down on the table.

The shrill screams were like the wails of evil spirits from hell.

Many wiped their eyes repeatedly in disbelief.

Only then did they believe everything they saw.

The shock struck like a lightning bolt.

One had to know that these men were not hooligans.

Instead, it was said that dozens Royal Court's guards is sufficient to sweep through the entire Underground World.

They enjoyed the support of the entire Underground World.

It was the strongest organization in the Underground World!

But now... The members of the Royal Court Guards were actually easily pinned down by a brat??

Around him, the other guards could not help but be shocked when they saw this scene.

However, they had undergone strict training after all.

Therefore after a short moment of shock, they continued to rush forward.

A total of six Royal Court guards surrounded Li Yueming in the middle.

One learns from one's mistakes.

After the one was unable to hold him down just now,

The Royal Court guards also understood that Li Yueming was not so simple.

They formed a circle and prepared to attack with all their might!

Two of the strongest men stood at the front, wanting to use their height and weight to restrain Li Yueming.

The other members swarmed forward and pressed Li Yueming down.

And yet, the next second... A scene that left everyone dumbfounded.

Although Li Yueming was not as tall as the two burly men, the strength of his body was even more terrifying than that of them.

He directly collided head-on with the two men until they fell flat on their faces.

The other guards' eyes almost popped out.

Damn it. What kind of monster was this?

Could such a monster be nurtured in the Underground World?

At this moment, the guards fell into deep self-doubt.

However, Li Yueming had no intention of being polite to them.

After repelling the two burly men, he kicked hard.

They flew more than three meters into the air, before landing on the roof.

Then, he jumped up again, leaping more than ten meters high like a spring.

Landing right beside Zhou Shenhai.

The group of so-called elite guards were like three-year-old children in front of him.

They could only watch as Li Yueming approached their boss from the sky.

He clapped his hands.

Li Yueming's expression was relaxed and his eyes were clear.

He looked at Zhou Shenhai, who was stiff and in disbelief.

He revealed a harmless smile.

He said calmly, "How is it? Can you hear me out now?"

...
