Chapter 141: Epic Rating, Huge Settlement Reward!—3

Finally, he glanced at the message left by the will of planet 6-07312.

F * Ck.

What did he mean by greeting your family?

What kind of grudge was there? Was there a need to go to such an extent?

In addition.

What do you mean by a local specialty gift with a taste?

Too much!

He thought about it.

Li Yueming didn't rush to open the mailbox to open the package. Instead, he turned around and exited the reincarnation space.

Outside the City Lord's Mansion, specks of light flickered.

Li Yueming opened the door.

He realized that Zhao Shiya was shivering in an inconspicuous corner.

After seeing Li Yueming come out of the room.

Only then did Zhao Shiya become happy. She said excitedly, "Lord Li Yueming, you're finally awake?"

Li Yueming nodded.

However, his gaze turned to the darkness outside the City Lord's Mansion.

The first time a reincarnator entered the Reincarnation World, they would usually stay for about an hour.

This was considered the novice protection period.

Once the Reincarnation Mark was permanently bound.

There was no fixed anchor point for the passage of time in the real world and the reincarnation world.

According to the continuous exploration and conclusion of the Reincarnator Association: The higher the Sequence of the reincarnation world that the reincarnator entered, the more complete the world's will and laws were, and the faster time passed in the real world.

It was common for many reincarnators Who went to high-level Xianxia or technology to spend ten days to half a month to reincarnate.

Li Yueming had been in the martial arts world for more than 200 years, and more than ten hours had passed in the real world.

At this moment, the sky was already dark.

The light outside the City Lord's Mansion naturally could not come from the stars.

Instead, they were dark creatures that were eyeing them covetously.

Because they sensed the human aura, the dark creatures gathered near the City Lord's Mansion from all over the city.

His blood-red eyes looked extremely terrifying in the darkness.

It was no wonder that Zhao Shiya was so scared that she curled up in a corner and did not even dare to breathe loudly.

If it wasn't for the fact that Li Yueming emitted the aura of a reincarnator in the City Lord's Mansion, she might have been torn to pieces by the dark creatures that were eyeing her covetously. He glanced at the dark creatures outside.

Li Yueming frowned.

To be honest, the number of dark creatures in this city was much more than he had expected.

Fortunately, he had completed his second reincarnation.

Moreover, he had obtained the strength of a high -level Martial Saint.

Ordinary stage one and stage two dark creatures were basically no threat to him.

A powerful aura emanated from Li Yueming's body.

Immediately, the dark creatures outside the city disappeared.

Li Yueming didn't have any plans to clean them up yet.

After all, he had just become a reincarnator and had many things to deal with.

He would deal with the dark creatures after the ordinary residents arranged by the Reincarnator Association entered the city.

He stretched.

Li Yueming glanced at Zhao Shiya and said, "Is there hot water? I want to take a shower!"

He was sweating profusely from the energy return.

Her clothes were still wet and sticky.

Zhao Shiya's face was still a little pale.

As a woman who had grown up in a reincarnator family since she was young.

Although she did not live in luxury since she was young, her living environment was still passable.

The clan would make two preparations for this group of clan disciples.

The best would naturally be to become a reincarnator at the age of eighteen and advance and retreat with the family.

Those who were slightly weaker did not obtain the permanent reincarnation mark.

Those who were still somewhat beautiful would be sent out and bound to the existence of those who had become official reincarnators.

If he met a reincarnator with a better character, he could apply for a secretary position.

After all, as descendants of a large family, they knew more about reincarnators than other ordinary disciples of the Humble Class.

Hence, the competition was stronger.

If one encountered a reincarnator with a bad character, they might directly become a plaything.

However, Zhao Shiya was quite open-minded.

As long as the reincarnators they encountered were not too disgusting.

Her life was already more blissful than 99% of ordinary people.

Under such circumstances.

It was obviously Zhao Shiya's first time spending the night in such a terrifying environment.

Just now, when he was being eyed by a group of dark creatures.

She was so scared that she almost fainted.

After seeing Li Yueming come out of the room, Zhao Shiya finally felt a long-lost sense of security.

His face finally regained some color.

I don't know, it's not an illusion

She always felt that compared to the day, Li Yueming had changed a lot.

He shook his head.

Throwing away some strange thoughts in her mind, Zhao Shiya bent down and said, "Sir, Shiya has prepared hot water for you to bathe in. Please move!"

Li Yueming nodded.

Indeed, it was good to have a sensible secretary.

He only needed to deal with the messy dark creatures in his territory. He did not need to worry about the trivial things in the real world.

As he spoke.

Zhao Shiya brought him to the bathroom in the side hall of the City Lord's Estate.

It was unknown if the previous City Lord had gone crazy, but the bathroom of the City Lord's Mansion was much bigger than Li Yueming. It was almost ten meters long and wide.

Such a big bathtub could probably hold more than ten people. Wasn't it a waste to bathe alone?

What a pure prodigal!

The thermostats under the bathtub could keep the bathwater at a constant and comfortable temperature.

Zhao Shiya even placed all kinds of exquisite fruits and pastries beside the bathroom.
These were some snacks that she had brought with her.
After all, women were born with a sweet tooth.
Unfortunately, the City Lord's Estate was in a state of chaos, so she could only cry for help.
Regarding this.
Li Yueming was very satisfied.
The only problem was that the water temperature in the pool seemed to be a little too low.
He had already become a War God.
Wasn't this at least a hundred degrees of water temperature?
After adjusting the water temperature.
Under Zhao Shiya's service.
Li Yueming took off his clothes and lay in the bathtub. After a while, he sighed comfortably.
She narrowed her eyes and ate a grape.
He calmly opened the email in the reincarnation imprint.
He wanted to see what kind of local specialty the will of planet 6-07312 had sent him.
Because of this, the Reincarnation Mark had specially marked it with the words
'tasteful.'

Chapter 142: World's Eighth Brother, a mysterious letter from 'us'! 1

Imprint, retrieve the item from the mailbox!"
Although Zhao Shiya was beside him, Li Yueming didn't hide anything.
After all, as an ordinary person, Zhao Shiya was now a secretary in his territory.
Such a close position was destined to come into contact with some core secrets in the future.
If Zhao Shiya didn't even know what she could say and what she couldn't say...
Then don't blame Li Yueming for being ruthless.
The reincarnation mark emitted a burst of white light.
After the light dissipated, a black object appeared in Li Yueming's hand.
Although Li Yueming did not smell anything strange.
However, wasn't it a little too strange to have this thing in his hands?
Looking up and down, a few eyes
Based on Li Yueming's limited knowledge in the school of reincarnators.

He did not understand what this thing was.

However, the items sent by the world's will, even if it was a strange, shit-like thing, were not worth mentioning.

It should be an extraordinary pile of sh * t.

Well...

There seemed to be something wrong.

Was this really a pile of sh * t?

He thought of the malicious curse 6-07312 had placed on him.

Li Yueming suddenly realized something.

He almost threw the unknown object in his hand away.

He finally calmed down.

It was not to the extent of throwing it away.

After all, no matter how ridiculous it was, it was still thrown out by the world's will.

If he threw it away without knowing what it was, he wouldn't even be able to cry.

After thinking through everything.

Li Yueming decided to quickly throw this unlucky thing back into the reincarnation space for storage.

He was prepared to wait until he was a little stronger before going to the forum to see if he could find any relevant information.

At this moment.

The World Fragment that had fallen into a deep slumber suddenly spoke.

She seemed to be a little angry after waking up. "Why do I feel like I smell something incredible?"

He heard the World Fragment mumbling in a daze.

Li Yueming narrowed his eyes.

He had already spent hundreds of years adventuring in the Reincarnation World.

He didn't expect this lazy worm world fragment to still be sleeping.

It seemed that if he didn't take out the treasure, this guy would probably sleep for hundreds of years. How could it sleep at this age?

Forget it.

Anyway, this was not his son.

Just lie flat.

Although the world fragment looked unreliable, it was still a little unreliable.

Other than eating, he was sleeping. He was either lying flat or on the way to lying flat.

But no matter what, it was still a world will that had yet to take shape.

It had existed for countless years and was knowledgeable.

6-07312 The planet's will had sent him a local specialty. He would probably be able to recognize it with the world fragment.

Thinking of this...

Li Yueming deliberately slowed down his movements.

He slowly opened the reincarnation space and prepared to store the local specialties given to him by the will of planet 6-07312 into his space backpack. The world fragment's will, which had just woken up, was still a little grumpy.

However, when it saw the unknown substance in Li Yueming's hand.

The entire ball instantly quivered and hurriedly said, "Wait, wait...!" It opened its mouth.

Li Yueming's originally slow hand speed instantly increased.

He skillfully placed the unknown object into the reincarnation space.

After he closed the Reincarnation Mark at an even faster speed, he said with an innocent expression, "What are you doing?"

World Fragment Will:

There was a long silence.

The world fragment's consciousness spoke again, "'Big brother, you're my big brother. I just closed my eyes. Where did you get such a treasure?"

Li Yueming scratched his head."

Li Yueming knew whether it was rare or not.

The reason why he asked the obvious was naturally because he wanted to get more useful information from the world fragment's consciousness.

Obviously.

The world fragment also knew that he was trying to bait the law.

However, he still couldn't help but take the bait."This is the remnants of an old world shed when a world ascends. Only a powerful world will shed it when it ascends. It's extremely rare!" Li Yueming nodded.

wun ms nup, planet 0-0'/31z rose a Dequence.

Sending a portion of the remnants of the Old World or something..

It did sound like something that the Rainbow Qilin could do.

After learning the specific name of this thing, he was shocked.

Li Yueming finally stopped feeling disgusted.

After all, as long as it wasn't a pile of feces.

He could still accept it.

However, the residue left behind during the dimensional upgrade of the Old World...

Why did it sound like it was only a little better than some kind of evil plaything?

Was it his imagination?

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming continued asking, "So what can this Old World residue do?"

The world fragment almost drooled when it heard that. It said, "You can feed this baby. Items between the world's wills generally have no effect on humans. If you feed this baby, this baby can inherit a portion of the energy of the other world and accelerate its growth!"

Hearing the World Fragment's drooling voice.

Li Yueming didn't believe him.

Now that he knew the term 'Old World Residue.'

He decided to go to the reincarnator forum to check first.

After all, this guy was quite unreliable. Li Yueming didn't want to be deceived.

He opened the reincarnator forum.

Li Yueming searched for the word 'world dregs' in the information section.

Very quickly.

More than ten messages appeared in front of Li Yueming.

If you want to view this information, you need to pay the sender.

Li Yueming took a look.

The cheapest one actually cost 1,000 reincarnation points.

It seemed that the remnants of this world were indeed very rare. Otherwise, there would not be so little information related to it in the reincarnator forum, and the price would be so expensive..

Chapter 143: World's Eighth Brother, a mysterious letter from 'us'! 2

He found a person with a high rating.

Li Yueming paid 1,200 reincarnation points and successfully found information about the world's remnants.

[Name: World Molt]

[Rarity: 5 stars]

[Introduction: A molt left behind by a powerful world's will with a relatively complete order when it leveled up. It can be used to nurture the World Flower or to expand the small world of the big shots. Other uses are temporarily unknown!]

CPS: If a reincarnator obtains it, please do not play with it! This thing would emit a unique stench that creatures could not smell, but the world's consciousness was extremely sensitive to it. It might cause you to be in big trouble when you enter the next world!]

After reading the introduction, he looked at the World Molt that he held in his hand like a treasure.

Li Yueming finally understood the dangers of society.

Damn it, he actually used such a despicable and disgusting method to plot against him.

6-07312!

Don't let me see you again.

Every time they met, they would fight!

In general.

The use of this black substance was similar to the description of the world fragment.

The only two known uses were to cultivate the World Flower.

The World Flower was an extremely precious treasure. Its value was almost equivalent to a small world fragment.

He had the World Flower.

Reincarnators could contact other worlds through the World Flower every once in a while.

Its value was immeasurable.

It's hard to find.

It was a treasure that the top reincarnators would scramble for.

With Li Yueming's current small arms and legs, he definitely couldn't ask for such a thing.

Thus, he could only use a cheap world fragment.

However, according to the description, although he couldn't smell it. However, shouldn't the world fragment's will smell like stinky feces?

Why would it drool?

He was a little puzzled.

Li Yueming took out the World Remnant and asked, ""You want to eat this?"

The World Fragment's consciousness nodded and said with a face full of saliva, ""That's right, don't worry. This baobao isn't a freeloader. As long as you feed me this thing, the space that grows will be yours to use!"

Hearing this.

Li Yueming was silent. After a moment, he continued to probe, "Is this thing very delicious?"

The world fragment's consciousness mumbled a few words that it did not understand. After a moment, it said with a hint of disdain, "What are you talking about? This thing is extremely smelly. If it can be considered delicious, then isn't the reincarnation point an immortal treasure?"

“Then why are you still so excited?” Li Yueming couldn’t help but sweat.” Hearing this.

The world fragment was unhappy. “What are you thinking about? Although this baobao is lying flat, it doesn’t mean that this baobao can’t suffer! As long as it’s edible, even if it’s a little disgusting, this baobao can insist on swallowing it whole!”

Good heavens, it’s still you, Planet Realm’s Eighth Brother!

Li Yueming was completely convinced.

This world fragment’s will was lying flat.

But look at the other side’s awareness and quality. As long as the other side didn’t die from eating, then it would eat to death.

Tsk tsk tsk..

Li Yueming was quite generous.

The world fragment choked for a moment.

In the end, he wolfed it down.

Very quickly.

Li Yueming realized that the private small world connected to him had expanded by more than ten times.

The original ten square meters had become more than a hundred square meters.

Moreover, this scale was still expanding as time passed.

About five minutes later.

Li Yueming was surprised to find that the small world’s territory had increased by more than a hundred times.

The area had reached more than 1,000 square meters!

Good heavens.

Did this turn from a tube-shaped apartment into a private villa?

Now, he could sow all the messy seeds he bought last time!

He did some calculations.

As long as a spiritual rice seed took root, germinated, and grew smoothly, it could produce at least 100 grains of spiritual rice for him.

In other words, there was this small world.

Even if Li Yueming didn’t do anything in the future, he would be able to earn a hundredfold profit just by planting spiritual rice.

It was a pity that the 1,000 square meters of land was still too small.

In the future, he would try to feed more of the world fragments with Old Eighth’s secret hamburger.

At that time, he could also lie down happily.

The small world continued to expand, but the speed was much slower than before.

It was estimated to have expanded to 1,500 square meters.

The world fragment burped after eating its fill and said in satisfaction, "If you have any good things in the future, remember to leave some for this baobao. This baobao has high hopes for you."

Regarding this.

Li Yueming replied with a smile.

After settling the matter of the world residue.

Li Yueming closed his eyes and enjoyed the hot water in the bathtub.

Behind him.

Zhao Shiya was carefully massaging his back.

She didn't even lift her head to look at what had just happened.

Naturally, he didn't know anything.

As a smart person, she knew that it was safer to not ask about many things than to keep silent.

After all, turning a deaf ear meant that she did not even know what was going on.

However, it was different if he kept silent.

Humans were never creatures that were completely dominated by reason.

As long as he knew.

There's a risk of exposure

Li Yueming seemed to have relaxed.

Zhao Shiya raised her head and said, "Lord Li Yueming, how is the strength?"

Regarding this.

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

Of course, he was now covered in muscles.

Zhao Shiya's arms and legs were small.

Forget about a light massage.

Even if he used all his strength to cut him with a knife, he would not feel anything.

He turned around and glanced at Zhao Shiya.

At this moment, her face was flushed red.

The sweat and steam on her forehead had stuck a lot of her hair together.

He looked like a cooked prawn.

"Are you hot?" Li Yueming asked with a puzzled face. Do you want to come down and soak in the hot spring?"

He looked at the bubbling water.

Zhao Shiya shook her head faster than a fan and quickly said, "Sir, Shiya will prepare a change of clothes for you!"

"Go!" Li Yueming waved his hand."

After Zhao Shiya left, Li Yueming's expression became solemn.

He exhaled the reincarnation mark again.

He opened the mailbox and saw a letter in an inconspicuous corner.

After confirming that there was no one around, Li Yueming took the letter out of the mailbox.

He hadn't noticed it when he opened his mailbox a few times before. It was only when he opened his mailbox for the last time that Li Yueming noticed it.

There was no sender or recipient on the envelope.

Forget it.

The problem was that this letter had suddenly appeared in the mailbox without any notification from the Reincarnation Mark.

This was very strange.

Logically speaking, if it was something sent by the will of another planet or the reincarnation mark itself, it would be impossible for it to be sent over.

There should be a hint.

However, there was no trace of this letter at all. It was as if it had suddenly appeared out of thin air.

He tore open the sealed letter.

Li Yueming took out a piece of paper with a very delicate texture.

There were a few lines of words written on it with a red pen.

"Do you want to know the true secret of this world? Do you want to join us?"

"You've already obtained two SSS-rank and above ratings, and obtained the third SSS-rank and above rating. You'll learn some real secrets and have the opportunity to join us!"

' Good luck with the above content!"

The contents of the letter were vague, and the information revealed was also mysterious.

The strangest thing was that as Li Yueming's gaze swept across the area.

The words on the paper also slowly disappeared.

By the time Li Yueming finished reading the last word, the letter had returned to its original blank state.

It was as if the contents had never appeared.

Li Yueming narrowed his eyes.

The entire prime material plane had nearly ten million reincarnators.

Most of the reincarnators who entered the reincarnation world had a score below A.

Only the top batch of reincarnators.

Most of them had reincarnated into thousands of worlds and accumulated enough foundation.

That was why he was able to frequently obtain a grade of A and above.

Compared to them, the batch of reincarnators who could obtain an SSS rating were even more awesome.

According to Li Yueming's limited understanding.

It was estimated that there were only a handful of them in the entire world.

And now, the owner of this letter actually said that if you want to join 'us', you have to obtain three SSS-rank ratings and above...

If what he said was true, how terrifying would it be?

And what kind of lunatics were the 'us' hiding behind this letter?

Thinking of this...

Li Yueming fell into deep thought.

It seemed that the pool of reincarnators was much deeper than he had imagined!

Chapter 144: Selling Selling the Number of Times

Looking at the empty paper, Li Yueming was in a daze for a moment.

To be honest.

If it wasn't for the fact that this letter had suddenly appeared in his reincarnation mark mailbox without any indication.

He would probably laugh it off as an insignificant prank.

But now, the existence behind this letter was actually able to silently bypass the reincarnation mark and contact him.

Moreover, he could accurately know the true results of his two reincarnations.

This was why Li Yueming couldn't help but believe and be vigilant.

He did not know what kind of organization the so-called 'us' were.

He actually needed to obtain three SSS-rank and above settlement evaluations to join.

Just as he was deep in thought.

Zhao Shiya had already brought him a change of clothes.

Only then did Li Yueming come back to his senses.

He got up and used his internal energy to evaporate the water on his body. He put on his silk pajamas and prepared to return to his bedroom to have a good sleep.

Zhao Shiya followed closely behind him.

He saw Li Yueming still staring at him after lying on the bed.

Li Yueming glanced at the bed that was filled with teenage girls.

He then looked at the shy Zhao Shiya and said, "Is this your bed?"

He came in a hurry today.

Basically, they only brought food.

As for the blanket and mattress, Li Yueming didn't think much about it.

And this blanket had a hint of a young girl's fragrance.

It was probably prepared by Zhao Shiya for herself.

This was rather awkward.

Hearing this.

Zhao Shiya's face was red. She immediately snatched her blanket and said, "You can sleep. Shiya can sleep on the floor!"

Li Yueming got up from the bed. "You should sleep. I have something to do!"

As he spoke.

Li Yueming left the room.

Looking at his back as he left, Zhao Shiya's eyes were filled with shock.

His face was filled with disbelief.

One had to know.

In this world, the relationship between reincarnators and ordinary people had always been unequal.

If ordinary people wanted to survive, they had to obtain the protection of the reincarnators.

In contrast.

They had to provide taxes and various services for the reincarnators.

To put it bluntly.

In the back cover, the reincarnators were equivalent to the emperor who ruled over everything.

All ordinary people had to rely on him.

That's why.

Many new reincarnators who were originally ordinary people.

After obtaining the permanent reincarnation mark, it would often swell to the extreme.

Moreover, the less outstanding an ordinary person was in the past, the more inflated they became after becoming a reincarnator.

This was a strong sense of excitement brought about by the increase in status.

Let me give you the simplest example.

For example, a goddess that one had to look up to suddenly become a plaything that one could control with one's applause.

For example, a classmate who once looked down on you would one day be ruthlessly trampled under your feet but could not resist.

Under such circumstances.

The malice in human nature would be magnified infinitely.

It was difficult to control with reason.

Of course, in principle, the Reincarnator Association would not allow reincarnators to attack ordinary people.

Every city also set a maximum limit for paying taxes. They would also set up channels for ordinary people to complain and transfer cities in the cities of the major reincarnators.

However, those were only the flowers on the surface.

As long as the reincarnators had the heart, they could use 10,000 methods to deal with ordinary people.

Originally.

When Zhao Xiaoya saw Li Yueming for the first time...

He thought that Li Yueming was also one of those reincarnators. After all, how could a normal person ask for a secretary?

The reason why he gritted his teeth and agreed.

It was because he heard from his family that Li Yueming was the newcomer with the highest score in Linjiang No.2 Middle School.

It was only his first time entering the reincarnation world and he had only obtained an S grade score.

After all, following anyone was following.

It would be better to choose an expert with potential.

However, what happened later changed her understanding of Li Yueming again and again.

The young man in front of her was completely different from what she had imagined.

He always gave her a feeling that he was as calm as water.

They did not have the high and mighty status of the veteran reincarnators who had been famous for a long time.

They did not have the high self-esteem of the new reincarnators.

Every time he stood in front of her, he looked more like a modest and elegant young master from ancient times.

It was not annoying at all.

Of course, the most important thing was...

Zhao Shiya could feel Li Yueming's respect for her.

He didn't treat her as an object that could be manipulated at will, but as an equal 'person'.

In this era where ordinary people had a very low status.

To be able to follow and serve such a reincarnator lord, Zhao Shiya even felt that she might have done good deeds in her previous life.

After returning to his own room,

Li Yueming went around the forum again and read a lot of posts. At the same time, he exchanged some experiences with many people.

When the sky was about to brighten.

He closed his eyes and started to rest.

In just a short day yesterday, he had reincarnated twice.

The mental burden on him was still relatively large.

After all, the vast majority of reincarnators treasured the number of reincarnations they had every month.

Therefore, he would basically rest for a period of time after each turn. He would only choose to head to the next reincarnation world after he had adjusted his condition.

There were very few prodigals like Li Yueming who reincarnated twice a day.

The next morning.

Zhao Xiaoya brought him some food on time.

Li Yueming took two bites and realized that they were all ordinary food.. He casually threw a large bag of spiritual rice to Zhao Xiaoya and said, ""Use these to cook in the future!"

Chapter 145: Selling Reincarnations 2

She looked at the bag of spiritual rice that was taller than her.

Zhao Xiaoya was completely stunned.

Who am I?

Where am I?

What was this?

Three asked.

He finally came back to his senses.

“Sir, these...these are all spiritual rice?” Zhao Xiaoya asked, trembling.” Li Yueming nodded.

Now that he had 700,000 to 800,000 reincarnation points, he could be considered rich.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Last night, he had purchased 2000 catties of spiritual rice, 500 catties of spiritual rice seeds, as well as all kinds of high-value fruits and vegetable seeds grown in the spiritual fields.

He spent a total of more than 50,000 reincarnation points.

It could only be said that the feeling of being rich was simply too great!

Before entering the next reincarnation world, Li Yueming prepared to plant spiritual rice, fruits, and vegetables in the space expanded by the world fragment.

During this process.

Li Yueming still needed to collect more knowledge about reincarnators.

After all, the letter that suddenly appeared in his mailbox yesterday reminded Li Yueming.

The real world of reincarnators might not be as simple as it seemed on the surface.

Therefore, he had no choice.

In order not to be blinded in the future.

Li Yueming had to invest more energy to expand the channels for collecting information on reincarnators.

Zhao Xiaoya opened her mouth so wide that she could stuff an egg into it.

What was this?

This was spiritual rice!

They were not cabbages on the roadside.

Even the most talented core disciples of the Zhao Family only received a small portion of spiritual rice every month.

But now, Li Yueming could easily throw a few hundred kilograms.

Was this really something that an ordinary reincarnator without any family background could take out?

For a moment, Zhao Xiaoya felt as if the entire world was in chaos.

Perhaps it was because she was too excited last night and did not sleep well.

So much so that he was even hallucinating now?

He was shocked and in disbelief at Zhao Shiya.

Li Yueming was not interested at all.

He opened the reincarnation mark.

Several messages popped up in the chat box.

Most of them were reincarnators who asked him if he had the intention to purchase.

Li Yueming did not even bother to pay back the price and directly bought a large number of resources. He could already be considered the god of wealth for those reincarnators who specialized in the farming industry. These reincarnators naturally had to greet the God of Fortune.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming glanced at it but didn't reply.

The main thing that caught his attention was the questions he had asked in the forum yesterday.

For example, how to increase the mark score more clearly in the reincarnation world.

For example, what new reincarnators should pay attention to during the process of reincarnation.

Another example was whether there were any seniors who had the right to reincarnate.

He asked a series of questions.

In fact, Li Yueming did not think that many reincarnators would reply.

After all, he didn't pay for it.

With the characteristics of the reincarnators, they probably wouldn't attract too much attention.

However, he had never expected this.

He had underestimated the vast number of idle netizens.

Every question he asked on the forum yesterday had been answered in detail.

There was even a senior reincarnator with the ID Cloud Maple Leaf who took the initiative to private chat with him.

” The first question: The newcomer wants to increase the score of the Reincarnation Mark.”

“The simplest and most direct way is to hide and survive for a period of time!”

“After reincarnators enter the reincarnation world, they actually have a basic path to change their fate!”

“For example, your original hidden destiny trajectory is to be hacked to death at the age of fourteen. In this case, you only need to survive until you are eighteen or twenty years old and not be hacked to death.”

“The second question is what reincarnators need to pay attention to in the reincarnation world...”

“The greatest taboo for newcomers is to reveal their identity as a reincarnator in the reincarnation world. This may cause you to be targeted by some unbelievably powerful existences. "Also, don't be too high-profile before you grow up. It's best to keep a low profile and develop. When you're strong enough, you can try to defy the heavens and change your fate. This way, you can maximize your benefits. Even if you fail to change your fate, you won't suffer too much!"

"Yes, there is one last question..."

"I'm going to hell. Am I falling behind the times?" There were actually rookies who were prepared to sell their reincarnation rights these days?" He looked at the long string of messages in the private chat channel.

Li Yueming rubbed his nose.

This information didn't seem to be of much use to him.

But at least he had good intentions.

Li Yueming thought for a while and replied politely with a message of thanks.

About two minutes later.

A friend request sounded from the Reincarnation Mark's background.

Li Yueming took a glance.

It was actually the reincarnator named Yunduan Fengye who had sent a friend request.

He pondered for a moment.

Li Yueming didn't refuse.

After the friend request was accepted, a bunch of messages were sent over.

"You're a newcomer, right? How many times had he reincarnated? You're selling extra reincarnation rights too? Are you already so rich that you're getting lice?"

"Don't be smug just because your first reincarnation score is higher!" "Let me tell you, I've seen many newbies like you!"

"The results of the first reincarnation were not bad. After obtaining a few additional reincarnation privileges, it began to expand? Did he think that he was the chosen one, the God of Reincarnation?"

"Luck doesn't represent everything. You were lucky this time and obtained a good score, but it doesn't mean that you will be so lucky next time!"

"If you get rid of the extra reincarnation authority now, it will be too late for you to know the value of the extra reincarnation after you experience a few more reincarnations in the future.."

Chapter 146: Selling Reincarnations (3)

The other party sent the message very quickly.

It was obvious that he was a Zuan player who had been hanging around the forum all year round.

His words were also quite blunt.

However, his heart of inculcating could still be seen by heaven and earth.

If it was an ordinary rookie reincarnator.

He would probably be grateful to the senior who had shown him the way with such good intentions.

Unfortunately, Li Yueming was a cheat player.

I admit that what you said is very reasonable.

However, this had nothing to do with a cheat player like me.

There was a long silence.

Li Yueming deliberated and replied, "Senior, what you said is very reasonable."

However, this is already my second reincarnation!"

The veteran reincarnator with the ID Cloud Maple Leaf quickly replied, "Since I've already been reincarnated twice, I should be more aware of the difficulty of reincarnating into a world... Wait, you've already reincarnated for the second time?"

"Yes!" Li Yueming nodded.

For a moment, the atmosphere became awkward.

After a moment of silence, Yunduan Fengye replied, "So you also obtained additional reincarnation authority during your second reincarnation???"

"Yes!" Li Yueming nodded again."

The maple leaves in the clouds fell silent again.

He was a well-known descendant of a family in Shanghai on the reincarnator forum.

Usually, he liked to help new reincarnators.

Well... The change is not too good, the saying is like putting on airs in front of the new reincarnation of the senior reincarnation.

He enjoyed the feeling of a newcomer addressing a senior as a big shot.

However, because it had indeed helped many new reincarnators.

He had a good reputation on the forum.

He could be considered a little famous.

Just now.

Yunduan Fengye was moved by Xiao Zhi's emotions and reasoning. He almost cried, thinking that Li Yueming would suddenly realize and be grateful to him.

However, he did not expect this newcomer to be a little different from the previous rookies.

Reincarnating twice in a row would grant him the right to reincarnate.

This newcomer was really something!

After a moment of awkwardness, Yunduan Fengye could only be thick-skinned and say, "It seems that I might have underestimated you. However, the additional reincarnation times are really quite precious. Listen to your brother's advice. You can't have too many of these things. Keeping them can help you grow faster!"

"As long as you can steadily reap rewards in the world of Samsara, your future achievements might not be inferior to some of the clan disciples!"

Regarding this.

Li Yueming quickly replied, [Thank you for the reminder, but the things I need now are more expensive, so I still want to sell some extra reincarnations!] He still had nearly 700,000 reincarnation points.

From a certain perspective, this was indeed an astronomical figure.

However, Li Yueming's requirements were also very shocking.

This stemmed from his unique talent.

The golden talent was endlessly deducing, wanting to become stronger.

Li Yueming needed all kinds of high-level cultivation techniques to continuously perfect the Starmoon Art.

Although cultivation techniques were like cabbages everywhere in the reincarnation world, the value of cultivation techniques that could be brought back to the main world was completely different.

700,000 reincarnation points seemed like a lot.

However, with the characteristic of the Star Moon Execution, it probably wouldn't last long.

Li Yueming had already saved up 14 reincarnations.

He said something impolite.

Reincarnation authority or something... He did have so many lice.

She saw his message.

Yunduan Fengye did not continue to persuade him.

After all, there was no longer a third time.

He had already told her the pros and cons of being under the water.

Two minutes later.

He sent a helpless sigh emoji and said, "Since you insist, I won't say anything else. How many extra reincarnations do you want to sell?" Li Yueming glanced at his fourteen reincarnations.

If he sold it all at once, it would probably be too shocking. Therefore, it was reasonable to sell it five or six times.

“Five times!” he said directly.”

What the hell?

In the distant Demon Capital, a young man was sitting in a magnificent palace with great interest.

However, when he saw the information in the Reincarnation Mark.

The red wine that had just entered his mouth immediately sprayed out.

The group of maidservants beside him were shocked.

Yunduan Fengye wiped the scarlet wine from the corner of his mouth and cursed angrily, “F * ck, are you kidding me?”

Obviously.

When he heard that Li Yueming was going to sell five extra reincarnations.

Yunduan Fengye’s first reaction was to think that Li Yueming was teasing him.

He clicked on Li Yueming’s profile picture again and was prepared to block it.

However, the more Fengye Yunduan thought about it, the angrier he got. He had claimed to be a newbie guide for so many years, but when had he ever suffered such grievances?

He had been played like a monkey by a rookie from the beginning to the end.

Therefore, he quickly changed his mind.

He wanted to see if he could find out the other party’s true identity. Once he did, he would let this damn rookie know why the flowers were so red.

Hence, he decided to do it.

Yunduan Fengye put down his glass and replied, “”So many? The extra reincarnations are in high demand. You can come to this group to sell them. The price should be about the same as the auction house. The advantage is that there is no handling fee!”

As he spoke.

He waited for two to three minutes before sending a Group chats invitation to Li Yueming.

During this period of time.

Yunduan Fengye briefly told his friends in the group what had just happened.

This group was the circle of Shanghai’s rich second-generation heirs that he often hung out in.

There were not many people, but they were all good friends.

After hearing the description of the maple leaf in the clouds.

The people in the group were naturally filled with righteous indignation.

“Are all the newbies so arrogant now?”

“It’s not easy these days. Fengye had good intentions, but he was played by a newcomer!”

“I’ve reincarnated more than 20 times and only received one additional reincarnation reward.”

“This newcomer has just completed two reincarnations, and he dares to come over and say that he’s selling five additional reincarnations? How thick-skinned!”

“Fengye, I’ll help you with this. Let’s work together to find that rookie who doesn’t know the immensity of heaven and earth and beat him up. Let’s see if he dares to be so arrogant in the future!”

On the other side.

Li Yueming was also vigilant.

The reason why he specially posted on the reincarnation forum was mainly because he did not want to pay the additional processing fees in the auction house.

The number of reincarnations was a hard currency, and the price was quite fair and transparent.

Under normal circumstances, as long as one did not take advantage of small gains.

Basically, they would not be deceived.

He did not hesitate.

Li Yueming immediately entered the Group chats.

“Welcome, newcomer. I heard that you want to sell reincarnation rights?”

Obviously, the maple leaves in the clouds had explained what had happened in the group chat.

Therefore, someone asked Li Yueming the moment he came in.

Li Yueming was very direct.

He stored the number of reincarnations in his backpack separately and uploaded a picture. “Selling the right to five reincarnations, the highest bidder wins!”

Once this picture was released, he didn’t know if it was an illusion.

Li Yueming realized that the Group chats seemed to have suddenly turned cold.

What was going on?

Was it that awkward?

Chapter 147: You Call This a Newbie?

After entering the Group chats.

Li Yueming took a photo of the five auctions he was going to sell and posted it in the group.

Then, he suddenly realized that the Group chats, which was originally normal, had suddenly fallen into a dead silence. He couldn’t help but be dumbfounded.

What was going on?

Why did he stop talking when he came to this group?

Are you kidding me?

Far away in Shanghai.

The maple leaves in the clouds finally calmed down.

He picked up the red wine and was about to drink it in one gulp.

He was preparing to trick Li Yueming with his friends.

It would be best if he could trick Li Yueming into revealing his identity in the real world.

Then, he would teach Li Yueming a lesson!

In the next second.

Li Yueming posted a picture in the group.

Instantly.

The wine that Yunduan Fengye had just poured into his throat suddenly spurted out again.

This time, it was even more intense than the last time.

He flew out like a ray of light for more than ten meters. The surrounding maidservants were horrified when they saw this scene.

“Cough, cough, cough!”

He coughed a few times.

Yunduan Fengye’s face was filled with shock as he zoomed in on the picture.

Everyone knew.

The Mark of Reincarnation did not have a photoshop function.

Therefore, when Li Yueming posted the picture of the five additional reincarnations in the group.

Yunduan Fengye’s heart was filled with a hundred thousand curses.

F * ck, f * ck, f * ck!

This newbie was really something!

He said that he wanted to sell five additional reincarnation privileges, but he wasn’t playing with him?

The maple leaf man in the clouds is dumbfounded.

For a moment, he did not know how to respond.

There was no movement in the group for a long time.

Confused, Li Yueming could only send another message: “Uh... Is anyone there?”

If there’s no one, I’ll retreat first!”

After all, this group of more than 50 people looked a little strange.

If it wasn't for the fact that the maple leaves in the clouds had left a good impression on him just now, he would not have been able to do so.

He probably ran away.

After he sent the message.

The Group chats that was originally dead silent suddenly became active. Don't Bully the Poor: "Wodefa, five reincarnations? Is that true?"

'Are you a liar?' These days, scammers are so awesome. They even know how to photoshop?"

Don't Bully the Elderly and Poor: He's a real big shot!"

"Where are the maple leaves in the clouds? This guy was a pure idiot!?!@ Cloud Maple Leaf, come out and explain!"

The coffin shook." Boss, may I ask if you've really only reincarnated twice?"

Tomb Robber's Tears: "Boss, don't run. Look at me. I'll make a deal with you!"

In the Group chats.

Almost instantly, it exploded.

Obviously.

After seeing Li Yueming's additional reincarnations, he was shocked.

The vast majority of the group quickly figured out the ins and outs of the matter.

It was likely that the maple leaf really thought that the other party was a newbie who had only reincarnated twice, so when he heard that the other party wanted to sell five additional reincarnations.

He immediately thought that he had been played like a monkey.

Then, she went to the group to complain, which made her friends angry.

They wished they could gang up on him and beat him up.

But now, from the photos sent, this so-called 'newbie' really seemed to have five additional reincarnations.

This was an additional five turns!

To be able to sell all of them in one go meant that the other party should have more than this amount in stock.

The meaning behind it was self-evident.

Even in the circle of the second generation of the reincarnators in Shanghai.

Only a handful of top-tier family members could take out so many additional permission to turn around at once.

It was no exaggeration to say that.

No matter how one looked at it, this 'newbie' in front of him was a 24K pure gold thigh!

Therefore, he had no choice.

In just a few seconds.

Li Yueming's Reincarnation Mark was filled with information.

Li Yueming's head exploded when he saw the group nicknames.

F * ck, you guys are separated by thirty years.

It was not easy to see the content of the conversation.

Li Yueming didn't reply to those who were teasing him.

Li Yueming directly tagged the group member with the ID of Tomb Raider Tears and said, ""How much do you want? How many reincarnations do you need?"

He blinked.

The tomb robber's tears returned and he said, "Boss, they want all of them. The price will be the highest in the market."

Li Yueming wanted to reply.

But in the next second.

More information appeared.

The speed at which this information was refreshed was probably as fast as the Gatling gun's flame-spitting fire.

[@ Tomb Raider's Tears, aren't you afraid of bursting to death with such a big appetite?}@ Moon Star is sparse, big brother, I want one too!"

Arakawa Brass: "@ Tomb Raider's Tears, do you know what it means to have a share? I want to buy it too!"

[Boss, they're buying your extra reincarnation rights. Can I ask for a friend slot?]"

All kinds of messy information.

To be honest, even Li Yueming was shocked.

He thought about it repeatedly.

He had come here to sell a few additional reincarnation rights. Why did it suddenly become a celebrity fan meeting?

A few seconds later.

The entire Group chats went silent because the group leader had muted them.

Yunduan Fengye: Moonstar, please forgive me for offending you just now. We can buy all the extra reincarnation rights in the group. You seem to want to collect information and intelligence in the group, right? I'll give you the identity of an administrator. You ask first, and the people in the group will give you an answer later!"

As he spoke.

Yunduan Fengye quickly arranged a manager for Li Yueming..

Chapter 148: You Call This a Newbie?(2)

It could only be said that his desire for survival was extremely strong.

When Yunduan Fengye was chatting with Li Yueming earlier.

It was obvious that Li Yueming was indeed a newcomer.

After all, he had been a newbie guide on the forum for so many years. Yunduan Fengye did not think that he would make a mistake.

A veteran was a veteran. No matter how good he was at pretending, the aura of a veteran could not be concealed.

However, if the other party was really a newcomer.

That was even more terrifying.

One had to know that even if he was a disciple of a large family.

In the past few reincarnations, most of them had repeatedly hit the wall.

After all, he did not have the experience of reincarnation, did not have the talent to use, and did not have the tools to use.

It was already very heaven-defying to be able to get an A grade score.

As for the newcomer in front of him, he had already obtained five additional reincarnation privileges after two reincarnations.

How terrifying was the score of each reincarnation?

Under normal circumstances, only an A+ grade score could give additional reincarnation authority.

However, an [A+] grade would only give one additional reincarnation right at most.

Now, this newbie had obtained five additional turns.

What did this mean?

This meant that the other party's two reincarnations were very likely to have an S-rank reincarnation score.

This was because only two S-class and above scores could give him five additional reincarnation privileges.

A newcomer who had just undergone two reincarnations...

Moreover, from the information he had asked around, he was probably an ordinary reincarnator without a family background!

To think that he would be able to obtain an S grade score twice in a row.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes.

The maple leaves in the clouds probably couldn't even imagine.

If the above guess was true.

There was no doubt that this newcomer had great potential.

Under such circumstances.

As the group leader, how could Cloud Maple Leaf be compared to the group members?

Stop talking nonsense and start licking!

If he was too late, he would have nowhere to cry if his thigh was licked away by the evil group members.

He looked at the administrator title that had suddenly appeared on his head.

Li Yueming was a little confused.

A moment later, he said, "Uh, I'm just a newbie. I mainly want to sell a few extra reincarnation rights and then buy some martial arts cultivation techniques. Everyone, you really don't have to be so polite!"

Hearing this, Yunduan Fengye quickly stood up and tagged everyone, ""@ Everyone, the big shot has spoken. Reincarnators of the martial arts side, hurry up and look for it. Is there anything the big shot needs? Also, change your messy nicknames. If you scare the big boss away later, you'll be the sinners in the group!"

As he spoke.

Maple Leaf in the Clouds lifted the ban.

[Tomb Raider's Tears: Group owner authority dog, I can't stay in this group for another day!}@ Yue Mingxing, boss, my family has martial arts techniques. Wait for me to call home!"

@ Cloudmaple , Now we're suddenly bootlickers. Ptui, fortunately, the eyes of the group members are bright!@ Yue Mingxing, let's not talk about anything else, let's do it first!"

After being silenced by Maple Leaf in the Clouds.

The situation of the group of demons dancing in the group finally eased a lot.

However, he still did not stop sending messages to Li Yueming.

He glanced at it a few times.

Li Yueming felt that this group was quite interesting.

Soon, he found a few people who looked more pleasing to the eye and traded for the additional reincarnation authority.

The five additional reincarnation rights were sold for a total of 300,000 reincarnation points.

The unit price was 10,000 yuan higher than the market price.

Li Yueming was very satisfied with this number.

It seemed that the members of this group did not lack money and were suitable for long-term business.

About half an hour later.

Tears of the Tomb Robber privately messaged him in the group: "Boss, are you still there? I just called home and took three martial arts cultivation techniques. They are suitable for Level 1- IV3 martial arts reincarnators to cultivate. Are you satisfied? If you still need a higher level, you'll probably have to contact my father personally!"

Li Yueming's spirits were lifted.

A cultivation technique that could be brought out of the reincarnation world must be a top-notch cultivation technique.

And because of the restrictions of the Prime Material Plane.

The only designated channel for this thing to spread was the cultivation technique manual.

Thus, every book was extremely precious.

To Li Yueming, who had unlimited deduction talent, this thing was like an experience book.

Every time he ate a book, he would improve.

Li Yueming naturally had no reason to refuse and immediately replied, "These three books are enough. How many reincarnation points do you want for one book?"

Opposite him.

The tomb robber's tears said, "Yes..." My dad told me that these secret manuals are relatively rare, and the lowest price is 250,000 yuan per book. I'll give you a discount, 200,000 yuan per book."

Even though he was mentally prepared.

However, when he heard that it was 200,000 yuan per book, Li Yueming still felt his heart bleeding.

This martial arts technique...

It was even more ridiculous than robbery!

He worked hard for two days, and three books could empty more than half of his family's wealth.

However, Li Yueming knew that this was indeed the market price.

The first martial arts planet is the Great Wall.

Li Yueming had already gotten an SSS+ rating.

However, because the world's level was not high enough, he did not obtain any martial arts techniques that could bring him out of the reincarnation world.

One could imagine how precious this thing was.

He could only suppress his heartache and say, "Alright, come on then. I'll check the goods first!"

As he spoke.

Li Yue Ming applied for a transaction.

After paying a portion of the deposit, he received one of the cultivation techniques..

Chapter 149: Are You Calling This a Newbie?

After confirming that there were no problems.

He then traded the three cultivation techniques one by one.

In the blink of an eye, 600,000 reincarnation points disappeared.

After the transaction was completed.

Tomb Robber Tears took the initiative to open her mouth and said, "Boss, my name is Mu Youyou. I'm a direct descendant of the Mu family in Shanghai."

As he spoke.

The woman named Mu Youyou added Li Yueming as a friend.

He thought about it.

Li Yueming immediately accepted the challenge.

Rich women, naturally, the more the better.

When he finished digesting these martial arts cultivation techniques, he could continue to purchase them through this channel.

It was killing two birds with one stone.

He flipped through the cultivation technique and replied after confirming that there were no problems, "Hello, I'm a newbie. Nice to meet you!" Mu Youyou was speechless.

He looked at the 600,000 reincarnation points in his account.

He then looked at Li Yueming's "newbie" title in the Reincarnation Imprint.

Good heavens.

A big shot who could casually take out 600,000 reincarnation points and still call himself a newbie?

Were all the big shots this bad these days?

The authority to reincarnate five times was sold out.

The martial arts techniques he wanted were also traded.

Li Yueming was prepared to close the reincarnation authority and go into seclusion.

But at this moment.

Yunduan Fengye privately messaged him again.” Boss, I might have misunderstood you a little. To express my apology, I’ll give you a copy of the Intermediate Reincarnator’s Professional Development Guide!”

He looked at the information that was over a hundred GB in size.

Li Yueming fell into silence. After a moment, he said,””Did you write the ‘Guide to Avoiding Traps for Newcomer Reincarnators’ on the forum previously?” Yunduan Fengye was obviously stunned when he heard this, but his heart was shaken again.

He wasn’t completely sure that Li Yueming was a newbie before.

Now, he was 90% sure.

After all, those who frequented the forum knew that he was the anonymous author of the guide to avoiding the pitfalls of a newbie’s reincarnation.

However, Li Yueming didn’t know.

Clearly, he was a newbie who had just come out.

He finally came back to his senses.

‘ Haha, ” Yunduan Fengye laughed.” That’s an anonymous post I posted. Have you seen it before?””

Li Yueming nodded and said casually, “I saw it when I was browsing the thread.”

No wonder Li Yueming felt a sense of familiarity when he was chatting with Yunduan Fengye.

So this guy was the author of the guide for new reincarnators to avoid traps.

He was definitely a heavy talker.

He closed the chat box.

Li Yueming opened the ” Guide to Intermediate Reincarnators ‘Professional Development Directions ” that Yunduan Fengye had given him and glanced at it.

He found that they were all hard goods.

It was mainly to teach reincarnators how to choose the profession they were good at and how to plan their future development path more systematically and in a scientific manner.

It also gave detailed examples and introductions to the science and technology side, the cultivation side, the magic side, the special ability side, the spiritual power side, the martial arts side... A series of classifications, as well as an analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of each class.

For example, someone in the science and technology field had become a genetic warrior.

The strength of this profession was that it could be done quickly. As long as the technology was high enough, one could become stronger with a single injection of gene growth fluid.

As for his shortcomings, they were also very obvious.

Rapid development in the early stage would inevitably lead to weakness in the later stage.

After a genetic warrior was given too much medicine, they might accidentally mutate.

Of course, the bigger possibility was that he would become a pile of scattered meat paste.

For example, the Mechanic God Vanquisher, the legendary Mech Master who would wear armor for free when a BUG sounded, the poor AK Gatling Gun, the rich Orbit Annihilation Cannon Gun expert, and so on.

It was the same for the cultivation side.

This kind of early stage might be pitifully weak, and many reincarnators would not be able to achieve anything even after working hard for their entire lives.

However, once he reached the threshold, he would be a super big shot that covered the sky.

As for the magic, ability, and psionic side, as the names suggested.

Magic reincarnators could control and control magic power.

Esper ability reincarnators could control all kinds of strange abilities.

Psionic reincarnators could develop their own soul abilities and use their souls to control all things.

There was no need to mention the martial arts side.

Entering the path through martial arts, the strongest could destroy the world with just one body.

It could be considered a rather standard classification.

This Intermediate Reincarnator Class Development Guide covered a very wide range.

It was an advanced version of the new reincarnator's guide.

Many of the contents were refreshing to Li Yueming.

At the very least, it allowed him to take fewer detours and fill in the many unknown gaps in his understanding of the world of reincarnators.

He could only say.

No matter what industry you were in, it was important to have a few high-class friends!

He kept the information.

Li Yueming decided to take advantage of this time to make up for his mistakes.

Chapter 150: The shock of the experienced reincarnators. The third reincarnation began!_1

In the next month.

During this time, he took the time to read the advanced version of the novice's class guide given by Yunduan Fengye.

The content was very rich.

It allowed Li Yueming to have a deeper understanding of reincarnators.

Most reincarnators would determine their focus in the first ten or so reincarnations.

After determining the direction of focus.

The reincarnators would begin to focus on learning the various knowledge of this profession test.

For example, magic-type reincarnators would learn more magic.

The technological reincarnators improved their technological manufacturing level.

The Xianxia reincarnators exchanged pills and magic treasures...

However, these were all areas that only high-level reincarnators could come into contact with.

The cultivation techniques, precious medicines, and items in the reincarnation world would be suppressed by the world's laws in the real world.

Cultivation techniques, precious medicines, and props that were not of a high enough level could not even be brought out.

Only when the corresponding conditions were met after the reincarnation would the reincarnation mark be rewarded.

Therefore, the treasures that could be brought from the reincarnation world to the real world were not cheap.

At the very least, reincarnators who were above level 5 could occasionally afford such high-level resources.

That was why.

That was why Li Yueming's martial arts techniques were so expensive.

However, the benefits that these three cultivation technique manuals brought to Li Yueming were also incomparably huge.

One of them, the Purple Sun Divine Technique, was the best martial arts inner force technique.

Li Yueming Star Moon Art was combined with the same.

The inner Qi in his body had expanded a lot because of this. Whether it was quality or quantity, it had undergone earth-shaking changes. There was also the Barbarian Blood Battle Technique.

This secret manual focused on punishment.

By burning one's Vitality, one can obtain extremely powerful combat strength, achieving the effect of having a body like a raging bull and endless strength.

It was a necessary cultivation technique that couldn't be defeated.

The last book, Moon Shadow Footwork, was a top-notch movement technique in the martial arts side.

The effect was simple and direct.

It doubled Li Yueming's speed and dodging speed.

He absorbed the three martial arts cultivation techniques.

Li Yueming's strength had increased by another level.

In addition.

The territory residents sent by the Reincarnator Association to Li Yueming were already on their way.

Li Yueming named his territory Star-Moon City.

As for the content...

Of course not.

Because Li Yueming was a complete waste of names.

In order to avoid being entangled with the name, the simplest way was to put the name of all the forces related to him with the word Star Moon.

This way, it was both time-saving and effortless.

Just like that, two months later.

Li Yueming finally walked out of the City Lord's Mansion after a long time.

At the side.

Zhao Shiya also had a complicated and excited expression on her face.

Not far away, outside Star-Moon City.

Hundreds of thousands of people, escorted by more than a dozen senior reincarnators and thousands of ordinary staff members, looked around curiously.

He looked at the dilapidated city in front of him.

Thinking about how they might have to live here for the rest of their lives.

To be honest.

Many ordinary residents felt their scalps go numb, and they were extremely nervous.

At the side.

A senior reincarnator from the Reincarnator Association flew up the city wall and found Li Yueming. He said, "Hello, this is the first batch of residents of your territory. There are a total of 123000 people. The average age is around 25 years old. The vast majority of them are young people."

As he spoke.

He handed a document to Li Yueming.

As long as Li Yueming signed his name, the responsibility of managing these 120,000 residents would fall on Li Yueming.

Li Yueming took the document and glanced at it.

After confirming that there were no problems, he signed his name.

Below the city.

More than a dozen reincarnators flew up one after another.

After seeing Li Yueming, they all smiled politely.

Among them, a fat man with disheveled hair and the appearance of a Daoist walked forward and stretched out his hand with a smile. "Young friend, you really have an imposing appearance. I am Wu De of Stone City. It's our first meeting, so I brought you some congratulatory gifts as a form of respect!"

Li Yueming was also full of smiles. He held his hand and said, "Fellow Daoist, you're too polite. I don't deserve it!"

You don't hit a smiling face.

Li Yueming naturally had to give him face when he came to congratulate him on becoming a reincarnator.

When the two of them shook hands and greeted each other.

Li Yueming also glanced at Wu De from head to toe.

This fatty was dressed in a Daoist robe and looked unkempt.

At a glance, it was obvious that they were the kind of immortal cultivators who would not survive unless they went crazy. Well... He couldn't afford to offend them!

After greeting Wu De.

Soon, a man with half his body modified into a mechanical body walked up behind him.

Stretching out a mechanical arm, he said in a strange mechanical voice, "I heard that you're the only reincarnator with an S grade in this batch of Linjiang Second? Well... I didn't expect that I would give up my bright future and choose to stay in a lousy place like Linjiang..."

Beside him, the greasy fatty glanced at the mechanical man and said speechlessly, "Wang Shuming, can you talk nicely? Would you die if you didn't play this cyberpunk style?"

The mechanical man called Wang Shuming ignored Wu De's mockery.

A pair of red eyes glanced at Li Yueming and continued, "Welcome to the Linjiang Reincarnator Association. Young man, I have high hopes for you!"

He looked at the mechanical arm in front of him.

Li Yueming broke out in a cold sweat.

Can't you greet each other in a more normal way? Each of them had their own unique characteristics?
