

Maxing MT 15

Chapter 15

Son of God, Opening a New Era!

“All the scumbags who hinder Teacher from forming a new era must be cleaned up. None of them will be left alive!”

Following the order,

All the Star Moon Alliance members gathered together.

Around him.

Countless refugees carrying hoes and dustpans poked their heads out of the darkness.

Looking at the sewer bosses lying in a pool of blood around him.

Every refugee’s eyes flickered with fanaticism and excitement.

This group of refugees who were used to being oppressed finally realized that this group of men who were usually high and mighty would pee their pants too, when in the face of death.

And so.

Many of these refugees who were originally half-willing and half-coaxed joined the battle boldly.

In the beginning.

There were only a few refugees following behind 0911’s guards and Star Moon Alliance members.

However, as the guards continued to advance,

More and more refugees joined.

Dozens of people...

Hundreds of people...

Nearly a thousand people!!!

The surging crowd was like an ocean.

It was unstoppable.

Under such circumstances,

The three kings, who were still trying to resist, quickly lost their dignity and fled.

Looking at the panicking bosses.

A violent cheer erupted from the refugees.

Li Yueming was surrounded by the crowd.

Some refugees called him the Son of God.

Some even knelt on the ground and kowtowed.

In their impression,

It seemed that only the Son of God could be so wise and mighty.

In response.

Li Yueming could only smile bitterly.

Actually, when the three kings gathered all the bosses to the central pipeline for a meeting,

Li Yueming already knew what the other party was up to.

After all, Li Yueming had seen this kind of excuse used many times in the history books of his previous life.

Moreover, he had Infinite Deductions on his side.

Naturally, he could not fall for their trap.

However, after lying low for so long,

The Star Moon Alliance's expansion was gradually approaching saturation.

He wanted to expand further.

Ordinary infiltration was no longer effective.

They had to use their fangs and claws to cut various parties off so that the Alliance could continue to grow.

Therefore.

After repeated deductions,

Only then did Li Yueming decide to beat them at their own game.

He took the initiative to say that he wanted to go to the central pipeline with Cao Xin.

He took this opportunity to wipe out the three kings and the others who came to participate in the meeting.

Now.

The plan had progressed to this part.

The toughest bone had been bitten off.

Li Yueming did not continue to worry about the remaining defeated soldiers. He handed them all to his subordinates for practice.

After all, what he needed was not a puppet organization.

Instead, he needed a right-hand man who could really help him.

Therefore.

Appropriately letting go can fully hone the cohesion of the organization's members.

[Successful change of fate!]

[At the age of 12, you had already shocked the world. At the meeting where the three kings invited the bosses, you successfully killed everyone and successfully changed your fate!]

[The score of this simulated reincarnation has increased greatly!]

[Additional reward: 8,000 Reincarnation Points!]

[Part of the permanent reincarnation mark has been activated!]

Time flowed, and the sun and moon shuttled.

Another year passed.

This year.

Li Yueming was thirteen years old.

Now, he has become the true king of the Underground World.

In the entire underground of Fallout Shelter 0911.

No other force could be compared to the Star Moon Alliance.

Still.

The remnants of the sewer bosses in the regions are still active.

The battle in the reception room.

The Alliance had killed nearly 200 bosses.

But that included the three kings.

Half of the sewer bosses took advantage of the chaos to escape.

The 0911 guards chased after them.

Even if he tried his best, he could only kill Zhou Fenghai, one of the three kings.

After Zhou Wuhai and Zhou Shenhai escaped.

He gathered the remaining forces and established the Sewer Leaders Alliance.

Training his underlings to fight to the death with the Star Moon Alliance.

And yet.

As the scaled-up production line for nurturing earthworms gradually took shape, the combat power of the Alliance's troops became stronger and stronger.

The resistance of the sewer bosses was rapidly weakening.

They probably wouldn't be able to resist for long.

This was the tide of the times.

The once insufferably arrogant bosses had turned into the withered flowers of yesterday in just a year.

It was about to wither.

Of course.

Li Yueming was not very interested in this information.

After all, with the current situation,

All the fish that swam upstream end up stranded on the beach.

The era of the bosses had long passed on the night of the previous year.

Now, other than eating and teaching normally,

He locked himself in his house most of the day and used his talent to run simulations.

The reason why he was so focused.

It was because he realized that he had encountered a problem.

With his current achievements,

Even if he immediately returned to the simulator space, it would be enough to activate the permanent Reincarnator's mark.

However, Li Yueming, who had a Gold talent, was naturally not satisfied with this achievement.

Therefore.

He tried to continue running.

But no matter how he changed the deduction conditions,

He realized that as long as he left the sewer and headed to the Surface World,

He would soon die a miserable death.

[18 years old: You tried to expand the Star Moon Alliance to the Surface World. Through the sewers that lead in all directions, you reach the surface smoothly!]

[The commotion you made attracted the attention of a group of Rats on the Surface World!]

[The Rats attacked you!]

[In the chaos, your throat was bitten off by the Rat King.]

[You're dead.]

He looked at the scarlet words in the deduction.

Li Yueming rubbed his temples helplessly.

Even though he was already 13 years old.

He was considered quite well-developed for a child.

Even when he used Infinite Deductions, he still felt that his entire body was empty.

Now he knew.

It turned out that it was not that the refugees did not want to leave the sewers.

Instead, going to the Surface World and the world in the sewers were two completely different concepts.

If he rashly walked out of the sewer, he would only die.

He could not find a breakthrough point to the Surface World.

Li Yueming could only focus on improving his strength.

Currently, the various attributes of his body were already approaching the limits of the human body.

Ordinary training could no longer increase his combat strength.

Therefore.

Li Yueming tried to deduce a way to control his body and muscles to unleash superhuman abilities through his talent.

It was similar to the breathing technique in the comics in his previous life.

However, he had tried many times.

Li Yueming also found nothing.

Fortunately, he had a positive mindset. Every time he failed, he would summarize his lessons.

He would try to build on the original foundation next time.

Otherwise, if it were someone else, they would probably curse.

After countless failures and deductions,

The deduction of the breathing technique finally raised some eyebrows.

“I don’t know enough about this world, so I can’t deduce the detailed meridian technique. I have to collect more information!”

After confirming this,

Li Yueming could not help but exhale heavily.

At this moment.

Outside the door, a little girl who had just learned how to walk bounced over.

Her small hand gently grabbed one of Li Yueming’s pants.

She said in a childish voice, “Brother, I want to hear ‘Sister Werewolf’ story!”

This fair and cute little girl was naturally Li Yueming’s sister, Li Xiyue.

After a year of growth.

Li Xiyue had already changed.

From her wrinkled appearance as a newborn, she had become a smart and cute little princess.

She was very smart.

She had learned how to walk and talk long ago.

Every day, after eating her fill, she would come over and pester Li Yueming to tell her all kinds of stories!

She was also the only special one in the Star Moon Alliance who could see Li Yueming every day.

One could imagine how much Li Yueming doted on her.

Holding his sister in his arms, Li Yueming pinched Li Xiyue's face and said, "Xixi, be good. I have something to do now. I'll tell you a story tonight, okay?"

Li Xiyue puffed up her cheeks.

Still, she nodded and said, "Brother, you have to keep your promise. You can't change your promise for a hundred years!"

Li Yueming made a pinky promise with the little girl.

Then, he hurriedly left his residence and went straight to the Alliance's headquarters.

When the guard at the door saw Li Yueming,

He quickly puffed out his chest.

The excitement and fear on his face could not be concealed.

In the past year, Li Yueming, the nominal leader of the Star Moon Alliance, had rarely appeared.

However, the legend of the Son of God never stopped spreading.

He met Li Yueming in person by chance.

The doorman could brag to his friends for an entire year.

It could be said that

The current Li Yueming was undoubtedly the legend of the Star Moon Alliance!
