Chapter 311: The Last Step to Prepare for the Intense Competition in the Instance Dungeon!_1

The second most popular thread on the reincarnation forum was about the public reincarnation instance.

The title was also very interesting.

The so-called public reincarnating instance, the alliance of the individual players.

As the name implied.

In fact, many ordinary reincarnators who did not have family power or union power spontaneously formed an alliance to warm up.

After all, for a long time in the past.

The public reincarnation dungeon was the backyard of many guilds and families.

These reincarnators with backgrounds were not only powerful.

Furthermore, they usually formed teams to enter dungeons.

Ordinary reincarnators did not have any competition in front of them.

That's why.

As the number of reincarnations increased.

The ordinary reincarnators had also begun to awaken.

It was possible that they alone could not snatch those powerful family reincarnators and union reincarnators.

However, if they could gather together and form an alliance.

Even if this so-called alliance was temporary, even if there was not much cohesion within it.

However, as long as they could reach a consensus on the surface.

At the very least, it would increase their chances of obtaining more resources.

Therefore, every time before the reincarnator's dungeon was released.

There would be many reincarnators looking for people to form teams on the forum.

Generally speaking.

After confirming the team formation, the reincarnators would determine the secret code in advance.

When the time was right.

They would communicate with each other through some means in the reincarnation world.

In the end, they formed groups to plunder all kinds of resources.

He opened the post.

As expected, there were already many reincarnators leaving messages and forming teams.

[Stormbringer (OP):[Technology/urban world, Level 4 and above reincarnators can form teams through private chat!]]”

Loving you is like a moth flying into a flame (reply):”I’m a technological rookie from Level 3. I’m looking up to the big boss. May I ask the big boss... Can you bring me along?”

[Feng Yan Feng Yu (Landlord):”Upstairs, privately send a photo to take a look.

The woman left her phone number, and the man is self-reliant!”

True Is The Riddler (reply): Can you do it, Condor Cute Sister?”

Unbreakable Fate (reply): “Borrow a building. Are there any big shots who are on the side of personal power? I am a Level 4 commoner martial artist. Please take me in!”

If we can form a party, I’ll bring you flying!”

A group of commoner reincarnators were forming teams.

Clearly, they were making their final preparations.

Li Yueming scanned through it.

He realized that most of the people who wanted to form a team here were Level 1 to Level 3 reincarnators.

However, after thinking about it carefully.

This was a normal phenomenon.

After all, reincarnators above level 5 were basically old foxes.

It could grow to Level 5.

Having a small circle of his own should be the least he could do.

Moreover, their own strength was enough to deal with most unexpected situations.

Therefore, there was no need to find people on the forum to form a team.

He swept his gaze around.

In fact, Li Yueming didn’t find any particularly valuable information. It was just that he had a deeper understanding of the liveliness of the public reincarnation dungeon.

Obviously.

Entering a public reincarnation instance dungeon was quite different from entering an ordinary individual instance dungeon.

In the public reincarnation instance dungeon.

The main mission of the reincarnators was no longer the same as before.

Simply by defying the heavens and changing one’s fate to expand one’s influence, one could obtain a higher reincarnation evaluation.

Instead, it became to arm himself as quickly as possible.

Then, he would use his fists to fight for more resources.

After entering the public reincarnation dungeon.

Every reincarnator would be assigned to a different camp.

Of course, there were also a few reincarnators who had no factions.

However, regardless of whether there was a faction or not, every reincarnator would definitely have their own main mission.

After completing the main mission, the reincarnator could choose to leave the reincarnation world.

The Reincarnation Mark will receive the corresponding mission reward.

In the process of completing the main mission, there might be some side missions and hidden missions that could be unlocked.

Whether or not these missions were accepted and completed depended on the reincarnators themselves.

The rewards for the side missions were mostly provided by the reincarnation world.

In other words, the side quest had nothing to do with the Reincarnation Mark. The Reincarnation Mark would not give out any rewards and would only increase the overall Reincarnation score.

They could also kill other reincarnators in the public dungeon.

There is a chance to drop some of the other party's treasures after completing the kill.

If ordinary reincarnation was a single-player game...

In that case, public reincarnation was an online battle game.

Therefore, he had no choice.

After entering the public instance dungeon.

Reincarnators not only needed to guard against the local aborigines, but they also needed to guard against other reincarnators in the same industry.

After thinking through everything.

Li Yueming roughly glanced at the posts at the back of the reincarnator forum.

After realizing that there was nothing worth paying attention to, he quickly turned around and left.

He closed the Reincarnator Forum.

He opened the Group chats created by Yunduan Fengye and prepared to ask about some rules that he had yet to figure out.

In the Group chats.

Yunduan Fengye and the others were also discussing the public reincarnation dungeon.

Yunduan Fengye (Qin Ritian):"By the way, are you all preparing to enter the public reincarnation instance this time?"

The Coffin's Plate Shakes (Hou Pingyin):"Hey, who can reject a public reincarnation instance dungeon? Or rather, who could refuse a free ride?"

[Don't Bully the Poor (Ji Ning): The new public instance dungeon has appeared.

How can we stop?] Remember to form a team if you encounter an individual

Mighty Force Instance Dungeon. Secret Code King Covers the Earth Tiger!"

Ominous Old Age (Qian Fengtian):"You dare to say that you want to form a team? A person without credibility was not worthy of speaking!"

Chapter 312: The Last Step to Prepare for the Intense Competition in the Instance Dungeon!_2

Tomb Raider's Tears (Wang Linlin):"Stop quarreling. You won't kill me by making so much noise. Save your energy, okay? If you have any grudges, go to the reincarnation world and use your fists to speak! "

Tomb Raider's Tears (Wang Linlin):"Cough cough...Alright, it's time for this little girl to find a thigh again! If there are big shots in the group who meet this little girl, please take care of her. This little girl is especially good at crying!"

Don't Bully the Poor (Ji Ning): Prprprpr, I've already set up a school for you, so when can I eat your soft rice?"

Tomb Raider's Tears (Wang Linlin):"You're the alternate account of 'Rice Smells Good' on the reincarnator forum? F * Ck off, so disgusting, hurry up and die!"

An ominous old age (Qian Fengtian):"Ji Ning, you're a three-foot-tall man, yet you're living off a woman in the Xianxia world? I'm ashamed to be with you! I suggest that the group leader kick this damn freeloader out of the Group chats rectify the group atmosphere..."

Yunduan Fengye (Qin Ritian) said,[Actually, I have a friend...]

In the Group chats.

The discussion was as heated as ever.

Speaking of which...

This group of rich second-generation heirs did not only run dungeons and patrol the territory on a daily basis.

It seemed like there was nothing to worry about.

Moreover, because cities needed the protection of reincarnators, most reincarnators rarely left their territory when there was nothing to do.

There was no way for them to gather together even if they were separated from each other.

Under such circumstances.

Most reincarnators were otakus.

There was nothing to do while resting in the huge palace.

It was normal for the forums and Group chats to be popular.

Even Li Yueming.

When he had nothing to do, he actually liked to stay in the reincarnation forum and Group chats.

After all, the idiotic netizens in the Group chats and forum were all talented.

After looking at it for a moment.

When he realized that they were almost done chatting.

Li Yueming took the opportunity to send a message in the group and asked, ""May I ask everyone, is there anything worth noting about entering the public reincarnation instance dungeon for the first time?"

He sent the message.

Soon, he received a few replies from the group.

Tomb Raider's Tears (Wang Linlin): "@ Moonstar, the big boss actually showed up? How were the few cultivation techniques that he had traded last time?" Seeing this.

Li Yueming immediately replied, [Very good. Every book is a top-notch martial arts cultivation technique!]"

Wang Linlin was obviously very proud when she heard that. She replied in the group: "Hahaha, that's good..."Boss, I reckon that other than our Wang family, which is a martial arts reincarnator family, the other reincarnator factions will not be able to provide you with so many martial arts secret manuals and cultivation techniques at once!" Li Yueming was deep in thought.

Obviously.

This was the first time Wang Linlin mentioned her identity in front of him.

The meaning was obvious.

He was prepared to build a good relationship with Li Yueming.

He thought about it.

Li Yueming did not reply immediately.

Wang Linlin was obviously prepared to take things one step at a time, so she didn't continue to talk about topics related to identity. She continued, "Big Boss, you specially popped up today to ask about the Reincarnation Instance Dungeon. Are you preparing to go to the Public Reincarnation Instance Dungeon to play?"

Li Yueming didn't deny this and nodded, ""Yes, but I'm not sure what I need to pay attention to when entering the public reincarnation instance dungeon!" Wang Linlin didn't have time to reply.

Yunduan Fengye took the initiative to @ Li Yueming and said, ""@ Moon Star, if you have anything to ask, you can ask in the group. As long as we know, we will tell you directly!"

He thought about it.

Li Yueming didn't stand on ceremony and asked, "How many reincarnators will enter the public reincarnation dungeon?"

Yunduan Fengye replied, "Under normal circumstances, the number of reincarnators in public dungeons is not fixed. The number of reincarnators that enter each time is mostly between 100 to 200. Very few large-scale public reincarnation dungeons can accommodate 500 to 1,000 reincarnators!!! Of course... This range was not absolute. It depended on the arrangement of the reincarnation mark!"

"In simple terms, there's no pattern?" Li Yueming asked.

Yunduan Fengye thought for a moment before replying: "It's not that there's no pattern... Under normal circumstances, the larger the reincarnation world, the more reincarnators there would be. The smaller the reincarnation world, the fewer the number of reincarnators!"

"In addition, the number of reincarnators also depends on the degree of rejection of the world's consciousness. There will be more reincarnators in the world who do not reject reincarnators, and there will be fewer reincarnators in the world who reject reincarnators!"

"These two should be the most universal laws at the moment!"

Hearing this.

Li Yueming nodded, feeling a little more confident.

Seeing that the conversation had reached this point, Yunduan Fengye continued to explain, "Similarly, there are differences when reincarnators enter the reincarnation world! Level 1 to Level 3 reincarnators would generally enter some low-level reincarnation worlds. Level 4 to Level 6 reincarnators would generally enter some higher-level reincarnation worlds!"

"As for the higher-level bosses, I don't know which world they will enter. I don't know much about the specific situation!"

"The lower the level of the reincarnation world, the higher the tolerance of the world's will for the reincarnators. The probability of the reincarnators obtaining resources and rewards will also increase... However, there were generally no treasures in low-level reincarnation worlds.. At most, they could only obtain some reincarnation points and additional reincarnation authority!"

Chapter 313: The Last Step to Prepare for the Intense Competition in the Instance Dungeon!_3

"The higher the level of the reincarnation world, the lower the tolerance of the world's will for the reincarnators. The chances of the reincarnators surviving and obtaining rewards will be greatly reduced... However, high-level reincarnation worlds were rich in all kinds of treasures! If one was lucky enough to obtain one, it would be extremely beneficial to the reincarnator's strength and future development!"

"All in all, the competition for the public reincarnation instance dungeon is quite intense!"

"If you want to obtain benefits from it, other than forming a gang and becoming the sixth brother, you can only rely on your fists to beat the other reincarnators into submission!"

"However, the intense competition also means that the rewards are bountiful! Not to mention the big prize on the reincarnators' ranking list, just the reincarnation points and additional reincarnation rights awarded for completing the main and side missions were enough to make quite a number of ordinary reincarnators go crazy!"

The message was very long.

Yunduan Fengye was also writing seriously.

Almost all of Li Yueming's doubts were dispelled.

Li Yueming typed, [Thank you, Maple Leaf Giant!]"

Yunduan Fengye was also writing seriously.

Almost all of Li Yueming's doubts were dispelled.

Li Yueming typed,[Thank you, Maple Leaf Giant!]"

The sound of maple leaves is huge.

Yunduan Fengye beamed.

In an instant, he regained the majestic feeling he had when he was on the newbie forum.

Just as he was about to ignore the pleasantries and act like a veteran, he was about to leave.

In the Group chats.

Wang Linlin suddenly interjected, "The newbie big shot is also a reincarnator of the personal power side, right?" Me too. Is it convenient for me to ask about your current Reincarnation Mark level?"

Hearing her question.

Li Yueming thought about it. The level of the Reincarnation Mark was different from his personal identity information

Moreover, the people in the Group chats seemed to be quite reliable.

Li Yueming already had the intention to befriend them.

Therefore, Li Yueming weighed the pros and cons for a moment before saying, "It's only level 3 for now, but it's only one step away from level 4!"

Hearing this.

The Group chats fell into a strange silence again.

A moment later, a series of ellipses appeared.

Wang Linlin was speechless. Cloud Maple Leaf (Qin Ritian): "...". Hou Pingyin was speechless.

Qian Fengtian was speechless.

Was this the legendary stinky big shot?

Even Versailles was so simple!

Yunduan Fengye, who originally wanted to show off his identity as a senior in front of Li Yueming with his hands on his hips, felt even worse when he saw the situation.

Damn it.

What did he mean by only Level 3 for now?

Could it be that Level 3 was so unpresentable?

One had to know that even though he had already been a reincarnator for more than two years, he was still alive.

It was only Level 4 now!

Just this alone was enough for them, a group of second-generation heirs with average qualifications, to be complacent.

However, how long had it been since Li Yueming became a reincarnator? At most, it should be two to three months, right? Now, he was almost a Level 4 expert.

It was simply terrifying!

In an instant, Yunduan Fengye felt as if he had shut himself in.

Suddenly, no one spoke in the Group chats.

“What’s wrong?” Li Yueming asked curiously. Is there a problem?”

After the message was sent out, a long time later, the card was taken out.

Wang Linlin forced herself to reply, “Ah, there’s no problem. There’s no problem at all. If it’s close to Level 4...” It’s possible that I’ll be assigned to a higher-level world. At that time, if the big boss sees me or our Wang family’s reincarnators in the higher-level personal power world, if there’s a need, you can ask them for some help.”

“I can’t guarantee that they will definitely help you, but if it’s within their ability... It shouldn’t be a problem!”

Seeing this, Yunduan Fengye also said, “Our Group chats also has a unified code. The heavenly king covers the earth tiger, and the pagoda suppresses the river demon! As long as the news was released, if there were group members in the same reincarnation world, they could help each other!”

At this point.

Yunduan Fengye added, “The only thing you have to be careful of are Qian Fengtian and Ji Ning.” Especially Ji Ning, this guy is famous in our group for being able to cause trouble!”

Hearing this, Ji Ning and Qian Fengtian were obviously unhappy.

Qian Fengtian was the first to stand up and refute, “Qin Ritian, it’s fine that you questioned Ji Ning, but why did you include me?@ Yue Mingxing was a little distant. Newbie big shot, don’t listen to Qin Ritian’s nonsense. My bad character is only directed at Ji Ning!”

“If you enter a high-level world, remember to give me a secret signal.”

Almost at the same time, Ji Ning replied, “@ Moon Celebrity, big brother, join the glorious Soft Rice Sect with me!”

omnous1Y.

Whether it was Wang Linlin, Yunduan Fengye, Ji Ning, or Qian Fengtian, they were all very excited.

They all showed great recognition of Li Yueming’s potential.

After all, in just a few months, Li Yueming had brought them too many surprises and surprises.

This newcomer was like a sealed box.

Without opening it, one would never know what was inside.

But even so.

However, they were still worried about Li Ming’s public dungeon trip.

It would have been fine if he had entered a low-level world.

It was a group of reincarnators below Level 3 who were tormenting them.

With Li Yueming’s strength, he should be able to live comfortably!

However, if he was unlucky and was assigned to the high-level reincarnator area by the mark, that would be terrible!

After all, no matter what.

Li Yueming was just a newcomer who had just become a reincarnator not long ago.

Even if he had unlimited potential, he still lacked sufficient foundation.

The reincarnators in the high-level reincarnation dungeon were basically old foxes who had been in the dungeon for an unknown period of time.

They all had their own skills.

Under such circumstances, the only thing that could make them feel fear was form and strength.

Even a group of rich second-generation heirs with family backgrounds like them had to be careful.

After all, in the reincarnation world, no one would dare to kill because of their background.

So what if he was killed?

Not to mention that reincarnators could be resurrected.

So what if he couldn't revive?

Most of the time, you don't even know who killed you.

In this world,

Li Yueming, who was not even Level 4, was undoubtedly at the bottom of the bottom.

An existence that could die immediately if there were any twists and turns.

Therefore, they specially reminded Li Yueming that if he needed help, he could ask them for help.

Hearing this.

Li Yueming didn't reject their good intentions.

He smiled and replied, [Thank you for your kind intentions. If there's a chance, I'll see you in the public reincarnation dungeon!]"

Chapter 314: A 5,000-man super-large-scale dungeon, a new world begins!_1

Li Yueming closed the Group chats and sorted out the information he had just received.

Firstly.

The number of reincarnators in the public reincarnation dungeon was unknown.

The mark would determine the number of reincarnators who could enter the Reincarnation Dungeon according to the specific situation of the Reincarnation World.

Secondly, the reincarnation worlds were divided into high and low levels.

With his Mark of Reincarnation at Level 3 and almost Level 4, he was stuck between these two requirements.

To Li Yueming, it was naturally better to enter a high-level reincarnation world.

After all, there was nothing in the low-level reincarnation world that was worth asking for.

However, it was unknown whether the reincarnation mark would assign him to a low-level reincarnation world or a high-level reincarnation world.

Li Yueming couldn't predict or change.

What he could do was to make as many preparations as possible in advance in case of emergencies.

In the end.

In a public reincarnation dungeon, many reincarnators might form teams.

This wasn't good news for Li Yueming, who was used to living alone.

After combining all the information.

After entering the public reincarnation dungeon.

The people who reincarnators needed to be wary of and pay attention to the most were no longer the natives of the reincarnation world. It was the other reincarnators who were in the same industry!

As for the reason...It was very simple.

Only other colleagues who were also reincarnators knew what methods reincarnators had.

After closing the reincarnation mark.

Li Yueming closed his eyes and began his final preparations.

He would strive to adjust his physical and mental state to the best state before the public reincarnation instance dungeon opened.

After that, he could wait for the instance dungeon to open and enter the world of the serial number he wished for.

.0.

Time passed quickly.

In the blink of an eye, a week had passed.

This morning, Li Yueming discovered that the Reincarnation Mark on his hand was emitting microscopic light.

[Ding, the father-in-law's reincarnation dungeon is being opened!]

[The public reincarnation worlds that are open this time are: Sequence number 7 (fantasy world), Sequence number 3 (apocalyptic world), Sequence number 4 (urban world)!]

[Every reincarnator with a reincarnation mark will receive a free chance to enter the public reincarnation world!]

[If you die in a public dungeon, the reincarnator will return to the reincarnation space. The reincarnator who dies will randomly drop an item!]

[After completing the main mission, the reincarnator can freely choose to return to the reincarnation space!]

[The public reincarnation dungeon has been activated. Reincarnators who wish to enter please choose within three days!]

in the silver-white reincarnation space.

Lines of text appeared in front of Li Yueming.

Without any hesitation, he whispered, "Imprint, enter the Sequence 7 fantasy world public reincarnation dungeon!"

A moment later.

The reincarnation mark on his wrist began to glow and project a string of words.

[Detected reincarnator name: Li Yueming, serial number 7001611]

[Remaining Reincarnation Authority: 6]

[Mark of Reincarnation Level: LV3 (9500/10000)]

[Reincarnation Points Balance: 451,300]

[Origin Power: 100 times talent enhancement!]

[Fixed Talent: Infinite Deduction (Gold)]

[Special Talent Title: God of Martial Arts (red), Perfect Genetic Body (shiny gold)]

[Fixed Talent: 1]

‘Fixed number of additional talents: 2’

[Do you want to purchase additional services? If he didn't need to click on the option, he could activate the reincarnation directly!]

According to his past experience in normal dungeons.

Li Yueming would definitely only spend a few thousand reincarnation points to buy a resource pack for the reincarnation world.

Items like the golden spoon had no effect on increasing the rating of the Reincarnation Dungeon.

If you don't use it well, then you'll have to go

There might even be side effects.

After all, you were born into a noble family, and the resources you received from a young age belonged to the noble family.

The requirements of the Reincarnation Mark will also increase correspondingly.

Naturally, if you wanted to obtain a higher evaluation, you had to have greater achievements.

On the contrary.

If you were a beggar.

The requirements of the reincarnation mark on you will also be correspondingly reduced.

After all, as a beggar who didn't have enough to eat or wear, it was already considered heaven-defying to not starve to death.

It was naturally more difficult for them to achieve something than the children of the noble families.

That's why.

Li Yueming couldn't be bothered to spend unnecessary reincarnation points to become a wronged child.

However, this public dungeon reincarnation was clearly different.

However, this public reincarnation instance dungeon was different.

In order for his birth resources to be higher than other reincarnators, or at the very least, not to fall behind the other reincarnators too much, he definitely needed to buy a golden spoon.

Of course.

The other reincarnators wanted to seize the initiative and obtain a higher status.

Most likely, they would all choose to buy a golden spoon and keep it in their mouths.

After all, the descendants of high-ranking officials and noble families could enjoy more resources from a young age. With enough resources, they could greatly shorten the growth cycle of the reincarnators.

The growth speed of the reincarnators became faster. Only when they faced other reincarnators would they have enough strength and methods to compete for resources.

It could be said that there were many benefits.

Therefore, after thinking about the cause and effect.

Li Yueming did not hesitate and said, "Imprint, buy a gold spoon!"

[Ding, do you want to spend 10,000 reincarnation points to buy a gold spoon?] 10,000 reincarnation points was indeed a little expensive.

However, since the wool was on the sheep's body, at most, he could earn more after entering the reincarnation world.

Therefore, Li Yueming was not stingy and chose to buy it.

[Ding, the golden spoon has been successfully purchased!]

[Detected that you are about to enter a public dungeon. The effect of the golden spoon has been reduced.. The probability of you reincarnating into a rich family has increased by 5%!]

Chapter 315: A 5,000-man super-large-scale dungeon, a new world begins!_2

[Do you want to spend more reincarnation points to buy a golden spoon to increase the probability?]

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Good heavens.

‘Mark of Reincarnation, you have thick eyebrows and big eyes. You actually know how to play such a f * cking trick?’

According to normal probability.

After buying the golden spoon, the probability of being reincarnated into a rich family should increase by at least 80%.

But now, Li Yueming spent 10,000 reincarnation points to buy a gold spoon.

The probability of reincarnating into a rich family only increased by a pitiful 5%?

Be careful, I’ll report you for false advertising!

It was as if she could feel the strong desire to ridicule him in his heart.

[The effect of the golden spoon has been reduced due to too many reincarnators buying it. Isn’t this reasonable?]" emmm..

It was very reasonable, right?

Alright then... That did seem a little reasonable.

However, if the probability increased by 5% once, it would only increase by 50% ten times.

What the f * Ck was there to buy?

Li Yueming entered the public reincarnation dungeon with the mentality of a freeloader.

Thus, he was naturally unwilling to invest too much.

Li Yueming narrowed his eyes and asked,""In that case, can you return me the 10,000 reincarnation points? I don’t want to buy a!" [The item you bought, the Golden Spoon, is non-refundable!]

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Forget it.

He couldn’t count on the reincarnation mark to have much conscience.

He did not continue to argue with the Reincarnation Mark.

Li Yueming directly said, “Then I’ll buy an additional share of information. I don’t want anything else!"”

[Ding, do you want to spend 5,000 reincarnation points to buy an information resource pack?]

[Yes!]

[The resource pack has been successfully purchased. Additional information has entered your mind!]

[I wish you a happy reincarnation!]

The information from the mark quickly flashed.

At the same time, a bunch of information was stuffed into Li Yueming’s head.

Before he could fully digest it.

In the next second.

An extremely familiar feeling of his soul leaving his body assaulted him! Li Yueming felt that he had gradually lost all sense of his body.

[World loaded]

[World loaded successfully. Planet serial number 7-21741!]

[The reincarnator is currently in the midst of a mystery in the womb. After the initial introduction, you can enter the reincarnation world.]

[Legend has it that in ancient times, the Human Emperor Tiandu Clan led the Human Race to launch an unprecedented war! The Tiandu Clan mobilized the entire clan's strength and finally defeated the Insect Race's Demon Lord, opening up a prosperous era for the human race in the future!]

[In order for future generations to have the power to resist the Demon Lord and not be disturbed by the Demon Lord in the future, the Tiandu Clan has created a cultivation method that uses qi to control the body!]

[Any human body can cultivate with the help of the 'spiritual energy' that exists in the world!]

[Once you cultivate to the Void Reversion Realm and gather the fate of the world into one, you will be able to vindicate your Dao and transcend the world, achieving an undying body that will last forever!]

[After the Tiandu Clan ascended, the Tiandu Dynasty that they founded gradually fell apart over the long years!]

[After tens of thousands of years of evolution, the Tiandu Dynasty continued to decline...]

[5,000 years ago, the last human emperor of the Tiandu clan was dissolute and immoral. He repaired the palace altar and wanted to imitate the ancestor emperor of the Tiandu clan to prove his Dao and ascend. The endless labor caused the people under his rule to suffer. The world was filled with sorrow and the people were in dire straits!]

[The dukes have received the order of the heavens to crusade against the human emperor!]

[After hundreds of years of war, the Tiandu Dynasty was erased from history and completely split into nine sub-dynasties!]

[These nine sub-dynasties are: Great Zhou, Great Qian, Great Tang, Great Yuan, Great Ming, Great Qin, Great Song, Great Han, and Great Nia!]

[The nine sub-dynasties all believe that they are the legitimate successors of the Tiandu Dynasty. They promised that they would once again unify the world and use this merit to prove their Dao and ascend again...]

[In the past five thousand years, the nine sub-dynasties had been at war and annexed each other. After a long war, three dynasties were destroyed, leaving six out of the nine sub-dynasties.]

[They are: Great Tang, Great Ming, Great Qin, Great Han, Great Song, and Great Zhou!]

[The war between the six states is still going on. All the vassals want to unify the world and gather fate to follow the Human Emperor to prove his Dao and ascend!]

[Reincarnation world background introduction completed. Randomly drawing talent!]

[Congratulations on obtaining talent: Eggy's Sorrow (gray)]

[Eggy's Sorrow (Gray): Due to some unpredictable power, your Eggy is stunted and feels very sad! Your concentration will be slightly increased, and women will no longer be able to disturb your mind!]

[The 100-fold increase in the origin energy talent has been triggered. The effects of all your talents will be increased by 100 times!]

[Your talent 'Eggy's Sorrow' has been amplified by 100 times by the origin energy and has been transformed into the purple talent 'Rootless Man'!]

[Rootless Man (Green): Due to some force, you have lost an object that you should have... By sacrificing this item, you will be able to achieve twice the result with half the effort when practicing a certain cultivation technique. You can also obtain an additional 250% concentration. Moreover, whether it is women or the outside world, they will no longer be able to affect your speed of drawing your sword!]

[The rules of this reincarnation world are level 5. Reincarnators are allowed to bring two talents into the reincarnation world!]

[Please choose two of the following talents to bind: Rootless Man (green), Infinite Deduction (gold), Perfect Genetic Body (shiny gold)!]

He looked over from top to bottom.

There was nothing much to say about the world's background. The power systems of the martial arts world, the xianxia world, and the fantasy world were all based on personal power..

Chapter 316: A 5,000-man super-large-scale dungeon, a new world begins! J

Actually, there was not much difference.

At most, it was just that the singing team on the stage was different.

What puzzled Li Yueming the most was whether this so-called Insect Demon Lord was the same race as the Insect race he imagined.

However, this question was destined to be unanswered for the time being.

If he wanted to know the truth, Li Yueming had to find it himself.

He continued to look down.

Li Yueming's gaze fell on the random talent that he had drawn this time.

This was too much!

What was the sadness of Eggy, and what was a person without roots?

If this talent was drawn out, wouldn't the conscience of the reincarnation mark hurt?

Could it be that the stinky effect of the Five-Colored Immortal Deer's molt had not dissipated yet?

He thought of this possibility.

Li Yueming was cursing in his heart.

He was just short of digging out the Five-Colored Immortal Deer's ancestral grave and throwing it into the crematorium.

In the end, Li Yueming thought about it.

He still didn't choose to buy a die to change his random talent.

After all, this world could only carry two talents.

If Li Yueming couldn't throw out a talent that was even more powerful than infinite deduction and perfect genetic body, then he would be able to use it as well.

It was basically a waste of reincarnation points.

However, if he wanted to throw out a talent that was even more powerful than infinite deduction and a perfect genetic body...

The probability was so small that he could buy a lottery ticket.

The infinite is equal to the Arabian Nights.

Therefore, the best choice was to give up on this random talent and continue binding it to Infinite Deduction and Perfect Genetic Body.

What was even more ridiculous was that...

This time, the public reincarnation dungeon that Li Yueming entered had actually reached Level 5...

One had to know that it was already quite good for an ordinary Level 3 reincarnator to be able to jump levels and enter a Level 4 reincarnation world.

It was a treatment that only the best among the reincarnators had.

However, this time, the Reincarnation Mark directly jumped two levels for Li Yueming and placed him in a Level 5 Reincarnation World!

According to normal rules.

This was already a very special treatment!

It was probably because Li Yueming's hidden points were too high, causing the Reincarnation Mark to 'balance' his combat strength.

Thinking of this...

Li Yueming came back to his senses and said, "Imprint, binding talent infinite deduction and perfect genetic body!"

[Ding, the initial talent has been bound!] [Main mission is being generated...] [Main mission generated!] [Reincarnator's name: Li Yueming]

[Reincarnation Number: 7001611]

[Main Mission (1): Choose a good master and sweep the world!]

[Mission Requirements: Choose a suzerain country from the Tang, Ming, Qin, Han, Song, and Zhou dynasties and help it unify the world!]

[Mission bonus: The more effort you put into destroying the country, the more generous the mission reward.]

[Main Mission (2): Hold the sun and moon in your hands and pluck the stars.

There is no one like me in the world!]

[Mission Requirement: Break through to the realm of the Spirit Focus!]

[Mission bonus points: When the reincarnator returns to the reincarnation space, the higher the realm, the more generous the mission reward!]

[Main Mission (3): A real man is born in the world. How can he be depressed and live under others for a long time?]

[Mission Requirements: Set up a country and unify the world!]

[Mission bonus points: The stronger the country, the richer the people, the faster the unification of the world, and the more generous the mission rewards!]

[Main Mission (4): Killing God]

[Mission Requirements: Eliminate 30 other reincarnators!]

[Mission bonus: The more reincarnators you kill, the stronger you are, and the more generous the mission reward!]

[This dungeon is a super-large-scale reincarnation dungeon with more than 5000 people!]

[The difficulty of the main mission is different. Reincarnators can choose according to their own circumstances!]

[After completing the basic requirements of any main mission, the reincarnator can choose to return to the reincarnation space!]

[Note: If you want to get a higher score, the reincarnator can choose to advance multiple main missions at the same time. The main mission rewards can be stacked!]

After confirming his talent.

A series of information appeared in Li Yueming's mind from the Reincarnation Mark.

These were the main missions that Li Yueming could attempt to complete.

On the surface, it seemed that every mission was not very difficult. However, in reality, this was already considered a rather difficult instance dungeon.

After all, this was a fantasy world with Sequence Number 6. Some of the natives there were even existences that were powerful enough to destroy the world.

A little careless.

In front of that kind of existence, even a reincarnator could very likely die in minutes.

Therefore, no matter which mission it was, the basic difficulty was quite high.

If it were in some Level 3 reincarnators 'world, the initial requirements of these missions might be more difficult than all of their main missions combined.

It could only be said that the Level 5 Reincarnation World was really terrifying!

He scanned through all the missions and the corresponding requirements from top to bottom.

Li Yueming secretly remembered everything.

Finally, it was worth mentioning the number of reincarnators in this public reincarnation dungeon.

A super-large-scale public reincarnation dungeon with more than 5,000 people...

According to Li Yueming's information.

It might not even appear once in a few years.

He did not know if he was lucky or unlucky.

Or maybe.

Or was there someone messing around behind the scenes?

Li Yueming didn't forget that there was a strange letter in his mailbox.

In the description of the letter, it mentioned that Li Yueming should be prepared to face 'their' assessment the next time he entered the dungeon. However, no matter what, since he was already here, he had to take it as it was.

At most, he would return empty-handed!

Even though the air force didn't have a good moral, that was the worst outcome.

Li Yueming threw out all the messy thoughts in his mind.

He forcefully pulled his thoughts back.

He took out the Reincarnation World Resource Pack he had bought from his brain and prepared to deduce his 'original' fate in this Reincarnation Dungeon.

Anyway, no matter if the sky collapsed or the earth sank, the process of normal reincarnation could not be skipped!

Chapter 317: Nainai, I Want to Drink Nainai! 1

He threw out all the messy things in his mind.

Li Yueming calmed down and began to use his deduction talent to spy on his fate in this life.

[0 years old: You were born into a family of generals in the Great Zhou

Dynasty!]

[Your late great-grandfather was the Western Conquest General, your late grandfather was the Defender General, and your father was the current commander of the Southern Mountains Army. He was also the Marquis of Southern Mountains!]

[Your parents had a child in their later years. You are the third child in your family. There are two older sisters who are capable of literature and martial arts before you!]

[As the youngest son in the family, you have been loved by your parents and two sisters since you were born!]

[You're the treasure of the entire family!]

[1 year old: Your parents gave you two pieces of paper to draw lots!]

[You picked up the two pieces of paper and looked at them. You found that one of them had the words 'practice' written on it, and the other had the words 'practice martial arts' written on it.]

[Although you are young, you have shown considerable wisdom...]

[Under the nervous gaze of your parents and two sisters, you calmly grabbed the martial arts note!]

[Seeing this, your parents are relieved!]

[You are from a family of generals. Although your literary skills are not bad, your future is bleak..]

[Martial arts is different. If nothing unexpected happens, you will naturally inherit the family business!]

[2 years old: Your family has hired the best teacher in the city to teach you how to read and write. At the same time, the hanger-ons and soldiers provided by your family have begun to transmit some knowledge of cultivation, qi cultivation, and war to you!]

[You have no interest in reading and writing, but you are very interested in cultivating Qi. Every day, you will pester the family members to ask them about cultivation!]

[Your performance has made your father very excited!]

[That night, he called seven or eight of his friends and happily drank in the courtyard!]

[4 years old: Under the close attention of many family members and consecrators, you have officially begun your cultivation!]

[In just a month, you have officially touched the threshold of cultivating spiritual energy.]

[This discovery has shocked all the members of the family!]

[You didn't pay any attention to this. After cultivating for more than three months, you have officially stepped into the qi transforming realm!]

[Your family's guests and worshippers were also surprised by this and told your parents about your talent. They thought that you were a god who had descended from the sky!]

[At the same time, the hanger-ons and retainers advised your father that they should not delay your talent and should send you to the Great Zhou Cultivator College.]

[Your father looked very happy when he heard this, but the worry between his brows could not be dispelled!]

years old: The rumor that you are the star of martial arts in the sky has spread throughout the Great Zhou Dvnastv. Even the emperor of the Great Zhou Dynasty in the capital has heard of your name!]

[After careful consideration, your father has decided to send you to the Great Zhou Cultivator Academy!]

[But before he left, you clearly felt that there was a little worry on his face...]

years old: You have officially entered the Practitioner Academy. The strongest group of Practitioners in the country has gathered here. Every one of them is a stunning talent!]

[But even so, you're still the only one who outshines the rest!]

[In the academy, the reputation of the Guyangs is getting bigger and bigger, and more and more people are following you, but you don't care about it at all!]

years old: You heard that there was a war between the Great Zhou and the Great Qin in the west. Your father was transferred to the front line overnight!]

[You didn't care too much about this. As a general, it's common for father to go to the battlefield to kill enemies!]

[But you soon realized that the battlefield this time seems to be different from the past...]

years old: You are still cultivating in the academy, but a document suddenly came from the border. Under the attack of the Qin army, the Zhou army was defeated and your father died in battle!]

[Hearing this bad news, everyone in your family felt as if they had been struck by lightning. Only you smelled an extraordinary aura!]

[As expected, not long after, the emperor, who was deep in the palace, suddenly drafted a document to announce to the world.]

[Your father has been convicted of colluding with the Qin army to rebel and has been ordered to kill your entire family!]

[When this news spread, the whole world was in an uproar!]

[Your family, which was comparable to a noble family, became a stray dog that everyone hated overnight.]

[Troops of soldiers surrounded your family, while you fled westward under the cover of your two sisters!]

years old: In order to protect you, the Big Sister was hacked to death by the Great Zhou soldiers!]

years old: In order to protect you, I lured away the Dragon and Tiger Army of the Great Zhou Dynasty alone. I don't know if I'm dead or alive!]

years old: You fled all the way west and secretly made up your mind to avenge your father and two sisters. However, just as you were about to leave the Great Zhou's territory, a huge palm suddenly stretched out from the sky and casually waved it to crush you into a ball of meat paste!]

[You're dead!]

The deduction this time was very long.

Li Yueming read page by page and realized that the more he read, the more his scalp went numb.

Damn, was this a Level 4 fantasy world?

The family he was born into should be considered a family with tens of thousands of people.

However, they could not escape the outcome of being annihilated in the blink of an eye.

It was obvious.

As long as there was nothing wrong with their brains, they could see that there was something fishy about this matter.

His family was already powerful enough.

His great-grandfather was the Western Conquest General, his grandfather was the Defender General, and his father was the Commander of the Southern Mountains Army..

Chapter 318: Nainai, I Want to Drink Nainai!_2

Just from the names, one could tell that each of them was a rather important position.

Originally, he only needed to lie on his ancestors 'merit book and comfortably enjoy the life of a noble family's disciple.

There was no problem even with being extravagant, licentious, and notorious.

However, he had also demonstrated his extraordinary talent in cultivation and was even hailed as the martial star from the heavens that had descended to the mortal world.

And his deadbeat father had misjudged the situation.

They thought that the emperor would not turn hostile and attack for the time being.

Many reasons, the role of the next, the final, the brewing of this field, the death of the whole family, the disaster.

How miserable!

With such a high opening, he still couldn't live past the age of 14.

Poisonous, right?

Apart from complaining, this actually gave Li Yueming a reminder.

In the past, when he reincarnated, the world level was relatively low.

Therefore, most of the natives of the reincarnation world were only limited in strength.

However, it was completely different this time.

Not to mention that there were other unknown reincarnators who might secretly trip them up.

For example, once the local experts of the fantasy world reached a certain level of strength, they would be able to reach a certain level.

That was difficult to measure with common sense.

For example, the giant hand that killed him in the end.

It was unknown how far it had crossed, but it was still able to accurately find his position and easily crush him into pieces...

From this, Li Yueming came to a conclusion.

That was, before he had the power to dominate the world, he absolutely could not expand.

Otherwise, in a world of this level.

If they were not careful, they might really fail miserably!

He calmed down a little.

Li Yueming took a deep breath and said, "Mark, begin reincarnation!"

.0.

Great Zhou, Wuji City.

Defender Public House, Li Family.

The spacious and elegant backyard was bustling with noise.

In the backyard, dozens of midwives were sweating profusely in the house, constantly reminding the pregnant women who were about to give birth.

Outside the door.

Dozens of men and women with different expressions were waiting anxiously.

The leader of the group was a man with a majestic gait, and he was particularly eye-catching.

The man was tall and burly.

It was more than two meters tall.

As he walked, the other family members around him could only shrink their necks and retreat.

Suddenly, a baby's cry resounded throughout the entire backyard.

The constipated expression on the man's face suddenly became tense, and his eyebrows furrowed into a line.

He then looked at the delivery room.

A moment later, a midwife hurried out.

After seeing the tall man outside the door, he smiled and said, "Congratulations Lord Marquis, congratulations Lord Marquis, Madam has given birth to a big fat boy for you!"

The man frowned and asked, "How is Furen?"

The midwife hurriedly replied, "Lord Marquis, both mother and son are safe! ""

Hearing this, the man was overjoyed.

"Good, good, good, good, good!" He said three good words in a row.

The man laughed out loud." It's good that mother and son are safe. I, Li Nanfeng, finally have a son!"

After laughing foolishly for a while.

Then, he prepared to walk into the room.

The midwife was shocked when she saw this. She quickly blocked Li Nanfeng and said, "Lord Marquis, Furen can't catch a cold after giving birth!"

Li Nanfeng suddenly realized and slapped his forehead. "Look at how happy I am... Men, pass on my order. Everyone in the residence will be rewarded with a hundred taels of silver. The mothers who helped my wife deliver the babies will be rewarded with five hundred taels of silver each!"

When he heard the number '500 silver'.

The midwife was almost scared silly.

She had been busy all her life and had helped countless families give birth.

There were also many wealthy families.

However, five hundred taels of silver still nearly knocked her out.

He hurriedly knelt on the ground and kowtowed, "Thank you Lord Marquis for your reward, thank you Lord Marquis for your reward!"

Li Nanfeng laughed out loud. "No need to thank me. This is what you deserve. It's also a blessing for my son. Hahaha!"

Beside him.

Seven or eight-year-old little girls stuck their heads out and said anxiously, "Where's my brother? Father, we want to see our little brother!"

He looked at his two smart daughters.

Li Nanfeng scratched his head, not knowing how to answer.

Fortunately, the midwife kowtowing at her feet was smart.

"The young master has just been born. He looks very smart!" However, he couldn't meet too many strangers. It was easy to catch a cold! "

"Lord Marquis and the two little masters can follow this old woman to the side room!"

Soon, the family followed the midwife to the delivery room.

In one of the baby cradles, a wrinkled child was curiously sizing up everything.

After seeing them.

The child neither cried nor made a fuss.

There was also a hint of sizing and scrutiny in his confused eyes.

The moment she saw the child.

The three of them had different reactions.

The corners of Li Nanfeng's mouth couldn't help but turn to his ears.

His younger sister, Li Ruxing, was more clever and eccentric.

When she saw her younger brother.

She reached out and carefully lifted Li Yueming's blanket. After taking a look inside, she blushed and said, "Dad, what a little brother! I saw his earthworm!"

Li Yueming, [Concealment.] Li Nanfeng was speechless.

Li Ruyue was speechless.

He finally came back to his senses.

Li Nanfeng coughed and said, "Ruxing, girls have to pay attention to their image!"

Chapter 319: Nainai, I Want to Drink Nainai!_3

Li Ruxing stuck out her tongue. "Dad, my younger brother is still young and doesn't understand. It's okay for me, the second sister, to take a look at his growth, right?"

Li Nanfeng choked and didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

In the end, Li Ruyue couldn't stand it.

He gently knocked Li Ruxing's head.

Feeling the majesty of the eldest daughter, the little girl restrained her mischievous temper.

The three of them did not pay much attention to the baby's feelings. However, Li Yueming had already suffered 10,000 points of psychological damage.

Fortunately, he didn't have the f * cking talent of choosing a rootless person.

Otherwise, it would be too embarrassing!

Earthworms...

Although it was very small now.

But as long as there was, he could still grow up with hard work, right?

.0.

That year, Li Yueming was successfully born.

They arrived at Wuji City, which was located at the northwest border of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

It was born in the Duke's Public House of the former Duke of Guarding Country.

The current Marquis of South Mountain, Li Nanfeng's house.

It could be said that he was born into a top-notch family.

The Great Zhou Dynasty was adjacent to the Great Qin Dynasty in the west and the Great Han Dynasty in the south.

These two neighbors were both the strongest dynasties in the current Six Nations.

The previous emperors could even arm-wrestle with the Great Qin and Great

Han.

However, after the leadership was handed over to the emperor.

The Great Zhou was not so good.

In terms of external warfare and trade, they could no longer contend with Great Qin's Great Han Dynasty.

The reason for the rise of the Li family was that the ancestors of the previous two generations had followed the Zhou emperor and sacrificed their lives in the Qin and Han wars, making great contributions to the Zhou Dynasty.

This was how the Li family's current solid foundation was created.

Duke Zhenguo.

Every generation of the Great Zhou Dynasty only had four spots.

After the death of the previous head of the Li family, the Duke of West Town, Li Tian Gang.

The emperor took back the position of Duke of West Town, but he kept the Li family's Public House.

Moreover, he would be extra lenient, and the Li family of this generation would still be able to enjoy the treatment of the Duke.

One could imagine how prosperous the Li family was at its peak.

Of course, the most important thing was that Li Nanfeng was still the Marquis.

And in the prime of his life.

If he could make contributions on the battlefield in the future.

It might not be possible to continue the legend of the Li family and the three generals.

He was born into such a family.

Li Yueming finally had a life where he could eat and wear whatever he wanted.

When he was born, there were more than a dozen nannies in the family who were responsible for feeding him.

Every one of them was a carefully selected woman with a certain level of cultivation.

The milk tasted sweet and nutritious.

Li Yueming could drink milk in a different way every day.

When she drank too much, she would even vomit occasionally.

All in all, it could be described in one word-extravagant!

When the moon was full, Li Nantian held a banquet.

All the high officials and nobles in Wuji City, as well as 90% of the famous people in the western frontier, came to congratulate him.

Even the emperor, who was far away in the capital, sent a ceremonial officer to send a congratulatory gift and even conferred the title of Viscount to Li Yueming in public.

It could be said that the cards were full.

Of course, under this kind of flower cluster, it was not all harmonious.

Anyway, Li Yueming was mentally prepared for this.

After all, since ancient times, there was a universal principle: The higher one stood, the harder one would fall.

How glorious was the Li family now?

When he fell down, he would be in such a sorry state.

Therefore, he had no choice.

No matter what, he was only truly powerful when he was strong.

Family or something.

Sometimes, being too strong and exuberant was not just a shield.

On the contrary, it might even cause a fatal disaster!

When he was one year old.

It was because they had sufficient nutrition and proper care.

Li Yueming was very strong.

Not only was her skin snow-white and her hair black, but she was also full of vitality from the inside out.

Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing both liked him very much.

She would often force Li Yueming to play with them.

However, it was obvious that Li Yueming was not interested in playing house with a little kid.

He just wanted to learn, to learn hard.

He wanted to kill the other reincarnators as soon as possible!

Actually, at this time, he could already begin to grow rapidly through his perfect genetic body.

However, Li Yueming had a huge appetite.

There was no reason not to hone himself to make great achievements.

Although the perfect genetic body could help him grow faster than other reincarnators, it was not a problem.

However, it would definitely cause his innate origin to be insufficient.

In the beginning, he might not feel anything, but once he cultivated to a certain realm that required the innate origin, he would be able to cultivate to a higher realm.

It might cause irreparable consequences.

Therefore, Li Yueming decided to stay low-key and get through the infancy period first.

Other than a few big shots with especially high levels of reincarnation marks, the time of reincarnation of the reincarnators was basically the same.

There wouldn't be a gap of three years.

Therefore, most of the other reincarnators should still be in their infancy.

Under the same starting line, Li Yueming wasn't worried about being led by others.

On this day.

Li Yueming was flipping through a book in the courtyard.

Although he was flipping through the book, most of the maids and servants who served Li Yueming in the residence thought that Li Yueming was just playing with the book.

After all, he was just a one-year-old child.

No one would think that he could understand books without education.

Li Yueming would also deliberately lead them on.

He would often tear the books apart for fun, and after he was done, he would even hug the books and gnaw on them.

This made the residence half happy and half worried.

Loving books was a good sign.

Cute Tearing Books and Love Eating Books.

She didn't know whether to cry or laugh..

However, in reality, Li Yueming was secretly reading all kinds of books at home to collect information.

However, today.

Li Yueming's days of studying were broken.

The person who interrupted his study was not the annoying second sister, Li Ruxing, but the head of the family, Li Nanfeng.

He looked at the two small notes in the other party's hand.

He thought about the past few days.

Li Yueming suddenly had an idea.

Li Nanfeng brought a few elders to Li Yueming.

After sending away the servants and maids who were serving Li Yueming, the two of them walked out of the room.

Then, he slowly sat down beside Li Yueming.

He carefully placed the two pieces of paper on the ground and said with a smile, "Son, in the future, all the glory and wealth will be in your hands. I can only help you pave the way!"

As he spoke, he pushed the two paper balls in front of Li Yueming.

"Choose," he said nervously. "Do you want to learn literature or martial arts? I promise I'll find you the best!"

Behind him.

A few of the clan elders and a few branch managers also widened their eyes.

It was obvious that the group of people was very nervous.

After all, he was the first heir of the family.

Li Yueming's choice was very likely to affect the Li family's fate for hundreds of thousands of years.

There was no room for carelessness.

After seeing the note handed over.

Li Yueming threw away the book in his hands and blinked his eyes.

Then, under Li Nanfeng's watchful gaze, he slowly crawled over and reached out to pick up the ball of paper that was used for practicing martial arts not far away.

Seeing this situation.

Li Nanfeng heaved a sigh of relief and muttered, "'Not bad, not bad. As expected of my Saint Child. You have guts!'"

Even though he had written a piece of paper to practice writing.

However, in his heart, Li Nanfeng still hoped that Li Yueming could inherit the will of his ancestors and absorb spiritual energy to practice martial arts. After all, in the past, the three generations of the Li family drew lots.

In the end, they were all caught practicing martial arts.

The facts also proved that after they were caught practicing martial arts, every generation of the Li family's heirs had made some gains on the battlefield.

He had also successfully enriched the Li family's ancestral business to this point.

And now.

When it was Li Yueming's turn, he drew martial arts again.

In other words, the Li family's martial arts genes had been passed down to the fourth generation!

Four successive generations of heirs were determined to cultivate martial arts and conquer the world, so why would the Li family worry about flourishing and becoming famous in Beijing?

However, before Li Nanfeng could laugh out loud.

Li Yueming bent down again. He actually reached out and picked up the paper ball.

Seeing this, Li Nanfeng was stunned for a moment.

Then, he turned around and looked at the elders. He said proudly, "'Could it be that my son is preparing to cultivate both civil and martial arts? Good, good, good. It's not bad to have both civil and martial arts. Even if I have to search the entire Great Zhou, I will find the best master for you!'"

However, this time, he did not even have the chance to laugh.

However, Li Yueming did not stop. He picked up the notes and stuffed them into his mouth...He gulped it down like he was swallowing a date!

He swallowed the note.

Li Yue Ming cried," Nainai, I want to drink Nainai!"

Li Nanfeng was speechless.

In an instant, the smile that was about to appear on Li Nanfeng's face disappeared.

The group of clan elders and branches behind him also widened their eyes.

What was wrong with this kid?

Not playing by the rules!

Chapter 320: First encounter with other reincarnators, first confrontation! 1

He swallowed the two pieces of paper.

Li Yueming burst into tears.

Not far away, a group of maids, servants, and servants gathered around when they heard the commotion.

A few names were even more anxious.

Young Master wanted milk!

According to Furen's instructions, this was the most important matter in the residence.

However, a group of people rushed over.

He saw Li Nanfeng and a few of his family members sitting next to Li Yueming with a serious expression.

Only then did the group of nannies and servants stop.

He hid not far away and looked at her anxiously.

They didn't dare to get too close, but they also didn't dare to get too far away.

After all, whether it was Madam or Old Master, they were not people a group of servants could afford to offend.

Seeing this situation,

Li Nanfeng felt his entire body go numb.

To be honest, when he handed the two pieces of paper to Li Yueming, he was already mentally prepared.

After all, his descendants had their own blessings.

If Li Yueming really didn't like to practice martial arts, he wouldn't have insisted.

But he thought about it.

He had prepared ten thousand psychological preparations.

However, he never expected Li Yueming to do such a thing.

He actually ate both pieces of paper! What the f * Ck should he do?

Learning literature or martial arts?

Li Nanfeng turned around and looked at an old man with white hair and beard. He asked, "Granduncle, this matter... What do you think?"

Back then, the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan had obtained an ancient scripture.

The scripture was called the Book of Changes.

The Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan had deduced a set of cultivation methods based on the Book of Changes.

In order for the future generations to have the power to resist the Demon Master and not be disturbed by the Demon Master in the future.

The Tiandu Clan spread this cultivation method to the world.

From then on, any human body could use the 'spiritual energy' that existed in the world to cultivate!

The Tiandu Clan had achieved an unprecedented state of nirvana.

After the nine cauldrons merged into one and gathered the fate of hundreds of millions of humans, they ascended to the heavens.

The second generation of the Zhou Dynasty, the Zhou emperor, was unwilling to be mediocre.

He continued to deduce the Book of Changes on the basis of the Renhuang of the Tiandu Clan. In the end, he combined the innate eight trigrams with the mountains and rivers in the Book of Changes and evolved the postnatal eight trigrams that could be used by humans.

From the Postnatal Eight Trigrams, the emperor deduced the foundation of the Zhou Dynasty.

It could absorb spiritual energy to cultivate the human body according to the trend of all things in the world!

Therefore, he had no choice.

Divination was more or less popular in the Zhou Dynasty.

This was also why the Li family wanted to kill the child when the child was one year old.

It was because she threw him two paper balls to draw lots.

The Li family believed that the children who drew lots on the day of the full moon would be able to enjoy the luck of heaven.

In the future, everything would go smoothly according to the guidance of the note.

Even if he couldn't bring glory to his ancestors, at least he wouldn't go astray and ruin his family's reputation.

But now, Li Yueming had given them a big problem.

This was because he did not choose to study literature or martial arts.

Instead, he chose to drink Nainai.

Well...

Drink Nana...

The old man whom Li Nanfeng addressed as his granduncle had white hair and beard.

He was one of the few ancestors of the Li family who could still appear in public.

Not only was his seniority high, but he was also a cultivator with a rather profound cultivation base.

He had also done some research on the Book of Changes and the Eight Trigrams.

Hearing Li Nanfeng's inquiry, the descartes

The old man thought for a moment.

She racked her brains to pick a few less exciting words and replied, "I don't study literature or martial arts... Perhaps this child was born to be an unconventional person!"

A glimmer of hope rose in Li Nanfeng's heart.

"Does that mean that my son still has a chance to continue his ancestral business?"

The old man stroked his beard and sighed."Perhaps. Children are still childish. There are still many variables in the future, so there are very few things to see..."

As he spoke.

The old man realized that he couldn't continue making up stories.

She didn't study literature or martial arts, and she opened her mouth to drink Nainai.

Actually, according to the divination, this was the most typical behavior of a prodigal.

Therefore, he paused for a moment before sighing."Actually, what I mean is...If you're prepared, why don't you have another one?" Li Nanfeng was speechless.

He expressed that he could not understand or accept it.

His son was clearly so smart and quick-witted in all aspects.

Even the teeth marks he made when he was reading seemed particularly intelligent.

But why did he make such a mistake?

Muddleheaded, he stood up.

"Ninth Granduncle, let me calm down first!" Li Nanfeng sighed. If Yue Er can't inherit the family business, I'll prepare in advance!"

The rules of a big family were extremely strict.

Even though Li Nanfeng was the family head, he couldn't represent the entire Li family.

If Li Yueming was talented and had a good temperament, then he would definitely be the number one heir of the family.

However, if Li Yueming acted like he was incapable of taking on such a big responsibility...

Then the position of the family head would definitely not fall on his head. To the great clans, the most important thing was to ensure the prosperity of the clan.

As long as the clan was still around.

The branches and leaves that were attached to the family could grow healthily.

Once the clan was unlucky.

Then all the branches and leaves that were attached to the family would be unlucky.

Therefore, he had no choice.

The great clans were very strict in their selection of leaders.

The clan leader might not need to have much ability.

After all, the clan could work together to push the clan leader to a higher position.

The patriarch didn't need to be too powerful.

After all, there were quite a number of experts in the clan. The other opponents looked at the strength of the clan and not the clan leader alone..
