Chapter 371: Your Horse Is Not Bad, But Soon It Will Be Mine!_4

The fact that the Zhou Dynasty's defenses in the northwest had been shrinking inch by inch over the years was proof of the Qin army's combat strength.

And now.

Such a troop had suddenly appeared at the border.

I'm afraid that the other party's plot is very big.

The only thing that puzzled Li Yueming was how the Qin army managed to infiltrate such a large force without anyone noticing.

One had to know that the Hundred Thousand Mountains was not a good place.

It was filled with spiritual energy.

All kinds of poisonous insects and ferocious beasts were extremely ferocious, enough to swallow an army of a million.

The Six Nations had learned their answer through countless bloody lessons.

If they were lucky, they might be able to pass through the mountains.

However, the greater the number of troops, the greater the commotion, and the more difficult it was to pass through.

50,000 people could probably set off a beast tide in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

It was impossible for it to be so smooth.

It was really strange.

Unfortunately, Li Yueming didn't have enough information on hand, so he couldn't do the infinite deduction.

Therefore, he could only continue to investigate.

From the trajectory of the army, the other party seemed to be heading towards Dingyuan City, the northernmost part of the Great Zhou defense line.

Dingyuan City was not a military town.

It couldn't even be called a city, but a pure watchtower.

Its only function was to observe and warn the spirit beasts that were about to appear in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

This was so that other cities that might be affected could prepare in advance.

Why were the Qin army marching towards Dingyuan City?

Li Yueming was full of doubts.

However, as a scout, he had already completed his duty.

What he needed to do next was to report this information to the Northern Battlefront Army to make a decision.

However, just as he was about to retreat silently.

A small group of black dots suddenly appeared on a hill not far away.

Li Yueming's eyesight was naturally excellent.

He discovered that the other party was also a team of scouts.

However, he was wearing black armor while the other party was wearing reddish-brown armor.

Reddish-brown was exclusive to the Qin army.

Li Yue Ming knew that he had been discovered by the scouts of the Qin army.

Therefore, without much hesitation, they started to flee.

Not far away, the Qin army did not expect their tracks to be so secretive.

He was actually discovered by the scouts of the Great Zhou.

One of the Qin scouts turned around and reported.

The other scouts all chased after him, trying to stop Li Yueming.

Li Yueming did not stop.

After all, although he was very confident, he wasn't confident enough to arm wrestle with the army.

Naturally, he ran as fast as he could.

The quality of the Qin army's spiritual horses was even better than that of the Great Zhou.

Therefore, the five scouts of the Qin army only took three hours to catch up to Li Yueming.

When he was only 300 meters away from Li Yueming...

The Qin scouts drew their bows and shot arrows, trying to shoot Li Yueming down from his horse.

However, Li Yueming suddenly stopped.

At this moment, they were already far away from the Qin army.

The scouts behind him were not a big threat to Li Yueming.

Li Yueming stopped.

The scouts of the Qin army behind him were stunned.

To be honest, they had fought with the scouts of the Great Zhou Dynasty more than once.

However, Li Yueming was the first person who could run as fast as he did.

If it wasn't for the fact that the spiritual horse under his feet was really not good enough.

He reckoned that the other party would really run away.

After recovering from their shock, the Qin scouts spoke with a Kansai accent, “Run? Why didn’t he continue running? How can a horse like your Great Zhou that is raised in a pasture be compared to the wild spiritual horses in my Western Qin prairie?”

Li Yueming smiled.

He couldn’t help but glance at the spiritual horses under the feet of the Qin scouts.

“Indeed, your horse is very good...” However...It will be mine soon!”

Seeing that he still dared to boast shamelessly even in the face of death, the Qin scouts were both shocked and furious.

Their eyes widened.

However, Li Yueming did not give them the chance to continue talking nonsense.

After all, he couldn’t guarantee that the Qin army wouldn’t send any troops to pursue them.

It was more important to escape now.

Hence, there was no need to waste words-

Li Yueming’s arm moved slightly.

The sword in his hand shot out like a meteor.

Due to its speed, the entire sword could barely be seen as an illusion.

“Puchi!”

The sound of a long sword cutting a throat rang out.

In the next second.

Dark red blood spurting out.

In fact, these Qin scouts were also cultivators of the Spirit Pool Realm.

However, in front of Li Yueming, who was also in the Spirit Pool realm, he did not have the slightest strength to fight back.

The scout in the lead still wanted to draw his bow and shoot an arrow before he died.

However, even until he died, he could not believe that the Zhou Country scout they had been chasing for half a day could actually kill them with a casual move.

Damn it, with such strength, was there a need for you to run so hard?

Chapter 372: The Fourth Calamity Enters the Stage!_1

After taking care of the Qin scouts who had followed them here, the two of them were stunned.

Li Yueming chopped off their heads.

He drove the five spiritual horses that had been captured to Dingzhou City.

On the way, he met Huang Li ‘er and the others who were also looking around.

From afar, a group of people saw that he was covered in blood.

There were still a few intact heads hanging from the back of the horse.

They couldn't help but widen their eyes.

Good heavens, how long had they been searching?

When they found nothing, Li Yueming had already returned with his head tied.

The chosen one was indeed so terrifying!

After meeting them.

Li Yueming called for a few people to follow him back to report the news.

Just as the few of them were galloping.

In the distant Dingzhou City.

Marba was in the scout camp, asking about the search.

When he heard that there was no news from the Qin army, Marba frowned.

According to the news from the border army in the west.

If the Qin army hadn't been completely annihilated, they should have passed through the Hundred Thousand Mountains and reached the northern border by now.

However, so many days had passed.

However, there was no news from this team.

The unknown was the scariest.

The Great Zhou did not know the intention of the Qin army sending a small group of troops here, so they naturally could not calm down at all times. Thousands of scouts searched day and night for three days, but they still could not find any traces of the Qin army.

Marba had a bad feeling about this.

However, it was useless to just think about it. Before they could obtain accurate information, the army in Dingzhou would definitely not act rashly.

Therefore, Marba took two steps left and right.

"Where are the young men I sent to you last time?" he asked suddenly. Are you still training in the camp?"

Meng Bayi didn't understand how Marba's thoughts suddenly shifted from the Qin army to Li Yueming and the others.

"General, those young men have been sent out by my subordinates to spy on intelligence!"

It was Marba's turn to be stunned.

A moment later, he came back to his senses and asked curiously, "How long has it been? Did they pass the scout army's assessment?"

Meng Ba carefully glanced at him and nodded. "Sir, those young men are all talented. They have been in the team for less than a month, but they are already proficient in drawing bows, archery, riding horses, and killing!"

Marba didn't say anything. After a moment, he widened his eyes and asked, "Are you really talking about those Central Plainsmen?"

Meng Ba nodded again to confirm, "This is a newcomer that you personally brought over. How would I dare not pay attention to him? Naturally, it's true!"

"Sir, where did you find such a good seedling?" he asked, shrinking his neck. Don't forget about me if there are such good seedlings to go next time!"

Marpa waved his hand in a bad mood.

However, he was still skeptical.

He was a native born in the northern border and had the bloodline of a few people from beyond the Great Wall.

As a result, he had thick skin and thick hair since he was young.

He was also very tall.

When he was young, his parents had died under the trampling of the Qin cavalry.

In order to obtain military merits and receive rewards.

The Qin soldiers cruelly beheaded everyone in the village.

He and the children of the other families in the village were hidden in the well by the villagers.

Only then could he live in this world.

It was also because of this that he had a monstrous blood feud with the Qin people.

Of course.

Having enmity with the Qin country did not mean that he had any good feelings for the Great Zhou.

The so-called emperor of Great Zhou who loved his people like his own children, when hundreds of people in his village were slaughtered and their heads were taken by the Qin people as a coming-of-age ceremony.

They didn't stand up to avenge them.

As for the disciples of the Central Plains, they looked down on them even more.

He only knew how to read the so-called books of sages all day long.

But if reading those so-called saint books could settle everything..

How could the Zhou Dynasty be suppressed by the Qin army?

Under normal circumstances.

He had neither loyalty nor etiquette.

A guy who was only filled with hatred and hot-blooded would probably never be able to be put in an important position in his life.

But now, the Qin army's iron hooves were getting fiercer and fiercer.

It had already made all the officials in the court feel a great threat.

Under such circumstances, they finally did not dare to put on airs and suppress the soldiers and generals who could fight.

At this moment.

The sky was getting dark and the sun was setting.

Marba looked at the sunset on the Gobi Desert and sighed.

However, just as he was about to return to the main tent of the military camp.

However, he suddenly saw a few small black spots on the ground in the distance.

Just as he was still puzzled.

The black dots were already approaching quickly.

The spiritual horse under his feet was extremely fast. It was so fast that it did not seem like the troops of the Great Zhou Dynasty. Instead, it seemed like.. Qin army!

Marba's eyes instantly emitted a fiery and fierce light.

Meng Ba, who was beside him, also felt the abnormality. He stood up and looked in the direction of the setting sun.

The soldiers on the city wall had already adjusted their weapons.

Once the small group of soldiers outside the city got close to the attack range, they could easily annihilate them.

At this moment.

A few black dots not far away suddenly took out a few flags from behind.

He looked into the distance.

Under the fiery red light, the flag appeared especially clear.

That was the Great Zhou's flag. Generally speaking, only scouts and a few messengers could carry this flag outside the pass.

The soldiers on the city wall stopped what they were doing.

At this moment, someone had already seen that the group of people leading the team were wearing scout's clothes..

Chapter 373: The Fourth Calamity Enters the Stage!_2

The horse galloped.

He entered Dingzhou City from the side door with his traveling cavalry.

About five minutes later.

Meng Ba and Marba saw the travel-worn Li Yueming and the others.

Marba looked at them up and down and asked curiously, "What happened?"

Li Yueming didn't waste his breath.

He directly threw the head of the Qin soldier on the spiritual horse to the ground and said, "A few of my classmates and I went out to search for the Qin army. We found traces of the Qin army a thousand miles northeast of Dingzhou. The information sent back from the border was wrong. The Qin army had a large number of people, a total of fifty thousand, and they were all elite tigers and wolves!"

"We followed them all the way and found that the Qin army seemed to be approaching Dingyuan City!"

Li Yueming's words were short and powerful, and even his breathing was rhythmic.

It didn't look like he had traveled thousands of miles.

The first to react was the battle-seasoned Marba.

He also did not waste any time and said directly, "Send the scouts to investigate immediately!"

Meng Ba was stunned.

Then, he hurriedly bowed and received the order, and immediately jogged away.

He was very clear.

If what Li Yueming said was true...

Then, the entire northern border would probably be busy.

After Meng Ba walked far away.

Marba looked at Li Yueming and the people behind him again.

A moment later, he nodded and said, "Continue!"

Li Yueming didn't hide anything and continued, "We followed the Qin army and gathered enough information. When we were about to return, we were discovered by a few scouts of the Qin army. The scouts followed us and tried to stop us from returning."

As he spoke.

He lifted the dark red cloth covering the horse's buttocks.

Five heads appeared in front of Marba.

Marba walked in and casually lifted the head that was tied to the horse's back.

As an old enemy of the Qin army, Marba was naturally very familiar with the Great Qin army and the Great Zhou army.

Most of the Zhou soldiers' provisions and food were mainly rice, wheat, and other grains.

Therefore, the degree of tooth wear would be relatively low.

Although the Qin people also ate grain.

Most of the time can eat all the northwest prairie above the miscellaneous grain.

Even though it could fill his stomach.

However, the taste was very rough and dry.

As a result, the Qin people's teeth would be more severely damaged.

After observing his teeth and hair, Marba nodded.

Soon after.

He then looked at the spiritual horses behind Li Yueming. After sizing them up for a moment, his eyes lit up and he said, "These spiritual horses are the first generation of wild horses from the grasslands. The ones you killed were actually elite scouts of the Qin army!"

At this moment, a group of people, including Huang Li 'er and the others.

They all felt that Marba's attitude towards them had changed greatly.

"Yes... This time, you have made a great contribution. I will report all of this to General You!"

"According to the rules of the Northern Battlefront Army, if you kill five elite scouts, you will be promoted to a centurion!" As he spoke, Marba stroked the glossy fur of the spiritual horse and revealed a not-so-good-looking smile. "However, the situation this time around is a little special... How about this, I'll write a letter to the imperial court and see if I can ask for a few more official titles!"

As an old general.

Marba looked rough, but in fact, he was very meticulous in certain aspects.

From the bloodstains on Li Yueming's body and some other details, he could tell that Li Yueming was the only one who participated in the battle.

But now, Li Yueming took the initiative to say that the other three were also involved in the battle.

Clearly, she was hiding something from him.

However, he did not expose her.

After all, he could take the initiative to share the credit and take care of the friendship between his classmates.

This was not easy on the battlefield.

The so-called general was a group of subordinates who could fight to the death to protect him.

Could it become a tool?

This time, Marba's impression of Li Yueming and the others changed greatly.

The scouts sent out by Dingzhou City found traces of the Qin army in the direction Li Yueming had described.

However, it was already a little too late.

The Qin army was too large, with 50,000 elite troops.

The Northern Battlefront Army couldn't mobilize so many troops to encircle and suppress them in a short period of time.

Thus, they could only watch as the Qin army headed north.

After being discovered, the Qin army did not continue to hide their tracks.

Instead, he charged towards Dingyuan City without any concealment.

Ten days later.

Dingyuan City was breached by the Qin army.

Fortunately, Dingyuan City was only a temporary city.

There weren't many civilians and soldiers in the city.

After hearing the news of the Qin army's attack, they all abandoned the city and left.

Therefore, the Great Zhou Dynasty did not suffer too many losses.

However, the fact that they did not suffer too many losses was the biggest mystery to everyone.

After all, the Qin army had disregarded the risk and crossed the Hundred Thousand Mountains, entering the Great Zhou Empire from a thousand mile away.

Their strategic goal was not as simple as occupying a harmless Dingyuan City. According to You Aotian and the higher-ups of the Northern Battlefront Army, no matter what the Qin army was planning.

The Northern Battlefront Army should immediately join forces with King Yu's army in the northeast to wipe out the 50,000 Qin soldiers.

However, this resolution was met with the collective opposition of the court and Prince Yu.

The reason given by the court was that there was insufficient food.

After all, the western border had been at war for many years, so it was reasonable for the imperial court to be short of food.

Prince Yu's attitude was more ambiguous..

Chapter 374: The Fourth Calamity Enters the Stage!_3

He didn't object directly.

However, he was just dodging and hiding, unable to let out a fart for a long time.

In fact, he didn't want to lose his strength for the Northern Battlefront Army.

After all, he and Li Nanfeng were enemies.

And General You of the Northern Army was a loyal ally of the western frontier.

Prince Yu couldn't wait for the Qin army to cause more trouble in the north.

How could they be willing to go and provide support?

In fact, the main reason was that the number of Qin troops was too subtle.

Fifty thousand people.

It happened to be on the verge of tension and relaxation in the Great Zhou Dynasty.

As long as the Great Zhou Dynasty was determined to mobilize more forces, the 50,000 elite Qin army was not enough.

However, the 50,000 Qin troops were in an awkward situation where the Northern Battlefront Army could not easily destroy them.

This was a zone that could be controlled or ignored.

This caused the officials in the court to waver.

After a long discussion.

Finally, the emperor issued a decree and decided to wait for the grain to ripen next year before deciding whether to send troops.

A decree was issued.

Although the entire Northern Battlefront Army was dissatisfied, they could do nothing about it.

After all, since ancient times, dynasties had risen and fallen.

Its core was nothing more than the words money, grain, grain, and money.

If one had to add a thread to the middle.

The word 'power' was enough to penetrate it.

Whether it was money, food, or power, it was not something that a general could control.

The civil and military were at odds with each other, and the officials of the capital and the powerful officials of the border were at odds with each other.

It wasn't that they wanted to oppose each other.

It was because the imperial power was in control of everything, and it was impossible for the officials and the army to get along.

Of course, those things had nothing to do with Li Yueming.

He did not care whether the Qin army lived or died, and he did not care about the rise and fall of the Great Zhou for the time being.

In any case, his rewards and rewards had come.

The first was the reward for the official position, which was quite generous.

He was given the position of centurion, but because scouts were special.

A centurion could only lead 15 soldiers.

Secondly, in order to show his love, Li Yueming also had the right to choose his soldiers first.

This was naturally good for Li Yueming.

Soon, he sent Huang Li 'er and the others to find all the reincarnators under You Aotian.

Regarding his recruitment.

The group of reincarnators were naturally happy to do so.

Or rather...

He watched Huang Li 'er and the others follow behind Li Yueming and continue to win.

Many reincarnators were so envious that their eyes turned red.

Damn it, why were they still defending the city?

Li Yueming had brought Huang Li 'er and the others back from the battlefield?

Why were they still soldiers?

This was f * cking unfair!

Aaaaz

They also wanted to cling onto Destiny's Child's thigh!!!

In this way, the operation was completed.

The reincarnators were clearly arranged by Li Yueming.

With this, Li Yueming finally gathered his own forces and followers.

From an ethical point of view.

The loyalty of a reincarnator was the cheapest and most hypocritical thing in the world.

After all, they had neither morals nor ethics.

He even called himself the fourth natural disaster.

However, from another perspective.

As long as they could complete missions and earn reincarnation points, the reincarnators were the most loyal people in the world.

After all, who would have the time to backstab the chosen one who helped them earn money?

However, at this moment, his wings were still very tender.

He was still far from spreading his wings and flying high.

Life in the military camp was rather dull and boring.

Other than the daily training, there were almost no other entertainment activities.

Of course.

Li Yueming had proven his strength with his actions.

Now, there was no need to train like ordinary soldiers.

Therefore, he spent most of his time on cultivation.

After all, no matter what world it was, one's own strength was always the foundation of one's existence.

Everything else could be delayed.

After such a long period of training and strengthening, he had already broken through to the fourth realm.

He was only a step away from the fifth level of the Origin Sea.

The reason why he could not break through.

Actually, it was not because of the spiritual energy.

After all, Li Yueming's entire body was a collection of cheats. The ordinary problems in the path of cultivation could not stop him at all.

It was because he had already cultivated to the highest realm of the martial dao world.

In the following cultivation, the experience of the martial dao world could no longer provide him with any help.

He wanted to continue becoming stronger.

He had to open up a higher path on the basis of the Martial God Realm.

If this had happened in the past...

Li Yueming would probably need to spend hundreds of thousands of years to open up a path to a higher realm.

But later, Li Yueming met a martial artist again in the technological world and learned the Ten Directions Martial Force from Constantine.

By dissecting the technique and operating pattern of this move.

Li Yueming had already deduced a part of the mysteries of a higher level than the Martial God.

In addition, he had also bought more martial arts manuals from Wang Linlin in the real world.

There were also some experiences that could be used as a reference.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Li Yueming's accumulated experience was different from the past.

However, under such circumstances.

In order to break through to the Source Sea Realm, Li Yueming had spent half year.

Only then did he find some clues.

Year 7819 of the Great Zhou Royal Calendar.

Li Yueming was fourteen years old and had already grown up.

The Great Qin army, which had been silent for a long time, suddenly and deployed nearly a million soldiers at the western border of the Dynasty..

Chapter 375: The Fourth Calamity Enters the Stage!

This caused the pressure on the entire Great Zhou to increase sharply.

At the same time, the Northern Battlefront Army finally received the order to suppress the 50,000 Qin troops in the north.

Prince Yu was forced by the emperor to send 100,000 elite troops.

He was prepared to take the 50,000 Qin soldiers from the two sides of the bread.

In the end, he would catch a turtle in a jar.

It was strange.

After the 50,000 Qin soldiers took over Dingyuan City, they stopped moving.

They did not go out to plunder, nor did they go south to attack other cities.

He didn't know what he was up to.

Under such circumstances.

As the most elite scout general, Li Yueming received a mission.

That was to do their best to find out what the 50,000 Qin soldiers were up to before the battle began.

After all, only by knowing each other could one win a hundred battles.

The 50,000 Qin soldiers had been holed up in one place for almost a year.

It was hard to imagine what they were doing.

Just like that, the rear was still continuously transferring troops and rations.

Li Yueming and the other 13 reincarnators formed a scout team and set off first.

Before he left.

Even You Aotian was alarmed.

After all, this mission was quite dangerous.

Although You Aotian was impartial, there were still so many students, so he was still a little worried.

However, when You Aotian arrived at the camp and was about to give a few private instructions to the students...

However, the group of students acted as if nothing had happened.

He was riding a big black horse without a single strand of hair and showing off his might in Dingzhou City.

They were playing as they walked.

They were competing with each other to see whose spirit horse had a longer penis.

It was as if they were not going to the Qin army's den of tigers and wolves.

Instead, it was as if they were out hunting.

Even though You Aotian was extremely magnanimous, he still felt his blood pressure rise when he saw this scene.

This group of people...

Did he really not know how dangerous this mission was?

He could actually act so relaxed.

Was he worrying for nothing, or were these guys overly optimistic?

He took a few deep breaths.

You Aotian coughed twice and stood up.

When they saw him, the group of reincarnators stopped smiling and bowed. "Greetings, Great General!"

At this moment, there were still soldiers watching.

Of course, they couldn't expose each other's identity as master and disciple.

"This spying is extremely dangerous. You have to prioritize your personal safety. You can't force it, understand?!" You Aotian swept his gaze across the group of people and continued, "'You can't be successful without experiencing life and death. I hope you don't blame me!"

The group of reincarnators agreed.

Among the crowd, Li Yueming stepped forward and said, "'We can't repay the general's kindness! However, since ancient times, it had been a pleasure to be afraid of a man's achievements on the battlefield. The students were grateful to the general, so how could they blame him?"

Seeing this, You Aotian closed his eyes.

He sighed heavily and waved his hand, "Let's go, let's go..."

In this solemn and stirring atmosphere, the group of students all bowed to him with excited expressions.

However, before You Aotian could recover from the sadness of life and death...

However, Li Yueming and the others had already left on their horses.

In the evening wind, the group of reincarnators quickly returned to their chatting and laughing state.

It was as if the solemn and solemn posture had never existed.

Although they were quite far away.

However, You Aotian could still hear the messy topics they were discussing.

Although topics like 'what should I eat tonight to prevent hemorrhoids from relapsing,' 'I always feel itchy in my crotch when I ride a horse' 'I always feel uncomfortable if I don't do a few cool moves when I ride a horse', and so on sounded ridiculous, they were still within his understanding.

Then why did topics like 'The King of the Scout Camp Next Door Has A Unique Skill of Flying Poisonous Dragons', 'On the Beauty Ranking of Dingzhou City's Widow 'and' The Research Report on the Dissimilarities between the Great Zhou's Spirit Horse Ding Ding and the Great Qin's Spirit Horse Ding Ding 'sound so harsh?

Looking at the group of students leaving in a carefree manner.

You Aotian felt as if he had suddenly become a person who did not fit in with this world.

As expected.... Old!

Chapter 376: You Call This a Scout?_1

The north wind rolled up the white grass on the ground, and it snowed in August.

In the cold and dry northern regions of the Great Zhou, the wind howled. The desert was vast and desolate.

The cold wind that penetrated the heavens and earth was like a malicious ghost in the middle of the night, making people feel cold from their bodies to their hearts.

In such a terrible weather, there were still more than ten riders following the road paved with gravel and weeds all the way north.

They headed towards the desolate and cold north.

Although the group of reincarnators were laughing and laughing, they did not seem to take Qin Jun seriously at all.

But in reality, they were all old foxes.

Naturally, he knew the difficulty of this mission.

However, they were also very confident in their own strength.

With their current cultivation, even if they couldn't defeat the Qin army, they should still be able to escape.

It was precisely because of this that they could have the leisure to chat about such trivial matters.
.0.

At this moment, hundreds of miles away from them.

Dingyuan City was brightly lit. Tens of thousands of Qin soldiers were on duty.

Under the illumination of hundreds of large and bright torches, the entire Dingyuan City was filled with light.

Whether it was in the city or outside the city, there was no difference between the day and the day.

Li Yueming brought more than ten reincarnators to an inconspicuous Gobi Desert outside Dingyuan City.

Standing here and looking further north, he saw the Shiwan Mountain that separated the Frontier and the Pass.

There were countless spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

There were also many extreme environments that ordinary people could not understand.

For example, in the northwest corner of the Hundred Thousand Mountains near the Qin people, there was an active volcano that had been active for more than ten thousand years.

This active volcano would erupt billions of tons of dust every decade. It was the main cause of poverty in the entire Qin Dynasty and the western border of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

In the northern part of the Great Zhou Dynasty, where the Northern Battlefront Army was located, there was a super snow mountain known as the extremely cold peak.

That's why.

The further north Li Yueming and the others went, the colder and more dry the air became.

The cold airflow on the snowy mountains and the snow that did not melt all year round were the main reasons for the bitter cold in the northern part of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Of course, it didn't matter what happened to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

The important thing was to find out what the Qin army was planning to do by occupying Dingyuan City.

This was because the Qin camp was heavily guarded.

No one could easily blend in.

However, even from a distance, he could still feel that something was wrong.

One had to know that torches were an extremely rare resource on the battlefield.

It was not a wartime state now. The Great Zhou army was still mobilizing and assembling thousands of miles away. The Qin army camp was still brightly lit at night.

Everyone stayed where they were and observed carefully for a long time.

Only then did he realize that the reason why the Qin army was brightly lit all night was because they were mining the surrounding rocks to build the city wall.

Everyone, including Li Yueming, was shocked.

Wang Linlin widened her eyes and said, "Are these Qin people crazy? They clearly know that our Great Zhou has gathered hundreds of thousands of troops to destroy them. It's fine if they don't run, but they actually dare to build fortifications here overnight..."

Ding Yi was also speechless." It seems like these Qin people are really stubborn.

They are determined to defend Dingyuan City!"

Li Yueming didn't say anything. He stared at Dingyuan City for a long time. Suddenly, he turned to look further north and said, "Let's go to the Hundred Thousand Mountains! "

Hearing this, all the reincarnators present were stunned on the spot.

They didn't understand why Li Yueming would suddenly give such a confusing order.

The mission given by the higher-ups was to gather more information about the Qin army.

Li Yueming wanted to bring them to the Hundred Thousand Mountains?

If Li Yueming was following an ordinary troop with indigenous members, then he would be able to defeat them.

They might hesitate after hearing Li Yueming's instructions.

However, Li Yueming's subordinates were all reincarnators.

What was a reincarnator?

The lawless ones were the reincarnators.

Therefore, after Li Yueming proposed this resolution, no one stood up to refute it.

After all, in the eyes of the reincarnators, Li Yueming Ming was the chosen one. It's not wrong to follow him and be a minister.

Even Wang Linlin asked casually, "Why are we going to the Hundred Thousand Mountains?"

Li Yueming revealed a faint smile."

After saying that, he did not say anything else.

He turned around and headed north.

This group of Qin people lit torches and built fortifications overnight.

Obviously, he couldn't fool Li Yueming.

First of all, it was impossible for the Qin people to carry so many torches with them or find so many in Dingyuan City.

The north was bitterly cold, and most of the plants that grew in the Gobi Desert were cold-resistant and drought-resistant.

There weren't even many trees.

How could he have enough wood and oil to make so many torches?

Moreover, the Qin army had been in Dingyuan City for more than a year.

There was no looting or looting.

How could there be enough food to supply the army?

Thus, after a brief observation, Li Yueming could conclude that this group of Qin soldiers was playing an empty fort tactic.

In fact, the true location of the Qin army was very likely to be near the Hundred Thousand Spirit Mountain.

In the entire north region, only the hundred thousand spirit mountains had an endless stream of spirit beasts and spirit plants to feed such a large army.

As expected, Li Yueming and the others continued to advance north for more than 1,000 miles.

They found traces of the Qin army again under the extremely cold snow mountain..

Chapter 377: You Call This a Scout?_2

This time, there were at least 40,000 Qin soldiers.

They built their tents under the snow, which looked like bumps in the snow.

The group of reincarnators behind him were shocked.

Obviously, they did not expect the Qin army to dare to get so close to the Hundred Thousand Spirit Mountain.

One had to know that the spirit beasts in the Spirit Mountain were extremely ferocious, but they were not to be trifled with at all.

They observed for a long time.

Finally, they saw two young men walking out from the middle of the Qin army's tent.

The young man on the left was wearing a reddish-brown casual outfit, but his face was as handsome as jade.

The young man on the right looked much worse.

However, there was a reddish-brown fox standing on his shoulder.

This added a mysterious aura to him.

At this moment, the young man in reddish-brown casual clothes on the left was carrying the luggage of the young man with the fox on his right shoulder.

The young man on the left hurriedly returned the salute.

The two sides exchanged pleasantries for a moment.

Only then did he slowly disappear from everyone's sight.

Seeing this situation.

Li Yueming already had some guesses in his heart.

Behind him, the group of reincarnators looked at each other.

Only then did they realize that they were all staring at each other.

They couldn't help but discuss softly, "That guy with the fox on his shoulder looks a little familiar..." Could it be that group of reincarnators? Speaking of which, the fantasy world with Sequence Number 7...It was indeed possible that animal controllers would appear here!"

Hearing this, someone chimed in, ""There's no need to think about it. As far as I know, there were Spirit Masters who posted on the reincarnation forum this time."

The others did not reply.

But everything was said without words.

This might be the intuition between reincarnators.

The moment they saw the young man, the group of people recognized him.

The so-called animal tamer.

It was a profession that could subdue and control powerful spirit beasts.

No wonder the Qin army could pass through the Hundred Thousand Mountains. It turned out that there were reincarnators among them!

Animal controllers had mastered the habits and hobbies of many poisonous insects and beasts. The more experienced ones even mastered several foreign languages and could communicate with wild animals without any obstacles.

If they had their support.

This explained why the Qin army was able to silently lead 50,000 troops across the Hundred Thousand Spirit Mountain.

This wasn't good news for Wang Linlin and the others.

After all, other than some extremely high-level natives, the only thing the reincarnators were afraid of were other reincarnators.

And now, there were beast tamers in the Qin army.

This also meant that their existence was no longer unique.

Of course, Li Yueming did not participate in their discussion.

After all, his current identity was the chosen one.

Naturally, it was impossible for him to pull out his own avatar.

Li Yueming took one last glance at the Qin army at the foot of the snowy mountain and did not stay there any longer.

He led the reincarnators out of this dangerous place.

And then...

He turned around again and headed straight for Dingyuan City, which was a thousand miles away.

Li Yueming's thoughts were simple.

Since most of the Qin army was on the snow, there would not be many Qin soldiers in Dingyuan City.

They only sent many soldiers to supervise the workers who lit torches in the city to build strong fortifications overnight.

They made the Zhou scouts think that the Qin army was still in Dingyuan City and was building a defensive line.

In many ways, it was equivalent to an empty fortress.

Even though Li Yueming still didn't understand what they were up to.

However, it didn't stop Li Yueming from destroying them.

After all, he did not want the Zhou Dynasty to be too happy.

This was because once the Qin army weakened, the emperor would be able to regain his senses.

When the birds are gone, the bow is hidden. When the rabbits are dead, the dogs are cooked.

The Li family might be in trouble.

However, he also did not want the Qin Dynasty to be too happy.

After all, Great Qin was already very powerful.

If he defeated the Great Zhou, he would probably be able to unify the world like a tiger.

Only the Great Zhou Empire and the Great Qin Empire were not happy.

Only Li Yueming would be happy.

Therefore, since he was in the vortex.

He had to muddy the waters as much as possible.

This way, it would be easier for him to fish in troubled waters and gain benefits from both sides.

And now was a good opportunity.

If they could launch a surprise attack on Dingyuan City, they might be able to reap some miraculous benefits!

When he heard Li Yueming say that he was going to attack Dingyuan City.

The group of reincarnators could not help but be excited.

Good fellow...

Following the chosen one...As expected, it felt great!

If they could take down Dingyuan City, it would be the credit of breaking the city.

Their main mission completion rate would be greatly increased!!!

Therefore, he had no choice.

After weighing the pros and cons in his heart for a short while.

The group of reincarnators immediately decided to do this even if they had to take a certain risk.

They all followed Li Yueming and rushed over.

In Dingyuan City.

A group of soldiers was still building a defensive offensive.

They were already very tired from working day and night.

But now, with every additional stone that was built, there would be an additional hope of survival when the Zhou army attacked in the future. They could only force themselves to continue working hard.

According to the information from the scouts.

Currently, the Great Zhou was still mobilizing troops to transport grain.

There was still about half a month before the attack.

Therefore, the Qin army never expected that the enemy would rush towards the city wall in the middle of the night..

Chapter 378: You Call This a Scout?_3

When the Qin army on the watchtower noticed Li Yueming's team of more than a dozen people.

Li Yueming and the others were less than a hundred meters away from the city gates.

There seemed to be many soldiers on the city wall.

However, 90% of the Qin army's main force was at the foot of the snowy mountain, doing something unknown.

The current Dingyuan City was actually an empty shell.

It was only on the surface.

The flustered soldiers had just fired their first volley of arrows.

Li Yueming, Wang Linlin, and the others were already within 20 meters of the city wall.

In the next second.

Li Yueming slammed his horse and flew into the air.

The other thirteen reincarnators beside him did not hide anything and also flew into the sky.

He began to use all his strength to clear out the soldiers on the city wall.

Soon, under the illumination of the torch.

For a moment, sparks flew all over the walls of Dingyuan City.

As the weapons slashed at the metal, the screams and wails of the soldiers could be heard endlessly.

It had to be said that the elite soldiers of the Qin army were truly ferocious.

Even the basic soldiers were cultivators who had reached the Foundation Establishment realm.

And they were all fearless of death.

Even if Li Yueming, Wang Linlin, and the others were all reincarnators.

It was not easy to kill them.

But that was all.

Although the Qin soldiers were all very troublesome to deal with, their cultivation levels were still too low.

It was unable to pose too much of a threat to the reincarnators who were already in the Spirit Pool Realm or even the Origin Sea Realm. Therefore, it was only a matter of time before they were destroyed.

However, at this moment.

However, a truth realisation state expert was suddenly eliminated in Dingyuan City.

The True Form Realm was the fifth tribulation of the 12 Heavenly Tribulations of the Fairy Realm. It was derived from the meaning of turning complexity into simplicity, illusion into reality, and falsehood into reality.

After reaching this realm, the cultivator's entire body could be nourished by spiritual energy.

It would completely surpass the lifespan of ordinary humans.

They could live for nearly a thousand years.

Seeing this situation, the group of reincarnators could not help but feel that something was wrong.

Ding Yi casually cut a Qin soldier not far away into two.

With a face full of blood, he looked at Li Yueming and asked, "Captain, is the wind tight?"

Li Yueming glanced at the many construction materials in the city, as well as the city wall that had been expanded more than twice.

"There's no hurry. I'll go and meet him!"

"Hurry up and start a fire, but be careful not to burn Ding Yuan City down!" As he spoke, he ignored the group of reincarnators who were looking at each other.

He rose and flew towards the high-level Practitioner not far away!

Ding Yi and the others looked at each other.

They all saw the disbelief in their eyes.

There was also conflict and struggle.

If they gave up on Li Yueming now, they would be able to escape unscathed.

But if he stayed..

However, Li Yueming was unable to stall the truth realisation state reincarnator.

Then, they would most likely suffer heavy losses.

However, this hesitation only lasted for a second before it was replaced by determination.

As the saying goes, wealth and danger are the best.

As long as Li Yueming was the Son of Destiny, it would be hard for them to lose.

He didn't know how confident Li Yueming was in resisting a truth realisation state cultivator.

However, according to the attitude and habits that Li Yueming had always shown, he probably wouldn't do something like hitting a rock with an egg.

Therefore, they did not choose to leave.

Instead, he began to pull out the burning torches on the city wall and casually threw them on the building materials on the ground.

Very quickly.

Ding Yuan City was set ablaze.

The fire lit up the northern land.

The officials and cultivators in several cities around them saw the strange phenomenon in the sky.

Their faces were filled with confusion.

What was going on?

Isn't that the direction of Dingyuan City?

What was the Qin army doing?

Could it be that they collectively set themselves on fire?

Dingzhou City was not the only one that sent out scouts to gather information.

The surrounding northern cities had also sent many scouts to scout for news of Dingyuan City.

At this moment, the scouts hiding around Dingyuan City could not help but be shocked when they saw the raging fire and the dozen or so soldiers still fighting in the fire.

Those guys who killed and set fire on the city wall...Why does he look like a scout from our Great Zhou from his attire?

However, shouldn't the scouts 'duty be to hide and gather information like them?

How could he possibly commit murder and arson on the walls of Dingyuan City?

This beaver?

This didn't make any sense at all!

But no matter what, the group of scouts did not dare to delay.

They quickly sent the news back.

In the light of the fire.

The group of reincarnators led by Wang Linlin, Ding Yi, and the others were even more shocked.

This was because the scene of Li Yueming struggling to resist did not appear.

When the truth realisation state cultivator came out of the camp, his aura was as strong as a rainbow. The spiritual energy in his body was as deep as the sea and seemed to be able to suppress everything.

However, after exchanging a few moves with Li Yueming, he was sent flying by Li Yueming!

To be honest, at this moment.

The group of reincarnators all began to doubt their lives.

One had to know that they thought that their cultivation speed was already very fast.

It was almost like breaking through a small threshold in a few months, and breaking through a big threshold in a year or two.

Even so, the strongest among them was only at the early stage of the fourth realm, the Origin Sea Realm.

Strictly speaking, Li Yueming, the native chosen one of the local world, was younger than them, but he could already fight with a sixth-level True Form Realm cultivator and had the upper hand.

Damn it...

When did the Level 5 Chosen One of the Fantasy World become so abnormal?

He was actually two years younger than them, a group of senior reincarnators, but his strength far exceeded theirs.

Was it because they did not have a deep understanding of the level 5 world's Destiny's Child, or was this Destiny's Child's strength too supermodel?

However, no matter what they were thinking.

Everything was destined to be difficult to get an answer.

The fire in Dingyuan City was getting bigger and bigger.

Li Yueming glanced at the truth realisation state cultivator not far away and didn't continue.

He turned around and prepared to leave.

However, how could that truth realisation state cultivator allow him to come and go as he pleased?

He directly used his methods to make him stay.

Seeing this, Li Yueming said coldly, "Since you insist on pestering me, don't blame me for being rude!"

Li Yueming took a deep breath.

He took a few steps forward, and his entire body seemed to have become a phantom.

In just a flash, he had already arrived in front of the truth realisation state cultivator.

Li Yueming threw a punch and shouted, "Ten Directions Martial Force!"

In the next second.

Boom!!!

A loud sound rang out.

The True Form Realm cultivator in the air was sent flying almost a thousand meters away by Li Yueming.

While he was still retreating, he had already spat out countless mouthfuls of blood.

It was obvious that Li Yueming's punch had hurt his chest.

The flames in Dingyuan City seemed to have sensed an aura of nothingness and suddenly stopped for a moment!!!

One had to know that this was a flame that could burn a city.

However, under Li Yueming's punch, it seemed to have solidified.

One could see how powerful it was!

Before anyone could react.

Li Yueming kept his fist and said to the group of reincarnators underground, "Brothers, the wind is tight!" Li Yueming didn't stand on ceremony.

He took the lead and fled towards the south.

Only then did many reincarnators wake up from their dreams.

He narrowed his eyes and turned around.

Only then did he realize that there seemed to be an even more powerful cultivator's aura surging at the foot of the snowy mountain thousands of miles away. It was obvious that they were rushing over with all their might. Seeing this situation, the group of reincarnators could not help but curse.

They did not dare to delay.

He hurriedly tucked his tail between his legs and began to flee.

This time, they were in big trouble.

The 50,000 strong Qin army's main camp, Dingyuan City, was burned into a sea of fire.

If he didn't hurry up and leave, once he was caught...

They would probably be torn into pieces by the furious Qin army.

Chapter 379: You Aotian I s Shock!_1

It was obvious that following Li Yueming to attack Dingyuan City was a very dangerous thing to do.

However, to a group of reincarnators.

The risk was worth it.

The first main mission of this public reincarnation dungeon was to choose a suzerain country from the six countries.

Then, he would assist the suzerain in unifying the world.

And now, they were bound to the Great Zhou Dynasty.

If he could follow Li Yueming and take back Dingyuan City that was occupied by the Qin army.

At the very least, the score and reward of the first main line mission would already surpass 90% of the other reincarnators.

The most important thing was that they could escape south after killing and setting fire.

It was really f*cking exciting!

Following the chosen one was simply winning all the time.

This kind of brainless gameplay was simply awesome!

The Qin army at the foot of the Snowy Mountain had discovered the strange situation in Dingyuan City and was rushing back.

A group of reincarnators who had just finished destroying the city wished they had two more legs and quickly went to the city south of the Great Zhou

Dynasty.

.0.

In the distant Dingzhou City, You Aotian was gathering the Northern Battlefront Army from various cities.

It was the final preparation for the upcoming expedition to Dingyuan City.

To be honest.

Ever since the 50,000 Qin soldiers took over Dingyuan City last year.

He had always had a bad feeling in his heart.

After all, other than the Northwest Legion who had to deal with the Qin army every day.

In the entire Great Zhou, he was probably the only one who understood the Qin army the most.

The people of Qin were not afraid of death.

However, he would never easily put his comrades in danger.

Therefore, the King of Qin dared to send 50,000 elites deep into the Great Zhou.

In a state of isolation and helplessness, this kind of behavior was no different from seeking death.

You Aotian would never believe it if there wasn't a particularly big scheme.

That's why.

When he realized that the Qin army's intentions were unclear, he immediately sent a warning to the imperial court to annihilate them as soon as possible.

Otherwise, I'm afraid it'll become a disaster in the future.

However, he was a border general and did not have much authority in the court.

Thus, after the report was sent to the court, the court did not accept it on the pretext of food.

This matter had been put on hold until now.

However, ever since Li Yueming and the others had found out about the Qin army's whereabouts, they had been unable to do anything.

The security around the Great Zhou scouts became very tight.

Most of the scouts could not get much useful information.

Therefore, You Aotian only knew that the Qin army had started building the city after occupying Dingyuan City. It was as if they wanted to live on the northern border of the Zhou Dynasty until the end of time.

Of course, it was useless to say more now that things had come to this.

You Aotian could only hope that the Qin army had not achieved their strategic goal.

Just as You Aotian was in a daze.

Suddenly.

Marba, who was wearing heavy armor, ran over while panting.

After bowing respectfully, Marba raised his head and said, "Great General, according to the intelligence from the cities, Dingyuan City caught fire for some reason. Even from a thousand miles away, one could see the fire light up half the sky!"

Hearing this, You Aotian's eyebrows shot up.

Good heavens.

He was still thinking about the Qin army in Dingyuan City.

At this moment, he heard that Dingyuan City was on fire.

Was his will already so powerful?

How could he fire a fireball at the Qin army from thousands of miles away?

He finally came back to his senses.

You Aotian waved his hand, signaling Marba to rest for a moment.

After Marba's breathing became even, he asked, "Where are the scouts? Why wasn't there any detailed information on such a big matter?"

Marba hurriedly replied, "The scouts might still be on their way. The Prefectures in the surrounding areas of Dingyuan City reported back immediately after seeing the weather! ""

Hearing this.

You Aotian nodded."

Although the flames around Dingyuan City soared into the sky.

As the saying goes, one should only act after planning.

As the commander-in-chief of an army, You Aotian naturally could not make a move when the situation was unclear.

Fortunately, the scouts of the Great Zhou did not make You Aotian wait too long.

Very soon, detailed news came.

Meng Ba was the leader of Dingzhou City's scout camp.

He had personally gone to the main tent to report this news to You Aotian.

As soon as he entered, Meng Ba's face lit up and he said, "Great General, according to the secret report, it is true that Dingyuan City is on fire!"

"According to the personal witness of many scouts, when the fire broke out, the main force of the Qin army did not seem to be in Dingzhou City. Moreover, this fire seemed to be man-made. Someone killed randomly on the walls of the Qin army and then started a fire!"

After saying that.

Meng Ba asked Dao: General, I heard that tens of thousands of Qin soldiers went crazy, in Dingyuan City surrounding a carpet search!"

At this moment.

You Aotian, Marba, and a few high-ranking generals of the Northern Battlefront Army were all in the tent.

When they heard the news, their first reaction was disbelief.

The 50,000 elites of the Qin army had taken over Dingyuan City, yet it was burned down by someone?

What kind of man could achieve such a terrifying result?

When they heard that the main force of the Qin army was no longer in Dingzhou, the group of high-ranking generals reluctantly accepted the reality.

However, there was another problem.

Who dared to attack the Qin camp in the middle of the night?

Did he eat the guts of a bear or a leopard?

A moment later, You Aotian, who had regained his senses, asked in puzzlement, "The scouts didn't find out who attacked us?"

Chapter 380: You Aotian's Shock! 2

Hearing this question.

Meng Ba seemed to want to say something but hesitated.

However, under the scrutiny of his superiors, he did not dare to hide it.

Therefore, he could only bite the bullet and say, 'General, from the information reported by the scouts, the group of people who attacked Dingyuan City seems to be...' It looks like a scout from the Northern Battlefront Army wearing my Great Zhou uniform...

Hearing this.

Instantly, the entire tent was filled with the smell of a pin drop.

The group of generals looked at each other with strange expressions on their faces.

‘This motherf * cker...

The ones attacking Dongyuan City were Great Zhou’s scouts?

When reporting this news, shouldn’t the scouts think about it first?

How could a scout attack a city?

A moment later.

“Meng Ba, don’t you want to think about what you’re saying?” Marba said with a dark face. If the ones attacking Dingyuan City are scouts, then I will send you to attack the city in the future.”

Hearing Marba’s question and the unfriendliness in his tone, he felt that he had to be careful.

In addition, he could feel the suffocating atmosphere in the camp.

Meng Ba’s entire forehead was oozing water, and drops of sweat dripped down.

I’m also very puzzled,” he said hurriedly after a moment.” But no matter how many times I asked, the scouts who came back were all the same...” At this point.

He might have felt a little guilty himself, so he lowered his head and said,””Actually, I think it’s possible... It’s possible that someone disguised as our Great Zhou’s scout and attacked Dingyuan City. That’s right, it’s very likely!”

He looked at Meng Ba, who was covered in sweat.

Marba, who was his superior, wanted to reprimand him.

However, You Aotian, who was behind him, stopped him and said,””Other than that, is there any other information? For example, how many people were attacking Dingyuan City?” Hearing this.

Meng Ba heaved a sigh of relief.

General You didn’t blame him, so he let this pass.

When he heard the question, he hurriedly said,””Reporting to Great General, Dingyuan City was in chaos at that time. When the surrounding scouts noticed the abnormality, they quickly approached. The fire on the city walls had already started. The only thing we can confirm is that the number of people who attacked Dingyuan City was not many, and each of them was a well-trained cultivator!”

“When the scouts heard the commotion, they immediately rushed to Dingyuan City. In less than an hour, the group of fake scouts had already destroyed the guards on the city walls and set Dingyuan City on fire!”

“From this, it can be seen that their methods are very experienced. They should be extremely proficient in killing and arson!”

After hearing Meng Ba’s report and analysis.

The group of generals could not help but fall silent again.

It could only be said that some of this news was really incomprehensible to them.

One had to know that the north they were in was famous for being bitter and cold.

Normally, no random forces were willing to visit this stingy place.

Where did this group of fake scouts come from?

Moreover, this force seemed to be quite powerful.

If it weren't for the fact that 80% of the high-ranking generals of the Northern Battlefront Army were here, they wouldn't have been able to escape.

At this moment, they were probably suspecting that it was their own people who had sent them out.

But even his own people had never heard of such an elite troop under the Northern Battlefront Army!

He thought for a long time.

The group of people could not think of a reason.

But no matter what, the 50,000-strong Qin army's base had been attacked. This was still good news for them.

Meng Ba was dismissed.

"Great General, since Dingyuan City has been burned down, should we take this opportunity to beat up those who are in trouble?" Marba stood up and asked." You Aotian narrowed his eyes when he heard this.

After thinking for a while, he didn't answer. After sweeping a glance at everyone, he asked,"What do you guys think?"

" I feel that there's something fishy about this situation. It seems like the Qin army is using a trick to lure us in!" a general said."

Another general also stood out." Why don't we investigate them first? Especially those 'fake scouts' who dared to use the Northern Battlefront Army's name. I'd like to see who they are!"

It was obvious that most of the high-ranking generals were doubtful about this.

After all, there was something fishy about this matter.

It would be unwise to act rashly before everything was investigated.

However, just as the few of them were still discussing repeatedly.

In the north of Dingyuan City, more than ten travel-worn scouts rode back with flags.

After receiving the news.

Meng Ba, who had just been reprimanded, walked to the door with a dark face.

Then, he saw a group of people led by Li Yueming rush into the city at lightning speed.

The moment she saw him.

Meng Ba opened his mouth as if he was reprimanding her.

After all, they had already entered the city, yet they were still so rash.

However, before he could reprimand her.

Meng Ba could smell a thick scent of blood.

After getting closer.

Only then did he realize that the armors of Li Yueming and the others were all red and black.

If it wasn't for the fact that the armor on their chests was undoubtedly the armor of the Zhou Dynasty, Meng Ba would have thought that Li Yueming and the others were Qin soldiers.

Such a strong smell of blood.

His armor and robes were almost dyed black and red by the blood.

Were they rolling around at the Gate of Death God?
