Chapter 381: You Aotian Is Shock!_3

He frowned.

Meng Ba keenly sensed the abnormality and said from afar, "Is there any emergency?"

On the horse, Li Yueming said, "Meng Sima, please bring us to the main tent immediately. We want to see General You. We have an urgent military report for 800 miles!"

Meng Ba's expression immediately turned serious.

He took the initiative to climb onto his spiritual horse and said, "I'll lead the way!"

He finished speaking.

He took out the yellow flag that was used to deliver the economic military report.

Under his lead.

Li Yueming's ten riders did not stop and went straight to the commander's tent in the city.

At this moment, You Aotian and the others were still in a meeting.

After hearing the commotion, You Aotian hurriedly ended the meeting.

He walked out of the door and looked at the dozen or so disciples in front of him.

After sweeping a glance from the beginning to the end to make sure that there were no missing people.

Only then did You Aotian heave a sigh of relief.

However, looking at the murderous aura on their bodies and the brown spots of blood, You Aotian's brows, which had just relaxed, immediately tightened again.

"What military intelligence do you have?"

Li Yueming looked around and lowered his head. "General, urgent military intelligence!"

Hearing this, You Aotian immediately signaled for the irrelevant personnel to leave temporarily.

Although the surrounding generals were surprised and confused, they still left the main tent obediently!

Only a few core members of the Northern Battlefront Army were left.

After the others left.

Li Yueming respectfully handed over a piece of urgent information that he had written on the way.

You Aotian took the envelope with a cold face.

The envelope was sealed tightly with wax, and the word 'confidential' was written in bright red on it.

After tearing it open, there was a piece of kraft paper inside.

His gaze swept across the letters one by one.

You Aotian immediately tensed up.

Even the generals who had just left could feel the aura that had suddenly erupted from this Great General.

It was like an unsheathed blade.

The killing intent was overwhelming.

After reading the contents of the envelope, You Aotian did not say anything.

He closed his eyes and pondered for a moment.

A flame rose in his hand and burned the letter clean.

A moment later.

Li Yueming did not hesitate and said, "It's absolutely true. The Qin army has mastered a method to communicate with the wild beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. This batch of Qin soldiers has stayed in the Great Zhou Dynasty's territory with the goal of opening up a path from Hangu Pass to the north!"

"Once the road is opened, the Qin army at Hangu Pass will descend from the sky. The western border will no longer be able to provide protection for our Great Zhou!"

"At that time, our Northern Lands and even the entire Great Zhou will be in chaos, and blood will flow for thousands of miles!"

You Aotian did not speak.

Li Yueming's letter was very simple.

It was about the group of people who had discovered the Qin army in the north.

Moreover, he had observed that some people were able to communicate with the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

This was sensational news.

Once word got out, it would probably not just be the Great Zhou.

The entire world would be in an uproar.

After all, the Hundred Thousand Mountains was not just related to the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Among the six states, except for the Qi State that was close to the sea.

The land of the other five countries was more or less related to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

In the past, there was no one to carry the Shiwan Mountain.

This was a fact that many countries had already acknowledged.

If the Qin army was really at the moment, they could communicate with spirit beasts to cross the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Then the order of the entire world would probably be shaken violently because of this!

In fact.

This doubt had troubled him for a long time.

He had investigated both openly and covertly.

He wasn't the only one. Even the imperial court had been investigating through various means over the past few months.

After all, these were 50,000 elite Qin soldiers.

How did they pass through the Hundred Thousand Mountains and appear in the Great Zhou Dynasty?

Could this behavior be replicated?

These were not problems that could be ignored easily.

But for the time being, this matter seemed to be highly confidential with the Qin army.

Therefore, they had yet to find out anything.

And now.

He didn't want to believe that the information that Li Yueming gave him was true.

However, these 50,000 Qin soldiers had really passed through the Hundred Thousand Mountains and appeared in the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Moreover, they had indeed conquered Dingyuan City, which they thought had no strategic value. Other than Dingyuan City, the Qin army had ignored the other more important cities.

From this, it could be seen that the credibility of this news was already very high.

Thinking of this...

Even You Aotian, who had been through hundreds of battles, could not help but narrow his eyes.

Beside him, the other high-ranking officers of the Northern Battlefront Army lost their composure and shouted, ""This news is of great importance. We have to report it immediately!"

You Aotian had also realized the seriousness of the matter. He immediately waved his hand and said, "The news naturally has to be reported. Immediately send someone to report it urgently!"

After he finished speaking.

He looked up at the door and said, "Men, call Marba, Gulian, and Hong Yue over. Also, order the entire army to gather quickly!"

Hearing this, a high-ranking official hesitated and said, "General..." Isn't this inappropriate?"

As a general, the greatest taboo was to privately mobilize the army.

If someone from the higher-ups took advantage of this to make an issue out of it.

It wouldn't be an exaggeration for You Aotian to be dragged out and beheaded.

However, You Aotian had clearly made up his mind. With a solemn expression, he said, "The Qin army is currently in a state of shock. Things might change. We must immediately make the corresponding arrangements..." "Give the order.. For the sake of the Northern Lands and the billions of people of the Great Zhou not suffering from the chaos of war, if the higher-ups blame me, I will bear all the blame!"

Chapter 382: You Aotian's Shock!_4

Seeing this situation.

"General, you don't have to take this risk. I have a better idea!" Li Yueming suddenly said.

Hearing this, everyone, including You Aotian, was shocked.

All the generals were stunned.

Their eyes also turned to Li Yueming, the unremarkable little scout.

This was because You Aotian had never made it public.

Therefore, none of the soldiers present knew his true identity.

If it wasn't for Li Yueming and the others who had just made a great contribution.

He would probably be kicked out immediately.

After all, it was an important military matter, how could a small scout interrupt?

But now.

Li Yueming and the others were meritorious officials. Therefore, the higher-ups of the Northern Battlefront Army felt uncomfortable.

However, she still patiently did not interrupt him.

Fortunately, You Aotian still knew their true identities.

Therefore, he looked at Li Yueming and the others curiously and "Do you have any other ideas?"

Li Yueming wasn't scared at all.

After all, he was the heir of the Marquis of Southern Mountains and a reincarnator who had experienced many storms.

To him, such a scene was simply a piece of cake.

In the past, he had experienced more than many.

He stood up and said, "Reporting to the general. My classmates and I found the Qin army at the foot of the snow mountain and immediately rushed south. We conveniently burned Dingyuan City!"

"Right now, the Qin army probably hates us to the core. As long as we go out and provoke them a little, the Qin army will probably be flustered and take the initiative to attack. At that time, the general will be able to send troops to suppress them."

“When the Imperial Court comes to its senses, Great General will only have credit and no guilt!”

When Li Yueming stood up.

All the higher-ups of the Northern Battlefront Army frowned.

In their opinion, this little scout had probably just made a great contribution.

He was already feeling a little smug.

He actually dared to disregard military discipline in front of them.

Even Meng Ba, who followed Li Yueming here to report the information, broke out in a cold sweat for Li Yueming.

He could only say that this kid was really a fool.

However, when he heard Li Yueming mention that he had ‘conveniently set Dingyuan City on fire’, he was shocked.

The group of people was immediately stunned.

His mouth was so wide open that he could swallow an egg alive.

What did they just hear?

These few scouts actually said that he had set Dingyuan City on fire?

Was it an illusion in their ears or was the world upside down?

He finally came back to his senses.

The group of people suddenly thought of the news that Meng Ba had reported earlier.

According to the eyewitnesses, the murder and arson in Dingyuan City...It seemed to be a group of people wearing Great Zhou’s military uniforms... Scout?

Thinking of this...

Then, he looked at Li Yueming’s clothes.

It was already stained with blood.

Even though it had solidified, he could still smell the blood in the air.

So... Was it really a group of scouts who set Dingyuan City on fire?

And it was a group of young scouts?

The group of generals only felt that their three views, which had been cultivated for decades on the battlefield, were different. At this moment, it was somewhat shattered.

Since when could scouts attack cities?

Alright then... It was fine if they attacked the city. After all, scouts were the elites of the army.

However, a dozen or so scouts had directly killed the Qin army’s city walls and even burned down the cities that the Qin army had captured...

No matter how he listened, this sounded like a story that only a country storyteller could make up, right?

You Aotian was also shocked.

However, he was still the general of the Northern Battlefront Army.

Therefore, he was the first to accept the news and paced around.

After considering all the causes and effects, he nodded and said, "In that case, let's try it out as you said. If the Qin army doesn't make a move, then even if I have to risk losing my head, I'll take this chance!"

A smile appeared on Li Yueming's face when he heard that.. He bowed and said, "Yes, sir..."

Chapter 383: A Thief Doesn't Leave Empty, He's Proficient in Killing and Arson!_1

After listening to Li Yueming's suggestion.

You AoAotian chose to accept it after thinking for a moment.

Glancing at Li Yueming, You Aotian asked, "Are you sure the Qin army will attack our city? If it's really like what you said, the Qin army came here to open up a path in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, then it's especially unwise to take the initiative to attack our city at this time..."

"They will definitely complete the mission first!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming smiled, "General, don't worry. The Qin army will definitely attack us!"

At this point.

He had no choice but to go back in time to half a day ago.

At that time, Li Yueming was still fighting the True Form Realm cultivator in the sky.

The thoughts of the group of reincarnators under his feet became active.

Good heavens.

He didn't expect the Son of Heaven's Mandate to be so awesome!

He was only fourteen or fifteen years old, but he could already fight a truth realisation state cultivator.

If he was given a few more days, wouldn't it be great?

However, at this moment, it was obviously a good thing for them that Li Yueming was strong enough.

The group of reincarnators saw that the situation was still within their control.

He finally felt relieved.

As expected, they were right to not choose to slip away.

Now, it was finally their turn to make a fortune!

A group of reincarnators skillfully killed and set fire to the place.

On the other side, they began to search the city as quickly as possible.

What was a reincarnator?

He wanted to do what others didn't dare to do, but he didn't dare to do it.

They were reincarnators.

If it was an ordinary person, their stomachs and legs would probably cramp.

However, this group of reincarnators who did not care about life and death still remembered the principle of not leaving empty-handed.

After all, it was not easy to occupy a city. If he did not rummage through it to see if there were any treasures, wouldn't he be making a huge loss?

However, when they found the Qin army's warehouse...

However, he was shocked by the wealth in the warehouse.

There were three huge warehouses in the center of Dingyuan City.

One of the warehouses was filled with exquisite jade and all kinds of gold and silver utensils.

Another warehouse was filled with food and wine. The last warehouse was filled with a large pile of magic treasures watered and made from spirit stones and spirit soil.

There were three large warehouses.

Each of them was filled to the brim.

This really gave the group of reincarnators a big fright.

This was f * cking...

If he remembered correctly, it seemed to be the territory of the Great Zhou, ngnt(

Where did the Qin army get so many treasures?

Moreover, it was fine to bring food and magic treasures when marching to war.

What was the point of bringing wine and gold and silver utensils?

Many reincarnators were silent for a moment. In the end, Ding Yi, who was experienced and knowledgeable, spoke up, "I guess these are items that the Qin army traded with the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. If you like them, take more. If you can't take the rest, burn them!" Hearing this.

Then, he looked at the messy pile of things in the warehouse.

The other reincarnators shook their heads in disappointment and said, "How f * cking unlucky. These things are probably only used to fool the uncivilized foreign races!"

To reincarnators, the gold and silver treasures of the native world could not be brought with them when they were born or when they died.

Although it was useful, its effect was obviously very ordinary.

What they wanted the most was naturally some cultivation technique manuals or some top-grade weapons.

Unfortunately, there was nothing here.

Therefore, the group of reincarnators picked and chose. After barely taking a few tools, they left without looking back.

Of course.

Following the Three Light Strategy.

Before the group of reincarnators left, they did not forget to set the warehouse on fire.

After all, they couldn't take it away, so they naturally couldn't leave it for the Qin army.

This action destroyed the Qin army's painstaking efforts.

Li Yueming didn't believe that the Qin army could endure it.

Even if the Qin army could endure it, reality would not give them any other choice.

After all, he wanted to continue communicating with the king of spirit beasts in the snow mountain.

It was definitely important to prepare enough gifts.

If the Qin army did not want their expedition to fail, they had to think of a way to get back these lost 'gifts'.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Li Yueming wasn't afraid that the Qin army would hold back.

However, these words were obviously not suitable to be said in front of so many people.

Therefore, he could only choose to shut up.

He believed that with You Aotian's boldness and foresight, he would not be conflicted about these things.

.0.

He looked at Li Yueming, who had a serious expression on his face.

You Aotian was silent for a moment.

Clearly, he was weighing the pros and cons in his heart, but in the end, he still smiled and said, "Alright then, this general will believe you this time!" Hearing You Aotian's answer.

The high-ranking generals and strategists of the Northern Battlefront Army widened their eyes.

Good fellow...

What did they hear?

Something that had such a huge impact.

At this moment, no matter how stupid the group of higher-ups were, they were still in a daze.

He finally felt that something was wrong.

Obviously, there was something wrong with Li Yueming's true identity. He just didn't know who it was.

That was why the usually steady Great General You was willing to take such a huge risk?

Just as the group of higher-ups were thinking.

You Aotian had already stood up and said in a vigorous voice, "Men, pass the order!"

He heard the noise in the tent.

Marba, who had been waiting outside the door for a long time, hurriedly walked in and bowed respectfully to receive the order. "General!"

Get ready!" You Aotian said with a solemn expression, "Pass down the order to the army to prepare for the Qin army's attack!"

Chapter 384: A Thief Doesn't Leave Empty, He's Proficient in Killing and Arson!_2

Marba was stunned.

At this moment, the entire army was still preparing food and fodder, and the army had yet to be fully assembled.

Why did he have to be prepared to be attacked by the Qin army?

However, just as he was in a daze.

You Aotian's eyes had already straightened as he spoke again, "Order the army to prepare for battle immediately, do you understand?"

"Yes, sir!" Marba replied subconsciously.

However, after he finished speaking, he thought about it and asked, "But General...Food..."

You Aotian's voice was very cold as he said, "Don't worry about that!" Marba glanced at the solemn You Aotian.

He then looked at Li Yueming who was kneeling not far away. He could not help but feel extremely puzzled.

After all, he had been outside the tent the entire time.

Just half an hour ago, You Aotian and the others were still discussing which direction to attack the Qin army from.

However, not long after Li Yueming and the others entered the tent.

You Aotian's attitude had changed so much.

Obviously, Li Yueming must have reported some news to make You Aotian's attitude change so quickly.

This kid..

He was too torturous every day! What was he doing?

Start the final battle with the Qin army?

Marba glanced at You Aotian, who was not angry and looked dignified, and then looked at the general's token in You Aotian's hand.

In the end, he chose to shut his mouth and carry out his orders.

Very quickly.

The relevant decree spread throughout the entire Northland.

Even the Northern Battlefront Army was shocked.

Just when everyone was still confused.

You Aotian's orders were passed down one after another.

It was a soldier's duty to obey orders.

Although the soldiers of the Northern Battlefront Army were not the most elite soldiers of the Great Zhou Dynasty, they were still considered outstanding.

It was still possible to carry out orders and prohibitions.

Therefore, all the troops in the northern part of the Great Zhou quickly gathered.

The patrol and defense level of the town had also been raised by several levels.

For a moment, the entire Northern Battlefront Army was filled with killing intent.

Finally.

After midnight.

The relevant information at the meeting finally began to spread.

"The Qin army has actually mastered the ability to communicate with the Hundred Thousand Mountains...Is this true?"

"It's absolutely true. I heard that it was discovered by a group of young scouts from the scout camp!"

"That's right, didn't Dingyuan City catch fire today? The ones who set the city on fire were also the scouts!"

"So ridiculous? When did our Great Zhou have such elite scouts?" "So these 50,000 Qin soldiers are here to attack the outpost?"

"No wonder they didn't occupy any other cities but Dingyuan City. Dingyuan City is the closest to the Hundred Thousand Mountains!"

"This is too terrifying. Did the Qin army succeed? Otherwise, why would the general order us to defend?"

"I don't know. The only thing we can do now is to believe in General Qin!"

All the soldiers in the army became nervous.

He could do it in addition to patrolling.

However, it did not prevent them from discussing what happened tonight in private.

No matter which one it was, they were all extremely surprised.

The first thing they cared about was the path that the Qin army had opened up.

If this thing was really broken through by the Qin army, the Great Zhou would probably be completely reduced to the passive side in this long-term competition.

After all, it had been so many years.

The reason why the Great Zhou was able to resist the attacks of the Qin army was mostly due to the fact that the northwest was a natural barren land that isolated the Qin army from the Qin army.

It made it impossible for him to take a step into the Central Plains.

Now that they had lost the barrier of the western border.

With the strength of the Northern Battlefront Army, it would be impossible for them to resist the attack of the Qin army.

.0.

Just as Li Yueming and the others were reporting the news.

At the foot of the distant snow mountain.

After sensing the abnormality in Dingyuan City, he was shocked.

At the foot of the snowy mountain, the 40,000 Qin soldiers returned at top speed.

However, by the time they rushed back, it was already too late.

The tens of thousands of soldiers could only watch as they worked hard to expand the city. The Dingyuan City, which had stored many resources, was burned to ashes in the raging flames.

The young man in the lead, who was dressed in luxurious clothes, became even more furious when he saw this.

She was so angry that she was shaking.

One had to know that they were currently at a critical stage of negotiations with the beast king in the snow mountain.

In order to prevent the Great Zhou Dynasty from suddenly launching an attack.

The Qin army lit a bonfire on the city wall and sent troops to patrol day and night.

But now, at this critical juncture, he was burned to ashes.

The man's eyes were red.

He charged out of the army like a madman.

He glared at her hysterically and roared, "Who is it that dares to ruin my plans at this juncture?!"

At this moment, everyone was silent.

No one could answer him.

Looking at the burning Ding City, the young man in luxurious clothes did not know whether to feel sorry or angry.

Three years ago, they had already cooperated with a group of strange cultivators who called themselves 'Beast Trainers' and secretly opened up the passageway to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

He had spent so much time.

They had finally opened up the desolate road from Hangu Pass of the Qin State to the northern part of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Now, they only needed to successfully negotiate with the king of the snowy mountains. Then, the Qin army at Hangu Pass would be able to bypass the difficult and meatless western border and launch a surprise attack from the 100,000 mountains, directly cutting into the north, where the defense of the Great Zhou was relatively weak.

Great Zhou had lost the northwest barrier, and the Northern Battlefront Army, which had only 200,000 soldiers, was no match for the Qin army..

Chapter 385: A Thief Doesn't Leave Empty, He Is Proficient in Killing and Arson!_3

The Qin army only needed to break through the defense line of the Northern Battlefront Army to tear a hole in the Great Zhou Dynasty and plunder its population and wealth.

When the time was right, it was not impossible to lead the army south and break through Haojing.

The reason why they kept expanding the city walls of Ding Yuan City and tried their best to save and save so much food and jewelry.

It was a gift for the Snow Mountain Beast King.

After all, as long as he mastered the method of communicating with wild beasts, he would be able to communicate with them.

In fact, there was not much difference between beasts and humans.

He also liked flattery and flattery, as well as all kinds of treasures that could be used by him.

But now, everything that he had meticulously prepared had turned into nothing with this fire.

It was no wonder that the man in luxurious clothes was so angry...

The fire in Ding Yuan City continued to burn.

A few soldiers who had survived saw that the main force had returned and hurriedly ran over. They knelt down in front of the man in luxurious clothes with a thud and said with tears flowing down their faces, "Ninth Prince, the attack... The ones who attacked Dingyuan City were Great Zhou's scouts!"

Hearing this, the young man called the Ninth Prince subconsciously raised his voice and said in disbelief, "".. What did you say?"

At this moment, the anger on his face seemed to have materialized.

The soldier couldn't help but shiver.

He suppressed his fear and gritted his teeth." Your Highness, it's true. All of our brothers saw it. Those scouts..." Those scouts were not human. They killed and set fire to more than bandits. Even General Fei could not stop the leader of the scouts!"

The Ninth Prince took a few deep breaths to calm himself down.

He asked again, Where is General Fei?"

The soldier replied," After General Fei counted the losses in the city, he has already chased after them. He said that he wants those damned Zhou people to pay with their blood!"

Hearing this, the Ninth Prince closed his eyes.

Clearly, he could not accept that it was only a group of spies from the Zhou Dynasty who had burned down the entire Dingzhou City.

After all, no matter how empty Dingyuan City was, there were still several thousand soldiers.

In addition, there was a general of the Transformation Realm guarding the place.

No matter what, it shouldn't be something that a group of scouts could handle.

But now that the truth was right in front of him, he had no choice but to believe it.

After thinking for a while.

The Ninth Prince's expression turned cold.

According to his original plan, he only needed to give the Snow Mountain Beast King some of the items and resources he had prepared in Dingyuan City.

In exchange for the right to pass through a road.

But now, all things he had prepared had been burned.

Thinking of this, he looked at a seventeen or eighteen-year-old young man beside him.

' Sir, these damned Zhou people burned the gift I prepared for the Snow King.

Please help me! ""

Hearing this, the young man patted the fox on his shoulder.

A thought-provoking smile appeared in her long and narrow eyes. After a moment, she said, "It doesn't matter. We'll take it back the way they took it. It's just a blood debt!"

.0.

That night.

Outside Dingzhou City, one after another, the courier who was delivering the news rode away on a fast horse.

One of the couriers carried the memorial that You Aotian had written overnight and would head to Haojing at the fastest speed without rest.

It was the power center of the Great Zhou Dynasty that delivered the news of the Northlands.

There was also a courier carrying the general's order to recruit the entire army in the north.

As for the last ride.

They were sent to all the county governors and county magistrates of the eighteen counties in the north.

They were forbidden to open the city gates and pipes in case of an attack by the Qin army.

However, it was under such circumstances.

The war still descended as expected.

The first to suffer a devastating blow was Yunzhou City, which was more than 200 miles away from Dingyuan City.

Yunzhou City was the same as Dingyuan City.

It was considered half a Tacheng City, and there were not many soldiers stationed there.

The 50,000 Qin soldiers were like the Grim Reaper.

They launched an attack on Yunzhou City before dawn.

Although the soldiers in Yunzhou City quickly discovered the incoming Qin army, the difference in strength between the two sides was too great.

In less than three hours, the Qin army had taken down Yunzhou City.

After breaking the city, the Qin army burned, killed, and looted the city, but it was still not appeased. They actually piled up the heads of the soldiers and civilians in Yunzhou City to serve as the capital.

For a time, the entire Northlands was shaken.

From the soldiers to the people, everyone was in panic.

This was a great challenge to the dignity of the Great Zhou and the Northern Battlefront Army.

Therefore, after hearing the news.

You Aotian, the general of the Northern Battlefront Army, announced that the northern defense line had entered a state of full war.

He took over the army and began to mobilize the Northern Battlefront Army from Dingzhou City and the six nearby cities.

Before the war, You Aotian gave Li Yueming a promotion.

However, the specific rewards would only take effect after the imperial court issued an edict.

But now, Li Yueming's actual position in the army was on par with Meng Ba.

Of course, in contrast.

The super scout team under him had long since become famous in the north.

Almost all soldiers in the Northern Battlefront Army knew of his existence.

Moreover, it was gradually becoming a legend.

Li Yueming and his scouts were all new players!

It seemed that he had just joined the Northern Battlefront Army less than a year ago.

In the end, in just a few days, he had already made a name for himself in the North.

Chapter 386: A Thief Doesn't Leave Empty, He's Proficient in Killing and Arson!_4

Using a small team of scouts to capture the cities occupied by the Qin army, killing thousands of Qin soldiers and bringing back crucial information.

In the eyes of the ordinary soldiers.

It was even more ridiculous than a god descending to the mortal world! In addition, it was worth mentioning that

This time, You Aotian did not let the reincarnator team charge forward like before.

He had probably seen the potential of his students.

In addition, the commotion they caused the first two times was too big. Even the scouts had become a thorn in the side of the Qin army. This war had not officially begun.

The Qin army had already gone crazy and surrounded the Great Zhou scouts everywhere.

Therefore, no matter how big You Aotian's heart was now, he would not be able to do anything.

He did not dare to let them appear in front of the Qin army.

Regarding this, Li Yueming and the others were obviously not very happy.

This was especially true for the group of reincarnators. At this moment, they wanted to cause trouble crazily to increase their scores.

However, he was suppressed by You Aotian, so he could only hold it in for the time being.

Finally...

A week later.

The main force of the Qin army and the main force of the Northern Army of the town met.

The two sides fought three thousand miles east of Dingyuan City.

The Qin army was obviously stronger than the Northern Army, but the Northern Army had the advantage in numbers.

The two sides set up a battle formation and fought fiercely, leaving behind many corpses.

However, after this battle, when the Northern Battlefront Army wanted to continue chasing after the Qin army, they were shocked. However, he realized that the Qin army had suddenly disappeared.

After learning of this news.

You Aotian felt somewhat powerless.

There were 50,000 of them, and they were well-trained and had amazing combat strength.

The Northern Battlefront Army had 200,000 troops, but 100,000 of them had to defend the city.

Only 100,000 of them could be used flexibly-

And the 100,000 reinforcements sent by King Yu in the northeast had been dawdling along the way.

There was still no trace of him.

Under such circumstances, it was truly difficult to swallow this Qin army.

If the imperial court had adopted his suggestion earlier and not discounted this, the Great Zhou would probably not be so passive now.

You Aotian sighed.

Frowning, he took out the map and looked at it for a moment.

"The Qin army seems to have entered the Hundred Thousand Mountains," he finally said. "These guys have recently robbed many cities of their resources. They won't be able to successfully convince the King of Snow Mountains, will they?"

Beside him, Li Yueming's identity had changed from a scout to a military counselor.

After all, Li Yueming was You Aotian's disciple and the son of his old comrade, the Marquis of South Peak's Li family.

Therefore, You Aotian's feelings for Li Yueming were more inclined to be that of an elder treating a nephew.

Especially after discovering that Li Yueming seemed to have a talent for war that ordinary people didn't have, You Aotian really treated him as a successor and nurtured him.

You Aotian asked.

Li Yueming pondered for a moment and shook his head. "If the King of Spiritual Beasts on the snowy mountain was really that easy to deal with, the Qin army would not have dawdled in Dingyuan City for so long!"

Hearing this, You Aotian revealed a satisfied expression and continued to ask, "Then how can we put an end to this farce?"

Li Yueming Ming smiled. "Actually, this problem is actually quite simple. As long as we take the lead in dealing with the King of Snow Mountain on the peak of the extreme cold, won't this group of Qin soldiers become complete clowns

Hearing this.

A glint flashed across You Aotian's eyes, but he sighed a moment later. "This is indeed the best method. However, the reason why the Qin people are so fearless is because our Great Zhou has yet to master the method of communicating with spirit beasts!"

“For thousands of years, it’s not that the various countries have never had the idea of taking over the Hundred Thousand Mountains, but in the end, they all ended up failing...It was extremely difficult to open up a path like the Qin

The smile on Li Yueming’s face never stopped. He said meaningfully, ““That’s not necessarily true. If the Qin army can do it, why can’t our Great Zhou do it?!”

Chapter 387: The reactions of all parties shook the world! 1

Looking at the puzzled look on the face, You Aotian said.

Li Yueming smiled. “That might not be the case. If the Qin army can do it, why can’t our Great Zhou do it?””

He didn’t seem to be joking.

You Aotian immediately perked up and asked, “Oh? What should I say?”

One had to know that the Qin army was able to communicate with the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. This was a major event for the Great Zhou.

Not only the Great Zhou.

The entire Six Nations would be shocked by this.

After all, this was the Hundred Thousand Mountains. It wasn’t like the various countries hadn’t invested in research over the years.

But in the end, they basically returned empty-handed.

Now that the Qin army had mastered the method to communicate with the Hundred Thousand Mountains, it meant that the order of the entire six states would undergo earth-shattering changes.

To put it simply.

For example, in the past, the Northern Battlefront Army would occasionally deal with the spirit beasts in the Shiwan Mountains.

There were basically no foreign invaders.

Even if they had to defend against a portion of the Qin army, it would only be a small army.

And now, once the Qin army opened up a path through the Hundred Thousand Mountains, the weak defenses of the north would very likely become the Qin army’s backyard.

He could come and go as he pleased.

In the long run, the Great Zhou would have to invest ten times or a hundred times more energy to resist the outside world.

Under such circumstances.

If Li Yueming could find a way to deal with the Qin army...

This was a great achievement.

Therefore, he sat up straight and focused on Li Yueming who was not far away.

Li Yueming didn't keep him in suspense and said, "I can bring some people to the Hundred Thousand Mountains to try to communicate with the King of the Snow Mountains. However, before we go to the Snow Mountains, you and the Imperial Court must prepare some things for me as soon as possible!"

As he spoke.

He took out a piece of paper from his pocket.

There were many treasures listed on it.

Seeing this scene.

You Aotian was shocked and stood up."

"Of course!" Li Yueming nodded."

The war between Great Zhou and Great Qin was the best nourishment for him.

He could use this opportunity to grow stronger.

You Aotian stared at him for a long time and finally said, "Do you know that this idea is not a good thing for you personally?"

He went to make contact with the spirit beasts on the snowy mountain.

This kind of thinking was quite dangerous.

This was because the Great Zhou had yet to investigate how the Qin army communicated with the spirit beasts.

If he were to report this information rashly, when the imperial court issued an edict, Li Yueming would naturally have made a great contribution if he succeeded.

If he failed, he would probably lose himself.

Li Yueming naturally knew what You Aotian meant and smiled. "Master, don't worry. Since this disciple dares to kick out this opinion, I naturally have confidence!"

Hearing this, You Aotian was puzzled. "With your status, as long as you grow up smoothly, you can live comfortably. Why would you take such a risk?"

Li Yueming thought about it.

Of course, he wouldn't reveal his true reason.

Instead, he gave a reason that You Aotian could not refuse and said righteously, "Naturally, it's for the billions of people in the Northlands. I can't bear to see them sink into the flames of war!"

You Aotian looked deeply at Li Yueming.

Obviously, he didn't expect Li Yueming to be from an aristocratic family.

It actually had such a diameter.

For the billions of people in the world...

Countless dignified people in the world would often say this sentence.

But in reality, they said one thing and did another.

And now.

When Li Yueming said it, he had a different feeling.

You Aotian sighed and patted Li Yueming's shoulder. In the end, he did not say anything and turned around to give the order.

Beside Li Yueming, the other reincarnators were also interested when they saw this situation.

After confirming that You Aotian had left, everyone gave him a thumbs up and said, "Junior Brother Li, well said. A real man should benefit the people when he walks between heaven and earth!"

Recently, his movements had been restricted by You Aotian.

The group of reincarnators were in a tough spot.

Seeing such a good opportunity to fight with the Qin army, they actually had no way to intervene.

There was no progress on the mission.

How could this work?

It was also because of this that the group of people had been constantly thinking of ways to come up with ideas.

But now, Li Yueming made a move.

You Aotian was finally persuaded.

As long as they could go to the battlefield to advance the main mission, it would be a great thing!

Li Yueming only smiled.

His expression was a little profound.

After You Aotian left.

He immediately sent another secret letter.

They were sent to the capital without stopping.

He reckoned that the secret letter regarding the Qin army's plot should have been sent to Gao Jing by now.

He did not know what kind of turmoil it would cause.

As expected, at the end of the month.

News of the Northern Battlefront Army's border spread.

The entire Great Zhou was in an uproar.

Even the emperor was surprised.

The Qin army had actually mastered the method to pass through the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

In that case, wouldn't the Great Zhou's northern defense line be extended by tens of thousands of miles?

Originally, the Qin army had already caused the Great Zhou Dynasty to be in a terrible state just by being at the northwest border.

Now, the northwest border could no longer keep the Qin army in check.

The days of the entire Great Zhou would probably be 10 times or 100 times more difficult to endure!

At the same time, after the news spread, it was not only the Great Zhou that was in awe.

Great Ming, Great Tang, Great Han, Great Song, and other countries all received the news and felt a headache.

This was because their territory was more or less bordered by the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Now that the Qin army was able to open up a path in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, didn't that mean that they could use it to attack them at will in the future?

Chapter 388: The reactions of all parties shook the world! 2

This was naturally hard to accept.

At the same time, the name Li Yueming also began to spread.

After all, being able to thwart the Qin army's schemes at the age of thirteen or fourteen was not something an ordinary person could do. Most importantly, he was the son of Marquis Southpeak.

His identity was extremely prominent.

Therefore, the Li family was pushed to the forefront again.

Many people believed that the Li family had a chance of becoming two marquises in this generation, and even had the hope of returning to the peak of the Defender Duke era.

Countless nobles had their own thoughts.

He wondered if he should discuss marriage with Marquis Southpeak if he had the chance in the future.

Just as everyone was in an uproar.

In the Great Zhou Dynasty, a group of nobles and officials were discussing how to deal with the matters in the north.

Of course, after knowing the true purpose of Qin Jun, he was shocked.

The emperor had already given Prince Yu a strong dose of medicine.

Right now, the army of Prince Yu's Northeast had already rushed to the north without stopping. The first batch of reinforcements would arrive in at most ten days.

However, it was clear that sending an army was not the fundamental solution to the problem.

The Great Zhou had to make preparations to defend before the Qin army completely attacked.

However, just as they were arguing in the court..

Finally, You Aotian's second secret letter was handed over to the court.

The emperor received the letter.

He opened his eyes and looked at them silently. Then, he looked at the officials in the imperial court and said,""Stop arguing!" The entire court fell silent for a moment.

Everyone looked at Tian Zi on the dragon throne.

The emperor waved his hand at the eunuch beside him, who handed over the document.

Many of the officials looked at the contents of the letter and were shocked.

A moment later, Left Prime Minister Wang Fuyue spoke first,""Is what General You said in the secret letter true? My Great Zhou can also communicate with the spirit beasts on the northern snow mountains?"

The emperor didn't say anything.

With the letter here, You Aotian was usually a steady person, so he naturally wouldn't pass false information.

Beside him, the Right Prime Minister Ge Hong shot a glance and said,""I believe that regardless of whether it's true or not, we can give it a try. Even if we fail, the Great Zhou will only lose some gifts."

Hearing this, Wang Fuyue also came back to his senses and echoed, ""That's indeed the case. Even if it's only a 0.00000% chance, our Great Zhou has to give it a try!"

"However, the candidates for the Hundred Thousand Mountains...Isn't it a little inappropriate to let the heir of the Marquis of Southern Mountains go?" In the letter, You Aotian had already described everything that had happened.

After all, it was not easy to send a letter from a long distance.

Naturally, he had to explain everything in detail.

Therefore, everyone in the court already knew about Li Yueming's proposal.

Wang Fuyue raised an objection.

"Lord Left Minister, what do you think is wrong?"The Right Prime Minister Ge Hong stepped forward with a smile on his face." Do you think that the son of the Marquis of Southern Mountains should only enjoy special privileges and not contribute to the Great Zhou?"

After a pause, he continued, "Moreover, this is the suggestion of the son of the Marquis of South Peak himself. Since he has the heart to serve the country, how can we interfere?"

Wang Fuyue glared at Ge Hong.

For the sake of balance, the Great Zhou Dynasty was divided into two prime ministers.

There was no difference in position between the two prime ministers. The left prime minister was in charge of the Great Zhou's economy, while the right prime minister was in charge of the Great Zhou's military and political affairs.

Its purpose was to balance the power of both parties.

And it wasn't just a day or two that he and Ge Hong had been at odds with each other.

Even some trivial matters were often squabbled in front of the emperor.

The top 100,000 mountains were not a small matter. If they were not handled well, it might shake the foundation of the country.

Therefore, it was even more impossible for Wang Fuyue to back down in front of Ge Hong. "The Marquis of Southpeak is still fighting a bloody battle at the border. How can we let his son take such a huge risk? If something were to happen to Li Yueming, how would Marquis Southpeak view us and the imperial court?"

Everyone with discerning eyes knew that this mission to the Hundred Thousand Mountains was a mountain of blades and a sea of flames.

After all, the danger of the Hundred Thousand Mountains was self-evident.

And now, with the Qin army's interference.

To a certain extent, entering the Hundred Thousand Mountains rashly was no different from courting death.

Therefore, when Wang Fuyue heard that the son of the Marquis of Nanyue, Li Yueming, was prepared to take the risk and head to the mountains, he was shocked.

His first reaction was that it was not safe.

Ge Hong smiled and said sarcastically, "Lord Left Minister..." If I remember correctly, the Marquis of Southpeak has always wanted to become in-laws with you. Now, before this is even over, you're already fighting for justice for your future son-in-law?"

Hearing this.

Wang Fuyue's expression immediately changed.

Regardless of whether this was true or false, if it was taken to the extreme, then he would lose his head.

Therefore, he immediately stood up and retorted, "Ge Hong, I'm not doing this for personal gain. I'm doing this for the stability of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Don't slander me!"

Ge Hong said with a serious expression, "I know you're in a hurry, but don't be anxious first..." Didn't you see what General You said in the letter that this idea was the will of the son of the Marquis of Nanyue?"

"What does this mean? It meant that Marquis Southpeak's family was loyal and that he was like a tiger father, like a dog son.. This was a good thing!"

Chapter 389: The reactions of all parties shook the world!—3

"Why? Are you standing out to stop us now to sow discord between the Imperial Court and Marquis Southpeak?"

Ge Hong's words were laced with a spear and a stick.

On the one hand, he attacked Wang Fuyue's evil intentions, and on the other hand, he emphasized that this was Li Yueming's personal wish, and he had completely removed the relationship between the imperial court and himself. Lastly, he would praise the loyalty of Marquis Southpeak's family.

If Wang Fuyue continued to stand up and cause trouble, would it indirectly mean that Wang Fuyue had smuggled goods? Seeing this situation, Wang Fuyue could only sigh.

He wanted to help Marquis Southpeak.

But now, it was Li Yueming who suggested going to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Even if he wanted to help, he had no idea where to start.

He might even be dragged into the water by his arch-enemy.

The higher the position, the more careful one had to be.

Every word and action had to be considered for the overall situation.

Otherwise, if they were not careful, it was still a light punishment. There were also many people who would be executed.

Wang Fuyue lowered her head and stopped talking.

Ge Hong was satisfied. He looked at the emperor who was sitting high not far away and reported, "Your Majesty, there is no time to lose at the northern border. There is no time to delay. Therefore, I think we should do as General You says!"

"As for the son of the Marquis of Southern Mountains, not only did he discover and thwart the Qin army's plot, but he also thought of a way to resolve the crisis in the Northern Lands. Although it hasn't been put into practice, his initial intentions are good. To have such talent at such a young age is truly the fortune of our Great Zhou!"

"Therefore, in my opinion, you should be heavily rewarded!"

"However, the Northlands is currently in a crisis. The specific rewards can be delayed slightly. We can decide after the situation has stabilized!"

“As for the candidates for the Northlands... Since it was the son of the Marquis of Southern Mountains who came up with the plan and volunteered himself, I think we can give him a chance to prove himself. After all, if we can really find a way to communicate with the spirit beasts of the Hundred Thousand Mountains, not only will the crisis in the Northern Lands be resolved, but it will also be a great thing for the Great Zhou!”

Ge Hong spoke for a long time, but the recuperation was very clear.

However, everyone in the imperial court was a shrewd person.

Therefore, anyone with discerning eyes could tell that Ge Hong did not want the heir of the Marquis of South Mountains to be well. He clearly wanted to kill the heir of the Marquis of South Mountains!

After all, the plan that the son of the Nanyue Lord had proposed sounded perfect.

However, there was a crucial problem.

That was how to communicate with the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Since the Qin army dared to roam the northern lands after being discovered by the Great Zhou, it meant that the Snow Mountain Spirit Beasts were not easy to communicate with.

Moreover, it was very likely that the methods that the Qin army had mastered would be difficult for other countries to replicate.

Otherwise, a human could communicate with the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

How could the Six Nations have always regarded the Hundred Thousand Mountains as a forbidden zone for humans?

Therefore, most of the officials felt that Li Yueming must have started to become arrogant because of his achievements.

He didn't think that the plan he provided would really succeed.

The Qin army had prepared for so long and used so many resources to make this happen.

Even they felt helpless.

If they were easily dealt with by a teenager like Li Yueming, what face would they have?

However, since the best plan had already been reported.

Then the Imperial Court would definitely not give up.

After all, this was indeed the best solution. If it could succeed, not only would they be able to resolve the crisis in the north in time, but they would also be able to take this opportunity to deal a heavy blow to the morale of the Qin army.

And the cost of completing this plan was just some insignificant gifts.

Now, it was up to the emperor.

If the emperor really agreed to Right Prime Minister Ge Hong's suggestion, then the implications were worth pondering.

In the court, all the officials' gazes were focused on the emperor.

The emperor sat upright, the imperial edict above his head covering his expression. After a moment of silence, he said, "Let me consider this matter a little more. You guys should first draft a report on how the Great Zhou should face the threat of the Qin army in the north!"

It was clear that the emperor knew the pros and cons of this and did not express his stance. Instead, he let the ministers discuss how the Qin army would deal with the south after opening the northern road.

After all, whether or not he agreed to let Li Yueming go to the Hundred Thousand Mountains would represent the emperor's attitude towards the Marquis of Southpeak.

If the emperor did not have any other thoughts about the Marquis of Southpeak, he naturally would not watch as Li Yueming headed to the danger zone.

However, if the emperor had other thoughts, this would be a good opportunity.

Right Prime Minister Ge Hong had been so radical just now because he was betting that the emperor had already decided to kill the Marquis of Southern Mountains and the Li family.

Political decision-making and balancing.

It was often through some clues that the whole situation would be affected.

Finally, after the court meeting ended.

All the ministers left the court.

The emperor left Right Prime Minister Ge Hong alone and said, "Minister Ge, get the Ministry of War to draft a document and promote Li Yueming to the position of Assistant Minister. Let him be fully responsible for the communication this time...As for the things he needs, you must gather them and send them to him within a month. You must not be careless!" Ge Hong's expression was somewhat ugly.

After all, he wanted the emperor to make the decision in the beginning.

At that time, even if he had to take the blame, the emperor would be there to help him.

He was the Right Prime Minister, and the Ministry of War was under his jurisdiction.

Now that the emperor had asked him to draft a document, he was clearly preparing to push him out as a scapegoat.

It would be strange if he could be happy.

When he did not reply, the emperor suddenly said, "I heard that you have a son who failed to enter the Cultivation Academy?"

Hearing this, Ge Hong stood up and nodded respectfully. "Your Majesty, this child's aptitude is dull. He failed to enter the Cultivation Academy after taking the examination twice."

The emperor smiled and said, "It's fine, it's fine. Minister Ge has worked hard for the country. How about this? I'll let Scholar Qi take your son as his disciple.

How about it?"

Ge Hong weighed the situation for a moment before he said, "I thank Your Majesty for your kindness!"

.0.

In the second month, Li Yueming received a commendation from the higher-ups.

Not only did he promote him to a sixth-grade official, but he was also rewarded with a house.

At the same time, along with the imperial edict came the military transport wagons.

The car had already brought all the gifts that Li Yueming needed to go to the snow mountain.

Seeing this situation.

Although Li Yueming looked friendly on the surface.

However, in reality, the alarm bells had already rung in his heart.

Obviously, the reason why he deliberately made You Aotian famous was that he had recommended himself.

Other than this, no one else could do it.

More importantly, he wanted to test the emperor's attitude towards him and the Li family.

The official edict was written vaguely from beginning to end.

It was obvious that the Bureau of Military Personnel did not want to bear this responsibility.

However, since the things had been delivered, the higher-ups did not send anyone else to replace Li Yueming.

The meaning was obvious.

However, this was quite good.

He wasn't afraid that the emperor wouldn't have any ideas about him, but he was afraid that the emperor's attitude was ambiguous.

After all, it was most dangerous when he could not figure it out.

Now that the emperor was the first to be unkind, then don't blame Li Yueming for being unrighteous!

Chapter 390: 178, Everything is ready, only the east wind is missing!_1

In the Northern Lands, the wind blew for thousands of miles.

Li Yueming brought the gifts from the Ministry of War and the many reincarnators under his command, preparing to head to the extremely cold snow mountain.

Before he left, You Aotian stood at the door and looked at the group of young men who were riding their horses and whipping their horses.

At this moment, there was no fear or fear on their faces.

He could only see the excitement of wanting to make a name for himself.

In a trance, You Aotian seemed to see his past self in them.

He was also like them, riding on the battlefield under the previous Duke.

However, they were still so young. As long as they grew up smoothly, they would definitely be the pillars of the Great Zhou in the past.

But now.

Yet, he was willing to risk his life for the sake of the millions of people in the North.

Thinking up to this point, You Aotian could not help but feel a little sour.

Looking at the students not far away, he said slowly, "All of you... You must return safely!"

The young men on horseback still looked relaxed.

"Don't worry, Master. We're all cockroaches that can't be killed!" someone said with a smile."

You Aotian didn't understand what an unkillable cockroach meant.

However, the smile on the young man's face still moved him.

Indeed.

A real man stood between heaven and earth.

Life is vast and mighty, and death is vast and mighty.

Why did he have to say such sad and sad words?

Therefore, You Aotian also smiled. He waved his hand, and the soldiers behind him took out jugs of turbid wine and handed them to everyone.

After everyone had taken the wine jug, You Aotian took off the wine jug at his waist and laughed boldly. "Lord MO has been on the battlefield for a long time."

As he spoke, he raised his head and downed a few taels of sake. Finally, he threw the finished wooden wine jug on the ground. The remaining wine in the gourd flew everywhere. You Aotian wiped his face and said, "Whether or not the tens of millions of people in the eighteen northern counties can avoid the suffering of war depends on you! "

Not far away, Li Yueming also opened the wine pot and drank a mouthful."Fast!"

After he finished speaking.

The group of people rode their horses and left Dingyuan City, officially heading north.

In the past two months, the Qin army had frequently traveled back and forth between the Hundred Thousand Mountains and the northern lands, burning, killing, and pillaging. They had once again stockpiled quite a number of items.

He probably wanted to continue negotiating with the spirit beasts on the snow mountain after saving enough gifts.

Li Yueming had obtained enough gifts through the Great Zhou Empire.

However, there were obviously a lot of gifts, so it was impossible to bring them with him.

Similarly.

In order to shrink the target and reduce the risk of being discovered by the wandering Qin army.

Li Yueming firmly brought only a dozen reincarnators under his command. He did not bring any other officials or generals.

The reason was that if the followers were too strong, they might arouse the vigilance of the snow mountain spirit beasts.

It was just right for Spirit Pool and Origin Sea Realm cultivators like them to enter the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Although the group of people felt that it was not very safe.

But after all, Li Yueming was the leader of this diplomatic mission. No one else had the power to influence his decision.

Therefore, Li Yueming instructed You Aotian to transport the gifts to the Great Zhou City closest to the North and sent a large number of troops to guard it.

He only had a few important items with him.

If he was able to negotiate with the Snow Mountain Spirit Beasts, he would first offer these gifts as a gift.

As for the specific gifts...

There was a lot of room for operation.

The Zhou Dynasty didn't know what gifts the Qin army had prepared, so they had no choice but to give them whatever Li Yueming said.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Li Yueming didn't stand on ceremony with the emperor at all.

After all, the death row criminals still had a bowl of courage wine before they left.

This group of dogs in the imperial court wanted him to sell his life.

She had to coax him first.

Not to mention all kinds of nourishing natural treasures, Li Yueming's list had a full carriage.

There were also more than ten top-grade cultivation techniques and more than ten mystic grade weapons.

After leaving Dingyuan City.

Everyone's spiritual horses traveled to the vast Gobi Desert in the distance.

Li Yueming took out all the cultivation techniques and the mystic weapons.

The eyes of the surrounding reincarnators lit up when they saw this.

These were all treasures. There were even some top-grade ones that could be brought back to the real world.

The group of people were all extremely envious.

It was a pity that these were all for the snow mountain spirit beasts.

For a moment, many reincarnators did not know whether to snatch these things and run away, or to hold back the greed in their hearts and cast a long line to catch a big fish.

Without a doubt.

These treasures were already enough to make their hearts skip a beat.

The dharma treasures and spiritual medicines in this world were divided into four levels: Heaven, Earth, Black, and Yellow.

Every four levels were counted as one level.

Ordinary magic treasures and spirit herbs were generally of the yellow grade.

Correspondingly, yellow-ranked spirit herbs and magic treasures could be effective on cultivators at the Qi Transformation, Foundation Establishment, Spirit Pool, and Origin Sea realms.

Only magic treasures and spirit herbs that could be effective on cultivators at the True Form Realm, Spirit Concentration Realm, Void Refinement Realm, and Origin Returning Realm could be classified into profound grades.

Similarly, only magic treasures and spirit medicines that could produce effects on cultivators at the divine aperture, heavenly tribulation, nirvana, and ascension realm could be classified as heaven-grade.

Generally speaking, Heaven-ranked magic treasures could only be found by chance.

Even in the entire Six Nations, cultivators who possessed Heaven-ranked magic treasures were as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns. Most ordinary cultivators would only be able to see the treasures of a lower grade..
