Chapter 391: 178, Everything is ready, only the east wind is missing!_2

And now, Li Yueming was holding a mystic magic treasure in his hand. It could be said to be a priceless treasure.

Most importantly, he had taken more than ten of them.

How could it not make the group of reincarnators drool?

However, if he really made a move...

Then, there would probably be no place for them in the entire Great Zhou.

However, the group of reincarnators were lawless people, so they naturally did not have so many concerns.

As long as the benefits were sufficient, they could even join the Qin army thousands of miles away.

Therefore, the only thing that made them hesitate was that they couldn't win with Li Yueming.

After all, following behind Li Yueming, the chosen one, was like playing a game with Wind Spirit Moon Shadow.

As long as he was in charge of going up and dealing the damage, the normal missions would be easy.

However, if they were to snatch Li Yueming's things now...

He would definitely have a death grudge with Li Yueming.

In the future, not only would he not be able to make a living with Li Yueming, but he might also become Li Yueming's mortal enemy.

They had to carefully consider the consequences.

However, just as the eyes of the group of reincarnators flickered, they did not know if they were going to turn hostile and snatch the things.

Li Yueming, who had taken out the treasure, glanced around and handed all the cultivation techniques and weapons to them. He said, "Here, these are the treasures I obtained from the Imperial Court."

Hearing this, all the reincarnators could not believe their ears.

What the hell...

Weren't these treasures sent by the imperial court to be gifted to the snow mountain spirit beasts?

Li Yueming actually wanted them to take it and share it with him?

Good fellow...

In this day and age, were all the natives of the Chosen Ones so extravagant?

He actually embezzled the imperial court's things?

Of course, although the group of reincarnators had 10,000 question marks in their hearts.

He was also very shocked by Li Yueming's wild methods.

However, looking at the treasures that Li Yueming distributed, he still swallowed his saliva.

'F * Ck..' It was too fragrant!

They didn't seem to have paid anything too outrageous.

He was really just a passerby with Li Yueming.

The most dangerous time was when he was almost caught by a truth realisation state cultivator.

Compared to their bountiful harvest.

This risk could be said to be completely non-existent.

But now, Li Yueming had easily given each of them a mystic grade treasure.

It was simply too awesome!

After getting the treasure, Ding Yi's eyes lit up."Your Highness, we will be your guards from now on. If you point east, we will definitely not go west!"

Once upon a time, there was a guy who called himself a traveler on the Reincarnator Forum doing a mission on an unknown continent.

In the end, he met a beautiful and rich woman with the word "destiny".

He left behind a classic sentence that was passed down from generation to generation,'I am Ayaka's dog in the god'.

At that time, it caused the envy and jealousy of many reincarnators.

Now, after following Li Ming for so long, Ding Yi and the others also wanted to say the famous saying,'I am the dog of His Royal Highness.'

Moreover, they all felt extremely guilty for their rash thoughts just now.

Look at how thick the crown prince's thigh was.

Moreover, he was always thinking about them. He would really give them any treasures!

They had actually measured a gentleman's belly with their petty hearts just now.

He was considering whether he should snatch these treasures from the prince.

Even with the face of a reincarnator that was like a city wall, he could not help but feel a burning sensation at this moment.

The sin was simply too grave!

Fortunately, he didn't do this kind of suffocating action!

.0.

After distributing the treasures, Li Yueming led the group of reincarnators and continued to walk north.

After this incident, it was obvious that the loyalty and recognition of the group of cultivators towards Li Yueming had increased by a large margin.

After all, it was not easy to follow a good leader these days.

It was not easy to work for a rich and generous leader like Li Yueming.

How could Li Yueming get so many mystic grade treasures for them?

In the future, when they became stronger, wouldn't everyone have a heaven-grade treasure?

Many reincarnators had already made up their minds. They had to hold onto Li Yueming's thick leg tightly.

Li Yueming did this on purpose.

After all, the only ones who could stand on the same side as them were these lawless reincarnators.

Li Yueming didn't really care about the treasures that were distributed.

After all, the Li family was also a super family.

Although he was not as wealthy as the Imperial Palace or the Imperial Court, he was not lacking in treasures.

As long as he could grow up smoothly, all kinds of treasures would be his.

On the way.

Wang Linlin followed behind Li Yueming and watched as Li Yueming distributed all the treasures to the Snow Mountain Spirit Beast King. She couldn't help but worry, "Your Highness, let's enter the snow mountain empty-handed... Isn't it not good?"

Li Yueming rode on a tall horse and walked in front. He turned around and said with a smile, "What's wrong with that?"

Wang Linlin tilted her head and thought.

In fact, under normal circumstances, she would never say anything.

However, the current situation was slightly different.

Therefore, she finally said, "We've divided all the treasures. If we really find the King of Snow Mountain, what should we give him as a gift?"

Li Yueming thought for a moment and replied, "Spirit beasts don't lack weapons for humans, right? As for the greeting gift, I think I'm the best greeting gift!"

Chapter 392: 178, Everything is ready, only the east wind is missing!_3

Wang Linlin was speechless.

She glanced at Li Ming.

Although he didn't know what he was up to.

However, since Li Yueming had already considered this, it meant that he should have been prepared for it.

Therefore, she had nothing more to say.

The dozen or so riders spent half a month to cross the north.

Soon, the extremely cold snow mountain appeared in front of everyone.

From afar, it was a world of ice and snow. The pure white mountains of the snow mountain range towered into the clouds, as if they were connected to the world.

He couldn't see the end.

Legend had it that at the highest point of the Snowy Mountain, there was a holy temple made of ice and snow.

The temple might have recorded the civilization before the creation of the ancient times.

Because of this, many cultivators had risked their lives to enter the snowy mountains over the years, hoping to climb all the way to see the legendary Holy Temple.

But until now, the legend was still a legend.

There was no concrete evidence to prove that there really was a palace on the peak of the snowy mountain.

It wasn't that no one could climb the snow mountain.

According to rumors, tens of thousands of years ago, the Human Emperor Tiandu Clan had climbed to the highest point of the snowy mountain.

However, according to his description, the highest peak of the extremely cold snow mountain was a glacier that was nearly 10,000 meters tall.

It was like a sword that pierced through heaven and earth.

Even cultivators in the soaring realm would feel as if their entire body had fallen into an ice cave after climbing a few thousand meters. Even the spiritual qi in their bodies would be frozen.

The Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan finally climbed up, but according to his description, the top of the snow mountain was bare.

Of course, this had nothing to do with Li Yueming and the others.

With their current strength, they could not even deal with the spirit beasts in the snow mountain, let alone the extremely cold glacier that was unknown how high it was.

After a little preparation, he added a few more pieces of leather jacket.

Li Yueming and the others drove the spiritual horses away, and the dozen of them began to climb the mountain on foot.

The spiritual horse was produced in the Qin Land. Although its fur had the effect of resisting low temperatures, the temperature near the extremely cold snow mountain was not low at all. The spiritual horse could not withstand such cold.

In addition, the spirit horse's body emitted some unnecessary aura.

It might attract the attention of spirit beasts.

Therefore, driving them back was the best choice.

In any case, the well-trained spiritual horses would find their own way back.

.0.

In general, the extremely cold snow mountain was divided into three regions.

There were many pine trees and spruce trees growing in the outermost area, and the temperature was still acceptable.

Most of the spirit beasts that lived there were around the Origin Sea Realm.

The middle layer was even colder.

The plants that grew here were mainly some herbs that could resist the cold. Most of the spirit beasts were at truth realisation state or spirit concentration state.

The innermost region was where the extremely cold glacier was located. The environment there was extremely cold.

Almost no animals or plants could survive.

However, if a living creature was found, it would be a super ferocious beast at the Void Refinement Realm or above.

The snowy mountain was very large, and there were many types of spirit beasts living there.

Every region would have a Beast King.

They ruled over the territories in their respective territories, as well as the many spirit beasts under the territories.

Now, Li Yueming and the others were looking for the outer and middle layers of the Northern Lands and the Beast Kings.

As for the beast kings in the inner layer of the extreme cold glacier...

Not to mention Li Yueming and the others.

Even Qin Jun probably didn't dare to go up and find trouble.

Moreover, if they were just borrowing the path like the Qin army.

As long as he found the beast kings in the outermost circle of the snow mountain, he should be able to deal with them.

After entering the snow mountain, they walked for about three days.

Li Yueming did not go straight to the beast king in the snow mountain.

Instead, he was prepared to find traces of the Qin army and see what the situation was like.

After all, although Li Yueming boasted to the public, he was only looking for a reasonable and legal name for his actions.

He had not mastered the skill of communicating with spirit beasts.

He wanted to successfully communicate with the spirit beast.

He still had to learn more from the beast tamers in the Qin army.

What was this called?

This was called learning from the barbarians to subdue them!

Of course, the reason why Li Yueming was willing to take such a risk was because he had ventured thousands of miles into the tiger's den.

Naturally, he would not be so kind as to help the Great Zhou.

If he could master the method of communicating with spirit beasts.

With Li Yueming's infinite deduction talent, he could definitely become a beast tamer and tie all the spirit beasts in the north to his chariot.

At that time, as long as his own strength grew, the entire world would be his.

On the fourth day.

A group of people were still chasing after the Qin army's tracks in the snow.

After the tireless efforts of a group of people.

Finally, Li Yueming and the others found the place where the Qin army had set up camp.

Outside the pine forest, 50,000 Qin soldiers set up tents.

At this moment, they were cooking.

Li Yueming and the others found an inconspicuous position and observed in secret.

The Qin army probably never dreamed that there would be soldiers of the Great Zhou who dared to venture deep into the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Therefore, although the security of their patrols was still very tight, they were all defensive circles set up against spirit beasts.

The number of troops defending the soldiers was very small, and the soldiers were also very loose.

Under such circumstances, Li Yueming and the others squatted in the distance to observe, but they did not attract the attention of the enemy scouts and hidden sentries.

The commotion caused by tens of thousands of people cooking was quite big.

However, Li Yueming could clearly see that there were spirit beasts spying on them, but most of them only watched from afar for a moment before leaving.

Obviously, the beast kings that the Qin army had good relations with and communicated with should be the outermost layer..

Chapter 393: 178, Everything is ready, only the east wind is missing!_4

It was only because of this that they were not attacked by wild beasts.

He waited for a few hours.

After the Qin army finished eating, they began to gather.

In the military camp, the two young men that Li Yueming and the others had seen before also appeared among the soldiers.

The young man with a fox on his shoulder had an extraordinary status.

The other young man was extremely respectful to him.

Seeing this scene, Li Yueming and the others already had some understanding in their hearts. The young man with the fox on his shoulder should be the Beast Tamer, and the other young man wearing a reddish-brown python robe, if they guessed correctly, was probably one of the twelve sons of the King of Qin.

After the army gathered, one-third of them headed north.

This group of soldiers was wearing armor and holding weapons. They were probably the Qin army that was preparing to pillage the Great Zhou Dynasty.

The other one-third of the soldiers wore thick clothes.

He carried the three huge boxes and buried his head into the depths of the snow.

As for the last one-third of the soldiers, they would stay in the camp.

Clearly, the Qin army had become more vigilant after the incident with the burning of the base camp.

Even though they were in dire need of manpower and resources, they still left a third of their forces behind in the base camp to guard against any unforeseen circumstances.

Under such circumstances, Li Yueming and the others naturally did not have the chance to kill and set fire to the second time.

Fortunately, Li Yueming didn't have such thoughts.

After all, the last time Dingyuan City was set on fire, it was because they could not let the Qin army live too comfortably.

Now that the Qin army had been driven into the snowy mountains, Li Yueming would not be too kind to burn down their base camp.

Of course, the most important thing was that Li Yueming didn't want to let the Qin army die.

After all, he was still counting on the Qin army to complete his goal.

If he used some insidious tricks to hurt them in advance, who would still play with him?

He definitely couldn't make them too miserable.

Therefore, after the two young men from the Qin army led the team into the depths of the snow mountain.

Li Yueming Ming and the group of reincarnators followed behind them, wanting to see how far their negotiation and communication had progressed.

The Qin army in the Hundred Thousand Mountains was far from being as fish in water as the outside world thought.

In fact, it was a mistake to describe it as a fish in water.

If it was to be careful, it might be more appropriate.

Compared to the beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, the human race did not have an overwhelming advantage.

If all the human races in the six states could unite.

Perhaps he could even easily suppress the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

However, the human race had been in internal strife all year round, and a unified country had yet to appear.

The spirit beasts would also be at odds with each other due to territory and food. However, spirit beasts were more sensitive to the concept of territory and race than humans. They also seemed to have a better tacit understanding of unity in dealing with outsiders.

Therefore, after entering the Hundred Thousand Mountains, if a human accidentally offended a certain beast clan.

Then, it was very likely that they would be attacked by many spirit beasts.

Therefore, the Qin army's movements were exceptionally slow.

Firstly, they could not harm the spirit beasts in the snow mountain.

Secondly, they could not go too deep into the territory of certain races.

To prevent unnecessary hostility.

Li Yueming and the others could only follow patiently. They had fewer people, so they did not have to worry so much.

They followed behind Qin Jun for about two hours.

On the way, they passed through a dense pine forest and a sparse shrub forest.

Finally, the Qin army arrived at a valley.

The soldiers placed the boxes they were carrying on the ground and opened them. Inside were all kinds of jewelry and shiny gold ornaments. They were probably all plundered from the Great Zhou during this period of time.

The young Beastmaster revealed a fawning smile.

After ordering a few soldiers to take out all the treasures in the chest, he walked towards the valley alone.

Seeing this situation.

Li Yueming and the others instantly understood what the Qin army was doing.

If there were no accidents, the beast kings on the outskirts of the snow mountain should be living in this valley.

I wonder how much progress the Beast Tamer has made on the Beast King?

He looked at the valley not far away.

Li Yueming's eyes revealed a thoughtful look.

Now, the emperor had already shown his killing intent towards the Li family.

This time, the emperor's acquiescence to him heading to the Hundred Thousand Mountains was the best proof.

And as time passed.

This hidden killing intent would only become more and more obvious.

After all, the northwest border was often invaded by the Qin army, so it had quite an independent power.

In times of emergency, they could even appoint some generals without the imperial court's decree.

In addition to some reasons that he did not know for the time being, the emperor had already revealed some bad hints to Li Yueming when he first met him.

Therefore, Zhou Tianzi was even more wary of the Li family.

Now, Li Yueming was growing in the northern army, while Li Nanfeng's prestige in the western frontier was growing.

The emperor would only become more and more wary of the Li family.

Therefore, there was not much time left for Li Yueming to prepare.

He had to arm himself as much as possible.

Of course, it was impossible to raise one's combat strength to the peak in such a short period of time in this fantasy world.

Therefore, Li Yueming could only find another way.

Since he could not increase his personal combat strength in a short period of time, he could only use the Great Zhou's throat to intimidate him.

Once he succeeded.

For a short period of time, it was enough to protect himself and his family.

And now.

The Beast King in the valley in front of him was the ultimate goal of Li Yueming who risked his life to come to the snow mountain.

As long as he could play this move well.

Then all the killer moves in the chess game could be temporarily solved!

So far.

Everything was ready, all that was left was the east wind.

Chapter 394: The Beast Tamer's Plan, the Extreme Frost Snow Fox! 1

Outside the snow valley.

A group of Qin soldiers stood guard on the cold ground, stretching their necks to look into the valley.

He was afraid that he would miss something.

About ten minutes later, the beast tamer returned with a group of soldiers.

The Ninth Prince, who was dressed in luxurious clothes among the army, hurriedly went up to welcome him.

The two of them chatted for a long time.

Judging from the Ninth Prince's disappointed expression, this trip should not have gone as smoothly as he had imagined.

The treasure had been taken, but the conditions had yet to be discussed.

The Ninth Prince was so angry that he was about to turn silly.

Looking at the valley not far away, he couldn't help but feel ruthless.

When the Qin army destroyed the six states and unified the world, he would be the first to trample the many spirit beasts on the snowy mountain.

It was simply humiliating.

After being furious for a while, the Ninth Prince could only give up for now.

He was prepared to collect a few more supplies to try again.

If he still could not succeed, he would have to return to Great Qin and think of a way.

Of course.

He thought of his current terrible situation.

The Ninth Prince also bore a grudge against the Great Zhou Dynasty and the group of people who had burned down Dingyuan City.

After all, if they hadn't ruined his plans.

By now, he should have succeeded long ago. Why would he still need to suffer in this ice snow?

However, although the Ninth Prince was very unhappy, he was still very worried.

However, she didn't show much on her face.

After all, he still had to rely on the beast tamer to charge forward for him. He had to show enough sincerity and courtesy.

Moreover, he was the supreme commander of this Qin army.

Exposing too much of his personal emotions was not conducive to the stability of the army.

.0.

Of course, what he didn't know was...

The beast tamer whom he regarded as a tool also had a meaningful expression on his face at this moment.

As a rare profession among reincarnators, it was a rare profession.

No matter which world they went to, beast tamers were still considered relatively popular.

After all, the way they increased their strength was different from most reincarnators of the personal power realm.

Most of the reincarnators of the personal power side increased their strength by strengthening their bodies, but the way they increased their strength and strengthened themselves was to ride wild beasts.

As a result, their profession rarely involved themselves.

In terms of seizing resources, they did not even have to clash with ordinary reincarnators.

After all, the world was very big and there were very few beast tamers. There were a lot of resources for them to develop.

It was the same this time.

After the beast tamers who had come to this fantasy world with him had some ability, they all thought of ways to contact each other through special means.

In the end, he chose the most powerful Qin country among the six countries as his vassal.

Other than completing the main mission of helping the State of Qin conquer the world, what they were most envious of was none other than the spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

It was precisely because of this that the beast tamers led by him discussed for a long time and finally came up with this move.

Naturally, opening up the Hundred Thousand Mountains was just an excuse.

In fact, their true purpose of coming here was to borrow the power of the State of Qin to plan an initial beast pet with sufficient talent for themselves.

After all, a beast tamer could only display powerful combat strength after having a beast pet.

The potential of an initial beast pet meant the potential of a beast tamer's future growth.

Thus, he naturally had to choose carefully.

At that moment, the dozen or so beast tamers who were with him had already found their initial beast pets in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

As the leader, he still had not succeeded.

It was not because he was not strong enough, but because he was too strong.

Hence, his foresight was exceptionally high.

Most of the other beast tamers chose rare spirit beasts.

However, he had his eyes fixed on the beast king on the outermost layer of the snowy mountain. It was an extremely cold snow fox with a snow-white body.

This kind of snow fox was not unique to this fantasy world.

Some other high-level fantasy planets would have similar species.

However, no matter which world it was in, it would be a different world.

The extreme cold snow fox was the top existence in the pet chain of animal controllers.

With his strength.

In other worlds, they could forget about getting their hands on the Arctic Snow Fox.

After all, any Arctic Snow Fox in that race could easily turn him around and crush him 10,000 times.

However, for some reason.

In this world, an extremely weak individual suddenly appeared.

Of course, this "extremely weak" was only compared to the other powerful individuals of the Arctic Snow Fox.

In this world, he was already a Spirit Focus Realm Beast King.

This discovery naturally made him ecstatic.

According to his guess, if nothing went wrong, this extreme cold snow fox was very likely to have drifted over from another world.

It might be because of some special reasons that he had ended up in this world.

And now.

In order to subdue this snow fox, he was going all out.

He did not hesitate to start his crazy deception mode, constantly deceiving and tricking the Ninth Prince of the State of Qin, making the Ninth Prince, who thought he was smart, mobilize his army to crazily collect treasures. Nominally, it was to open up a path to the snowy mountain.

In fact, he had given them all to the Arctic Snow Fox.

Just to win the favor of the extreme cold snow fox.

He had no choice.

Right now, his strength was far from enough. He was simply unable to force this spirit beast to acknowledge him as its master.

He could only try to get a good impression of her by giving her gifts and see if he could achieve his goal.

Unfortunately, this Arctic Snow Fox seemed to be a little difficult to deal with.

He tried his best but still could not get enough favorable impression points.

Of course.

The most unbearable thing was that the Great Zhou had burned down the warehouse back then.

Otherwise, Dingyuan City would have prepared so many treasures..

Chapter 395: The Beast Tamer's Plan, the Extreme Frost Snow Fox! 2

There should be something that could please that fox. Thinking of this, he couldn't help but grit his teeth.

.0.

After the Ninth Prince left with his army, the two of them were about to leave.

Li Yueming and the others, who were hiding outside the valley, were not in a hurry to leave.

About half an hour later, Li Yueming discovered that many snow-white foxes had appeared in the valley.

This group of foxes was not only extremely handsome.

It was also very spiritual.

A small number of them could even see the intelligence of humans.

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming prepared to get up and walk out of the hiding place.

Seeing this situation, the group of reincarnators were a little surprised. Wang Linlin even asked in a low voice, 'Your Highness, you can communicate with wild beasts?'

Hearing this, Li Yueming replied with a strange expression, 'I'm a human, not a beast. I don't know the language of beasts, so how can I communicate with beasts?'

He denied it as a matter of course.

For a moment, Wang Linlin felt her entire body go numb. She couldn't help but open her eyes and say, 'Then wouldn't it be very dangerous for us to expose our whereabouts now?'

It wasn't that she liked to dwell on a certain problem.

It was just that this question was really important.

After all, their greatest advantage was that the enemy was in the open while they were in the dark.

Now, Li Yueming had rushed to the front of the spirit beasts in the valley, but he was unable to communicate with the spirit beasts.

Other than alerting the enemy, it might even arouse the hostility of the spirit beasts.

No matter how he looked at it, it didn't seem like there was any benefit.

However, Li Yueming only smiled. 'Don't worry, I have my own plan!'

He really didn't have the ability to communicate with wild beasts like a beast tamer.

But he had unlimited deduction talent!

As long as he could see what method the beast tamer used to communicate with the spirit beast and ensure that the beast king did not have too much hostility towards humans for the time being.

Li Yueming could deduce it according to the relevant methods.

As long as he was given enough time to interact with her.

He could even determine the other party's intentions without dialogue, just through the spirit beast's eyes and actions.

After all, even if it was a spirit beast.

When he revealed emotions similar to anger, happiness, satisfaction, and doubt.

There would also be a fixed form of expression.

With this information, Li Yueming, who had unlimited deductions, could already complete the basic communication.

He didn't even wait for the group of people to respond.

Li Yueming stood up and walked out of the snow.

The foxes in the valley were all shocked when they saw the human who suddenly appeared not far away.

However, after seeing Li Yueming and the others clearly.

Then, he revealed a human-like look of doubt.

In their eyes, Li Yueming and the Qin army were both humans, and they were both wearing thick clothes.

Other than the difference in clothes, there was not much difference.

But didn't that group of humans just leave?

Why were there still a few who hadn't left?

A few foxes opened their mouths and whimpered at Li Yueming for a long time.

However, Li Yueming had never learned a foreign language before, so he naturally couldn't communicate with her.

However, this didn't stop Li Yueming from expressing his goodwill.

After all, the Qin army had already laid the foundation for their relationship.

As long as he wasn't viewed with hostility by the spirit beasts.

Li Yueming had a way to walk a different path.

Li Yueming's hand slipped, and in the next second, a white and tender thousand-year-old spirit ginseng appeared in his hand.

Li Yueming threw the thousand-year-old spirit ginseng into the snow.

He pointed at the large spirit ginseng on the ground and then pointed at the valley.

The group of snow foxes turned to look at the valley, then lowered their heads to look at the spirit ginseng.

Then, he came to a realization.

Then, he picked up the spirit ginseng and walked into the valley.

Seeing that the group of people behind them did not follow, the group of spirit beasts stopped and waited for a moment.

Li Yueming was clearly prepared for this.

Thus, when the group of spirit beasts led the way, he immediately followed them.

Only the group of reincarnators were left with their mouths wide open and dumbfounded.

Good fellow...

The group of reincarnators were shocked by this action.

Under the circumstances where they couldn't communicate, Li Yueming actually used spirit herbs as a guide.

Moreover, it was just right when Qin Jun had just left after delivering the treasures.

This way, even if they didn't need to communicate.

The group of spirit beasts quickly understood what Li Yueming meant.

They might even mistake them for the Qin army.

Through the good relationship they had with the Qin army, they could naturally meet the beast kings in the valley. This move could only be said with one word.

That was absolute!

No wonder he was the chosen one. His brain worked really fast!

Li Yue Ming and the rest followed behind the spirit beasts and quickly entered the valley.

The temperature of the snowy mountain was extremely cold.

However, this valley was a rare paradise.

It was a warm and pleasant place.

He stepped into it.

It was still snowing outside, but hundreds of flowers were blooming in the valley.

Not only were there exuberant plants, there was also a clear spring water flowing out.

At the same time.

Everyone could still feel a surge of pure spiritual energy. The spiritual energy was mixed with wisps of fragrance.

It was intoxicating.

Obviously, this was a rare treasure land.

Probably only the Beast King and the tribes under the Beast King were qualified to enjoy such a land of treasures.

At the periphery of the valley, there were only a few flowers and flowing water.

The animal that lived the most was the fox.

It could be said that he had poked the fox's nest.

When they passed by, the foxes all over the mountain looked over..

Chapter 396: The Beast Tamer's Plan, the Extreme Frost Snow Fox!_3

Among them, there were several foxes whose auras were quite powerful.

The group of people passed through the fox pile and finally entered the valley. Not far away, a crude building attracted the attention of Li Yueming and the others.

It was a totem made of stones. It had pointy ears and a long nose, forming the outline of a fox.

On the ground not far away.

The boxes that Qin Jun had left behind were still there.

Dozens of foxes were rummaging through the boxes, probably picking out the treasures inside.

Coincidentally, the Qin army was more practical.

The boxes were filled with shiny jewelry.

Therefore, the current situation was a group of foxes with different fur colors carrying all kinds of human jewelry. From afar, it looked golden and noble.

Well...

How should he describe this scene? It was quite strange.

There was a trace of absurdity in the fantasy.

It was really the old cow flying in the sky.

The deepest part of the valley was also where the sweet spring water flowed out.

A fox with snow-white fur was lying in a nest made of spiritual herbs.

He seemed to be resting.

Sensing that Li Yueming and the others had entered the valley, the snow-white fox wagged its tail twice and opened its ruby-like eyes.

He stared at the human beneath his feet.

The snow-white fox stood up and spoke in the human language, "Human,

It spoke in the voice of a human woman.

It sounded crisp and pleasant, but it sounded very indifferent.

It was like the ten-thousand-year-old ice on an extremely cold glacier, so cold that it made people feel cold to the bone.

Hearing this snow-white fox's words.

Everyone, including Li Yueming, was stunned.

What the hell was going on?

The spirit beasts in the Hundred Thousand Mountains had their own spirituality and simple social order.

But since when did he evolve to the point where he could speak?

According to the records of this world from ancient times to the present.

Spirit beasts were an existence between intelligent creatures and non-intelligent creatures.

He shouldn't be able to speak human language!

So, was it the human who had an affair, or was it the spirit beast who had an affair?

This was simply heartless and unreasonable!

However, no matter what.

This unknown beast king could speak human language.

It was definitely a great thing for them.

After all, those who could communicate were civilizations, and those who could not communicate were beasts.

The difference was huge.

He finally came to his senses.

Li Yueming revealed a trace of joy and said, "Hello, Beast King. We represent the Great Zhou Dynasty of the human race. We want to be on good terms with you for generations and form an alliance with you!"

The snow-white fox glanced at Li Yueming.

After looking at it for a while, she said with a hint of charm, "Don't call me

Beast King, call me Lord Snow Fox!"

Li Yueming glanced at the fox not far away.

He couldn't help but curse in his heart.

Damn it, you're clearly a spirit beast. Why are you calling me 'Lord'?!

However, at this moment, the situation was clearly stronger than the person.

Therefore, he could only say respectfully, "'Lord Snow Fox!"

The white fox was obviously happy to hear this.

He shook his tail and continued, "You're different from the ugly guy from before who gave you a treasure that didn't suit his taste and had evil intentions. At least you're good-looking..." How about this, if you are willing to stay here and accompany This King, This King can consider befriending the human countries called 'Great Zhou'!"

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

The group of reincarnators was speechless.

Actually, before coming to the valley.

Everyone, including Li Yueming, was mentally prepared.

To them.

The worst outcome would be the breakdown of the negotiations.

With their abilities, although they were unable to fight against the many spirit beasts on the outskirts of the snow mountain, they were still able to resist.

However, if he only wanted to escape, it should not be a problem.

After all, they were all reincarnators. To be able to roam so many worlds, they would at least have some life-saving skills.

However, the development of the matter was completely beyond their expectations.

And this matter seemed to be developing in a strange direction?

Not only could this snow fox speak the human language, but it had also taken a fancy to Li Yueming, the son of the Marquis of South Peak.

Could it be that His Royal Highness was going to sacrifice himself to complete this mission that others thought was impossible?

Thinking about it, it felt a little exciting!

Especially Wang Linlin. Her eyes were shining so brightly that they looked like light bulbs.

Of course.

Li Yueming didn't have the time to care about them.

The snow-white fox in the valley could actually speak, which was far beyond Li Yueming's expectations.

However, after a short period of confusion.

Li Yueming had already regained his senses.

When they entered the valley just now, there were many foxes outside.

However, whether it was from the color of its fur or its body.

The two of them did not seem to be foxes of the same species at all.

If it was not a genetic mutation, then this white fox might have some other background.

Of course.

These were not things that Li Yueming needed to consider for the time being.

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming said, "Thank you for your kindness, Lord Snow Fox. Of course, I'm willing to stay and accompany you. However, the weather in this snowy land is too cold. I still have my parents at home. I really can't stay here for long..."

Hearing this.

The white snow fox's voice immediately turned cold.

A powerful pressure erupted from the seemingly weak body.

It looked down at Li Yueming and said coldly, "Since that's the case, don't mention the alliance anymore. Before this king gets angry, quickly scram!" However, Li Yueming did not leave.

It wasn't that he didn't know what was good for him, but that he had already found the white snow fox's weakness through his infinite deduction talent.

After all, it was a spiritual beast that could speak human language and had clear logic.

Even in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, where spirit beasts were as common as clouds, it was the only scorpion poop.

In addition, it seemed to want him to stay and accompany it, which meant that its intelligence was extraordinary.

Under such circumstances.

Instead of saying that it was a spirit beast, it was better to say that it was actually no different from a human.

He would also be lonely.

Standing guard in the vast ice and snow, he could only see his own kind of bored creatures.

How could he not be tempted by something from the human world?

Therefore, Li Yueming smiled and said, "Wait a moment. I have also brought some treasures for Lord Snow Fox. Why don't we ask Lord Snow Fox to take a look at the treasures before making a decision?" Hearing this.

The Snow Fox obviously did not show any interest.

However, she didn't ask him to scram.

He glanced at the jewelry box that had been rummaged through by a group of foxes not far away.

Snow Fox said, "Don't blame me for not reminding you. If your present is also this kind of junk, you'd better leave before my mood turns bad!"

Chapter 397: Great Hoodwinker Li, the Qin Army in Disaster! 1

He looked at the disdainful white fox not far away.

Obviously, the gifts that the Qin army had sent over did not satisfy her. Otherwise, the Qin army would not have to plunder around in this cold weather.

However, Li Yueming was obviously more confident about this.

Under the white fox's gaze.

Li Yue Ming took out several small jars from his pocket.

The white fox looked puzzled.

Obviously, she didn't understand what Li Yueming had taken out.

She was used to seeing gold, silver, jewelry, and all kinds of spiritual herbs.

To her, these things were not attractive at all.

Jewelry was nothing more than some glowing stones.

As for spirit herbs and spirit medicines, they could be seen everywhere in the snowy mountains.

That group of humans could only use these messy things to fool the ignorant ones in her territory.

However, he could not deceive her.

She occupied the vast land outside the snowy mountain and ruled hundreds of tribes, big and small.

He didn't lack anything.

However, the small jar in Li Yueming's hand was really rare. At least, she had never seen it before.

Therefore, it successfully piqued her curiosity.

Under the gazes of the reincarnators and the fox, Li Yueming slowly opened the first small jar in his hand.

There were some crystal particles in the jar.

The shape and color of the particles were all different. They looked soft and shiny.

Li Yueming opened the small jar and poured out a few oddly-shaped things from inside. He revealed a treasure-like expression and said, "Lord Snow Fox, this is the 'candy' of human society. Eating this item has the magical effect of making people happy. If you are interested, you can try it!"

He looked at the magical particle called 'candy' in Li Yueming's palm.

The white fox's eyes revealed some doubt as she said, "Human, do you know the consequences of lying to This King?"

Li Yueming smiled and said calmly, "Lord Snow Fox, why don't you try it first?" Hearing this, the expression on the white fox's face was clearly moved.

After all, the 'candy' in Li Yueming's hand looked crystal clear. Under the sunlight, it even reflected a hint of an alluring color.

One look at it and it made one feel very appetizing.

"Really? Eating it can actually make people happy?" The white fox was a little skeptical, but with her cautious nature, she forcefully suppressed her curiosity.

After wagging her tail twice, she raised her head and continued, "I heard that you humans are full of tricks. The 'candy' with such magical effects won't be poisonous, right?"

As she spoke, she lowered her head and looked at Li Yueming coldly. "Take two pills first. After you're sure there's no problem, give it to this king!"

Li Yueming naturally did not hesitate and stuffed all the candies that he had just poured into his mouth.

After chewing for a moment, he swallowed it.

Seeing this, White Fox was relieved.

He swung his soft and fluffy snow-white tail again and raised his chin. "Since that's the case, bring it over and let this king take a look!"

She had already tried her best to act as calm as possible.

However, her tail that was constantly wagging had long betrayed her true emotions.

It was obvious that he was already a little impatient.

At this moment.

The group of reincarnators behind Li Yueming were all dumbfounded.

Good fellow...

They had been wondering why Li Yueming dared to enter the valley where the Beast King was without bringing any gifts.

One had to know that even the Beast Tamer had made sufficient preparations before heading to the valley.

There were already several boxes of gifts.

They just rushed in empty-handed.

Wouldn't he be chased out?

Only now did he know that Li Yueming had such a trick up his sleeve.

Giving candy to a dignified Beast King...

Alright, although it sounded a little strange.

But thinking about it carefully, it seemed to make some sense.

So, how did His Highness 'head grow?

Could it be different from their structure?

Of course, they don't know the truth, Li Yue Ming does the truth, they prepare the truth, they go to the truth.

Now, he had only taken out one type.

After handing the jar of candy to the Arctic Spirit Fox, Li Yueming respectfully took two steps back and smiled.

The snow fox curiously used its claws to pull at the jar for a moment.

This wasn't enough, so he sniffed it again.

Finally, he carefully put a candy into his mouth.

After swallowing the candy, the snow fox smacked its mouth a few times and closed its eyes to savor it for a moment. Her ruby-like eyes narrowed into a line.

Clearly, he was intoxicated.

Li Yueming was not in a hurry. Anyway, he had plenty of time at the moment.

If he wasn't worried that something would happen to his family, he would have no problem staying in this snowy mountain for three to five years.

Of course, the snow fox did not make him wait too long.

After taking out another candy from the jar and putting it into its mouth, the Snow Fox said, "Humph... Your gift is not bad. If This King is willing to form an alliance with the Great Zhou, how many candies can you give me every month?"

Li Yueming smiled.

He had thought that this Beast King would be difficult to deal with, but he did not expect that a box of candy would charm her so much that she could not find her way back.

As expected...

Many times, the gift was not the gift itself.

Instead, it was the difference in human relations and information.

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming extended five fingers to the Arctic Spiritual Fox.

The snow fox was stunned for a moment before it said somewhat unwillingly, "Just five? Can you give me a little more, ten pills... No, eight is good too!"

Chapter 398: Great Hoodwinker Li, the Qin Army in Disaster! 2

Li Yueming didn't know what to say.

Please, you're a dignified Beast King. Can't you have some confidence?

Candies were definitely worthless in the human world.

Even if Li Yueming's soft sweets were specially made by him, they were still worthless.

However, the snow fox obviously did not know.

She thought that this was some priceless treasure.

When she heard that Li Yueming gave her five pills a month, she was very unwilling.

Behind him, the group of reincarnators felt numb.

To be honest, they had traveled through many worlds and seen many incredible things.

However, the scene of Li Yueming holding a box of candy to trick the Beast King still made them feel that it was ridiculous.

On the other hand, Li Yueming had a good mentality.

He quickly reacted and coughed twice. "Yes... Lord Snow Fox, what I mean is that you can give me five cans every month!"

Hearing this.

The snow fox was stunned. A moment later, he said with a look of disbelief, "Really?"

Li Yueming nodded.

The Snow Fox immediately took out the jar again. After carefully counting the number of candies in the jar, it raised its head with a satisfied expression and said, "Alright then, this king has agreed to form an alliance with the Great Zhou. You guys should hurry back. Remember to bring more candy next time!”

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

The group of reincarnators was speechless.

Good heavens!

Wasn't this mission a little too smooth?

It was so simple that it was somewhat unreal.

This country fox who had never seen the world, the Qin army had been trying for half a year but still could not deal with it.

Are you sure you're not joking?

Of course, they didn't know that the Beast Tamer wasn't helping the State of Qin open up a path in the Hundred Thousand Mountains at all.

Instead, he wanted to subdue this Extreme Frost Spirit Fox.

Seeing that the little fox's eyes were evading, it seemed like it was craving for candy again.

In order not to embarrass herself in front of them, she even ordered them to leave.

Li Yue Ming could only step out to stop him,””That, Lord Xuehu, don't be anxious. I still have a gift for you!” Hearing this.

The snow fox's eyes lit up again.

Obviously, she just remembered that Li Yueming still had a few jars in his hands.

If nothing unexpected happened, those jars should contain treasures of the same level as the candies.

Thinking of this...

The snow fox wagged its tail happily. It finally suppressed its joy and said, “Oh? Quickly take it out and let This King see if there are any more surprises!”

Li Yueming opened the second jar in his hand.

It contained a mixture of several powders.

This time, everyone, including the many reincarnators, revealed puzzled expressions.

This... What the hell was that?

The world of the reincarnators had candies.

Therefore, they were very familiar with candy.

However, this powder was something that the reincarnators were not familiar with.

He could barely tell that it was a mixture of some kind of spices.

Fortunately, Li Yueming never kept him in suspense at the crucial moment.

He looked around.

Li Yueming found a relatively clean slate and started a fire skillfully.

When the fire was extinguished, only the burning charcoal was left.

The fire heated up the stone slab, and Li Yueming placed a few pieces of beast meat that he had accumulated along the way.

Soon, the meat began to sizzle, and oil kept coming out of the meat.

At this point, everyone could still understand.

After all, it was just barbecued meat...

Whether it was beasts or humans, they basically had enough knowledge about this.

But the problem was, what was Li Yueming's purpose for starting a fire in such an occasion?

Could it be that he didn't eat lunch and was prepared to settle it in front of the Beast King?

However, Li Yueming's next move quickly pulled their attention back.

After the meat on the stone slab emitted a fragrance.

Li Yueming sprinkled some of the powder in the jar in his hand.

Instantly, a rich fragrance filled the entire valley.

The group of foxes all smelled this aura.

His eyes were fixed on the large piece of roasted meat at Li Yueming's feet.

All of them were obviously drooling.

Of course, the Snow Fox was still standing on top of it.

Even if they had a hundred guts, they would not dare to cross the line.

After repeated roasting.

Li Yueming picked up the roasted meat and walked to the Snow Fox. He handed it over and said, "'This is the roast meat I made. In order to make the meat more delicious, I put an ancient secret recipe called 'barbecue condiment'. Lor

This time, Li Yueming didn't finish his sentence.

Everyone could already see the saliva that was continuously dripping from the Snow Fox's mouth.

After all, no matter what, the snow fox was still a spirit beast.

She had a natural sensitivity to meat and fragrance.

When Li Yueming roasted the meat, she was actually a little disdainful.

Humans had to roast their food before eating.

As a spirit beast, the snow fox obviously despised this kind of behavior.

Because of their habits, food was naturally more chewy when eaten raw.

Dip it in a little blood to replenish enough salt.

However, the moment Li Yueming sprinkled the ancient recipe called 'barbeque sauce' into the roasted meat...

Everything changed in an instant.

The entire air was filled with an intoxicating fragrance.

Even the piece of meat that she thought was extremely ordinary had become the most delicious thing in the world.

He saw Li Yueming approaching with the roasted meat.

The snow fox could only feel saliva dripping down from the corner of its mouth..

Chapter 399: Great Hoodwinker Li, the Qin Army in Disaster!_3

Woo, what an embarrassment!

A few foxes carefully brought over a stone chopping board.

Judging from the marks on it...

This should be the 'dining table' that the snow fox usually used to eat.

Li Yueming did not hesitate.

He placed the roasted meat on the stone slab and looked at the snow fox."Sir, please use it!"

This time, the snow fox obviously didn't let him have a taste first.

After all, all of this was done by Li Yueming in front of her.

If it was really poisonous, she wouldn't have been able to detect it at such a close distance.

Therefore, he did not hesitate.

The Snow Fox lowered its head and sniffed the air before immediately gorging itself.

.0.

So far.

Li Yueming's actions stunned the group of reincarnators.

First, he made a pile of strange candies.

At this moment, he took out an ancient secret recipe called barbecue sauce.

It should be a high-grade seasoning made from a mixture of various spices and seasonings.

The two combined.

He actually managed to subdue the beast king at the periphery of the snow mountain.

This was a good relationship!

When the time came, the other treasures that the Great Zhou would ship over as gifts... Wouldn't they be able to engage in corruption in a legitimate manner?

They were mentally prepared for this trip to the snowy mountain.

After all, the Hundred Thousand Mountains had always been filled with various dangers.

Even cultivators could be targeted by powerful spirit beasts at any time and become food for them.

However, following behind Li Yueming, they once again felt what a cracked version of the mission was.

How long had it been since they entered the extremely cold snow mountain? It had not been ten days.

He had already taken care of the Snow Mountain Beast King that the Qin army had spent half a year trying to take care of.

This was simply ridiculous!

Now, they truly felt how good Li Yueming was.

Work hard my ass!

Wouldn't it be nice to hug the thigh of Destiny's Child?

Li Yueming, yyyys!

If it wasn't for the fact that he still had to act as a soldier.

The group of reincarnators would probably have to shout, "I'm Li Yueming's dog" to express their determination to cling to him.

Of course, when the group of reincarnators exchanged glances not far away.

Li Yueming naturally did not stay idle.

He also gave the jar containing the barbecue ingredients to the snow fox and told it how to use it.

Then, he took out the third gift.

The third gift was a very simple chessboard.

The Snow Fox was obviously less interested in this thing.

After all, you can't eat it

Li Yueming taught her the rules and methods of chess.

The Snow Fox signaled for the two of them to fight to see if it was as fun as he had introduced.

Li Yueming didn't stand on ceremony.

Thus, under the watchful eyes of the public.

Li Yueming found a rock and sat down, ready to have a good game with the Snow Fox.

The snow fox was an extremely cold spiritual fox.

As the favored child of heaven and earth, his intelligence was obviously not ordinary.

Therefore, after Li Yueming taught them a few simple games, Snow Fox was already familiar with the rules of the chess pieces.

But the problem was that having a high IQ did not mean that one was smart enough.

Li Yueming was teaching Chinese chess, which emphasized on the formation of troops and psychological strategies.

Obviously, in this aspect, the young Snow Fox was far inferior to the old fox Li Yueming.

“General!”

. Let’s go.”

“Ping Pao, general again!”

. This king’s general can walk out of the chessboard and complete transcendence. This is very reasonable, right?”

“Then I’ll get in the car!”

Hey, you came just in time. Eat!”

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

What are you staring at this king for? Isn’t it reasonable for this king’s general to eat a carriage?”

Alright, as long as you’re happy.

After putting down the chess piece, Li Yueming stood up and said, “Since Your Majesty has already agreed to form an alliance with the Great Zhou, as an ally, can Your Majesty help me with a few small matters?”

Hearing this, the Snow Fox’s ruby-like eyes glanced at Li Yueming.

After a moment, he raised his head and said, “This is only natural. If there is anything this king can help with, just say it! “”

Spirit beasts were not as cunning as humans.

The Snow Fox thought that she had gotten what she wanted from Li Yueming.

Therefore, he was naturally extremely generous now.

Li Yueming revealed a smile.” Your Majesty, I’m sure you know that there has been another human activity in the snow mountains recently. That is the enemy of the Great Zhou. Now, they are relying on your protection to wantonly burn, kill, and plunder our Great Zhou territory...’

“If you can help me capture them, I will be extremely grateful. Next time, I will definitely bring more treasures to the king!”

Hearing this, the snow fox muttered to itself.

She naturally knew about the Qin army at the foot of the mountain.

After all, he had been presenting her with treasures every day like an idiot for the past half a year.

There was also an ugly guy who seemed to want to tease her because he knew a little about spirit beasts.

The reason why he had not paid any attention to them before and even tolerated them bringing tens of thousands of people back and forth in the snow.

It was only because she felt a little bored.

After all, although humans were annoying, they were still intelligent creatures!

As a special type of Extreme Frost Spirit Fox, it was a very rare beast.

She was actually very lonely in this world.

Even in the snowy mountain where she grew up, no creature could compare to her intelligence.

When it was just born, it did not feel anything because its intelligence had not yet awakened.

However, in recent years, as she continued to grow up, her spiritual wisdom was gradually enlightened.

All sorts of strange things were also appearing.

For example, being born with the ability to speak human language, being able to understand the emotions that many beasts could not understand, and having a learning ability that was stronger than humans.

However, this was the case.

The more lonely she felt.

He did not know where he came from or where he was going.

They were neither of the same race nor of the same kind.

Naturally, only humans, who were also intelligent creatures, could come into contact with and communicate with them.

It was also because of this that she could endure that fool's constant prancing in front of her.

But now, there was a very fun Li Yueming.

In addition, they had formed an alliance with a human country called the Great Zhou.

It didn't seem to matter whether those fools were amused or not.

After thinking it through, the Snow Fox nodded and said, "This king agrees. In exchange, you have to roast a piece of spiritual meat for this king using the ancient secret recipe 'barbeque condiment', and play a game of chess with this king!"

It sounded a little strange, but Li Yueming still nodded and said, "In that case, it's a deal!"

In just a few short sentences.

One man and one fox had already decided the fate of the tens of thousands of Qin soldiers.

Not far away.

For some reason, the Ninth Prince and the beast tamer who were leading the Qin army down the mountain sneezed at the same time.

He finally managed to breathe properly.

The Ninth Prince couldn't help but curse this damn weather in his heart. How unlucky.

Chapter 400: Beast Tamer: I'm More Unjustly Freaking

Injustice Than Dou Er!_l

At the Qin army camp at the foot of the mountain.

In the evening, the Ninth Prince led the Qin army back to the tent.

He waited for about three days.

The army that had gone to the Great Zhou to plunder the treasures had finally returned.

However, the amount and variety of resources he brought this time were clearly not as good as before.

There was no other way. There were only so many cities in the northern regions of the Great Zhou.

There were only a handful of places where they could get money. Basically, they had already robbed them all. The remaining places were either stationed by the army or dangerous places.

In addition, Prince Yu's army had also arrived in the north.

The defenses of the many cities in the north had been greatly enhanced.

It would only become more and more difficult for the Qin army to continue collecting resources.

Fortunately, there were only 30,000 soldiers left.

Otherwise, if they had a full 50,000 troops, they would not even have enough food in this world of ice and snow.

If he still couldn't deal with the beast king on the mountain in a month or two, he would be able to kill it.

The Qin army would have to consider whether they should return home.

Thinking of this...

The Ninth Prince's face immediately darkened, like the bottom of a pot that had never been washed.

The Qin country implemented the military merit system.

If the soldiers wanted to receive rewards, they had to go to the battlefield and make contributions to the country.

The credits were calculated according to the number of people killed.

The princes were the same.

The current Qin Emperor had twelve sons.

The princes wanted to inherit the throne and grasp the supreme authority of Qin. They also needed to fight for credit on the battlefield.

Among the 12 sons of the Qin Emperor, only nine of them had the chance to compete for the position of the next emperor.

He was the youngest of the nine heirs, the Ninth Prince.

The three younger brothers below him were not even adults yet, so they were not fated to be the crown prince.

Above him were eight older brothers.

Among them, the Second Prince, Fourth Prince, Sixth Prince, Seventh Prince, and Eighth Prince had mediocre aptitudes and had basically surrendered in the battle for the crown prince.

The remaining First Prince, Third Prince, and Fifth Prince were his main competitors.

As the smallest existence in this group, the pressure on the Ninth Prince was undoubtedly enormous.

After all, the First Prince was the eldest son. From the moment he was born, he had enjoyed the most honorable treatment. He had countless generals and strategists by his side.

His other brothers were also a few years older than him.

Their foundations were also much stronger than his.

Naturally, he was unwilling to accept this.

That's why.

As a prince, he would not hesitate to take such a huge risk.

From Hangu Pass, he led a group of Qin soldiers through the Hundred Thousand Mountains to the northern regions of the Great Zhou.

To complete this extremely dangerous mission.

According to his plan, the Qin army should have enough time to prepare.

After all, the appearance of 50,000 troops in the Northern Lands was something that the Great Zhou could not figure out for the time being. They definitely would not dare to rashly send troops.

And what he was earning was this time difference.

When the time came, as long as he could clear the path in the northern snow, his mission would be completed.

In the future, when he returned to Xianyang to fight for the throne, he would have a great contribution.

For this reason, he did not hesitate to rope in the leader of the animal controllers.

They were counting on completing the mission so that they could return to report on their work.

But now.

Everything was beyond his expectations.

First of all, the treasures in Dingyuan City had been set on fire.

This was a huge blow to the confident Prince Jiu.

The worst thing was that Qin Jun seemed to have become unlucky after this incident.

After looting, they had already sent several carts of gifts.

Until now, they still had not taken down the beast kings on the outskirts of the snow mountain.

This made the Ninth Prince suspect that something had gone wrong.

As he thought about it.

His gaze naturally turned to the Beast Tamer not far away.

He didn't feel that there were any problems with the other segments.

Now, the only thing he couldn't grasp was the beast tamer in front of him.

Because every time he sent a treasure to the valley.

This Beast Tamer had brought a few soldiers into the cave to give gifts.

As a dignified prince.

Until now, he had not even seen the so-called Beast King with his own eyes.

Once or twice was still fine. The Ninth Prince could still console himself.

But now, it had already happened three times.

No matter how dumb the Ninth Prince was, he could still smell something unusual.

Therefore, after returning to the camp.

The Ninth Prince, who had been so amiable and humble, revealed a rare cold and ruthless expression.

He looked at the Beast Tamer not far away.

“Qi Fan, why hasn't the Beast King met me?” The Ninth Prince asked coldly. Are you hiding something from me?”

When the reincarnator called Qi Fan heard this, he knew that his repeated perfunctory actions had crossed the Ninth Prince's bottom line.

He could not help but bite the bullet and say, “Your Highness, give me a little more time. After so many negotiations and gifts, the Beast King has already relented. I will definitely be able to persuade him next time. If it doesn't work, Your Highness can use my head to pay for it!” Although that was what he said.

However, Qi Fan was not thinking about this at all.

Now, although he had joined the Qin army.

However, compared to the rewards of the main mission and the reward of the faction, it seemed more important for him to subdue this Arctic Spiritual Fox.

But now, he was full of schemes.

He used all kinds of tricks, but he still could not subdue it..
