

EVERYTHING IS TOO EASY AFTER MAXING MY TALENTS

Chapter 4

Second Deduction

So far, Li Yueming's development has been quite smooth sailing.

Not only was he handsome,

He also had a healthy and strong body.

This was already very difficult for a child born in the sewers.

Still.

Watching Li Yueming grow stronger day by day.

No matter how stupid his parents were, they could tell that something was wrong.

On a certain day.

After his parents left, they did not go far out as they usually did.

Instead, they hid beside the trash pile not far away and observed his every move.

Li Yueming, who was well aware of this, hesitated.

He was hesitating if he should tell his parents about the earthworms in the backyard.

However, the consequences of this matter were very serious.

Once the news was exposed,

Their entire family would probably be torn to pieces.

In the end, Li Yueming, who couldn't make up his mind, chose to use his talent to carry out a new deduction.

Infinite Deduction required a massive amount of mental energy and energy.

Moreover, the longer the deduction, the richer the details, and the more energy and mental energy needed.

For him, who was only five years old,

Every time he used it, he needed to rest for a few days to recover.

Therefore, when there was no need.

Li Yueming usually did not use the ability if he could.

Of course.

The situation was very urgent.

He had no choice but to keep a low profile.

Enter some key information.

Infinite Deduction began processing.

[5 years old: Because you dig earthworms every day to replenish your nutrients, you are stronger than other ordinary children in the sewer world.]

[Your parents discovered that you were developing abnormally. One day, they pretended to go out, but in fact, they hid beside the trash pile not far from their house and observed your actions.]

[With you exposing intentionally, my parents quickly discovered the place where you often dig earthworms to eat.]

[The earthworms are very fat. Compared to the other food in the sewers, they are also very delicious.]

[This discovery made your parents very excited.]

[However, the couple, who had experienced half a lifetime, quickly smelled the danger and did not tell anyone else about it!]

[8 years old: You've grown a lot taller, and your body is gradually becoming stronger.]

[You started to train your body with a plan and a purpose, trying to make yourself stronger!]

[10 years old: Your training plan is starting to bear fruit. At ten years old, you are already stronger than many fifteen or sixteen-year-old children!]

[At the same time, your range of activity has expanded from the small courtyard outside your home to the periphery of the sewers further away.]

[During your patrol, you met other children and fought with them.]

[You relied on your strong body to transform into a war god and fight a hundred people alone, beating a group of children until they wailed.]

[At this point, you have received the supreme honor of being labeled as a Child God of War!]

[You have become the king of children in the nearby sewers.]

[12 years old: You've already made a name for yourself among the children in the sewers!]

[You asked the children to collect many books and gadgets from the fallout shelter for you. Through them, you obtained a lot of detailed information about the simulation world.]

[After solving the food shortage problem, your parents were full of lust and gave birth to another sister for you on a dark night.]

[14 years old: Your sister staggered and learned how to walk. She's very clingy to you. As soon as she learned how to walk, she followed behind you like a shadow.]

[Because of sufficient nutrition, you and your sister's development is very fast. You're much stronger than your peers.]

[This abnormal situation has attracted the attention of a group of local ruffians in the sewers.]

[In the middle of the night, this group of scoundrels sneaked into your house and discovered your family's secret.]

[You and your parents woke up from your sleep and fought desperately, but you were killed because you were outnumbered.]

[Your father was beaten to death on the spot. His brain juice flowed all over the ground. Mother was wantonly abused to death by a few local hooligans.]

[My sister survived because she was young, but she was also sold to an underground brothel by a few local ruffians.]

[In anger and indignation, you die.]

With the earthworm field behind the house.

In this deduction,

Li Yueming finally got rid of the awkward situation of having to pretend to starve.

Still.

Although he was no longer hungry.

Danger was still lurking everywhere.

This simulation.

He still could not escape the fate of dying at the age of fourteen.

Moreover, the final outcome was even more miserable than the previous simulation.

His father was beaten to death on the spot, and his sister was sold to a brothel by those scumbags.

Her mother was also abused by the local hooligans.

Looking at the last few messages of the deduction, Li Yueming raised his eyebrows.

After a long time, he complained weakly, "This couple has nothing to do every day. Why are they always thinking about having another child? Aren't they purely causing trouble for me?"

If they only needed to raise him, just him.

Others would at most be suspicious why they'd stop at just one.

But it was still acceptable for ordinary people to raise a child.

In the end, this couple was better.

They had given birth to another sister.

Moreover, she was also fair and chubby. She did not look malnourished at all.

Wasn't this going to be troublesome?

Other people only needed to use their brains to know that there was definitely a secret in their house.

He pitied his sister whom he had yet to meet.

She wasn't even born yet.

She had already been sold twice during the deduction.

Every deduction was either sold or on the way to being sold.

'Of course.'

Although he was complaining,

Li Yueming memorized the details of the hooligans in the deduction.

He wanted to see what kind of courage these lawless guys had.

He actually dared to attack the family of a transmigrator like him!

When he was a little older, he would let them know who's boss.

The deduction ended.

Li Yueming was a little tired and dizzy.

Although he had played GG at the age of 14,

However, for Li Yueming, whose body had yet to fully develop, the mental burden was still very serious.

Fortunately, it was not without gains.

At the very least, after knowing that he had exposed the secret of the earthworm to his parents, he still had about five to ten years of peaceful development.

It had taken such a long time to prepare for him.

He could already think of ten thousand ways to kill those scumbags.

After a while.

Li Yueming finally regained some of his energy.

'Apparently.'

As long as he was still eating, the fact that there were earthworms at home could not be hidden from his parents.

Now that his parents were suspicious.

He might as well pretend to reveal this information to them.

Thinking of this,

Li Yueming stopped hesitating.

Not far away, under the gaze of his cheap parents, he slowly walked towards the backyard with a small wooden stick.
