Chapter 40

So You All Fill It as Very Simple?

Upon completing the questionnaire, Li Yueming heaved a sigh of relief.

His gaze returned to the SSS-rank power return opportunity rewarded by the system.

As a Reincarnator, the reason why they could have strength that exceeded that of ordinary people.

The biggest reason was that after the reincarnation ended, the Reincarnator would have a chance to return their strength.

He could synchronize his power in the Reincarnation World into his body in the Real World.

He wondered how much of the SSS-class power return could return to him from Planet 3-024.

He took a deep breath, Li Yueming did not hesitate. He began receiving the energy.

The next second, he felt his body heat up. Countless sweat dripped out from his pores.

At the same time, a sharp pain came at any moment. It was as if he was being struck by a huge hammer.

As time passed, the muscles on his body were strengthened inch by inch. His physique was many times stronger than before!!!

After a long time, the SSS-class power return finally stopped. Li Yueming closed his eyes and sensed his current physical condition.

Then, he suddenly threw a punch.

Instantly, the entire reincarnation space exploded with a sonic boom from his fist wind.

He carefully sensed it again.

Li Yueming suddenly realized that his physical strength had returned to the peak state of tearing a giant Rat apart!!!

“D*mn, the SSS-grade power return effect is so powerful? It actually returned all my power on Planet 3-024 to me!”

After confirming that he had not sensed wrongly, Li Yueming was shocked at the 100% return of strength or something.

He had always thought that it was impossible.

After all, the reincarnation mark was the middleman of the platform, it was normal for them to get some kickbacks.

But now, he has really achieved a 100% return.

Although it was only a low-level third-rank apocalyptic world, it could be considered a miracle.

He felt the explosive strength in his body. Li Yueming was obviously in a very good mood.

Use the talent to lock in the Gold talent Infinite Deductions.

Then, Li Yueming opened his exclusive reincarnation mark to check his personal status.

[Permanent Reincarnator: Li Yueming]

[Reincarnation Number: 7001611]

[Reincarnation Mark Level: LV2 (1000/5000)]

[Reincarnation Point Balance: 267,000]

[Origin Force: Hundredfold Talent Enhancement!]

[Fixed Talent: Infinite Deduction (Gold)]

[Fixable Talent: 1]

Everything was normal on the interface. Li Yueming heaved a sigh of relief.

He adjusted his mentality as he prepared to leave the reincarnation space and return to the Real World.

At this moment, outside Linjiang City's Reincarnator examination hall.

The teachers and students were already in an uproar.

“Have you heard? Mu Youyou of Year 3 Class 2 has completed the reincarnation assessment and obtained an A+ score!”

“F*ck, is this for real? If it's really an A+ rating, then our school will probably be on the headlines of the local newspapers in Linjiang tomorrow, right?”

“It's absolutely true. When Mu Youyou came out, the Reincarnation Gate emitted a red light. At that time, many examinees of the same batch saw it!”

“I heard that the principal was so excited that he almost jumped down from the fifth floor after receiving the news. He's probably taking a photo with Mu Youyou now!”

“Boohoo... Damn it, I'm so envious!”

“Do you know how miserable my reincarnation was this time? The talent I drew was that it was a blessing to be able to eat. F*ck, in the end, I transmigrated to a wasteland world. Can you imagine the misery of entering a wasteland world with the talent for eating? Moreover, I was a dog at the beginning and relied on picking up equipment. I didn't even live for a few days before I became a pile of dog sh*t!”

“That's not the worst part. Mine was worse!”

“I picked an earth-type affinity talent, and I ended up in a mountain and sea world where my evolution depends on swallowing... and my initial race was a giant earthworm... After I was born, I was killed by a chicken before I had time to move my body. I got eaten and didn't live past three minutes!"

"Brother, you're too miserable..."

"Aye, who's to say?"

Outside the examination hall, a group of students who had not passed the assessment gathered together.

They discussed their strange experiences in the Reincarnation World.

His face was filled with anger.

At this moment, a boy with a chubby face suddenly said, "By the way, have you filled in the final questionnaire?"

Hearing this, the other students immediately revealed strange expressions.

After a while, a girl stuck out her tongue and said, "Although I only lived for half an hour, I still filled it in as 'Very Easy'!"

Hearing this, the other boys also gloated. "Hahaha, I thought I was the only one. I didn't expect everyone to be the same, okay? I also filled it in as 'Very Easy'!"

The group of people looked at each other.

Although the smile on his face was a little bitter, at least he could barely hold it in for now.

In any case, for them, who had not activated the permanent reincarnation mark, this was the last reincarnation.

If he didn't fill it in, it would be very easy for him to face those big shots who had passed the assessment.

No permanent reincarnation mark was activated was undoubtedly a life sentence for them if nothing unexpected happened.

From now on, the Reincarnators who activated the permanent reincarnation mark would become high and mighty rulers and they could only cling to their territories and survive.

At the thought of this, all the students who had not activated the mark felt their breathing stop.

It was too painful!

Not far away, the teacher in charge of recording the results glanced at them.

He shook his head. A look of sympathy appeared on his face.

The Reincarnation World was so extreme and cruel.

If he succeeded, he would soar into the sky. If he lost, it would be difficult for him to stand out again.

He sighed. The teacher glanced at the time.

It had been nearly an hour and a half since this batch of students entered the Reincarnation World.

Under normal circumstances, the examinees should have finished their assessment by now.

And yet, when he stood up and was about to announce the end of this assessment, he suddenly realized that there was a blank page behind a student's name.

There was no record of departure time or assessment results.

There are only two reasons for this.

The first was that he did not register after the student assessment. But he sat there the whole time.

The Reincarnation Gate, which was used to test candidates' results, did not indicate that there was a program error.

Logically speaking, it was impossible to miss someone.

Therefore, it was only the second possibility.

There was still an examinee who did not come out of the Reincarnator's space.

Could it be...

Dead?

Thinking of this, the teacher stood up abruptly. His expression gradually became serious.

It was not unheard of for Reincarnators to die in the Reincarnation World.

However, it was very rare for someone to die on their first reincarnation.

Such an anomaly had occurred, he must submit a report to the Association of Reincarnators.

And yet, just as the assessment teacher had yet to figure out what was going on...

Not far away, the Reincarnation Gate suddenly erupted with a dazzling golden light.

The next second, a slender and muscular figure slowly appeared in the Reincarnation Gate.

Li Yueming took a step forward.

He happened to hear a group of students discussing the questionnaire outside.

He could not help but scratch his head and ask in confusion, "Ah, what's going on? I thought that it would be very simple for me to fill in the questionnaire alone, but in the end, you all think it's very easy?"
