Chapter 401: Beast Tamer: 1 1 m More Unjustly Freaking Injustice Than Dou Er!_2

If he continued to persevere, it would probably be useless.

Perhaps he could only wait until the conditions were more mature before coming here to give it a try.

No matter what.

In the next negotiation, he would first discuss the path that the Qin army wanted to open up.

Otherwise, it would be very difficult for him to report to the Ninth Prince.

The Ninth Prince looked suspicious.

It was obvious that he had lost trust in Qi Fan.

But now, the Qin army had no other window to talk to the spirit beasts.

Therefore, he could only be patient and give Qi Fan another chance.

However, he had already secretly decided that after returning to the State of Qin, no matter what, he would not let this damned guy have a good time.

However...

Just as the two of them had different expressions and were scheming against each other.

Suddenly, there was the sound of chaotic footsteps outside the tent. A group of patrolling soldiers did not even have time to report their intentions outside the tent before they rushed in.

Obviously, this was an emergency.

As a result, the soldiers did not even follow the basic etiquette and rules anymore.

Before the Ninth Prince's personal guard could berate him.

The soldier who barged in had already knelt down and lowered his head. "Reporting, Ninth Prince, there are countless spirit beasts surrounding our camp outside. It seems that they come with ill intentions. Should we break out of the encirclement and escape?"

Hearing this.

The Ninth Prince's face turned ashen. He gritted his teeth and said, "Qi Fan, explain to me. Is this the surprise you've been secretly preparing for me?"

If looks could kill.

By now, Qi Fan had probably died hundreds of times.

When Qi Fan heard this, his expression also changed.

However, unlike the Ninth Prince's expression, he was filled with disbelief. He stood up abruptly and shouted, "That's impossible...It was absolutely impossible! Your Highness, you asked me to go out and take a look at the situation. I just communicated with the Beast King this morning!"

As he spoke, he got up and prepared to leave.

But how could the Ninth Prince let him escape?

Therefore, in the next second.

Qi Fan was tied up by the two powerful guards beside the ninth prince.

The Ninth Prince was flustered and exasperated.” Qi Fan, you’re really something. I’ve always treated you well, but you’re actually so vicious...”Tell me, were you sent by Big Brother or Third Brother?”

At this moment, Qi Fan was really anxious.

Although he was indeed using the Ninth Prince, he had no intention of framing the Qin army!

And he was indeed trying to gain the Extreme Frost Spiritual Fox’s favor.

Logically speaking, although it had not been nurtured to the point where it could be subdued.

However, it was not to the extent of being surrounded by spirit beasts at night!

It was purely a f * cking unexpected disaster.

He was more wronged than Dou E!

But no matter what, the Ninth Prince, who felt that he had been tricked, would not believe a word that came out of his mouth.

He immediately got the guards to tie him up and throw him into the prison, preparing to deal with him later.

He walked out of the tent quickly.

At this moment, torches were lit in the Qin camp.

He looked out of the blazing fire.

The campsite was surrounded by spirit beasts. At a glance, there were probably hundreds of thousands of them.

Even the Ninth Prince couldn’t help but feel his scalp go numb.

At the same time.

Her entire being was doused with a bucket of cold water.

In the middle of the night, there were so many spirit beasts gathered outside their camp. Moreover, each and every one of them had a fierce look in their eyes.

Obviously, nothing good could happen.

It was clear that everything had been very peaceful when they led the army to the valley where the Beast King was in the morning. But now, the Beast King had suddenly turned hostile.

What did this mean?

This meant that the Qin army’s hard work over the past year had all become a joke at this moment.

The Ninth Prince had become a complete clown.

Not only did he work for others for nothing.

There were even tens of thousands of elite Qin soldiers.

The Ninth Prince could even imagine if he returned to the State of Qin dejectedly.

He would probably never be able to raise his head in the State of Qin in this lifetime.

He just thought about it for a moment.

The Ninth Prince felt like his heart was dead and his life was meaningless.

A moment later, he looked at the spirit beasts that were eyeing him covetously.

The Ninth Prince was finally energized again.

He winked at the two personal guards beside him. These two guards were his personal death warriors.

Every single one of them possessed the strength of the Spirit Focus Realm.

The outskirts of the snowy mountain could be considered small among the mountains.

With the strength of these two guards, he could do whatever he wanted on the outskirts of the snowy mountain.

Of course, if he was not in a life-and-death crisis, the Ninth Prince would not use these two gods.

However, it was obvious that he had to use it now.

If all these spirit beasts were to rush over, the Qin army of tens of thousands would most likely be doomed.

Therefore, the Ninth Prince wanted to see if he could communicate with the Beast King alone. After all, the other party had only surrounded the camp and had not really attacked.

Before that, there was still room for negotiation.

However, just as he walked out of the tent, the spirit beasts seemed to have noticed him.

Soon, a powerful Gray Fox split the horde and appeared in front of the Ninth Prince.

The Ninth Prince waved his hand to signal for the Qin army to not act rashly.

He walked forward and said, "Respected Lord Beast King, is there any misunderstanding between us?"

Chapter 402: Beast Tamer: 1 1 m More Unjustly Freaking Injustice Than Dou Er!_3

GrayFox was also very intelligent.

He glanced at him and shook his head, indicating that he was not a Beast King.

Of course, this meant something different to the Ninth Prince. He thought that the Beast King shook its head to say that there was no misunderstanding between them.

He didn't know how to answer.

Damn it.

It was the first time he had ever interacted with a wild beast.

Without a translator, there was no way to communicate!

After some thought, the Ninth Prince said to the soldiers behind him with a dark face, "Get Qi Fan out of here!"

The soldiers behind him left upon hearing the order.

About five minutes later, a group of soldiers came out with Qi Fan tied up. When he saw GrayFox, Qi Fan immediately asked, "Three elders, what are you doing? Where is Lord Snow Fox? I want to see Lord Snow Fox!"

What he said was very strange.

It sounded like a fox's grunt.

Obviously, this was a professional Beastman.

The Ninth Prince naturally didn't understand. He could only say with a cold face, "Qi Fan, translate everything His Majesty Beast King said. If I detect any mistakes, your dog life will be in danger!"

As a reincarnator, Qi Fan was naturally not afraid of death.

However, just because he didn't slap her to death didn't mean that he wanted to die.

It didn't mean that he wanted to die in such an unknown way.

Therefore, he replied, "This is the third clan leader, not the Beast King. The Beast King asked you to come with me to the valley to meet him. The third clan leader is here to receive you!"

Hearing this, the Ninth Prince revealed a deep look of doubt.

He couldn't help but say with a cold face, "Qi Fan, your plan is quite good. I think you really don't want to live today! "

Clearly, the Ninth Prince's brain wasn't completely damaged yet.

Right now, he had 50,000 Qin soldiers behind him, as well as two Spirit Focus Realm experts.

Even if he had to face hundreds of thousands of beasts, he could at least guarantee his own life.

However, once they left the camp and the protection of the two Coagulate Spirit Realm experts, they would be able to escape.

Then he would really be a fish on the chopping board, waiting to be slaughtered.

Qi Fan thought about it and knew that this was impossible.

Hence, he immediately communicated with GrayFox.

"Your Highness," he continued after a while, "the Third Patriarch has agreed to let you bring two guards with you. He said that as long as you cooperate, we will reap a bountiful harvest!"

Hearing this, the Ninth Prince calmed down a little.

Immediately, his face revealed a look of struggle. Clearly, he was struggling between going and not going.

However, he had lofty ambitions and was not willing to be an idle prince in the future.

Therefore, after weighing the pros and cons for a long time.

He gritted his teeth and agreed.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

He had already sacrificed too much to open up the path.

Now that he was only one step away, there was no reason for him to give up for personal reasons.

Besides...

He did not believe that the other party could do anything to him under the protection of two Coagulate Spirit Realm experts.

After all, this was only the outskirts of the snowy mountain. It wasn't a place like the core region where powerful Spirit Beasts were everywhere.

Therefore, he had no choice.

After combining all sorts of reasons. The Ninth Prince nodded and agreed to go.

.0.

On the snowy mountain.

In Beast King Valley.

Li Yueming was dancing and singing with a group of wild beasts while eating roasted meat.

This scene looked very scary. After all, there were the charming fox clan, the big-tailed wolf clan, and the snow bear clan..

Everyone who could speak.

The group of reincarnators drank a few mouthfuls of the fruit wine brewed by the spirit monkeys.

The snowy mountains were cold all year round. Ninety percent of the time, it was either snowing or on snowy roads.

It was said that the fruit of this wine grew in the place where the sun was the most abundant in the extremely cold snow mountain. It could only be harvested during the summer solstice. The fruit contained the purest Yang energy. Now, it was fermented and brewed. Not only did it taste extremely sweet, but it could also dispel the cold in the body.

After drinking it, it burned in his mouth and into his stomach, making him feel as warm as summer.

But now, Li Yueming and the group of reincarnators each had a jar.

He drank very freely.

The snow fox was obviously very happy today.

In addition, they had to surround the Qin army at the foot of the mountain.

Therefore, she gathered the spirit beast chiefs in the outer area of the Snow Mountain range to have a meeting in the valley.

After announcing the order, she left the spirit beast clan leaders behind. Then, she showed off the treasures that Li Yueming had given her. After seeing the candy and the ancient recipe, the barbecue sauce.

The group of clan leaders were all envious.

This spirit wine was offered by the clan leader of the Spirit Monkey Clan in order to have a mouthful of fragrant roasted meat.

Li Yueming didn't stand on ceremony.

After all, the barbecue sauce was not worth much in his hands, but this spirit wine was good stuff.

Therefore, he generously said that if there was a chance in the future, he would bring some local specialties to the leader of the Spirit Monkey Clan.

Currently, many spirit beast clan leaders were wolfing down roasted meat.

The reincarnators also drank fruit wine and ate roasted meat.

Although the two sides were not of the same race, they could not even communicate with each other.

But happiness was the same.

Under the glow of the bonfire, the entire Spirit Beast Valley seemed very happy.

As a beast king.

At this moment, Snow Fox was playing chess with Li Yueming.

After a day of killing, the Snow Fox had developed all kinds of skills and postures.

Now, he could already go back and forth with Li Yueming.

Li Yueming could not help but sigh at his talent.

In a world where spirit beasts could not evolve into humans with intelligence, this little fox was purely an anomaly among anomalies.

This was a game invented by humans.

Ordinary beasts probably wouldn't even be able to understand it.

Not to mention playing.

However, the Snow Fox had only learned the world for half a day and had already grasped the essence.

The sky outside was getting dark.

“Your Majesty, have you forgotten about the Qin army at the foot of the mountain?”
Li Yueming reminded.”

Hearing this, the Snow Fox waved her hand impatiently and said, “What is the meaning of those humans? Forget about them, let's finish this round first! ”

Li Yueming was speechless.

Was this considered lifting a rock to smash his own feet?

Fortunately, he still had an infinite deduction system that did not care about martial arts.

He had to kick this little guy's chess addiction today.

The two of them fought for a while more.

In the end, even the old Snow Fox had transcended the Five Elements and was no longer in the Three Realms.

He had no choice but to throw away the chess piece angrily and say, "You're so boring. I won't play with you anymore!"

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

This was the effect he wanted.

He wondered how the Qin army was doing at the foot of the mountain.

Would the reincarnator of the beast tamer profession and the young man in luxurious clothes fall out completely as he expected?

Of course, none of this was important.

Now that Li Yueming had taken the lead in capturing the favor of the Snow Fox, he had completely grasped the initiative in this battle.

Next, he only needed to turn these advantages into benefits.

Only when it was truly implemented would it be possible.

Just like that.

Li Yueming waited patiently.

Not long after nightfall, the Ninth Prince and Qi Fan, the two unlucky ones, were brought to the snowy mountain valley by the beast tide.

At this moment.

Many reincarnators also heard the commotion and walked out of the valley.

He stuck his head out and looked outside.

The reincarnators clearly saw the two people who were trapped in the Beast Tide.

Among them, Qi Fan was still tied up with a rope.

The Ninth Prince was slightly more dignified, but that was all.

From the nervous expressions of the two guards beside him, it could be seen that the other party was actually quite embarrassed.

He just looked more dignified.

The group of reincarnators looked at the Beast Tamer who was tied up not far away.

Then, he looked at himself, who was singing, dancing, drinking, and eating.

They were both reincarnators, but the treatment they received at this moment was completely different.

This was the benefit of hugging the right thigh!

He could eat and drink well wherever he went.

How was he like that pitiful Beast Tamer?

Not only did he not get any benefits, he did not even get to get an initial spiritual beast.

One had to know that spirit beasts were the lifeblood of beast controllers.

Before taming a spirit beast, a beast tamer's combat strength was basically equivalent to tofu dregs. How should he put it..

How tragic!

It was too tragic!

Chapter 403: Only magic can defeat magic!_1

Under the protection of a group of spirit beasts.

The Ninth Prince brought two guards and Qi Fan to the outside of the valley.

Obviously, Li Yueming had specifically asked the Snow Fox to do this. As for the purpose...It was also very simple. He just wanted to have a good chat with the other party.

After all, even though the Great Zhou and Great Qin had been enemies for generations, they were still in the same boat.

However, Li Yueming did not have any sense of belonging to the Great Zhou. If there was a chance, he would rather personally overthrow the Great Zhou and complete the hidden mission issued by Wang Ziwei.

Therefore, it was not easy to find such an opportunity. Of course, personal interests were more important.

But before that, Li Yueming still needed to make some preparations.

The snow fox had already run to the side to eat the candy.

She liked to play chess, but Li Yueming's chess skills were too strong. Even if she did not care about martial arts, she could not gain much advantage.

Therefore, she did not want to play with Li Yueming anymore.

At this moment, the Monkey King came over and reported the news to her.

After hearing that the group of humans had been brought out of the valley, he was shocked.

Snow Fox looked at Li Yueming and said," I've brought him here. It's up to you how you want to deal with him!"

Li Yueming nodded.

She lowered her head and put on a mask. It was still the familiar star and moon symbol.

This had become a symbol of Li Yueming's dominance in the myriad worlds.

Clearly, his identity in the Great Zhou was too special.

If he didn't wear this mask, it would be bad if the Ninth Prince saw his true appearance.

After putting on the mask to cover the extra features on his body.

Finally, Li Yueming walked out of the valley alone and looked at the Ninth Prince and Qi Fan.

"I'm Xingyue. Greetings, Ninth Prince!"

Not far away, he looked at the mysterious man in front of him.

The Ninth Prince's first reaction was to be shocked.

One had to know that this was the Hundred Thousand Mountains. For so many years, it had been an existence that was almost equivalent to a forbidden zone for humans.

And now, this person had walked out of the beast king's valley.

To him, this was like seeing aliens on the moon.

No wonder his first reaction was disbelief.

Fortunately, his brain was not slow.

When he came back to his senses, his face revealed a hint of suspicion as he said, "Who are you?"

This was a question.

But in reality, the Ninth Prince had already sounded the alarm in his heart.

An existence that could move freely in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

If he was a cultivator, his realm should not be lower than Spirit Focus.

In addition, Li Yueming came from the Beast King Valley, which added a bit of mystery to his identity.

Li Yueming could feel his nervousness and could not help but smile and comfort him, "Your Highness, don't worry. The fact that I can appear here means that Your Highness and I are not enemies!"

The Ninth Prince knew this as well.

If Li Yueming wanted to be his enemy, he could just let the surrounding spirit beasts attack him.

There was no need to bring him here to chat.

Calm down.

The Ninth Prince finally smelled a conspiracy.

No wonder he had been feeling uneasy these days. He had even taken the initiative to find out what the problem was.

From the looks of it now, he was probably schemed against by this mysterious person.

How did humans come from the Hundred Thousand Mountains?

What was his identity?

Of course, Li Yueming did not care about the various thoughts and thoughts in his heart.

“Your Highness, you don’t have to worry about who I am. You just need to know that I’m here to work with you!”

“What kind of cooperation?” The Ninth Prince asked curiously.

Li Yueming smiled.” Didn’t you want to use this place to attack the Northern Zhou?” I can let you pass...”

“However, there is one thing that must be said first. You cannot send more than 50,000 soldiers across the border every six months. Once the number of soldiers exceeds 50,000, the snow mountain will be the burial ground for those extra soldiers.”

Hearing this, the Ninth Prince’s expression became even more bewildered.

He had previously guessed the identity of this mysterious person in front of him.

Judging from Li Yueming’s words now, he was very confident.

To be able to reveal his identity at a single encounter.

Obviously.

We should be able to rule out that the other party is from the Great Zhou.

This was because his identity information was relatively sensitive. If the other party was from the Great Zhou, it would definitely be impossible for him to build this path inside the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

From the looks of it...

The other party’s identity was far more mysterious than he had imagined.

Perhaps it was inextricably linked to the Qin country.

The most direct origin was that the other party was probably the doing of his brothers.

The Ninth Prince couldn’t be blamed for throwing this kind of blame onto his brothers. This kind of thing had happened more than once or twice.

The struggle between the crown princes was naturally accompanied by all kinds of open spears and hidden arrows.

However, he managed to avoid it the previous few times.

This time, his luck was not too good. It seemed that he had fallen into a pit. Taking two deep breaths, the Ninth Prince wanted to see what Li Yueming was up to.

“You’re a strange person. Why can’t there be more than 50,000 soldiers passing by?”
If you were sent by my brothers, you don’t have to tease me anymore, okay?”

The Ninth Prince clearly felt defeated.

This time, he had suffered such a huge loss in the extremely cold snow mountain and the northern regions of the Great Zhou. If this news were to spread back to the country.

He was probably only a thousand miles away from the throne.

He was even like the other brothers who had lost their qualifications.

They might even be eliminated by the cruel system of succession to the throne..

Chapter 404: Only magic can defeat magic!_2

Regarding his previous question.

Li Yueming only smiled and did not answer.

The less the other party knew about this information, the better it would be for him.

If everything had to be explained, why would he plan so painstakingly for so long?

However, Li Yueming could answer the last question.

After all, the child's self-confidence had taken a hit.

AS an 010 ratner wno naa Deen secretly 0Dservmg, now coma ne not comrort her?

Therefore, Li Yueming thought for a moment and said, ""Your Highness, don't be depressed. I have nothing to do with your brothers. You can call me Star Moon. I don't belong to any organization or country!" The Ninth Prince heard him deny it.

His face couldn't help but reveal some brilliance.

As long as it wasn't someone under his brother, he could make up for his loss this time.

After all, he had not completely failed yet.

As long as they could complete the mission smoothly, the setbacks they encountered along the way were insignificant.

However, the more he did this, the more cautious he became.

Looking at Li Yueming who was not far away, the Ninth Prince said, ""I don't belong to any organization or country...Then what do you belong to?"

Li Yueming smiled and said, "I can briefly introduce myself here. I'm personally committed to world peace! ""

The Ninth Prince was speechless.

He turned his head and looked at the group of spirit beasts that were eyeing him covetously.

Although he did not know what method the other party had used to make so many spirit beasts obey him.

However, the Ninth Prince couldn't help but complain in his heart.

World peace?

A group of spirit beasts surrounded his entire camp in the middle of the night.

If this could be considered world peace, then there would be no wars or riots in this world.

Of course, the other party had the initiative now.

The Ninth Prince didn't dare to say anything.

Since you allowed the soldiers to pass through, why did you restrict the number?" he asked." Since you restricted the number, why did you let us pass?" There was a problem with this logic. I understand now. You want to use the Qin country to make the Great Zhou chaotic, but you don't want the Great Zhou to be too chaotic, right?"

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

Although the Ninth Prince's brain wasn't very good, he would still occasionally have a flash of inspiration.

However, it was useless even if he guessed it. Li Yueming had the absolute initiative now.

It was obvious.

The Ninth Prince had already figured out the crux of the matter.

However, this request was really difficult for him.

After all, if the Qin army wanted to invade the Great Zhou, they would not be satisfied with sending a small group of troops to harass them.

But the problem was that the Hundred Thousand Mountains was the only way to bypass the western frontier.

But now, Li Yueming was holding him by the neck.

It was very uncomfortable.

He seemed to have seen through his dilemma.

Li Yueming decided to take a strong medicine and said,"Your Highness, you don't want the outside world to know that you were played like a monkey in the snow, right?"

The Ninth Prince was speechless.

"Alright, I can agree, but to the outside world, I will say that the Snow Beast King has a bad temper and does not allow too many humans to enter its territory. If you spread the news that I was played here, I will also spread the news that you were the one who caused trouble!"

Li Yueming was fearless.

The Qin army could come over and give it a try.

Unless the entire country attacked the snowy mountain, the White Fox was the absolute king of this small area.

The two of them discussed the conditions.

Beside him, Qi Fan had a bad premonition.

There were only five people present.

Other than the Ninth Prince and Li Yueming, the other two were the Ninth Prince's personal guards. They were his trusted aides.

In other words, he was the only unrelated person.

Hearing such a secret that could not be leaked, and he was not a trusted aide...

There could only be one outcome.

That was to die here.

Normally, Qi Fan wouldn't have thought much of it.

After all, although the opportunity to enter the public reincarnation dungeon was also very precious, it was still free. He did not have to pay any extra reincarnations.

If he died, so be it.

At most, he would earn less.

But the problem was that he had yet to subdue the Extreme Frost Spiritual Fox that he yearned for.

If he returned to the reincarnation space just like that, he would probably be slapped twice in his dreams for the next few months.

Therefore, he could only say to the Ninth Prince, "Your Highness, do you know now? I'm innocent..."

However, before he could finish his sentence.

Not far away, Li Yueming spoke first, "Your Highness, this person is more familiar with me. Let me take him away!" Qi Fan was speechless.

He glanced at the smiling Li Yueming.

He then looked at the Ninth Prince, whose expression had turned vicious again.

Qi Fan's entire body went numb.

Damn it, who's close to you?

Judging from his figure and voice, he had clearly not seen the man not far away.

However, for some reason, he was able to judge from his sense of smell.

He did sense a hint of familiarity.

However, it was impossible for him to admit that he knew Li Yueming.

Otherwise, wouldn't he be guilty of betraying the Ninth Prince?

However, when he saw the Ninth Prince's fierce gaze, he suddenly swallowed the words he wanted to say.

Yellow Mud fell into his pants, if it wasn't shit, it was shit.

No matter what he said, the Ninth Prince wouldn't trust him anymore. If he continued to follow the Ninth Prince, his entire family would be executed.

Therefore, he had no choice.

After thinking about this clearly.

Qi Fan looked at Li Yueming who was not far away and said, “Thank you for your help, Your Majesty. I hope Your Majesty can forgive me!”

Clearly, he was trying to set a trap for the Ninth Prince and mislead him..

Chapter 405: Only magic can defeat magic!

But the Ninth Prince didn't know!

Therefore, his gaze immediately changed.

When he looked at Li Yueming, his gaze fluctuated even more violently.

Your Majesty..

Could this person be the king of the snow mountain?

Was there really a spirit beast that could evolve into a human?

This kind of thing had never appeared in the ancient books that he could trace, but it did not prevent it from being recorded in unofficial historical novels. But if the other party was the King of the Snow Mountain, then everything made sense.

Prince Nine hesitated.

In the end, he still chose to let Qi Fan go.

After all, the current situation was stronger than people. Even if he hated Qi Fan to the core, he did not dare to go against Li Yueming's wishes.

Li Yueming asked the two spirit beasts to bring Qi Fan over.

Finally, he said, “Take your people and leave. Remember what I said. Don't go against it!”

With that, he left without looking back.

Only the Ninth Prince was left with a gloomy expression.

After returning to the cave.

Li Yueming called a few reincarnators to untie Qi Fan.

Although this guy was a senior reincarnator with a higher level, as mentioned earlier, before a beast tamer had a beast pet, their combat strength was about the same as tofu.

Therefore, they were not afraid of Qi Fan playing any tricks.

Li Yueming took off his mask.” A wise man knows his place. Aren't you a wise man?”

To be honest.

Qi Fan still felt a little numb.

What the hell was this?

Why was he being exchanged as a captive?

However, when Li Yueming took off his mask, he revealed a face that couldn't be any younger.

Qi Fan was still shocked.

Good fellow...

Could this person be a peer? Thinking of this, he said tentatively, "We are all pests!"

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Seeing that Li Yueming didn't respond, Qi Fan quickly changed his code,""Shurima, your emperor has returned...'

Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Li Yueming still didn't respond.

This time, Qi Fan was really confused.

He had entered nearly a hundred worlds and had entered the public reincarnation instance dungeon no less than ten times.

He could be considered an old fox among old foxes.

However, this was the first time he had encountered such an awkward situation.

Fortunately, a group of reincarnators behind Li Yueming not far away understood and stood up to help him.

Among them, Ding Yi sized up Qi Fan. His words were more direct. He took out a knife and wait for the secret signal. I'll give you two choices now. One is to submit to His Highness, and the other is to die!"

Only then did Qi Fan notice Ding Yi and the others.

Due to his sixth sense as a reincarnator, Qi Fan quickly sensed the other party's identity.

Damn it...

No wonder he was so unlucky today. It seemed that he had really met someone in the same industry!?

This time, Qi Fan stopped pretending.

"I admit defeat, I admit defeat. I've fallen into your hands this time!" Ding Yi only put away his shining broadsword after hearing this.

If he had dared to say no just now, don't blame his forty-meter-long broadsword for not recognizing him.

Hearing his words, Wang Linlin retorted,""He didn't fall into our hands, he fell into the hands of His Royal Highness!" The group of people was noisy.

Qi Fan was dumbfounded.

This group of more than ten people were all reincarnators, and the young man leading them was a local?

This was too ridiculous!

Since when could a reincarnator endure living under someone else's roof?

Could it be that his thoughts were not keeping up with the trend?

The group of people discussed for a moment.

Finally, Tian Liang stood up and walked in front of Li Yueming, patting his chest and promising, "Your Highness, after our persuasion, this guy has agreed to submit. You don't have to worry. We will watch him closely in the future and guarantee that we won't give him any chance to play tricks!"

Seeing this, Li Yueming nodded seriously.

In fact, his heart almost couldn't hold back.

As the saying went, only magic could defeat magic, and now it was the same for the reincarnators.

Only the reincarnators who could deal with the reincarnators could do so.

Of course, Li Yueming had his reasons for not killing Qi Fan.

After all, the profession of animal controller was still relatively rare.

If he could make the best use of everything, he might also be able to covet the spiritual Deasts In the Hunarea •rnousana Mountains.

After all, this was a treasure vault.

With a little development, it could produce an endless amount of treasures.

He wanted to make a fortune and nurture a force that could dominate the Nine Provinces.

Other than snatching food from the tiger's mouth in the territory of the six dynasties.

Li Yueming Li could only focus his attention on the Hundred Thousand Mountains that the Six Nations had yet to reach.

After all, his current strength was still very weak.

Trying to snatch food from right under the noses of the Six Nations was too much.

The Hundred Thousand Mountains was different. As long as the operation was good, it could be considered a bright road!

Chapter 406: Best Actor Li Yueming, Roots in the Frontier! 1

He subdued Qi Fan.

It was also a relief for Li Yueming.

There were countless resources in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. It was better to build a good relationship with the snow fox now. It would definitely be useful in the future.

In the next ten days,

Li Yueming stayed in the valley and played with the Snow Fox for a while.

He ate, drank, and played chess without missing anything.

Serve this group of thighs well.

Seeing that their relationship was more or less established, Li Yueming returned to Dingzhou with the spirit beasts led by the snow fox.

Before he left.

As a surrendered general, Qi Fan looked at the reluctant spirit beasts not far away and felt his entire body go numb.

Damn it, this was the freaking Beast Tamer!

He had learned hundreds of professional beast languages and memorized the habits and hobbies of tens of thousands of wild beasts.

In the end, he spent half a year to capture the spiritual fox, but this native only spent three days to capture it?

It was fine if they took it down, but their relationship was so good.

Almost all the leaders of the spirit beasts in the outer region of the snow mountain had been drinking alone with Li Yueming.

As a well-educated and experienced animal tamer, he could only be reduced to being a translator?

Where would he put his face?

At any rate, he had a certain status among the beast tamers. Otherwise, he would not have been able to become the leader chosen by many beast tamers in the State of Qin.

Of course, no matter what he thought, the other reincarnators around him were watching him closely.

Even when she went to the toilet, there were people watching her.

This had caused him a lot of trouble.

Under normal circumstances, he could even return to the reincarnation space now. There was no need to waste time in this public dungeon. However, the situation this time was clearly different.

He was craving the Extreme Frost Spiritual Fox!

Seeing that the Arctic Spirit Fox and Li Yueming had such a good relationship.. His eyes were almost red, and he had the illusion that he was being NTR in front of everyone.

He was clearly the one who came first. Be it gifts or contact...

But why was Snow Fox so indifferent to the solicitous and friendly attitude of the people of the United States, but was so intimate with Li Yueming?

Qi Fan was so envious that he was about to cry.

As he left, he looked at the wild beasts on the snowy mountain behind him.

One of them was the Arctic Spirit Fox that he had been thinking about. It was a beast king from the outskirts of the snowy mountain, but now it had come here personally to send a human away.

One could imagine how good Li Yueming's impression of him was.

Qi Fan clenched his fists.

He had made up his mind to fight for the ownership of the snow fox!

.0.

After leaving the snow mountain, Li Yueming still had some local specialties from the depths of the snow mountain.

Although there weren't many of them, they were all high-quality goods. Many of them couldn't be bought outside.

Overall, he had made a killing this time.

Due to the lack of horses, Li Yueming and the others were traveling at a much slower speed.

However, that was fine.

You Aotian had already led the Northern Battlefront Army to set up camp outside the snowy mountain as agreed.

Li Yueming and the others did not need to travel thousands of miles back to Dingzhou City to report the situation.

Three days later.

Li Yueming and the others found the place where You Aotian's army was stationed.

Li Yueming and the others returned unscathed.

You Aotian heaved a sigh of relief. After leading the few of them back to the camp, he glanced at them.

Then, he asked impatiently, "What about the Qin army on the other side of the snow mountain?"

In fact, the Northern Battlefront Army and the entire Great Zhou Imperial Court did not place much hope on Li Yueming.

If it wasn't for Li Yueming's special identity as the heir of the Marquis of South Peak, he would have been killed.

His memorials probably wouldn't even reach the court.

After all, Qin Jun was not a fool.

If anyone could communicate with the spirit beasts in the snow mountain, why would they be so arrogant?

In the end, only You Aotian, his master, believed him.

To this group of disciples.

You Aotian was still very optimistic.

After all, some things... Only young people could control it.

Under this premise.

You Aotian withstood the pressure and the army to the rendezvous point two days in advance, waiting for his exceptionally outstanding disciples.

Fortunately, Li Yueming did not disappoint him.

At least he had returned to the camp at the right time and place, so he didn't worry.

He looked at You Aotian, who had a concerned expression on his face.

Li Yueming felt a little guilty.

After all, this cheap master in front of him was a pure soldier. Everything he did was to protect his country and people.

Compared to him, Li Ming's actions were more like a selfish schemer.

Hiding in the back and using the people of the world as chess pieces, playing a bloody game of chess.

Of course, all his plans seemed to be for himself.

However, it was not entirely for himself.

The world has been divided for a long time, and it will be united for a long time. Since the emperor of Tiandu unified the world, it has been divided. The chaos among the dukes had lasted for far too long.

The endless wars and annexations had already made the people of the world miserable.

Li Yueming only wanted to end everything with his current situation. As for the sacrifices along the way, sorry, that was not within his consideration.

Therefore, he definitely could not tell the truth now.

After some thought, he hid some key information and said, "We were a step too late when we arrived. The Qin army had already cleared the road in the snow mountain..."

Hearing this.

You Aotian revealed an expression as expected.

It wasn't that he didn't trust Li Yueming, but the incident involved was too big. Even as the commander of the Northern Battlefront Army, he couldn't stop it..

Chapter 407: Best Actor Li Yueming, Roots in the Frontier! 2

Li Yueming and the group of students were only in their teens. How could they possibly destroy the national policy formulated by the State of Qin?

Therefore, after sighing, You Aotian patted Li Yueming's shoulder and said, "It's fine. You're so young, yet you're so bold and cautious. You even dared to lead a lone army into the depths of the snowy mountain to deal with tens of thousands of elite Qin soldiers."

Beside him, the group of generals who had followed him to watch the show also revealed expressions of understanding.

However, when they heard You Aotian's praise, the group of Northern Battlefront Army generals also smiled and agreed, That's right. When we were your age, we were still learning riding and archery from our families. We probably couldn't even hold a crossbow properly. Unlike you, you have not only high cultivation at such a young age, but also made great contributions to the Northern Battlefront Army many times!"

"This defeat is not your fault. The Qin army has been planning for a long time, It's already very impressive that you can come up with a perfect solution at this critical moment!"

"Yes, yes... Little brother, don't take it to heart!"

It was obvious that the generals were afraid of hurting Li Yueming's confidence.

After all, Li Yueming had made a lot of contributions to the Northern Battlefront Army.

Moreover, it was a heroic act to be able to personally go to the snow mountain.

Although he didn't make any contributions this time, he couldn't be too harsh on this matter.

Even if they reported it to the Imperial Court, they would probably only appease them.

Of course, most of the soldiers of the Northern Battlefront Army still didn't know Li Yueming's true identity.

If he knew Li Yueming's true identity.

It should have exploded by now.

However, just as the group of generals were trying to comfort Li Yueming...

Behind Li Yueming, Wang Linlin and the others all had strange expressions.

Wang Linlin, who was the most straightforward, looked confused and said, "What? Who said we failed?"

Hearing this.

Instantly, all the generals, including You Aotian, were stunned.

After finally suppressing the churning emotions in his heart, You Aotian immediately said excitedly, "What happened? Did you succeed?"

Seeing this situation.

Li Yueming had no choice but to step forward and say, ""General, we didn't succeed completely, but we didn't fail completely either!"

Without waiting for You Aotian to continue asking, Li Yueming continued, ""The reason why we said that it was not completely successful is that the Qin army has already opened up a path. Now, they have already returned to the Qin country and are preparing to mobilize their troops to attack our Great Zhou!"

"The reason why we didn't completely fail is that we disguised ourselves as the Qin army and attacked a few tribes along the road that the Qin army opened up, causing many spirit beasts to be wary of the Qin army...Although the Beast King is suppressing them from above, I reckon that the Qin army won't be able to go too smoothly!"

Obviously, everyone was stunned.

Good fellow...

How should this move be used?

How sinister!

Moreover, Li Yueming and the others were too bold!

Wasn't he afraid of being discovered by the spirit beasts and causing a beast tide?

Of course, no matter how much trouble it would bring to the Qin army, it would be great news for the Great Zhou!

Thinking of this...

You Aotian looked at Li Yueming and the others and laughed heartily. "Ahahaha... Well done, you've done a great job again!!!

"No, I have to write a letter to Haojing immediately and ask the Imperial Court to reward you! !"

The laughter faded.

You Aotian didn't even stop.

He hurriedly called for a courier, dismissed the people around him, and wrote a secret letter.

After sealing it and dripping wax, he asked him to send the news to Haojing as soon as possible.

He had no choice but to be happy!

These were all his precious disciples, so he naturally felt proud of them.

He had to ask for credit for them.

After finishing all of this.

You Aotian looked at Li Yueming and the others, and his gaze became serious. "Back then, the main purpose of me asking you to come to the border was actually to train you. Therefore, I specially set up a test of ten Qin army heads for you..."

"But I didn't expect you to be so much more outstanding than I expected. Now it seems that Master has underestimated you!" Although that was what he said.

However, You Aotian could not help but look happy.

"But you are still young. Compared to the real experts, you are not strong enough!

"Therefore, after much consideration, I still think that you should be sent back to school to continue your cultivation. When you become a true expert in the future, you can consider whether you want to come to the battlefield and make contributions!"

As a soldier.

You Aotian's political sense was actually not keen.

In other words, it was often difficult for people with keen political senses to become good generals.

Because there was a conflict between them.

The more sensitive a person was to politics, the easier it was for them to be overcautious.

But how could there be so many opportunities to hesitate on the battlefield?

The opportunity to strike was often in an instant.

It was very likely that a single thought would be enough to determine the outcome.

That's why.

The decision that he made after thinking for a long time clearly meant that he really cared about Li Yueming and the others.

It couldn't be helped. Li Yueming and the others were too outstanding!

He was only a teenager, but he was already able to make great contributions on the battlefield like a fish in water.

If he grew up and became a useful person, what would happen?

You Aotian naturally hoped that they could continue to shine in the Northern Lands..

Chapter 408: Best Actor Li Yueming, Roots in the Frontier!_3

However, his rationality told him that before Li Yueming and the others were completely exposed to everyone, it was best for him to transfer his students back to the Cultivator Academy and hide them.

However, even You Aotian could figure out the problem.

There was no reason for Li Yueming not to think about it.

Unless it was absolutely necessary, he would never return to the Cultivator Academy.

That place was too close to the power center of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

There were ten thousand pairs of eyes staring at him on a daily basis. No matter what he did, his hands and feet would be restrained.

It was not easy for him to come to this bitter and cold land at the border. He could finally have the space to display his skills.

Naturally, he would not go back so easily.

Behind him, Wang Linlin and the others were even simpler.

Anyway, they were now dead set on Li Yueming.

Wherever Li Yueming went, they would go. Whatever Li Yueming did, they would do.

After all, how could he let go of a thigh that he had clung to with his strength?

He thought about it.

Li Yueming looked at You Aotian who was not far away and said righteously, "Master, you can't do that! The reason why our Great Zhou can rule the eight wastelands and establish itself in the six countries is because everyone has the mentality that we are the country and the country is us!" He was definitely unwilling to go back.

However, this era was different. It was disrespectful for a disciple to contradict his master.

Therefore, he could only bluff... Oh, no, it was the noble spiritual baptism that made Master feel ashamed.

Then, he put away these thoughts that he should not have.

Before Aotian could speak, Li Yueming continued to persuade him with emotion and reason, "Master, think about it. Right now, tens of millions of people in the Northern Lands are in the army, preparing to fight to the death with the incoming Qin army! Under such circumstances, you still have to send us back to school... What would the generals outside think? What will the soldiers think?"

"Are the sons of the people supposed to die on the battlefield, and we have to hide behind and watch from the sidelines after earning merit points?"

"If everyone does this, wouldn't there be no hot-blooded man in our Great Zhou?"

Li Yueming said passionately.

However, Wang Linlin and the others were stunned.

Good fellow...

If it wasn't for the fact that Li Yueming had told them to keep the secret of the snow mountain a secret before the camp... they would have died

At this moment, they probably really thought that Li Yueming was being righteous.

However, it was precisely because they knew that Li Yueming's plan worked that they admired his acting skills even more.

Look, what was a Best Actor?

This was the Best Actor!

If they didn't know the truth, they would probably have been deceived by now.

Even the group of reincarnators were almost fooled by Li Yueming.

Not to mention You Aotian, who didn't know the truth.

To be honest, he actually felt that he had already overestimated this disciple.

However, he had never expected that his disciple would have such a huge influence.

Nowadays, there were a lot of cowardly scions.

However, it was hard to find someone like Li Yueming!

Thinking of this, You Aotian could not help but blush for a moment. He coughed twice before saying, "That's not what I meant. However, since you have this intention, I won't force you. However, once there are changes at the front line, I will still arrange a backup plan for you!"

As he spoke, he added, "This has nothing to do with personal morality. It's just to leave more pillars for the country! ""

Li Yueming smiled inwardly when he heard that.

However, the expression on his face was meticulous.

The bitter and cold land beyond the frontier was a good place for him. The sky was high and the emperor was far away. He could live a comfortable life with a little trick.

After this operation.

Li Yueming and the others had finally settled down in the north.

He no longer had to worry about being sent back to school by You Aotian to continue his studies.

But for Li Yueming, this was only the first step to his goal.

Next. What he needed to do was to expand his base.

Not only must he be able to resist the Qin army, but he must also be able to withstand the pressure from Haojing.

The first step was the hardest to take in many things.

Now that Li Yueming had taken the first step, most of the subsequent matters only needed to be pushed along with the current.

Chapter 409: Fame and Wealth, Your Grandpa Is Still Your Grandpa!_1

Year 7820 of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Li Yueming was 15 years old. When the imperial court heard the news from You Aotian, the entire court was shaken.

If there was no water in the ginseng.

In that case, the Qin army's plan to invade the northern regions of the Great Zhou Dynasty might have a deviation because of this.

However, they never expected that Li Yueming and his group were more reliable than they had imagined. They had actually given them a big surprise.

This was great news.

The imperial court intentionally released some hints to rouse people.

The emperor was also surprised that Li Yueming did not die and had successfully completed his mission and returned to Dingzhou.

However, he couldn't touch him now. He could only pinch his nose and ask the Ministry of Rites and the Ministry of War to draft a memorial.

Even the great clans of the entire Great Zhou had heard some news.

For a time, countless voices from all over the country were discussing.

"I didn't expect that the son of the Marquis of Southern Mountains would dare to take the lead and enter the snowy mountain to deal with the Qin army!" "Indeed, like father, like son. I'm so envious!"

"Then how should the imperial court reward the crown prince who has made such a great contribution?"

"Heavens, I heard that the son of the Marquis of South Peak is only fifteen years old, but he's already so outstanding. Will the Li family really have two marquises in this generation?"

"That's hard to say, but according to this trend, it's certain that there will be two Nobles in one family!"

"If we're lucky, we might even be able to regain the title of Duke Guarding!" The great clans of the world were naturally the most well-informed.

After hearing about the court through various channels, they couldn't help but discuss.

Obviously, Li Yueming's current demeanor had already attracted the attention of many people.

The news spread very quickly.

After all, the reincarnators were all resourceful, and their speed of eating melons was also amazing.

It did not take long for it to spread to the cultivator academies.

At this moment, 90% of the reincarnators were still learning in the academy.

After all, a group of reincarnators chose different teachers.

The teachers had different teaching plans.

Not every teacher was as reckless as You Aotian, who directly brought his students to the battlefield.

Therefore, 90% of the reincarnators in the Great Zhou were still in the period of recuperation.

They were still fighting openly and secretly in the academy to seize all kinds of cultivation resources.

However, under such circumstances, when the group of reincarnators heard the news from the northern battlefield, they could not help but go numb.

They were reincarnators who had entered the same batch of cultivators.

They naturally knew that there were other reincarnators led by Ding Yi behind Li Yueming.

And now, Li Yueming had made great contributions in the Northern Lands.

If nothing unexpected happened, the reincarnators who followed behind him would have already won.

Damn it...

Why were they still cultivating in the academy when Ding Yi and the others could go to the border one step ahead of time to make contributions?

It happened to be a vacuum period before the reincarnators exploded. At this moment, most of the reincarnators from other countries did not enter the army or the imperial court.

It was the best time to make contributions.

Alter an, mere was no croume.

Wouldn't ordinary reincarnators kill natives of the same age?

They were still in the academy!

However, the other party was already one step ahead of them and had already mixed in with the army.

By the time they graduated, they would probably be in the upper echelons of the military.

One step behind, one step behind. They might only be fit to be people's assistants for a long time.

Was this reasonable? This didn't make sense!

Was this fair? This was not f * cking fair!

A rematch, a rematch!

Many reincarnators were filled with envy and jealousy.

If he had known this earlier, how good would it have been if he had followed Li Yueming and entered You Aotian's tutelage?

They were the ones who were one step ahead of him!

Thinking of this, many of the Reincarnators gritted their teeth and their eyes turned red.

He simply wished that he could rush up and replace her!

However, the sect was strict and there were many spies around. The group of reincarnators did not dare to do anything too overboard.

.0.

Under everyone's close attention.

Finally, the imperial court's decree came out.

Li Yueming was given the title of Left General of the Northern Army Scout Battalion.

This position was the commander of the entire Northern Battlefront Army's Scout Battalion. He was a fifth-grade official with real power. Even Meng Ba, Li Yueming's boss, would be Li Yueming's subordinate in the future.

After all, Sima could only manage the scouts of one city, while he was responsible for the scouts of the entire Northern Battlefront Army.

When they received the order, the entire Northern Battlefront Army went numb.

Although he knew that the higher-ups would reward Li Yueming heavily, he never expected that he would be promoted to the position of general.

The most important thing was that the Left General of the scout camp was not just a title. He was in charge of commanding the most important scouts in the army.

A fifteen-year-old general...

Even in the entire Great Zhou's nearly 10,000 years of history, it was very difficult to see.

He could even be considered the number one person in the past hundred years.

This ridiculous advancement speed was something that ordinary people could not even dream of achieving!

Of course, although the group of generals were also numb, the one who was the most numb was actually Left Sima Meng Ba.

If he remembered correctly, Li Yueming was still a newcomer who had just joined the army last year.

He was also Li Yueming's boss.

How long had it been?

Chapter 410: Fame and Wealth, Your Grandpa Is Still Your Grandpa!_2

It had been less than a year.

Li Yueming had actually become his superior. It was simply ridiculous.

If he hadn't seen Li Yue risking his life for the Northern Battlefront Army with his own eyes...

Meng Ba was probably doubting his life now.

After becoming the scout commander of the Northern Battlefront Army.

Li Yueming kept a low profile for a long time.

He had no choice but to keep a low profile.

There was a long queue of people from the scout camp who came to see him every day.

Many soldiers looked at him as if he was an alien.

There was no other way. A fourteen-year-old general was a rare treasure!

After two months, the commotion in the camp finally came to an end.

It wasn't because the soldiers weren't curious.

Instead, the originally stable Qin army began to become restless again.

After the Qin army had sneaked out of the Hundred Thousand Mountains, the Great Zhou had already set up some sentries near the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

It was specially used to monitor the movements of the Qin army.

And now, according to the secret reports of the spies, the Qin army seemed to have organized another group of people, ready to test whether the roads in the Hundred Thousand Mountains were completely clear.

At first, everyone thought that the Qin army would send out a large army.

However, they did not expect that they would only send 60,000 to 70,000 men this time. This number stunned everyone.

What was going on?

But soon, everyone thought of Li Yueming's report.

Could it be that there was a problem with the roads in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, causing the Qin army to be unable to send a large number of troops into the Great Zhou?

Someone asked Li Yueming.

Li Yueming didn't say anything else and kept quiet.

Thus, many people thought that their guesses were correct and began to publicize it.

Only now did everyone understand why the imperial court was willing to give a general position.

Although Li Yueming's achievements were intangible, they could be recorded in history!

The Qin army was preparing intensely.

The Great Zhou was naturally not idle.

King Yu's 100,000 men had already settled down in the north.

Haojing had also dispatched 100,000 imperial guards to form a tight defense line in the north.

The Great Zhou and Great Qin had long had a grudge.

It was fine if he didn't move now, but if he did, it would be like lightning striking the earth and fire, and it would be out of control.

Under such circumstances.

Li Yuemilu was very free.

After all, although he was now the general of the scouts camp in name, he was still a general.

But in fact, the scout battalion was already a well-organized unit of the Northern Battlefront Army.

In general, he did not need to perfect anything.

While no one was paying attention to him, Li Yueming quickly became engrossed in cultivation.

He locked himself in the tent every day and kept looking for a way to break through to the True Form Realm.

Currently, the energy in his body's acupoints was sufficient.

He was only a step away from truth realisation state.

What he needed to do was to open up a brand new realm of the human body.

This sounded simple.

But in reality, it was very difficult to achieve something from nothing.

Fortunately, Li Yueming had enough experience with this.

With the help of the Infinite Deduction ability, he was confident that he would be able to get out of this stage.

However, he could slack off without any psychological pressure.

However, the soldiers under his command were not used to it.

It was said that a new official would do three things.

In the past, the newly appointed general of the scout camp would often promote and change some of the internal systems of the army.

It could also be considered as showing his authority to all the soldiers.

However, Li Yueming, the newly appointed Left General, was good. After taking office, not only did he not burn three fires, he did not even leave the camp once.

Not to mention promoting his trusted aides and changing the system.

Every day, he would stay in his tent and never leave.

If it weren't for the fact that everyone knew that he was a powerful cultivator, they would have thought that he was unconscious.

As time passed, many rumors spread in the scout camp.

Many people didn't know what Li Yueming was up to.

As Li Yueming's trusted aide...

Wang Linlin and the others were well aware of these things.

What did it mean when cultivators did not leave their homes?

The reason was simple. He was about to break through.

Then, the problem came.

If they remembered correctly, Li Yueming should have been a cultivator of the Source Sea Realm last year.

In that case, Li Yueming went into seclusion to cultivate... Was he going to break through to the True Form Realm?

WDNMD!

Although they had already determined that Li Yueming was the chosen one of this world and enjoyed the powerful blessing of the heavens.

However, they had really never seen such an unreasonable son of heaven's mandate.

It was estimated that only some high-level fantasy world could have such an unreasonable child of heaven.

The problem was that the public reincarnation dungeon they were in was only level 5!

Why was he able to break through crazily every day as if he had a cheat?

One had to know that they were all senior reincarnators, but the strongest batch had only just reached the Origin Sea realm.

He saw that the distance between him and Li Yueming was getting closer.

it nnlv in tho hlinlz Af nn

There was another major realm between the two of them.

This was f * cking...Are you going to let me live?

The group of reincarnators felt tears streaming down their faces.

Half a year later, Year 7821 of the Great Ming Dynasty.

Li Yueming was sixteen years old.

According to reliable sources, the Qin army had already entered the 100,000 mountains to explore.

On the main battlefield at the northwest border, the Qin army had deployed nearly a million soldiers..
