Chapter 41: Cheat Players Need An Explanation!_1

He heard Li Yueming's voice.

All the students stopped their discussion.

F * Ck.

Listen.

Was this something a human could say?

The weather was forty-two degrees.

The students felt their blood rush up and their hands and feet turn cold.

Originally.

The group of people was about to retort at Li Yueming.

However, when their gazes landed on the Reincarnation Gate that was still emitting golden light behind Li Yueming. The entire examination hall fell silent.

Including the invigilators.

Everyone widened their eyes.

His face was filled with disbelief.

What did they see?

The Reincarnation Gate was actually emitting golden light?

He felt the shocked gazes of his classmates.

“Why are you looking at me?” Li Yueming asked.”

However, at this moment.

No one answered.

Not far away.

The invigilator, who had just stood up from his seat, was so frightened that he sat back down on the bench.

One had to know.

As an invigilator.

No one knew better than him what the golden light behind Li Yueming meant.

The Reincarnation Gate was a scoring machine manufactured by the Reincarnation Association.

The moment every reincarnator stepped through the Reincarnation Gate for the first time, the Reincarnation Gate would light up with the corresponding color to indicate their results. Blue represented a C grade.

Purple represents a grade of B.

Red represented an A grade.

And now.

Behind Li Yueming's back was a gold color that symbolized S class!

If not for so many people watching.

The invigilators would probably think that there was something wrong with their eyes.

Linjiang No. 2 Middle School had been established for nearly a hundred years.

In the past hundred years.

There were already very few examinees who could reach A class during their first reincarnation.

As for the higher S grade score.

He had never even heard of them.

And now.

This miracle had truly appeared in front of him!!!

Thinking of this...

The invigilator felt Li Yueming's gaze.

He immediately shivered.

He came back to his senses and hurriedly stood up."Hello, Lord Eternal Reincarnator. Can I register your reincarnation world information?"

The Association of Reincarnators was an organization jointly established by all the reincarnators.

He just needed to register his personal information in the association.

He could receive a lot of subsidies every month.

And as a newcomer.

If he wanted to know more information, he had to go through the association.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Li Yueming naturally had no reason to refuse.

After obtaining his consent.

The invigilator picked up the pen and paper, and his hands and feet were trembling.

He found the previously blank column.

He finally calmed down and said, "May I ask Lord Li Yueming, what is your reincarnation rating?"

Li Yueming turned around.

He glanced at the golden Reincarnation Gate.

“As you can see, it’s S-class!”

Trees stand out in the forest, and the wind will destroy them.

An S grade was enough to attract attention.

Revealing his SSS rating was undoubtedly an act that required him to recharge his IQ.

After hearing this answer.

The invigilator’s hands began to tremble again.

He had obtained an S grade in the first initial simulation...

What kind of monster was this?

She finally filled in her personal information in the rating column.

The invigilator let out a sigh of relief.” Alright, Sir Li Yueming, please wait a moment. I’ll call the principal over to entertain you!”” According to the normal procedure.

The invigilators would usually ask for more information.

For example, after graduation, they would prepare to continue their studies, go directly to the fief to resist the darkness, or join an organization created by other reincarnators.

However, these were all prepared for ordinary students.

Facing the unprecedented S-grade reincarnator in Linjiang.

Asking these boring questions was a waste of time.

No matter where the other party wanted to develop.

In such a world where the simulator was supreme, there would be people who would do everything they could to satisfy him.

He bowed respectfully to Li Yueming.

The invigilator jogged all the way to the principal’s office to pass on the news.

Less than ten minutes later.

A loud boom was heard.

A cloud of dust rose from the teaching building not far away.

The principal had a bald head.

Like a gust of wind, he rushed in front of Li Yueming.

She grabbed Li Yueming’s hand tightly.

He smiled like a spring breeze and said, “Do you have any difficulties in life that the principal needs to help you solve?”

If it was said that experts did not have hair.

The headmaster was probably only a hair’s breadth away from becoming an Overgod.

He thought about it.

Principal, please help me submit a territory application letter as soon as possible,” Li Yueming said.” I’m going to head to the territory as soon as possible! “”“

Hearing this sentence.

The principal’s face was filled with disbelief.

After hesitating for a moment, he kindly reminded her,””Student Li Yueming, if you choose to go to the territory, it will be equivalent to giving up the opportunity to continue your studies, and you will no longer be able to join the reincarnator forces in the big cities... You’re an S-rank graduate. Have you really thought it through?” Regarding this.

Li Yueming naturally knew that.

The so-called opportunity for further studies.

It was similar to studying for a master’s degree in his previous life.

Enter the Reincarnator University to continue studying. The expenses during this period will be covered by the Reincarnator Association.

Moreover, he would be rewarded with an additional number of reincarnations every month.

Of course.

It was not without a price for the Reincarnator Association to provide so many resources.

After graduating and becoming an outstanding reincarnator, they had to stay in the territory of the Reincarnator Association for 20 years.

As for the other big cities ‘simulations.

It was an organization created by one or even many powerful reincarnators.

They would enter the same reincarnation world and work together to plunder resources.

If new reincarnators joined, they could also obtain considerable benefits.

Of course.

The price they had to pay was also very different from the requirements of the Reincarnator Association.

With Li Yueming’s current condition.

Whether it was entering the Reincarnator Association or joining a reincarnator force, they were all hot cakes that would be snatched up crazily.

That’s why.

Only then would the principal ask him if he had thought it through.

This was because going directly to the territory meant that Li Yueming chose to give up everything and develop on his own.

The biggest advantage of this choice was freedom.

However, the biggest disadvantage was also freedom.

It was very expensive for reincarnators to grow quickly.

The resources required were astronomical.

Li Yueming might have been lucky this time and obtained a good initial talent.

In addition, his basic skills were solid enough to obtain a heaven-defying S-rank score.

However, it was impossible for him to be so lucky every time.

Even if he took ten thousand steps back, he was really a genius who had both luck and strength.

However, just relying on the small amount of production in the territory was only enough for the reincarnators to eat and drink.

It was impossible for him to achieve much development.

They did not have enough financial support behind them.

In the end, they would only be limited by resources.

Therefore, he had no choice.

In the bald principal's opinion.

He would choose a decent force to join and accumulate enough wealth and experience.

In the end, Li Yueming's best choice was to go solo when he had enough strength.

In fact, it is true.

Unfortunately, he did not know that Li Yueming was different from ordinary reincarnators.

He was a cheat player.

Let's not talk about anything else.

Just the 200,000 reincarnator points in his pocket were enough to buy ten Linjiang Second High schools.

Therefore, he had no choice.

” Yes,” Li Yueming nodded firmly.” Principal, I've thought it through. Please help me with the procedures! ““

Chapter 42: The 580,,000,000-year-old baby of the game!_1

After confirming that he had made up his mind.

The principal touched his bald head and sighed,””Young people are really fearless, but the principal thinks highly of you!”

As he spoke.

He took out a card from his pocket and said earnestly,””Here, this is the outstanding graduate bursary that the principal gave you on behalf of the Linjiang people. Work hard in the future and contribute more to the human race!”

Looking at the card in the principal's hand,

Li Yueming pondered for a moment but did not refuse.

He took it and used the Reincarnation Mark to scan it.

Huo.

A total of 10,000 simulation points.

The principal really went all out!

He took the card.

The principal lowered his head and said calmly, "So, which area is Student Li Yueming planning to go to?" Hearing this question.

Li Yueming touched his chin.

He hadn't thought about this yet.

Seeing that he was still hesitating, the principal quickly struck while the iron was hot and said, "Do you want to consider staying in Linjiang to develop?"

Hearing this.

Li Yueming glanced at the principal.

She immediately understood what he meant.

Linjiang was a remote city in Jiangnan Province.

After graduating, most of the outstanding reincarnators chose to develop in big cities with more resources.

Therefore, he had no choice.

The number of reincarnators in Linjiang had been declining over the years.

This was because there was a lack of reincarnators to resist the darkness.

Linjiang's resident population was decreasing year by year.

It probably won't take long.

Linjiang was about to become a dead city that had fallen into the dark world. Therefore, after knowing that he was not prepared to go to the big city to develop.

The principal was obviously trying to beat around the bush.

She wanted to see if he had any intention of staying in Linjiang.

Of course.

Although he asked this question.

However, the principal did not have much hope.

After all, Linjiang had been in dire straits these years.

There was really nothing that could make Li Yueming stay.

But in the next second.

Li Yueming's answer made the principal jump up again.

However, Li Yueming only thought for a moment before nodding his head and saying, "Sure, Linjiang is not bad either, but I have a few requests!"

Hearing that he was willing to stay.

The principal pulled out his remaining hair.

He wondered if there was something wrong with his head today.

He finally came back to his senses.

The principal looked excited. "If you have any requests, you can ask for them. As long as it's within your means, there's no problem!"

It was not easy to recruit a permanent reincarnator.

And recruiting a permanent reincarnator with an initial score of S was even more impossible.

It could be said that as long as Li Yueming was willing to settle down in Linjiang.

Linjiang could satisfy any of his requests.

First, I personally don't like crowds, so I'll give the territory to a more remote area!" Li Yueming pointed out."

"Second, help me select a group of young citizens!"

"Third, help me recruit a professional secretary. I want a very capable one!" After saying that.

"What do you think?" Li Yueming looked at him and said, "These requests aren't too much, right?"

The principal was stunned for a long time before shaking his head. "Not too much, not too much at all!"

It wasn't just not too much.

It was as if he had no other requirements.

For a moment, the principal wondered if he had forgotten to bring his brain when he went out today.

Of course, Li Yueming knew that his request was not too much, so he said in a more serious tone, "Since it's not too much, then there must be no exaggeration! "

She could feel the coldness in his eyes.

The principal patted his chest. "I'll handle these matters personally. I won't give any discounts!"

"In addition, I will apply to the Linjiang Reincarnator Association to give you a subsidy of 50,000 reincarnation points per month. The number of reincarnators in Linjiang is relatively small, and our financial expenditure is limited. This is already the biggest bargaining chip I can offer! ”

Obviously.

The principal was also an honest person.

He didn't deny Li Yueming the treatment he deserved just because he didn't say anything.

After handing over everything.

The principal immediately went to handle the procedures.

It was not easy for a super rookie to be willing to stay in Linjiang.

If they didn't act quickly, Li Yueming would be intercepted by other forces.

He probably had nowhere to cry.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming didn't continue worrying.

He was prepared to go home and sort out his gains from this reincarnation.

However, just as he was about to leave.

However, he found a beautiful and sweet girl beside the stairs looking at him curiously.

Li Yueming recognized him at a glance.

She was the daughter of the current head of the Mu family, the top student and campus belle of Linjiang No.2 Middle School, Mu Youyou.

She was the dream girl of countless boys in the school.

However, there wasn't much interaction between Li Yueming and her.

After all, before this.

He was just an ordinary student with better grades.

He felt Li Yueming Ming's gaze on him.

Mu Youyou wrinkled her nose.

He revealed a fierce expression.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming felt a little baffled.

Thinking that he still had important matters to attend to, he ignored the young girl.

He left without looking back.

Looking at Li Yueming's back, Mu Youyou opened her mouth several times, wanting to say something.

But in the end, he could not say anything.

After returning home.

Li Yueming closed the door.

After pulling down all the curtains, he opened his permanent reincarnator mark.

Previously.

3-024 No, the will of planet 4-0241 had sent him a thank-you gift.

Because of the limited time.

Li Yueming didn't have time to sign for it in the reincarnation space.

She finally got out of the car.

Li Yueming wanted to see what kind of local socialtv the Planet's will had sent him.

Imprint, retrieve the item from the mailbox!" In the next second.

The reincarnation mark emitted a burst of white light.

After the light dissipated.

A small fragment appeared in Li Yueming's hand.

He sized her up for a long time.

Even Li Yueming didn't know what it was.

However, just as he was about to log into the reincarnator forum to see if there was any relevant information.

A weak will came from the small fragment."Hello, are you a reincarnator?"

Li Yueming was shocked.

He almost threw the fragment on the ground.

He seemed to have sensed his intentions.

The fragment's weak consciousness became much more nervous. It hurriedly said,"Be careful, don't fall. He's only a baby that's more than 580,000 years old!" Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Damn it.

4-0241 What did the planet's will give him?

A 580,000-year-old baby?

Why don't you go to heaven?

It was as if she had once again felt the ridicule in his heart.

"I'm only a few months old!" The weak consciousness explained."

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

Instead, he picked up the fragment.

He placed it under the light and took a good look.

Under the illumination of the incandescent lamp.

The shard emitted a colorful luster, like a pure crystal.

But he stared at it for a long time.

The fragment seemed to have turned into a super huge black hole.

A light that could devour everything.

This undoubtedly shocked Li Yueming.

F * Ck...

Could this thing be a newly born world fragment?

World Fragments, as the name implied, were fragments that fell from a large world with complete rules.

After leaving the mother, the small fragments absorbed the initial energy of the universe.

If everything went smoothly, after countless years of evolution, a new world would be born.

This thing was a treasure that the legendary top-notch reincarnators dreamed of.

Not only could he create an exclusive small world suitable for cultivation according to the direction of his development.

They could also grow all kinds of food and medicine that could not be grown in the main world.

When it grew to a certain extent, it could even temporarily interfere with the rules of the reincarnation world...

It was a priceless treasure!!!

He felt Li Yueming's shock.

The weak consciousness seemed very pleased and asked again, "That's right I'm a newly born world fragment! So are your thighs thick enough? This baobao doesn't want to work hard, I just want to find a thigh to lie flat on!"

He could feel the weak will coming from the fragment.

Li Yueming touched his chin.

He revealed a crazed smile on his face!

Chapter 43: Children Are Easy to Raise

He looked at the shards of the world that shone with an alluring luster under the light.

Li Yueming's face revealed an infatuated smile.

Obviously.

He had already made up his mind.

No matter what, he had to trick this 580 million-year-old baby into his hands.

Thinking of this...

The smile on Li Yueming's face quickly disappeared.

He put on a serious look and said, "Cough cough, you've found the right person. I'm the legendary chosen one!"

The blurry consciousness asked in confusion, "What is a chosen one? Are they the puppets that my mother plays with when she's bored?"

Hearing this.

Li Yueming's expression instantly stiffened.

Good heavens.

He was an existence that had gathered all the luck in the world.

In front of the world's will, it was like a puppet.

He felt that this guy was not easy to fool at all!

Just as Li Yueming's mind was spinning.

The blurry consciousness spoke, "I seem to be a little hungry..." Do you have anything delicious to eat?"

Hearing this sentence.

Li Yueming suddenly had a flash of inspiration and said calmly, "What do you want to eat?"

The consciousness pondered for a moment and said, "Is there no World Source??" I like the World Origin the most!"

Hearing the words 'World Origin'.

Li Yueming's face twitched.

The so-called source of the world was the mass of original matter left behind after the world died.

It contained the mysteries of the origin of all things and the rotation of heaven and earth.

It was a divine treasure that only existed in legends.

Not to mention that Li Yueming was only a small level 2 reincarnator.

Even Level 12 players were not qualified to touch such a treasure!

Forget it.

He still didn't want to raise it.

Whoever wants this prodigal can take it!

With such a big appetite, who would be able to feed him?

However...

Just as Li Yueming was about to throw the world fragment into the trash can...

The blurry consciousness immediately became anxious.

It doesn't matter if you don't have the source of the world," she quickly corrected herself." You can feed it some random things. It's easy to raise a child!

Li Yueming, [Concealment. ]

Looking at this shameless world fragment

Li Yueming suddenly felt as if he had jumped into a sinkhole.

In the afternoon.

The principal had already arranged everything.

It could be seen that the principal had spent a lot of effort to choose a good place for Li Yueming.

His territory was divided to the south of Linjiang City.

Not far away from the territory was a local reincarnator family in Linjiang.

Therefore, the corrosion of the dark power was not too serious.

It allowed him to slack off without any scruples.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming was very satisfied.

He immediately took his few pieces of clothing and rushed back to the territory.

To ordinary people.

After becoming a permanent reincarnator, you will be able to continue to live forever.

One of the few things that he could decide on was choosing the lord he liked.

This was a two-way choice.

The reincarnators would choose the commoners they needed to help them manage the land and assets in their territory.

Ordinary people would choose those who were strong enough to provide protection.

Moreover, the taxes were relatively less strict in the reincarnators 'territory.

Marry a wife, have children, settle down and start a family.

However, there were too many ordinary people.

The distance between the major cities was too far.

Therefore, there were not many territories for ordinary people to choose from.

And now.

According to Li Yueming's request.

A considerable number of students from several schools in Linjiang City were assigned to Li Yueming's territory.

In the following period of time.

This group of people would arrive at the territory one after another.

Of course, he didn't need to worry too much about the basic operations of the territory.

There was a special team responsible for daily chores.

Other than resisting the darkness, the reincarnators only needed to control the general direction of the territory's development.

When Li Yueming came to the City Lord's Mansion with his bag.

Below the city wall.

More than 20 beautiful women with graceful figures were standing at the door waiting for his arrival.

After seeing Li Yueming.

The group of women bowed to him.

The leading woman said with a slightly nervous expression, "Respected Lord Reincarnator, this subordinate's name is Zhao Shiya. We are all here to apply for the position of secretary!"

Li Yueming's gaze slowly swept across the group of women.

Good heavens.

The principal was really efficient.

In less than half a day.

How did he find so many secretaries?

Moreover, weren't they all too good-looking?

Are you sure it's not a flower vase?

Forget it.

"I want a capable secretary," Li Yueming asked simply. "A very capable one. So, which one of you thinks he's more capable?"

Hearing his fierce words.

Many applicants blushed.

Only the girl named Zhao Shiya took two deep breaths.

"Lord Reincarnator, I'm from the Zhao family. I've been nurtured in this area since I was young, and I'm very capable!" Li Yueming glanced at her from head to toe.

It was still pleasing to the eye.

Hence, he nodded.” In that case, it’s you. The others can go back to where they came from. I don’t care about food here!””

As he spoke.

Li Yueming used the Reincarnation Imprint to give Zhao Shiya a manager’s employment letter.

From now on, she was Li Yueming’s personal secretary.

Not only did they need to be responsible for his food and daily life, but they also needed to help him manage the territory.

As for whether it was suitable or not.

Li Yueming didn’t think too much about it.

Anyway, to him.

If the secretary was not comfortable with it, he could just change it.

There was no need to waste unnecessary time choosing here.

Zhao Shiya looked at the letter of appointment in her hand.

He then looked at Li Yueming who was walking away.

My entire person is a little confused.

The legendary S-rank reincarnator...His nerves seemed to be thicker!

They entered the city.

The first thing Li Yueming saw was a dilapidated place.

He walked a little further in.

One could see patches of black energy.

A city without reincarnators guarding it was a paradise for dark energy.

Behind him.

Zhao Shiya was extremely nervous.

The dark energy would erode the vitality of all living things.

Even if it was just a trace of infection.

It was also an unbearable price for ordinary people.

Only reincarnators had the ability to dispel these annoying things.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Zhao Shiya could only follow closely behind Li Yueming, not daring to fall behind.

He also prayed that he would be better and not be too unlucky.

The two of them walked towards the center of the city.

At this moment.

A pitch-black shadow suddenly darted out from the ruins of a dilapidated house.

He charged at Zhao Shiya who was behind Li Yueming!

The black shadow was very fast.

Almost in an instant.

He rushed into the shadow behind Zhao Shiya.

Zhao Shiva herself did not know.

Li Yue Ming felt the aura of the dark energy.

He circulated his breathing technique. His fist slammed into the soil under his feet.

“Boom!”

A loud rumble came from the dilapidated territory.

In the next second.

A crack spurted out from the shadow behind Zhao Shiya.

“Squeak, squeak, squeak...”

The black figure turned into an extremely strange human face.

It twisted unwillingly for a while.

However, in the end, it still turned into a wisp of black smoke under Li Yueming’s overbearing fist wind.

At this moment.

Only then did Zhao Shiya turn around.

When he saw the strange human face under his feet, he was shocked.

His soul was almost scared out of his body.

As a disciple of a reincarnator family, although Zhao Shiya did not become a permanent reincarnator, she was still a reincarnator.

However, regardless of knowledge or ability, the place of origin is in the world of the world.

They were not something ordinary people could compare to.

Therefore, she instantly recognized the name of the creature that attacked her.

This thing was called the Dark Beast.

It was a pure dark energy product.

Any life that was contaminated by it would be assimilated into a part of the darkness for a very short period of time.

And the one who attacked her just now.

It should be a level one dark beast.

In other words, if Li Yueming didn't make a move.

Now, she was already dead!!!

Zhao Shiya, who had survived the disaster, did not have time to rejoice.

“Thank you, sir, for saving my life. If it weren't for you...”

Speaking of this.

Zhao Shiya's eyes suddenly widened.

That's right.

What had attacked her earlier was a level one dark beast!!

It should be very difficult for ordinary new reincarnators to deal with them...

As for Li Yueming, who was also a new reincarnator.

However, he only used one punch.

It was destroyed in the physical sense.

Such terrifying strength.

Was this the unprecedented S-rank Rookie King of Linjiang City?

Thinking of this...

The excitement and shock in Zhao Shiya's heart even surpassed the fear of being attacked just now.

To be able to follow a powerful lord.

As a secretary, this was undoubtedly a great opportunity for her! Li Yueming put away his fist and patted the dirt off his body.

“Alright, get up. Just work hard for me in the future!”“ At this moment.

The two of them had already arrived outside the mansion.

Compared to the other places where the dark energy raged.

The City Lord's Mansion was relatively clean.

Zhao Shiya began to clean the room.

Meanwhile, Li Yueming strolled around the City Lord's Mansion.

He cleaned up the dark energy.

After confirming that there was no dark energy in the city lord's mansion, he was shocked.

Li Yueming returned to his room and said to Zhao Shiya, “This city has probably not been cleaned up for a long time, but I don't have time to clean it up yet! Don't leave the City Lord's Estate for the next two days. We'll talk after I enter the reincarnation world again!”

After he finished explaining everything.

Li Yueming ignored Zhao Shiya's shocked expression.

After closing the door.

He entered the reincarnation space again.

Chapter 44: Reincarnator Forum, Novice Lightning Protection Guide! 1

After he finished explaining everything.

Li Yueming closed the door.

He opened the reincarnation mark.

He took out the transaction card that the principal had left for him.

There were a total of 10,000 reincarnation points inside.

To most ordinary reincarnators, this was already a considerable amount.

Li Yueming rubbed the card with his fingers.

He looked at the world fragment and asked, "Can you eat the reincarnation points?"

Hearing this.

The hazy consciousness in the world fragment was about to drool.

"Of course. I can eat all the energy bodies that have substance. Please feed me!"

He heard an affirmative answer.

Li Yueming held the transaction card that stored the reincarnation points in his hand and spun it a few times.

The World Fragment began to tremble. "It's not that I can't give it to you, but you can't eat it for free, right?" "The blurry will seemed to be in a dilemma.

After struggling for a moment, she said shyly, "I, I can turn into your shape when I grow up!" Li Yueming, [Concealment.]

Good heavens.

Was this thing really the World Will?

Wasn't he too low-class?

At this moment.

Ten thousand alpacas were galloping in his heart.

He took two deep breaths.

Forget it.

He would try feeding 10,000 reincarnation points first.

After all, this was a world fragment that was known as a priceless treasure.

He couldn't really throw it away like trash, right?

He placed the transaction card next to the world fragment.

In the next second.

Li Yueming instantly felt a terrifying suction force.

He calmed down and took a look.

The transaction card that was still by the table had disappeared.

This guy even swallowed the transaction card that stored the reincarnation points.

After the wind swept away the clouds.

His blurry consciousness burped.” Mmm, although the taste isn’t very good, the energy is still very pure. As expected, Mom was right. How can working hard to evolve be more fragrant than hugging someone’s thigh?”

Hearing this guy’s nagging.

Li Yueming was speechless.

He placed it under the light again and looked at it for a long time.

I don’t know, it’s not an illusion

After absorbing the energy.

The size of the world fragment seemed to have increased by a little.

Feeling his gaze.

The World Fragment spread out a consciousness and enveloped Li Yueming.

At the same time.

Li Yueming suddenly felt a space no larger than ten cubic meters appear in his mind.

The blurry world consciousness opened its mouth and said,” From now on, you will be my breeder. This space is a built-in space that I evolved. You can also understand it as the prototype of a new world. As long as there is enough feed, the new world will continue to expand!”

“As a breeder, you have the right to use this space. You can adjust the world’s parameters at will, such as temperature, climate, terrain, and so on...”

“Hmm, you can figure out more ways to use it. This baobao is a little sleepy, so I’m going to lie down and sleep!”

He heard the message from the world fragment’s consciousness.

Li Yueming was constantly stunned.

Ten cubic meters for ten thousand reincarnation points.

Wasn’t this house price too high?

However...

He thought of the heaven -defying function of this world fragment after it grew.

The little unhappiness in Li Yueming's heart instantly disappeared.

As far as he knew.

After the world fragment grew to a certain level.

It could even temporarily tear apart the spatial barrier of the reincarnation world.

It could allow the reincarnators to take out some uncivilized big guys from the reincarnation world.

For example.

For example, he could take out an immortal sword from the city's special ability world.

Or a Gatling gun from a Low Level Martial World...

That scene.

It was simply too interesting.

Of course.

These were still far away from him.

With the current evolution level of this world fragment, it was impossible for it to tear space and compete with the world wills of other reincarnation worlds.

He was still miles away.

At present, the only function of the world fragment was probably to plant some flowers and plants.

He would temporarily solve the problem of the world fragment.

Li Yueming took a deep breath.

Soon, all the attention was drawn back.

Now, he had officially become a permanent reincarnator, and he had accumulated nearly 280,000 reincarnation points.

Therefore, he had no choice.

He was prepared to spend some money first.

He wanted to buy some spiritual rice and spiritual rice seeds that contained spiritual qi and energy.

He would plant it in the world fragment first.

Generally speaking, powerful permanent simulations would not eat ordinary food.

Because ordinary food was not enough for them.

Instead, they would choose to eat all kinds of high-grade spiritual rice produced in the spiritual fields of large factions.

After eating the spiritual rice, it could provide the reincarnators with ten times or a hundred times more energy than ordinary food. It was a high-end food that was a necessity at home.

Of course.

This was because it was difficult to grow and produce.

The price of spiritual rice was also relatively high.

Ordinary simulations couldn't afford it.

He probably only ate two or three meals a month.

Only a super rookie like Li Yueming, who didn't lack money, would start buying spiritual rice right after the first round of reincarnation.

He opened the reincarnator forum.

Li Yueming wanted to see if there were any lightning protection posts.

He was indeed rich, but he wasn't an innocent child.

It was necessary to understand the market price before buying something.

His consciousness had just sunk into the Reincarnator Forum.

Li Yueming's worldview was instantly refreshed by the contents.

“Brothers, I met a fairy in the Xianxia World yesterday. At that time, I thought I had found true love, but in the end, I found out that she was a Sea King.”

“Exposing a detestable drinker and inviting me to a restaurant for a meal. In the end, he cheated me of more than 10,000 reincarnation points. When he left, he even took off his f * cking pants.”

“Hahaha, although it's a little unkind, I took a photo of Big Brother's naked butt upstairs yesterday. Those who want to see it will pay me eighty!”

” The front row is selling melon seeds, drinks, and mineral water. The melon seeds are grown in my family's spiritual fields. They're fragrant and sweet. The mineral water comes from the Xianxia world. Every sip is filled with the taste of fairies. I even added more than ten purebred wild wolfberries to the drinks..

“Wang Defa, you were the one who cheated on me last time, right? I'm already outside your territory. If you have the guts, come out and fight me one-on-one. I'll definitely give you a discount today!”

He swept his gaze over.

There were countless gossips.

There were also many merchants selling all kinds of strange and strange items.

Li Yueming was dazzled.

All along, the impression that reincarnators left on ordinary people was more serious.

However, he did not expect the difference between the two to be so great in the forum.

However, after thinking about it carefully.

Li Yueming was also relieved.

After all, reincarnators were also humans.

Just because they maintained their coldness in front of ordinary people did not mean that they would maintain their coldness in front of other reincarnators.

In the end, it was just a different circle.

He searched through the messy posts for a long time.

Finally.

Li Yueming finally saw a post that was useful to him.

“A Guide to Avoiding Traps for Newcomers and Reincarnators”

The name of the post was a reincarnator who claimed to be a newcomer’s mentor.

If you want to see this guide, you need to pay 500 reincarnation points.

Li Yueming casually flipped through the comments below the post.

Basically, all of them had good reviews.

Therefore, Li Yueming spent 500 reincarnation points to buy one.

He opened the guide.

It recorded many things that new reincarnators needed to pay attention to.

For example, many of the people who sold all kinds of items in the reincarnator forum were scammers. The lower the price, the easier it was to be cheated.

If rookies wanted to buy things, it was best to go to the reincarnator shop.

Although the things inside were about 10% more expensive than the ones outside, and they needed to pay 5% of the reincarnation mark’s commission.

However, they would not be deceived.

The other was the preparations that needed to be made before entering the reincarnation world.

For example, he could spend reincarnation points to buy a golden spoon. With a golden spoon in his mouth, he had a higher chance of reincarnating into a rich family.

He could also spend reincarnation points to buy more detailed information about the reincarnation world...

Of course.

The guide to avoiding traps didn’t really recommend ordinary newbies to buy these things.

Born in a poor family, the difficulty of the simulation mark would be reduced accordingly.

After all, it was even more difficult for the commoners to counterattack.

He was born into a rich family.

The difficulty of increasing the score with the simulated imprint would be relatively higher.

After all, the children of wealthy families had a higher chance of making a name for themselves.

In summary.

The two canceled each other out.

It was useless to spend hundreds or thousands of reincarnation points to buy a rich birth.

As for the details of the reincarnation world.

The guide producers did not recommend ordinary reincarnators to buy it.

This thing could indeed allow reincarnators to understand more of the basic rules of the reincarnation world in advance.

However, the price-performance ratio was too low.

Most of the information he bought was rubbish.

The reincarnators could figure it out after living in the reincarnation world for a few years.

In addition.

After becoming a permanent reincarnator.

Reincarnators will lose the opportunity to choose their initial talent and will be replaced by the Reincarnation Mark. He could only choose whichever talent he drew.

Of course.

If there were really too many reincarnation points to spend.

Reincarnators could also choose to buy dice that could be used to re-assign talents.

However, that thing was so expensive that it was almost equivalent to the total amount of resources needed to complete a C-class world's reincarnation evaluation.

Very few people would spend money to make themselves unhappy.

That's why.

That was why the permanent talent was so precious.

In the end.

The Lightning Protection Manual listed out a detailed list of prices.

According to the records on the price list.

Newbie reincarnators would have a general understanding of the pricing of various resources.

It seemed that the 500 reincarnation points were well spent!

After figuring out the price of the spiritual rice and the spiritual rice seeds.

Li Yueming opened the Reincarnator Shop and spent 6,000 reincarnation points to buy 500 catties of spiritual rice and 10 catties of spiritual rice seeds.

The spiritual rice could replenish energy and fill one's stomach.

After all, he hadn't had the time to eat after staying up all day.

As for the remaining seeds...

Naturally, they were all planted in the fragment's small world.

That damn world fragment had swallowed 10,000 reincarnation points today. Wouldn't it be a huge loss if he didn't quickly think of ways to squeeze it back?

Chapter 45: The Second Life, Supreme Martial Artist! A New Volume (1)

After paying the money.

The seller's delivery efficiency was very high.

It only took him two minutes to send the spiritual rice and spiritual rice seeds to Li Yueming's email.

Li Yueming burped in satisfaction.

This way...

He could finally start his next reincarnation without worry.

Although he had successfully become a permanent reincarnator, Li Yueming still did not dare to relax at all.

After all, no matter when or where.

Only when one's fist was big enough was the eternal truth.

Thinking of this...

Li Yueming said without hesitation, "'Mark, start a new round of reincarnation! "

After he finished speaking.

After a few seconds.

The reincarnation mark on Li Yueming's wrist began to glow.

A string of words was projected. [Detected reincarnator name: Li Yueming, serial number 7001611]

[Remaining Reincarnation Authority: 5]

[Mark of Reincarnation Level: LV2 (1000/5000)]

[Reincarnation Points Balance: 267000]

[Origin Power: 100 times talent enhancement!]

[Fixed Talent: Infinite Deduction (Gold)]

[Fixed Talent: 1]

[Do you want to purchase additional services? If he didn't need to click on the option, he could activate the reincarnation directly!]

It was indeed different from the last reincarnation.

After obtaining the permanent reincarnation mark, Li Yueming could choose to purchase some additional special services.

According to the author's train of thought of 'A Guide for Newcomers to Avoiding'.

Li Yueming definitely wouldn't buy any extra services.

However, as a cheating player...

Li Yueming's way of thinking was a little different.

It didn't matter to Li Yueming which family he was born in.

As long as he could grow up smoothly.

With unlimited deduction, he could definitely make a name for himself.

Therefore, he had no choice.

He planned to buy information about the reincarnation world that was not worth mentioning in the eyes of ordinary reincarnators.

This thing was undoubtedly a good thing in the hands of Li Yueming, who had unlimited deduction talent.

It was enough for him to predict his future for a long time in advance.

[Do you want to spend 5000 reincarnation points to buy information?]

He did not hesitate.

Li Yueming immediately clicked on confirm.

Suddenly, a huge amount of information entered Li Yueming's mind.

Although he hadn't officially started reincarnation yet.

But at this moment.

He already had a rough understanding of the world he was about to go to.

After all the information was entered.

Before he could finish digesting it.

In the next second.

Li Yueming felt that he had gradually lost all his senses.

A familiar soul came out of his body again!

[World loaded]

[World loaded successfully. Planet serial number 5-07312!]

[The reincarnator is currently in the midst of a mystery in the womb. After the initial introduction, you can enter the reincarnation world.]

[Introduction to the background of the Reincarnation World!]

[This is an extremely chaotic world. The world is divided into three continents: the Free Continent, Western Europe, and China's Central Continent.]

[The races, cultures, and beliefs of the three continents are different, and their power systems are also different.]

[500 years ago, Long Tiankui, a martial arts genius from the Central Plains of Huaxia, was invincible in the world. He established a prosperous Great Xia Dynasty on the land of Huaxia with absolute strength.]

[From then on, China began to respect martial arts!]

[Three hundred years later, the royal family of the Great Xia Dynasty declined day by day. Coincidentally, there was a great drought. Years of disasters caused the people of the dynasty to live in poverty.]

[With the rise of the great clans, the various reclusive clans and martial arts sects also appeared one after another.]

[This is a sign that troubled times are about to arise.]

[Reincarnation world background introduction completed. Randomly drawing talent!]

[Congratulations on obtaining talent: Natural Warrior (green)]

[Natural Warrior (green): You have a good talent in martial arts. You are born with your own unique understanding of martial arts techniques and moves!]

[Starting from the 100-fold increase in origin energy talent, the effects of all your talents will be increased by 100 times!]

[Your talent, 'Natural Fighter' has been enhanced by 100 times by the origin energy and has been transformed into a purple talent, 'Martial Dao Supreme'!]

[Supreme Martial Artist (Purple): You are a natural Supreme Martial Artist. The speed at which you cultivate martial arts techniques and moves far exceeds that of ordinary people!]

[The rules of this reincarnation world are level 2. Reincarnators can bring two talents into the reincarnation world!]

[Will you bind talents: Martial Dao Supreme (purple), Infinite Deduction (gold)?]

A series of information flashed across Li Yueming's retina.

A natural born warrior.

Such a talent could be said to be tailor-made for martial arts.

Unfortunately, the starting level was relatively low.

There was only green.

Even after the 100-fold increase in origin energy, he only obtained a purple talent.

Fortunately, Li Yueming still had infinite deductions.

The two talents complemented each other. The effect should be quite good when used.

After fixing the talent.

Li Yueming closed his eyes again.

He packed up the information he had just bought.

Then, he began to use his talent to deduce.

In addition.

What was worth mentioning was...

When the deduction talent was activated.

Li Yueming couldn't predict the future.

Otherwise, there would be no end to the bug.

[0 years old: You were born in a border town near the northern coastal port of the Great Xia Dynasty!]

[Your grandfather is a small official in the coastal port, and your father is a well-known wealthy businessman in the town.

[However, you, who was born from a maidservant, were not very favored by father.]

[1 year old: You learned to walk and talk, but no one at home except your mother cares about you.]

[You're the youngest young master in the family, and at the same time, you're also the young master with the least say. Other than giving you a few pitiful taels of silver every month, the residence doesn't care about you at all!]

[4 years old: You have shown an extraordinary martial arts foundation. You often practice boxing and martial arts alone in the courtyard.]

years old: Your father noticed your talent. He didn't care about you at first, but he hired a martial arts teacher for you.]

years old: You easily defeated a martial artist teacher in a spar. Your extraordinary talent has finally attracted the attention of the whole family.] [When your grandfather heard the news, he even rushed home from the port.]

years old: You are getting stronger and stronger after practicing martial arts all year round. Your existence makes your other brothers feel a huge threat.]

years old: You casually took a few pastries to taste when you attended the party of the Mayor. When you got home that night, you started to vomit blood.

Before the doctor came, you were already on your last breath!]

years old: Your meridians are broken inch by inch, your martial arts talent is crippled, and you are once again recognized as a cripple in your family.]

years old: I heard that there are Gokudo Pugilists from the Free State and Holy Fire Missionaries from Western Europe who have landed at the port. It seems that they have clashed with the local martial arts gangs in the Central Plains.]

[You don't know the exact situation, but since then, the family's business seems to have deteriorated a lot.]

years old: You are unwilling to live your life like a coward. You want to put on a show of thirty years in the east and thirty years in the west, so you began to practice martial arts with all your might.]

years old: You're dead.]

He looked at the three blood-red words in the deduction.

Li Yueming was speechless.

He didn't expect that even though he had changed to a different world, he still hadn't lived past the threshold of fourteen years old.

He changed the data slightly.

Li Yueming continued to try to deduce it a few times.

The results were similar.

As long as he showed the slightest threat, someone in the family would think of ways to get rid of him.

There were few times that he could live to adulthood.

Forget it.

They were just a bunch of punks.

As long as Li Yueming wanted to.

There were ten thousand ways to kill them with just a flick of his finger.

As for the specific plan, it was better to wait until he officially entered the world.

He had been reincarnated into such a strange Mid Level Martial World.

It seemed quite interesting.

Chapter 46: A Maiden Who Had Just Become a Mother

On this day.

A baby boy was born in a border town called Gulou in the Great Xia Dynasty.

The boy was the fifth son of Li Fusheng, the head of the Li family in Gulou Town.

Logically speaking, it was a joyous occasion to have a new member.

The Li family should be making a big fuss.

In fact, the surrounding neighbors were already looking forward to it.

The recent years had been getting more and more difficult.

Many poor people did not even get to see a single meat dish in ten days and half a month.

Hence, the two of them were in a daze.

Everyone wanted to take this opportunity to go to the Li family's house to eat a table full of fish and meat.

However...

Old Master Li did not seem to care much about his youngest son.

Old Master Li only took time out of his busy schedule to take a look at the child when he was just born.

Then, she forgot about this child.

Not to mention the wedding banquet.

As for the reason...

Outsiders might not know, but everyone in the Li Residence, including the servants, knew about it.

One night.

The old master was drunk and indulged in sex. In his thirst, he pushed down a servant girl in the residence.

After he was done, he patted his butt and left.

However, he never expected that things would be so coincidental.

Not long after, the servant girl was found to be pregnant.

He had no choice.

Li Fusheng could only reluctantly take the servant girl as his concubine.

That was how the Fifth Young Master was born.

Under such circumstances, how could Li Fusheng love this son that he picked up for free?

It was already very good that he didn't ignore it.

At the same time.

Li Yueming slowly opened his eyes.

A few days after he was born, the mystery in his womb had ended.

He slowly stretched his body.

His gaze landed on his cheap mother in this life.

It was also a pale-faced, emaciated woman.

Moreover, he was no older than eighteen years old.

Good heavens.

This cheap mother was too young to be able to play the role of a son at all! Just as Li Yueming was thinking about how to drink milk to make him look like a gentleman...

The girl dragged her weak body and sat up on the bed.

She looked at Li Yueming, who was neither crying nor making a fuss on the bed, with a complicated expression. There was a long silence.

In the end.

The girl suddenly hugged Li Yueming in her arms.

She started to cry.

A year ago, she was just a maid in the residence whose parents had died.

At that time, she was still looking forward to a beautiful love.

She hoped that it would be like the storytelling of the storyteller, where a handsome man would appear one day to save her from danger. The two of them eloped to the ends of the earth and fell in love together.

But imagination was beautiful.

Reality was cruel.

She had become the mistress of the master overnight.

She even gave birth to an unfavored son for him.

Not only did he not feel a trace of warmth from the entire process, but he also did not feel a trace of warmth.

On the contrary, he received countless looks of disdain.

He thought of his future miserable fate.

The girl even wanted to jump into the well and commit suicide.

However, every time she saw the child in her arms.

In the end, he still softened his heart.

He hugged Li Yueming.

The young girl, who had just become a mother, said with a gentle expression, "Yue Yue, Mom's life has been ruined, but you haven't! Don't worry, I'll definitely raise you and do my best to give you a beautiful life!"

As he spoke.

The expression on the girl's face gradually became firm.

However, none of Li Fusheng's wives were easy to deal with.

First Madam's maiden family was from Qingdu City.

His parents and brothers were all officials.

Even Li Fusheng had to take note of her expression.

The Second Mistress's family was the daughter of the county head. Her family was powerful.

Third Mistress was also the daughter of a wealthy family.

Only the Fourth Mistress was born slightly worse.

However, it was also a slightly famous family in Gulou Town.

It could be said that no matter which room.

They were not people that Li Yueming, who was born as a servant girl, could afford to offend.

After Li Yueming was born.

Although the wives of several families were not too excessive.

But in private, he had embarrassed his cheap mother a lot.

When she was in confinement, she didn't even have anyone to take care of her.

In the middle of winter, she had to go to the yard to fetch water to wash Li Yueming's diapers.

However...

Even so.

His mother remained silent.

Since no one was taking care of Li Yueming, she had to take care of him herself.

No one sent her food, so she planted some vegetables in the yard to fill her stomach.

He really couldn't live anymore.

He ran to the front gate of the Li Residence and cursed.

Those ladies who cherished their feathers did not want to make a fool of themselves.

He could only pinch his nose and give something.

As time passed.

Everyone in the Imperial Residence was amazed by her strength.

However, only Li Yueming, who had been with her day and night, knew how many times his cheap mother had hidden under the blanket and cried secretly.

Time flew by.

Under the careful care of his cheap mother.

Li Yueming had successfully passed his first year in this world.

What was worth mentioning was...

On his first birthday.

This was the first time Li Yueming met his deadbeat father in this world.

The other party was a middle-aged man in his thirties.

She had a big belly.

Her face was full of bumps.

It was no wonder that his cheap mother would always look at him with hatred.

It was fine if an old cow ate young grass.

After eating and drinking to his heart's content, he threw it aside and did not care.

His conscience was really eaten by a dog.

Facing the scumbag.

Li Yueming felt that he was quite skilled.

Unfortunately, he was too young to put it into action.

In the second year.

Li Yueming was one year old.

He had already learned how to walk.

However, because his body had not fully developed.

He didn't even dare to exercise.

After all, the bones of a child's body were too soft.

If she exercised at this time, it might affect her growth.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Li Yueming had no choice but to suppress his itching heart.

They lay low and waited for an opportunity.

Judging from the current situation.

Both mother and son were living quite miserably.

Every month, he would occasionally receive some rations and monthly payment, plus some vegetables grown by his mother. He could barely ensure that he would not starve to death.

It was funny.

There was no place for them in the huge Li Residence.

Even the servants were living better lives than them.

Time flew by.

When he was two years old.

Li Yueming started to run.

As Li Fusheng's biological son, he was not favored.

His identity was still slightly tougher than his cheap mother.

The servants in the residence probably wouldn't even pay attention to his cheap mother if they saw her.

However, when she saw Li Yueming.

No matter what he thought.

On the surface, he still had to respectfully address him as Fifth Young Master.

With this layer of identity to rely on.

Li Yueming began to move around the Li Residence.

Of course.

The range of activity was very limited.

The school, the ancestral hall, and his cheapskate father's study.

As well as Li Yueming, who was in the room of many concubines, they were all banned.

However, Li Yueming was obviously not interested in those places.

His target was the Li Residence's library.

He was still too young.

There was a limit to what he could do.

The one with the highest benefits was naturally studying.

As long as he came into contact with the books in the library pavilion.

By infinitely deducing the power of this golden talent, he could quickly learn a huge amount of knowledge.

Chapter 47: Three years in the east, three years in the west, don't bully the young poor!_1

The Li Residence's library was located on the west side of the wing.

It was quite a distance away from the courtyard where Li Yueming and his cheap mother lived.

Therefore, he had no choice.

It wasn't easy for Li Yueming, who had a sensitive identity, to pass through several courtyards to read books in the library.

Fortunately, Li Yueming was very patient.

Every day, after helping his cheap mother with some work, he would run to the yard to play.

In the beginning, there would be servants reporting the situation to the first and second branches of the family.

After getting used to it, no one paid attention to it.

After all, the identity of a child was naturally confusing.

Daren might be wary of Daren.

But to a little kid who was only one or two years old.

It was probably just for fun.

Of course, no one would realize that Li Yueming was doing this on purpose.

After half a year of exploration.

Finally, when he was one and a half years old.

Li Yueming successfully expanded his range of activity to the mud pond outside the library pavilion.

One day.

After playing with the mud alone.

Li Yueming dragged his dirty body towards the library.

The manager of the library looked at Li Yue Ming with a somewhat unconcealable disdain.

There were a total of five young masters in the Li Residence.

Currently, only three were still in the residence.

The other two had already left for school.

The eldest young master of the Li Residence was already twelve years old this year.

Not to mention the handsome Wen Wener, he was also an exceptional talent who cultivated both civil and martial arts.

His strength had already reached the mid -stage Martial Apprentice.

Even among the younger generation of the entire Clear Spring County, he was very famous.

Second Young Master liked to read.

At such a young age, she was chosen by a famous teacher in Qingdu Port.

In the future, he would definitely become a high-ranking official.

The other two young masters were slightly inferior.

However, they were all good-looking talents and would not tarnish the reputation of the Li Residence.

Only the youngest Fifth Young Master in front of him.

He wandered around like a mud monkey every day. He didn't look like a young master at all.

It could only be said that he was indeed born by this servant.

He didn't inherit any of Old Master's wise and mighty bloodline.

Of course.

Although he thought so in his heart.

However, the steward's attitude on the surface was still very friendly.

No matter how much Li Yueming was disliked at home.

But they are also the blood of the old master.

As a servant.

As long as the steward's brain was not damaged, he would not make a face.

It is a great taboo for a servant to deceive his master.

Of course, the manager would not make such a low-level mistake.

He bowed politely.

The steward lowered his eyebrows and said, "Greetings, Fifth Young Master.

May I ask what is the matter?"

Li Yueming's eyes were innocent.

His tender finger pointed at the bookshelf behind the steward and said, "I want to play inside!"

The steward pondered for a moment.

After thinking for a moment, he said, "This is the library, Fifth Young Master... You're still young. Come and play again when you have the chance in the future!"

After all, the matriarch had already instructed him.

Li Yueming was not allowed to come into contact with anything related to the family.

Therefore, he had no choice.

Of course, the manager would not let Li Yueming enter the library pavilion.

Li Yueming was not surprised at all.

If he could enter the library so easily, he would not have to plan for so long.

After hearing the manager's rejection.

Li Yueming, who was already prepared, immediately began to make a scene.

He rolled around.

She was crying and wailing.

The mud on his clothes was flying everywhere.

It was unknown whether it was intentional or not, but many of them were thrown at the manager's face.

The steward retched for a long time.

The entire library pavilion was in chaos, and the surroundings were filled with splashing mud.

Such a farce naturally attracted the attention of many people.

Many servants heard the news and ran over to watch the show.

When he saw Li Yueming lying on the ground like a scoundrel.

They could not help but discuss in low voices.

The manager's face darkened.

If he could, he would have picked Li Yueming up and beaten him up.

However, under everyone's watchful eyes.

He couldn't do anything to Li Yueming.

The crying attracted the attention of a youth in the library pavilion.

The young man's name was Li Ziyue. He was the third young master of the Li Residence who was only nine years old.

After hearing the commotion.

Li Ziyue walked out of the room with a book in her hand like a little adult.

He glanced at his 'little brother' who was throwing a tantrum and rolling around on the ground, then glanced at the servants and maidservants who were whispering to each other.

“What are you doing?” Li Ziyue said angrily.”

Although the two of them rarely interacted with each other.

However, they were still living under the same roof.

Li Ziyue had naturally heard of this half-brother.

A few bastards that his mother often mentioned...

Although Li Ziyue was young.

However, under the subtle influence of the power struggle in the Li Residence.

In some aspects, he was obviously more mature than the children of ordinary families.

Therefore, he had no choice.

When he saw Li Yueming throwing a tantrum.

His first reaction was to berate him.

After all, he was still his brother in name.

He was treated like a monkey by so many servants.

As his brother, he was also flustered.

After all, he wasn't the only one who lost face because of Li Yueming.

And the face of all the Li family members.

She heard his voice.

Li Yueming raised his head and glanced at him.

“Sob, sob, sob, I want to go inside and play!!”

Li Ziyue turned to the steward behind her and said, “If he wants to go in and play, can't we just let him in?”

The steward's expression was a little stiff.

To be honest.

Thirty years was too long, three years was more like it.

At that time, this group of bullsh * t fellows would all pay the price for their actions today.

After obtaining the authority to enter the library pavilion.

Li Yueming didn't act rashly for the time being.

After all, his actions this time had already attracted the attention of many people.

According to the information in the deduction.

If he was willing to be a useless person for the rest of his life.

Then the Li family might not be able to tolerate him.

However, once he showed any signs of threat.

The madam of the family wanted her descendants to have one less competitor to inherit the family property in the future.

They would definitely get rid of him without hesitation.

Just like that.

Until half a year later.

Li Yueming was three years old.

After confirming that there were no eyes watching him in the dark, he began to enter the library pavilion intermittently to play.

Every time, he would play in the library pavilion for a while.

When he was tired of playing, he would casually find a few books to read.

In the manager's eyes.

Li Yueming hadn't gone to school yet.

He probably didn't even know how to read or write.

It was impossible to learn anything.

But in reality.

Li Yueming had unknowingly learned a lot of knowledge.

Chapter 48: At the age of six, his martial arts physique had just been formed!_!

According to the records in the Li Residence's library.

Li Yueming learned more detailed information about this world.

The Great Xia Dynasty was respected for its martial arts.

After so many years of inheritance, the culture of martial arts had already seeped into the minds and blood of all the Xia people.

Although practicing literature could also get an official position.

However, in terms of status, he was only able to carry the shoes of powerful martial artists.

Under such circumstances.

Martial artists were divided into six levels: Martial Apprentice, Martial Master, Martial King, Martial Grandmaster, Martial Emperor, and Martial Saint.

Martial arts apprentices train their bodies.

He trained every inch of his muscles with his tenacious will.

Once trained to a certain level, one could possess unimaginable strength.

In the end, a Martial Apprentice could split mountains and rocks with a single punch.

According to the knowledge of the outside world.

After reaching the realm of splitting mountains with one punch, a Martial Apprentice could be promoted to a higher level of Martial Master.

A Martial Master focused on training a stream of inner Qi.

He learned a cultivation method to control Inner Qi and control the aura in his body to condense it.

Through internal energy techniques, he guided it to circulate in his body.

This way, not only could he widen his meridians.

It could also continuously temper the martial artist's body.

He had cultivated it to the great success realm.

His inner Qi was released more than five meters away from his body, and he could easily pierce through steel with his aura.

Only then could it be considered as the final success.

Then, he could advance to a higher level of Martial King and start the next step of cultivation.

A Martial King needed to temper his bones and skin.

Every inch of skin and every bone on his body was tempered to the extreme.

It was tempered into an ultimate physique that could not be broken by iron or slashed by knives.

They could transcend the scope of ordinary humans and possess an inhuman power that could uproot mountains.

A Martial King Realm expert alone was an army.

One against a hundred, one against a thousand was nothing.

As for the higher-level martial arts grandmasters and martial arts saints.

There were only a few martial artists of this level in the entire Great Xia Empire.

Martial arts grandmasters might be fine.

Usually, a second-rate sect would have at least one or two Grandmasters.

Martial Emperors and Martial Saints were rare.

It was truly a rare occurrence.

Naturally, the Li family would not be able to come into contact with or understand it.

After understanding all this.

Li Yueming also had an idea.

In his previous life, when he died, he was probably at most equivalent to this world's Martial Master Realm.

Indeed, the Origin Source Laws evolved from different World Sequences were also different.

In the wasteland, even if Li Yueming tried his best to cultivate the breathing technique.

When polished to the extreme, it was equivalent to the level of an ordinary passerby in the martial arts world.

However, this didn't make Li Yueming feel defeated.

Instead, it made him even more motivated.

After all, the higher the level of the world's power.

In the end, the energy that was returned to him would be stronger.

Just this little benefit was enough to make him excited.

Three years later.

Li Yueming began to train his body.

There was no fixed training method for a Martial Apprentice.

As long as one could break a mountain rock with one punch, they could become an official martial artist.

Of course.

Most sects had their own training methods.

It could help the sect disciples reach the Martial Warrior Realm faster.

However, Li Yueming obviously didn't have such conditions.

Fortunately, in his previous life, Li Yueming had created his own breathing technique.

Coupled with the breathing technique.

As well as the two high-level talents of Infinite Deduction and Martial Dao Supreme, one gold and one purple.

Li Yueming had opened up his Conception and Governor Meridians.

Many things were self-taught.

He didn't need anyone to teach him anything.

The only pity was that his current body was too young.

He was afraid of hurting his own origin.

Therefore, many times, Li Yue did not dare to squeeze too much.

Ever since he started training.

Li Yueming stopped walking around.

He stayed in his own small courtyard and did not step out of it.

In the beginning, his mother was very worried.

After all, the child was still young.

He should be at a lively and active age.

How could he suddenly lock himself in his room?

One day.

His mother found a booklet.

On it were portraits of children playing with each other.

There were even some words beside it.

It was similar to a child's introductory storybook.

His mother pointed at the portrait and said, "Yue Yue, look, these children all have friends. Although your identity is special, you can't keep yourself locked in the courtyard, right?"

Li Yueming took a glance.

"Mom, do you know what this book is about?"

His mother had been an orphan since she was young.

If he really couldn't survive, he would sell himself to the Li Residence to make a living.

He only knew a few simple words.

Naturally, he knew nothing about the words in the picture album.

"What's the content?" he asked with a puzzled expression."

Li Yueming hands behind his back as he said, "Bald Qiang and Big Bear are good friends. One day, Bald Qiang went out to cut trees and asked Big Bear to help him look after the house. After cutting the tree, Bald Qiang found that Big Bear had stolen everything in his house, even the underwear that Grandma sewed!"

"So the content of the booklet is to educate children not to trust anyone!"

His cheap mother was speechless.

She looked down at the picture book.

He then looked up at Li Yueming.

After a long silence, he asked in bewilderment, "Really?"

“Of course it’s true!” Li Yueming laughed.” Hearing his answer.

His mother was even more confused.

He frowned and thought for a moment. Suddenly, he asked,“How can you read?”

Hearing this question.

“Who knows?” Li Yueming scratched his head. Maybe it’s because I’m more talented?”

Of course, his mother didn’t believe him.

She picked up the booklet.

He looked around the words on it.

Finally, he pointed at a word and said,“Then tell me, how do you pronounce this word?””

“Mom!” Li Yueming glanced at her and said.”

His cheap mother was speechless.

“The word you’re referring to means ‘mother’!” Li Yueming added.” His mother was stunned.

After a long silence, he muttered softly,“”So this is the word ‘ready...’”

At this moment.

She finally believed that Li Yueming could read.

He didn’t know where Li Yueming learned it from.

However, this was a great thing after all, so his mother naturally wouldn’t ask about it.

Just like that.

Li Yueming started to keep a low profile in his own courtyard.

As a reincarnator.

The most difficult period for him was the infant period.

At this moment, his body had yet to fully develop.

Even if Li Yueming was the reincarnation of an immortal, he would still be able to survive.

There was no way to build a castle on such a young body.

Of course.

Basic training was still necessary.

However, he had to be careful not to overdo it all at once.

Since his mother found out that Li Yueming could read, she didn’t stop him anymore.

His son had a secret.

As a mother who was close to her, she naturally knew.

Unfortunately, she could only take care of Li Yueming's basic diet and daily life.

She could only keep it a secret for him.

Time continued to pass.

In the blink of an eye, Li Yueming was six years old.

In these three years.

Li Yueming made a training plan based on his infinite deduction talent.

Basically, the intensity of his daily exercise was at the edge of the limit that his body could withstand.

Coupled with the talent of the Martial Dao Supreme.

Step by step.

Li Yueming easily polished his body to an extremely exaggerated level.

An ordinary Martial Apprentice would be able to brag about breaking a 200-kilogram boulder with a single punch.

However, Li Yueming was only six years old.

A punch could easily shatter a boulder weighing more than 500 kilograms.

According to the system's original deduction, the system was executed. This year, his father would notice the martial arts talent he had shown.

In fact, that was indeed the case.

One day, when Li Yueming was practicing his squats in the yard, the big-bellied cheapskate dad happened to witness everything.

Although he was just an ordinary person and did not understand the twists and turns of martial arts.

However, even if he had never eaten pork, he had seen pigs run.

There were a few guards around him who were Martial Apprentices.

Thus, he still had the ability to see through him.

When he saw the dense layer of sweat on Li Yueming's forehead, he was shocked.

Li Fusheng was already a little surprised.

After all, Li Yueming was just a child in his eyes.

He had never received any systematic education since he was young.

However, it was under such circumstances.

Li Yueming actually knew how to polish his body.

And he's working so hard.

It was enough to prove that it was different from the others.

He looked at Doll in the courtyard.

Li Fusheng muttered to himself, "Have I underestimated No. 5 all these years? Should he hire a teacher to teach him martial arts?"

Chapter 49: Li Fusheng Was Furious!_1

He looked at Li Yueming, who had a determined expression on his face.

Li Fusheng muttered to himself, "Should we find a teacher for No.

He had quite a few children.

He didn't really care about one more or one less.

Therefore, he had no choice.

That was why he was indifferent to Li Yueming and his mother.

However...

At this moment.

He saw Li Yueming training alone in the side courtyard.

After six years, Li Fusheng finally noticed that he had a son.

That night.

Li Fusheng decided to recruit a teacher for Li Yueming.

After hearing this news.

The other concubines at home naturally wouldn't do it.

However, Li Fusheng was still the head of the Li family.

Therefore, he had no choice.

After scolding the concubines.

Li Fusheng found a Martial Apprentice at the peak of Martial Apprentice Realm to teach Li Yueming martial arts.

He also arranged for Li Yueming to go to the school in town to study and write after school started at the end of autumn.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming replied perfunctorily.

Reading and writing were just a waste of his time.

As a reincarnator.

He didn't need to learn these messy things at all.

As for learning martial arts...

If the master he invited was a martial master, he might be interested.

What the hell was with inviting a Martial Apprentice?

Teach him how to exercise?

Therefore, he had no choice.

When Li Fusheng held his hand and expressed his father's teachings.

He wanted him to study hard with his master and strive to assist his brothers in the future and make more contributions to the Li family.

At first, Li Yueming was a little patient.

After that, she replied coldly that she didn't need it.

Then, he turned around and left.

Li Fusheng was left on the spot with an awkward expression.

Although Li Yueming had directly rejected the idea of going to school.

However, it was obvious that Li Fusheng's decision wouldn't be easily changed.

He had to learn even if he wanted to.

Don't want to learn?

You have to learn it even if you press it!

As the head of the family.

Li Fusheng's words were like an imperial edict at home.

Not to mention that Li Yueming was just a good-for-nothing son of his.

Half a month later.

The high-level Martial Apprentice teacher that Li Fusheng had hired for Li Yueming had officially arrived to teach.

However, Li Yueming was too lazy to even leave the courtyard.

A group of servants took turns to fight.

In the end, he couldn't even open the door of Li Yueming's courtyard.

Not to mention seeing Li Yueming in person.

The high-level apprentice waited in the living room for two hours.

In the end, he was so angry that he didn't even give face to the Li Residence.

The teacup shattered.

He cursed in front of Li Fusheng, "I agreed to take in a disciple because I have some ties with your Li family. For this reason, I even specially came to visit you personally. In the end, you actually let a little kid fool me?"

The martial Apprentice was a lecturer at the Henghai martial Arts Hall. He had a good background and strength.

Li Fusheng was scolded until his face was covered in dust.

However, he did not even dare to fart.

The Great Xia Dynasty was no joke.

The status of a martial artist was higher than that of an ordinary person, not to mention that the Li Residence was the one who had been unkind from the beginning to the end.

In the end.

Li Fusheng was scolded for half an hour.

When the other party left.

In order not to offend the other party, Li Fusheng even took nearly a thousand taels of silver before he managed to settle the matter.

After the Martial Apprentice left.

Including Li Fusheng.

The faces of everyone in the Li Residence were extremely gloomy.

Lady Wang was afraid that things weren't serious enough, so she added fuel to the fire, "Old Master, look, I told you that Fifth Brother is a piece of mud that can't be helped, right? You won't believe it, but now it's great. I've offended Lord Wang of the Martial Arts Hall!"

The Second Mistress also said with a smile that was not a smile, "Yo, big sister, don't say that. Old Master has high hopes for Fifth Brother!" Third Madam saw that Li Fusheng did not look too good.

He opened his mouth.

In the end, he did not dare to continue stimulating her.

At this moment.

Li Fusheng's face was as black as a pot lid.

Just now, he apologized again and again.

In the end, he secretly stuffed nearly a thousand taels of silver.

In the end, he was still sprayed with saliva by the Martial Apprentice.

The most important thing was...

Not only did he lose face from being scolded.

He had even offended a martial artist who was on good terms with the Li family.

This deal was a total loss!

And the person who caused all of this to happen never showed his face at all.

Li Fusheng wiped the spit off his face.

Finally.

He exploded.

He grabbed the stool by his feet and said, "This little bastard is really a bastard. If I, Li Fusheng, don't punish him today, won't this bastard be lawless in the future?"

As he spoke.

Li Fusheng carried a stool.

He rushed towards the side courtyard aggressively.

He knew that Li Yueming would definitely have a problem with him as his father.

However, he didn't expect Li Yueming to make him lose face in front of so many people.

If he didn't vent his anger today.

Li Fusheng estimated that his life would be shortened by ten years.

After watching Li Fusheng leave.

The few madams in the courtyard all had gloating expressions.

When he heard that Li Fusheng was going to hire a teacher for Li Yueming... They were really worried that Li Yueming would threaten their son's position if he grew up.

However, he never expected this kid to be so ungrateful.

Even martial artists dared to refuse to accept disciples. Was there a fool who didn't know what was good for him?

Lady Wang tried her best to control her expression.

"Do you want to come with me to take a look?" Old Master is so angry that his health is not good!"

Hearing this.

The other three madams also stood up.

Usually, they were very bored staying in the residence.

It was rare to see a good show.

Of course, they wouldn't miss it.

When the four madams came to Li Yueming's courtyard to watch the show.

Li Fusheng had already gathered all the servants in the Li Residence.

The servants held wooden sticks, stones, iron knives, and other items in their hands as weapons.

They waited for Li Fusheng's order.

They were ready to rush forward and knock down this small wooden door.

He looked at the side courtyard that still had no movement.

Li Fusheng gritted his teeth." Little brat, if you don't come out, don't blame me for being rude! ""

However, no matter how much he threatened and tempted her, there was no reply from the side courtyard.

Li Fusheng instantly felt his heart trembling with anger.

He looked at the tightly shut door.

He finally lost his last bit of patience.

He waved his hand angrily. "Go! Tear down this broken door! I want to see where this bastard can run to today!"

The servants, who had been waiting for a long time, rushed forward when they heard this.

He waved all kinds of weapons in an attempt to push open the wooden door in one go.

However, just as the servants were about to rush to the door.

The door of the side room, which was originally tightly shut, suddenly opened without any warning.

He looked at the crowd of servants outside the door.

"What do you want?" Li Yueming asked coldly.

He heard Li Yueming's voice.

He saw that the door to the side room was already open.

The servants stopped.

After all, the order they received was to open the door to the side room.

At this moment, Li Yueming opened the door himself.

The group of servants heaved a sigh of relief.

Not far away.

He looked at the indifferent Li Yueming.

Li Fusheng was so furious that he had lost his mind.

Taking two deep breaths, Li Fusheng said in exasperation, "What are you waiting for? Tie this dog up and send him to the ancestral hall! I, Li Fusheng, am going to cripple this unfilial son in front of my ancestor today!"

Chapter 50: Sweeping Through the Li Residence (revised version)

Li Fusheng waved his hand.

The servants immediately rushed towards Li Yueming like wolves and tigers.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming sneered.

He had lived in this family for a few years.

Li Yueming had been completely disappointed with this family that only cared about benefits and had no friendship.

Previously, when Li Fusheng introduced him to the teachers.

He thought that his cheap father suddenly had a conscience and wanted to compensate him.

In the end, his words implied that he wanted Li Yueming to be a stepping stone for his eldest and second son. She had not considered him at all.

That's why.

Li Yueming rejected him directly.

However, he never expected that...

On the basis that he had clearly rejected.

Li Fusheng, this old thing, actually dared to invite the so-called Martial Apprentice Master into the courtyard.

He planned to force Li Yueming to learn.

Don't blame Li Yueming for being merciless.

However...

At this moment.

A thin figure suddenly rushed out from behind Li Yueming.

His cheap mother stood in front of him to protect him, holding a rusty kitchen knife tightly in her hand.

He waved it a few times.

He glared at her with bloodshot eyes and said fiercely, "Who dares to touch my son?"

He saw a shiny kitchen knife.

Many of the servants slowed down.

After all, they were not stupid.

They were just a group of workers who received a salary.

Although women definitely couldn't stop them, if they were accidentally stabbed...

That would not be worth it.

Hence, the two of them were in a daze.

The servants were really frightened by their cheap mother's fearless aura.

She froze on the spot, hesitating and not daring to come any closer.

Seizing this opportunity.

His mother looked at Li Fusheng who was standing outside the crowd and said hysterically, "Li Fusheng, it's fine if you don't treat me as a human, but now you won't even let go of your own son?"

Even a vicious tiger doesn't eat its cubs. Are you even worse than a beast? If you touch my son, I swear I won't let you off even if I become a ghost!"

He looked at the hysterical woman with black hair.

Li Fusheng didn't say anything.

Lady Wang suddenly laughed and said disdainfully, "Where did this crazy woman come from? You're just a servant girl. When you were starving to the point of death, the Li Residence was kind enough to bring you back. In the end, you're eating and using the residence's food now, and you're even starting to devour your master?"

His mother bit her lip.

His face was a little pale.

However, he wisely ignored Lady Wang's mockery.

His eyes were still fixed on Li Fusheng.

No matter what.

The men still had the final say in the Li Residence.

Therefore, he had no choice.

In her opinion, all the decisions were in Li Fusheng's hands.

He felt her gaze.

Li Fusheng frowned but ignored her.

Instead, he whispered to one of the guards, "Throw her corpse to the back of the mountain later. Remember to find a monk to release her!"

Obviously.

Li Fusheng didn't have any extra feelings for Li Yueming and his cheap mother.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have ignored the mother and son for five to six years.

The guard nodded slightly to show that he understood.

After giving his instructions.

Li Fusheng's expression was cold as he said, "Hurry up and charge! The first to charge at the front will be rewarded with fifty taels of silver!"

He heard that there was a reward.

The servants finally had enough enthusiasm.

They rushed towards the door.

His cheap mother was trembling.

It wasn't cowardice.

It was not fear.

Instead, it was hatred, deep hatred!

The world was bleak.

He was also desolate.

In a situation where there was no power or influence, most of the time, a person's life seemed to be worse than a dog's.

The so-called kinship was just a piece of paper thinner than paper.

Attracted by the huge reward of fifty taels of silver, the servants did not care that they were just two orphans and widows who had no one to rely on.

Anyway, he could just tie them up and sell them for money.

Regarding this.

Li Yueming naturally wouldn't stand on ceremony.

He stretched out his hand and gently pulled.

He easily pulled his thin and helpless mother behind him.

Li Yueming gestured at her fist, which wasn't very big, and grinned, "Alright, stop crying. Watch how your son beats them up!"

As he spoke.

Li Yueming took a few steps forward and crossed the threshold. Then, he suddenly jumped up and rushed into the servants.

Before anyone could come back to their senses.

Li Yueming had already clenched his fists and punched out a few times.

"Bang bang bang!"

A muffled sound was heard.

The seven or eight servants seemed to have suddenly bumped into a mud truck.

He was sent flying a few meters away by his punch!

He fell to the ground and did not know whether he was alive or dead. Watching Li Yueming approach to the office

Only then did the other servants wake up from their dreams. Someone subconsciously smashed his long stick at Li Yueming's back.

"Bang!"

There was another loud bang.

The servant's entire arm was numb from the shock.

The rod fell to the ground.

However, this strike of his...

Li Yueming was still unharmed.

In the next second.

However, he saw a leg kicking at him.

At the critical moment.

The servant subconsciously raised his hand to defend himself.

However, before he could raise his arm.

His chest had already caved in from the force of Li Yueming's kick.

Suffering such a heavy blow.

The servant instantly lay on the ground as dead as a doornail.

Li Yueming didn't even look at him.

He stood up and walked towards Li Fusheng.

All the servants on both sides would be killed by him in one blow.

In just a few minutes.

In the blink of an eye, more than half of the forty to fifty servants in the Li Residence were taken care of by Li Yueming.

The remaining seven or eight fish that had escaped the net were so scared that they knelt on the ground and trembled.

In the surroundings.

Whether it was Li Yueming's cheap mother or Li Fusheng himself.

Or some of the concubines who came here to watch the show.

All of them were so shocked that their eyeballs popped out!

God...

What did they see?

A six-year-old child actually beat up 40 to 50 adults?

Was this world crazy or were they crazy? But no matter what they think,

Li Yueming's face was still expressionless.

He patted the dust off his hands and walked through the pile of corpses. Li Yueming walked straight to Li Fusheng and said, "ISO what exactly do you want?"

He could still smell the blood on the young man's body.

Li Fusheng's face was pale, and cold sweat dripped down his face.

Li Yueming didn't just kill a few dozen chickens.

There were forty to fifty people!

How could a child who was not even seven years old have such terrifying strength?

He swallowed his saliva.

Li Fusheng turned around and glanced at the two strong guards behind him.

He noticed that there was no other abnormal expression on the guard's face other than a little surprise.

Only then did he feel a little more confident.

These two were martial artists that the Li family had spent a lot of money to recruit from the Qingdu Port Martial Arts School.

After all, the world was not peaceful these days.

No matter whether it was traveling or traveling.

Without the protection of an expert, he was just a two-legged sheep in the eyes of the bandits and bandits.

Therefore, he had no choice.

As long as a family had some power, they would go to the dojo to hire a few martial artists as guards.

The guards who could follow Li Fusheng all year round.

Naturally, they were all good Martial Apprentices, and they could smash a few hundred kilograms of rocks with a single punch.

They had combat strength that ordinary people could not match.

With the two of them as trump cards.

Li Fusheng barely managed to maintain his composure on the surface. He said sternly, "Father...I didn't mean anything else. I just went through a lot of trouble to find you a master to teach you martial arts. Why are you not coming out?"

It sounded like he was still questioning her.

However, it was obvious.

At this moment, Li Fusheng was already afraid.

He looked at Li Yueming as if he was looking at a monster!

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

A pair of eyes stared straight at him.

She was being stared at by those eyes that were as calm as water.

It was rare.

Li Fusheng actually felt a sense of heaviness from Li Yueming's body!

It was as if the person standing in front of him was not a six-year-old youth.

Instead, it was an incomparably heavy behemoth!

After being stared at for a long time.

Li Fusheng was scared silly.

Her emotions were on the verge of collapse.

Just as Li Fusheng was about to give in to the pressure and was about to cry and beg for mercy...

Finally.

The two Martial Apprentices behind Li Fusheng stood up.

One of the muscular men sized up Li Yueming and said, “I didn’t expect that a six-year-old could develop such a strong body. As expected, heroes come from young people!”

Hearing this.

Li Yueming’s gaze also withdrew from Li Fusheng.

In fact, Li Yueming didn’t care about anyone in the Li Residence at all.

Whether they were dead or alive, they were just ant-like passersby to him.

As long as she didn’t provoke him.

The reason why she was holding onto Li Fu Sheng was because she wanted to get justice for her mother.

After all, this scumbag wouldn’t recognize anyone once he pulled up his pants.

If he didn’t teach him a deep lesson, wouldn’t his cheap mother’s grievances be in vain?

In reality.

Li Yueming was more interested in the two martial artists beside Li Fusheng.

After all, his main mission in this world was to obtain power and influence.

Therefore, he had no choice.

For a long time in the future.

Those martial artists who were at the peak were the opponents that Li

Yueming really needed to understand.

He casually crushed Li Fusheng’s legs.

He threw it on the ground like a dead dog.

Li Yueming looked at the two martial artists and said, “Oh? May I know what the two of you need?”

The muscular man looked at Li Fusheng, who was paralyzed.

His expression immediately darkened.

‘Not really,’ he said with a smile. ‘I just want you to know that it’s best to hide your sharpness before your fists are hard enough!’”

As he spoke.

The muscular man suddenly exerted strength from his waist. He kicked.

This kick was made in anger, and it was very sharp and powerful.

It could shatter a 250 -kilogram boulder!

After all, Li Yueming was still so ruthless to Li Fusheng even when the two of them had already stood up.

To them, this was an extreme provocation.

The strong man naturally wouldn't hold back.

Just as the muscular man thought that Li Yueming was about to pay the price for his arrogance.

What happened next shocked him!

However, Li Yueming arrived first.

His hands were like two iron pliers that grabbed his right leg.

He directly relied on his bull-like body to forcefully receive his kick!!!
