Chapter 421: Attention, at ease, the army has just formed! 1

Looking at Li Yueming who was not far away, You Aotian's smile suddenly froze.

He exclaimed, "Although it's a little strange, this is clearly the unique aura of Hua Zhen Realm..."
You broke through again?

This relationship was impossible!

If he remembered correctly, Li Yueming had just broken through to the Source Sea Realm not long ago, right?

How long had it been?

If he remembered correctly, it had only been two years.

In the end, he had already become a True Form Realm cultivator?

Even with You Aotian's experience and knowledge.

At this moment, he also felt his head buzzing.

A sixteen or seventeen-year-old True Form Realm expert, was this really something a human could do?

At this moment, it was not that he did not know that there were many monstrous geniuses in the Cultivator Academy.

However, Li Yueming, a sixteen or seventeen-year-old True Form Realm expert, was unique to Scorpion Daddy.

However, no matter how unwilling You Aotian was to believe it.

The truth was right in front of him.

Li Yueming did not deliberately hide his aura. After all, the trouble he was causing in Zhenbei City was neither big nor small. He still needed his cheap master to help him solve it.

Undoubtedly, showing off his talent and strength was the simplest and most direct way to convince him.

As expected.

After discovering that Li Yueming had become a cultivator of the True Form Realm.

You Aotian, who came back to his senses, immediately did not care about the special treatment.

After all, Li Yueming's success was also very good news for You Aotian! Originally, You Aotian had already regarded Li Yueming as half an heir.

After all, he had to retire when he reached his age.

In the future, the Northern Battlefront Army would have to rely on his disciple to take care of them.

Therefore, You Aotian said happily, “Little Li, your talent is simply too good. It seems that even the stars in the sky are not your match!” A few days ago, Marquis South Peak wrote to ask me about your recent situation. If I knew you had broken through to truth realisation state, I would have written a few more words!”

Li Yueming smiled and said calmly, “It’s all because of your good teaching, Master!”

In fact, ever since he brought a group of disciples to the border, You Aotian had already adopted a laid-back attitude towards their growth.

After all, in You Aotian’s opinion, although the flowers that had been carefully cultivated were beautiful.

However, they often could not withstand the wind and rain, and the slightest setback would lead to withering.

Only by growing on its own early could the flowers that finally grew be able to withstand the ravages of the storm.

However, You Aotian just liked to listen to it!

Although he did not teach his students how to cultivate and train, he was still a little confused.

However, he did not let down his worries.

Li Yueming’s compliment hit the nail on the head.

For the time being, You Aotian knew that among the younger generation of the Great Zhou, there was no one who could break through faster than Li Yueming.

This made him, as his master, proud!

After grinning, You Aotian quickly realized that he seemed to have forgotten about the important matter. He hurriedly coughed twice and said seriously, “Cough cough..Although breaking through was a good thing, he had to lay a solid foundation. He must not be eager for quick success. Only by laying a solid foundation could he grow healthily in the future!”

Without waiting for Li Yueming’s reply.

You Aotian took this opportunity to bring the topic back. “However, Yue Ming, you can’t continue with your little kitchen business. Otherwise, you’ll lead the scout battalion to live a good life while the infantry and archers can only watch from the side. It’s really inappropriate!”

“If this continues, the hearts of the people will scatter. The army will not be easy to manage!”

Initially, You Aotian was prepared to drag Li Yueming along and criticize him.

After all, the higher-ups of the Northern Battlefront Army had been complaining to him for the past half a month, and he had been busy making strategic policies, so he had ignored them.

Now that he finally stopped, he had to run over to clean up Li Yueming’s mess.

This was because of Li Yueming and the Li family.

If it were anyone else, they wouldn’t have received such good treatment.

However, Li Yueming had broken through again, which greatly disrupted You Aotian's rhythm.

At this moment, he didn't criticize her anymore. He decided to change it to a discussion.

How precious is my disciple? He had to cherish it!

Hearing You Aotian's words, Li Yueming's face was expressionless.

The reason why he let Tian Liang and the others give special treatment in public every day, he naturally had his own plans.

Otherwise, if he really didn't want anyone to know...

He could have changed to a safer place and turned it into a canteen. There was no need to cause so much trouble.

As for the purpose...

Didn't he achieve it now?

His master was a busy person at the moment. His identity was more sensitive at the moment, and it was not suitable for him to walk around.

If he wanted to achieve his goal, he had to use some small tricks.

Thus, Li Yueming pretended to think for a while before saying, "Master, this matter is actually like this... Recently, I've improved a new training method. Now, I'm using the scout camp for training, so this special treatment is still necessary... How about this, Master, you come with me to take a look at the training method I've come up with. If you think it's not bad, perhaps you can promote it to the entire army in the future!"

Li Yueming was tinkering with a new training method.

He had heard about this a month ago.

However, he had always thought that Li Yueming had only changed some unimportant branches and leaves on the basis of the original training method..

Chapter 422: Attention, at ease, the army has just formed! 2

A new official has three fires...

This was normal.

However, when he heard Li Yueming personally tell him, You Aotian realized that something was wrong.

What the f * ck?

What was this unconventional disciple doing?

Don't cripple the 5,000 scouts!

As an elite in the army, it was not easy to train a scout!

Even though the scouts in Zhenbei City were not elites, they were still reserve troops that could be used after a little reorganization!

Those who had basic scout training could still enter the battlefield after a period of assault training.

If all of them were created, You Aotian would definitely spit out two mouthfuls of blood.

He suppressed the uneasiness and nervousness in the depths of his heart.

You Aotian was actually a little anxious, but he still forced himself to calm down and said, "Then let's not talk about it for now. Hurry up and bring me to take a look!"

Although he had an ominous premonition in his heart.

However, he still had a little hope for his precious disciple.

Maybe things weren't as bad as he thought?

After all, this disciple was able to reach this step because he had fought with real swords and spears.

He probably wouldn't do something as ridiculous as pushing the training method to the scout camp.

He noticed that You Aotian's expression was a little ugly.

Li Yueming nodded.

However, he was still calm and not worried at all.

It had been almost a month since the first training of the scout camp.

In the past month or so, the soldiers of the scout camp had been keeping an eye on the cold weather and the wind and rain. Every morning, they would get up before dawn to train.

He stood in a military posture in the morning and did physical training after breakfast.

After lunch, they would rest for two hours and continue their physical training in the afternoon.

If the training in the day did not meet the standard, they would have to work overtime at night to stand in the military posture.

Although the whole set of combined punches did not achieve the effect he wanted, it was still a true rebirth.

After all, in Li Yueming's opinion, the will of the army could not be scattered among individuals.

It had to be condensed into a whole.

Only when a group of people turned into one person.

The army was the true steel torrent that devoured everything.

It was enough to trample everything in the world!

And the training he was doing now was to train the scout battalion in this direction.

When he was on the battlefield, he would never go west if he told him to go east. He would never run away if he told him to fight to the death.

War...

In fact, most of the time, it wasn't about strength or weapons.

Most of the time, it was about willpower.

After all, in a battle where both strength and weapons had the upper hand, even a dog could win as the commander.

The purpose of training and the existence of generals was to turn the situation around by relying on tactics and fighting will when they were at a disadvantage in terms of strength and weapons.

Of course, Li Yueming hoped that people would understand his opinion.

Therefore, he did not explain his thoughts and ideas to anyone from the beginning to the end.

He only needed to quietly get things done.

Then, he would let others see the results.

Now, he only needed to convince You Aotian.

Nothing else was important.

.0.

A few minutes later, Li Yueming brought You Aotian to the training ground where the sky had just brightened.

In the vast snow, 5,000 scouts stood in a uniform formation.

Each of them stood straight like a club in a cornfield.

When You Aotian saw this, his eyes widened. In an instant, he felt his vision darken. He immediately closed his eyes and said, "Scouts pay attention to flexibility on the battlefield. What are you doing? To let them become straw puppets that were shot to death by random arrows?"

This was a rough evaluation of You Aotian.

Li Yueming wasn't too surprised. After all, it was quite unbelievable for a group of people to stand in the snow.

It was hard to imagine the true purpose of this if one did not have an understanding of this aspect.

Therefore, Li Yueming didn't explain. He just smiled and said, "How is this possible? I'm letting them experience the biting cold of our Northlands. Otherwise, how would they know what it means to put themselves in their shoes?!"

Seeing that You Aotian wanted to say something, he hesitated.

He wanted to say something but didn't know where to start.

Li Yueming could not help but add, "Don't worry. These days, the commoners still have to work in the fields. These guys are still cultivators. They won't freeze!"

Hearing this, You Aotian rolled his eyes.

To be honest, he had always felt that his temper was not good.

However, ever since he had Li Yueming as his disciple, You Aotian realized that his temper could actually be very good.

It seemed like he had been forced to do this!

He was actually able to hold his breath at this moment. He resisted the urge to curse and took a few deep breaths before saying, "No, that won't do. If you let a group of scouts stand here, who will go to the battlefield to gather intelligence?"

Li Yueming knew that teasing him was enough.

You Aotian would probably get anxious if he continued teasing her, so he hurriedly explained, "Standing in a military posture is only one part of the training. There is also physical training at other times!" At this moment, the two of them were still discussing.

Ding Yi, who was not far away, stood up and said loudly, "Attention!"

Immediately, the scouts raised their heads and puffed out their chests in unison. Their eyes were filled with vigor, like unsheathed swords.

This sudden turn of events gave You Aotian a fright.

He was originally prepared to reason with Li Yueming, but he couldn't care less now.. He asked curiously, "What are you trying to do?"

Chapter 423: Attention, at ease, the army has just formed!_3

As a professional guide, Li Yueming was able to recognize his identity.

' This is part of the training. As long as the captain shouts attention, the soldiers will receive the order. Everyone has to raise their heads and look forward! ""

As a veteran on the battlefield, he was a very experienced fighter.

You Aotian didn't quite understand why Li Yueming had sent a group of scouts to stand guard in this snowy land.

However, he could understand the command to stand at attention.

After all, the army also needed to give orders and convey information.

However, the ones who gave orders in the army were usually the riders.

Through some specific signals, they could quickly convey information.

Moreover, the sudden burst of aura from the scout camp made him look sideways.

One had to know that it was not easy for a troop to have such a murderous aura that could be felt from afar.

One had to experience the baptism of war for a long time to forge an army spirit that would not die in a hundred battles.

However, he knew very well what Dingyuan City's scout camp was like.

After all, the entire Northern Battlefront Army was under his command.

You Aotian was naturally very clear about the messy things that were going on.

However, most of the scouts in the scout camp were the only sons of their families.

Some of them might even be orphans of martyrs.

Therefore, You Aotian chose to turn a blind eye.

Although this group of scouts had not completely rotted, they were still miles away from condensing their army souls.

Currently, in the entire Great Zhou, other than the Western Garrison Army at the western border, the only army with the military soul was the Dragon Tiger Army under the Haojing Emperor.

There were also some hidden dragons and crouching tigers in the armies of other places.

However, they were still a step away from these two armies.

However, it was under such circumstances.

However, Li Yueming had forcefully made this scout battalion erupt with such an imposing manner.

This surprised You Aotian.

However, before he could fully understand it, Ding Yi, who was not far away, gave another order. He said, "At ease!"

It only took a second.

The scouts who were originally like wolves and tigers withdrew their feet in unison.

The extremely heavy aura on his body instantly dissipated.

What was going on?

Li Yueming didn't explain, and You Aotian didn't ask.

However, You Aotian was clearly no longer as easy to come to a conclusion as he was at the beginning.

Instead, he was prepared to observe for a while to see what was wrong.

Li Yueming and You Aotian, who were observing from not far away.

Ding Yi was naturally well aware of this.

Li Yueming had already informed him a few days ago.

However, as a mature reincarnator.

Ding Yi was also a skilled actor, so he didn't reveal any flaws at all. Of course, the most important thing was that Li Yueming's training method was really effective!

Ding Yi only needed to shout out every slogan at the right time. As for how to act, he did not need to worry about it. The soldiers of the scout camp could really do it well.

The display was almost done.

Ding Yi continued to order, "Turn left and line up to get food from the cafeteria!"

Hearing the order.

A group of scouts immediately turned right in unison.

From afar, this action seemed to have been done by a person.

He couldn't see any different movements at all.

After turning right, the first row of people in the front row began to walk toward the restaurant.

The soldiers behind him followed one after another. The ranks were still neat and orderly, without a trace of turmoil.

In the absolute silence, the soldiers were like bloodthirsty beasts.

He waited until the thousands of people had left.

You Aotian had yet to come back to his senses.

He had no choice...

He was shocked!

It could be said that it was no less than a landslide and tsunami. Was this really an army? Why did he feel a little uncomfortable?

You Aotian was still in a distracted state.

Li Yueming continued to give her a strong dose of medicine and said, "Master, I know that giving special treatment violates the rules of the army, but I also want to give the scout camp and the other military services in the camp a chance!"

Hearing his words.

Only then did You Aotian barely recover from his shock.

He could understand if the scout camp was given a chance.

But what did he mean by giving the other military services a chance?

He seemed to have seen through his doubts.

Li Yueming chuckled." Look, the Qin army is currently harassing the northern borders of our Great Zhou. The people are extremely annoyed by this. Last year, because of this incident, the people suffered a severe crop failure...Now that winter was about to pass and spring was about to arrive, it would be a huge matter if they still could not sow the seeds!" Speaking of this, it was actually just a foreshadowing.

Li Yueming paused.

After You Aotian had digested all the information, he continued, ""I believe that Master, you're dedicated to the people. You must have considered these things and might have even formulated several plans! But none of these plans are safe!"

"The Qin army comes and goes like the wind on their spirit horses. It's fine if our Great Zhou has few spirit horses, but they're all hybrids. They're not as agile as the Qin army, so we can't do anything to them!"

"Therefore, I'm thinking of giving the scout camp a special training. During the spring ploughing, I'll let the scout camp ride the most elite warhorses and teach those arrogant Qin barbarians a harsh lesson. I'll let them know that our Great Zhou also has first-class cavalry!" You Aotian listened for a long time.

He finally understood Li Yueming's thoughts.

It turned out that they wanted to train the scout camp into elite cavalry.

This sounded ridiculous, but it was actually not an outrageous operation.

After all, there were very few soldiers who were skilled in archery and riding.

As for the scout camp, it would not be a problem to reorganize it into cavalry.

It turned out that his cheap disciple had been fiddling around here for so long, and in the end, he wanted the people of the north to be able to sow seeds during spring ploughing!

Look at this...What a good person!

One had to know that he had reported this matter to the Imperial Court many times.

However, it was obvious that even a big pit was a headache for the higher-ups!

The Three Halls and Six Bureaus shirked their responsibilities back and forth, and in the end, the emperor had to find a way to raise provisions.

But so what if they transported a batch of rations?

If they couldn't get rid of the soldiers in the north, they wouldn't be able to pull the people out of the chaos.

In the end, the Northlands would still face a situation of starving people sooner or later.

But now.

However, his disciple had really considered it.

Although this method was still open to discussion for the time being, perhaps this kind of intention had already touched the heavens!

Therefore, You Aotian's originally tense face relaxed slightly.

It was rare for his disciple to have such a heart. As his master, he could not attack him.

After thinking for a moment, You Aotian chose his words carefully and said, "Yes... Your idea is good, but it might be a little unreliable when it comes to the specifics!"

The Qin army lived in the extremely cold northwest region all year round.

The lack of food and clothing did not wear down the fighting spirit of the Qin country, nor did it wear down the fighting spirit of the Qin army. On the contrary, it gave the Qin people a natural sense of killing intent.

After the baptism of war, it was even more unstoppable.

Obviously, Li Yue Ming knew that he couldn't convince his cheap master with just his mouth.

They had to fight with real weapons.

Therefore, he did not hesitate and took out the trump card he had prepared long ago. He said directly, "Haven't the other soldiers in Zhenbei City always been unhappy with our scout camp?"

"This is indeed our fault... That's why I'm thinking of having a battle between the scout battalion and the other soldiers in Northguard City!"

"If the scout unit wins, this small kitchen will continue to operate and you can see the combat power of our scout unit!"

"If we lose, all the meat in the scout camp will be donated to the winner!"

"Master, what do you think?"

Chapter 424: The Battle Formation Appears, Shocking the Army!_1

Hearing Li Yueming's suggestion, You Aotian was stunned.

He understood what Li Yueming meant.

But no matter what, it sounded like something was wrong!

Originally, he had taken some time out of his busy schedule to come to Zhenbei City just to see what his cheap disciple was up to.

Why was he being dragged down now?

However, thinking about it carefully, there didn't seem to be anything bad about it.

It would be fine if he had not seen the appearance of the scout camp. However, he had just experienced the training of the scout camp with his own eyes.

Even though he was just standing there like a wooden statue.

However, he could see some clues from their uniform posture.

At this moment, his heart had not completely recovered from his shock. He had already successfully aroused Li Yueming's curiosity.

In addition, Li Yueming's analysis and judgment of the current situation were all very accurate.

Indeed, the Great Zhou did not have many good ideas to take the 50,000 soldiers of the Qin army.

After all, their spiritual horses came from the Great Prairie.

Not only was its speed much faster than a big, low-grade mixed breed horse, but it was also much faster.

His endurance was also much stronger.

Usually, even if the soldiers of the Great Zhou discovered traces of the Qin army, they would not be able to catch up with them because of the spirit horses.

In addition, the Qin army still had the Hundred Thousand Mountains as a barrier for retreat.

After the harassment, they would immediately retreat as quickly as possible. If the Great Zhou chased closely, they would directly run into the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Now, the second year of spring plowing was approaching.

If the Qin army were to sneak into the towns around the defensive circle again, it would delay the spring plowing of the Northland residents.

Then things might really get serious.

Li Yueming's suggestion sounded ridiculous.

However, there was no harm in giving it a try. At most, it would just waste a little time.

What if the training method that Li Yueming had given him was really useful?

Wouldn't that be a good deal?

After thinking for a moment, You Aotian nodded without hesitation and said, "Alright, then let me see what bad things you're hiding!"

Li Yueming smiled but didn't reply.

After all, he didn't have any other merits. The only merit he had was that he didn't like to scheme.

That's right, what he liked to do the most was a win-win situation.

Therefore, there was no need to worry that You Aotian would reject this suggestion.

He was sure that his cheap master had agreed.

Li Yueming quickly called Ding Yi over.

Now, this group of reincarnators were all his outstanding employees.

It couldn't be helped. Talents came from the masses!

Each of these reincarnators had extremely high work ethics, and they directly maxed out the attributes of the tool people.

After all, reincarnators had experienced many reincarnations.

Even Li Yueming, who was a new reincarnator, often had multiple roles, not to mention a group of senior reincarnators who had reincarnated many times more than him.

He would learn all kinds of skills.

As the old saying goes, having more skills doesn't weigh down one's body!

For example, as a regular chef, the food that Tian Liang cooked was extremely fragrant!

Another example was Ding Yi, who seemed to have been a general in the army in the past.

Now, Li Yueming didn't need to worry. He could control a few teams.

Even the most inconspicuous Huang Li'er was a medical saint with superb medical skills!

Li Yueming's underlings only had 12 reincarnators.

However, these twelve reincarnators were almost as strong as an enhanced company. Any one of them could crush many practitioners in many industries in the world.

Not far away, Ding Yi walked over with a bowl of food.

Seeing You Aotian not far away, she smiled and bowed. ””Master!”

You Aotian waved his hand, indicating that there was no need to be so polite.

Then, Li Yueming handed over the matter that they had discussed earlier.

At the same time, he also had Ding Yi inform the scout camp to make preparations.

.0.

That night, the news of the scout battalion challenging the entire army spread.

A storm of public opinion had already swept through the camp.

After all, in the past two months, because of the special treatment, the scout camp had always been at the forefront of the storm. Who knew how many envious and jealous gazes were staring at the scout camp.

The scout camp was really too inappropriate.

It was also a high-level soldier.

The archers of the archer battalion spent half a month eating steamed buns.

Only at the beginning and the end of the month could they taste some meat.

As for the ordinary soldiers at the lowest level, they were even worse off. They only ate steamed buns for less than half a month.

For the other half of the month, they could not even eat steamed buns. They could only eat bread of a lower grade.

But what about the scout camp?

Thirty days a month, twenty days of eating meat and drinking soup.

For the remaining ten days, people would get tired of eating meat and change their tastes.

I don't live like this!

If it wasn't for Li Yueming's ruthlessness and the twelve reincarnators under his command, he would have been able to take charge of a region. The soldiers in Zhenbei City had probably already made their move.

How could he endure until now?

It was not easy for Great General You to come and give them justice.

The other soldiers in Zhenbei City had long been waiting anxiously.

Now that they heard that there was going to be a battle, the soldiers of Zhenbei City were stunned.

What was going on?

General You had personally returned to Zhenbei City for this matter, but the scout camp still refused to give in?

Moreover, they were actually preparing for an all-out battle...

Was he flustered and exasperated? Did he want to convince others with his strength?

Chapter 425: The Battle Formation Appears, Shocking the Army!_2

After being stunned for a while.

Instantly, the entire military camp in Zhenbei City was in an uproar.

This was a good relationship!

They had long disliked the arrogant attitude of the scout battalion.

Usually, they did not dare to make any big moves due to military rules and discipline. Most of the time, they could only choose to endure.

If they were to engage in an all-out battle now, they would be able to teach those useless things a lesson!

After a night of brewing.

The 60,000-odd soldiers in Zhenbei City had all heard the news from the scout camp.

The All-Army Tournament was scheduled for two days later, at the beginning and end of the season. Every year, the Northern Battlefront Army would gather at this time to hold a training session.

It was the most appropriate time to put any grudges at that time.

After receiving the accurate news.

All the soldiers in Zhenbei City, except for the scouts, were overjoyed.

As elites, even if the scouts were not trained enough, their combat strength was definitely stronger than ordinary soldiers.

According to the requirements of the scout camp.

There were no ordinary soldiers participating in this tournament.

They were all elites of their respective troops.

This way, the combat strength was almost balanced.

The problem was that they had all seen the training of the scout camp.

Every day, he would stand guard in the snow, or simply do some strange physical training.

How could they possibly defeat their organized military training?

Therefore, everyone was full of confidence.

It was as if he could already see the scene of the scout battalion being hung up and beaten up. He could also use this opportunity to show his face in front of General You!

In the blink of an eye, two days passed quietly.

As more and more soldiers discussed.

Finally, the end of the season was over.

It was still early.

Li Yueming, You Youtian, and some other generals of the Northern Battlefront Army had already arrived at the city wall.

The group of people looked down silently.

He saw that there were more than 5,000 people standing on each side of the city.

On the left was the scout camp, and on the right were the elite troops carefully selected from the other military services in Zhenbei City.

Because it was early.

The soldiers fighting below the city wall were not ready yet. They were wearing armor and wrapping protective measures on their weapons.

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

On the city wall, the general in front of Zhenbei Military Vehicle was the first to speak. He looked at the expressionless Li Yueming and teased, "General Li, I heard that you've come up with a new military training method? It seems that you are very confident in your method!"

The general in front of the carriage commanded the entire Northern Battlefront Army.

His authority was only below You Aotian's.

After all, although the infantry was a low-level military service, there were too many of them!

At least 70% of the Northern Battlefront Army were infantry.

Therefore, he had a lot of power as the general in front of the carriage.

You Aotian was getting on in years and would probably retire soon.

He was also one of the people who the outside world thought was most likely to take over the position of General You Aotian.

However, the appearance of Li Yueming's strange figure made the general in front of the carriage feel a great threat.

It couldn't be helped. Li Yueming's speed of improvement was too fast.

It was so fast that it was unimaginable!

He was only seventeen years old, not even eighteen years old, but he had already become the general of the scout camp of the Northern Battlefront Army, commanding tens of thousands of soldiers like him.

Throughout the entire Great Zhou, this was an extremely rare operation.

Of course, he also had his own self-knowledge.

Under normal circumstances, he definitely wouldn't be able to compete with Li Yueming.

After all, Li Yueming was not a half-baked person like him.

His talent was too good.

As long as he did not die prematurely, he would climb up sooner or later. But the problem was that if Li Yueming was willing to make a mistake, he still had a chance!

After all, individual strength did not mean that one could command an army.

He had been in the army for more than 30 years, and he had been defeated and won.

Now that he was able to climb to this position, it proved that he was generally quite successful.

If he could go one step further and become the general of the Northern Battlefront Army...

Hearing this, Li Yueming glanced at the general in front of the carriage.

He naturally knew what the other party was up to.

Of course, Li Yueming also knew that he would definitely not be able to take over You Aotian's position before his cheapskate father retired.

After all, as long as the emperor's brain wasn't damaged.

He wouldn't have let the father and son hold military power at the same time, and it was the military power of the northwest gateway.

Now, he was probably at the peak of being promoted to the position of general of the scout camp.

Therefore, Li Yueming didn't have much of a reaction.

He only replied indifferently, "You don't have to worry about it. You'll know how my cultivation method is later! ""

The general in front of the carriage also smiled.

He did not continue.

After all, he didn't know how deep Li Yueming was, so he didn't dare to offend him too much.

However, with him taking the lead.

The surrounding generals immediately found a topic to talk about.

The general of the archer battalion also joked, "You don't have to worry about it. Hahaha, I heard that General Li's training method is to let the soldiers of the scout battalion stand in the snow early in the morning as targets. Our archer unit is best at shooting targets!"

"I hope that General Li's soldiers won't just stand there and not move. If they move a little, it will create some difficulty for the archers!"

For a moment, the generals around him started to tease him. Obviously, they wanted to kill the spirit of this young general..

Chapter 426: The Battle Formation Appears, Shocking the Army! —3

Li Yueming was also too lazy to care about this.

He was not interested in You Aotian's position, and he was naturally even less interested in this group of people.

As long as the plan went smoothly, he would not have to deal with these guys anymore.

Therefore, it didn't matter how they reacted.

However, in the eyes of others, this was a sign of guilt.

After all, if Li Yueming's training was really reliable, wouldn't he jump up to refute the fact that he was being ridiculed like this?

Under such circumstances.

Finally, the soldiers on both sides were ready. This was a war caused by food.

It was also a battle to protect their dignity.

The soldiers in the scout camp had been provoked and ridiculed all year round, and they were still holding back their anger!

The others felt that their daily training was a waste of time.

However, only they knew what they had learned and how much they had grown in the past month.

The 5,000 soldiers in the scout camp are the most powerful.

Eight hundred of them were cavalrymen.

It wasn't because the others didn't know how to ride horses, but because there were only so many spiritual horses in the scout camp.

There were more than a thousand shield soldiers.

Scouts usually did not carry a shield, but sometimes in a battle, they would still carry a shield to protect themselves.

Therefore, they would also use shields, but they were not specialized shield guards.

The other 3,000 people could only serve as infantry.

They were holding long spears that were wrapped in cloth in their hands, and their expressions were a little nervous.

On the other side.

The 5,000 soldiers from the other military branches in Zhenbei City were much more professional.

The scout camp only had scouts.

However, they included several military branches.

Therefore, their team consisted of professional shield guards, spearmen, archers, light cavalry, and heavy cavalry. And they were all carefully selected elites!

No matter how you looked at it, the game should have been a complete victory for the game!

.0.

A whistle sounded.

This slightly strange battle officially began.

Including You Aotian, all the generals on the city wall widened their eyes, afraid that they would miss any details.

If the army wanted to gain combat strength, it was necessary to form a formation.

Otherwise, if there was any chaos on the battlefield, the teams that were not in formation would be easily scattered by the enemy.

Moreover, marching forward and backward could easily cause stampede accidents.

Therefore, as long as a large-scale army encountered them on flat ground.

The first thing they had to do was to form a formation. Only the soldiers in the city formation could cope with the changes without changing and face the danger that would come at any time.

If the army was in an orderly formation and had high morale.

It was even possible to temporarily condense an army spirit and enhance the entire army in all aspects.

Fortunately, the genuine mixed army under the generals did not disappoint them.

In less than five minutes, they had already formed a battle formation.

However, before they could be satisfied.

He turned around and saw a terrifying scene.

The moment he heard the whistle.

The young officer who had nothing to do suddenly shouted, "All troops, gather! "

When the word 'assemble' sounded.

No matter what the soldiers were doing before, whether they were picking their feet or grinding their teeth, they all took action at once. The group of people standing on the city wall could see it clearly.

It took less than 30 seconds.

The 5,000 soldiers of the scout battalion who had been scattered around had already gathered.

It was so fast that afterimages appeared.

However, no one collided with each other. There was not even a squeeze.

After they had assembled, it was as if they had never known what chaos was!!!

Seeing this scene.

The group of generals opened their mouths and widened their eyes.

Before they could recover from their shock.

The young general below the city wall gave another order, "Attention!"

Instantly, a unified voice sounded.

"Swish!"

The soldiers below the stage, who were originally undisciplined, suddenly raised their heads and puffed out their chests. All the soldiers' eyes seemed to contain a fierce tiger!

It could choose to devour someone at any time!

“At ease, attention, look right! Start from the first row!”

“1,2,3,456.. Captain, all 5347 members of the scout battalion have arrived.

Please give your orders!”

“Alright, everyone listen up. Shieldbearers 3, Spearmen 2, Cavalrymen on both flanks, surround them from the sides.”

Reading the instructions sounded slow.

However, in reality, his speed was still so fast that it was unbelievable.

One had to know that this was a team of five thousand people.

Under normal circumstances, it was common to dawdle for two to three minutes.

However, it only took the scout battalion 30 seconds to gather.

He took one minute to count and another minute to organize the queue.

It only took two minutes.

Under the same circumstances, the opposing mixed army had just finished assembling.

He didn't even have the time to give the order, let alone the time.

The scouts had already arranged their formation and were charging over.

Even the generals on the city wall who had been through hundreds of battles could not slow down the speed at which they gathered and dispatched their troops.

Not to mention the group of soldiers below.

Even if they were all elites.

But he had never seen such an unreasonable playstyle!

It was said that a real man would fight to the death.

However, they were not ready to show their weapons!

Why did the other party charge over with a saber in his hand and a murderous look on his face?

At this moment, looking from afar, he saw the five thousand soldiers of the scout battalion marching forward in an orderly manner.

This speed seemed to be fast.

But in reality, he was much faster than an average person.

This was because the soldiers of the scout battalion were perfectly synchronized with each other, even their movements and the arc of their arms.

Heavy footsteps landed on the ground at the same time.

It was as if a dense drumbeat was hitting one's chest.

The mixed army's body, skin, and even bone marrow were drumming.

It made them feel cold from head to toe!!!

He could no longer sense the terrifying speed of the other party's movement.

This... Was it really the scout camp that they were familiar with?

Why did it give them such a different feeling?

Even though they were not on a real battlefield, the soldiers of the mixed army still felt the immense pressure as if they were facing the sea when they looked at the scout battalion, which was like a ferocious tiger descending from the mountain.

Chapter 427: The Generals Are Numbed!

In Zhenbei City, the uniform footsteps of the thunderous, drum-like sound could be heard.

Every step he took was a step on the hearts of the people.

Countless generals felt their hearts throb when they saw this scene.

As the saying goes, outsiders watch the show, while professionals watch the tricks.

Only when they were soldiers and generals could they feel the terror of the scout camp.

What was the most powerful aspect of an army?

It wasn't a powerful individual's strength, nor was it a high-quality weapon.

Instead, it was a murderous aura!

And now, the scout battalion already had this quality.

It was comparable to the elites of the world's soldiers.

What kind of training did Li Yueming give them?

In less than two months, they had actually trained this group of scouts into such a precise super unit! !!

Besides, wasn't the scout's job to gather intelligence?

Just this level of formation was already faster than the Qin army, right?

At this moment, the group of generals was shocked.

His mind was filled with question marks.

What was the basis of this? It was completely unacceptable!

However, just as they were still in a daze for a few seconds, a group of scouts under the city wall had already rushed in front of the mixed army.

"All soldiers, listen up! Raise your shields!"

"Spearmen, prepare to stab. Crossbowmen, aim and shoot!"

Until Ding Yi's voice rang out.

Only then did he pull all the generals who were deep in thought back.

The mixed army was still in a mess.

However, seeing the scout camp getting closer and closer, he could only grit his teeth and give it his all.

All of them unsheathed their weapons and began to attack the scout camp.

However, due to the chaotic formation and the fact that the commander did not give the order as quickly as possible, the formation was still in chaos.

At this moment, it was obvious that he was at a loss.

Although the hundreds of arrows fired in a hurry were quite accurate, this rain of arrows was not enough to threaten the scout camp.

The soldiers at the front of the scout camp raised their shields and formed the first line of defense.

Most of the arrows landed on the shields.

Other than shooting out a white dot, it did not cause much damage to the soldiers of the scout camp behind them.

Even if there were still dozens of fish caught in the net that passed through the shield line.

But there was still the Lancer in the line of defense.

Seeing the arrows flying over, he only needed to lift his hand and the remaining fish that had been caught would be picked out.

The last few scattered arrows were completely insignificant.

This round of attack didn't even cause chaos in the scout camp.

Following Ding Yi's order.

The archers behind him, who had been ready for a long time, immediately fired a full round of arrows.

Even though the scout battalion only had 800 archers, they were all firing at the same time!

Nearly a thousand arrows were fired.

But it was useless.

Soon, nearly a hundred soldiers of the mixed army were hit by the arrows.

Although it did not cause fatal injuries.

But the pain was certain.

Moreover, if it was shot in the arm or thigh, according to the agreement, two arrows were allowed.

However, if any important part of his body was hit, he would be killed.

According to the agreement, he would be considered dead.

Several rounds of arrows rained down.

More than a hundred people from the mixed army immediately died.

The remaining 1,000 people were also fighting with injuries.

She finally caught her breath.

Before the mixed army could react.

The scout camp moved again, the shield soldier raised his shield and approached.

The commander of the mixed army had no choice but to brace himself and lead his men to fight.

If they did not fight now, the 5,000 soldiers under them would be scattered by the scouts.

At that time, there would only be defeat and death left.

If he could buy some time to organize the army, he would be able to escape.

Then the mixed army might have a chance to turn the tables.

Within two breaths.

The soldiers on both sides rushed together.

From the perspective of the generals watching the battle on the stage.

This was indeed a one-sided massacre.

The 5,000-odd scout battalion soldiers clashed with the mixed army.

The first to meet were the vanguard troops and the shieldmen at the front.

However, the vanguard of the mixed army was completely defeated by the scout battalion.

This was because Li Yueming had trained him in the body-refining technique.

The scouts were all physically strong.

Just the shield guard that was charging at the front directly knocked the vanguard of the mixed army flying.

Not to mention the spearmen behind him.

The moment the two counter-attacks collided, he struck ruthlessly, directly sending the mixed army flying a few meters away with a stick.

If it wasn't for the fact that the weapons didn't have a blade, they would be wrapped in specialized tools and cloth.

By now, there would be a huge river of blood.

The scout battalion was like a sharp knife, easily tearing through the defense line of the mixed army.

The rest of the matter was relatively simple.

The vanguard was broken through, and the infantry following behind basically had no strength to fight back.

In addition, the cavalymen on the two flanks of the scout camp were still outflanking them.

Each cavalryman held a Zhanmadao in their hands. They were all carefully selected elites.

The mixed army had nowhere to run.

After fighting for a while in the chaos, seeing that there was no way to save the situation, the mixed army could only raise their hands and surrender with tears in their eyes.

They had to surrender!

These scouting bastards were really ruthless!

In just a short while, everyone was injured.

Fortunately, Ding Yi was quite straightforward.

After all, this kind of internal strife would not cause any bloodshed.. It was meaningless!

Chapter 428: The Generals Are Numbed!

Seeing that this group of cowards no longer needed to be taught a lesson, he quickly ordered, "Everyone, get into formation and retreat!"

The moment the voice sounded.

This farce that involved tens of thousands of people finally came to an end.

The soldiers of the scout camp gathered and slowly retreated.

If there were any injuries in the group, there would be specialized military doctors to take care of and bandage them.

All that was left was the wailing of the mixed soldiers lying on the ground.

.0.

On the city wall, almost all the high-ranking officers of the Northern Battlefront Army were silent.

This time, they were all here with the mentality of watching a good show.

After all, the entire Northern Battlefront Army had heard about the scout camp for the past two months.

Even the soldiers below had already spread the news.

Not to mention the generals who were more well-informed, their ears were already covered in calluses.

Therefore, when they heard that the scout camp was going to hold an end-of-season competition...

Almost all the free generals of the Northern Battlefront Army had arrived.

They all wanted to see what Li Yueming was thinking about in the rear to cause such a big commotion.

Originally, only a few generals who had their rights violated.

Most of them just came to watch for fun.

However, they never expected to witness an unbelievable one-sided massacre!!!

The well-trained soldiers of the scout battalion were able to resist the elite mixed troops of the Northern Battlefront Army on the ground.

And he had completed a crushing defeat from the beginning to the end.

How could he still be considered a scout?

Even an elite infantry wouldn't be this ridiculous!

At this moment.

He looked at Li Yueming, who was not far away.

The eyes of the descenders changed.

This kid really didn't know how to be a real person!

It was one thing for him to not show his face even once in the past two years.

He had just appeared, and he had already given them a critical blow to their hearts!

He finally came back to his senses.

General Che Qian, who had wanted to arm wrestle with Li Yueming earlier, was the first to snap back to his senses.

He looked at Li Yueming and revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. He smiled and said, "Haha... That, General Li, I have offended you too much just now. Please don't take it to heart!"

At this moment, there was a large group of generals of the same level listening attentively.

However, the general in front of the carriage still chose to admit his mistake in public.

One could imagine how much he felt.

He had no choice. He was afraid!

After all, he knew what the scouts from the scout camp in Zhenbei City were like.

Most of them were new recruits who had never been to the battlefield.

Only a very small number of them were retired after being injured on the battlefield.

It was a second-grade army with mixed good and bad.

There was a huge gap between them and true elite scouts.

But how long did Li Yueming take?

In just two short months, they had actually trained such a strong army of tigers and wolves.

Such ability was not something a small general like him could afford to offend.

In order to make up for the bad impression he had left on Li Yueming.

He even threw away his old face and gritted his teeth as he apologized to Li Yueming in public. He only hoped that Li Yueming would not pursue his rudeness in the future.

The surrounding generals were also extremely stunned when they heard this.

Good lord, the general in front of the carriage was one of the most powerful generals in the Northern Battlefront Army. But now, he was completely terrified.

It was truly an eye-opener.

However, after carefully thinking about the cause and effect, the group of generals quickly figured it out.

For someone like Li Yueming, his individual strength was peerless.

A super genius with a military background was definitely not someone that pure soldiers like them could afford to offend!

Golden scales are not things in the pool, once they meet the wind and clouds, they will become dragons.

If they offended Li Yueming, they might not be able to retire smoothly once Li Yueming was promoted.

After thinking it through.

The group of generals couldn't help but smile. They looked at Li Yueming and complimented,""General Li is truly a genius. He was able to develop such an efficient and simple training method! "

"That's right. General Li has achieved so much at such a young age. His future is limitless!"

"I wonder if General Li's training method can be popularized? Compared to the scout camp, this training method seemed to be more suitable for the infantry!"

"General Li, you can come visit me in the future!"

At this moment, whether it was sincere or not.

The group of generals all revealed fawning smiles.

They looked at Li Yueming with amazement.

Once this training method was announced, it would not be easy for him to train.

The entire Haojing would be shaken by this, and countless eyes would be focused on the north.

If it could really be promoted on a large scale.

The tremors that followed would probably be even more intense.

It was a major event that involved the entire country's military and political affairs.

Li Yueming was not even 18 years old. If he could really complete the reform of the military training system, he would be able to take charge of an army by the age of 20.

Thinking of this...

The group of generals were excited.

To be in charge of an army at the age of 20 was something that no one in the entire Great Zhou's 10,000 years of history had ever achieved.

This is a precedent!

And they might become witnesses of history in the future!

Li Yueming's smile was very reserved.

If this kind of thing happened to an ordinary person, they would indeed be overjoyed.

It was no different from saying that when one person attained the Dao, chickens and dogs would ascend to heaven.

However, it was completely different for Li Yueming..

Chapter 429: The Generals Are Numbed!

The Li family was already a high-ranking official and had the foundation of a noble family.

This generation's Li Nanfeng was similarly illustrious.

The Imperial Court would never allow Li Yueming and Li Nanfeng to command two armies at the same time.

On this basis.

The more Li Yueming contributed, the more he roasted the emperor.

Obviously, Li Yueming wasn't that stupid.

Would he do such a thing that would boost others' morale and destroy his own prestige?

He would never spread the training method.

Anyway, as long as the matter was not completely exposed, everything was still in his hands.

Not far away, You Aotian, the general, finally recovered from his shock.

He looked at the scout camp that was walking away in an orderly manner.

He couldn't help but dismiss the generals who were afraid of flattery. He pulled

Li Yueming and asked, "Yueming, is this the scout battalion that you trained with that new training method?"

"Reporting to the Great General, these are the soldiers who were specially trained by me!" Li Yueming nodded."

"In the entire army, only the soldiers of the scout battalion know how to ride and shoot. Thus, this humble servant wants to use them to fight against the Qin army that keeps invading our northern lands!!"

Hearing this.

Everyone was stunned.

It turned out that Li Yueming had chosen the scout camp because of this idea.

But this kind?

If it was in the past, it would definitely be very important, but now, it was not important at all.

The most important thing was not Li Yueming's training.

It was whether the training method could be popularized in the entire army.

Five thousand well-trained scouts were already able to display such strong execution and cohesion.

What if it was 50,000, 500,000, or even 5 million people?

Wouldn't he be able to unify the world?

You Aotian waved his hand and said anxiously, "Let's talk about the battle with the Qin army later. First, tell us the principle behind your training method." Li Yueming smiled but didn't say anything.

After thinking for a moment, he said half-truthfully, "I won't hide this from Great General. I came up with this training method after a year and a half of hard work. It's actually tailor-made for the scout camp, and it's still in the exploration stage."

"Therefore, if we rashly promote it to other military services, all kinds of problems may arise!"

"I'm thinking of using the scout camp as a reference first. I'll try to promote it in the entire army after I improve it later..."

In the military camp.

Hearing Li Yueming's answer.

You Aotian, who had been overwhelmed by surprise, calmed down.

After thinking about it, he realized that he had lost his composure just now.

That was true!

The training method of the army was the foundation of the army.

Many armies were able to nurture powerful army spirits because of their complete training methods.

And now, Li Yueming had just figured out a new training method.

It was normal for all kinds of systems to be imperfect.

Before he had established a mature system.

Rashly promoting it to the entire army would probably cause a huge backlash. At that time, every bite of meat would cause a tooth to fall out.

If he had reported it to the higher-ups with his excitement just now...

The series of chain reactions that followed might really cause a tooth to fall out.

Therefore, You Aotian, who had calmed down, shivered.

After a moment, he revealed a serious expression and said, "Indeed. Then I'll write a secret letter about this matter and send it to His Majesty. You'll be fully responsible for exploring the new training method from now on. I believe you'll definitely succeed!"

He made his decision.

It was impossible to hide such a big matter.

He had to report it to the emperor.

Otherwise, if the emperor blamed them, the entire Northern Battlefront Army would be beheaded.

It was fine to spread some news.

As long as he didn't write a memorial to the imperial court.

It was just some news and rumors from the northwest border. Even if it was sent back to the capital, no one would believe it.

This was the result Li Yueming wanted.

After hearing You Aotian's decision, he said bluntly, "'This humble servant will not disappoint Great General's expectations."

The gift of the horse that he mentioned was the prerequisite that he had previously agreed with You Aotian.

As long as the scout battalion could take the lead in this battle and prove their strength.

You Aotian gave the scout camp 3,000 spirit horses.

In addition, the scout camp had more than a thousand spirit horses, as well as those mobilized from other cities.

He would be able to gather a special training team of 5,000 people.

He heard Li Yueming's request.

You Aotian revealed a pained expression.

Three thousand spirit horses!

Even in the Northern Battlefront Army, it was a big number.

However, since he had already made an agreement with Li Yueming in advance, and he was counting on Li Yueming to produce results as soon as possible.

The necessary investment was indispensable.

Besides...

Currently, most of the Northern Battlefront Army troops were holed up in the city.

Even if they had spiritual horses, they would not be able to catch up to the Qin army. It was better to simply transfer them to Li Yueming to use first.

Therefore, You Aotian could only smile and say, "'Give me half a month to gather the funds and hand them over to you in the middle of next month!" Li Yueming nodded.

At this moment, he was not polite at all. After asking for the spiritual horse, he continued, "Great General, these 5,000 scouts are too stifled to train in the city. They can't use their full strength. Moreover, if they encounter an attack from the Qin army, they might not be able to make it in time!"

"Therefore, I want to lead these five thousand people to wander the northern desert. While training, we will search for the Qin army outside!"

He heard his second request.

You Aotian hesitated.

It wasn't that Li Yueming had too many requests. In fact, he couldn't wait for Li Yueming to make a few more requests.

After all, as the boss, he wanted to have a sense of participation in such a big matter, right?

But the problem was that transferring the army out of the city was not a small matter.

The sample army in Li Yueming's hands was even more precious. If they really encountered the Qin army, wouldn't there be an accident?

Li Yueming only needed a glance to know that his cheap master was still hesitating.

He couldn't help but continue to increase the price and said in a low voice, "Master, look. The original intention of training this army is to attack the Qin army. All the supporting training is also designed to cause the greatest damage to the Qin army..." If I can't arm wrestle with Qin Jun under such circumstances, then what's the use of my so-called new training method?" "After all, our Great Zhou's main enemy these years is the Qin country!" Of course, You Aotian knew this as well.

Therefore, after a slight hesitation, he nodded and said, "Alright, no matter how much you say, it's not as good as winning a few battles. If there's no way to resist the Qin country, no one will believe your training method even if you brag to the heavens!"

Li Yueming smiled again.

To be honest, You Ao was a pretty good teacher.

There was nothing to say about his disciple!

All kinds of messy precedents were basically opened for him.

If it was someone else, they might not be as easy to talk to as him.

Of course, on a deeper level.

You Aotian had a deep relationship with the Li family, and You Aotian himself had a personal relationship with Li Nanfeng.

They were allies and accomplices.

If the Li family collapsed, You Aotian would also be at risk of being punished.

The relationship between the two sides was one of prosperity and loss.

Therefore, You Aotian seemed to be led by the nose by Li Yueming.

But from another perspective, wasn't this a form of indulgence?

Along the way.

Li Yueming looked like an orphan.

However, in reality, he still enjoyed many benefits from the Li family's heir.

However, under Li Nanfeng's arrangements, it didn't seem that eye-catching.

After confirming this matter and achieving his goal.

Li Yueming did not stay on the city wall.

He bid farewell to You Aotian and the other generals who had retreated.

Li Yueming quickly returned to the scout camp.

He was prepared to start the next step of the plan as soon as possible.

There was nothing he could do. The fourth Calamity, who was locked in the cage, was already eager to give it a try.

If he didn't hurry up, he wouldn't have such a good opportunity in the future.

Chapter 430: A New Path, Northern Glacier Town!_1

When they returned to the camp, the soldiers of the scout camp were all excited.

In the past month or so of training.

They had also repeatedly doubted the meaning of gritting their teeth and persisting.

After all, they were scouts!

What was the point of doing physical training here every day and standing in a military posture in the snow and ice?

However, it was not until now that the group of people realized that they had unknowingly broken away from the fatigue and laziness of the past.

He looked completely different from before.

Not only was his body full, but it could also make people feel excited. His spirit was also restrained enough.

And in this battle, he had successfully proved his strength in front of countless high-ranking generals of the Northern Battlefront Army.

It also proved that their hard work and sweat over the past month had not been in vain.

They were all scouts!

However, in just two months, he had already learned how to fight in formation.

Moreover, their combat strength was enough to defeat the elite mixed army of Zhenbei City.

What kind of concept was this?

It was a concept that could be written into history!

But now, they had truly completed it!

When he saw Li Yueming walking over.

The soldiers of the scout battalion were all excited.

They had no choice. They had defeated their enemies who used to like to mock them at the drop of a hat in this battle. They had no choice but to be excited! A few soldiers even dared to say, "Greetings, General Li!"

Most of the training during this period was carried out by Ding Yi and the others.

However, all the soldiers present knew that General Li Yueming was the real commander behind them.

After all, this training method and all the arrangements during the training process were personally made by Li Yueming. The training plan and subsequent food follow-up were all arranged and funded by Li Yueming.

They were able to achieve this today.

It was all thanks to this new General Li!!!

Therefore, when the soldiers saw Li Yueming, they were extremely grateful.

In the past, although he was still quite free in this scout camp, due to various factors, he did not even have to raise his head to spy on information like other scouts.

They only needed to patrol and train every day.

Other than that, there was basically nothing else.

However, the reason why they were like this at that time was because there was no war in the Northlands all year round. They could not see any hope!

Protect the country, make contributions, and finally return with a horse's leather and a corpse...

For a man with an indomitable spirit, it was actually not a difficult ending to accept.

However, they were in the Northern Army, not the Western Army.

The western frontier is proud of the army guarding the west.

All the members of the Western Garrison Army were basically residents from the western frontier. The people standing behind the Western Garrison Army were their parents, wives, and children. Therefore, when they went into battle, they were particularly ferocious, not inferior to the Qin army at all.

On the other hand, the residents of the western border were also willing to advance and retreat with the Western Garrison Army.

But the Northern Battlefront Army was different.

There were no external enemies in the northern part of the Great Zhou.

Therefore, the most important role of the Northern Battlefront Army was to defend against and guard the beast tide in the Hundred Thousand Mountains in the north.

In the past, the residents of the Central Plains had never taken a proper look at the desolate and poor Northland.

In the eyes of the world, the Northern Battlefront Army was just a motley crew that had been guarding the Barbarian Land all this time. They were even once suspected of eating empty pay.

The reason why the Northern Battlefront Army was able to attract the attention of the whole world was because the Qin army had opened up the Hundred Thousand Mountain Road, which led to the emergence of a small Qin army in the north.

While the soldiers of the Northern Battlefront Army were under great pressure, they also saw an opportunity to make contributions.

Since he saw hope and opportunity.

The soldiers were naturally willing to work hard.

Besides, Li Yueming was only in his teens, and his future was limitless.

Under such a young general, they were not afraid of being suppressed because of their lack of qualifications.

Moreover, they had not even cared about this training method at the beginning.

However, after training for nearly two months, many soldiers had already felt its miraculous effects.

Especially the body tempering method developed by Li Yueming. It could be said that their physical fitness could be improved by a level every day.

This was simply a protective divine art for the troops charging into the battlefield!

Therefore, he had no choice.

At this moment, all the soldiers of the scout battalion looked at Li Yueming with excitement.

Li Yueming didn't seem to have too many emotional fluctuations.

Or rather, this kind of situation was already a small problem for him.

The real time to show off his skills was still behind!

However, at this moment, all the soldiers' gazes fell on him.

Li Yueming also extended his hand and gestured for everyone to be quiet.

When they realized that Li Yueming was about to speak, the soldiers immediately shut their mouths.

There were more than 5,000 soldiers present.

However, the silence only lasted for a second.

This was the most direct effect of discipline and order.

After everyone quieted down, Li Yueming said calmly, "Everyone has been training very hard for the past two months. Now, we have achieved remarkable results. Now, the Imperial Court and the Great General attach great importance to our troops, so they have specially given corresponding rewards!"

"I've already discussed this with the Great General.. From today onwards, all of you will receive a higher standard of food, and your salary will be changed to ten taels of silver a month!"
