

Maxing MT 471

Chapter 471: Don 't Ask, If You Ask, You'll Be Innate Rebel!—3

He would take things one step at a time in the future!

After finally calming down, the group of reincarnators began to gather and analyze the various data they had obtained.

After all, no matter how one looked at it, data was a million times more accurate than human rhetoric.

Li Yueming could lie with his mouth, and Zhang San could also lie with his mouth.

However, the numbers would not lie.

They had already confirmed that this was all the financial statements of Northern Glacier Town in the past years.

In such a short period of time, no one could forge it.

Therefore, as long as he could analyze the data, he would be able to know the true movements of Northern Glacier Town and the Star-Moon Army.

However, one wouldn't know without analyzing it.

An analysis, a fright, a jump.

From the financial and food expenditure of the past years, he analyzed all kinds of signs.

The reincarnators came to a very shocking conclusion.

When they came back to their senses, they could not help but feel their scalps go numb.

From the state of the Star-Moon Army's defenses, the future plans of Northern Glacier Town, and some vague food and financial records in the accounts...

Li Yueming was not only guarding against the Qin army in the north.

It was the Great Zhou Haojing behind him!

It was one thing to conceal it from the court's account books, but the internal account books were definitely the most accurate.

However, no matter how many reincarnators calculated, they still could not calculate where the Star Moon Army had transferred the food from.

It could actually feed so many people.

Obviously, there was something fishy going on.

As a result, the group of reincarnators had the illusion that they would be silenced at any moment.

There was nothing more to say about the audit.

After returning to the residence behind the yamen in the evening, the group of reincarnators confirmed that there was no one around. They could not help but gather and whispered, "What should we do? This Li Yueming is really bold. He actually dared to put such a deep secret in front of us. He clearly wants to tie us

The leader, Wang Biao, was also amazed by Li Yueming's generosity. He nodded and said, "To be honest, even I didn't expect this move of his. No wonder he was able to develop the Star Moon Army to such a powerful level in just a few years...His words and actions were full of traps! If I were to provoke such a troublesome enemy, I probably wouldn't be able to sleep well even in my dreams!"

A reincarnator beside him nodded repeatedly and added, "To be honest, among the talents I've seen, this Li Yueming can be ranked among them...It was already ridiculous enough that this guy's army was stationed in the direction of Haojing. He didn't expect that he would actually hide grain and horses. What was he trying to do?"

Hearing this, the few of them looked at each other.

Although they didn't say it out loud, it was obvious that everyone had an answer in their hearts.

After a short silence.

The group of people decided to confirm the follow-up development plan one last time.

After all, they had discovered that there was a traitor in the Star-Moon Army. If they were not careful in their follow-up plans, they might cause huge trouble.

Now, a normal person's choice would definitely be to pretend that they didn't see it.

When the time was right, he would secretly tell the emperor.

This way, not only would he be able to get rid of Li Yueming, but he might also be able to salvage his image in front of the emperor.

Of course, the reincarnators were not normal people, and they would not do such a stupid thing.

Therefore, the dozen of them closed their doors and discussed for the entire night.

Very soon, he became excited.

He decided to follow Li Yueming.

As for the reason...

Don't ask.. If you ask, it means that reincarnators are born rebellious!

Chapter 472: When it comes to making a living, you have to consider your background!_1

This rebellion was so exciting!

Even if he lost, his head would fall to the ground and he would have a bowl-sized scar.

However, if he could achieve something...

Then wouldn't they be able to complete the third mission, the most difficult mission in this public reincarnation dungeon?

If one were to rank the difficulty of this public reincarnation instance dungeon.

Then, according to the difficulty ranking, the third main mission would definitely be ranked at the top.

[Main Mission (3): A real man is born in the world. How can he be depressed and live under others for a long time?]

[Mission Requirements: Set up a country and unify the world!]

[Mission bonus points: The stronger the country, the richer the people, the faster the unification of the world, and the more generous the mission rewards!]

Under normal circumstances.

There was a high probability that reincarnators could only choose to rely on one of the six countries.

Then, he would slowly increase the completion rate of the mission. But now, Li Yueming's Star-Moon Troop had given them an idea that they had never imagined before.

-- -Creating a country that belongs to the country!

If Li Yueming really wanted to be king, then he would be the one to be king.

Then, with their help, it might really be possible to do it. As a native, Li Yueming obviously wouldn't snatch the mission reward from them.

Once this plan succeeded.

Without a doubt, they would definitely become one of the reincarnators with the most points in this public reincarnation dungeon!

After discussing for an entire night, the group of reincarnators only became so excited after figuring out these things.

What was this wave called?

It was a blessing in disguise!

What Zhou Tianzi, this guy whose heart is even smaller than his belly button, scam as far as you can!

It was better to quickly hug Li Yueming's thigh!

They had unified their thoughts.

The next morning, more than ten reincarnators left the government office at dawn and went straight to Li Yueming.

Li Yueming was a little surprised by their arrival.

He thought that these guys would need at least three to five days to make a decision.

However, he did not expect that he had underestimated the execution ability of these guys.

As soon as he entered, a group of reincarnators immediately gave him a big bow.

It had not even been forty-eight hours.

This group of guys started to play the game of 'giving me a great deal' with him.

What did this prove?

Even if it was a reincarnator, as long as they gave enough, they could kneel on the ground and kowtow.

Seeing this scene, even Tian Liang, who was reporting the logistics situation beside Li Yueming, felt a little incredulous.

F * ck, two days ago, you guys were still holding your chins up and not looking at people properly!

How long had it been? Why did he shit his pants?

What should be said or not, the group of reincarnators from the Kindred Faction led by Ryo Ito still liked the rebellious appearance of this group of surrenders.

At the very least, they wouldn't snatch the Starmoon Army's authority from them.

However, looking at the current situation, this group of people had probably already made up their minds.

Fortunately, this group of people had surrendered. In Li Yueming's heart, their status was definitely not as good as his hardcore confidants.

Moreover, if the Star-Moon Army and Northern Glacier Town wanted to develop, they would no longer be able to support them.

After subduing this group of reincarnators, the strength of the Star Moon Army increased further.

The population of Northern Ice River Town was constantly rising.

After the Qin army suffered a huge loss at the hands of Li Yueming and You Aotian, they finally became well-behaved for a few months.

In the blink of an eye, it was the year 7290 of the Great Zhou Royal Calendar.

This winter, the Great Zhou's weather was exceptionally cold.

Northern Ice River Town was the same.

Fortunately, the Star-Moon Army had adopted the local natives' suggestions when they built the house. They had made the windows of the house very narrow and dug an underground fire bed.

In addition, North Glacier Town was close to the Hundred Thousand Mountains, so there was no lack of firewood.

Therefore, although this winter was also difficult, they could still barely survive it.

However, the other residents of the Northlands suffered.

A few years ago, Great Qin had repeatedly disrupted the spring plowing, causing the family to have no harvest.

He had barely managed to survive, but before he could catch his breath, he encountered midwinter.

Many people had frozen to death because they had no firewood.

For thousands of miles, there was no rooster crowing, and there were frozen bones on the road.

However, Li Yueming could do nothing about this.

Although he had the heart to do so, he was really lacking in strength.

It was already his limit to protect the people of Northern Ice River Town from freezing to death.

Another thing worth mentioning was that a few days before winter, the tens of thousands of Qin soldiers who were still wandering in the northern part of the Great Zhou returned to Hangu Pass along the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

It couldn't be helped. The winter in the North was too cold.

Even the Qin army would not be able to withstand it.

In addition, the Qin army originally had 100,000 men, but Li Yueming had killed 30,000 of them, leaving less than 70,000.

Therefore, after combining several reasons.

The Qin army returning to Hangu Pass in winter was not that surprising.

A few months before the new year, Li Yueming wrote a letter to bring his two sisters to the north for the new year.

Ever since he sent Li Yueming to school, the situation at the front line had been tense.

His father, Li Nanfeng, had not returned from the western frontier for many years.

During the New Year, they only exchanged letters.

Of course, Li Yueming didn't feel anything about it.

The New Year was just a pretense.

In fact, he felt that it was dangerous, so he brought his two sisters out of Wenzhou City and placed them by his side.

However, his plan failed.

Li Yueming wrote a letter, but Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing didn't come. They only brought a reply.

The letter stated that under the emperor's special care, they had already begun to take over some paperwork..

Chapter 473: When it comes to making a living, you have to consider your background!_2

The letter also emphasized that Li Yueming did not need to worry.

When he saw the letter, Li Yueming sneered a few times, but his eyebrows unconsciously furrowed.

The worst situation he had imagined had already happened.

To a mature reincarnator, family and friends were actually dispensable sacrifices.

However, Li Yueming could not be so ruthless, at least not now.

He had not forgotten that his two sisters had sacrificed themselves to buy him time to escape in order to protect him during the deduction. Therefore, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were Li Yueming's two weak spots.

Even though the letter didn't say it clearly.

However, Li Yueming was not stupid. The two sisters could not move freely. Wasn't this house arrest?

Since there was no way to take it over.

Then, he could only use some other methods in the future.

Just like that, Li Yueming spent the new year with more than 20 reincarnators and the soldiers of the Star Moon Army.

In the first month of the year.

After many years of being a Concealed God, his cheapskate father suddenly wrote a letter to Li Yueming.

This surprised Li Yueming.

One had to know that based on the pattern of the past many years, his cheap father had implemented a free-range policy on him.

Except for a few critical moments in his life where he would appear, most of the time, he would rarely take the initiative to look for him. Even if he really had something to say, if it was not an emergency, he would write it to his two sisters first, and then the two sisters would pass it on to him.

This was also an old tradition of the Li family.

A man should be independent from a young age.

Otherwise, how could a man be masculine if he let his family shoulder everything?

He did not expect that she would take the initiative to write him a letter this time.

The sun had really risen from the west.

Opening the envelope, the familiar handwriting appeared on the paper.

Li Nanfeng's letter was asking about his and his two sisters 'marriage.

In this world, ordinary people who married at the age of thirteen or fourteen were like carps crossing the river.

Because cultivators had longer lifespans and stronger abilities, the age of marriage would be appropriately relaxed.

Under normal circumstances, it was not a big problem for cultivators to not get married in their twenties.

If one's aptitude was high enough and one's strength was strong enough, it would not be a problem for one to get married at the age of thirty. Men could even continue to relax.

Li Yueming's marriage could be put aside for now.

However, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue had already been married for many years.

In the past, because of the war at the border all year round, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue did not find the right person.

Therefore, Li Nanfeng never mentioned it.

Now, he probably smelled something.

Therefore, he came to discuss with Li Yueming.

Li Yueming had a headache.

It would be fine if the two sisters had someone they liked.

However, Li Yueming had also written a letter to ask about it some time ago.

The elder sister Li Ruyue's reply was more tactful and reserved. She only said that she had not found the right person yet.

As for his second sister, Li Ruxing, her reply was extremely rude.

She directly said that in this world, other than her brother, there was no man who could move her sister's heart.

He couldn't even teach Li Yueming a lesson.

Of course, these were just Li Yueming's personal complaints.

Li Nanfeng had finally written this letter. There must be something else.

He read down the arranged words line by line.

Finally, Li Yueming understood why Li Nanfeng would suddenly write him such a letter.

Because the emperor had sent a message some time ago.

He asked Li Ruxing, Li Ruyue, and Li Yueming's birth characters.

He also tactfully expressed that he wanted to betroth Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue to his two sons.

Then, he would betroth one of his daughters to Li Yueming.

He wanted to use the marriage to tie Li Yueming and the Li family to the royal family.

Although it was just a mention.

But who was the emperor?

Words contain the law of heaven, and words hold nine tripods.

The mention of it was equivalent to the fact that this matter had already been finalized.

Li Yueming almost burst out laughing.

The emperor was like a toad wanting to eat a swan.

With just those few foolish sons of his, they wanted to forcefully marry his two beautiful sisters?

Quickly wash up and sleep!

It seemed that he had let his life in the past few years be too peaceful.

Otherwise, how could the emperor have so much free time to care about so many things?

He thought about it.

Li Yueming called Huang Li 'er and the others.

He announced to the public that he was out hunting.

In fact, he had secretly gone to the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

He first found the valley where the Arctic Spirit Fox was and greeted the Arctic Snow Fox.

Then, he found the trusted aide that the Ninth Prince had left in the snow mountain for communication.

In these two years, because of Li Yueming's help, the Ninth Prince had turned around in the battle for the crown prince.

Especially after Li Yueming killed 30,000 Qin soldiers and the First Prince's reputation, it caused the First Prince's prestige to plummet. This allowed the Ninth Prince to take advantage of the situation.

In order to achieve better mutual benefits.

The Ninth Prince had specially sent his trusted aides to guard the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Anyway, with the little fox protecting him, as long as Li Yueming wanted to, he could contact the Ninth Prince through this trusted aide at any time.

This time, Li Yueming revealed to the Ninth Prince that the Snow Mountain would allow more Qin troops to enter the Northern Lands.

A few years ago.

The reason why the Qin army could not send out a large number of troops to cross the Shiwan Mountains at once was that they were not able to do so.

The most important reason was that Li Yueming had caused Little Fox to get stuck.

Only 50,000 people could pass through every six months.

It was also because of this that the Qin army had only sent less than 200,000 troops after so many years of fighting..

Chapter 474: When it comes to making a living, you have to consider your background!_3

Any more and the pressure on the logistics would be too great.

Only 50,000 people could cross the border every six months, even if all of them were sent to transport logistics.

At most, it could only ensure that the army of about 200,000 soldiers could eat and drink.

Although it could still pose a great threat to the Northern Lands, it could not really hurt the Great Zhou.

In addition, due to the limited number of people.

In actuality, Great Qin itself was unable to hold on for long.

After all, the Great Zhou was not Great Qin's only enemy.

The Great Ming, the Great Tang, and the barbarian tribes of the steppe would also put pressure on them.

Therefore, although the Northland army had been causing a lot of trouble in the past few years.

However, he was only fierce on the outside.

The Qin army was as steady as a mountain and as swift as lightning. They were skilled in cavalry.

What was important was speed.

Now that they were being dragged on like this, they were actually already discussing whether to give up on sending troops to the northern regions of the Great Zhou Dynasty to harass them.

After all, they had never suffered as much as the Northlands did, even on the direct battlefield in the western frontier.

This time, Li Yueming actually took the initiative to increase the number of Qin troops.

It could be said that this was great news.

After receiving the message.

Less than half a month later.

The Ninth Prince led his trusted subordinates to the Snow Mountain.

The moment he saw Li Yueming, the Ninth Prince smiled and said, "Brother Li, I hope you're safe and sound!"

After so many years of tacit understanding, although the two of them were not comrades-in-arms, they were better than comrades-in-arms.

There wasn't any awkwardness in their meeting.

Li Yueming also laughed and laughed.

After the small talk, Li Yueming didn't keep them in suspense and took the initiative to say, "I've already spoken to the Snow King. From now on, the Qin army will have 200,000 soldiers every year!"

When he heard this number, the Ninth Prince's eyes lit up.

Originally, he thought that it was already good enough for Li Yue to increase the number of people crossing the border to 100,000. He did not expect Li Yueming to ask for 200,000 yuan!

This had greatly exceeded his expectations.

Therefore, the Ninth Prince immediately said happily, "Alright, alright, if Brother Li had told us to gather more troops, your Star Moon Army would have already become the strongest army in the Great Zhou Dynasty. By then, the Dragon Tiger Army would be ranked behind Brother Li!"

All along, the Ninth Prince had been wondering why Li Yueming would repeatedly jump between the State of Qin and the Great Zhou.

It was only after he found out about Li Yueming's true identity.

Only then did he understand that the other party must have wanted to use this opportunity to gain more credit.

Li Yueming was happy that he misunderstood and was too lazy to explain. He just said, "Don't be so happy first. I still have a request that I haven't mentioned yet!"

The Ninth Prince stopped laughing and looked at Li Yueming. "Brother Li, if you have any requests, feel free to ask. As long as I can do it, I guarantee that I won't say anything!"

Li Yueming nodded. "It's not a big deal. I think your country has many eyes and ears in the Great Zhou, right?"

Prince Nine was stunned. He wanted to deny it.

However, it was impossible to say that there was no such thing!

Therefore, he could only smile bitterly and say, "Although the relationship between us is complicated, I admire Brother Li very much. If there's a chance in the future, we might be able to sit together and drink a mouthful." So if Brother Li has any requests, just say it. As long as the money is in place, you can have eyes and ears all over the world!"

Li Yueming: "Since that's the case, I want to ask you to do something. After the matter is done, I will owe you a favor. In the future, you can also ask me to do something for you! ""

He never made promises easily.

Now, he was actually willing to make a promise, and it was to a prince of an enemy country.

The Ninth Prince didn't feel anything.

However, Huang Li 'er and the others behind Li Yueming all had a change in expression.

The Ninth Prince smiled."

The two of them finished their simple communication and reached a consensus very quickly.

Li Yueming invited the Ninth Prince to the Snow Fox Cave for a few drinks before sending him off.

The Ninth Prince had clearly profited greatly from this transaction.

He had specially brought his confidant to the Snow Mountain, claiming that he was risking his life to negotiate with the Snow King again.

Now that the negotiations were successful,

The number of Qin troops that passed through the border increased from 50,000 to 200,000.

If word got out that he had made great contributions again.

That was why it was said that one had to have a good background and friends all over the world!

Chapter 475: It Doesn't Matter, My Brother Will Make a Move! 1

Year 7291 of the Great Zhou Royal Calendar.

There were rumors in the imperial court that the emperor was preparing for a marriage alliance with the Li family.

He wanted his two sons to marry the two daughters of the Li family and then marry his daughter to Li Yueming.

The moment this news was released.

Instantly, the entire Great Zhou Empire's imperial family and aristocratic families couldn't sit still.

Since ancient times, it was very common for emperors and ministers to marry.

It was also often used by the emperor to win over and buy people's hearts.

Through marriage, they forcefully tied the interests of the ministers to the chariot of the royal family.

The two combined to form a new community of interests.

Under normal circumstances, it was already an honor for the officials to be able to get the royal family to take the initiative to marry.

However, this marriage alliance had greatly shocked the imperial family and the great clans.

This was because the emperor had not only chosen to marry his daughter.

He also wanted the prince to marry both of the Li family's daughters.

What kind of concept was this?

Currently, there were only four princes under the emperor's name. The Li family would take up two of the spots for the imperial concubines.

The only thing that was uncertain was whether the emperor would assign the two daughters of the Li family to the crown prince, the second prince, or the third prince.

As for the little prince, he definitely couldn't do it. He was only five years old this year!

In addition, Li Yueming would marry the only daughter of the emperor.

It was equivalent to kissing!

If this matter really succeeded.

Then, in the next few decades or even centuries, the Li family would become the well-deserved number one family in the entire Great Zhou!!!

Therefore, it was no wonder that the group of royal nobles and aristocratic families were so anxious.

What did this mean?

This meant that the emperor was very likely determined to use marriage to rope in the Li family.

After all, if nothing unexpected happened, one of the two daughters would marry the Crown Prince.

At that time, the Li family would give birth to an imperial grandson.

In that case, the Great Zhou Empire would be equivalent to having a part of the Li family.

As a relative, wouldn't the Li family do their best to protect the safety of the Zhou Dynasty?

In fact, this was not unexpected.

After all, among the conventional methods, it seemed that only the marriage method could be well suited to the current Li family.

However, the only thing that everyone did not expect was that the emperor was so generous.

Not only did he accept the two daughters of the Li family as his wife, he was even prepared to marry the princess to Li Yueming.

After confirming that the news was not groundless, he was shocked.

Immediately, the representatives of the royal family and aristocratic families from all over the world poured into Haojing from all directions.

For a time, all kinds of exhortations and remonstrances could be heard in the imperial court.

The censors said that this would be a hidden danger for the court in the future.

The ceremonial officials expressed that this was not in line with etiquette.

There were all sorts of reasons, and they could talk about a lot of nonsense.

In fact, the two sides were talking about the same thing.

He didn't want the Li family to monopolize this power. At the very least, he wanted to get a share of it.

The emperor only listened and did not express his opinion.

Hence, he decided to do it.

In a short period of time, this matter became the hottest topic in the central plains of the Great Zhou.
.0.

Wenzhou City.

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were sitting down in the restaurant.

They had only come here to meet after their shift.

At this moment, the waiter had just served the warm sake, and Li Ruxing picked up the wine pot and took a big gulp.

It was not easy for him to drink until he was full.

Li Ruxing burped, and her face was flushed red from the alcohol.

Li Ruyue frowned and looked at her second sister who didn't have any feminine elegance. She wanted to teach her a lesson.

However, when he thought about how this girl was already in her twenties, any ordinary girl or child would have to do nothing.

Therefore, he held back and did not reprimand her.

After eating some side dishes, Li Ruyue finally spoke first, "Second Sister, you can't be so unrestrained in the future!"

A year ago.

The two girls who had graduated from the Cultivation Academy had already been assigned to the observatory to sort out the astronomical data of the past generations.

After receiving the emperor's attention recently, the two women's work was also changed to the Hanlin Academy to clean up the anthology.

Thus, he was already aware of the rumors that had been spreading in the court recently.

It was just that no one rushed to whisper in their ears.

Now that they finally met, it was naturally because of this matter.

"Big sister, you can't be looking forward to getting married, right?" Li Ruxing smiled when she heard this. It was not easy for him to take a day off from the boring shift day. Instead of drinking a few glasses of wine to quench his thirst, he talked about such boring things!"

Li Ruyue frowned again.

Obviously, her patience had been severely challenged.

After taking two deep breaths and calming herself down, Li Ruyue tried her best to be as calm as possible. "We're already in our twenties. Isn't it normal for us to get married? Sun Xiaoxiao, who studied with us in the class next door, is now the mother of two children!"

Li Ruxing muttered softly, "Wu Feifei, who studied with us back then, even died of a cold last year... Why don't you look at her?"

Li Ruyue became alert and said, "What did you say?"

Li Ruxing opened her mouth and wanted to restate it again, but in the end, she was scared. She shook her head and said, "It's nothing!"

Li Ruyue knew that her sister's mouth was full of nonsense.

However, because Li Ruxing's voice was very soft, he did not hear what the girl was mumbling..

Chapter 476: It Doesn't Matter, My Brother Will Make a Move! 2

He could only give up.

After a while, Li Ruxing took two sips of warm sake and continued, "Alright, sister, don't worry about what's going on with him... Whether it's the family or the fate of us sisters, we have to control it ourselves!"

Hearing this.

Li Ruyue fell silent.

In fact, how could she, or any woman in this world, not want to control her own fate?

However, in such a patriarchic society.

Women were destined to be unable to control their own fate from the moment they were born.

For example, she and Li Ruxing.

In terms of status, wasn't that noble enough?

But in the end, she still ended up like that ordinary girl.

She had to follow her parents' orders and marry a man she didn't even know.

The only difference was that ordinary women married commoners.

And they were going to marry a noble.

Perhaps Li Nanfeng's original intention was to let them find their own husband.

However, the Li family and all the interest groups behind the Li family would never let this happen.

Even if the emperor didn't have any thoughts about them.

The family would also find other families of similar status to marry.

Of course, this might not be considered a misfortune. After all, compared to many ordinary people who could not even eat their fill, their lives were enough for them to live in luxury.

However, happiness was the same as happiness. It wouldn't change because of one's identity and status.

No matter how illustrious she married.

Happiness and happiness would not increase or decrease because of wealth.

Therefore, although Li Ruxing was also against marrying into the royal family, she was still a little hesitant.

However, she knew that she could not change this outcome, and she did not expect anyone to change this outcome.

Therefore, he had already tacitly agreed to his final outcome. Now, he only hoped that he could obtain more benefits for his father and brother.

After all, being able to marry the future Emperor would also help the Li family maintain its glory and wealth for nearly a hundred years. It could even make the Li family the number one aristocratic family in the world on this basis.

No matter how one looked at it, she should make sacrifices for this.

After thinking that she had figured everything out, Li Ruyue shook her head. "Our fate is in the hands of the strong. Now, the emperor is the strongest person in the Great Zhou Dynasty... If we marry into the family, it will be great news for the family, father, and brother!"

"Let's not talk about anything else, at least in the future, Prince Yu's faction will definitely not dare to jump on Father's face again!"

Li Ruxing laughed when she heard this. "Sister is too naive. Do you really think we are chips on the table?" "Wrong, we aren't even bargaining chips!"

"The emperor has chosen to marry the Li family because father and brother are too important in the border. In order to make them continue to work hard and not have disloyal thoughts, he has no choice but to do so!"

“Do you think this kind of power will last long? As long as the situation at the border was slightly calmer, the emperor would most likely eliminate the Li family first!”

Of course, Li Ruyue had thought about this.

However, at this moment, he could only lower his head and say, “Then we have no choice...”

Hearing this, Li Ruxing was silent for a while. Obviously, she was not as calm as she looked on the surface.

As a strange woman who had never stuck to one style since she was young.

Li Ruxing obviously didn’t care about the marriage.

But now that this matter had really hit her, she could truly feel the weight of it.

It was like a thousand catties of force, and ordinary women were unable to struggle at all.

However, after a moment of shock, she suddenly smiled and raised her glass to drink in one gulp. “Sister, do you still remember what little brother said to us when we were young?”

“What is it?” Li Ruyue asked.

Li Ruxing stretched out a slender finger and sipped the wine on her red lips.

At this moment, the young girl who had always been eccentric finally had the charm of a beautiful woman. She opened her red lips and said, “Brother, you said that no matter what, we are a family!”

Li Ruyue didn’t understand what he meant.

However, Li Ruxing continued to say word by word, ““The old emperor wants to marry us sisters, but he didn’t ask for our opinions at all. He wants to snatch us away from father and brother? Is he worthy?”

“Just wait and see. Everyone thinks that our Li family will do our best to protect the Great Zhou after receiving Long En...But in my opinion, this old Emperor’s move is simply stupid. I reckon that he has already offended my brother and father completely!”

When he said this.

Li Ruxing’s pupils flickered with coldness.

Even Li Ruyue was shocked by his domineering aura.

At this moment, the lazy little sister of the past seemed to have disappeared, turning into an incomparably deep and cold pond. Even with a glance, one could feel the bottomless chill.

It was also at this moment that Li Ruyue realized that she didn’t seem to understand her seemingly harmless, good-for-nothing sister.

Fortunately, this feeling came and went quickly.

In just a few breaths, Li Ruxing had returned to his original state.

She took a sip and fiddled with the empty glass with one hand. She revealed a sweet smile and said, “Forget it, it doesn’t matter. Anyway, my brother will make a move. Big sister, just wait and see!”

.0.

Just as the emperor was making arrangements for the marriage, a piece of news that shook the entire world came from the north..

Chapter 477: It Doesn't Matter, My Brother Will Make a Move!—3

The Qin army that had left before the new year had returned.

However, this time, it was no longer the same as before, where they only sent tens of thousands of people each time.

This time, the Qin army sent out one of the twelve generals, Baiqi. Baiqi led 200,000 soldiers and sneaked past the defensive area of the Zhou army.

The 200,000 elite Qin army directly attacked one of the three passes in the northwest of the Great Zhou Dynasty, the Crouching Dragon Pass.

Caught off guard, Dragon Crouching Pass was almost broken.

Fortunately, there were still 30,000 Dragon Tiger Army soldiers stationed in the city. They took over the city defense at the critical moment and protected the Dragon Conqueror Pass from the Qin army.

But even so, Great Zhou still suffered heavy losses.

The Dragon Tiger Army was a core elite with a military soul. Logically speaking, it was not enough to fight against an ordinary Qin army.

But this time, the Qin army had invested a lot.

Not only did he send Baiqi as the only general.

He even got Baiqi to bring the Black Armored Guards from the 12 divisions of the Qin army.

The Black Armored Guards were also an army with a military spirit, and this time, they brought a total of 50,000 people.

In addition, thousands of young reincarnators had appeared in the Qin army this time.

This directly led to the death of more than half of the Great Zhou's 30,000 Dragon Tiger Army in just two days.

One had to know that this was the territory of the Great Zhou. How could so many soldiers of the Dragon Tiger Army die?

One could imagine how ferocious the Qin army's attacks were.

As soon as this news spread, the entire Great Zhou was shocked.

All the citizens and dignitaries of the Great Zhou who lived behind Dragon Crouching Pass were terrified.

Many well-informed people were deeply afraid that the Qin army would invade the hinterland, so they even took their wives and children and fled overnight.

The emperor was originally thinking about whether to marry Li Ruxing or Li Ruyue to the crown prince!

When he heard the news, his face almost turned green.

He threw away the book in his hand and roared like an angry lion, "Great Qin is going too far!"

As he spoke, the emperor threw out a token. "Men, pass on my orders. Send 200,000 soldiers from the Dragon Tiger Army to the three passes of the Dragon Conqueror, Tiger Conqueror, and Futian!"

Because he was too emotional, the muscles on his face were still trembling.

In the past few years, he had been dealing with the Qin army.

The emperor also felt that it was troublesome and a headache.

However, there had never been a time like today when he was sitting in Haojing and breaking out in a cold sweat.

In a sense, the Qin army attacking Dragon Crouching Pass was directly attacking the vital gate of the Great Zhou.

The so-called three passes in the northwest.

They were the last three natural barriers of the Great Zhou in the northwest.

They were called Dragon Subdue Pass, Tiger Subdue Pass, and Futian Pass. No matter which checkpoint it was, it was extremely important.

Once it was broken, it meant that this direction would no longer be a natural barrier, and the Qin army would be able to come and go freely in this direction.

Therefore, he had no choice.

The emperor wasn't that sensitive to other things.

Only the Dragon Crouching Pass, Tiger Crouching Pass, and Futian Pass were places that they absolutely could not touch.

This was the last barrier between the Northwest and the Central Plains.

It was a taboo among taboos.

The Qin army launched a three-day assault on the Dragon Conqueror Pass.

After realizing that there was indeed no way to take it down, he no longer lingered and turned around to leave the Dragon Crouching Pass.

Otherwise, if they stayed here for too long, they would be able to escape.

When the surrounding reinforcements of the Great Zhou arrived, the Qin army might have to pay an unnecessary price.

To be honest, it was a pity that the Qin army did not manage to break through the Dragon Conqueror Pass.

Just a little more.

He was just a little bit away from achieving an Epic strategic goal.

The Dragon Tiger Army guarded the three checkpoints and confirmed that the Qin army had no intention of continuing to attack.

Only then did the entire Great Zhou heave a sigh of relief.

When the emperor came back to his senses, his face was dark. He found an official and pointed at the officials' noses. "Who can tell me that the Northern Lands can only pass through a small Qin army of tens of thousands of people? Where did these 200,000 Qin soldiers come from? There were actually 50,000 elite soldiers of the Black Armored Guards...If they broke through Dragon Conqueror Pass, would they be able to reach Haojing in two days?"

Hearing the emperor's doubts, the officials in the court did not even dare to breathe loudly.

At this moment, the emperor was furious!

If he was not careful, his head would fall to the ground.

If they were a little unlucky, it was not impossible for them to get a whole family package.

In the end, it was the Right Prime Minister Ge Hong who stood up and said, "Your Majesty, this Qin army must have appeared from the Hundred Thousand Mountains. It seems that an emergency has occurred in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. This matter was handled by Li Yueming of the Star Moon Army in the past. Now that there is a problem, we might be able to know the reason by asking Li Yueming!"

Even if he had a political disagreement with Li Yueming and the western frontier.

However, even Ge Hong did not dare to exaggerate in front of the emperor.

The emperor glanced coldly at Ge Hong. Seeing that he did not continue, he continued, "Li Qing is my subordinate. If any of you want to push the blame of this matter to him, don't blame me for sacrificing your heads to the flag!"

"Men, hurry to Northern Ice River Town and ask Li Qing. See if he can find a way to find out what exactly happened to the Hundred Thousand Mountains!" Hearing this.

The group of officials in the court lowered their heads and did not dare to make a sound.

At this moment, they also reacted.

Li Yueming's status was no longer the same as before.

No matter how one looked at it, if they wanted to maintain the stability of the Northlands, they couldn't leave the Star Moon Army and Li Yueming alone.

Because of this, no matter how unwilling the emperor was, he could only appease and rope Li Yueming in.

In this mood.

It was only natural that the emperor wanted to recruit a prince consort.

Li Yueming, who was a thousand miles away from Beibing River, was shocked by the Qin army's actions when he received the news.

He actually attacked the Hidden Dragon Gate directly.

He wanted to take advantage of the fact that the Great Zhou Dynasty was not prepared to directly break one of the Great Zhou Dynasty's backbones with a stick!

Chapter 478: A True Hero Never Afraid of Facing Death! 1

If the Qin army really broke through the Dragon Conqueror Pass...

Both Great Zhou and Great Qin would probably explode.

At that time, the real all-out war would begin immediately.

The furious Qin army would probably tear Li Yueming and the Star Moon Army into pieces.

Fortunately, the Great Zhou Dynasty finally withstood the pressure and did not let the situation go beyond his scope of response.

Therefore, after hearing that the Qin army had failed to attack the Dragon Crouching Pass, they retreated.

Li Yueming knew that his plan had succeeded.

He stayed in Northern Glacier Town and waited for a few days.

The emperor's messenger finally arrived half a month later.

This time, it was still the same eunuch from before. However, compared to the previous time, the eunuch this time seemed much more uneasy.

He had no choice.

As the servants who had been with the Emperor for many years, the eunuchs should have the clearest idea of what the Emperor was thinking.

The last time he came here, although he was also here to announce an edict, Li Yueming was only a border general at that time. Even if he had some fame, it was not worth mentioning at all.

However, it was different this time.

Li Yueming had already taken root in Northern Glacier Town.

For example, the rumors that had spread some time ago might have been thought to be rumors.

However, the eunuchs knew.

The emperor really wanted to marry the second princess to this young man in front of him some time ago!

In other words, Li Yueming was not just a border general.

He might even be the future Prince Consort.

In addition, the Emperor intended for the Crown Prince to marry Li Yueming's two sisters, so it was more likely that he would be the future uncle of the country. He was a famous figure who was close to the royal family.

Such a status.

How could he, a eunuch, dare to offend her?

As soon as the eunuch got off the horse, he immediately knelt down and kowtowed to Li Yueming. As he kowtowed, he said, "General Li is lucky. General Li is blessed as the East Sea and as long as the South Mountain!" Li Yueming couldn't even handle these two moves.

If it was a normal person kneeling before him, Li Yueming would have thought better of it.

After all, there was a difference in seniority these days, so it was fine to kowtow two times.

But what was the meaning of a eunuch kowtowing to him?

He was neither the head of the eunuchs nor the emperor!

Fortunately, his mental fortitude was quite good, so he did not lose his composure.

He helped the eunuch, who still smelled like urine, up.

Li Yueming sat down and said, "Eunuch Rong, long time no see. Is there any decree from His Majesty?"

Eunuch Rong shook his head. "General Li, this servant has brought an order from His Majesty. He asked me to ask you, where did the 200,000 Qin soldiers who suddenly appeared in the north come from? Did something happen to the beast king on the snowy mountain?"

Li Yueming revealed an indescribable expression when he heard this.

She opened her mouth, wanting to say something, but she felt that it was inappropriate, so she didn't say it.

In the end, he only sighed and said, "Sigh, Eunuch Rong, you don't know..." In the past few years, our Northern Lands had offered all sorts of precious treasures to the Beast Kings of the extremely cold and snowy mountains. But after so many years, all the treasures in the Northern Lands have almost been plundered clean!"

"Well, this year's treasure was only paid two months late. I think the Beast King on the snowy mountain probably punished us because of this!"

"I was planning to wait for the Qin army to leave the snow mountain and find an opportunity to explain to the Beast King. I hope that it can eliminate the misunderstanding between us and make the Great Zhou and the Hundred Thousand Mountains reconcile!"

Hearing Li Yueming's words, Eunuch Rong immediately believed him.

He couldn't help but believe it. After all, Li Yueming was the one who handled this matter.

Only Li Yueming himself knew how he had reached an agreement with the King of the Arctic Snow Mountain in the North.

Over the years, the imperial court had wanted to bypass Li Yueming and negotiate with the spirit beasts in the snow mountain.

However, in this vast Hundred Thousand Mountains, even Li Yueming needed the Qin army to lead the way to the valley where the little fox was.

How could it be easy for the Great Zhou to bypass Li Yueming?

In addition, Li Yueming had already gained enough favorable impression points from the little fox. He believed that even if the Great Zhou really found the little fox, it would only be chased away by the little fellow.

Eunuch Rong said anxiously, "Aiya, General Li, there are not enough treasures in the north to tell His Majesty. How can such a big matter be delayed?"

"In that case, I'll have to trouble General Li to quickly make a trip to the extremely cold snow mountain to explain things to the Beast King. I'll immediately return to report this news to His Majesty. We must drive these 200,000 elite Qin troops away from our Great Zhou as soon as possible!"

In Eunuch Rong's eyes, although treasures and tributes were important, they were nothing compared to the Zhou Emperor and the Zhou Dynasty.

If this matter really caused the Qin army to take advantage of the situation and break the friendly agreement between the Great Zhou and the Extreme Cold Snow Mountain Beast Kings...

It was unknown how many demons and ghosts had jumped out after the panic, spreading rumors everywhere to encourage people, wanting to use this to shake the foundation of the Great Zhou.

The emperor couldn't sleep for several days because of this.

The consequences could be said to be earth-shattering.

If he didn't appease the Snow Mountain Beast King, wouldn't the subsequent chain reaction be even more terrifying?

Once the Great Zhou lost the protection of the Hundred Thousand Mountains and the western border, the Great Zhou Empire would lose its territory.

If they could allow the Qin army to shuttle through the Hundred Thousand Mountains as they pleased.

Then he would probably never have a good life in the future..

Chapter 479: A True Hero Never Afraid of Facing Death! 2

Li Yueming naturally accepted the order, and the two of them continued to chat.

However, it was obvious that Eunuch Rong was already somewhat absent-minded.

Therefore, Li Yueming didn't force him to stay. He said directly, "Men, bring Eunuch Rong to have a good hot meal. Remember to bring more money for Eunuch Rong on the way!"

Hearing this, Eunuch Rong shook his head like a rattle-drum."General Li, please don't make me suffer. I appreciate your kind intentions, but I'm just a little servant in front of the Emperor. It's more important to hurry back and report!"

As he spoke, he was afraid that Li Yueming would give him something, so he quickly trotted away on his horse.

He watched as the other party's figure gradually disappeared into the vast Gobi Desert.

For the sake of convenience, Li Yueming had divided the Star Moon Troop into two military tents.

One of the military tents was naturally set up in Northern Ice River Town.

As for the other one, which was the current one, Li Yueming deliberately set it up outside the Gobi Desert more than 50 miles away from North Glacier Town.

It was to hide from the eyes and ears of others.

Otherwise, if the old eunuch saw the state of Northern Ice River Town, the emperor would probably find a way to kill him in a few days.

After sending the old eunuch away, Li Yueming revealed a thought-provoking smile.

No wonder everyone wanted to be Cao Cao.

This feeling of using the emperor to command the vassals was indeed very good!

He had the Ninth Prince inside the State of Qin, and he had the little fox in the snow mountain that he could use to intimidate others.

It was more than enough to play with the emperor.

And the reason why he went through so much trouble.

Firstly, he was naturally dissatisfied with the emperor's scheme against his two sisters.

As for the schemes that followed...

It's just a matter of doing it according to the situation. In any case, Li Yueming had the final say on what treasures the little fox needed to pay as tribute and how much they wanted to pay.

He only needed to earn a little bit from it, and he could easily earn enough funds for the initial development of Northern Glacier Town.

After confirming that the old eunuch had left.

Li Yueming turned around and returned to the tent.

Just as he sat down and was about to rest for a moment, he saw Huang Li 'er and the others rush in. After seeing Li Yueming, she said,""General Li, traces of the Qin army have appeared in our Northern Ice River Town!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming stood up again. ""What happened?"

Behind him, Ding Yi, who was actually the highest commander of the Star Moon Army, replied,""The Qin army has sent two elite squads to observe the position of the Star Moon Army and Northern Ice River Town!"

Li Yueming's first thought was that the Ninth Prince had betrayed him.

Otherwise, the Ninth Prince should have been the absolute leader of the Qin army.

Appearing near Northern Ice River Town, it was obvious that he had ill intentions,

However, after thinking about it carefully, the two of them should not have turned against each other yet.

Therefore, Li Yueming took the initiative to say, "Let's go, bring me to stop these two groups of Qin soldiers. I want to see what they are up to!"

Currently, the number of Star-Moon Troops had reached 200,000.

Although only 100,000 of them had normal combat strength, the remaining 100,000 were new recruits who had joined in the past few years.

However, whether it was the size of the army or its combat strength, it was no longer the small army of the past. It had already transformed into a mature army stationed in the northern regions of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

Therefore, Li Yueming only opened his mouth.

The entire Star-Moon Army was like a clockwork machine that suddenly began to operate.

Within a few minutes, a team of 5,000 elites followed behind Li Yueming. Ding Yi, Huang Li'er, and the others also followed behind Li Yueming and rushed to the place where the scout reported.

About 30 miles to the north of North Glacier Town, Li Yueming had captured these two groups of Qin soldiers.

When they noticed their arrival, the two groups of Qin soldiers tried to escape, but they couldn't shake off the pursuers. The two groups of Qin soldiers were decisive and merged into one. They stopped and glared at the Star Moon Army. After getting closer, Li Yueming realized that the two Qin soldiers looked very young.

He calmed down and took a look.

Good heavens, they were all reincarnators!

There were probably hundreds of reincarnators.

Most importantly, the soldiers behind these reincarnators were all black-armored soldiers!

There were nearly a thousand people!

Seeing that they had stopped, Li Yueming and the others did not rashly chase after them. They also stopped at a position not far away where they could attack and retreat.

He looked at the soldiers who were armed to the teeth not far away. Including Li Yueming, all the members of the Star Moon Army couldn't help but feel a bit fearful.

The Black Armored Iron Guards were one of the twelve core troops of the Qin army that possessed the military spirit.

Recently, it could be said to be thunderous in the Great Zhou.

They had been the main force in the attack on Dragon Crouching Pass half a month ago. At that time, they had almost pried open Dragon Crouching Pass, one of the three great natural barriers in the northern regions of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

If not for the Dragon Tiger Army's soldiers desperately resisting, the entire northern region of the Great Zhou would have been in chaos. Although he did not know why they had appeared here.

However, this battle would not be easy to fight.

Nearly a thousand black-armored guards could form a powerful army spirit when they fought.

Although the Starmoon Troop was also known as a frontline unit, their combat strength was still far inferior to this unit that had truly condensed the spirit of an army.

After all, no matter how strong the Starmoon Troop was, it was still in the category of an ordinary army..

Chapter 480: A True Hero Never Afraid of Facing Death!_3

However, an army like the Black Armored Guards, which possessed a military spirit, was already half a step into the realm of fantasy.

Seeing that the Starmoon Troop had stopped in place and did not dare to move.

Not far away, a reincarnator from the Qin army laughed loudly and said, "I've always heard that there's a Starmoon Army in the north that can appear and disappear unpredictably. No matter how powerful the Qin army is, they're nothing but clay chickens and pottery dogs in front of them... Today, I've seen the Star Moon Army's extraordinary side!"

"However, the so-called elusive and invincible seems to be too exaggerated, right? Today, since you insist on chasing after us, I, Wu Zhong, will use these 1,000 Black Armored Soldiers to break your Star Moon Army's bullshit * t undefeated legend!"

"One against five, how fast!"

As he spoke.

This reincarnator named Wu Zhong clenched his left hand into a fist. In the next second.

The Black Armored Guards' formation, which had been slightly loose from running, immediately tightened into a fist.

At this moment, every soldier had an extremely solemn expression on their faces, and their bodies were filled with a tangible killing intent. In a trance, this killing intent condensed and shot into the sky.

It even made the sky darken a little.

It had to be known that this was just a group of less than a thousand Black Armored Guards. The pressure that erupted after they formed a formation was already so terrifying. It was difficult to imagine what effect it would have if the number of guards increased by a few times...

It was no wonder that the Dragon Tiger Army had suffered heavy casualties under their assault.

This kind of army that had the spirit of an army, none of them were actually difficult to live up to their reputation.

Li Yueming turned around and looked at the Star Moon Army behind him.

Under the cold gaze of the Black Armored Army, who were armed to the teeth, the entire Star Moon Army was obviously a little solemn.

In the past, they had fought with the Qin army before.

Not only did they fight, but most of the time, they fought with numbers.

Not only was the Starmoon Troop not afraid, but they had also not suffered any losses so far.

But now, they were suddenly facing a legendary army that had gathered the spirit of an army. Even though the enemy was outnumbered, the Star-Moon Army still felt immense pressure.

This was an all-round suppression that came from blood and aura.

In front of the Black Armored Guards, who wielded black sabers and wore black armor, everything that the Starmoon Troop was proud of, be it glory or willpower, was not worth mentioning.

If Li Yueming hadn't stood in the front, the soldiers of the Starmoon Troop would probably have been afraid of fighting in the face of such a powerful pressure.

Seeing this situation, Li Yueming knew that he had made the right decision.

The Starmoon Troop had been established for so long, and although there had been many small battles, they had not experienced many major battles.

Moreover, because of his calculations, the Starmoon Troop did not suffer too many casualties.

Most of the time, they only needed to follow orders resolutely, and then they could get the most credit at a relatively small price.

Such a growth process gave the soldiers of the Star Moon Army unparalleled confidence.

And now, the aftereffects of this growth had arrived.

The Starmoon Troops could fearlessly fight against an army that was equal to them.

However, when faced with the Black Guards, who were obviously stronger than them, they began to lose confidence.

What was this?

What Li Yueming wanted was an invincible army that could sweep across the world.

They were not a bunch of trash that only knew how to bully the weak and fear the strong.

The Star Moon Army's current performance was clearly far from what Li Yueming wanted. They needed to be trained at a deeper level.

Only with a firm will and the courage to defeat the impossible could one be considered a truly invincible warrior.

And the Black Armored Guards in front of him were a very good whetstone!

Therefore, he had no choice.

He looked at the murderous Black Armored Guards not far away.

Li Yueming did not hesitate and said loudly, ““1,000 brave ones, everyone else retreat. Today, I will let this group of Qin soldiers open their eyes and see if our Star Moon Army is truly invincible!”

Hearing this.

Immediately, everyone in the Star Moon Army, including the reincarnators, was stunned.

Great General Li was going to fight the Black Armored Guards one-on-one!