Chapter 481: Star Moon Army, Only Fight to the Death! 1

Li Yueming wanted to build an army that could defeat everything and end everything.

To achieve this, the Starmoon Troop had to have something that no other army had.

For example, the Star Moon Army was considered a powerful army in the eyes of the world. However, in Li Yueming's eyes, it was just a second-rate army with insufficient confidence and willpower.

After all, an army that only knew how to succeed was not a good army for him.

Only by facing life and death without fear.

Only then could the Star-Moon Army possess the immortal temperament that Li Yueming had expected.

Therefore, Li Yueming had taken the initiative to ask the Starmoon Army to step forward with 1,000 people in order to personally inject the soul into the Starmoon Army.

It didn't matter who the enemy was.

He still believed that his invincible courage had built his soul.

Behind them, many people in the Star Moon Army were stunned for a moment.

Obviously, they did not expect Li Yueming to take the initiative to give up the advantage of numbers and actually want them to fight one-on-one with the Qin army's black armored guards...

One had to know that this was the Black Armored Guards!

It was one of the 12 strongest armies of the Qin army that possessed the Army Soul.

Even though the Starmoon Troop had believed for many years that they were one of the best troops in the world, they were still not as powerful as the Starmoon Troop.

Now that they were facing the Black Armor Guards, they still retreated.

It was not that they were not brave enough.

Instead, it was because the other party was using something that was completely unreasonable.

That was the soul of the army!

With the same number of soldiers, how could an ordinary army of theirs defeat an army with a military spirit?

However, when he heard Li Yueming's loud roar.

The 8,000 elite Starmoon Troops behind him sent out over 1,000 soldiers.

Even though he knew that he was no match for the Black Armored Guards.

However, these soldiers were willing to offer their names to Li Yueming.

Therefore, he still stood up without any regrets.

Li Yueming smiled and seemed to be quite satisfied.

Tian Liang, Huang Li 'er, and the others also followed closely behind.

There was no other way. There were more than a hundred reincarnators in the Qin army.

As reincarnators of the Star Moon Army, they naturally could not let the Star Moon Army suffer losses in terms of high -end combat strength.

Currently, only Ding Yi, who was the deputy commander, stood silently not far away and continued to command the thousands of troops of the Starmoon Troop in pursuit to prevent any accidents from happening.

Not far away, Li Yueming pressed the horse's back.

Soon, over a thousand Starmoon Troop members followed behind him as if they had gone mad.

On the other side, the Qin army couldn't help but laugh hideously.

The Qin general named Wu Tian mocked disdainfully, "'1 don't know who gave you the courage. 8,000 Great Zhou soldiers might not be a match for my Black-armored Iron Guards, but a mere 1,000 people dare to come and attack a rock with an egg? Hmph, you don't know what's good for you!"

As he spoke, he also pressed his horse back.

He led more than a thousand Black Armored Guards and swooped down like a black stream of light.

Both sides were very fast.

There was no hesitation.

In the next second.

The sound of close combat rang out.

"Clang! "

This was a collision between spears.

From afar, the Starmoon Troop and the Black Armored Guards looked like two completely different torrents.

Like hot oil meeting cold water, they collided in the same stream.

"Kill them!"

When the two armies met.

In a short moment, the Qin army's Black Armored Guards all shouted one word at the same time.

At this moment, the thousands of Black Armored Guards seemed to be a single entity.

In just a single exchange, hundreds of Star Moon Troop members were chopped to the ground.

One had to know that those who could follow behind Li Yueming to pursue him were the most elite existences in the Star Moon Army.

Many of them were veterans who had followed Li Yueming when the Starmoon Troop was first established.

But now, under the collision of the Black Armored Guards, it was like an egg hitting a stone.

The Black Armored Guards did not suffer much damage.

The Star Moon Army had more than 1,000 people, but there were hundreds of heads falling to the ground and horses neighing.

Because both sides were cavalry.

As a result, the time that the two troops had been in contact was very short.

After only a few minutes of contact, they dispersed again.

Li Yueming and a few reincarnators were covered in blood.

The blood on Li Yueming's body was the blood from the Qin army's head.

As for the blood on Huang Li 'er and the other reincarnators.

It was the blood that had spurted out from the deaths of his soldiers when he fought with the Qin army, who were also reincarnated. At this moment, they all felt a heart-wrenching pain.

Although he didn't want to admit it.

However, after so many years of hard work and interaction.

The Starmoon Troop had unknowingly merged with them.

After all, the human heart was long.

Many of the Starmoon Troops were personally trained by them.

In the past, he had even drunk wine and eaten meat with them...

Now, they could only watch as they fell one by one, dying under the hooves of the Qin army.

The eyes of the group of reincarnators turned red.

The Starmoon Troop had never suffered such a huge loss since its establishment.

However, at this moment, the most cold-blooded person was none other than General Li Yueming, who had personally established the Star Moon Army.

After the failure of the first charge.

Li Yueming didn't change his mind and turned his horse around.. Instead, he continued to speak,""Star Moon Army, send another 1,000 men and charge over with me!"

Chapter 482: Star Moon Army, Only Fight to the Death! 2

At this moment.

Everyone was silent.

However, in the next second, a thousand people still charged forward on their warhorses without hesitation.

If it was someone else, the Starmoon Troop members might have hesitated.

But Li Yueming was different.

He was not only the general of the Starmoon Army, but also the soul of the Starmoon Army.

Li Yueming had only allowed them to defeat the enemy.

Even if Li Yueming wanted them to go through a mountain of knives and a sea of fire.

They would also execute it without hesitation.

Before the soldiers could enter the formation, Li Yueming had already led the Star Moon Army into a second charge.

While leading the Star Moon Troop forward, Li Yueming said, "Do you still remember what I told you before? The Starmoon Army wants to become the strongest army in this world..."

The soldiers of the Star Moon Army behind him replied in unison, "'1 didn't forget. I dare not forget!"

"So if you can't even defeat a single Qin army, how can you become the strongest army in the world?" Li Yueming continued."

In just a few words, the Star Moon Army had already clashed with the Black Armor Guards for the second time.

This time, it's more miserable than before.

The Black Armored Guards, who were prepared for the Starmoon Troop's combat power, directly tore apart the Starmoon Troop's flank troops.

In just a few minutes of confrontation.

The Starmoon Troop paid a heavy price of over 500 deaths.

For a moment, the horses mourned, and red blood splattered all over the ground.

The second charge didn't have enough effect.

After Li Yueming killed a dozen Qin soldiers, he led the remaining soldiers to retreat.

Halfway through the retreat, Li Yueming, who was covered in blood, continued,""Let me ask you, if you can't even defeat a single Qin army, how can you become the strongest army in the world?"

Silence.

No one answered.

Li Yueming sniffed the bloody smell at the tip of his nose. To be honest, his heart was bleeding at this moment.

However, an army that was good at fighting could not be pampered.

He would not tolerate any hesitation on the path of the charge.

Therefore, he came to the front of the Star Moon Troop's formation for the third time and said,""Is the Starmoon Army still brave enough? 1,000 people!" This time, the remaining thousands of soldiers fell silent.

He looked at the corpse of his companion, which was still bleeding on the ground not far away.

Many people felt as if their throats were on fire.

He couldn't take his own steps.

Because everyone was now clear.

If he took this step, he might end up like his comrade, who had no qualms about going back. He might fall under the Black Armored Guards not far away and die a miserable death.

It was meaningless.

Therefore, the remaining Starmoon Troop hesitated.

The originally orderly formation even broke into an uproar for a moment.

No one responded to Li Yueming's question immediately.

Seeing this, Li Yueming ignored them and turned to the remaining 500 soldiers."Since no one else dares to fight, then you guys will follow me back!"

As he spoke.

He did not hesitate at all.

He drove the warhorse under his feet and charged at the Black Armored Guards for the third time.

At this moment, the Black Armored Guards, who only had a thousand men, were like a mountain in the hearts of everyone in the Starmoon Troop.

It was so heavy that every soldier of the Star Moon Army felt a chill in their hearts.

However, as a general, Li Yueming had already rushed over without hesitation.

They could only muster up their courage and dive toward the Grim Reaper again.

Not far away, as the commander of the Black Armored Guards, Wu Tian grinned when he saw this scene."Look, I thought the Star Moon Army was strong, but in the end, they are nothing in front of us black armored guards!"

"This general of the Star Moon Army seems to be a bit stupid. I really don't know how he built such a stupid army!"

The first two charges had allowed the black armored guards to thoroughly understand the Star Moon Army's strength.

Although they were indeed well-trained.

However, in front of the black armored guards who possessed the military spirit, they were not worth mentioning at all.

Not to mention Li Yueming only led a thousand Starmoon Troops to launch a charge.

Even if he brought 8,000 people, Wu Zhong was confident that he could tear off a piece of meat from the Star Moon Army.

At this moment, the black armored soldiers behind him were still the same as before.

Unmoving like a mountain, moving like lightning.

Li Yueming led the remaining hundreds of soldiers and charged at the Black Armored Guards for the third time.

This was because the number of soldiers charging this time was small.

The damage was not as serious as the previous two times.

However, the results were the same as the previous two times. Other than hitting a rock with an egg, no one saw any hope of success.

Moreover, Li Yueming encountered some trouble when he retreated this time.

He was surrounded by more than 20 reincarnators from the Qin army. Fortunately, Li Yueming was strong enough to kill his way out.

The third time, the team returned.

Li Yueming continued to ask, "Star Moon Army. You can't even defeat a single Qin army. You don't even have the courage to face them. How can you become the strongest in the world?"

This time, Li Yueming had just charged out from the encirclement of the Qin army, and his entire body was bathed in blood.

Not only was there the enemy's blood, but there was also his own.

From afar, he looked like a god of war who had descended from the sky.

He was so valiant.

Thousands of troops passed through the city, killing the enemy like cutting grass.

The few times he charged, he was the one killing the enemy.

If Li Yueming wasn't leading the Star Moon Army, but the Dragon Tiger Army of the Great Zhou Dynasty, then he wouldn't have been able to do so.

Would the current battle situation be rewritten?

At this moment, the Star Moon Troop could not help but think..

Chapter 483: Star Moon Army, Only Fight to the Death!

However, for some reason.

They remembered the training they had never stopped for so many years.

The Great Zhou was not a nomadic race.

Therefore, if the Star Moon Army wanted to be as proficient in riding horses and archery as the Qin army, they would have to work hard in the future.

When they fell down again and again during training and got up again and again.

They felt as if they had comprehended the true meaning of life.

And now, looking at the hoarse Li Yueming and the thousands of terrified companions behind him, who did not even dare to muster up the courage to follow Li Yueming and fight.

For some reason, they seemed to have once again understood the true meaning of war.

Therefore, when they heard that Li Yueming was covered in blood and asked them how they could become the strongest army, they were shocked.

Someone from Li Yueming's remaining army suddenly spoke. His voice was hoarse, but it was extremely sincere. "The Star Moon Troop will only fight to the death!"

She heard his voice.

Instantly, Li Yueming, who was originally covered in blood and shouting himself hoarse, was stunned.

He looked around and finally found the soldier who had spoken. It was a young face that Li Yueming recognized. He was the son of a hunter in Northern Ice River Town. He was not married and was not even twenty years old.

Back then, when his father was hunting in the mountains, he was injured by a wild beast. In order to support his parents and young sister, the young man chose to join the Star Moon Army to eat military rations.

Li Yueming patted his head and smiled, "Well said, it's just a battle to the death. "

This young soldier was obviously a little nervous at first.

Now that he had received Li Yueming's affirmation, he couldn't help but say loudly, "General Li, please lead me to the front again. The Star Moon Army only has people who fight to the death and never retreat."

Li Yueming burst into laughter.

The young man shouldered the hopes of his family, yet he still had such courage.

How could he, a reincarnator, be afraid?

Therefore, Li Yueming did not pay attention to the remaining 300 Star Moon Army soldiers.

He turned around and looked at the nearby Qin army and said, "In that case, you have to follow closely. Star Moon Army, kill!"

As he spoke, Li Yueming whipped his horse and the horse galloped like the wind.

Behind him, the young man also waved his whip a few times and followed Li Yueming.

All of this happened too suddenly.

As a result, the other soldiers of the Star Moon Army did not have time to recover from their shock.

Now, he looked at the backs of the two people.

Many of the soldiers of the Star Moon Army seemed to have something hooked in their hearts.

That's right...

Where did the disciplined Star Moon Army go?

Could it be that just because they were the twelve armies of the Qin army that possessed the spirit of the army, the Star Moon Army had lost their pride?

If it was so easy to trample on one's dignity.

Then what was the difference between the Star Moon Troop and the other third-rate armies?

Now, even Li Yueming was taking the lead and risking his life.

And why would they hesitate to step forward?

Li Yueming asked how the Star Moon Troop could become an extraordinary army.

All of them gave their answers.

He could only fight to the death!

After thinking through everything.

All the Star Moon Troops behind him finally felt the burning fire burning in their chests. The Star Moon Troop had been established for so many years, but they had never suffered such a great loss in the hands of a Qin army!

In just a few charges, the Qin army was safe and sound.

However, countless of their compatriots had died.

They were humiliated and trampled by the Qin army.

Why?

Just because they had the military spirit?

This was not a reason for them to be timid.

Thus, looking at Li Yue Ming who had already launched four charges, the entire Star Moon Army couldn't help but wave the horse whip in their hands, driving their horses to follow closely behind the two. At this moment, no one in the Star Moon Army said anything.

The entire army was as silent as a rock.

However, their footsteps had never been so steady.

1,000 people, 2,000 people...

In just a few seconds, the 5,000-plus troops that had been stationed at the same spot had all charged out.

All of them followed behind Li Yueming, wanting to crush this arrogant Qin army that dared to invade the Star Moon Army's abdomen with just a thousand people.

Not far away, Wu Tian could not help but lick his lips when he saw this.

He looked at Li Yueming, who was at the front of the line, and whispered to the few strongest reincarnators beside him, "Later, we'll capture that general in charge. I heard that the First Prince hates him to the bone. If we can send his head over, we'll probably be able to make a great contribution!"

The few reincarnators beside him also licked their lips.

They had been killed by Li Yueming a few times just now, so they had been paying close attention to Li Yueming.

After all, they were all reincarnators. To be able to kill his way out of their encirclement was enough to prove that Li Yueming was extraordinary.

Therefore, he was prepared to capture Li Yueming.

He would probably receive a huge reward if he sent it back.

After a discussion, the few of them also drove the army towards the direction of the Star Moon Army.

However, this time, it seemed to be very different.

What he wanted the Black Guards to feel the most was Li Yueming's combat power.

In the previous few battles, they felt that Li Yueming's strength should be at the peak of the True Form Realm.

To be able to cultivate to truth realisation state peak stage at the age of twenty.

Even among the reincarnators, it was already quite good.

Not to mention that according to the intelligence, Li Yueming seemed to be a native.

However, the strength that Li Yueming displayed in the first exchange had far exceeded the expectations of all the Black Armored Guards.

Li Yueming's strength had increased by an entire realm.

He had actually reached the Spirit Concentration Realm!

Nearly a hundred soldiers were sent flying by Li Yueming's slap, rolling on the ground.

In just a few breaths.

Even though the Black Armored Guards had the military spirit, Li Yueming easily tore a hole in them.

After discovering this, all the reincarnators of the Qin army, including Wu Tian, could not help but widen their eyes.

He repeated that the picture he had just seen was not real.

It was as if they were all illusions.

However, what happened next made their hair stand on end.

For some reason, the Star Moon Troop, which was previously a third-rate army, had become several levels more terrifying.

Just as Li Yueming tore apart the flank of the Black Armored Guards like a spear, the Star Moon Army following behind him was like the tip of the spear, tearing apart the flank of the Black Armored Guards.

In the end, he had relied on his fearless attitude and his numerical advantage to tear the entire Black Armored Guards' formation into two.

It directly caused the Black Iron Guards to lose hundreds of people!

Of course, the Star Moon Army's price was even greater. This wave of charge could cost nearly a thousand lives.

However, the Star Moon Troop had enough soldiers!

As long as he could tear through the Black Armored Army's defense, he would be able to find a way to break through them one by one.

Seeing this scene.

Wu Tian, who was originally very pleased with himself, could not believe his eyes.

F * ck...

How did the opponent, who was so vulnerable just a moment ago, become so terrifying in a few breaths?

Moreover, they were clearly a troop that had not produced an army soul. What right did they have to tear apart the Black Armored Army that had an army soul?

After a few questions.

Wu Tian and the group of reincarnators around him were puzzled.

However, at this moment, many people had already completely woken up. Looking at the Star Moon Army, including Wu Tian and the other reincarnators, who were eyeing them covetously not far away, everyone smelled a bad aura.

Could it be that they would really be defeated by a troop that did not even have a military spirit?

Chapter 484: 209_1

Looking at the Star Moon Army that was not far away, the Qin Army of the Black Armored Guards were all dumbfounded.

To be honest, it was hard for them to imagine that they would be defeated by a group of soldiers who had yet to awaken their military spirit.

This was no joke.

An army with an army spirit and an army without an awakened army spirit were two completely different concepts.

The army of the military soul can compete with the powerful cultivator.

It was the continuation of the human will.

An army without an army spirit was like a group of well- trained ordinary people.

It was simply not enough to compare to a powerful cultivator.

But now.

The Black Armored Guards' defensive line had truly been torn apart by the Star Moon Army.

Just that one charge had caused the Black Armored Guards to pay the price of hundreds of casualties.

Of course, the ones who contributed the most were Li Yueming and the dozen or so reincarnators behind him.

If they had not acted as spearheads to break through the Black Armored Guards' defenses, the Star Moon Army would not have been able to follow behind them and continue to expand the front line.

As the commander of this small group of black armored guards.

At that moment, Wu Tian's expression was very bad.

Wu Tian was able to become the leader of the Black Armored Guards not only because he was born in the State of Qin and was very outstanding.

It was also because Wu Tian himself was very hardworking.

He was only 22 years old, but he had already won all kinds of glory in the army. But now.

However, he had suffered such a huge setback in the northern regions of the Great Zhou.

It could be said that Li Yueming's charge had caused Wu Tian to suffer heavy losses.

Not to mention that every soldier of the Black Iron Guards was extremely precious.

Just the fact that he had lost face here was enough to make Wu Tian extremely angry.

He glared at Li Yueming.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and said, "Just you wait. The Black Iron Guards are not so easy to kill!"

With that, he did not hesitate and turned his horse around, preparing to leave with the remaining few hundred Black Armored Guards.

He had stopped earlier because he wanted to meet the Star Moon Troop. They wanted to see just how powerful this army that was famous throughout Great Qin was.

But now, the Star Moon Army had gathered thousands of soldiers.

In addition, Li Yueming and the other higher-ups were very powerful cultivators. They had the ability to tear through the defense of the Black Armored Guards.

It was clearly unwise to continue fighting.

Therefore, after realizing that staying behind would not bring them any benefits other than losses.

Wu Tian decisively ordered the retreat.

Of course, losing people didn't mean losing the formation.

It was still necessary to say a few harsh words.

Li Yueming did not lead his army to pursue them. He wanted to wipe out the Black Armored Guards in one fell swoop, but he really could not catch up. If the Qin army wanted to run, even if the Star Moon Army had two warhorses, they might not be able to catch up.

In addition, although they were defeated, they had not lost their combat strength.

If he chased after her, he might even get himself involved if he was not careful.

Therefore, when they heard Wu Tian's harsh words, many of the Star Moon Army soldiers could only glare at him angrily.

After the Qin army of the Black Armored Guards left with their men.

Li Yueming also brought the Star Moon Army back to Northern Glacier Town.

The Star Moon Army had suffered heavy losses in this battle.

However, the Starmoon Troop saw something different.

In the past, although the Starmoon Troop was equally powerful, they did not have the spirit to face death like today.

However, after the battle with the Black Armor Guards.

The Starmoon Troop had already understood what it meant to fight to the death.

Although only the elite few thousand troops had comprehended this kind of powerful willpower energy.

However, Li Yueming believed that this power was like a seed planted in the soil in spring. Sooner or later, it would grow into a unique beauty in the soil in spring.

As the gardener who took care of the Starmoon Army, he only needed to wait patiently for the day the flowers bloomed.

.0.

In the blink of an eye, two years had passed.

The growth rings of time silently arrived at Year 7293 of the Great Zhou Royal Calendar.

The current Six Nations had unknowingly entered an era of endless turmoil.

The six dynasties were all in an uproar.

It was because there were people from all over the world who came forward and spread the same news at the same time.

That was, the world that had been divided for tens of thousands of years would welcome a second unification during this period.

Whoever among the six kingdoms could destroy the other kingdoms would become the second Human Ruler of Tiandu.

He would establish a rarely seen unified empire and gather all the luck in the world to ascend.

After hearing this news, the entire land of the six states was in an uproar.

In the northeast, Da Qi had been actively exploring the ocean for hundreds of years. However, for some reason, it suddenly turned its attention from the ocean back to the land. It was obvious that it also had the intention to compete for hegemony.

Da Qi was a country with a good geographical location.

The entire country looked like a small island in the northeast.

Not only was it close to the coastal area, but it also had a natural harbor.

Therefore, the resources were very abundant.

It had always been one of the strongest countries in the world.

This brought great pressure to the only neighbor in the southwest, the Great Zhou.

However, because the Great Qi had not fought on land for a long time, they had now sent over a million soldiers to train aggressively.

In the short term, the Great Zhou would not have to worry about the Great Qi taking advantage of the Great Qin's pressure to steal their territory.

At the same time..

Chapter 485: 209_2

The Great Ming in the southeast of the Great Zhou and the Great Song in the southwest fought.

The Ming Dynasty generals were all imposing and led the Ming Dynasty cavalry to attack the city.

For a time, the Great Song, which valued literature over martial arts, was forced to retreat and beg for peace.

At the same time, the Great Tang and the Great Han were also exchanging blows.

As Great Qin's largest neighboring country, the Great Qin Empire was extremely powerful.

The Great Tang had also provided a large amount of power to restrain Great Qin's development.

After all, if one were to say which of the six dynasties had the greatest ambition and the strongest army, then it would be a matter of time.

Then, the Qin country would definitely be able to be ranked.

The Qin army was already crazy, and the reform of Lord Shang had turned the entire Qin army into a war machine.

If it wasn't for the Great Tang suppressing the Qin army from the south, Great Qin would have long ago grown to dominate the world, and it wouldn't have needed to expend so much effort to attack the Great Zhou.

Overall.

If the wars of the six dynasties in the past few thousand years could be considered as cooking on a small scale.

In the past few years, because of the prophecies in the world and the propaganda of many reincarnators from various countries.

The Six Nations War had become the ultimate war that shook the entire continent.

More and more countries were affected, and more and more people were involved.

The fate of countless people was like this damn era.

Other than the tragedy, there was only a war of blood and fire.

He had no choice.

During this process, the reincarnators from various countries also began to show their talents. They began to walk on the vast and boundless stage of the battlefield of the six countries and displayed their skills to complete their respective main missions.

Li Yueming was also being taken in by this mighty trend

However, as a supernumerary staff member, he left faster than the others.

After two years of development, the Star Moon Army had become a behemoth with 200,000 soldiers.

Northern Glacier Town's permanent population had reached 500,000, making it one of the largest cities in the north after Zhenbei City.

Of course, in these two years, the Qin army did not give up on invading the Great Zhou.

This was because Li Yueming had asked Little Fox to relax the control of the extremely cold snow mountain.

As a result, the number of Qin soldiers in the north had multiplied. In these two years, the Qin army in the north had already exceeded three hundred thousand.

With such a large number of Qin troops, they were no longer as small as before.

In two years, they had taken down three cities in the northern part of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

The entire Great Zhou was in an uproar.

The two sides engaged in a prolonged battle over the ownership of the city.

It could not be helped; the topic of Great Qin invading the Great Zhou City was simply too sensitive.

No matter how good the emperor's temper was.

When he heard that the northern cities had been occupied by the Qin army, he still lost his temper.

The Northern Battlefront Army and Prince Yu's army went all out.

In order to prevent the Black Armored Guards from being unstoppable, the emperor had even sent out nearly 100,000 Dragon Tiger Guards to fight against them.

In the past two years, the Northern Lands had been like a giant millstone of flesh and blood. Countless people had died.

Li Yueming's Star Moon Army was also sent out one after another.

In fact, the Star Moon Army had replaced the soldiers of the Northern Battlefront Army on a large scale and became the new force to defend the Qin army.

It was also because of this that the Great Zhou could rest assured and fight the Qin army to the death without worrying about the city being ambushed.

The Great Zhou, which was in the quagmire of war, had suffered a great loss in the past few years.

In order to stabilize the country.

It was also to stabilize the hearts of the army and the people.

Finally, the emperor officially announced the news of a marriage alliance with the Li family, the former Duke of the State and the current Marquis of Southpeak.

The imperial decree announced that Li Ruyue, the eldest daughter of the Marquis of the South Mountain, would be betrothed to the Crown Prince.

His second daughter, Li Ruxing, was betrothed to the Second Prince.

In order to show his sincerity and to commend the Li family for their loyalty to the country and their contribution to the border.

The emperor was even prepared to send his third daughter.

Princess Qiancheng married the son of the Marquis of South Peak, Li Yueming.

For a moment, the entire Great Zhou was in an uproar.

The marriage between Li Jia and the royal family was a crucial point of view. It was definitely a good thing for the country and the people.

After all, Li Nanfeng was one of the core generals of the Western Garrison Army.

The son of the Marquis of Southpeak, the current Earl Li Yueming, was also the founder of the Northern Starmoon Army.

The father and son were both pillars of the border.

The fact that the royal family could marry him meant that the royal family could firmly control the father and son. It also meant that there would not be any problems in the war in the north and northwest for a short period of time.

This was a great thing for the world.

Of course, there would also be quite a number of aristocratic families who would be unhappy.

After all, once the Li family accepted the royal family, it would mean that for a long time in the future, the families behind them would probably have to submit to the Li family.

The Li family would become the most powerful family in the Great Zhou Dynasty.

No one would be able to stop its sharpness.

However, the current situation was special.

Even if a group of great clans and imperial relatives had objections, they could only hold it in.

Because at this critical moment of the invasion, uniting the Li family was a national policy formulated by the Emperor to stabilize the morale of the army. Moreover, whether it was the Great Zhou army or the citizens, they all hoped to see such an outcome.

If he stood up to object now, the emperor probably didn't even need to say anything.

A single spit from the people of the world would nail those who opposed him to the ground, never to rise again.

Therefore, ever since the emperor announced this matter.

Everyone in and out of the court agreed.

Basically, no one dared to stand up and object.

The emperor was clearly mentally prepared for this..

Chapter 486: 209_3

Otherwise, he wouldn't have chosen such a critical moment to announce it.

In order to win over Li Yueming and the Li family.

This time, the emperor had invested a lot.

There was nothing he could do.

If they did not rope in the Li family, the Great Zhou might face the immense pressure brought by the Qin army's elites.

As long as he could win over the Li family, he could make Li Yueming and Li Nanfeng the cushions of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

As long as he had the two girls in his hands, he was not afraid that the Li family would not be obedient.

As for whether the Li family would become too powerful because of this...

The emperor was not worried about this at all.

At this critical juncture, he really couldn't directly suppress the Li family's power.

However, once this critical juncture was passed...

He could have directly sent the Dragon Tiger Army to take over the border.

Before making these decisions, the emperor had already considered everything.

This move was vicious.

However...

Just as everything was about to ripen, a discordant voice suddenly sounded in Wenzhou City.

Li Ruxing, who received Li Yueming's signal, stood up first and said reasonably, "We are deeply terrified to hear Your Majesty's favor. However, my daughter and sister have lacked the control of their fathers and brothers since they were young. They are used to being unrestrained and have no intention of marrying for the time being...If Your Majesty is really grateful for the Li family's contribution, then please let the two of us go to the north or the western border to make contributions to the country!"

As soon as he said this.

Haojing had yet to react.

The entire Wenzhou City was in an uproar.

Many people were shocked by Li Ruxing's words.

One had to know that this was a marriage problem personally handled by the emperor.

The two women of the Li family dared to openly refute in front of so many people. Not only did they say that they had no intention of getting married, but they also wanted to go to the north or the western border to make contributions.

Such treasonous remarks were no less than dancing on the tip of a knife.

He was really courting death!

As expected, the emperor was so angry that his nose almost went crooked.

He immediately ordered the internal guards to go to Wenzhou City to arrest them. He was obviously annoyed by Li Ruxing's words.

Li Ruxing was quite calm. He stayed with his sister Li Ruyue in Wenzhou City and did not go anywhere.

He didn't say a word after he was caught.

Although the internal guards felt that these two women dared to openly oppose the emperor.

It felt ridiculous.

However, he was still afraid of the strength behind the Li family and did not dare to overstep his boundaries with the two women.

After capturing Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue.

Only then did the exasperated emperor realize that he was on fire.

Under normal circumstances, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue should have been married.

Then, he would marry Princess Qiancheng to Li Yueming.

Then the entire Li family would be tied to the Great Zhou's chariot.

However, what he never expected was that he had thought of all the links and considered almost every possible accident.

However, he did not expect to be played with.

Although the Li family did not say anything from the beginning to the end.

However, Li Ruxing and Li Yueming had openly expressed their lack of interest in this marriage in front of the world.

As the emperor, if he still wanted to force the two of them to marry down.

Didn't that mean that his relationship with the Li family wasn't good? Even this marriage was forced by him to lower his head?

And this was not the main problem.

The most important thing was that he had Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue, the two girls, in his hands. It was equivalent to holding a time bomb in his hands.

After all, everyone in the world was watching!

The emperor had imprisoned the two daughters of the Li family. Would the Li family still behave themselves in the border?

In other words.

After capturing Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue, he couldn't kill or imprison them.

He would probably have to pinch his nose and send them back to the North.

For a moment, the emperor felt a deep malice.

He was also extremely wary of Li Yueming and Li Nanfeng.

Back then, the old warden of the Imperial Astronomical Bureau had told him that Li Yueming was too difficult to see through. Once he realized that he could not win him over, the best choice was to kill him.

However, the emperor did not pay much attention to this at that time.

After all, Li Yueming was too weak at that time. He was so weak that he was like an inconspicuous ant in his eyes.

Therefore, the emperor thought that everything was under control and did not take Li Yueming too seriously.

However, it had only been more than ten years.

That inconspicuous ant had suddenly grown into a king.

The speed of his growth was so fast that even he felt somewhat unprepared.

Now, he realized that he really could not easily touch this ant.

There was nothing he could do. The other party was involved in too many things. Even he had to treat it with caution.

The emperor locked himself in his room and racked his brains for a few days. In the end, he still could not find a foolproof solution.

This move was too ruthless!

It was simply a drastic measure.

Not only did it shatter his plan to forcefully tie up the Li family, but it also shattered his plan.

He even exposed the Zhou Dynasty's strong exterior and weak interior under the sun.

The current emperor was like a pig being roasted on a fire. No matter what he did, it would be wrong.

Kill Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue?

It sounded ruthless.

But how should he deal with Li Nanfeng and Li Yueming in the north and the west?

No one could guarantee that if they were forced into a corner.

The father and son wouldn't be desperate.

At that time, if anything happened to the north or the western frontier...

To the Great Zhou, this was a huge matter.

However, if he did not kill Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue, where would the royal family's face go?

Even if he did not consider the issue of the royal family's face.

If he didn't kill them, how would he deal with Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue?

No matter how he dealt with it, it seemed to be wrong for the emperor.

It was just how many mistakes he made.

At the same time, the Li family in the distant western border also received relevant news.

After all, Wenzhou City was a town in the Central Plains, and it was very far from the north and west.

Hence, it was normal for the news to be delayed.

Li Yueming and Li Nanfeng both showed a terrified attitude.

It was as if he wanted the Emperor to trigger Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue again.

He also expressed that the Li family was willing to form an alliance with the royal family. It was only because Li Ruxing was used to being lawless since she was young that she caused such a big mess.

In any case, this matter had nothing to do with the Li family.

It was all Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue's own idea.

Chapter 487: Li Family Sisters Reunite!_1

After learning the news, the Li family showed their righteous behavior.

He had suggested many times that the emperor punish Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue severely.

His words clearly showed his loyalty to the emperor.

Even the Marquis of Southern Mountains, Li Nanfeng, had repeatedly expressed his intention to resign from his post in the northwestern border and return to the capital to punish his two daughters for their heinous crimes.

As soon as he said this.

He could only fool some low-level officials and ordinary people who were not smart and had limited information channels.

Most of the people with discerning eyes only sneered.

Because all the nobles who knew the whole story knew.

The problem in this matter was not Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue.

Instead, it was a secret contest between the Li family and the emperor.

After all, no matter how pampered Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were, they did not believe that two weak women would dare to make such a big mess without informing their families.

However, if the two sisters had already communicated with their family, they would still have caused such a huge mess.

What did this mean?

This meant that the Li family had probably done this on purpose!

The real reason was that he did not want to be tied to the chariot of the Great Zhou Dynasty by the emperor's marriage.

It was also because of this that the sisters, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue, stood up at such a critical juncture and gave the emperor two tight slaps.

This was very subtle.

Now, the Li family acted like innocent victims and took the initiative to stand up for the emperor to punish them severely.

However, even if the emperor was really exasperated and wanted to trigger it again, what could he do to the two women?

At the end of the day, they were not in the wrong.

He just didn't want to marry into the royal family.

If they were to be punished according to such a name.

It would only put the emperor in an awkward position and even lower the status of the entire royal family.

As for the Li family, even though they knew that they would offend the emperor, they still stood up and showed their loyalty, allowing the emperor to do whatever he wanted. It was no different from roasting the emperor on a fire.

The reason for this was probably just a tacit performance.

This was politics.

The flowers on the surface could never hide the ice-cold knife that was mixed in.

Some people only saw the flowers, but they ignored the danger that could be hidden in the flowers.

The final result would be very miserable.

The Great Zhou did not lack idiots, but it never lacked smart people.

Many smart people who knew the real reason behind this incident came back to their senses and were all amazed by the Li family's unconventional behavior.

Not only did it resolve the crisis of the emperor forcefully annexing the Li family.

He had even successfully disgusted the emperor.

Of course, apart from being amazed.

Many people also noticed the abnormality of the Li family.

They actually dared to offend the emperor like this. The Li family was really not afraid of being burned to ashes by the angry emperor!

Or rather... The Li family dared to treat the imperial court like this.

Did it prove that they had already made other preparations?

During this period of time, the group of people stared with wide eyes, wanting to see how this farce would end.

Was he playing with fire?

It all depended on the emperor's attitude.

Under such circumstances, the emperor finally made up his mind after struggling for many days.

It could be said that when Li Ruxing stood up and expressed that she was unwilling to get married.

He had already lost in this farce.

He had considered the various countermeasures the Li family had, and in contrast, he had also prepared various countermeasures.

However, he never expected that the Lee family would use Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue to play their cards, catching him off guard.

Now, no matter what they did, the Great Zhou royal family seemed to be unable to avoid losses and mistakes.

Therefore, between a big mistake and a small mistake.

The emperor chose the gentlest path.

After being detained for more than ten days, he actually released Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue.

Moreover, he pretended to be grateful to the outside world.

He claimed that he was grateful for the Li family's contribution and finally decided to forgive the two women's disrespect. In any case, he had to occupy the moral high ground.

As for the real situation...

In fact, the emperor had chosen to admit defeat in the end and not fight to the death with the Li family.

The entire court was in an uproar.

No one had expected that such a farce would end in such an absurd way. Only a few people who knew the inside story knew what kind of confrontation had happened.

The Li family..

His guts had really grown!

He didn't know that he had been a border official for so many years.

Did they grow enough wings to withstand the wrath of the emperor?

Many people in the world felt that a storm was coming.

The war between the western frontier and the northern land was already intense enough.

Now, the royal family and the Li family were in conflict again.

If they were not careful, the entire Great Zhou would be in turmoil.

After being released by the emperor.

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue did not stand on ceremony.

He immediately returned to his temporary residence in Wenzhou City to pack his things.

Then, he went to Northern Ice River Town to look for his younger brother, Li Yueming, without looking back.

After all, the Li family could be considered to have completely fallen out with the emperor and the Great Zhou Imperial Court.

There was no place for them in the Chinese server.

Only Northern Glacier Town could barely be considered a good place to stay.

Li Yueming naturally welcomed this with both hands and feet..

Chapter 488: Li Family Sisters Reunite!_2

After the Li family at the western border heard the news, they quietly moved their headquarters to the edge of the western border. Clearly, it was to prevent the emperor from sending people to exterminate the entire Li family. Of course, this didn't exist in Li Yueming's calculations.

Although the emperor of this generation had a bad temper, he knew how to judge the situation.

As long as the Li family was willing to stay at the border to fight against the Qin army, the emperor would not completely fall out with the Li family.

After all, in the emperor's eyes, although the Li family was despicable, compared to the Qin army, which could easily be destroyed, they could still be considered harmless little Karami.

In fact, that was indeed the case.

No matter how powerful and influential the Li family was, they were still just a family.

No matter how arrogant he was, he would at most occupy a corner of the land and be the king behind closed doors.

As long as the Great Zhou Dynasty had the time, they could easily kill him.

However, Great Qin was different.

If the mighty Qin army invaded the hinterland of the Great Zhou, it was really possible that this huge kingdom that had been passed down for tens of thousands of years would be completely destroyed.

The dangers of the two were not on the same level.

Thus, it was self-evident what the current emperor, who was good at weighing pros and cons, would choose.

What happened after that basically confirmed Li Yueming's judgment.

After suffering this loss, the emperor no longer wanted to tie the Li family to the Zhou Dynasty.

Of course, the Li family also paid a price for this.

The first was the Duke's estate in the western border. The emperor had sent people to take it back and demolished all the buildings that did not conform to etiquette in the Li family. He announced that the Li family would no longer enjoy the extravagance and treatment of the Duke's estate. All the buildings and clothing could only be calculated according to the title of Marquis of Southern Mountains.

Secondly, more than half of the Star Moon Army's rations had been cut off.

In the past, no matter how difficult it was, the imperial court had never lacked the Star Moon Army's rations.

However, after offending the emperor this time, the imperial court had reduced the provisions provided to the Star Moon Army by more than half. The remaining provisions could only barely keep the Star Moon Army running. They would not give any more.

Every position and experience of these so-called management were higher than Li Yueming.

They were sent here purely to make Li Yueming unhappy.

Under the triple attack.

Although Li Yueming also felt unhappy, he still accepted it in the end.

The Li family's cards had been torn apart.

In the past, it would definitely be a huge matter.

But now, the entire Li family was already afraid of Li Yueming and Li Nanfeng.

The clan elders in the clan did not even dare to continue staying in the ancestral mansion, deeply afraid that if they closed their eyes and slept one night, they would wake up the next day to find that their heads had been hung on bamboo poles by the imperial court.

Thus, although the emperor's first strike was very heavy, it was not a simple one.

However, in reality, it did not cause much substantial damage to Li Nanfeng and Li Yueming.

The elders only wished for the safety of their families.

It symbolized the glory of the Li family.

So be it!

As for cutting off the Star Moon Troop's rations, it should have been the most ruthless of the three moves.

After all, people were made of steel. If they didn't eat, they would be hungry.

No matter how steely the Star-Moon Army's will was.

However, if he could barely fill his stomach.

What other matters?

This was also the most effective move that the Imperial Court could come up with under normal circumstances.

Cut off food and money.

No matter how powerful your army is, it's not a big deal.

Even in front of money and food, he had to kneel down obediently and call him daddy.

Unfortunately...

This move was not very effective against Li Yueming.

The reason...

Naturally, it was because Li Yueming was already prepared to receive this move.

There was no need to talk about food.

As early as the establishment of the Star Moon Army, in order to not be suppressed by the imperial court in the future, Li Yueming had secretly planted grain on the plains downstream of the Northern Ice River.

Now, the grain industry had been developing for nearly ten years.

In addition, there was the agricultural expert Huang Li 'er who followed up the whole process.

The food supply of Northern Glacier Town and the Star-Moon Army had already been able to replenish themselves over the years.

As for the annual salary.

This thing was not as high in demand as grain.

Currently, the grain in Northern Glacier Town had achieved the initial stage of self-production and self-marketing. The taxes collected by the hundreds of thousands of people were naturally sufficient for the normal operation of the Star Moon Army and other civil servants.

In the past few years, Li Ming had still needed to pay some taxes to the imperial court.

But now, the imperial court had stopped allocating money to the Star Moon

Army.

Li Yueming didn't bother pretending.

All the taxes produced by Northern Glacier Town would be put into his own pocket.

As for the emperor's final move...

He was an executive of the Star Moon Army.

If it was thrown to a normal army, this move would probably have a considerable effect.

After all, the army wasn't as united as one.

If the general was strong enough to suppress the others, it would be fine.

If the general didn't do his best.

It was quite fatal for the imperial court to send high officials to the court.

After all, as long as the high officials appointed by the court could give enough benefits, the soldiers would be more likely to be promoted and raised if they followed the high officials appointed by the court.

Thus, this was a great cohesion for an army.

However, the Star Moon Army was not a normal team, and Li Yueming was not a normal general.

Li Yueming did not even have the time to attack them. The few high officials sent by the emperor had only stayed in the Star Moon Army for a few days before they were sent to stand guard by a group of reincarnators..

Chapter 489: Li Family Sisters Reunite!_3

It was a pity that several of them were third-grade generals appointed by the imperial court.

They thought that they could show off their skills when they came to the Star Moon Army.

Unexpectedly, before the Star Moon Army could even sit down, they were forcefully dragged out by a few unreasonable soldiers to stand guard and dig potatoes.

Currently, Northern Ice River Town had expanded into a huge town spanning dozens of miles.

Along the Northern Ice River, there were many Northlanders on both sides.

Most of them were refugees who had been ravaged by war a few years ago.

They couldn't find a way to survive in other places.

In the end, he heard from his fellow villagers or relatives that there was a place to make a living in Northern Ice River Town. Then, he walked nearly a thousand miles and arrived at the cold Northern Ice River Town alone to begin his journey.

After roaming for two to three years.

Many people found that Northern Glacier Town was really suitable for development.

Not only was there a river with abundant resources, but there was also the patrol and protection of the Star Moon Army. To the north, one could even go to the outskirts of the Hundred Thousand Mountains to pick all kinds of medicinal herbs and capture spirit beasts to make a living.

After the refugees settled down, they began to bring their families and settle down in Northern Glacier Town.

This was also the biggest reason why the population of Northern Glacier Town naa Increasea explosively over tne years.

They had enough people.

The development of Northern Glacier Town naturally became more and more rapid.

In contrast, the number of soldiers in the Star Moon Army naturally increased.

On this day, Li Yueming walked out of the Star Moon Army camp early in the morning.

After roughly estimating the time, they began to flee towards the outskirts of Northern Glacier Town.

Just as he walked out of the tent, Huang Li 'er conveniently filled him with another set of clothes.

Li Yueming smiled and said, "How is the growth of the newly cultivated wheat seedlings

Huang Li 'er was no longer in charge of the development of the Star Moon Army.

Instead, he focused on agricultural research.

The No. 3 wheat seedling mentioned by Li Yueming was a new variety that Huang Lier had been developing in the past two years.

If they could achieve mass production.

It was estimated that the yield of wheat planted on the same piece of land would double.

Huang Li 'er shook her head. "I haven't figured out how to mass produce it yet. I can't help it. My agricultural technology is actually very ordinary..."

Although she said that her agricultural skills were very average.

However, in fact, it was already considered quite powerful among the many reincarnators.

The so-so she said was compared to a technical expert who was proficient in agriculture.

Li Yueming sighed.

Although Huang Li 'er was also an agricultural expert, it was obviously not enough for her to improve the production and planting level of this world alone.

However, agricultural experts were rare talents among reincarnators.

Li Yueming didn't know where to look for him.

However, when he sighed, Li Yueming suddenly thought of someone.

Good heavens, Qi Fan was a Beast Tamer!

Beastmasters masters were proficient in the habits of beasts, and they should have some understanding of plants and crops, right?

At this point, Li Yueming said, "Where's Qi Fan?"

Huang Li 'er was stunned. She obviously didn't understand why Li Yueming suddenly mentioned this surrendering beast controller.

After he came back to his senses, he thought for a moment before saying, "I'm not too sure... Some time ago, he heard that Ding Yi seemed to have been sent to raise horses. In order to appease Qi Fan's emotions, Ding Yi seemed to have specially given him the post of Ma Wen, a fifth-grade official! If nothing unexpected happened... Qi Fan should be in the stable now!"

Li Yueming patted his head.

A dignified veteran beast tamer had actually been reduced to feeding horses.

It was true that he, as the leader, did not cherish talents!

A misstep, a misstep...If he wanted to blame someone, he could only blame the fact that there were too many reincarnators. Each of them was a good talent, which caused him to forget about this person for a moment and let Qi Fan feed the horses for so long.

Thinking of this, Li Yueming quickly instructed, "Go and find Qi Fan. In the future, let him assist you in agricultural research and mass-produce wheat No.

3 seedling as soon as possible!"

After Huang Lier went to find Qi Fan.

Li Yueming then tightened his fur coat.

He looked at the sky and left the camp in the wind and snow.

Judging from the time of the last letter.

His two wronged sisters should be arriving at Northern Ice River Town soon.

After all, they had not seen each other for so many years. As his younger brother, he had to at least express his gratitude.

At the same time.

It was less than two hundred miles away from Northern Ice River Town.

A few figures rode on a big horse in the snow.

The two people in the lead had graceful figures. They were wearing exquisite coats made from the fur of precious spirit beasts. Their faces were wrapped in windproof scarves made from the extremely cold land of the Western Regions. They were wearing exquisite leather boots made from the soft fur of the Plum Blossom Spirit Deer.

From afar, even the horse bandits on the road would choose to take a detour.

He knew that they were a group of children from noble families.

They couldn't afford to offend him.

Li Ruyue, who was riding at the front, looked at the sky full of ice and snow in the north. She could not help but show a trace of intoxication on her face. After taking a few deep breaths of the cold air, she turned to her sister Li Ruyue and said, "I didn't expect my brother to stay in such a cold place for more than ten years. I wonder how his development is now!"

Li Ruyue shivered and didn't say anything.

Her cultivation was not as high as Li Ruxing's, so she was more deeply affected by the cold in the North.

He finally managed to drive away the cold air from his body before saying, "Little brother must have had a hard time these years. If it doesn't work, let's bring him to rely on father!"

Li Ruxing rolled her eyes.

In the past many years, her and Li Ruyue's activities were actually quite limited.

Nominally, they were the daughters of Marquis Southpeak and were born with incomparable nobility.

However, it was also because of this identity.

Most of the time, they were like birds in a cage.

They were imprisoned in that small piece of land and would never have true freedom.

This was the first time the two of them had left the warm Central Plains.

He galloped his horse to the north, where the cold wind blew at his bones.

Therefore, Li Ruxing was very excited.

When he heard Li Ruyue's words, he couldn't help but roll his eyes. However, the North was indeed very cold, and the further north one went, the colder it became.

Therefore, she also agreed with Li Ruyue.

His little brother would definitely not have a good life living in this godforsaken place.

He only hoped that when he saw his brother later, he would not be frozen black.

The two girls headed north.

It would be a lie to say that she was not excited.

However, before they saw Li Yueming, they didn't dare to reveal too much of their emotions. They were afraid that they wouldn't be able to control their emotions when they met Li Yueming.

Under such circumstances.

From afar, a black shadow suddenly appeared on the snow-covered ground.

The black shadow rode on a black spiritual horse and galloped across the vast expanse of snow. It approached from afar and soon turned from a blurry black dot into a handsome young man.

Seeing this, Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing could not help but narrow their eyes.

After the black shadow approached.

Only then did he confirm that the man riding on the horse was his younger brother.

Looking up and down at the fair and handsome Li Yueming, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue only felt that the snowstorm was blinding for a moment, and their eyes could not help but turn red.

Chapter 490: Li Yueming's arrangement, the unlucky child Qi Fan!_1

He looked at Li Yueming who was standing in the snow.

For a moment, the eyes of the two women could not help but turn red.

It had been nearly ten years since the three of them last met. At that time, Li Yueming had just turned fourteen.

For so long, the siblings had been communicating by writing letters. Now that they finally met again, it even made the two women feel as if they had been separated by a lifetime.

Especially Li Ruyue, who was more emotionally fragile, her eyes turned red at the first moment.

After she approached, she carefully held Li Yueming's hand. "Little brother, I haven't seen you for so many years. You've grown so tall!" Li Ruxing was also a little moved, and her eyes could not help but turn red.

However, Li Ruxing was more cheerful and did not like this kind of crying greeting.

In order not to lose his composure in front of Li Yueming, Li Ruxing turned around and said to his elder sister Li Ruyue, "Sister, you're wrong again. This little brother has never suffered a loss. He's living very comfortably in this godforsaken place!"

Li Ruyue wiped the tears off her face.

After taking a few steps back, he sized up Li Yueming and nodded, "It's good that he can protect himself. I heard that the Northlands are desolate, poor, and backward. I'm worried that he won't have enough to eat and wear!"

The two sisters spoke one after another. After a long while, they finally stabilized the emotions in each other's hearts.

In the past few years, Li Yueming and the two sisters often wrote to each other.

Therefore, they had a certain understanding of Li Yueming's current situation.

However, there were some things that couldn't be described in the letter.

The two of them didn't know much about Li Yueming's current situation.

After the two of them had completely stabilized their emotions, Li Yueming finally had a chance to speak. He comforted them, "Alright, alright, stop crying. You're my sister, not my mother..." Besides, your little brother here is doing well in the Northern Lands. I'm about to become a local tyrant!"

"Wait a few more years. If the situation stabilizes, I'll bring my father over. At that time, our family can reunite in the North!"

The few of them exchanged pleasantries on horseback.

The unfamiliarity that they had not seen each other for many years became thicker than blood in these few minutes of small talk.

After chatting for a while.

Li Yueming brought Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing to North Glacier Town.

On the way, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue listened to Li Yueming briefly introduce the situation of the Star Moon Army and Northern Ice River Town.

When he heard that the Star Moon Army had grown to 200,000 troops and that Northern Ice River Town had 500,000 permanent residents, he was shocked.

Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing's mouths were wide open.

Although this was the first time the two of them had come to Northern Glacier Town, they were no strangers to it.

Many years ago, Li Yueming had revealed the situation of Northern Glacier Town to the two sisters in letters.

If they remembered correctly.

A few years ago, when Li Yueming wrote to them, there should be less than 3,000 permanent residents in North Glacier Town. Even if the floating population was included, there were less than 10,000 people. It belonged to Border Town among Border Towns.

It had only been a few years.

Back then, that small town had already become a super metropolis with a permanent population of 500,000?

If Li Yueming didn't make such a solemn promise.

There was no need to lie to them.

They would probably suspect that Li Yueming was here to engage in human trafficking.

Of course, even so.

When Li Yueming mentioned these numbers, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue couldn't help but have doubts in their hearts.

After all, the two of them weren't like the traditional saying that 'a woman without talent is virtuous' from a humble family.

Whether it was his eldest sister, Li Ruyue, or his second sister, Li Ruxing, they had dabbled in all kinds of miscellaneous books.

Her horizons were not something that ordinary women could compare to.

Therefore, the two of them were very clear about the significance of the population and the number of soldiers that Li Yueming described.

It was precisely because of this that the two of them were so shocked and puzzled.

Even if they smashed their heads open, they couldn't imagine how Li Yueming had created such a huge country in such a short time.

Especially after they saw the outline of Northern Glacier Town in the mist.

The shock and doubt in his heart could not be any greater.

After a while, Li Ruxing took the lead and asked, "Brother...None of your business...Is this the remote town you're managing now?"

Actually, what she wanted to say was, you call this a remote town?

However, due to the lack of elegance in his words, he swallowed it back when it reached his mouth.

Li Yueming touched his nose and said, "Ah, it's actually because we've taken in a few more refugees. The town has become a little bigger!"

Li Ruxing was speechless.

This was called a little too big?

If she hadn't just come out of the largest city in the north, Zhenbei City...

He knew the normal situation of the northern cities.

He might really believe it now.

But now, Li Ruxing obviously didn't believe a single word.

One had to know that the largest city in the north, Zhenbei City, only had a population of a million. At a glance, it was not even as developed as the current Northern Glacier Town.

Judging from the density of the population, North Ice River Town was several streets ahead of Zhenbei City.

The outline of Northern Glacier Town could now be seen.

If it wasn't for the snow and the cold wind, she would have thought that she had returned to the central plains of the Great Zhou Dynasty!
