Chapter 491: Li Yueming's arrangement, the unlucky child (i Fan!_2

The corners of his eyes twitched.

Li Ruxing wanted to say something several times, but she swallowed it back.

At this moment, she finally understood why the Great Zhou Emperor was so wary of their Li family. It seemed that her younger brother was so strong in the north that he was just short of standing up and raising his arm...

The Great Zhou Emperor hung the heads of the entire Li clan on the flag and waved in the wind.

The temper of the man was simply too good.

Li Yueming didn't explain much. After all, he didn't know how to explain this. He couldn't say that he was born a traitor and had been thinking about how to step on the emperor since he was in his mother's womb, right?

When the two sisters stayed in Northern Glacier Town for a year and a half, they would naturally understand everything.

After the dozen or so cavalry approached Northern Glacier Town...

Very soon, a few scouts wearing snow-covered clothes appeared in Northern Glacier Town.

After discovering that the person who came was Li Yueming. The scout in the snow suit walked out from a hidden bunker.

Then, he verified Li Yueming's identity one by one.

After confirming that Li Yueming was not a fake, the scout who was dressed in a special way bowed respectfully to Li Yueming and said loudly, "General Li, Special Forces 3rd Battalion, Zhang Dabiao sends his regards!"

Li Yueming waved his hand, indicating that the special forces scout named Zhang Dabiao did not need to be so polite.

In recent years, the Star-Moon Army had not only expanded its manpower, but also its military branches.

The cavalry unit, infantry unit, and archer unit didn't need to be mentioned. As the main combat forces, these three forces always had the most soldiers.

Other than that.

Li Yueming also equipped the Star Moon Army with an engineering battalion, a logistics battalion, and a special forces battalion...

The engineer battalion was responsible for repairing and developing all kinds of military equipment.

Including but not limited to crossbows, siege vehicles, cannons, guns, and a series of war supplies.

As for the person in charge of this area...

Li Yueming had specially selected them from more than a dozen reincarnators who had surrendered. Imnowledgeable reincarnators could be competent. No matter how they pulled, they could more or less make a few tools that were ahead of the times.

In order not to be taken over by this group of reincarnators.

Li Yueming, together with a few reincarnators from Huang Li 'er and Tian Liang's camp, balanced each other.

The results were very good.

With the continuous efforts of the reincarnators and native craftsmen of the engineering battalion, the Starmoon Army could change their equipment every three to five years.

As for the supply camp, as the name suggested, it was a logistics unit.

They were responsible for the storage and transportation of grain and various war equipment.

There was nothing much to say about this. He left it to Tian Liang, Ding Yi, and the others.

The most noteworthy was the newly established special forces.

As the name suggested, the so-called special forces were the most elite combat forces selected by Li Yueming from the Star Moon Army.

If the Star-Moon Army was a sharp knife...

Then the special forces were the sharpest blade on the Star Moon Army's sharp knife.

It was specially used for high-precision combat.

Of course, in such a fantasy world, it would be too eye-catching for a special force to suddenly appear out of nowhere.

In order to avoid suspicion.

This name wasn't suggested by Li Yueming. Instead, Li Yueming used someone else's hands to decide on it.

In the current Star-Moon Army, many elites of the military were proud to join the special forces.

In order to ensure the absolute competitiveness of the special forces.

Li Yueming had adopted an elimination system. The special forces only retained a fixed number of people.

Soldiers who entered the special forces would be eliminated if they failed the assessment, and other soldiers who could pass the assessment would be replaced.

Under such strict screening.

Zhang Dabiao and the others who could appear in front of Li Yueming were undoubtedly the elites of the Star Moon Army.

Each of them was a super soldier like the King of Soldiers.

Therefore, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were stunned when they saw these few people.

Both of them were cultivators.

Although he rarely fought bloody battles, his strength was still quite exaggerated.

However, they were all elites who had graduated from the Great Zhou Cultivation College.

Now, when they saw Zhang Dabiao and the others, both Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue could only feel the smell of blood.

The few unremarkable soldiers in front of him were like lone wolves in the desert.

Each of them contained a terrifying killing intent.

Good fellow...

If all the Star Moon Army under his brother were like these soldiers in front of him...

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue couldn't even imagine how terrifying their little brother's strength was.

If it could give birth to a military spirit...

Such an army could probably go toe-to-toe with the Dragon Tiger Army that the emperor was most proud of, right?

Thinking of this, Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue looked at each other and saw the incredulity in each other's eyes.

Li Yueming also knew that the two of them might have misunderstood.

However, he still did not have much desire to explain.

Patting Zhang Dabiao's shoulder to encourage him, Li Yueming said, "Go back and inform them that at six o'clock tonight, all the officers above Rank-6 who are not on night duty in the camp will come to the main camp to look for me!" This fellow's naming was very artistic.

Feeling the power of Li Yueming's palm, Zhang Dabiao immediately said respectfully, "Understood!"

After saying that, the few of them quickly turned around and left.

Chapter 492: Li Yueming's arrangement, the unlucky child Qi Fan! 3

Big Sister Li Ruyue couldn't help but say, "Little brother, the Star Moon Army under your command... Could it be that they were all so well-trained?" To be honest, Li Ruyue thought she was mentally prepared.

But now, she still felt her heart thump.

No wonder they had offended the emperor so much two months ago. They thought that they would spend the rest of their lives in prison, but in the end, the emperor chose to release the two of them unscathed.

Previously, she thought that it was the result of her father's private operation.

But now, it seemed that it wasn't his father's doing.

It was obvious that his younger brother was about to place his hard fist on the emperor's head.

The Starmoon Army was actually so powerful.

Even she found it unbelievable.

Li Yueming looked at his two curious sisters and shook his head.”” This is an elite unit, a normal unit is far worse than them...

He did not continue on this topic.

Instead, he changed the topic and said, “The situation of the Star Moon Army is more complicated. You will know in the future.” Let’s not talk about this first. I’ve just informed the high-ranking officers of the Star-Moon Troop to hold a simple welcoming ceremony for you tonight. You can ask any questions you have then!”

The reason why he didn’t send anyone to welcome them was that he chose to go out alone.

It was so that the two sisters would not feel unfamiliar with each other.

Now that he had picked up the person, Li Yueming took the initiative to contact the upper echelons of the Star Moon Army.

Other than welcoming his two sisters to join the Starmoon Troop, the main reason was to let the other higher-ups of the Starmoon Troop know about this news.

After all, there was an old saying that went, ‘Brothers fight, father and son fight.’

His two sisters were both rare talents.

Tian Liang managed the logistics of the Star Moon Army.

Although Tian Liang was a reincarnated being, he had followed Li Yueming for so many years.

No matter what, he could be trusted.

However, Li Yueming, the general manager of North Glacier Town, had never found a suitable candidate. Until now, he had still been the one to take up the post.

After all, this position was too important.

Not only was he in charge of all the data in North Ice Town.

He also knew some secrets that Li Yueming had prepared in private.

He had to choose someone he absolutely trusted and had the ability to take up the post.

Now, it was the perfect time to hand it over to his sister, Li Ruyue.

As for his second sister, Li Ruxing.

The others, including his elder sister and father, might not know.

Only Li Yueming knew that his second sister had an extraordinary talent in cultivation since she was young.

When Li Yueming was only three or four years old, his second sister, Li Ruxing, seemed to have entered the Foundation Establishment realm.

His cultivation talent was not inferior to him, a reincarnator who had a cheat.

However, for some reason, his second sister had never revealed her true cultivation talent to anyone other than him.

If it wasn't for the fact that Li Yueming didn't find any problems after several tests, and the age at birth didn't match, Li Yueming would probably even think that his second sister, Li Ruxing, was also a reincarnator.

Under such circumstances.

If Li Ruxing wasn't a woman, she would probably be a good soldier.

Although Li Yueming didn't need his second sister to charge into the enemy's line of battle, he was still in a hurry.

But since he was already here.

He would definitely have to contribute his own strength.

Therefore, Li Yueming was prepared to let her be the beautiful instructor of the Star Moon Army.

Of course, it was arranged like this.

As for whether Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were willing to listen, that was another matter.

Li Yueming would respect their opinions.

The few of them rode on their tall horses and entered Northern Glacier Town along a wide brick road.

After walking for about ten minutes, they arrived at the Star Moon Army camp under the watchful eyes of the guards.

Huang Li 'er, who was called by Li Yueming to look for Qi Fan, stood at the door. She had obviously been waiting for a long time.

Li Yueming returned.

Huang Li 'er's face showed a touch of joy. When she saw Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue behind Li Yueming, she was stunned for a moment. When she finally recovered, Huang Li 'er took the initiative to say, "Greetings, General Li. The two of them should be General Li's sisters, right?!"

Li Yueming nodded and took the initiative to introduce, "This is my eldest sister, Li Ruyue, and this is my second sister, Li Ruxing. You might have heard me mention them before, so just call them elder sister and second sister!"

Huang Li 'er smiled and said, "Big Sister, Second Sister!"

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue looked at each other.

A moment later, Li Ruyue was the first to react. She took Huang Li 'er's hand and said, "Miss, how old are you this year?"

Huang Li 'er was stunned.

What's with asking about age? Did MO Fei like her?

This sounded a little sudden!

However, when she thought of this, Huang Li 'er couldn't help but feel tempted.

Li Yueming was the chosen one who gathered the fate of heaven and earth!

If she could marry him, she would definitely be able to achieve twice the results with half the effort in the future.

Although she was a little tempted, Huang Li 'er didn't show it. She lowered her head and answered truthfully, "I'm surnamed Huang, the junior sister of General Li. I'm twenty-four years old!"

Li Ruyue sized him up and nodded in satisfaction.

However, before she could continue asking, Li Yueming took the initiative to end the topic and asked, "Li 'er, what's the matter?"

Huang Li 'er obviously had something to report.

However, Li Ruyue's interruption had caused him to lose his composure.

After regaining his senses, he hurriedly replied, "It's like this. I went to look for Qi Fan just now. He said that he has a few junior brothers who are good at agricultural technology. However, his junior brothers are currently in the State of Qin and are working for the Qin army... "

"Therefore, Qi Fan suggested to me to find an opportunity to get in touch with his junior brother and see if I can poach a few people over!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming instantly understood.

As expected, Qi Fan still had a wicked heart.

He said that he wanted to get in touch with his junior brother, but in fact, he wanted to find an opportunity to escape.

However, in the end, he could not be blamed for this. It was really too difficult to survive in the Star Moon Army...

A beast tamer without a natal spirit beast was like a bird with broken wings. It could not fly in the Star Moon Army, which was full of talents.

He had already been reduced to managing the stables.

Although his specialization was indeed suitable, in order to appease him, Ding Yi had specially set up a post for Ma Wen.

However, no matter what he said, he could not change the fact that horses were raised.

It wouldn't sound good if word got out!

Under such circumstances, it was inevitable for Qi Fan to pack up and run.

Li Yueming thought for a while and smiled.

Little guy, back then he could easily take Qi Fan in the hands of the Ninth Prince.

Now, there was no reason not to hold back.

Therefore, Li Yueming said, ""Bring Qi Fan over at six o'clock tonight. I'll find a chance to have a good chat with him!"

Initially, Huang Li 'er was prepared to remind Li Yueming.

After all, Qi Fan was not doing well now. After gaining freedom, the first thing he would consider would not be to find someone in peace, but to pack up and run away.

However, when he saw the smile on Li Ming's face.

Huang Li 'er immediately knew that her reminder might be unnecessary.

After so many years, she should be one of the people who understood Li Yueming the most in the Star Moon Army.

From his years of experience, as long as Li Yueming revealed this smile, someone would definitely be in trouble.

He could only hope that Qi Fan would not be tricked too badly!

After all, this unlucky kid had never had a good day ever since he met Li Yueming..

Chapter 493: 2111, New Human Treasure, Heading for the Land of the West! 1

That night, Li Yueming hosted a lively dinner for Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing.

The Star Moon Army and the core officials of Northern Ice River Town, as long as they were not on duty, all participated in this gathering.

Through this action, Li Yueming announced the identity of his two sisters to everyone in the Star Moon Army.

After the dinner, Li Yueming found Qi Fan alone and used Little Fox to lure him, successfully dispelling the idea of Qi Fan being ready to pack up and run away at any time.

As for the specifics...

He had agreed to tell Qi Fan the recipe for the ancient secret barbecue sauce that he had used to deal with Little Fox.

He also took the initiative to say that after completing the task assigned to him, he could recommend Qi Fan to the extremely cold snow mountain to find the little fox.

As the price for the generous reward, Qi Fan had to help him poach people from Qin.

Every time he poached ten reincarnators, he could exchange a promise with Li Yueming.

These two conditions could be said to have opened up Qi Fan's heart. After all, he didn't have many thoughts in this world. The most urgent thing he wanted to do was to get rid of the little fox as soon as possible.

He immediately expressed that as long as Li Yueming could help him subdue the little fox.

If Li Yueming pointed east, he would definitely not go west.

Li Yueming didn't say anything and just smiled.

After settling Qi Fan

Li Yueming left Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue alone.

At the same time, he asked if there was anything inconvenient for the two of them in Northern Ice River Town.

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue both shook their heads.

Although Northern Ice River Town was cold, it was actually fine after getting used to it.

Most importantly, he was free here. He was no longer under the surveillance of others like he was in the Central Plains.

Seeing that they were still adapting, Li Yueming told them his thoughts.

They heard that Li Yueming wanted them to take up important positions in the Star Moon Army.

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were stunned at first. After regaining their senses, Li Ruyue asked first, "The two of us just came here and don't know anything. Isn't it inappropriate for us to hold important positions?"

Li Ruxing didn't have so many concerns. Her face already showed an eager expression.

Li Yueming touched his chin and pondered for a moment before saying, "Yes...

the star moon 'troop is run amentally different from the armies you have come into contact with in the past. You may need to adapt to it before you can take on heavy responsibilities!"

In that case," Li Ruxing interjected, "you can let me go to the army to gain some experience first. After I understand the specific situation of the Star Moon Army, I can be a general!"

Li Ruyue rolled her eyes and said, "Stop fooling around. The army is dirty, tiring, and bitter. Let's not talk about it. How can a woman be a general?!"

"Tsk, your hair is long but your knowledge is short. I won't lower myself to your level!" Li Ruxing refused to admit defeat and ignored the blow from his eldest sister. His eyes flickered with a moving light as he stared at Li Yueming without blinking. "Little brother, can you do it? Since I was young, I have always dreamed of being an unprecedented female general!"

Obviously, Li Ruxing had figured it out by now.

In the current Northern Glacier Town, his little brother was the only one who had the final say.

As long as Li Yueming agreed to join the Star Moon Army, no one else could stop her dream.

Li Yueming naturally knew what Li Ruxing was capable of.

When she was young, Li Ruxing would often threaten and bribe him to be a warhorse, carrying her to the courtyard to kill enemies.

This should be one of the few dark histories that he was unwilling to mention since his reincarnation.

After growing up a little, Li Ruxing liked to read some miscellaneous books.

Among them, other than strange stories, the most popular ones were military books about marching and fighting.

Originally, he didn't arrange for his second sister to go into battle to kill the enemy. Instead, he wanted her to be an instructor and teach various military theories. However, he didn't expect her to take the initiative to join the battle and lead the troops. This surprised Li Yueming a little.

He thought about it.

He didn't refuse and said ambiguously, "Second Sister will follow my Deputy General Ding Yi to the training camp first. If you can convince the masses in the army, you can do whatever you want!"

Li Ruxing's eyes lit up.

A moment later, she was so excited that she rushed over and rubbed Li Yueming's head. As she rubbed, she said, "Little brother, you really understand me the best!"

Li Yueming rolled his eyes but didn't say anything.

He looked at Li Ruyue and said seriously, "Big sister, what do you think?"

Li Ruyue pondered for a moment and nodded. "This is the foundation of our Li family. It's rare for you to be assured, so of course, I have to contribute my strength. It's just that I'm not familiar with the situation in Northern Ice River Town yet. What you said will have to wait for one or two years."

Li Yueming also nodded. "Of course. Then let's arrange it this way. The fate of our Li family must be in our own hands!"

Everything was settled.

Li Yueming silently dismissed his left and right. He closed his eyes and began to use his Infinite Deduction talent to check for any loopholes.

Currently, the situation between the six states was extremely tense.

As the reincarnators continued to grow, they became more and more outstanding on the battlefield between countries.

As the flames of war burned, some of the Six Nations with ulterior motives began to become active..

Chapter 494: 2111, New Human Treasure, Heading for the Land of the West! 2

Everyone was talking about the second round of unification after ten thousand years, and the overlord who won the hegemony of the six states would become the second king after the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan.

Gathering the fate of the human race, he could ascend again.

Under the uproar of these discussions, the royal families of the six states were all tempted.

In the past few years, the frequency of wars between various countries had suddenly increased, and there was a huge trend of fighting.

As a result, the Starmoon Troop faced even greater challenges.

The most direct source of pressure was the increasing number of Qin soldiers in Northern Ice River Town.

In the past few years, the Qin army seemed to have made up their mind to take down the Great Zhou first.

As a result, the number of troops sent out increased.

The Qin army, which had millions of soldiers at the western border, was becoming more and more active. In recent months, they had almost lost several times.

It was the same for the Qin army in the north.

Two years ago, 200,000 Qin soldiers were not enough.

However, the number of Qin soldiers in the north had already exceeded 400,000.

In just a few months, three cities in the north had been reduced to ashes under the Qin army's iron hooves.

This was the result of Li Yueming's emergency call.

Otherwise, the number of Qin soldiers in the north would only increase.

Even though Li Yueming had the Ninth Prince as a spy in the Qin army, he was not afraid.

The Star Moon Army could still hold on.

But that's all, it's over

Although Northern Ice River Town was still the headquarters of the Star Moon Army in name, more than half of the 200,000 soldiers of the Star Moon Army were no longer in Northern Ice River Town. Instead, they were distributed throughout the cities of the north, working together with the Northern Battlefront Army and King Yu's army to protect the northern regions of the Great Zhou from being trampled by the Qin army.

This was also the main reason why Li Yueming dared to challenge the emperor, but the emperor did not dare to touch Li Yueming.

The Starmoon Army had already formed a force that could not be underestimated in the North.

If anything happened to Li Yue Ming, the entire Star Moon Army would be in chaos.

The Great Zhou's northern defense line might be in turmoil because of this.

At that time, if the Qin army took advantage of this opportunity to launch an attack, many cities in the north would probably fall into the quagmire of war.

The reason why he was so generous was to use the flesh and blood of the Star Moon Army to fill the hole in the Great Zhou Dynasty.

What Li Yueming did was not entirely for the sake of the country.

It was because he had already regarded the Northlands as his own territory.

Moreover, if the Qin army broke through the northern defense line, then the Star Moon Army would be the first to suffer.

Even if Great Qin became the Ninth Prince's ruler in the future, the first thing the Ninth Prince would do would be to destroy the Star Moon Army.

If the Star Moon Army wanted to survive in the cracks, they had to maintain the situation of the Qin army and the Great Zhou army being evenly matched.

Only then can we plan slowly.

The reason why the Star-Moon Army could grow to such a level was because Li Yueming's tactic of driving the tiger to swallow the wolf was effective.

Otherwise, if the Northern Lands did not face the direct threat of the Qin army.

The moment the Star Moon Troop appeared, they were already strangled to death by the emperor.

According to Li Yueming's plan.

The Star Moon Army would be sandwiched between the Qin army and the Great Zhou army for another eight to ten years.

As long as the army spirit was nurtured, they would have the capital to exist independently.

But now, according to the accurate news, the Qin army had already made up their mind to break through the Great Zhou.

The State of Qin was located outside Hangu Pass.

Since ancient times, they had been called barbarians by several rich dynasties in the Central Plains.

For nearly a thousand years, after several generations of Qin Jun's hard work, he gritted his teeth and pushed forward several reforms to enrich the country and strengthen the army. It was not easy to push the poor and weak Qin country's national strength to an unprecedented level.

Naturally, he would not easily give up his dream of marching into the Central Plains.

Moreover, the current Qin army was insufferably arrogant and looked down on the six countries. However, this was all based on the fact that those in power could expand their territory and plunder resources.

Once the Qin army encountered resistance in the process of fighting against the outside world, causing the cake to not be big enough, the accumulated internal contradictions and various pressures would erupt.

At that time, the other countries would not need to do anything. The Qin country would collapse on its own.

It was also because of this that the Qin army could not stop fighting.

In the foreseeable future, the Qin army would only become crazier.

If Li Yueming didn't let the Qin army see hope in the north, then the Qin army might really attack the Great Zhou from the western border at all costs.

He was not interested in how the Great Zhou would deal with Li Yueming.

But the Li family and his father, Li Nanfeng, were still in the western frontier!

Before arranging their retreat, Li Yueming could not let the Qin army lose hope of attacking the western border from the north.

What Li Yueming did now was like dancing on the tip of a knife.

If he wasn't careful, he might fall into pieces. Li Yueming had to be very careful to maintain this fragile balance so that the Li family could land smoothly in this war that involved two countries.

Northern Glacier Town was developing very quickly.

Currently, there were only 500,000 registered people.

However, the actual population should be approaching the 600,000 mark.

The reason why they weren't registered was not only because the Northern Ice River Town couldn't manage them, but also because Li Yueming had placed these 100,000 people on the fertile land downstream of the Northern Ice River and secretly cultivated them.

According to the expected development speed, it should not be long before the number of Starmoon Troops could be expanded again..

Chapter 495: 2111, New Human Treasure, Heading for the Land of the West!_3

The only pity was that after falling out with the emperor, the amount of food allocated by the imperial court had been reduced by more than half. If the Star Moon Army wanted to continue expanding, they would have to rely on themselves.

This was also why he specifically found Qi Fan and asked him to go to the Qin Dynasty to poach the Qin army.

After all, as long as there were enough experts proficient in planting and animal husbandry, and the production efficiency of food was high enough, the expansion speed of Northern Glacier Town, which was a traditional farming society, could keep up with the growing demand of the Starmoon Army. After deducing for a while and making sure that he didn't miss anything, Li

Yueming heaved a sigh of relief.

He walked to the door and told the guard not to let anyone in.

Then, he closed the tent and began his seclusion.

Last time, Li Yueming had already broken through the Spirit Concentration Realm in terms of Qi cultivation. After reaching the Spirit Concentration Realm, Li Yueming's control of spiritual energy could be said to be divine.

With just one punch, the boiling spiritual energy could easily blast open a river.

However, these words still couldn't satisfy Li Yueming.

Over the years, other than the necessary rest time, he had not wasted a single second of cultivation time.

His main focus was not on breaking through to the Qi Refiner realm.

Instead, he placed it on continuing to develop his human body treasure.

It couldn't be helped. Although the spiritual energy was powerful, the more Li Yueming cultivated, the more he felt that this thing was an external force.

If a cultivator lost the support of spiritual energy, their combat strength would plummet by many levels.

In comparison, although the efficiency of developing the human body treasure was slow, the increase in combat strength was not as obvious.

But at least it could make Li Yueming feel at ease.

After spending an unknown amount of time and energy, Li Yueming had finally touched the threshold of a new human treasure.

Li Yueming called this new human body treasure Kamitani. It was a brand new human body treasure above Return to God.

The so-called Kamitani was an acupoint in the human body.

Each of them gathered a person's heart, body, and spirit.

It was the source of power for the human body.

If he could develop this treasure.

Then, as long as Li Yueming ensured that he had enough energy intake, his body would be able to produce an endless stream of powerful strength.

And if he did not care about the price.

Li Yueming could even draw terrifying power from Kamitani to forcefully increase his combat strength!

Even if he was facing a cultivator who was focused or even above that.

After fully activating Kamitani's treasure trove, Li Yueming was not invincible for a short period of time.

This was the charm of developing the human body. Before exploring one's own body, even a human would never know what kind of strange and powerful strength one's body could develop.

The early combat strength of a physique cultivator who developed the treasures of the human body might not be as good as a cultivator who absorbed spiritual energy.

However, once a powerful human body treasure was discovered, the combat strength of the martial arts world's body cultivators would soar in a straight line. It was not impossible for them to crush the cultivators in turn.

Li Yueming was very satisfied with this.

For the next few months, he focused on developing Kamitani's power.

It wasn't until winter passed and spring came, and all living things revived and grew, that Li Yueming ended this short seclusion trip and completely took the secrets of Kamitani's treasure into his possession.

Li Yueming was in a good mood after he finished his seclusion.

Only when he had enough strength would he have the confidence to carry out the next step of the plan.

Now, Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing had been arranged to join the Star Moon Army. For the time being, they were relatively safe.

Then, what he needed to do next was to help his cheapskate father retire successfully.

At the very least, they had to make sure that Li Nanfeng safely retreated from the western border before the Qin army launched a full-scale attack. They didn't have to die under the iron hooves of the frenzied Qin army.

However, it was not easy to achieve this goal. After all, Li Nanfeng was not Li Ruyue or Li Ruxing.

As the nominal head of the Li family and the general of the Western Garrison Army, he was not only the head of the Li family, but also the general of the Western Garrison Army.

Countless gazes were focused on him.

If you want to do something in front of everyone, don't even think about it if you don't have some skills!

Li Yueming thought about it.

It seemed that only by personally going to the western frontier could he achieve this goal.

Thus, after thoroughly exploring the mysteries of the Valley of the Holy Spirit.

Li Yueming immediately prepared to head to the western border.

After all, time and opportunity waited for no one.

Now that the situation of the six states was uncertain, the Qin army did not know how much patience they had left.

Although Li Nanfeng had not been by his side for many years in this life, he could be considered a competent father.

If he had the ability, Li Yueming couldn't just watch him die.

Before leaving, Li Yueming only informed the core higher-ups of the Star Moon Army, such as Huang Li'er and Ding Yi. He didn't even inform Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue, in case they were too concerned and caused unnecessary trouble.

After arranging everything, Li Yueming rode a tall horse and left Northern Glacier Town alone in the early morning.

A man and a horse headed towards the western frontier, which was even more remote and barren than the north.

Chapter 496: Father and son reunited after so many years!_1

In the western frontier, he guarded the West Pass.

There was a popular limerick in the northwest.

A thousand miles of sand and bones, the outer wall of the West Garrison Fortress.

It was the dangerous terrain of the West Garrison Pass. It was like a high wall erected in the northwest courtyard where yellow sand was flying and bones were everywhere. It protected the peace of the people in the west for a long time.

This also indirectly confirmed the long history of the western frontier.

It could be said that ever since the Tiandu Clan disintegrated and the eight kingdoms fought for hegemony and internal strife, the West Garrison Pass was the guardian god of the people in the western border of the Great Zhou. Before the rise of the Qin Kingdom, the West Garrison Pass had stopped the plunder from the barbarians beyond the Great Wall.

Ever since the rise of the Qin army, the West Garrison Pass had always been an impregnable pass that the Qin army could not cross.

It gave the people living in the western border a sense of security.

However, in the past few years, the West Garrison Fortress had almost fallen twice.

This also made the people of the entire western border worry.

The West Garrison Fortress held a heavy weight in the hearts of the people in the northwest, and they had always regarded it as their guardian.

Now, even the West Garrison Fortress had almost fallen.

The commoners did not know what else could protect their safety.

Li Yueming followed the nearest route from the north to the west. Along the way, he met many people from the western border.

He dismounted and asked, only to find out that they were all spontaneously organizing teams to transport grain to the West Garrison Pass.

Some of the commoners were pulling donkey carts, while others were simply carrying heavy loads of wheat, sweet potatoes, corn, and other grains on their shoulders. They traveled thousands of miles to the West Garrison Pass just to feed the army in the West Garrison Pass.

There was also a lot of grain that was stored last year. It was the family property that the commoners had hidden to resist various natural disasters.

Even though Li Yueming was prepared for this, he still couldn't bear to look at it when he saw it with his own eyes.

After all, the Northwest was not the prosperous Central Plains.

The grain production here was extremely low. It was already not easy for the commoners to make a living here. In addition, these years were chaotic. Every household had tightened their belts, and their lives were quite difficult.

However, under such circumstances, they had sent all the grain stored in their homes to the West Garrison Pass without anyone forcing them.

This showed how much they trusted the Western Garrison Pass and the Western Garrison Army.

In fact, Li Yueming wanted to remind them that if the Qin army really launched an all-out attack, the West Garrison Pass alone would not be able to defend against their million strong army.

However, it was just a thought. If he really had to say it, he wouldn't be able to open his mouth and didn't know how to say it. Not to mention that this matter had not happened yet.

Even if it really happened.

So what if they were a bunch of weak commoners?

When the nest is overturned, there are no intact eggs. When a disaster comes, the first to suffer is often the pitiful person.

Li Yueming sighed and shook his head.

About five days later, Li Yueming arrived at the West Garrison Pass.

As the first pass in the northwest of the Great Zhou Dynasty, the grandeur of the West Garrison Pass was unimaginable to ordinary people.

From a distance, the entire city wall of the fortress seemed to be made of steel. The dark gray wall rose from the ground, and the hundreds of meters tall and dozens of meters thick wall was built in a narrow and dangerous place.

On both sides of the city wall were majestic cliffs that were thousands of feet high. The precipitousness of the cliffs seemed to have been carved by knives and axes.

Such a rare scene was formed after a remnant vein of the extremely cold snow mountain broke.

The mountain range of the extremely cold snow mountain spanned thousands of miles, extending from the southwest to the northeast. The West Garrison Pass was the dragon's tail, and the extremely cold snow mountain at the Hundred Thousand Mountains was the dragon's head. The entire dragon's vein was connected in one go, and only the West Garrison Pass had a fracture.

According to the ancient legends, this gap was cut off by the Renhuang of the Tiandu Clan. It was also this sword that completely cut off the last breath of the Insect Race's ruler.

Therefore, the West Garrison Pass was also called the Human Emperor Pass a long time ago to commemorate the great achievements of the Human Emperor

Tiandu Clan.

In general, the steep cliffs make the town of the west pass the majestic dangerous terrain, also isolate the possibility of the enemy's large-scale attack from other directions.

The moment Li Yueming saw this majestic checkpoint, he suddenly understood why the West Garrison Army could resist the Qin army of close to a million soldiers with only 300,000 soldiers.

Such a natural barrier was a nightmare for any enemy who wanted to attack the city.

After approaching the West Garrison Pass, Li Yueming quickly saw the soldiers of the West Garrison Army standing guard. They were wearing exquisite armor that had been made for a long time, and their faces were filled with killing intent.

Even though they were far away, Li Yueming could feel the murderous aura from the other party.

With just a cursory glance, even Li Yueming could conclude that the other party was definitely a veteran who had crawled out of a pile of corpses.

The Starmoon Troop was already elite enough.

However, in front of the West Garrison Army, who had been fighting with the Qin Army for many years, the killing intent was still lacking.

At the same time, several soldiers at the city gate also saw Li Yueming riding a tall horse.

After signaling him to dismount from afar.

A few soldiers with weapons came over and asked warily, "Who are you? Why have you come to the West Garrison Fortress?"

Li Yueming took out a travel pass from his pocket.

He couldn't get this thing himself. After all, he didn't get permission from the imperial court and ran out in private.

However, he had a good master!

Chapter 497: Father and son reunited after so many years!_2

As the highest commander in the Northern Lands, You Aotian had no problem getting a travel pass for Li Yueming.

After seeing the travel pass and the virtual identity on it, the Western Garrison Army soldier's eyebrows relaxed a little. "So you're a brother from the Northern Battlefront Army. What brings you here? Are there any specific documents?"

Li Yueming had already prepared an excuse beforehand. "General You asked me to check on the situation of our allies. If necessary, we might be able to help!"

The Northern Army and the Western Army were both border armies in the northwest.

Although they didn't have much interaction on the official level.

However, there was still some friendship in private.

It was common for the two armies to exchange what they needed.

Therefore, the soldiers at the gate quickly accepted Li Yueming's excuse.

Since it was a private visit, it was normal that there were no specific documents.

After confirming that Li Yueming was not someone with ulterior motives, the soldiers of the West Garrison Army relaxed a lot. "Please wait a moment, brothers of the Northern Battlefront Army. We have to report this matter first." Li Yueming had no objections to this.

His purpose here was to take advantage of his father. Before he had a clear understanding of the situation of the Western Garrison Army, he naturally could not easily expose his true identity.

One of the soldiers on guard duty left, probably to report the situation to the higher-ups.

Another soldier helped Li Yueming tie the spiritual horse to the temporary stable set up below the city wall.

It was also at this time that Li Yueming noticed that there was a long queue of people delivering food at the side door not far away from the West Garrison Pass. For this reason, the West Garrison Army even specially posted a notice on the city wall, telling the people not to send food and to keep the food for themselves for the winter.

However, it still couldn't stop the people from burning with enthusiasm.

The food delivery team was packed for several days.

The West Garrison Army was also helpless. They couldn't possibly ask the other party to carry the food back!

Therefore, they could only send people to collect the food of these people.

In order to repay the people's enthusiasm, the West Garrison Army also sent soldiers to cook porridge for the people who delivered food 24 hours a day at the city gate, ensuring that they could have a hot bite when they returned after delivering the food.

Li Yueming watched the people coming and going without saying a word.

About ten minutes later, the soldiers informed him that the higher-ups of the Western Garrison Army had allowed him to move around in the Western Garrison Pass.

However, the range of his activities was limited to the city.

The high pass did not allow any unrelated personnel to approach.

After passing through the thick city wall that was dozens of meters wide, Li Yueming entered the West Garrison City.

Because Li Yueming's reason for entering the city was to see if there was any place to exchange what they needed, there was a West Garrison Army Quartermaster following him.

However, this wasn't something worth mentioning to Li Yueming.

After all, the more difficult part of the plan was to enter the Western Garrison Pass. As long as they entered the Western Garrison Pass, with Li Yueming's personal strength, as long as he didn't court death, there would basically be no safety issues.

A mere quartermaster naturally could not restrain him.

Soon, Li Yueming disappeared from the eyes of the quartermaster.

The quartermaster thought he was seeing things.

When he finally came back to his senses, his first reaction was that something was wrong.

He hurriedly ran over to report.

However, in the next few days, even if the soldiers in the city searched the town, they couldn't find any trace of Li Yueming.

Nowadays, it was not uncommon for cultivators to act as spies and go deep into the enemy's rear to collect information.

Most of the time, the party being probed was unable to guard against it.

If the invading cultivators were powerful enough, ordinary armies would not be able to find them even if they knew about the invasion.

Therefore, in order to deal with this situation, the elite military forces of each country had their own anti-spy plans.

The Western Garrison Army naturally had one as well.

As long as the soldiers completed their tasks normally, even the powerful Cultivation practitioners could only gather some rough information.

The truly important information would be hidden away.

After a round of fruitless searching, the Western Garrison Army could only give up.

About half a month later, another war broke out between the Western Garrison Army and the Qin Army.

In this battle, Li Yueming hid at the edge of the battlefield and witnessed everything. He even saw his cheap father patrolling the entire battlefield on the city wall.

The Western Garrison Army's combat strength was indeed very strong!

Relying on their military strength, the West Garrison Army withstood the attacks of hundreds of thousands of Qin soldiers for three days and three nights, forcing them back.

If they had the same number of soldiers, the Qin army might not be able to defeat the West Garrison Army.

One must know that out of the 12 armies that possessed the Military Soul, five legions had their entire forces deployed in the West Garrison Pass. Apart from the ordinary soldiers, there were 500,000 soldiers that possessed the Military Soul!!!

And this was because the Qin army was unable to move in full force under the Great Tang's control.

On the Great Zhou's side, out of the 300,000 troops in the Western Garrison Fortress, only 150,000 of them were the Western Garrison Army with the military soul. The remaining 150,000 were mixed ordinary troops.

Under such circumstances, even if they occupied a natural barrier, it would not be easy to contend with the Qin army.

After the battle ended, Li Ming still didn't say anything.

He roughly estimated the combat power of the Qin army and the West Garrison Army, and then tested the situation of the West Garrison Pass through infinite deduction. In the end, he came to the conclusion that if the Qin army really attacked without caring about anything, the West Garrison Pass would definitely be in danger.

After confirming this.

He did not waste any time.

They snuck into the outskirts of the Western Garrison Army's camp in the dark. After waiting patiently for a long time, he stopped Li Nanfeng, who was about to patrol the city wall in the middle of the night.

Looking at the young man who suddenly appeared in front of him, Li Nanfeng subconsciously pulled out the sword at his waist. However, after taking a closer look at Li Yueming's appearance, he was stunned. He pursed his lips and did not know what to say.

Li Yueming glanced around and made a gesture to keep quiet. Then, he brought Li Nanfeng to a place not far from the camp.

After confirming that there was no one around, Li Yueming said, "Dad, come with me!"

Li Nanfeng's head had yet to turn around.

Hearing Li Yueming's words, he subconsciously rubbed his eyes. After he finally came back to his senses and confirmed that it was not an illusion, he said with a trembling voice, "Son, is that you?"

Li Yueming nodded.

The father and son had not seen each other for more than ten years.

After Li Yueming left home, Li Nanfeng returned to the army not long after.

Li Ruxing and Li Ruyue were at the Cultivator Academy.

They would only see each other a few times in half a month.

However, Li Nanfeng had always been stationed in the West Garrison Pass. He was afraid of the imperial court and the emperor, and did not dare to return even during festivals.

Both father and son communicated through letters.

Now that they had suddenly met, Li Nanfeng didn't even recognize Li Yueming at the first moment.

His son had grown taller.

He was also very handsome.

He still looked like a teenager.

After confirming that the young man in front of him was his son, Li Nanfeng's voice trembled even more as he said, "Why are you here? Outside the Western Garrison Fortress, there were Qin soldiers everywhere. It was very dangerous!"

Li Yueming smiled and said, "Dad, I've grown up a long time ago. My current strength might not be weaker than yours. Don't underestimate me!"

Li Nanfeng was stunned and subconsciously wanted to laugh.

However, he remembered that he was still in the military camp and should not be loud.

He could only scratch his head awkwardly.” Let’s not talk about this. It’s not convenient here. Wait for my father to deal with the military matters. When he’s free, I’ll treat you to a drink!””

Li Yueming nodded.

It would be easier for men to communicate with alcohol.

Besides, they hadn’t seen each other for more than ten years. Li Yueming really wanted to sit down and have a good chat with his cheap father.

After setting the time and location, Li Nanfeng returned to the army.

As a high-ranking general of the Western Garrison Army, Li Nanfeng had a routine every day. His sudden disappearance could cause chaos in the entire army.

If they wanted to leave the defense line, they had to explain clearly to their subordinates.

Less than an hour later.

Li Nanfeng appeared in front of Li Yueming with several jars of wine and some dishes.

It was also at this time that Li Yueming realized that compared to more than ten years ago, his father had a few more hideous scars on his body. He didn’t know if it was because of time or his injuries, but his originally straight back was a little hunched.

Li Yueming’s emotions were extremely complicated. He was even more glad that he had come in time. Otherwise, if it had dragged on for a few more years.

Chapter 498: The West Garrison Army?_1

The father and son filled their cups with wine and drank a mouthful.

Li Nanfeng ate a few mouthfuls of food and suppressed the alcohol in his stomach. He was the first to speak, “Son, what are you doing here in the West Garrison Fortress?”

Li Yueming looked at his father who was covered in wounds and sighed,””You know why I’m here. Based on the current situation, the Western Garrison Fortress will definitely not be able to hold on!”

Li Nanfeng didn’t say anything. He just picked up his chopsticks and ate a few mouthfuls of food.

In fact, as the core general of the West Garrison Army, how could Li Nanfeng not understand the current situation of the West Garrison Pass?

The six states were about to begin their struggle for hegemony. Compared to the other countries, the Great Zhou’s national strength was at a weaker level among the six states.

And after several rounds of reform, the State of Qin’s national strength was at an unprecedentedly powerful level.

Under such circumstances, how could the West Garrison Fortress stop the Qin army?

Li Nanfeng didn’t say anything, but he didn’t refute either.

After taking a sip of wine, Li Yueming continued, "Dad, come with me to Northern Ice River Town. I've already brought Big Sister and Second Sister over. The Li family is also moving to Northern Ice River Town. If everything goes well, our family will be able to celebrate the new year together tomorrow!"

Li Nanfeng smiled. "Son, do you understand your father?"

This time, it was Li Yueming's turn to be silent.

Did he understand his father?

This question seemed to have hit a blind spot in his knowledge.

He could only say that perhaps...

After so many years of not seeing each other, Li Nanfeng was only a vague shadow in Li Yueming's mind.

If you say that you have a lot of understanding that you are definitely lying.

However, it would be a lie to say that he didn't know anything about her at all.

Li Nanfeng and You Aotian were the same kind of people.

A pure soldier.

Thinking of this, Li Yue opened her mouth to say something, but in the end, she only sighed softly.

He knew that his trip here was probably in vain.

At this moment, under the dim candlelight, Li Nanfeng's slightly hunched body suddenly straightened up.

He stood up from the ground and walked to the broken door of the wooden house. He reached out and pushed the door open. Looking at the white snow drifting in the night under the bleak west wind, he said with a serious expression, "I, Li Nanfeng, joined the army when I was 12 years old. I went into battle when I was 18 years old. I've fought on the battlefield for more than 50 years, and 30 of them have been spent in this desolate city far away from human habitation..."

"I was born and raised in the western frontier, and I became famous there.

Naturally, I have to shed the last drop of blood for the western frontier, just like your grandfather and the seniors of the Divine Martial Army who guarded this checkpoint for countless years!"

From the side, Li Yueming could see the light in Li Nanfeng's eyes.

It was glory, fire, blood, and everything Li Nanfeng had.

Li Yueming silently raised his glass and drank the wine in one gulp. His expression gradually became solemn. "But the emperor, the imperial court, and the people of the Central Plains won't think that way. The situation in West Garrison Pass is so urgent, but the emperor is still unwilling to mobilize the Dragon Tiger Army to help. Isn't he trying to make the West Garrison Army bleed to the last drop?"

“So what?” Li Nanfeng laughed. The Western Garrison Army has more than 300,000 people, and 90% of them are native to the western frontier. They have never guarded the Great Zhou, nor are they suitable for the people of the Central Plains. They are only guarding the people of the western frontier...”

‘ For so many years, the emperors of the Great Zhou Dynasty have never truly regarded the people of the northwest as their own people. They can choose not to cherish us, but we must cherish us, because the Western Garrison Army has never been loyal to the Zhou Dynasty, but to the people of the Great Qian Dynasty.’

This was actually a taboo secret of the Great Zhou Imperial Court.

Under normal circumstances, there was no need to talk about Li Nanfeng.

Even the people in the western frontier rarely mentioned it.

The Western Garrison Army was not a direct descendant of the Great Zhou emperor. They were the descendants of the Great Qian Divine Martial Army that was destroyed by the Great Zhou during its heyday after the Tiandu Clan disintegrated.

10,000 years ago, the Tiandu Dynasty had just disintegrated, leaving behind a total of nine sub-dynasties. In the following years, these nine sub-dynasties were constantly in war and annexed each other.

More than five thousand years ago, the Great Qian Dynasty, one of the Nine Son Dynasties, was destroyed by the Great Zhou Dynasty, which was at its peak, and the foreign tribes on the grassland beyond the Great Wall. Thousands of members of the royal family of the Great Qian Dynasty were kidnapped by the barbarians on the grassland beyond the Great Wall. Most of them committed suicide because they couldn't bear the humiliation.

The Divine Martial Army that guarded the Human Emperor Pass back then was in a dangerous terrain.

Neither the Great Zhou nor the grasslands beyond the Great Wall could bite off this hard bone.

In the end, the helpless grasslands and Great Zhou could only use the tactic of surrounding without attacking, cutting off water and food.

Seeing that the situation was over.

The Divine Martial Army had no choice but to surrender to the Great Zhou.

Not long after, it was renamed the West Garrison Army, and the Human Emperor Pass was renamed the West Garrison Pass.

Ever since then, this matter had been deliberately played down by the Zhou Dynasty.

When the lockdown was at its strictest, even if someone in the western frontier mentioned it, they would be arrested by the imperial guards who heard the news.

That's why.

Until now, the people of the northwest were deeply afraid of this matter. However, no matter how tight the blockade was on the surface, it could not change the flow of facts.

The northwest and the northwest did not have a high degree of recognition for the Great Zhou.

Of course, the Great Zhou did not have a high sense of recognition for the Northern Lands and the western frontier. Otherwise, the Central Plains people would have always called the people of the two northwestern regions the Northwest Barbarians..

Chapter 499: The West Garrison Army?_2

The true territory of the Great Zhou was actually the fertile land after the Qin army attacked the Dragon Subdue Pass, Tiger Subdue Pass, and Futian Pass.

As for the lands in the west, north, and outside the West Garrison Pass that were occupied by the Qin army, they were actually the territory of the Great Qian Dynasty thousands of years ago.

Right now, the emperor's Dragon Tiger Army and other elite troops were all stationed at Dragon Subdue Pass, Tiger Subdue Pass, and Futian Pass.

It was obvious that they had abandoned the western frontier and the north outside the defensive circle.

He had made up his mind to let the Western Garrison Army and the Qin Army fight to the death before he sat back and reaped the benefits.

Of course, the Western Garrison Army could also choose to surrender to the Qin Army.

However, the emperor was not worried at all.

Because the Qin army and the Western Garrison Army were mortal enemies.

A large portion of the grassland barbarians were the predecessors of the Qin army. The barbarians kidnapped thousands of people from the Great Gan Lord Dynasty's royal family. They brutally castrated the men and tortured them to death, while the women were sold as military prostitutes.

This was an irreconcilable blood feud.

The reason why the Divine Martial Army surrendered was only one of the reasons.

The main reason was that Da Qian needed people to survive.

The Divine Martial Army would not give up until they killed a million barbarians for revenge.

Even the Great Zhou was one of the murderers who destroyed the Great Gan.

However, compared to the actions of the barbarians, the Great Zhou, which was also a vassal, had more or less preserved enough dignity for the Great Gan.

It was also because they knew that the Western Garrison Army would never ally with the Qin Army.

That was why the emperor could set up the Great Zhou's defense line at the front lines of the Dragon and Tiger Subdue Pass with such ease.

After all, although the western border was the main battlefield against the Qin army, the Qin army was still in the west.

However, it was too far from the Great Zhou's inland. The rate of loss of grain along the way was frighteningly high.

The Great Zhou and the Qin army had been fighting for so many years, and the country's grain deficit was already very serious.

Naturally, they would not lose more food for the Western Garrison Army.

Currently, the emperor had only maintained the food supply of the Western Garrison Pass, but he had not sent any reinforcements.

Fortunately, the West Garrison Army did not expect any reinforcements.

Now, they were defending this place only to kill a few more Qin soldiers.

Li Yueming had heard of these rumors, but he had never taken them to heart.

After all, in his opinion, those were all things that happened too long ago. Even if there were some problems left behind by history, they had long been washed away by the merciless passage of time.

NOW, when he nearly Li Nanteng talk about this.

Only then did he truly feel the blood and fire contained in this matter.

Even now, the West Garrison Army still had not forgotten the hatred they had for him 5,000 years ago.

They had been relying on the West Garrison Pass to fight the Qin army to the death.

After saying this, Li Nanfeng finished the last glass of wine in his glass and immediately put the glass back on the table. He looked at Li Yueming with a solemn expression and said, "These things were instructed by your grandfather when he was still alive, but I never told you because I didn't want you children to be involved in this matter again!"

"The reason why the Western Garrison Army's spirit has not been destroyed for generations is that they will not stop until they kill the Qin army. This is the fate of the Western Garrison Army and the best home for them...So no matter what you say, I won't run away halfway!"

At this point, Li Nanfeng closed his eyes and seemed a little tired.

In the end, he revealed a smile of relief, "When these things spread to my generation, we can finally stop here. We don't have to continue to harm our descendants."

Li Yueming Ming was completely silent until Li Nanfeng got up to leave.

Li Nanfeng opened the door. Outside, the snow and the cold wind with yellow sand were like silver needles that pricked one's skin. Li Nanfeng turned around and looked at Li Yueming, smiling. "Son, I'm really happy that you're here to see me. However, you're also the leader of an army, so it's not convenient for you to stay here for long!"

"Remember to help me say hello to those two girls when you go back. I hope they can forgive me. I'm not a qualified father. Not only did I not accompany you guys growing up, but I also didn't even worry about your marriage..."

After saying that, Li Nanfeng closed the door and left without looking back.

Li Yueming was stunned for a long time. Finally, he smiled bitterly and drank the rest of the wine in his glass.

Before coming to the western frontier, he had considered many things.

Although the other difficulties were a little troublesome, they could be overcome as long as they thought of a way.

The only problem was that Li Nanfeng refused to return to the North Glacier Town. Li Yueming had no solution to this problem.

After all, Li Nanfeng had his own legs.

If he didn't want to leave, Li Yueming couldn't really tie him up.

Putting aside whether they could win or not, even if they could, the West Garrison Army was not to be trifled with.

Since things had come to this, it was useless to say more.

Li Yueming stood up and prepared to leave.

Just as Li Nanfeng had said, Li Yueming was now the leader of an army, so he didn't have time to stay here.

As for Li Nanfeng, he could only think of a way after he returned!

After sorting out his thoughts, Li Yueming did not hesitate.

At dawn, he also disappeared from the small wooden house.

After spending some effort, Li Yueming left the West Garrison Pass. While the sky was still dark, he found the temporary stable where the horses were tied up. He wanted to see if there were any spiritual horses here so that he could ride one back to Northern Glacier Town.

Unexpectedly, after entering the stable, Li Yueming found that the black horse he rode before was still eating grass in the stable..

Chapter 500: The West Garrison Army?_3

This surprised Li Yueming.

He had disappeared into thin air after he had infiltrated the Western Garrison Pass. The Western Garrison Army had already identified him as a spy who had infiltrated the city.

Logically speaking, his black horse should have been led away by the Western Garrison Army.

But now, he was still in the stable.

When she saw him, she even snorted happily.

Li Nanfeng didn't seem like he would do something like this.

Besides, Li Nanfeng didn't know how Li Yueming entered the city.

Li Yueming didn't show any emotion after noticing the abnormality.

After closing his eyes and feeling it carefully for a moment, Li Yueming had a feeling in his heart. He immediately walked straight to the small inn next to the stable.

The inn was very old.

It was probably for the merchants traveling to the West Garrison Pass to rest. Occasionally, some commoners would stay here for a day or two.

It was clearly early in the morning, but the door of the inn was half open and not completely closed.

Li Yueming pushed the door open.

However, before he could see the scene in the inn clearly, he saw a hand suddenly grabbing towards him.

Li Yueming's reaction was very fast. He caught the incoming palm.

The other party obviously did not expect Li Yueming's speed to be so fast. He immediately formed a fist with his palm and punched towards Li Yueming.

Li Yueming withstood the punch and retreated a few steps.

The spiritual energy gathered on the other party's fist was very strong. Judging from the realm, it should be a lot higher than Li Yueming's. The most important thing was that the other party's physique was also quite strong. One punch actually made Li Yueming suffer a big loss.

He was a troublesome fellow...

After stabilizing himself, Li Yueming's expression turned solemn.

In the next second, he exerted strength under his feet and rushed back like a cannonball. At the same time, the Star-moon Art began to circulate at full force. The few hidden bodies in his body also burst out with powerful strength.

"Bang!"

He punched out.

The door of the inn shattered into pieces.

The mysterious person hiding behind the wooden door also grunted and was sent flying dozens of meters away by Li Yueming.

Hearing the sound, the people who were still sleeping in the inn opened their

Looking at the huge hole in the inn, everyone's faces were filled with fear.

At the same time, the nearby Western Garrison Fortress also noticed the abnormality. A group of elite soldiers was rapidly rushing towards the inn.

Li Yueming spat.

It had been many years since he last made a move. When he sensed the other party's aura just now, the aura in the inn gave Li Yueming a sense of déjà vu.

Therefore, he was caught off guard and suffered a small loss.

After realizing that it was his illusion, Li Yueming's counterattack was naturally extremely fast.

He was even beaten back just now!

In the blink of an eye, he returned to his senses and transformed into a human-shaped tyrannosaurus.

Li Yueming had just warmed up, so he really wanted to see the other party's true face.

Unfortunately, the inn was right next to the base of the Western Garrison

Army. The slightest movement would attract tens of thousands of Western Garrison Army soldiers. He did not want to be surrounded by an elite army with a military spirit.

Therefore, he could only give up on the idea of continuing to fight. He returned to the stable and led the black horse to prepare to leave.

However, just as he was about to leave.

Amidst the aftermath of the dust and sawdust, a dusty figure walked out and waved at him. "Wait!"

Li Yueming was already on his horse. He turned his head to take a look.

Not far away, the person who was sent flying by his punch was actually his teacher, Wang Ziwei!

No wonder he felt that something was wrong when he first sensed the other party's aura.

Seeing that Li Yueming had stopped, Wang Ziwei heaved a sigh of relief. However, he couldn't keep his expression on and coughed twice. "I haven't seen you for many years. I didn't expect the little wimp from back then to be so powerful now!"

Li Yueming glanced at the Western Garrison Army that was approaching aggressively.

He bowed to Wang Ziwei and asked in a negotiating tone, "Master, let's go somewhere else to talk?"

Wang Ziwei waved his hand to signal Li Yueming not to be anxious.

Then, he patted the dust off his body and walked towards the Western Garrison Army.

After seeing him, the leader of the Western Garrison Army immediately saluted. Wang Ziwei casually explained a few words, and the Western Garrison Army, which had been filled with killing intent just a moment ago, quickly stopped gathering.

They began to slowly retreat into the city.

After solving the problem, Wang Ziwei returned to the inn and looked at Li

Yueming. "'I'm now your father's adjutant. Come down and have a chat!"

Li Yueming glanced at the retreating Western Garrison Army, then looked at Wang Ziwei at his feet and dismounted.

Wang Ziwei sized up the disciple in front of him. After a while, he said, "Heroes come from young people. You're only in your twenties, but your strength is already comparable to master's...I don't know if I've lived too long, or if you're too monstrous!"

"Is there a possibility that it's both?" Li Yueming laughed.

Wang Ziwei also laughed. He was both angry and amused. "You think you can go to heaven just by praising you? I've been waiting for you here for a long time. I thought you weren't coming back!"
