

EVERYTHING IS TOO EASY AFTER MAXING MY TALENTS

Chapter 5

Kick Beihai Kindergarten

Looking at Li Yueming from not far away.

The couple, who were hiding beside the trash, held their breaths.

Actually, they had already noticed Li Yueming's abnormality a few months ago.

After all, the food they brought back every day did not change much.

In this case.

How did Li Yueming suddenly gain weight?

This question had troubled them both for a long time.

'Of course.'

It was not that they did not try to find out.

But Li Yueming was too smart.

There were no flaws at all to pick on.

Left with no choice, the couple could only resort to this.

Not far away, Li Yueming walked around the house with a small wooden stick.

After confirming that there was no one around,

Only then did he head into the backyard.

He began to lift his butt and shovel the soil with a small wooden stick.

Normally,

The couple probably wouldn't think too much about it.

This was because Li Yueming usually used a small wooden stick to dig the ground.

This was normal for him.

But today, the couple felt an obvious difference.

Apparently.

Their son really had a secret that even they did not know!

After a while.

The small wooden stick in Li Yueming's hand seemed to have dug up something.

He turned around and looked around vigilantly. After confirming that there was no one around, he picked up the things he had dug out from the ground.

In a daze, a fat worm flashed past.

Li Yueming squeezed out the dirty internal organs from the insect's body and wiped them with a clean stone.

He chewed and swallowed it.

The couple hiding not far away was stunned when they saw this scene!

A moment later.

After eating and drinking his fill, Li Yueming returned to the dilapidated house to take a good afternoon nap.

The couple hurriedly walked out from the shadows.

They crept to the spot where Li Yueming had dug the ground.

The two of them had explored this land before.

However, there were only broken rocks on the ground.

They found nothing.

But now, in the pit dug by Li Yueming,

Only then did the two of them realize that the soil beneath the surface was unexpectedly soft.

After digging for a few minutes, several huge earthworm holes attracted their attention.

They looked at each other.

The two of them saw the shock in each other's eyes.

There were earthworms living in the sewers.

But those were usually found in the most precious prime locations in the sewers.

They were basically occupied by rulers of the district, big and small.

Ordinary refugees like them could not even be near enough to smell meat.

But now...

There were actually earthworms living in this backyard?

And from the looks of it, there were many of them!

They were nervous and afraid.

The couple became inexplicably excited again.

These earthworms are a huge bomb.

If they were not careful, they might be crushed.

Logic told them that the best choice now was to stay away from this bomb.

The family should relocate to alternative accommodation.

But to them, who had never eaten enough, or have enough to keep warm all year round,

This earthworm field was a life saver for them.

It could feed the family.

That was all.

For a husband and wife who had starved their entire lives, it was a life line!

Therefore.

The struggle only lasted for an instant.

Soon, the couple decided to hide this secret with Li Yueming!

After discovering the earthworm field, the couple did not show any abnormalities.

They still left early in the morning and returned late at night to look for food.

However, that night...

After eating the main meal on the simple dining table.

The couple took out a few earthworms from their pockets and handed them to Li Yueming. "Child, eat more and grow taller!"

Initially, the couple thought that Li Yueming would be surprised to see an earthworm.

After all, this was supposed to be Li Yueming's secret.

Unexpectedly, Li Yueming glanced indifferently at the earthworms that were still jumping around and said with disdain, "You should keep this for yourselves. I'm already tired of eating it."

Looking at the nonchalant expression on Li Yueming's face,

The couple immediately felt extremely defeated.

Somehow.

In front of this child,

They felt like they were the ones being taken care of.

As time went on, spring passed and autumn came.

It was still dark in the sewers.

This year, Li Yueming was eight years old.

Because he had sufficient nutrition.

The first signs of his body's weakness and slow development did not appear.

On the contrary.

His physical fitness was much better than his peers.

At eight years old, he was already close to 1.5 meters tall.

The child next door was also eight years old.

However, Li Yueming, who was the same age as him, could pick him up with one hand like he was carrying a sack.

In addition,

It was worth mentioning.

Being able to grow to this height at the age of eight was due to his insistence on regular exercise and fitness.

Furthermore,

Through exercise and fitness.

Li Yueming accidentally developed another use of the Infinite Deduction Talent.

It was used to deduce various techniques.

For example, running.

Li Yueming could adjust his breathing frequency and running rhythm, and then use deductions to come up with a running method that was most suitable for him.

To achieve the effect of scientifically and efficiently exercising the body.

Another example was boxing practice.

He could adjust the angle and speed of his punches and use deduction to find a boxing technique that was most suitable for him.

This would increase his combat strength to the greatest extent.

All in all.

Infinite Deduction's potential was simply endless!

It could be said that

Now, he could even fight an adult.

After all, children were not the only ones who were malnourished these days.

Most of the adults were also sallow and thin.

Just like that.

One day after his eighth birthday.

When Li Yueming passed by the sewers, he saw a group of children picking up trash in the sewers.

One of the loud children, Wang, blocked Li Yueming's path.

"Stop!" The leader's snot-covered mouth twitched as he asked, "How old are you?"

Li Yueming covered his nose and took two steps back.

Only then did he say calmly, "Eight years old."

The leader: "???"

He looked at Li Yueming, who was half a head taller than him.

The leader felt like his intelligence had been mocked by Li Yueming.

You call this eight years old?

And so.

Under the gazes of a group of children.

The leader and Li Yueming, who thought that their status had been challenged, started a battle at the top of the Imperial City that attracted attention.

As for the result...

There was no point in mentioning it.

Eventually.

Li Yueming obtained the title of 'Child God of War' two years earlier than the deduction.

The children in the nearby sewers had to respectfully call him Big Brother.

This achievement did not make Li Yueming arrogant.

As a simulator.

Patterns were very important.

He wanted to obtain an extremely high score in the Reincarnation World.

The most effective way was to increase his influence and reputation or make some indelible contributions to his race.

Staying in the sewers as a leader or something.

If word got out, they would only be laughed at by the simulators.

Li Yueming still had a long way to go if he wanted to obtain a higher-level mark score.
