Chapter 551: Breaking through two stages in a row, the unstoppable Star Moon Army!_1

After one battle after another.

The Star-Moon Army's spirit, which was still in its embryonic form, had finally condensed into a substantial force in this war!

Back then, Li Yueming had established the Star Moon Army.

From then on, countless people in the Northwest followed Li Yueming and pledged their loyalty to him.

Before the assassination, Li Yueming, who had been stationed in North Glacier

Town all year round, had already become the spiritual totem of the Star Moon Army. More than half of the entire Star Moon Army's spirit was supported by Li Yueming alone.

And now, Li Ruyue had been assassinated, and it was still unknown whether she was dead or alive.

This caused the soldiers of the Star Moon Army, who regarded Li Yueming as their spiritual totem, to panic. They had lost the core soul that had led them to follow him regardless of life and death. They felt that the sky was about to collapse.

They were all at a loss about their future.

Such a troop that did not have a strong will and had all their ideals handed over to the general would not be able to obtain the blessing of heaven and earth to give birth to a military soul under normal circumstances.

However, after the assassination.

Li Ruyue, Ding Yi, Wang Biao, and the other outstanding Star Moon Army generals had different reactions.

Not only did the entire Starmoon Troop not collapse, but they also stood up again at an extremely fast speed.

Under their leadership, they fought alongside the army.

The soldiers couldn't help but think of a question.

What were they fighting for?

When Li Yueming was still in North Glacier Town, the purpose of the Star Moon Army was undoubtedly to fight for Li Yueming.

Li Yueming was absolutely right in their hearts.

Similarly, Li Yueming was also their spiritual pillar.

Now that Li Yueming was no longer standing there like a lighthouse in the darkness, how could they overcome the confusion and illuminate the road ahead?

No one knew.

But as the war continued, everything seemed to become less important.

Li Yueming's life and death were unknown.

The Star Moon Army needed to make the Great Zhou pay the price of blood and bones in order to announce to the world that the commander of the Star Moon Army could not be violated by anyone.

Similarly, only when the Great Zhou paid a bloody price again could they protect the people of the Northwest and North Glacier Town from the invasion of the war, and protect the foundation of Li Yueming's hard work.

Not long ago, Li Yueming had told them about it.

The purpose of the Starmoon Troop's existence wasn't for any of them, but to save the millions of people who had suffered in the Six Nations 'chaotic war.

They did not know how to save the millions of people who had suffered in the war between the six countries.

However, they knew that they should protect the people in the northwest.

To the Star Moon Army, they were not just a group of people.

It could also be their uncles, aunts, parents, wives, and children...

Therefore, after a short period of confusion, the Starmoon Troop was still unable to see through the foggy road ahead.

However, they all knew what they should do now.

It was a lesson that Zhou would never forget.

They would also protect the people in the northwest from being disturbed by the flames of war. They would be able to build their own homes happily and safely in this paradise protected by the Starmoon Troop.

If only tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands of people had such thoughts, it would be fine. However, the hundreds of thousands of people in the Star Moon Troop had the same goal and ideology in their hearts!!!

Under such circumstances, it was only natural that the army spirit was officially born.

At this moment, the entire northwest was trembling.

Countless spiritual energy surged continuously and began to gather towards the Star Moon Army that was scattered all over the place!

The stronger the willpower of the Star Moon Army soldiers, the more Heaven and Earth power they could receive. The weaker the willpower of the soldiers, the more Heaven and Earth power they could receive.

The higher the morale and fighting power of the army, the more terrifying the support of the will of heaven and earth would be. On the contrary, the lower their fighting strength and morale, the weaker the support of the will of heaven and earth on the army.

However, as long as there was still a group of people in the Starmoon Troop who had not forgotten their ideals and were willing to pass on the spirit of their predecessors, the soul of the Starmoon Troop would never be extinguished.

For so many years, there were very few soul troops that could maintain a strong combat strength.

The vast majority of armies with military spirits would only become weaker and weaker over time. They might even lose their spiritual inheritance and completely become an ordinary and mediocre army.

After all, the predecessors planted the trees and the descendants enjoyed the shade.

Other than the first batch of core soldiers who had powerful bonuses, most of the soldiers who were added later had no way to understand the determination of the previous generation when they started their business.

Thus, it was naturally difficult to obtain a complete military soul enhancement.

This was also the main reason why troops with military souls could not go against powerful Qi Refiners under normal circumstances.

After all, most of the soldiers who had inherited the military spirit were born many years ago. After being diluted by generations, the military spirit was very thin.

And now, as the first batch of soldiers who had the soul of an army born.

The Starmoon Troop's combat strength was obvious. The infusion of countless spiritual energy directly caused the Starmoon Troop's combat strength to soar to an extremely terrifying level! ! !

On top of Tiger Subdue Pass, countless soldiers guarding the city were so scared that they almost peed their pants when they saw this scene below the city..

Above the Star-Moon Troop, a giant monster that was ready to devour anyone was formed. It was the product of the materialization of the army's soul. Not only did it have an invincible aura, but it also had superhuman strength.

The soul of the army could materialize.

This meant that this army of unknown origin was even stronger than 90% of the Six Nations 'soul troops. They were the ultimate elites of the soul troops. However, it was impossible for such an army to descend from the sky without any fame.

Where did they come from?

However, at this moment, all of this did not seem to matter.

Back then, the Star Moon Army was still able to break through the defense of Dragon Crouching Pass without awakening their military spirit.

Now that they had the military spirit, the combat power of the 100,000 Star Moon Army had increased exponentially. Even if there were no spies to open the gates of Tiger Subdue Pass, the Star Moon Army already had the power to attack Tiger Subdue Pass head-on.

With the spy opening the city gate, it was naturally easier to break through the defense of Tiger Subdue Pass.

Li Ruxing's style was as simple and crude as ever.

As a woman, in order to protect her younger brother with all her might, Li Ruxing threw aside all the unspoken rules and order that had been observed for many years.

She wasn't afraid of being criticized by thousands of people, nor was she afraid of being despised by thousands of people.

They weren't even afraid of breaking the rules and being crushed into pieces.

Therefore, she did not show any mercy this time. After charging into Tiger Subdue Pass, she first surrounded the garrison on the city wall without attacking. Then, she set the entire Dragon Subdue Pass on fire.

In order to prevent future troubles, they even used siege vehicles to blast open several parts of the city wall.

After doing all this.

Li Ruxing did not stop. Without any hesitation, he charged toward the last strong city in the northwest of the Great Zhou Dynasty, Futian Pass.

The recent events in the Northwest were too significant.

Whether it was the Great Zhou Imperial Court or the other six dynasties, they all looked over.

Many people were speculating about how the Star Moon Army and the Great Zhou would end up, and many people were curious about whether Northern Glacier Town would be destroyed or if the Great Zhou would suffer another huge loss.

Judging from the previous signs.

In fact, Northern Glacier Town was already at a complete disadvantage.

After all, the battle hadn't even started and the commander had already been assassinated.

Moreover, the soldiers of the Star Moon Army had not gathered together. Even the main force was still in the territory of the Great Zhou Dynasty's northeast and had not returned.

If a miracle did not happen, the Star Moon Troop would most likely be doomed in this war.

However, he did not expect that the Star Moon Army, which should have been in chaos because of the unknown whereabouts of the commander, was not as chaotic as he had imagined. Li Yueming's sister, Li Ruxing, took over the command of the Northern Ice River Town.

Furthermore, he decisively led his army to attack the Dragon Conqueror Pass with lightning speed.

Up until now, everything was still normal.

After all, as Li Yueming's sister, it was normal for her to do something irrational in anger.

However, Dragon Conqueror Pass was not so easy to break through.

Northern Ice River Town's desperate actions would probably cause irreparable serious consequences.

However, the most unbelievable thing happened...

Not only did the Star Moon Army's plan to attack Dragon Crouching Pass not fail, but they also successfully took down Dragon Crouching Pass.

It was said that the Star Moon Army took less than two days to occupy the Dragon Crouching Pass.

They did not burn, kill, or pillage the city. Instead, they set the entire city on fire. Even the city gate was blasted open with several large holes!!!

The thick smoke mixed with the charred smell of the hundreds of thousands of Great Zhou soldiers' corpses. The towns in the southeast of Great Zhou hundreds of miles away could smell the pungent smell in the air.

Thus, the entire world was in an uproar.

One after another, the news spread like wildfire.

The topics of conversation of the various countries were like ants frantically approaching the battlefield, wanting to obtain more in-depth information.

"What's going on? The Star Moon Troop's main force is in the northeast, and we can only mobilize about 100,000 men, right? Back then, Great Qin had led hundreds of thousands of soldiers but had not been able to take down Dragon Crouching Pass. Now, how could the Star Moon Army take down Dragon

Crouching Pass?"

"Who knows? "However, the Great Zhou Empire has already transferred the troops of the Dragon Conqueror Pass to the main battlefield. Compared to the past, the defense of the Dragon Conqueror Pass has been weakened by many times. Perhaps this is the root cause of the fall of the Dragon Conqueror Pass..." "Li Yueming was assassinated, but the Star Moon Army didn't fall into chaos?"

"I have to admit that the Star Moon Army has become one of the most powerful armies in the entire continent. Anyone who dares to underestimate them will pay a bloody price!"

"Who knows where the Star Moon Army led by Li Ru went after burning the Tiger Subdue Pass?"

The war between the Great Zhou and the Star Moon Army should have been settled since Li Yueming was assassinated by a Qi Refiner.

However, the following messages were more and more shocking.

Every time everyone thought that the dust had settled, the Star Moon Troop would always display operations that no one could have imagined.

In the beginning, many people were shocked, but now that they had experienced it so much, their nerves had become numb. Even if they heard other news, they would probably only sigh at the Star Moon Troop's tenacity.

I'm tired, I'm tired. Do whatever you want. Quickly destroy it!

However, before they could make their guesses and predictions, more shocking news came again.

After the scouts from the various countries had investigated in detail, they were able to find out more.

Everyone was shocked to find that not long after Tiger Subdue Pass was breached, the Star Moon Army had once again attacked Dragon Subdue Pass. Moreover, before the soldiers guarding the city could resist, the city had already been breached by the Star Moon Army in the blink of an eye.

Once upon a time, the strongest cities of the Great Zhou in the hearts of the six states were like naked little girls in front of the Star Moon Army, unable to resist at all.

After this news spread.

The various countries did not even have the time to exclaim in surprise. Instead, they were so scared that they broke out in cold sweat.

If the Star-Moon Troop could easily break through the Dragon and Tiger Crouching Pass, then wouldn't the other passes be even more worthless in front of them?

Moreover, the speed at which they attacked the city was too fast.

Was this really the combat power of an army?

All the countries were filled with doubt.

There were too many suspicious points, and the scouts could only dig deeper, hoping to get more information from the shattered city.

In the Great Zhou Imperial Court.

At this moment, these bigwigs who were usually boastful and domineering felt as if they were sitting on pins and needles. They were even afraid that their breathing would be too loud and attract the emperor's attention.

The Star-Moon Army had actually broken through the Dragon and Tiger Subduing Passages, and had caused irreparable damage to the Dragon and Tiger Subduing Passages.

The city walls were damaged, and even the entire city was burned down. Hundreds of thousands of soldiers were left without a single corpse. This caused the hearts of all the officials in the imperial court to suffer a huge blow.

In the past, no matter how rampant the Star Moon Army was, the emperor himself had never been worried that they would pose a threat to the Great Zhou capital.

After all, although the territory of the northwest seemed vast.

However, most of them were barren land that could not be reclaimed and did not have much value.

With the number of people in the northwest, the Star Moon Army could only serve as a small force that divided a territory. Compared to the rich Great Zhou, it was completely on a different level.

But now, the Dragon Subdue Pass and Tiger Subdue Pass had been breached, giving everyone a wake-up call.

The power of Northern Ice River Town had silently become so powerful that it was enough to threaten the Great Zhou Dynasty!!!

One had to know that if they lost the three passes, then the nearly 5,000 kilometers northwest of the Great Zhou Dynasty would be defenseless. Not only would they lose large areas of territory and taxes, but they would even make Haojing fall into a defenseless situation.

This was unacceptable to the Great Zhou.

After all, whether it was the northern or western borders, or Northern Ice River Town and the Star Moon Army, they were all dogs that the Great Zhou could command at will. Search newnovel.org on google

They ate the dog food given by the Great Zhou and defended the territory of the Great Zhou Dynasty.

But now, this group of dogs that had never been taken seriously in the past had suddenly transformed into an evil dragon and ruthlessly tore off a piece of meat from Great Zhou.

Putting aside the pain in his body for the time being.

Even the damage to his soul was a real critical hit.

Seeing that all the civil and military officials in the court were stammering and did not dare to say a word.

In the end, it was the Left Prime Minister Wang Fuyue who sighed and stood up. "Your Majesty, the Northwest Starmoon Army has already become a force to be reckoned with. Now that the chief villain, Li Yueming, has been killed, the Great Zhou might as well delay for a while and avoid the sharp edge of the Northern Ice River Town and the Starmoon Army..."

Chapter 553: A Miracle in the History of the Six Nations war! 1

Under the emperor's cold gaze, all the officials lowered their eyes and did not dare to make a sound.

Only the Left Prime Minister, Wang Fuyue, stood up to explain his views on the current situation to the emperor.

In his opinion, the Great Zhou Empire was currently in a troubled period, and 80% of its rations and soldiers were focused on the war between Great Qin and Great Qi.

And if they wanted to destroy Northern Glacier Town, it would be very difficult with the current strength that the Great Zhou could mobilize,

Since the Northwest Star-Moon Troop had already become a force to be reckoned with, they could not be wiped out easily. Moreover, the leader, Li Yueming, had been assassinated by a mysterious assassin. Until today, it was still unknown whether he was dead or alive.

Then the court might as well put this matter aside for now.

He had sent the soldiers from the northwest back to guard the already dilapidated city.

He would temporarily avoid the sharp edge of Northern Ice River Town.

Li Ruxing only had a hundred thousand soldiers under his command. It was already a shocking feat to break through three extremely steep passes in one go. It was basically impossible to advance any further.

As a result, they would not cause damage to the Great Zhou Empire like Great Qin.

Combined with the above conditions, it seemed that as long as the Great Zhou strategically contracted, Northern Glacier Town and the Star Moon Army would not be able to find a place to vent their anger.

Then, when this force was relieved, perhaps Northern Ice River Town and the Star Moon Army would collapse due to the struggle for power. At that time, the Great Zhou might be able to take down the entire Northern Ice River Town without spending a single soldier.

Even if they took ten thousand steps back, there was no power struggle or panic in Northern Ice River Town.

When the Great Zhou Dynasty finally caught its breath and stopped fighting Great Qin and Great Qi, it would have a great chance to deal with Northern Ice River Town.

No matter how one looked at it, it was ten times or a hundred times better than the current stalemate.

.0.

Under normal circumstances, although this advice could not be considered very smart, it could be considered a very good choice for the Great Zhou.

After all, the Star Moon Troop had just formed its army spirit.

The combat power of the entire army had reached a certain level.

If the Great Zhou insisted on going head-on with the Star Moon Army, they would probably be at least half-bitten by the Star Moon Army, whose rage was full.

However, if the Great Zhou did not give them a chance and retreated all their forces into the cities in the south.

The situation in Northern Glacier Town was very troublesome.

Li Ruxing was able to sit on the position of the leader of North Ice River Town. In addition to his identity as Li Yueming's sister, it was also because the other high-ranking members of the Star Moon Army were not present.

At that time, if the battle stopped, causing the other reincarnators to start returning to the camp one after another, Li Ruxing's position as the temporary general might not be able to continue to sit steadily.

In order to fight for power and profit, the entire group of reincarnators would probably be divided because of this.

At that time, the Starmoon Troop's combat strength might drop by half.

However, Wang Fuyue had considered the overall situation at the moment, but she had missed the most unstable factor, the human heart.

Breaking the Dragon Subdue Pass, Tiger Subdue Pass, and Futian Pass was a huge disaster.

This meant that the entire Great Zhou might lose a third of its territory because of this.

This had never happened in the entire history of Great Zhou.

In the past, no matter how down and out, the Great Zhou would at most cede a few cities. There had never been a situation where a pass was broken through and a large piece of land was lost.

Under such circumstances, if no one took the blame for this matter, how would the emperor deal with it?

Wang Fuyue didn't think of this problem.

Perhaps he had thought of it, but he still stood up resolutely.

However, it didn't matter whether he had thought of it or not.

Right Prime Minister Ge Hong had already grasped his weakness and attacked without hesitation.

He looked at the emperor lying on his side in the throne room and said in a hoarse voice, "'Your Majesty, our Great Zhou lost this war for no reason. The three passes in the northwest did not even cause much damage to the enemy before they were already broken through. If there is no hidden story behind this, I will definitely not believe it...'

"Now that Northern Ice River Town is rebelling first, they actually want our Great Zhou to take the lead in lowering our heads and shaking hands with the rebel soldiers in the northwest. Once this kind of operation really happens and word gets out, will the Great Zhou still have the prestige of the country?"

"One of the six dynasties, an ancient inheritance that has been passed down for tens of thousands of years...Now, he was lowering his head like a seventeen or eighteen-year-old little bastard. He would probably be laughed at by the other countries."

"Moreover, I once heard that Prime Minister Wang had an engagement with the Li family in the past. Now that so many things have happened, Prime Minister Wang is actually still protecting Northern Ice River Town...Could it be that Prime Minister Wang was secretly contacting Northern Ice River Town?" Hearing this, all the officials in the meeting hall were shocked.

Listening to Ge Hong's words, he completely wanted Wang Fuyue to be sent to the eighteenth level of hell!

Everyone knew that the emperor was currently searching for the spies the Li family had planted in various parts of the Great Zhou Dynasty, afraid that some heartless spies would appear behind his back.

Now, if Wang Fuyue's words were a clear target, then Ge Hong was a soldier standing in front of the target and ready to fire. His fanning the flames had completely ignited the emperor's suspicion and distrust.

Therefore, when he heard Ge Hong slandering his character and reputation like this.

Wang Fugui was so angry that he almost spat out three liters of blood on the spot. He could not help but widen his eyes and point at Ge Hong with a trembling hand.. "You, you, you... You're slandering me! This official has always been loyal to the public and has never considered any petty matters. so how could I possibly collude with Northern Ice River Town?"

Chapter 554: A Miracle in the History of the Six Nations war! 2

"According to what you said, you should be the first one to be blamed! After all, an idiot like you who doesn't have any ability but relies on climbing the flames to stand in a high position is the biggest reason why our Great Zhou has been defeated repeatedly!"

These words poked Ge Hong's sore spot.

He didn't expect Wang Fuyue to go all out today. He couldn't help but curse in exasperation, "You... You... If I'm an idiot, then what are you, Wang Fuyue? Don't forget that we are all important officials hand-picked by His Majesty. If you say that I'm an idiot, aren't you doubting His Majesty's sharp eyes?"

Ge Hong was the clan leader of the Ge clan in the Central Plains. He was not good at Qi cultivation, but was good at refining some strange pills.

After entering the officialdom, he had won over the hearts of the people by giving away all kinds of pills.

Even the current emperor had gained a lot of benefits from this.

Because he had many henchmen and was favored by the emperor, Ge Hong sat in the position of an extremely important official through some manipulation.

Indifferent. Although Wang Fuyue had called him an idiot, he actually had some real ability. However, these abilities were limited to governing a peaceful dynasty that did not have too many waves.

In the current situation where the Six Nations were competing for the top spot, there were many loopholes.

Ge Hong's ability could not support him to complete the integration of forces.

The two of them fought in the court, their faces red.

However, the emperor's face was getting darker and darker, almost turning into a black pot.

Ge Hong keenly realized that Wang Fuyue seemed to be really going all out today. Even if he drowned, he would drag him down with him.

Therefore, even if he wanted to take down Wang Fuyue again, he would still be able to do so.

Ge Hong immediately shut his mouth and did not dare to continue.

.0.

In the imperial court, the emperor, who had been standing like a pile of mud, suddenly coughed.

Instantly, the entire court fell silent.

In an instant, a pin drop could be heard.

Even Wang Fuyue could only shake her head and sigh silently after seeing that Ge Hong did not take the blow.

He glanced at the two people who were arguing.

The emperor's gaze swept past Ge Hong before landing on Wang Fuyue. He asked coldly, "Minister Wang, the plan you offered to let our Great Zhou avoid the edge of the blade, isn't it telling the other five countries that our Great Zhou is corrupt and incompetent? He couldn't even suppress a small rebellion?"

Wang Fuyue felt a pressure that was like water.

Not only was the emperor the most respected existence in the Great Zhou. but he was also a powerful cultivator.

Now, under his gaze, Wang Fuyue, whose cultivation was not very high, naturally could not withstand it.

Wang Fuyue sighed dejectedly and said, "Your Majesty, although these words should not have come out of this subject's mouth, the weakness of the Great Zhou is not something that can be done overnight. Now, this problem has only been completely exposed... "

'What we need to do now is to immediately suspend unnecessary wars and give the people time to recuperate. We shouldn't burn the flames of war even more vigorously and cause the entire Great Zhou to be burned to ashes in the raging flames!"

As soon as he said this.

Instantly, the originally quiet court exploded.

Ge Hong didn't dare to speak, but his political ally behind him naturally wouldn't let go of such a good opportunity. He shouted angrily, "Wang Fuyue, you old fart!"

“Our Great Zhou is in good order under the governance of the current emperor. In the past few years, our taxes have been rising year after year. It’s the time when we are strong, so why do you call it a weak country? Could it be that

Prime Minister Wang really had some inexplicable connection with Northern Ice River Town?”

Wang Fuyue didn’t say anything when she heard that. She just closed her eyes silently.

When he and Ge Hong were scolding each other just now, no one stood up and said anything.

However, when he mentioned some hidden illness of the Great Zhou, the entire court was filled with civil officials and generals who wished that he could die on the spot.

He knew that there was nothing he could do now.

The Great Zhou’s tax revenue had indeed been rising year after year.

However, these taxes were not paid by the people, but by merchants and slave owners from all over the world under the guise of the people.

These merchants and slave owners were naturally not philanthropists.

The merchants hoarded goods and raised prices everywhere to earn huge profits.

The great slave owners would levy exorbitant taxes on the fields and join forces with merchants to hoard the land and property in the hands of the freemen.

A few combination punches came down.

Taxes had indeed risen under the cover of guilty officials everywhere.

However, not only did the people not become richer, but their lives became more and more difficult.

The biggest beneficiary of this was the officials who were now filled with anger and wanted him dead immediately.

Wang Fuyue discovered this problem.

However, even if he was the prime minister of a dynasty, if he wanted to take away their interests from the mouths of countless interest groups, he would still be smashed into pieces in an instant.

The emperor’s expression was uncertain.

At this moment, his rationality told him that Wang Fuyue was right.

However, looking at the overall situation, it was impossible for him to give up so easily.

Moreover, Wang Fuyue dared to openly challenge his dignity in front of all the civil and military officials. This was also something he could not tolerate.

Therefore, he said solemnly, “Minister Wang, since you have no confidence in the Great Zhou, please return to your hometown and rest for a period of time. Remember to take care of your health. I still look forward to you adjusting your attitude and returning to the court!”

After saying that, he ignored the various expressions on the others’ faces and continued, “As for Northern Glacier Town...once Li Yueming was eliminated, they would not be able to cause any trouble in the short term.. After the Great Tang in the south had recovered from Great Qin's attacks, they would deal with them!"

Chapter 555: A Miracle in the History of the Six Nations War!—3

Beneath his feet, all the civil and military officials had no objections to this outcome.

Hence, they all fell at the feet of the Son of Heaven and praised him.

.0.

Futian Pass.

With two passes broken through in a row, even if the Great Zhou officials were stupid, they would have guessed something.

Therefore, this time was different from the previous times.

The gate of Futian Pass didn't open like before.

However, this was not a problem for the Starmoon Troop.

The mighty army that possessed the army spirit realized that they could not use any tricks, so they attacked Futian Pass without any hesitation.

The Starmoon Troop's combat power was much stronger than anyone had imagined.

After all, they were the first generation of soldiers with the soul of the army, and they enjoyed the most intense and profound blessing of the power of heaven and earth.

In just a week.

Futian Pass, which was guarded by the new recruits, the old, the weak, and the sick, was taken down by Li Ruxing.

Raging flames rose from the city and even burned the stone cliffs on both sides of the city wall. The falling boulders smashed the city wall and the entire Futian Pass.

The degree of destruction here far exceeded the other two passes.

The three passes in the northwest of the Great Zhou were successively breached by the Star Moon Army.

All the countries in the world were shocked.

If the Star-Moon Troop had been able to take advantage of the situation when they attacked the Dragon and Tiger Crouching Pass in the beginning, then the Star-Moon Troop would have been able to defeat the Dragon and Tiger Crouching Pass.

Everyone in the world had witnessed the battle against Futian Pass.

The Starmoon Troop's combat strength was heaven-defying. It could definitely be considered the most elite troop in the world.

“I didn’t expect...A small place that no one had a good impression of had actually given birth to a military soul troop that had obtained the recognition of heaven and earth. It was truly unbelievable!”

“Fortunately, the leader of the Starmoon Troop, Li Yueming, was assassinated. Otherwise, with the current combat strength of the Starmoon Troop, coupled with Li Yueming’s leadership, I’m afraid they would really have the strength to dominate the Central Plains!”

“Come on, do you really think that the various countries can stand above the nine heavens only because of the strength of their armies? The true strength of the Six Nations...Forget it, it’s useless to talk to you!”

Countless people in the world were discussing.

Countless gazes were focused on the Starmoon Army and Northern Ice River Town.

The most uncomfortable one was undoubtedly the Great Zhou Army, who had been serving as a backdrop for the Star Moon Army.

And the one with the most intense reaction was naturally the Qin country.

After all, the Qin soldiers had only broken through one of the three passes.

However, he had obtained a huge amount of wealth from the Great Zhou.

Now, the Star Moon Army has helped to break through all three passes.

If he could take advantage of the situation, he would probably be able to reap several times the benefits from before.

Unfortunately, the Qin army was currently attacking the Great Tang. Fighting on two fronts was a taboo in any country. Moreover, Li Yueming’s fate was unknown, so the Qin army was not fully confident that they could enter the Great Zhou from the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

As such, even though Great Qin was envious, it did not have the ability to attack Great Zhou again.

After discovering that the Great Zhou soldiers were returning from the attack on North Glacier Town, Li Ruxing finally brought the exhausted Star Moon Army back.

When they came out, Li Ruxing’s 120,000 Starmoon Troops were all in the army.

When he returned, Li Ruxing still had 90,000 Starmoon Troops under his command.

With the lives of 30,000 soldiers, this earth-shattering military miracle had never been recorded in the history books of various countries. However, neither Li Ruxing nor the Star Moon Army were happy at all.

Their morale was still high, and their fighting strength was equally ferocious.

However, they could not eliminate the pain in their hearts.

Not only for his comrades who died in the war, but also for Li Yueming, whose whereabouts were unknown.

In the past.

Li Yue Ming was the light of the Star Moon Army and North Ice River Town.

He stood there like a flag, leading everyone in the direction he pointed.

But now, this flag had suddenly disappeared from their lives.

Therefore, even if they were to return to their hometown, they could not dispel the grief and nostalgia in the hearts of the soldiers of the Star Moon Army.

General Li was gone.

Where should the Star-Moon Army and Northern Glacier Town go?

Chapter 556: The Vast Ten Thousand Mountains

Birds fly away from thousands of mountains, and people disappear from thousands of paths.

This was a country of ice and snow, and it was also a land that had never been contaminated by any filth.

As far as the eye could see, the entire world was covered in snow.

Under such circumstances, the black dot lying in the middle of the snow was particularly eye-catching.

Li Yueming woke up from his deep sleep. He opened his eyes and looked around. After confirming that he did not feel too much danger, he finally heaved a sigh of relief.

Silently sitting cross-legged on the snow, he carefully sensed the terrible condition of his body.

He could not help but smile bitterly.

It would be a lie if he said that he did not know that the Great Zhou would send powerful Qi Practitioners to attack him.

In the past, the reason why the Star-Moon Army was able to repeatedly jump around in Northern Glacier Town was that the Great Zhou did not put them in their eyes. That was because the Great Zhou had predicted that the two territories in the northwest were too barren. Northern Glacier Town could not pose too much of a threat to the Great Zhou by relying on these two territories.

However, after the Star-Moon Army from Northern Glacier Town took over Wing City and Jincheng City in the northeast, the Great Zhou's attitude towards Northern Glacier Town immediately changed.

The Star Moon Army alone would definitely not be able to threaten the Great Zhou.

However, if the Star Moon Army took advantage of the war between Great Zhou and Great Qi to interfere and stop Great Zhou's grain route in the northeast, then Great Zhou's state would really be in danger of being overturned.

Therefore, under such circumstances.

Li Yueming had long expected the possible attack of dimensional reduction.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have handed over the entire Star Moon Army and the power of Northern Ice River Town so early, leaving only Li Ruxing to stay in the headquarters of Northern Ice River Town to guard against any unexpected situations.

It was to prevent any accidents from happening to him, so that the power of the Star Moon Army could smoothly transition to Li Ruxing.

In this world, who knew Li Yueming the best?

Without a doubt, it was Li Ruxing.

Similarly, Li Yue was very clear about her second sister's ability and knowledge.

Although he didn't say a word, he was still looking at her.

However, he believed that if what he expected happened, with Lee Ruxing's intelligence, he would definitely understand his arrangements very quickly and lead the Star Moon Army on the most correct path.

He kept accumulating his strength and waited for the moment when the fish would leap through the dragon gate.

Li Yueming's judgment of the overall situation was not wrong.

The only thing Li Yueming didn't expect was that the emperor had such a strong grudge against him.

On the surface, he was only a cultivator in the Invisibility Realm. Although his strength had far exceeded this realm, Li Yueming rarely fought in North Ice River Town. It had been a long time since he showed his talent in Qi cultivation and cultivation in front of everyone.

Logically speaking, even if the Li family still had secret guards to protect Li Yueming's safety.

It should be more than enough for the Great Zhou to send two or three Qi Refinement Realm cultivators with divine apertures to kill him.

However, the Great Zhou did not do so. Instead, they directly found a Qi Refiner in the Heavenly Tribulation realm to kill him...

The 12th tribulation of ascension.

The heavenly tribulation realm was just at the tenth tribulation.

Ever since the establishment of the Tiandu Dynasty, there was a saying among the Qi Practitioners in this world: After the Heavenly Tribulation, the Human and Celestial separated.

It meant that once a Qi Refinement person passed the Heavenly Tribulation.

Then, he would immediately obtain power far beyond the imagination of ordinary Qi Refiners.

Every move he made contained traces of heavenly might, and it was as if the heavens were crushing ants when they destroyed ordinary cultivators.

Similarly, such an existence was unique even in this fantasy world.

For example, according to the records in the ancient books of the Li family, the ancestor of the Li family should have been a Qi Refiner in the Heavenly Tribulation realm thousands of years ago. If he had not died due to the problem of longevity, he would probably be one of the best among the Qi Refiners in the Heavenly Tribulation realm.

In order to deal with a small cultivator like him, the Great Zhou Dynasty had sent out a cultivator at the Heavenly Tribulation Realm.

It had to be said that this was definitely a huge move that far exceeded the imagination of ordinary people.

One had to know that there were two major realms between the continuous realm and the heavenly tribulation, the Origin Returning Realm and the Divine Aperture Realm.

The gap was even greater than the gap between adults and children.

Naturally, Li Yueming was also tortured.

Even with the help of the Li family, Li Yueming would still have a slim chance of survival. If he didn't have a perfect geno body to continuously repair his injuries and increase his physical resistance, he would have been able to push his health and defense to the limit.

Li Yueming would have been turned into a pile of meat paste by now.

In the end, he had to put in all his effort to escape to the depths of the Hundred Thousand Mountains and finally escape the pursuit of the mysterious Qi Refiner from the Great Zhou royal family.

But now, his entire body was dried up.

Although the perfect genetic body was powerful, it came with a price.

Altering the gene sequence might not only cause the gene to collapse, but it would also squeeze out all the nutrients in the cells.

Therefore, Li Yueming's cells had withered. Although he looked to be in his forties or fifties and was still at the peak of a cultivator's body, the actual degree of cell fission and aging in his body was almost no different from that of an old man who was at the end of his life.

He was still alive, but not that alive.

All the functions in his body were severely damaged. As a cultivator, his powerful strength had fallen like a cliff. Even the treasures in his body had lost their original power.

Only the spiritual energy absorbed by the heaven and earth could barely support the power of the Void Refinement Realm.

The only thing worth rejoicing about was that he had finally escaped from the pursuit..

Chapter 557: Vast Hundred Thousand Mountains (2)

He didn't have to worry about dying on the spot.

Li Yueming finally stood up shakily and looked at the rising sun in the sky. He wanted to roughly determine the direction and head towards the extremely cold snow mountain.

According to his previous plan.

If he was really assassinated by a powerful qi-refiner, he would naturally cut off his connection with the Star Moon Army.

In the past, the Star Moon Army was Li Yueming's weakness.

After all, Li Yueming wanted to build an army that could sweep the world and complete all the missions he wanted to complete in this world.

But now, the Starmoon Troop had already taken shape, and even the soul of the army had been born.

At this time, Li Yueming was the Star Moon Army's weakness.

As an army, as long as the spirit of the army could be fully cultivated, the Starmoon Troop would definitely leap from an unknown ordinary army to one of the most powerful armies in the world.

Under such circumstances, Li Yueming, who was only at the Void Refinement Realm, was no different from a child in front of the powerful cultivators of the six dynasties.

A child whose claws and teeth were not sharp enough held a sharp knife that could stab the world.

What would the other countries think?

In any case, as neighbors, the Great Zhou would definitely not be able to tolerate it.

After all, be it the Great Tang or Great Ming, the Great Qin or Great Qi, or the Great Song or Great Zhou, they were all feudal lords that had existed since the time of the ancient Human Emperor, the Tiandu Clan.

Other than themselves, they were probably the only ones who knew each other's background.

Li Yueming wanted to use his weapon next door, but they couldn't destroy the Star Moon Army's sharp blade. They could only settle for the next best thing, which was to directly deal with the person wielding the sword.

And now, Li Yueming had separated from the Star Moon Army. Wasn't this also protecting the Star Moon Army?

At least Li Yueming wasn't in North Glacier Town, so the Great Zhou Empire and the other countries weren't as afraid of the Star Moon Army.

Before the outcome of this battle was decided.

If it was not necessary, the various countries would not go head-on against the Star Moon Army.

This way, the Starmoon Troop could secretly develop again.

Li Yue Ming could also take this opportunity to escape the fate of being hung in North Glacier Town as a clay statue of Buddha, and disappear under the eyes of all countries with a justified 'fake death'.

When his strength increased by a few realms and was enough to settle everything, he would return to Northern Ice River Town and use his adult body to wield this sharp blade that could tear everything apart.

This plan was very perfect. It was natural to follow the light and dark lines.

Even though there was an accident at the critical stage. However, in Li Yueming's opinion, the overall impact was not big. Even if he really could not continue to cultivate the treasure of the human body, he could still sweep the world with just Qi cultivation.

With his situation at that time, being able to keep his life was already enough to burn incense.

The only thing that worried him was that there was a problem with his lifespan. He didn't know if he could still hold on until the end of his life and finish everything he wanted to do.

Facing the wind and snow, Li Yueming left footprints on the snow.

When he was running for his life, he did not pay attention to the area he was in.

By now, he estimated that he had probably fled to the northwest of the Hundred Thousand Mountains in a panic. It could be considered the core area of the entire Hundred Thousand Mountains.

Under normal circumstances, this place should be a paradise for spirit beasts. Humans should not exist here.

However, he saw two human tribes fighting in the wind and snow.

The two tribes had about one to two thousand people.

Their bodies were full of strong muscles, and they wore clothes sewn from beast leather. They held the bones of various predators in their hands as weapons.

In the beginning, apart from being surprised by the existence of humans here, Li Yueming did not feel anything unusual. After all, no one had stipulated that there could not be barbarians in the depths of the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

However, as the distance got closer and closer, Li Yueming felt more and more frightened.

There was nothing else, because he noticed that the fighting between the savages of these two tribes was so loud that it was frightening.

If he was not careful, the mountain rocks would explode. This was considered a small movement. He even saw a 'savage' waving a big stick and directly smashing a mountain peak with his physical strength!

After sensing carefully, Li Yueming realized that the other party was at least a True Form Realm cultivator. The power in their bodies was very strange. What they waved was not only pure spiritual energy, but also some pure physical strength.

The strongest among them was actually comparable to a Qi Refiner at the peak of the Void Refinement Realm!

Such a human tribe of 2,000 people could easily destroy an army of 100,000 people in the civilized world where the Six Nations were located!

This made Li Yue Ming immediately alert.

Only then did he remember that he was now in the Hundred Thousand Mountains, which was marked as a forbidden area by the civilized world. It was entirely possible for him to encounter something beyond his understanding.

To be safe, Li Yueming did not approach them rashly.

After all, his current physical condition was not particularly good. It was best not to make a move if he could.

After the two tribes fought with each other for a while.

One of the men holding the tiger bone club smashed into the chest of the other barbarian leader holding the serrated blade, causing the barbarian leader to spit out blood and fly back.

Seeing this, the barbarians under the leader of the barbarians were all stunned. They hurriedly rushed up and surrounded the leader. After carrying him down, they immediately dispersed and disappeared into the forest.

The remaining barbarian with the tiger bone club didn't let his clansmen chase after him. Instead, he sat on the ground and panted heavily. It was obvious that he had consumed a lot of energy.

The rest of the tribe members surrounded the barbarian tribe leader with the big bone stick.

At this moment, they noticed Li Yueming, who was standing not far away with a shocked expression.

All of a sudden, all the savages were on high alert. A few of them surrounded the clan leader, while the other hundreds of people rushed in Li Yueming's direction.

Li Yueming hesitated for a moment, but he still chose to use his spiritual energy to lift himself up and float in the air. He also released all of his Spatial Tempering Stage strength.

Even though his current condition was not very good, he still had the aura of a Spatial Tempering Stage cultivator, which was enough to intimidate a group of savages.

The savages were shocked.

Clearly, he did not expect such an inconspicuous fellow to be so powerful, and his expression became even more vigilant.

Seeing this, Li Yueming waved his hand, indicating that he did not bring any weapons.

This was something he learned from Qi Fan and the others. After all, there were many times when there was a language barrier between beasts and humans.

At this moment, he wanted to communicate with the other party without conflict.

Body language was very important.

Showing that he did not carry any weapons was undoubtedly a very effective way of showing goodwill.

After the savages saw his action, although they still had no intention of approaching him, they finally did not have the strong sense of invasion that they had previously.

After all, although they did not know each other, as long as they could communicate briefly and confirm that Li Yueming would not take the initiative to attack, the two sides would not directly fight each other.

However, the savages were still very wary of him and did not reveal any intention of further conversation.

Li Yueming slowly landed on the ground and looked at the group of savages not far away.

Although they were called savages, they did not have any extra hair on their bodies. Other than the beast fur and bone equipment they wore, they were not much different from the humans of the Six Nations.

He was very curious about how this group of people appeared in such a place.

Was there some unknown secret hidden on them?

After all, he had seen a similar plot on the reincarnators 'forum. If nothing unexpected happened, the reincarnators would most likely be able to dig out something from these hidden characters.

Chapter 558: Descendant of Great Gan, Su Xuan!_1

Therefore, when Li Yueming saw these savages, his first thought was to get closer to them.

After all, he would definitely not be able to return to the civilized world in a short period of time.

If he could dig out some of the secrets of the Hundred Thousand Mountains, it seemed like a good thing.

But now, these savages had just experienced a battle.

The killing intent and alertness were too serious. If they approached rashly, they would probably be treated as intruders. This was something Li Yueming did not want to see.

After hesitating for a moment, Li Yueming decided to wait and see.

If there was really no chance, then he would think of a way to get in touch with her next time.

However, at this moment, the Beast Bone Old Man, who was sitting cross-legged on the ground not far away, took the initiative to stand up.

Of course, he also saw Li Yueming who was not far away.

At this moment, he actually opened his mouth and said in an extremely ancient tone, "Who are you?"

He heard the Savage not far away open his mouth and speak.

Li Yueming was stunned for a moment before he immediately smiled and replied, have no ill intentions. I just accidentally entered this area!" The man carrying the huge beast bone was also stunned.

He probably didn't expect Li Yueming to be able to reply to him. He looked a little excited and said, "You... You, you, you are a guest from the world outside the mountain

His sentences were very unfluent, and his pronunciation was also very vague. In addition, it was an ancient language.

Therefore, Li Yueming had to listen a few times to understand the meaning behind his words. After hesitating for a moment, he nodded and said, "Yes, I came from outside the mountains!"

The beast bone man was excited when he heard that. He threw the beast bone in his hand to the side and jumped towards Li Yueming.

Li Yueming had a complicated expression on his face. If the beast-bone man hadn't thrown away the white bone stick, he would have thought that the other party was coming for him and was prepared to fight and retreat for a while.

Seeing their tribe leader so happy that he even threw away the bone club that he had never left his hand, the other barbarians could not help but look at each other in confusion.

After rushing up to Li Yueming, the beast-bone man was very familiar with him. He grabbed Li Yueming's hand and said with a smile, "Honored guest, what year is it in the outside world? Is Great Gan still around?"

Hearing the beast-bone man's question.

Li Yueming was shocked.

Good heavens, the Great Qian Empire had already been divided by the Great Zhou Empire and the other six countries over 5,000 years ago.

Which era did these savages live in?

After thinking for a while, he didn't answer the man's sensitive question. Instead, he asked, "Are you all citizens of Da Qian? From the accent, it seemed to be similar to Da Qian!"

According to Li Yueming's records in the Li family's library.

Da Qian was an ancient country that had existed before the Human Sovereign Tiandu Clan had conquered the world.

According to some unofficial historical records and unverified folk legends, there was once an extremely prosperous civilization in the Great Qian Dynasty in the ancient times.

In ancient times, the Hundred Thousand Mountains was not a forbidden land for humans. The Renhuang of the other six dynasties, including the Tiandu Clan, had not yet appeared. The entire land was ruled by the Great Qian Dynasty.

However, this extremely prosperous country seemed to have suffered a devastating blow during a dark period. Even when the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan unified the world, there was no evidence of the existence of the ancient Great Qian Dynasty.

Later generations could only learn from the words of some ancient books.

Only then would he be able to occasionally catch a glimpse of some legends about Da Qian that he did not know if they were true or false.

Many people would associate this Great Qian Dynasty with the Great Qian Dynasty that was enfeoffed after the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan established the country. However, in the era of the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan, the Great Qian Dynasty was already in decline and was just a dynasty that was not very powerful.

As for whether there was any connection between the two parties and whether the Great Qian Dynasty really existed, it was difficult for future generations to find out. Perhaps only the Human Emperor of the Tiandu Clan and a few other missions could glimpse some truth in the history that was as heavy as the sea.

This was also the reason why Li Yueming was so cautious.

He was unable to determine whether these people were tribes that had existed since the ancient Great Qian Dynasty or people of the Great Qian Dynasty who had fled to the Hundred Thousand Mountains to seek refuge due to some irresistible factors.

Of course, all kinds of thoughts and ideas kept flashing in his mind, but the expression on his face did not change at all.

With his strong mental fortitude, he was not afraid even when facing a group of shrewd, experienced, and experienced old foxes in the civilized world. He could even make the other party unable to figure out his true intentions.

Facing a group of savages who had never experienced any infighting and didn't know how to hide their emotions, it was naturally a dimensional attack.

How could the beast-bone man and the others see through the hidden meaning in Li Yueming's words?

As expected, the beast skeleton man did not suspect anything after a moment of thought. He said directly, "That's right, that's right. I'm from the Great Gan Empire...I...My ancestor was a close relative of the Great Qian Imperial Family!" "1... 1...wu wu!

The beast skeleton man couldn't speak clearly, and the language he spoke didn't match Li Yueming's words.

Therefore, Li Yueming had to be on full alert when listening to him.

Especially when he stuttered and didn't know how to continue, he even had to rely on Li Yueming to rack his brains to fill in the blanks..

Chapter 559: Descendant of Great Gan, Su Xuan!_2

As he spoke, the beast-bone man seemed to become a little anxious.

Her face was as red as a pig's liver.

It was like meeting a foreigner outside and realizing that he was not proficient in a foreign language.

At this moment, the savages who didn't understand the situation before also gathered around. They were vigilant and curious as they sized up Li Yueming.

The beast-bone man scanned the crowd and suddenly his eyes lit up. He rushed into the crowd and pulled out a girl who was around 17 or 18 years old. After pointing at Li Yueming, the two of them started talking in a very obscure language.

A moment later, the two of them seemed to have come to a conclusion.

The Beast Bone Old Man pulled the seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl and gestured to Li Yueming.

Li Yueming understood. The old man must have found a royal translator.

The girl had a beautiful face and was wearing a very well-made animal skin shirt. There were a few sparkling gems hanging on her wrists and chest, and her skin was different from the others.

Amongst this group of extremely crude savages, who ate blood and flesh.

Her existence seemed out of place.

She secretly glanced at Li Yue Ming and saw that Li Yue Ming was also sizing her up. She couldn't help but blush.

She lowered her head slightly and bowed to Li Yueming awkwardly. She said, "Honorable guest from outside the mountain, my name is Su Xuan. This is my father and my clansmen. We have no ill intentions towards you!" The girl spoke very clearly.

Although there were also some sentences that sounded a little strange.

However, it didn't affect Li Yueming's understanding of what she meant.

Li Yueming knew that the royal translator was online, and he couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief. He smiled and said, "Hello, I didn't expect to meet the fire seed of a civilized world in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. Your beauty is as dazzling as the starry sky and the moon!"

Hearing this, the girl named Su Xuan looked even more embarrassed.

To Li Yueming, it was just a casual compliment, which was similar to eating, but to her, the meaning was obviously different.

Forcefully calming herself down, Suxuan continued, "Our ancestors came from the royal family of the Great Qian Dynasty. Thousands of years ago, because our fiefs were plundered by other countries and the nomads outside the Great Wall, the entire Great Qian Dynasty was in danger!"

"In order to make a living for the future generations, the ancestor had no choice but to lead his clansmen from the snowy mountains into the Hundred Thousand Mountains."

'I was only planning to avoid the temporary chaos, but I didn't expect that it would be difficult to get out of the Hundred Thousand Mountains. Our ancestor was caught in a snowstorm after entering the snow mountain. In his panic, he could only try to escape from the center of the storm. Later on, he found that he couldn't find a way back, so he could only find a suitable environment to live in. Thousands of years have passed in a flash. Can you tell us about the situation in the Great Qian Dynasty?

The girl was obviously very sensitive to words. She said these words slowly, word by word, without any mistakes.

Li Yue Ming understood the origins of this group of people.

So it wasn't from the ancient Great Gan that might or might not have existed.

It was the descendant of the Great Gan, one of the Nine Nations.

What a coincidence.

The two places in the northwest where Li Yueming had taken root were once the territory of the Great Qian Dynasty, and the Western Garrison Army was one of the few descendants that had survived since the destruction of the Great Qian Dynasty.

Now, they actually ran into their descendants in the Hundred Thousand Mountains.

He didn't know if it was a coincidence or fate.

After pondering for a moment, Li Yueming said truthfully, "I won't hide it from you. Not long after Da Qian was attacked, it was divided up by the Great Zhou, Great Qin, and other countries. Other than a large number of people, almost all of the managers of the country were wiped out..."

Hearing this, the girl widened her eyes.

Obviously, they were unwilling to accept this result.

He finally calmed down and told the other clansmen what Li Yueming had said.

Unexpectedly, other than the girl herself, the other clansmen did not show much expression after hearing the news.

Obviously, they were curious about what would happen to Da Qian.

However, he wasn't too surprised when he found out.

The main reason was that it had been too long.

Five thousand years was almost a hundred generations for mortals.

Even if he had a strong relationship and blood ties with Da Qian back then.

By now, it had long disappeared.

The reason why they were so concerned was because...

Other than being curious about the outside world, he just wanted to completely resolve a knot in his heart.

Therefore, the descendants of the Great Qian Dynasty, who were about to degenerate into savages, were silent for a while after hearing the news.

No one mentioned this matter again.

The beast-bone man warmly invited Li Yueming to be a guest in their village. After a few polite words, Li Yueming did not continue to decline. After all, he had spent so much effort not just to be a good person.

His original intention was to interact with this group of existences that were separated from the civilized world.

The group of people packed up and helped the injured clansmen back to a snowy valley.

The stockade was huge, with hundreds of houses. The entire valley was the territory of these descendants of the Great Qian Imperial Family.

After entering the village, the group of women heard the commotion and came out. When they saw that their husbands were safe and sound, their faces revealed a happy expression. They came forward to help them remove the bone armor on their bodies and take away the heavy weapons in their hands..

Chapter 560: Descendant of Great Gan, Su Xuan!

The beast skeleton man was very enthusiastic.

After entering the village, he loudly talked to the women and children who stayed behind.

He was probably introducing Li Yueming's identity and background.

Very soon, Li Yueming enjoyed the treatment of an alien. Many women and children looked at him with apprehension and curiosity.

After the introduction.

The village began to hold a welcoming ceremony.

Li Yueming could feel a frank emotion from them.

Therefore, Li Yueming let down his guard and chatted with them for a while.

There was nothing he could do about it. After all, the city had many tricks up its sleeve.

Only in this kind of place where civilization was not comprehensive could humans maintain the truth, goodness, and beauty.

After the wine and food were served, Li Yueming asked, "I saw you guys fighting with another group of people earlier. What was the reason?"

The beast-bone man raised a simple tool and took a sip of fruit wine. He wiped his mouth and replied, "They're a branch of our Su Clan that was split off a long time ago. After so many years of development, they've gradually grown stronger. Now, they want to snatch the earth vein spring that our ancestor left behind for us."

Earth vein spring?

Li Yueming looked confused.

This term was still unfamiliar to him.

However, although the beast skeleton man was very honest in other aspects, he clearly valued the Earth Vein Spring. Therefore, he did not explain to Li Yueming and only insisted that Li Yueming drink.

Li Yueming took a few sips of wine, but his thoughts did not stop.

As a reincarnator, he was actually not interested in ordinary natural treasures.

Even if there were any top-grade treasures, if they could not be brought out of the reincarnation world, they would be empty. A top-grade treasure that could be brought out of the reincarnation world was definitely not something that a descendant of the Great Qian Dynasty could protect.

The only thing he was interested in was to discover all kinds of hidden missions that might exist.

From the looks of it, he did not receive any missions here.

However, Li Yueming could vaguely sense something unusual. The reason why he could not find the problem was probably because he did not gain the other party's trust.

However, it was not easy to gain trust, especially from strangers.

After eating and drinking to his heart's content.

The beast-bone man burped and whispered to his daughter Su Xuan. After Su Xuan understood what he meant, she immediately said gently, "Honorable guest, my father said that you seem to have suffered a little injury. If you don't mind, you can stay here for a period of time to recuperate."

Li Yueming nodded." If that's the case, then I'll respectfully accept your request. Thank you for your kindness. If you need my help, you can also ask me for help! ""

Now that he had plenty of time, it would not be a problem to delay for ten days to half a month. Even if he didn't gain anything in this place, he could return to the extremely cold snow mountain after a while. He wouldn't lose anything.

Su Xuan was obviously secretly happy when she heard this.

No matter how hard he tried to hide the smile on his face, he was too weak and could not avoid being discovered by everyone present.

The beast-bone man laughed loudly.

He patted Li Yueming's shoulder and winked,""My daughter has liked to read the books left behind by the ancestors of the clan since she was young, so she is especially curious about the outside world."
