Chapter 721: Who in the world can stop me?_2

However, once the Great Gan was destroyed...

It was already quite impressive that the pioneers who had lost their backbone in another world could still hold on for so long.

The current situation was very bad.

It was almost being uprooted by the natives of this world.

After walking around and making sure that the person he was looking for still had some descendants in this world, Li Yueming heaved a sigh of relief.

He wanted to go back empty-handed.

However, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to report to the world consciousness of Nine Regions.

The complete version of the Book of Changes was something he had to get, so there was no reason for him to miss it.

Therefore, Li Yueming did not delay at all.

In a flash, he appeared in the city where the descendants of the ancient Great Qian Dynasty lived.

He lightly swept his gaze across the Deity Returning Treasure.

Instantly, the entire town was exposed to his spiritual will.

This method was much more powerful than the Heart Saint of this world, and it did not affect his cultivation of the mental tempering method.

After confirming the location, Li Ming moved again.

This time, he appeared directly in the residence where the cultivators were hiding.

His silent appearance frightened the people in the mansion.

Countless people rushed over and looked at Li Yueming, who had suddenly appeared, as if they were facing a great enemy.

Li Yueming looked around and realized that he was in a prison.

Li Yueming was a little surprised.

He stood in the middle of the prison without moving, waiting for the guards to gather. Then, he looked at the youth hiding at the back of the crowd and said, "Are you a cultivator?"

When they heard the word 'Cultivator', all the guards in the prison were stunned.

It wasn't that they didn't have any concept of these three words, but because they had too much of a concept of this title.

It was even to the point of being extremely sensitive.

Now, Li Yueming actually dared to call him that in front of everyone.

Be it their courage or their background, they had already exceeded the understanding of the guards.

He ignored the strange gazes around him.

Li Yueming's aura locked onto the young man and asked again, "Are you a cultivator?"

He could feel the strange aura coming from Li Yueming's body.

The guards subconsciously made way for Li Yueming.

The young man hiding behind the crowd suddenly appeared in front of Li Yueming.

The young man's expression was very ugly. After a long while, he gritted his teeth and said, "What are you talking about?" I don't understand!"

Li Yueming wasn't surprised by this answer. The word 'Practitioner' was a taboo in the entire Returning Heart Mainland. The fear of the Heart spirit readers towards this title was like the fear of an angel towards a demon.

Therefore, it was normal for the youth to deny it. If he dared to admit it in public, he would be tired of living.

Li Yueming waved his hand and said, "I'm from the Great Gan Lord Dynasty. I'm here to escort you back to Nine Regions!"

In the beginning, the young man's face was filled with nervousness. He was obviously very worried that his identity as a cultivator would be discovered or exposed by others.

However, when he heard this, he could not help but widen his eyes.

Great Gan Dynasty, Nine Regions...

This was a title that was both familiar and unfamiliar to any descendant of cultivators in the Heart Returning Mainland!

The young man was so excited that his eyes widened. His entire body trembled as he said, "You, you, you...Are you really from that side?"

Li Yueming nodded.

Hearing this, the expression on the young man's face changed several times. At first, he was extremely excited, then he was in a mess, sometimes disappointed, and sometimes excited. However, after looking around, he finally lowered his head and said, "I... I don't know what you're talking about. This is the prison of the City of Heart. Anyone who has anything to do with heretics will be thrown into the 18 levels of hell!"

He looked around.

Li Yueming thought for a moment and understood what he meant.

At this moment, the group of Heavenly Prison guards also reacted.

Someone stood up and started to speak.

"Who are you?"

“Breaking into the imperial prison is a capital offense!”

“Practitioner, are you a heretic?”

“Capture him quickly, and don’t forget that young man. They must be here to rescue the heretics who are locked underground!”

“Quickly go to the palace and report to the Holy King. Tell the Psyche Masters to come to the imperial prison to capture the heretics!”

For a moment.

The entire imperial prison was in chaos.

The prison of the City of Heart was the most heavily guarded place in the Returning Heart Mainland, and it held the most prisoners.

It was the first time in so many years that such a big thing had happened.

Li Yueming was surrounded by more and more people.

The young man not far away could not help but feel a little anxious. He said, “My mother and sister, as well as the elders, have been captured and locked in the dungeon. If you don’t want to be like them, run away quickly!”

As he spoke, he looked at the soldiers surrounding him.

The young man threw caution to the wind. He roared, “If you have any problems, come at me. I am the last cultivator wandering outside. Capture me and execute me. This world will be at peace!”

Hearing this.

Instantly.

The entire cell fell into a moment of silence.

After a long time, the group of guards actually gave up on surrounding Li Yueming. All of them were ready to pounce on the youth.

The young man’s expression was determined, but his eyes kept signaling Li Yueming to escape.

However, Li Yueming acted as if he didn’t see it.

He closed his eyes and used his spiritual will to scan the prison.

In the beginning, his spiritual will only covered the entire City of Heart.

As such, they only found the young cultivator.

However, after hearing the young man’s words, Li Yueming’s divine sense went deep into the underground of the prison. Only then did he realize that there were dozens of cultivators locked up underground.

This was a pleasant surprise.

Although there were still not many people.

However, to be able to bring back so many descendants of the ancient Great Gan cultivators meant that he had given the world's will an explanation.

Li Yueming waved his hand.

A gust of wind blew past.

All the guards surrounding the young man were powerless against this gust of wind.

He was instantly swept up by the strong wind.

"Plop, plop, plop." They fell all over the place.

This was the result of Li Yueming not wanting to kill anyone and releasing them into the sea.

If they were to be slightly more serious, these Heaven Prison Guards with mortal bodies would not be able to die even if they had ten lives.

After waving his sleeves and blowing away all the guards, Li Yueming walked to the young man and said,""With me here, you don't have to worry!"

The young man was stunned.

Looking at Li Yueming's expressionless face, he said in disbelief,""You...Are you a cultivator of the Great Cdry Dynasty in the Nine Regions?"

Li Yueming didn't hide anything. He shook his head and said,""I'm not a cultivator, and the Great Gan Lord Dynasty has long passed away. I came here to find you to bring you back to rebuild the glory of the Great Gan Lord Dynasty!"

Li Yueming didn't know what was considered an orthodox cultivator.

However, he felt an inexplicable familiarity from this youth.

It was as if he was looking at his own descendants.

If his guess was correct, the young man should also be cultivating the Book of Changes, and it was very likely that it was the complete Book of Changes. The reason why Li Yueming felt close to him was that he had also studied the incomplete book of the Book of Changes and obtained a lot of benefits from it.

In that case, he seemed to have received many benefits from the ancient Great Gan. Whether it was for public or private reasons, he had to find a root for him to continue his legacy.

The young man couldn't understand the meaning behind Li Yueming's answer.

After all, there was too much information.

However, he could still feel Li Yueming's attitude as if no one was around.

Although he didn't know how powerful Li Yueming was, the fact that he was able to sneak into this place meant that the mysterious person in front of him was definitely not simple.

After coming to his senses, the young man did not hesitate and immediately knelt down." All of my family members have been captured by Sacred King Tianxin. I was lucky enough to escape this calamity while traveling outside. After hiding from place to place and changing my identity, I finally managed to sneak into the Heavenly Prison and become a guard. My initial intention was to see if I could find a chance to save my family members...”

“Senior, please lend me a hand!”

Li Yueming waved his hand and said, “Let’s go. Where are your relatives? I’ll save them and bring them back!””

The young man got up happily, but when he thought of the power that the City of Heart represented in this world, he revealed a worried expression and said, “However, Senior, this eighteenth level of purgatory is not so easy to pass through. It is very likely that there are wolves in front and tigers behind. It is a mountain of blades and a sea of blood!”

Li Yueming smiled and said seriously, “”Actually, I’d like to see who in this world can stop me!”

Chapter 722: Origin Spiritual Power, Perfect Merit!_1

He looked at Li Yueming’s interested expression.

It was as if he did not care about the danger that he was about to face.

The worry on the young man’s face finally calmed down a little. He bowed respectfully again and said, “Senior, my name is Zhao Hechuan. May I ask how I should address you?”

Anyway, the current situation was already very bad. No matter how bad it was, it didn’t seem to be much worse.

The worst outcome would be death.

Li Yueming glanced at him and replied casually, “”My name is not important. You just need to lead the way.”

He could only hope that this mysterious senior who claimed to be from Nine Regions really had enough strength to quell the various troubles that he might face next.

Li Yueming replied calmly.

Zhao Hechuan no longer hesitated. He gritted his teeth and led the way.

As the two of them walked into the imperial prison, Zhao Hechuan informed them, “”Senior, I came to this prison last year as a servant. My understanding of the imperial prison is only limited to the first three levels. As for the deeper levels below the third level, I have never come into contact with them.”

Li Yueming smiled. He didn’t expect that no one dared to say a few words in front of him for so many years in Nine Regions. Now, he was told to be careful by a junior in such a small world outside Nine Regions.

However, Zhao Hechuan had good intentions, so he didn’t care about these details. He nodded to indicate that he already knew.

As the two of them were talking, they had arrived at the entrance to the first underground floor of the City of Heart’s prison.

Zhao Hechuan walked in front and was about to push open the door to the underground when he heard the sound of a blade being unsheathed.

“Swoosh!”

With a crisp sound, the wooden door under the imperial prison suddenly shattered.

A shiny scimitar pierced through the hole and stabbed toward Zhao Hechuan. Following the scimitar was a furious voice, “Who dares to barge into the imperial prison?”

Although that person was still in the middle of his cultivation, in just an instant, the flying scimitar was already close at hand.

Seeing that he was about to lose his life, Zhao Hechuan couldn't help but widen his eyes in shock.

Although they hadn't exchanged blows yet, from the speed and power that erupted from the scimitar's control, the heart spirit reader guarding the gate had definitely surpassed the realm of mental certainty!

Such an existence would definitely be the core ruling class even in the central towns of various places. However, he was only the guardian of the first level in the Heavenly Prison of the City of Heart.

Zhao Hechuan's heart was filled with despair when he thought of this.

One had to know that his relatives and family were being escorted to the eighteenth floor!

In other words, if he really wanted to go down and rescue them, he would have to face at least eighteen Heart Spirit Telekinesis Masters who were no weaker than this Heart Spirit Telekinesis Master in front of him...

In his mind, this was something that was harder than ascending to the heavens.

After all, if a cultivator wanted to become stronger, they would have to put in 10 to 100 times more effort than a heart spirit reader.

If he wanted to reach the other party's realm, he would have to spend at least a hundred years of bitter cultivation.

The scimitars that flew out of the air were getting closer and closer.

The saber light was about to touch Zhao Hechuan's neck.

Li Yueming finally moved.

There was a clang, and the ear-piercing sound of metal vibrating could be heard.

Li Yueming curled his finger slightly and flicked the originally imposing scimitar to the ground. Even the scimitar itself was constantly trembling, like a creature wailing on the verge of death.

After the dust and smoke dispersed.

The guards on the first underground floor of the City of Heart's prison walked out from the direction of the broken door.

The man's dark eyes glanced at the trembling scimitar on the ground, then at Zhao Hechuan and Li Yueming. He said in an unfriendly tone, "I was wrong. No wonder he dared to bring a heretic cultivator to the imperial prison alone!"

As he spoke, he waved his hand lightly.

The scimitar that had fallen to the ground flew back. The guard gripped the scimitar again and said with a cold tone, "However, the Heavenly Prison is the most heavily guarded place in the City of Heart. Isn't it a little too big?"

When Li Yueming heard this, he glanced at the guard in front of him, who was wrapped in armor. He replied coldly and concisely, "Noisy!"

The imperial prison guards seemed to have heard the funniest joke in the world.

However, before his smile could appear on his face, it had already frozen in his heart.

Li Yueming glanced at him coldly. It was as if he was being stared at by a terrifying monster, so much so that his entire body froze on the spot. It was not easy for him to even move a finger.

"Crack!"

In the next second.

Even his proud heart spiritual force didn't have time to react when he saw his vision suddenly turn black, and he immediately lost his consciousness.

He looked at the Heavenly Prison Guard who had turned into a puddle of mud and blood.

Zhao Hechuan's face was filled with fear.

He turned back to look at Li Yueming, who was still expressionless, and then turned his head to look at the bloodstained gate of the imperial prison not far away. If he had not witnessed it with his own eyes, he would not have imagined that such a terrifying killing method could exist in this world.

Chapter 723: Origin Spiritual Power, Perfect Merit!_2

Zhao Hechuan couldn't help but shiver. He lowered his head and said, "Before... Senior, this is your... Your methods?"

Li Yueming neither admitted nor denied it, he just said lightly, "Lead the way!"

She heard his voice.

Zhao Hechuan seemed to have woken up from a dream. He wiped the cold sweat that had appeared on his face and continued to lead the way.

However, what he did not know was...

What happened just now was not the end of the nightmare, but the beginning!

In the following journey, every time the two of them broke into a dungeon, there would be guards who were alarmed. However, the fate of these guards in front of Li Yueming was surprisingly the same.

That was to be dead!

He didn't see Li Yueming move at all.

However, no matter which prison guard it was, they would always die without any suspense when facing him.

Zhao Hechuan had thought that the journey would be filled with danger, but it was so smooth that he started to doubt his life.

Until the last level.

Zhao Hechuan finally felt an extremely terrifying mental wave.

Zhao Hechuan, who was still muddleheaded, suddenly woke up from a dream.

Looking at the door of the last level of the imperial prison, he took a few steps back before saying, "Before...Senior, this first floor is guarded by a number of untouchables...It seems to be a Heart Saint!"

Even though he already knew that the Heavenly Prison of the City of Heart was the most heavily guarded place in the world, he was still in a daze.

However, Zhao Hechuan didn't expect that there would be a Heart Saint guarding the underground.

One must know that the Heart Saint was the strongest Heart Spirit reader in the Returning Heart Mainland. There were definitely no more than two hands of them in the entire world.

Now, there was one hidden in this dark underground.

Back then, this prison was built to hunt down the remaining cultivators in this world. One could imagine how much fear the Heart spirit readers of this world had towards cultivators.

Hearing Zhao Hechuan's reminder.

Li Yueming didn't have any reaction. He just waved his hand to signal him to open the door.

After all, as early as when they were on the ground, Li Yueming had already investigated the entire prison through the divine sense given by the Ascension Treasure.

Therefore, he already knew what was going on underground.

Now that the so-called Heart Saint King was behind him, he was just an ant ant that was bigger than an ant.

He received his order.

Zhao Hechuan's heart was pounding.

However, he still endured his fear and walked to the front of the 18 levels of purgatory.

Just as he was about to push the door open.

The door to Inferno Hell suddenly opened on its own.

Zhao Hechuan was shocked. He looked over and saw a beautiful woman standing in the prison.

The beautiful woman looked at Li Yueming and then at Zhao Hechuan.

His eyes were filled with complicated emotions.

After a long while, he sighed and said, "Although you are a guest from the Nine Regions, your aura is somewhat different from the Nine Regions I am familiar with. I wonder if you can give me the honor of chatting with you?"

Li Yueming narrowed his eyes and looked at the woman in front of him.

Although the appearance told him that there was nothing special about this woman in front of him.

However, his intuition told him that the woman in front of him had a powerful background.

He paused.

Li Yueming thought for a while before nodding, "Of course!"

The woman heaved a sigh of relief and turned to Zhao Hechuan. "Descendant of cultivators, please leave us alone!"

As he spoke.

Her beautiful eyes flickered, and in an instant, Zhao Hechuan fainted in the prison.

Li Yueming did not stop him.

He wanted to see what the other party was up to.

The woman slowly took a few steps back and made a 'please' gesture before returning to the eighteenth level of purgatory.

Li Yueming didn't avoid it at all. He waved his sleeves and followed in.

The so-called eighteen levels of purgatory were no different from the previous seventeen levels.

It was just that there was a relatively large bedroom.

Under the woman's lead, the two of them sat down on both sides of the coffee table.

After the woman brewed a pot of tea for Li Yueming, she said, "I heard that this is the popular way of receiving guests in the country called the ancient Great Qian Dynasty in Nine Regions, so I learned it. If there is any lack of hospitality, please forgive me!"

Li Yueming waved his hand and smiled, but he did not drink the tea. He just said lightly, "If you have something to say, just say it. I don't plan to stay in this world for long!"

After a moment of contact.

At this moment, Li Yueming was certain.

The woman before him should be the world consciousness of the Returning Heart Great Land.

She must have woken up to look for him after sensing his presence in this world.

However, this world consciousness was much weaker than the illusionary world consciousness in Nine Regions.

Therefore, even if she appeared in her true form, Li Yueming was not afraid.

Instead, he felt a little dazed.

Once upon a time, reincarnators like him saw the world's consciousness like a cat seeing a mouse.

But now, he was able to converse with the weaker World Consciousness on equal footing.

In fact, the other party might even be more afraid of him. Otherwise, he would not have rushed over immediately after discovering that he had arrived in this world.

Seeing that he was not in the mood to drink tea, the woman did not continue to be polite and said solemnly, "What is your purpose for coming here? There has been no news from the Nine Regions and the Great Gan Lord Dynasty for so many years. Why did they suddenly come to my world?"

Li Yueming pondered.

He immediately understood why 'he' had come to ask him.

Chapter 724: Origin Spiritual Power, Perfect Merit!_3

Although the Heart Returning Mainland was only a drop in the ocean compared to the Nine Regions, it was still a small world.

However, it was still an independent world.

When his strength was far inferior to Nine Regions, it was naturally impossible for him to have any relationship with Nine Regions.

He didn't want to be annexed by Nine Regions and become a part of Nine Regions.

As a result, when it sensed his appearance, the world's consciousness immediately woke up.

After pondering for a moment, Li Yueming said, "I'm only here to bring back a few cultivators who were left behind here. As for the Great Gan Lord Dynasty and the Nine Regions... I do know, but why should I tell you?"

The world's consciousness would exist for millions or tens of millions of years.

That was a dog of a dog.

Although the consciousness of this world looked a little weak, other than having a bigger chest, it was probably poorer in other aspects.

However, as a reincarnator, it was not easy to get such an opportunity to extort money. Li Yueming naturally would not let it go easily.

The world consciousness took out some treasures.

To him, it might be a good thing.

Seeing Li Yueming's calm attitude, the woman in the world consciousness frowned and pondered for a while before saying, "I can promise you to release this group of cultivators in exchange for your sincerity. How about it?"

Hearing this, Li Yue Ming's eyebrows suddenly furrowed.

"Oh? This is your condition?"

"I came here to take away the person I want to take away. Do you think you can stop me?"

Before he could finish his sentence.

Li Yueming's aura that transcended this world was revealed without any concealment. It was like a sharp long knife cutting through the silent air. The temperature of the entire 18 levels of the imperial prison became a little colder.

He looked coldly at the woman in front of him and said, "If that's the case, then we can give it a try now!"

Sensing the terrifying aura erupting from his body, the woman's expression changed drastically. After a few changes in her expression, she said, "Esteemed guest, please calm down. I didn't come here specially to be your enemy!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming sat down again and knocked on the table. "Then let's see how much sincerity you can show!"

For Li Yueming, coming to the small world to find someone was a very cost-effective deal.

If he could earn more in the process and achieve a win-win situation, he naturally would not refuse.

After all, in business, one had to earn the difference between the two.

The woman sat back down on her chair, but her expression was much uglier than before.

She sipped her tea and muttered to herself for a while before saying, "I wonder what you want, honored guest. As long as it doesn't touch my bottom line, I can bear the pain and part with it!"

Li Yueming also thought about it and finally said, "In that case, I want a ball of pure spiritual origin. Can you give it to me?"

If there was any obvious shortcoming of Li Yueming, it was obvious that he was not as strong as Li Yueming.

Then, he could only equip himself with spiritual power.

As a warrior who yearned for the hexagons, Li Yueming didn't have the habit of leaving any weaknesses or weaknesses for himself.

The other things in this world were not important.

Just this so-called 'mental power of the heart' was quite interesting.

If he could obtain a pure enough spiritual source, it would save Li Yueming a long period of bitter cultivation.

After hearing Li Yueming's request.

The woman pondered for a moment before replying, "I do have Mental Energy essence. However, even at my level, this essence that can be directly sent in is a priceless treasure... However, since the honored guest is interested in this, and I happen to have it in my collection, there's no harm in giving it to me!"

She was very happy.

She waved her hand in the air, and suddenly, a hazy halo appeared in front of Li Yueming.

Feeling the extremely mysterious spiritual energy, Li Yueming did not stand on ceremony. He took it on the spot and put it into his sleeve.

With this treasure, he would return to Nine Regions to study the Book of Changes.

This public reincarnation dungeon trip could finally be considered a success.

Chapter 725: There's no need to be sad about parting!_1

After receiving the treasure from the world consciousness, Li Yueming said, "Rather than saying that you want to know about the Nine Regions and the Ancient Great Qian Dynasty, it's better to say that you want to know about the world consciousness on the Nine Regions..."

"Since you're so straightforward, I can tell you directly!"

The situation in Nine Regions was very complicated.

But to Li Yueming, they were all transparent.

He was probably the only one who could understand everything now.

Of course, he naturally wouldn't give up everything.

He only chose to answer a few questions that the world consciousness of the Returning Heart Mainland was concerned about.

After listening to Li Yueming's explanation, the woman possessed by the world consciousness of the Returning Heart Mainland had a complicated expression on her face. After a moment of silence, she said, "It was actually attacked by the Zergs. No wonder I haven't heard any news for so many years!"

To a small world like it.

Being in contact with a vast macro world like Nine Regions was a mixed blessing.

There was no need to say anything good about it.

The great world could provide him with another evolution plan in addition to the evolution plan that he himself promoted.

It might even lead to the rapid development of the small world.

As for the bad side...

If the consciousness of the world or the indigenous people of the big planet were very aggressive, the weak world might become a vassal of the big planet and could only live under the sphere fence.

Therefore, it was said that Nine Regions was affected by the insect race, and the damage was serious.

To the World Will of the Returning Heart Mainland, this was undoubtedly a very good result.

After confirming that Nine Regions really wouldn't suddenly invade the world he was in.

The woman heaved a sigh of relief.

Her beautiful eyes looked at Li Yueming and waved her hand, "In that case, I won't keep you. As for the cultivators in the imperial prison... It's good that you take them away, so that I won't be in a dilemma!"

After he finished speaking.

The woman slowly walked to the tea table and sat down.

He lowered his head and fell asleep.

Li Yueming looked around and finally came to the tea cabinet in the tea room. He opened it and swept some local specialties before turning around and leaving.

When he arrived at the door, he saw Zhao Hechuan still lying there.

Li Yueming gave him a gentle blow to wake him up. "Go and bring her out!"

Zhao Hechuan was at a loss after he woke up. He looked up at the gloomy prison around him. After a while, he finally came back to his senses and remembered where he was and what had happened.

After waking up from a dream.

Zhao Hechuan hurriedly knelt on the ground, his face full of fear as he stuttered, "Before... Senior, you... Are you alright?"

One had to know that before he fainted, he had seen with his own eyes that there was a 'Heart Saint King' level expert guarding the 18 levels of hell!!!

When he first encountered the Sacred King of the Heart, his expectations had already sunk to rock bottom.

After all, the Heart Saint King was revered in the world. Even in the entire Returning Heart Mainland, there were not many people who could be an enemy of a Saint King.

In addition, they were still in the Heaven Prison, and the other party had an endless supply of reinforcements.

With so many unfavorable situations stacked together, Zhao Hechuan didn't even know how to escape in a place where there was nowhere to hide.

However, Zhao Hechuan didn't expect that when he opened his eyes again, the old senior and himself were both unharmed!

So, were all the cultivators in Nine Regions so powerful?

The moment this thought appeared in Zhao Hechuan's mind, it sprouted like a weed.

It was just like how he could not understand the peak years of his ancestors 'Qi Refiners.

He also found it hard to understand how Li Yueming could be so powerful.

He clearly looked no different from an ordinary person...

Of course, it didn't matter what he thought at the moment.

The important thing was that Li Yueming had already cleaned up all the trouble in the underground prison as he had promised at the beginning. Now, he was just waiting for him to go to the prison and release all his relatives.

Thinking of this...

Zhao Hechuan forcefully gathered the distracting thoughts in his mind and immediately set off to find the dungeon where the reincarnators were imprisoned.

Li Yueming stood at the entrance of the 18th floor of the prison, but his mind was constantly searching for the mental power that the world consciousness of the Returning Heart Great Land had given him.

After confirming that there were no clues.

He controlled his soul to test it out.

The moment he touched the spiritual power, a miracle happened.

In an instant.

Li Yueming's soul, which wasn't considered warm, emitted a moaning sound under the nourishment of his mental power.

It was as if an incomparably refreshing power had fused into his soul, and at the same time, it had nourished his limbs and bones.

If it was someone with a weak willpower, they would have already indulged in the refreshing feeling and absorbed all their mental energy to nourish their body.

However, Li Yueming was clearly not in this category.

Therefore, he only touched the ball of pure mental power for a moment. After sensing the magical power of the mental energy ball, he stopped absorbing it immediately.

He closed his eyes and pondered for a long time.

Li Yueming couldn't help but sigh at how rich the world's consciousness was.

It was just a ball of spiritual energy.

No, it didn't even need to be this big!

Chapter 726: There's no need to be sad about parting!_2

As long as he cut out a small portion of this large mass of spiritual energy, if it appeared in the main material world, it would probably be snatched by countless spiritual and telekinesis reincarnators.

Even cultivators who specialized in individual power couldn't help but feel envious.

It was not an exaggeration to say that it would cause countless people to go crazy.

But now, Li Yueming had only extorted a large sum of money.

If people knew about this, who knew how many pairs of red eyes would appear in the world?

He carefully kept this ball of extremely pure spiritual energy.

Li Yueming was not in a hurry to absorb it.

After all, he wasn't fully aware of the world's consciousness's methods. No one could guarantee that the world's consciousness of the Returning Heart Great Land hadn't tampered with this ball of energy.

The safest thing to do was to keep it safe and wait for the right time to find a place to slowly absorb it.

He refined the spiritual energy he absorbed a few more times.

He wanted it to fuse with him completely, leaving no hidden dangers behind.

He was waiting for Zhao Hechuan to save him.

The number of heart spirit readers gathering outside the eighteen levels of purgatory was increasing.

From a dozen at the beginning to hundreds later on.

From the last few hundred to the last few thousand.

At the same time, the realm of the spiritual master was getting higher and higher.

Obviously, the turmoil in the imperial prison had caused a huge commotion in the City of Heart.

All the heart spirit readers wanted to see just who had the guts to step into the heart city's prison in broad daylight to save someone!

Hence, it was under such circumstances.

Li Yueming brought his parents, sister, and friends out of the imperial prison.

The surrounding heart spirit readers who had surrounded the prison couldn't help but widen their eyes.

He looked at Li Yueming as if he had seen a ghost.

What did they see?

The man in front of him had broken into the prison of the City of Heart, but he had actually walked out with all four limbs intact?

Not only did he walk out with all four limbs intact, he even brought out the heretics from the eighteenth level of the imperial prison?

Didn't this mean that the person in front of him had fought his way from the first level of the imperial prison to the lowest level?

The terror of the imperial prison was already beyond anyone's doubt.

Back then, the heart spirit readers of the Returning Heart Mainland had created the prison of the City of Heart to imprison heretics.

After so many years, the number of heretics among the cultivators had decreased.

However, the Heaven Prison in Heart City had never lowered its defense level.

Under normal circumstances, how could anyone break into the lowest level?

But now, regardless of whether they were willing to believe it or not, the truth had long been placed in front of them.

Under such circumstances.

An even more shocking scene appeared.

Li Yue Ming took a few steps forward, and the aggressive group of heart spirit readers outside the prison took a few steps back.

For a moment, no one dared to compete with Li Yueming!

After Li Yueming walked out of the prison, he looked around and found that there were still two or three cats and puppies in his sight. He completely lost his interest in attacking.

Li Yueming ignored the ghost-like gazes around him and waved at the people behind him. "Get ready to set off. In the future, you might have the chance to return to this boring world!"

As he spoke.

Li Yueming crushed the space-time anchor power given to him by the world consciousness of Nine Regions before coming here.

According to the expectation of the world consciousness of Nine Regions.

This thing should be the foundation for all civilizations to embark on interstellar travel.

As long as you crushed it, you could temporarily see through the fog of the universe that covered everything and sense the star that belonged to you alone in the vast sea of stars.

Northern Ice River Calendar, year 43.

Amidst the cold wind and snow, Li Yueming, who had disappeared for two years, finally returned to the familiar place with the descendants of the cultivators from the Returning Heart Land.

The Northern Ice River was flowing as usual, but the Northern Ice River Town, which was built on both sides of the Northern Ice River, was wrapped in a thick layer of winter clothing.

Li Yueming's quiet appearance was not known to the outside world.

In fact, ever since he resigned from his position as the Star Moon Army's General, Li Yueming had never appeared in front of the world for so many years.

He waited silently for a while.

Meanwhile, Zhao Hechuan and the others were already shocked by the huge city in front of them. At this moment, all of them looked like country bumpkins who had never seen the world.

After a while, the world consciousness finally appeared in front of Li Yueming.

Li Yueming made way for him. "I've brought back the person you wanted. When will you let me study the Book of Changes?"

The world consciousness projection scanned the few of them with its sharp eyes for a long time before sighing, "Sigh... It seemed that the continuation of the Book of Changes was really cut off. Alas!"

Li Yueming's eyes immediately narrowed.

Previously, when the illusionary body of the world's consciousness asked him to go to the small world to look for the cultivators who had been lost outside, he had been shocked.

He had already felt puzzled.

However, because the world consciousness illusion promised him a generous reward, he did not delve into the matter.

Now that Li Yueming heard the world consciousness's sigh, he finally knew what this guy was hiding from him.

Narrowing his eyes, Li Yueming said: "The thing you mentioned is not within the scope of what I can help you find. I've gone to all three worlds, and I've found the person you're looking for. Don't blame the rest on me!"

Chapter 727: There's no need to be sad about parting!_3

Fortunately, the illusionary world consciousness did not intend to go back on its word.

After glancing at Zhao Hechuan and the others behind him, the world consciousness explained, "Of course. I have kept a copy of the entire book of the Book of Changes. The only pity is that the continuation of the book, which was used to study the Zerg race, was lost. I wonder if it was wiped clean by the Zerg race's supreme master back then..."

As he spoke.

A ripple appeared in the space in front of Li Yueming.

He reached out and a book appeared in his hand.

Seeing him take the Book of Changes, the world consciousness continued, "They also cultivate the Book of Changes, so let them become your disciples. I think that the cultivation theory you've researched is quite interesting. If it can be combined with the original path of cultivators, it might be able to give birth to an even more magnificent path!"

Regarding this, Li Yueming did not deny it.

To be honest, the path created by the reincarnators could change the world's consciousness's development towards the ideal system.

This meant that the Dao path had already been strengthened and perfected to a certain extent.

Otherwise, the World Consciousness, which had lived longer than any old monster, would never have shown such a state.

After getting the book of changes.

Li Yueming didn't continue chatting with the illusionary world consciousness.

After thinking for a while, he sent a Divine Sense to Zhao Hechuan and sent them to Northern Ice River Town.

This divine sense contained a simple message. As long as Zhao Changhe and the others entered North Glacier Town, they would attract the attention of Li Ruyue and Li Ruxing. They would naturally arrange for them, so Li Yueming did not have to worry.

After finishing all of this.

Li Yueming did not stop. He returned to the valley of the extremely cold snow mountain where the little fox lived and began to enter seclusion to comprehend the entire Book of Changes and digest the mental power he brought back from the Heart Returning Mainland.

Many years passed in the blink of an eye.

Northern Ice River Calendar, year 50.

The old man's face became fewer and fewer, replaced by a vibrant face.

Logically speaking, the originally withered world was becoming more and more prosperous.

However, whether it was Northern Ice River Town or the entire world, they could still feel a lingering sense of desolation and withering.

It was because the number of people who had experienced that starry era of chaos was decreasing.

When the Star Moon Dynasty had just destroyed the six countries, traces of reincarnators could occasionally be seen in Nine Regions.

However, as time passed, the reincarnators who were originally active on the stage of the Six Nations also quietly disappeared from sight.

It could be said that the current prosperity of Nine Regions belonged to the Star Moon Dynasty and the young people. Those who were still stuck in the era of the Six Nations could only feel endless sorrow.

An era is coming to an end, and another era is coming.

The gears of fate slowly drive by, some people full of longing, childish, some people full of dust, two temples like frost.

However, all of this seemed to have nothing to do with Li Yueming.

In the depths of the extremely cold snow mountain, Li Yueming opened his eyes and closed the Book of Changes in front of him. He silently stood up and looked to the south. He seemed to be able to see the outline of Northern Glacier Town through the mountains and rivers that were nearly ten thousand miles away.

All good things must come to an end. He had stayed in this world for far too long, and it was only a matter of time before it came to an end.

And now, he had finished absorbing the spiritual power and understood the entire Book of Changes.

There was no longer any reason for him to stay in this world.

Instead of wasting time, it was better to leave as soon as possible.

He stared at it for a long time.

Li Yueming sighed and said to himself, "I came silently and left silently. I hope that all of you will be safe and sound. I won't be bidding farewell. Goodbye!"

As he spoke, he did not hesitate anymore. He raised his arm and opened the Reincarnation Mark...

At the same time, in the distant Northern Glacier Town.

Li Ruxing, who was meditating, suddenly shed two streams of tears.

As her tears fell, her already thin figure became even thinner. After sobbing silently for a moment, she muttered, "See you in the next life, little brother!"

Li Ruyue, who was still sweeping the snow and fallen leaves in the courtyard, also stopped what she was doing.

He raised his eyes and looked towards the north, stunned.

Although Li Yueming had never said goodbye to her formally, she was still very happy.

However, when the wind blew, it blew away the fallen leaves and snow, as well as the unbreakable bond and longing between them.

This feeling didn't need words to express.

In this world, the real parting would never be by the side of the ancient road outside the pavilion.

It was often just a casual turn.

When the wind blew, some people would forever stay in yesterday.

Chapter 728: Return to the Reincarnation Space and Become Rich Overnight!_1

[Detected that the chosen one is trying to leave the public reincarnation dungeon. Please confirm whether to return to the reincarnation space?]

[Yes/No]

Without hesitation, Li Yueming closed his eyes and chose to confirm.

[This simulated reincarnation has ended. Returning to the reincarnation space!]

A bright light flashed.

The familiar sense of weightlessness suddenly came again.

Li Yueming felt that his thoughts had left his body. He crossed endless time and space and returned to a quiet place.

After an unknown amount of time.

When he came back to his senses and opened his eyes again, the endless glaciers of the extremely cold snow mountain had already disappeared.

The space that appeared in front of him became a familiar white space.

[Welcome back to the reincarnation space. The score is being calculated!]

[You have been successfully reincarnated in this time. You have been alive for 122 years. Your fate has changed greatly!]

[Base score increased from D to C. Reward: 10000 reincarnation points!]

This reward was the most basic rating reward.

Under normal circumstances, Li Yueming should have died at the age of twelve in this life.

However, Li Yueming had used various means to extend his lifespan by more than a hundred years.

Under this premise, the system's reward of reincarnation points was quite generous.

[In this reincarnation, you have changed the fate of the destined son, Wang Ziwei!]

[Mark score increased from C to B. Reward: 20000 reincarnation points!]

This rating reward was also quite normal.

If it were to develop according to the normal world line, the one chosen by the world consciousness to destroy the Great Zhou and launch the reform should be the prince who was taking advantage of his master. However, because Li Yueming's performance was too eye-catching, even the light of the Son of Destiny was snatched by Li Yueming. This led to the fate of the entire Nine Regions to be actively poured into Li Yueming.

Wang Ziwei had also escaped from the sea of suffering. After Li Yueming destroyed the Great Zhou Dynasty, he had escaped from fate.

Destroying the Great Zhou and changing Wang Ziwei's fate was a huge project.

There should be a follow-up settlement for the public reincarnation dungeon. The current settlement was only the settlement for the normal dungeon process.

The reward of 20,000 reincarnation points was already considered very low.

[You overthrew the Six Nations in this reincarnation, and in the turbulent war that followed, you were unstoppable, establishing a vibrant and unified country!]

[Mark score increased from B to A+. Reward: 80000 reincarnation points!]

The reward for unifying the six states was also average.

However, Li Yueming didn't feel anything about it.

After all, this was only a regular dungeon reward, a dessert before the main course. The real public reincarnation dungeon reward was still to come.

[You have broken through the Nirvana Realm and successfully reached the Ascension Realm. You have broken the ancient conspiracy and promoted the cultivation system of the human body treasure. You have changed the originally twisted power system of world 7-21741!]

[Mark score increased from A+ to S+. Reward: 130000 reincarnation points!]

[Your achievements will be revered by the people of planet 7-21741. As long as the fire of civilization on planet 7-21741 is not extinguished, your incense will continue to burn and will be praised by the people for generations!]

[Your name has been passed down through the ages, and hundreds of millions of people in Nine Regions call you 'Star Moon Emperor'.]

[Mark score increased from S+ to SS+. Reward: 180000 reincarnation points!]

[You have unlocked the interstellar traveler achievement in this reincarnation.]

[Mark score increased from SS+ to SSS. Reward: 200000 reincarnation points!]

[Current Reincarnation Settlement Rating: SSS-!]

[Reward calculation completed: You have obtained 13 additional reincarnation rights, 620000 reincarnation points, SSS-grade reincarnation power return, 11000 reincarnator experience, fixed number of talents x3, and the only special title, Star-Moon Emperor!]

[Planet No. 7-21741 is very satisfied with your performance during your work period and has given you full marks. We sincerely invite you to come home often in the future!]

[Regular dungeon reward settlement completed, distributing...]

[The reward has been distributed. Host, please check it yourself!]

Lines of information appeared in front of Li Yueming's eyes.

Under normal circumstances, these rewards alone were enough to suffocate countless reincarnators.

But for Li Yueming, this was just the beginning of the reward.

The real highlight was yet to come.

[Detected that the host has entered a public reincarnation dungeon. The regular dungeon has been settled. The special dungeon reward is being settled!]

[The starting level of the public reincarnation dungeon is: lv5]

[Initial reward value increased by 50%...]

[Host's mission completion status is as follows:]

[Main Mission (1): Choose a good master and sweep the world!]

[Mission Requirements: Choose a suzerain country from the Tang, Ming, Qin, Han, Song, and Zhou dynasties and help it unify the world!]

[Mission bonus: The more effort you put into destroying the country, the more generous the mission reward.]

[Mission completion progress: 50%(The host did not choose the mother country for this mission, so the reward will be halved!)]

[The rewards are as follows: 40000+20000 reincarnation points, 2+1 additional reincarnations! (Additional 50% reward in LV5 world)]

[Main Mission (2): Hold the sun and moon in your hands and pluck the stars. There is no one like me in the world!]

[Mission Requirement: Break through to the realm of the Spirit Focus!]

[Mission bonus points: When the reincarnator returns to the reincarnation space, the higher the realm, the more generous the mission reward!]

[Mission completion progress: 100%(Peak level: Above Ascension)]

[The rewards are as follows: 100000+50000 reincarnation points, 3+1 additional reincarnations, 1 random talent draw scroll! (Additional 50% reward in LV5 world)]

Chapter 729: Return to the Reincarnation Space and Become Rich Overnight!_2

[Main Mission (3): A real man is born in the world. How can he be depressed and live under others for a long time?]

[Mission Requirements: Set up a country and unify the world!]

[Mission bonus points: The stronger the country, the richer the people, the faster the unification of the world, and the more generous the mission rewards!]

[Mission completion progress: 100%(Founding the Star Moon Dynasty, unifying the six countries for more than ten years, the people are rich, and the country is prosperous!)]

[The rewards are as follows: 200000+100000 reincarnation points, 5+2 additional reincarnations, random talent draw scroll x 1, fixed talent number x 2! (Additional 50% reward in LV5 world)]

[Main Mission (4): Killing God]

[Mission Requirements: Eliminate 30 other reincarnators!]

[Mission bonus: The more reincarnators you kill, the stronger you are, and the more generous the mission reward!]

[Mission completion progress: 100%(personally kill 55 reincarnators!)]

[The rewards are as follows: 100000+50000 reincarnation points, 3+2 additional reincarnations! (Additional 50% reward in LV5 world)]

These were the additional rewards provided by the public reincarnation dungeon.

It was much more than the basic resources rewarded in normal dungeons!

Of course, these rewards were all universal.

The place where the real good things came from was still at the back.

It could only be said that completing too many missions was also a painful annoyance.

There were too many treasures in this settlement, and for a moment, it actually gave him a somewhat unreal illusion.

[The main mission has been completed. The hidden mission is being completed!]

[Hidden Mission (1): Help Wang Ziwei overthrow the Zhou Dynasty!]

[Mission Requirements: Overthrow the Zhou Dynasty!]

[Mission bonus points: The faster and more thorough the overthrow, the higher the reward!]

[Mission Completion Progress: 100%(After spending decades, I finally managed to defy the heavens!)]

[The rewards are as follows: 100000+50000 reincarnation points, 3+2 additional reincarnations, the complete version of the only scripture, the Book of Changes *1]

[Hidden Mission (2): Find the truth, touch the truth, and unravel the truth!]

[Quest Requirement: %$#...]

[Additional Mission Points: *& %$#...]& amp;% ¥ #..]

[Mission Completion Progress: 100%(If you want to pursue the truth, you have to have courage and brains that ordinary people don't have. Congratulations on successfully passing 'our' test. After understanding the truth, you are only one step away from the truth!)]

[The rewards are as follows: Reincarnation Mark Authority!]

[From now on, when you use the Reincarnation Mark, you can obtain a higher level of visitor authority. You can also obtain additional services including but not limited to more information about the Reincarnation World, richer descriptions of the world's background, and more...]

[Hidden Mission (3): Search for the descendants of cultivators in the small world!]

[Mission Requirements: Go to the small world outside Nine Regions and find the descendants of cultivators left behind in the ancient Great Qian Dynasty!]

[Mission bonus points: The shorter the search time, the more people search, the richer the reward!]

[Mission Completion Progress: 00%(After several months, 12 people have been found)]

[Mission reward: Unique special title 'Heart Spirit Master', a book of the Book of Changes!]

He counted all the rewards.

Even though Li Yueming was already mentally prepared, he still couldn't help but feel a little speechless when he saw so many rewards.

This public reincarnation instance dungeon took a long time.

Even Li Yueming spent more than half of his time carefully walking on a tightrope.

One could imagine how much effort and effort he had put in.

But now, it seemed like everything was worth it.

At the very least, the rewards from this Public Reincarnation Instance Dungeon were more than the rewards from the two normal Instance Dungeons!

As expected, the reincarnation mark was very fair. It would not mistreat any honest person!

Li Yueming was a little excited.

Even his lips unconsciously curled up.

After careful calculation, he had obtained a total of 1,430,000 reincarnation points, 38 additional reincarnations, and five talent fixed times...There were even two unique titles!

[Star-Moon Emperor (Gold)]

[Although you haven't set foot in the universe, your fame has already spread throughout the universe. The power known as the Star Moon has emerged from a world and gradually formed a huge wave in the universe. As the creator of the wave, you will receive unparalleled prestige!]

[Unique special effect: All attributes increased by 50%, command increased by 500, personal charm increased by 120, deterrence against special forces increased!]

[Heart Spirit Reader (red)]

[Even though you are still an immature spiritual force user, you have obtained the origin spiritual force and have the special characteristics of this group!]

[Unique Special Effect: Increase spiritual power by 80%, increase basic spiritual attribute by 100%, increase spiritual attribute control by 50%!]

The bonus of the two additional talents was beyond Li Yueming's imagination.

This was especially true for the special golden talent, Star-Moon Emperor.

All attributes increased by 50%, Commander's Strength increased by 500, and there was also an extremely high additional charm bonus. It was actually higher than the bonus of the title of Starlight Preacher obtained in the previous world.

In addition to the red talent of Heart Spirit Reader, which was icing on the cake.

This wave was really a huge profit.

Suppressing the joy in his heart, Li Yueming began to absorb the SSS-level energy return.

This time, the reincarnation world was a fantasy world with a high proportion of individual power.

He wondered how much power the SSS-rank Reversal could give him.

If the mark of reincarnation was made from that mysterious universe treasure, it was the ultimate method to interfere with the past from the future.

Then the Reincarnation Mark should not be too stingy with him.

Li Yueming slowly sat cross-legged and took a few deep breaths. After adjusting his mood, he said, "Reincarnation imprint, begin the return of power!"

[Ding, Power Return activated!]

[The reincarnator's power return is SSS-. The reincarnator world's serial number is: 7-21!]

[Power Returning...]

[Detected that the host has advanced authority. Power return increased!]

After he finished speaking.

Before Li Yueming could react to what was meant by an increase in the strength of the return.

In the next second.

An incomparable pain that pierced through his bones appeared in his body.

Li Yueming shivered.

The mental preparation he had made was almost broken.

It hurt...It was too painful!

If the pain caused by the reincarnation mark returning power last time was from all over his body, then the pain would be too much.

Then the pain brought by the return of power was mental and physical.

Physical damage was pure physical damage.

A pure mental attack was magic damage.

The physical and mental pain together was a real injury!

Li Yueming knew that the system was forging to strengthen his body and spirit.

Therefore, even if it was really painful, he still held on and did not say anything.

Time passed by slowly.

He didn't know how much time had passed.

Finally, the pain in his body and soul gradually subsided, turning into a warm current that flowed continuously in his body.

After silently sensing for a moment.

Li Yueming quickly opened his personal interface and glanced at it.

[Name: Li Yueming (Permanent Reincarnator)]

[Reincarnation Number: 7001611]

“Mark of Reincarnation Level: LV4 (20500/30000)”

[Reincarnation Points Balance: 1634105]

[Origin Power: 100 times talent enhancement!]

[Fixed Talents: Infinite Deduction (gold), Perfect Genetic Body (shiny gold)]

[Bound Unique Titles: God of Martial Arts (red), Starlight Preacher (red), Heart Spirit Reader (red), Star-Moon Emperor (gold)]

[Fixed Talent: 3]

” Fixed number of talents: 6 ”

[Additional Reincarnations: 40]

After making sure that all his gains were accurate.

Li Yueming stood up and stretched his body. His eyes were filled with joy.

It was unknown if it was because the Reincarnation Mark had been upgraded or for some other reason, but the power returned by the Reincarnation Mark this time was also more than expected.

The harvest from this trip was really too good.

He might not have gotten rich overnight, but it was definitely a huge windfall!

Chapter 730: Public Dungeon Rankings!_1

After counting the spoils of war from this public reincarnation instance dungeon.

Li Yueming slowly stood up from the white reincarnation space.

This reincarnation took a long time, and he did not know how much time had passed outside.

Thinking of this, Li Yueming raised his arm and opened the Reincarnation Mark. He was about to enter the chat channel to see the situation of the reincarnators who participated in this Reincarnation Instance Dungeon.

However, just as he entered the Reincarnator Forum and did not even have the time to read the post, a very eye-catching message suddenly popped up from the Reincarnation Mark.

[Ding, it has been detected that you have passed 'our' first test. The authority of the Reincarnation Space has been increased!]

[Name: Li Yueming (Permanent Reincarnator)]

[Reincarnation Number: 7001611]

[Reincarnation Mark Authority: Senior Administrator (1/1)]

[Detected that the energy of the Reincarnation Mark has been accumulated, and the number of people who have passed our assessment has reached the estimated number. The ultimate assessment has been initiated. You will enter the next special Reincarnation Dungeon in three months. Please prepare to leave the Reincarnation World in advance!]

[Ding...] You are the only senior administrator of the Reincarnation Mark. You have the ability to appoint/remove the use of the Reincarnation Mark of ordinary administrators, muted administrators/reincarnators, and banned administrators/ordinary reincarnators five times a month!]

[In addition, you have already entered the internal Group chats of the Reincarnation Mark Administrator. If you have any questions, please ask in the group chat. The low-level administrator has the responsibility to report the information to you!]

A series of messages appeared.

At first, Li Yueming thought that it was some rubbish advertisement.

After all, nowadays, only junk advertisements would pop up in the form of pop-ups.

In the end, he did not expect that his authority as the only group leader had arrived.

Li Yueming was dumbfounded when he saw the description of the various functions of this so-called authority.

Good heavens.

Reincarnation Mark is the only administrator.

Did this identity want him to fly into the sky?

No wonder the previous level 5 world suddenly increased the difficulty to level 9. In the end, when the final reward was the Reincarnation Mark, it did not give him an extra hair. It turned out that the most shameless reward was this so-called Reincarnation Mark Authority!

With this thing.

He was a supreme existence to ordinary reincarnators.

If anyone dared to bully him, he could directly delete the blacklist and ban them.

This was simply unacceptable to the reincarnators.

After all, everything they had came from the reincarnation mark.

Once he provoked Li Yueming, he might not even be able to enter the reincarnation world.

The so-called authority dog was nothing more than this.

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming didn't have the authority to continue researching.

After all, what he wanted to know the most was the situation in the outside world.

It wouldn't be a waste of time to study the authority later.

He closed the pop-up window.

Li Yueming finally saw the reincarnator forum that he hadn't seen for a long time.

At this moment, the headline of the most popular article was very eye-catching: "Wo De Fa, did the public reincarnation instance this time get broken by a fierce person?!"

With a bit of doubt, Li Yueming's mind moved and he directly entered the post to see what had happened.

In the end, the first screenshot after he entered the post gave him a shock.

[Ranking of the total points for this public reincarnation dungeon!]

[Rank 10: Reincarnation Number 4081619]

[Total Points: 83441]

[Rank 9: Reincarnation Number 2716414]

[Total Points: 84170]

[Rank 8: Reincarnation Number 2215624]

[Total Points: 86443]

[Rank 3: Reincarnation Number 4286415]

[Total Points: 126011]

[Ranked 2: Reincarnation Number 410118]

[Total Points: 151147]

[Rank 1: Reincarnation Number 7001611]

[Total Points: 857784]

Looking at this screenshot, the numbers in front were extremely unfamiliar to Li Yueming.

However, Li Yueming was very familiar with the last number.

What happened? Wasn't it his reincarnation mark number?

Li Yueming was stunned, and then he suddenly remembered that before the public reincarnation instance dungeon had started, Huang Li 'er and the others seemed to have mentioned that there was a so-called point ranking after the public reincarnation instance dungeon ended...

So he was on the leaderboard, and he was the glorious first?

To be honest, Li Yueming was a little confused.

Wouldn't his identity be exposed if this ranking was released?

After all, although strangers could not see his Reincarnation Mark ID, friends who had added each other's IDs could.

Now, his ID was hanging high on the top of the leaderboard.

It was unknown how many people had gathered here.

If they were unlucky enough to be recognized by their friends, they might be turned upside down in the blink of an eye.

And even if he wasn't recognized by his friends.

The Reincarnators Association had registered the ID of a reincarnator!

Although this thing was called a top secret.

However, to some existences, it might not be a top secret.

Fortunately, the Reincarnation Mark in the reward for this reincarnation gave him the sole authority to manage it.

Coupled with the additional SSS-level power return, Li Yueming now had enough self-protection ability, and he was not afraid of the outside world.

Otherwise, who knew what the consequences would be.

He slid down to take a look.

The replies of the many reincarnators almost caused the post to explode.

East Ocean: " Please ask, what happened to the public reincarnation instance this time? Why are there so many big shots who broke 100,000 points? If I remember correctly, the big shots who had more than 100,000 points in the previous leaderboards could already be ranked in the top three, right? He didn't even make it into the top five this time!"
