Chapter 731: Public Dungeon Rankings!_2

Unrivaled Lonely King: "This first place is really freakish! 850,000 points! What is it for?!?!!"

[No Underwear: You guys only pay attention to the points, but no one pays attention to the IDs?] Those with IDs starting with 2 or 3 were all the most experienced reincarnators. Under normal circumstances, they should have taken the top three...But now, both the second and third place started with a 4. The first place was even more ridiculous. It actually started with a 7? If I remember correctly, the reincarnators with IDs starting with 7 should not have awakened for more than three years, right?"

Enlightened Ming said, "That's right. The reincarnators who start with 7 should not have awakened for long. If they have not awakened for more than three years, they should still be newcomers. In the end, they actually popped a bunch of big shots on the public reincarnation rankings..." Strange things happened every year, but there were especially many this year. Today was a good day to learn!"

[So who can tell us what happened to this public reincarnation instance dungeon?] Such a huge difference in points and rankings should not be an individual matter, right? There should be reincarnators who would notice something amiss!"

Hehehe, "There are a few familiar IDs among the fifth to tenth. They should be the big shots who often farm public reincarnation dungeons. As for the top five..." Most of them are unfamiliar!"

Nezha Isn't Zha, "Is there anyone who can come out and answer me?"

Every time a public reincarnation instance dungeon was opened, it was basically the topic that many participants paid the most attention to in the short term.

And now, the reincarnators had basically returned from it.

It was unknown how many people were like Li Yueming. The first thing they did when they came out was to enter the reincarnator forum to see what was happening in the outside world.

Therefore, one could imagine how dazzling this post was.

In the beginning, Li Yueming only felt a chill down Gou's anus.

But now, he had already regained his senses.

It had already happened anyway, and he didn't have a time machine to change the past.

Instead of being afraid, it was better to pretend that nothing had happened.

Even if someone really came looking for him, he would at most not admit it.

If there were still people who were blind and wanted to find trouble, he did not mind letting them taste the consequences.

He closed the post after scanning through it.

Li Yueming directly found the points store in the Reincarnation Mark to check the public dungeon.

Only then did he realize that there were many good things inside.

There were a lot of cultivation techniques and weapons.

There were also items in the reincarnation world such as the chance to draw the reincarnation talent and the golden spoon that could be exchanged with points.

As for the price...

The points of the public reincarnation dungeon were about the same as the reincarnation points.

It was just that there were no reincarnation points that could be used and could not be traded.

In other words, more than 800,000 points were equivalent to more than 800,000 reincarnation points.

Moreover, it was a reincarnation point that could be used to exchange for all kinds of common items in the main material plane.

One had to know that this was only the reward from entering the public reincarnation dungeon.

Moreover, it was independent of the other rewards!

This was a huge windfall for Li Yueming.

After scanning the area, Li Yueming spent more than 300,000 points to buy a few cultivation techniques to deduce.

When he was about to leave.

Only then did he realize that there was another colorful item at the end of the public reincarnation dungeon store.

[Broken World Origin]

[The source of a world's destruction can be used to accelerate the growth of a world that has already formed. It can also be used to create a blurry and chaotic broken world!]

[Points required for exchange: 1000000 (50% discount for activating the sole administrator authority!)]

[What are you still hesitating about? Hurry up and pack it up!]

He looked at the broken world's Source of Consciousness.

Li Yueming was stunned.

If he remembered correctly, the hazy consciousness of the world consciousness fragment often told him that he needed to devour the world's origin.

But at that time, Li Yueming had always thought that the source of the world was too far away from him.

Unexpectedly, one of them actually appeared in the public reincarnation dungeon point store this time?

Although it was not the complete world's origin.

However, the price was touching!

A 50% discount for one million points would be exactly 500,000.

To be honest, this value made Li Yueming feel a faint malice. If he didn't know that the consciousness of the reincarnation world wouldn't cheat him, Li Yueming would have suspected that this guy had calculated it well and was ready to empty his family's assets in one go.

If the Infinite Deduction and the Star-moon Art were bottomless pits, then the world consciousness fragment hiding in his body was definitely another bottomless pit that could not be filled.

Forget it...

He had just earned a large sum in the public reincarnation dungeon.

He was still relatively well-off now.

No matter how hard it was, she could not let the child suffer.

He could only hope that this time, he would be able to hear the sound of the World Fragment when he smashed a broken World Origin into it.

Otherwise, he wouldn't do this kind of business that was always losing money.

Thinking of this, Li Yueming did not hesitate anymore. He gritted his teeth and bought the broken World Origin.

After spending all 500,000 points, Li Yueming opened his backpack and saw that the [Broken World Origin] was placed inside. He then heaved a sigh of relief.

Next, he would go and see if any information about him had been found in the Group chats of the Yunduan Fengye!

After all, no matter what, he had to be prepared.

He opened the Group chats.

However, the group chat was as lively as ever.

Qin Ritian: "@ All members, hehe, I got an A grade rating for this public reincarnation instance. Scumbags, who can fight me?"

Hou Pingyin: Points? Are you on the rankings?"

"Normally, I would be able to rank in the top 100 with an A grade score, but in this public instance dungeon, it's a far cry. I would probably rank in the top 400 to 500 at most..."

Qian Fengtian said, "It's over 800,000 points." And it was an ID that started with 7. Where did such a pervert come from?"

Wang Linlin was speechless.

Wang Linlin was speechless.

"Lin Lin, my rich wife Lin Lin!" What's wrong with you? There were so many exclamation marks. Could it be that his relatives were here?"

Wang Linlin: " Ji Ning, go to hell. Forget it, I don't have time for you, you idiot..." All members, guess what score I got this time?"

Qian Fengtian said," What's going on? Has Old Lin Lin made a comeback?" Could it be that he also got an [A] class?"

Qin Ritian said," Damn, it can't be? It wasn't easy for me to get an A grade. Lin Lin, you can't steal my limelight at this critical moment!"

Hou Pingyin: " Hehehe, I think it's a good fight. I can let anyone show off, but I can't let Fengye, that scoundrel, get what he wants. I'm guessing Class A too!"

"If all of you think it's a Class A, then I'll make a bigger estimate." S-!"

As the two '@ all members' command incantations spread in the group.

The entire Group chats became even more heated.

After all, the public reincarnation dungeon could be considered the best benchmark for many reincarnators to measure each other's abilities.

Now that it was time for everyone to return to the dungeon together, it was hard not to be lively.

Wang Linlin kept everyone guessing about her score for the public reincarnation instance.

Everyone in the group was also interested and gave their guesses.

Finally, Qin Ritian couldn't help but take the initiative to @ Wang Linlin in the group."Lin Lin, hurry up and tell me. If you keep me in suspense, I'll take your ID and check the rankings myself!"

Wang Linlin: " Hahaha, I got an SS-score this time and ranked third on the leaderboard!"

When Wang Linlin said that she had gotten an SS-grade score and was ranked third on the leaderboard, she was shocked.

The originally lively Group chats instantly quieted down.

Almost everyone was stunned.

Damn it...

Did they not wake up from the reincarnation dungeon, or did the sun rise from the west today?

Ji Ning: "?"

Hou Pingyin:

"Wang Linlin, SS-? How was this possible? Are you joking with us?"

Qin Ritian: " My family, I'm Yuyu!"

Chapter 732: Identity Exposed, So You Are Great General Li!_1

The originally lively Group chats suddenly became deserted.

Wang Linlin couldn't help but put her hands on her hips and laugh. Were you shocked? If you don't believe me, you can go and look at the rankings. I never lie!"

As soon as he said this.

The Group chats became even more deserted.

He reckoned that the group of people might have all run to the rankings to check the authenticity.

After a while, someone replied.

“I just checked it and found out that it’s true...”

“I’m already so tired from getting an A grade score. This was only obtained by a narrow escape and good luck. Lin Lin, quickly tell me how you got an SS-grade score!”

Wang Linlin’s SS-rating had dealt the most blow to anyone.

Qin Ritian should be ranked first.

After all, he had risked his life this time, and it was not easy for him to get an A rating.

He had thought that he would be able to pretend to be a good player in the group, but he did not expect that Wang Linlin, who had appeared out of nowhere, would steal his limelight.

Now, it was not easy for him to recover from the heavy psychological blow.

Qin Ritian wanted to know how Wang Linlin got such a high score.

One had to know that this was a valuable experience.

If it wasn’t for the fact that everyone in the group was good friends who knew each other well.

Outside, it was probably hard to even exchange for a thousand gold coins.

Wang Linlin didn’t hide anything. After all, if she wanted to hide it, she wouldn’t let the people in the group know. Letting the people in the group know naturally meant that they were ready to share their experience.

“Hmph, hmph, I won’t hide it from you guys. This time, I’ve reincarnated with a super thigh.@ Ji Ning, even though I think you’re an idiot, you’re right about one thing. As long as you hold on to someone’s thigh, you’ll be able to achieve a complete victory!”

She was obviously a little excited and quickly replied,”Actually, I didn’t do anything special in this reincarnation dungeon. From the beginning to the end, I just followed behind a chosen one from a native world and kept winning...”

At this point, Wang Linlin suddenly calmed down a little. She finally realized that something was wrong.

After recalling a few messages, he said,”Eh... There really seems to be a problem. I shouldn’t only have so many reincarnation points. Whoever takes away the reincarnation points and points that should belong to me, I’ll lose them!”

He saw her muttering in the group.

Everyone in the group looked at each other.

Every time the public reincarnation dungeon opened, there were many different dungeons. Few people present were assigned to the same world, so they basically didn't know what Wang Linlin had experienced in the reincarnation world.

But now, Wang Linlin's condition was so abnormal.

She even complained that someone had 'stolen' the score that should have been hers.

If what she said was true, it would be huge news.

The group of people in the group couldn't remain calm after hearing this. One by one, they popped up to watch and said, "What happened? You're already ranked third. Who else can snatch the points that belong to you?"

However, at this moment, Wang Linlin seemed to be possessed.

He kept muttering in the group, "No, this shouldn't be..."

After a long while.

Only then did Wang Linlin suddenly wake up from a dream and shout in the Group chats, "That's not right. F * ck, Great General Li is not a native. He's really a reincarnator!!!"

Ji Ning: "?"

Hou Pingyin: "?????"

"@ Wang Linlin, what are you talking about? What Great General Li?"

Ritian Qin said, [If someone wants to steal your points, I think it should be the mysterious big shot at the top of the rankings, right?] Could it be that the big shot obtained over 800,000 points by plundering you?"

The Public Reincarnation Dungeon Points Rankings was clearly the hottest topic of discussion.

The top three IDs attracted the attention of thousands of people.

That's why.

When Wang Linlin mentioned that the points were stolen, Qin Ritian first thought of the big boss who ranked first in the public reincarnation dungeon.

Only that person could explain the logic behind it.

However, Wang Linlin still didn't answer his question.

After discovering that her points were wrong, she seemed to have fallen into some kind of trance and was almost indifferent to the information from the outside world. "No wonder General Li knows us so well. I was very puzzled about this before, but if he is also a reincarnator, all of this makes sense... So, we, a group of reincarnators, ended up following another reincarnator?"

"This is simply too unbelievable..."

He muttered to himself for a while.

Wang Linlin closed the Group chats and opened the public reincarnation dungeon leaderboard.

Her clear and beautiful gaze was fixed on the ID ranked first on the rankings.

When she saw it clearly again, Wang Linlin said in a daze, "The 800,000 points should be General Li... It was actually an ID that started with 7. Great General Li was simply terrifying!"

"I wonder if the other reincarnators have discovered it now... However, no matter what, the two guys who were disguised as Ding Yi and Tian Liang should have discovered it!"

This reincarnation was simply too unforgettable for Wang Linlin.

He had followed Li Yueming and several other reincarnators to wander in Nine Regions for nearly a hundred years. He had experienced many storms and gone through many difficulties and hardships.

Chapter 733: Identity Exposed, So You Are Great General Li!_2

Although Li Yueming had been holding the fort.

They did not suffer too much.

However, it was still not easy to support each other to reach the end.

They had thought that after returning to the reincarnation space, they and Great General Li would have to part ways and live their own lives.

However, he never expected that General Li was also a reincarnator, and his ID started with 7!

This discovery was enough to shock Wang Linlin's shallow understanding!

She finally calmed down.

However, more questions were thrown out.

Who was this ID that started with '7'?

Could she still find it?

In the reincarnation space, Li Yueming took in the chat records of the group of people.

For a moment, he felt a little awkward.

Originally, he had wanted to buy dozens of additional reincarnation rights in the group, but now he realized that he had come at a very bad time!

However, it seemed that this matter could not be hidden even if he wanted to.

After all, there were quite a few people in the group who were his friends. Although they had yet to associate him with the number one big brother, they would eventually be exposed.

Instead of doing so, he might as well stand up and sell all the items he had accumulated.

Coincidentally, Wang Linlin, who had gone to check the public reincarnation dungeon point rankings, also returned. She was still a little shocked and incredulous.

The group of people in the group jumped out and couldn't wait to find out what happened to Wang Linlin.

Wang Linlin gathered her emotions.

Then, he briefly summarized what he had seen and heard in Nine Regions.

When he heard her talk about how she followed Li Yueming to establish the Star Moon Dynasty and then destroyed the Six Nations with unstoppable momentum.

Many of the members in the group were so shocked that they were speechless.

After all, many of these contents were beyond their understanding.

Damn it...

How ridiculous was this General Li Yueming to be able to achieve such a terrifying achievement in the Level 5 public reincarnation dungeon?

This could no longer be described as a genius.

If one had to describe it, it could only be said to be cheating!

One had to know that with their strength and experience, they had to be careful when entering some Level 3 or even Level 2 worlds.

It was hard to imagine how a big shot like Li Ming, who was like a fish in water in a level 5 world, did it.

The few of them were in a heated discussion.

Li Yueming was not in a hurry.

He waited until they were done with this before he sent a simple message in the group: "Uh, you guys are having a good time chatting. Haha, I won't disturb you anymore. I just want to ask if there's anyone who needs additional reincarnation authority? I have what you need here. The price is negotiable!"

There were only about ten people in Qin Ritian's group.

They were basically very familiar with each other.

Therefore, the relatively unfamiliar Li Yueming's profile picture was immediately noticed as soon as it appeared in the group.

In an instant, he was surrounded by the gazes of the crowd.

Qin Ritian,[@Moonstar, you're here?] Why did you come so late? How was the harvest of this public reincarnation instance dungeon?"

Hou Pingyin: "The newbie boss is still as simple and unadorned as ever. He's selling extra reincarnation rights right from the start!"

"How's the newbie's score this time?" Is it convenient to reveal? Of course, as a show of sincerity, I can first reveal that my reincarnation score is B grade, which is still acceptable to me!"

Qian Fengtian: "@ Moon Star, Big Boss is rich again. How much extra reincarnation authority did you earn? Just a few days ago, my old man was still complaining about the lack of additional reincarnation authority. I can take all the money you have according to the market price!"

Many people in the group responded.

Li Yueming couldn't help but smile.

The extra reincarnation authority was a hard currency, so he didn't have to worry about selling it.

However, if it was through other channels, it would take a lot of effort to sell the reincarnation authority at such an efficient and high price.

After entering the Maple Leaf Group chats in the clouds, he didn't need to worry about this problem at all.

This group of people were the descendants of the various reincarnators 'families. They all had quite a large force behind them and had the support of their families.

After obtaining the additional reincarnations, he could directly trade them here.

It saved time and effort.

Of course, the main reason was that they had already made a few deals before.

Li Yueming had a basic trust in this person.

After thinking for a while, he did not directly say how many reincarnation privileges he had sold. After all, 30 to 40 additional reincarnation privileges were too scary. If he released them, it would probably cause a commotion.

Therefore, he replied tactfully, "Young Master Fengtian, how many do you want? The number of reincarnations I have is not too many..."

Li Yueming did not reply directly.

Qian Fengtian thought that Li Yueming had obtained too little extra reincarnation authority this time, so he couldn't help but laugh and say, "Of course, I'll accept as many additional reincarnation rights as the newbies have. Don't worry, although my family isn't considered a top-tier reincarnator family, I don't lack reincarnation points for additional reincarnation rights!"

He said it very casually.

In fact, it is true.

The reincarnator family valued the additional reincarnation authority very much.

After all, extra reincarnation authority was equivalent to the spiritual energy of the Xianxia world to reincarnators. It was the foundation of whether a reincarnator family was strong and prosperous. It was always a good thing to have more.

The others in the group also expressed their desire to buy it.

Chapter 734: Identity Exposed, So You Are Great General Li!_3

After all, there were many reincarnators who sold other items these days, but people like Li Yueming who often sold additional reincarnation rights were as rare as giant pandas.

Only Wang Linlin, who was still thinking about things, seemed to be a little uninterested.

Li Yueming touched his chin and pondered for a moment.

Last time, he only traded for three additional reincarnation rights.

But this time, he had really made a fortune. He had a total of 40 additional reincarnation privileges.

It was definitely impossible to release all of them.

After all, it would not be beneficial for him to trade too many of these things at once.

On the contrary, it might cause some unnecessary trouble.

Therefore, he decided to take an average and try selling it ten to twenty times.

After all, things were different now. He already had the strength to establish himself in the prime material plane, and with the sole authority of the Reincarnation Mark, he wasn't afraid of people plotting against him.

Therefore, he sent a message in the group chat: "@ Qian Fengtian, since that's the case, I'll sell you ten extra reincarnation rights first!"

In fact, he was prepared to take out 20 additional reincarnation privileges.

However, after all, the rarer an item was, the more valuable it was. If he took out too much, he would not be treated as worthless cabbage. It would not be a waste to wait for Qian Fengtian to buy it all before selling it.

However, when he sent this amount to the Group chats.

However, the Group chats went silent again, just like how Wang Linlin had said that she had obtained an SS-rating.

Obviously, the group of people was stunned by this number.

Qian Fengtian typed out two words after a long while,"".. How much?"

Qin Ritian was even more speechless for a long time. Finally, he asked weakly,"".. If I remember correctly, the newbie just traded the extra reincarnations he had to Wang Linlin, right?"

"Uh..." You seem, probably, you seem to remember correctly!"

Hou Pingyin asked,[So where did the newbie boss get so many extra reincarnation privileges?] What gave me the illusion that the 'extra reincarnation authority' was just a cabbage?"

The group of people were stunned.

They all began to doubt their lives.

What the hell was going on today?

First, Wang Linlin, the Crouching Dragon, and then a cute new Phoenix Chick appeared in the group.

Which reincarnation instance did these two go to rob?

Even if he dug up all the dungeons, he might not be able to get ten additional reincarnation privileges!

However, Li Yueming really took out so many at once.

Could it be that the additional reincarnation authority he had obtained from his previous reincarnations had not been sold out and he had left some behind? Together with his gains this time, he had gathered ten additional reincarnation authority to be sold as a package?

Yes, yes, yes!

It should be like this!

This was the only explanation.

Qian Fengtian coughed a few times. Previously, he thought that Li Yueming would not have many additional reincarnation privileges, but he did not expect the newbie to be so generous.

He couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed." Uh, newbie boss, although I want to buy it with a wave of my hand, your reincarnation authority is too much at once. I don't have that many reincarnation points in my account. Please wait for me for a while!"

Qian Fengtian was in high spirits before, but now he was in a sorry state.

Fortunately, Li Yueming was not in the mood to argue with him. He replied,"Alright, I'll wait for your reply!"

The transaction was not completed yet.

The few people in the group who came back to their senses were the first to explode.

Ji Ning: "@ Moonstar, this newbie boss is too awesome. Please write a secret manual. I'm willing to pay a million reincarnation points to buy it!"

Qin Ritian: "@ Moon Star Book, written in blood by ten thousand people, I want a secret manual!"

Hou Pingyin: "Wuwuwu, I also want to make a fortune in the Reincarnation Instance Dungeon!"

Although Li Yueming didn't tell them what score they got this time.

However, there were some things that could be seen by others without saying much. There were some things that others would not care about even if you said it out loud.

Li Yueming was obviously the former.

To be able to continuously produce so many additional reincarnation privileges, Li Yueming's dungeon score was definitely not low.

There was no need to say more.

Therefore, the group of people did not hesitate to spend a lot of money to beg Li Yueming to give them a guide or experience to guide them.

At this moment, only Wang Linlin wasn't in the crowd.

She silently stared at Li Yueming's name in the Group chats called "Yue Mingxing Shu." Something seemed to explode in her mind.

She had added Li Yueming as a friend before.

Although he couldn't remember Li Yueming's complete reincarnator number, he vaguely remembered that Li Yueming's reincarnator number should start with 7.

And now, there was the very recognizable Group chats name of 'Star's Moon's.

The answer seemed obvious.

After going through countless shutdowns and reboots, Wang Linlin finally reacted. Her body trembled as she said, "@ Yue Mingxing Shu, you... Are you... Was it Great General Li?"

Chapter 735: Administrator, The Origin of Dark Energy

"Yuemingxing Shu, could it be that you... Could it be Great General Li?"

Wang Linlin sent a message.

Instantly, the entire Group chats fell silent again.

No one expected Wang Linlin to say such a strange thing.

At this moment, after being pointed out by Wang Linlin, Li Yueming could only pinch his nose and laugh, "Haha, I don't know who the Great General Li you're talking about is, but if you're referring to Li Yueming, then it might be me!"

After hearing Li Yueming's reply.

Wang Linlin was so excited that she almost stood up.

Although she had already noticed that there was something wrong with Li Yueming's identity when she found out that the first place on the rankings was not hers or Ding Yi's group, it was still just a guess.

The reason was that under normal circumstances, the establishment of the New Moon Dynasty should have been due to the three of them.

However, they did not receive the recognition of the Reincarnation Mark, and the points awarded were only calculated according to their assistance.

In addition, there was the high and mighty ID on the public reincarnation dungeon leaderboard.

She made this judgment because of the many factors that had caused her to be frightened.

But now that she heard Li Yueming admit it, the shock and astonishment in Wang Linlin's heart were still indescribable!

The new boss in the group was actually General Li Yueming, who was in the public reincarnation instance she was going to this time...

No matter how much she dared to think about it.

However, he still couldn't believe it when he realized this conclusion.

Of course, Li Yueming ignored her.

After waiting for a while, Qian Fengtian, who was at the Reincarnation Collection Point, returned very quickly.

The two of them quickly completed the transaction. Ten additional reincarnation rights, each calculated at the market price of 50,000 reincarnation points, a total of 500,000 points.

Looking at Li Yueming's decisive attitude, Qian Fengtian couldn't help but laugh in the Group chats,"The newbie giant is too awesome. If you are interested in telling us some of the experience points to protect yourself after entering the dungeon, I am willing to take out an additional 500,000 reincarnation points to buy one!"

Although no one in the group knew Li Yueming's true identity.

However, just the talent that Li Yueming had displayed was enough to make the rich kids who usually had their eyes on the top of their heads look up to him.

Not to mention that Li Yueming's score was really high every time he reincarnated.

Obtaining so much extra authority to reincarnate was the most simple and powerful way.

They would not believe that there was no trick to this.

As long as Li Yueming was willing to reveal some of his secrets, they were willing to spend a lot of money to buy some insider information.

However, Li Yueming was obviously not interested in this. He casually replied,"Haha, I don't have any tricks. If I have to say, the only trick after entering the dungeon world is to be cautious and do everything well!"

"Since there is no secret to share, there is no secret to sell. Therefore, please don't continue to make fun of me."

After saying that, Li Yueming also did not have the time to continue arguing with them.

He directly attached ten additional reincarnation privileges and said,"Uh, who else wanted to buy additional reincarnation rights just now? I have the last ten times. If you need it, you can queue up here to buy it!"

Hearing Li Yueming's words.

The entire Group chats was stunned again.

F * ck...

You just sold ten extra reincarnations.

It had only been a few minutes!

Why did he come out to sell ten additional reincarnation privileges?

So, who was this newbie? Was this extra reincarnation authority really toilet paper to wipe his ass? As many as you want?

Wang Linlin's question about 'Great General Li' was also reflected in the eyes of the crowd.

Why did Wang Linlin ask if Meng Xinju was Great General Li?

After all, for all the members of the group, the words 'Great General Li' that Wang Linlin mentioned were too confusing. Many people didn't know what it meant!

He had never heard Wang Linlin mention this title before.

Could it be that this so-called Great General Li and Wang Linlin had some kind of interaction in this public instance dungeon?

At this moment, Wang Linlin finally came back to her senses and said excitedly, "Great General Li, is it really you? I'm Huang Li 'er. You've fooled all of us this time!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming laughed and said, "You didn't ask me, and I never said that I wasn't a reincarnator. Therefore, it's still a little inappropriate to say that I'm lying!"

Wang Linlin was stunned for a moment before she smiled and said, "That's true. I was just saying that in this public reincarnation instance, Ding Yi, Tian Liang, and I should be the first on the points leaderboard. In the end, we didn't expect that all of us would guess wrong. The three of us had similar points, but none of us won. Instead, a first place with an ID starting with the word '7' suddenly appeared. He had a total of 500,000 to 600,000 points more than us, making us all confused!"

Li Yueming didn't have much to reply to this. He only replied, "We are quite fated, haha!"

Many people were still confused by the conversation between the two.

However, a few of them had clearly heard the implied meaning.

Wang Linlin had an SS-rating this time, and she was ranked in the top five of the public reincarnation dungeon leaderboard.

Chapter 736: Administrator, The Origin of Dark Energy (2)

The only person she had mentioned who had 500,000 or 600,000 points more than her was the mysterious reincarnator who was ranked first on the points rankings!

So, Wang Linlin had gotten such good results because she had clung onto the newbie giant's thigh?

The possibility that he deduced was a little scary.

However, there was no other reliable explanation that could explain everything that had happened.

Therefore, no matter how unwilling they were to believe it, they could only force themselves to believe it.

["@ Moon Star Swoosh, Newbie Giant, you're the big boss who's ranked first on the public reincarnation dungeon leaderboard?]"

Hou Pingyin: "Could there really be two big shots on the rankings in our group at the same time?"

Qian Fengtian: "The ID of the newbie boss also happens to start with 7. In addition, there are so many additional reincarnation privileges today. I guess it's probably true..."

Qin Ritian, "So terrifying, so terrifying..." "Newbie boss, I'm willing to pay 60,000 yuan for the additional reincarnation authority. I'll definitely cling to you in the future. Linlin can't stop me either. I said it!"

After understanding everything, he was stunned.

Li Yueming immediately received a grand welcome and reception in the Group chats.

In the previous few transactions, Qian Ning, Hou Pingyin, and the others were polite to Li Yueming, but most of them were only because of Qin Ritian and Li Yueming's potential.

But now, they found out that Li Yueming was actually ranked first on the public reincarnation dungeon leaderboard.

The respect and importance they had for him soared by who knew how many levels.

After all, no matter which world it was, there was never a lack of talented people.

However, the vast majority of the prodigies had all died due to various unexpected situations and natural and man-made disasters.

For a reincarnator like Li Yueming who could kill his way out of an army of thousands, he was no longer simply a person with potential. He was a well-deserved rookie, a rising star in the world of reincarnators!

In the end, Li Yueming's 20 additional reincarnation privileges were all sold as he wished.

As for the price...

Qin Ritian and the others were willing to use more reincarnation points to buy it, but Li Yueming was not willing to accept this favor for no reason.

Therefore, he still sold it at the price of 50,000 reincarnation points for an additional reincarnation authority.

20 extra reincarnations meant one million points.

In addition to the one million or so reincarnation points he obtained from the previous calculation, he had almost gathered three million reincarnation points!

One had to know that this was only because he had sold half of the additional reincarnation authority.

If he wanted to sell the other half of the additional reincarnation authority, he could gather 3,000,000 reincarnation points in the blink of an eye.

It could be said that Li Ming had really made a killing this time!!

After ending the transaction and the chat in the group.

Wang Linlin sent him a few more private messages.

Unfortunately, Li Yueming was busy at the moment, so he didn't have time to see what Wang Linlin was talking about.

He closed the Group chats.

Li Yueming pondered.

Only then did he prepare to enter the administrator Group chats that the Reincarnation Mark had invited him to.

If the Group chats of Qin Ritian and the others was a small circle of rich kids, then the administrator group chat that Li Yueming was about to enter was a circle of authority dogs.

Compared to the small circle of rich kids who could only influence the matters of a city or a place, the small circle of rich kids was a little different.

This circle of authority dogs was not ordinary.

If nothing unexpected happened, the people in the other party's small circle might be the most elite and promising group of reincarnators.

His mind was filled with thoughts.

However, Li Yueming did not stop moving.

He silently opened the Group chats that the Reincarnation Mark had invited him to. There were ten ordinary administrators neatly arranged in it.

"City Lord Fu Dalong of City H","City Lord Li Fuwen of City B","City Lord Su Yue of City G","City Lord Fu Wentao of City L"...

A bunch of names were listed.

Although Li Yueming didn't know a few of them, he had heard of their names.

After all, be it City H or B, City G or City L, they were the largest and most prosperous cities in the reincarnation world.,

If this world had a population of 100 million.

Then the population of the cities where these ten administrators were located would account for half of the world's population!

Just like Linjiang City or Star-Moon City under Li Yueming's command, they were like ants in front of a city of this scale.

In other words, the City Lords of these cities could indeed be considered the most elite batch of reincarnators in this world.

At this moment, Li Yueming had yet to speak.

The Group chats was already in an uproar.

Fu Dalong asked,[Did someone pass the test of the Reincarnation Mark again?] But why was he called the "sole administrator"? Could it be that the other party's authority is one level higher than ours?"

Li Fuwen said,[Dalong, don't be anxious. It shouldn't be long before there's news!]"

Su Yue,[If I remember correctly, it's been almost ten years since a newcomer joined this Group chats, right?] "We can't hold on much longer these years. We're all relying on the old capital we left behind. Now, it's not easy for a newcomer to come, and his authority is even higher than ours..." If nothing unexpected happened, the other party should be the arrangement behind the Reincarnation Mark!"

Fu Wentao sighed. Recently, I heard that the invasion of darkness in the border towns is getting more and more serious. We should quickly think of a way to fill this hole. If there is a flaw in the dark energy protection, it will be a heinous crime!"

Chapter 737: Administrator: The Origin of the Dark Energy

The Group chats was in full swing.

The topic of discussion made Li Yueming a little shocked.

Although he knew that the reincarnation mark was just a cover-up. The reason why reincarnators could truly transcend the space-time torrent was because they had the protection of a Universe-Grade Space-Time Treasure.

But now, when he heard the group of Order Protectors from the reincarnation world discussing it in the group, Li Yueming still tasted an extremely absurd taste.

The world they were in was just a small pond, and the place they crossed was the real vast ocean.

However, countless ordinary reincarnators had always thought that the so-called 'prime material plane' they were in was the true vast ocean. The worlds they transmigrated to were instead small ponds for the natives.

Karma and origin were all reversed.

However, no one could stand up and say that they had misunderstood.

How ridiculous...

After Li Yueming came in, he didn't rush to say anything. Instead, he flipped through the chat history and collected enough information. After he had a grasp of what they were discussing and paying attention to, he posted a message: "Hello, everyone. My name is Li Yueming. I'm a reincarnator from the border town of Linjiang City's Star Moon City. Can you explain to me why I suddenly entered this Group chats? What's the situation with the Darkness Invasion that you're talking about?"

As the only high-level administrator, he was the one and only person who managed the entire place.

Li Yueming's authority in this Group chats was very high.

He didn't even need to take the initiative to remind him when he sent the message.

All the ordinary administrators in the Group chats were immediately reminded of the Reincarnation Mark.

Therefore, someone quickly stood up and replied, "Hello, Lord Li. My name is Li Fuwen, the City Lord of City B. According to the rules set by the Reincarnation Mark, you are the only administrator. Your authority and level are higher than ours, so we should report to you!"

"The reason why you entered the Group chats should be because you passed 'our' test. The authority in your hands is higher than ours, and you should shoulder a higher mission than ours. As for why you became the only senior administrator.. We don't know either!"

Li Yueming nodded.

However, the doubts in his heart did not disappear at all.

Therefore, he asked again, "So what's the situation with the Darkness Invasion you mentioned? Isn't the invasion of darkness the greatest enemy in our world?"

Hearing his doubts.

Another person stood out and added, "Lord Li, I'm the City Lord of H City, Fu Dalong! You have passed the test, so you should have understood the truth of our world, right?"

Li Yueming didn't say anything.

However, at this juncture, not saying anything clearly meant that he agreed.

Thus, Fu Dalong continued, "The so-called invasion of darkness is not what the outside world claims. It is the invasion of the world by dark energy, causing the world to be in chaos."

"On the contrary, dark energy is one of the main forms of the protective shield of our world. Its function is to isolate all prying and perception of our world from the outside world!"

"It's also because of its existence that we were able to return safely without being investigated after we went to the reincarnation world to cause trouble."

"However, this barrier formed from dark energy has become increasingly unstable a few years ago. It even shows signs of shrinking over the years..."

At this point, he paused for a moment. After a long while, he said carefully, "According to our judgment, the reason for this situation should be because the energy of the Reincarnation Mark is insufficient!"

"In order to solve this problem, we can only think of various ways to replenish the energy of the Reincarnation Mark. Otherwise, once the protective barrier breaks, explodes, or collapses, we, who are protected by it, will all be finished!"

Although it was only a few short conversations, the amount of information that Li Yueming received was not small at all.

In this way, everything made sense.

No wonder the so-called 'dark energy' and 'dark tide' could not be eradicated. It turned out that this thing was not the so-called world-destroying energy at all, but a protective shield used to protect the peace of this world.

It was also because this was a protective shield.

However, the ten administrators could not tell them directly, so they could only announce that it was destructive energy.

Chapter 738: The Ultimate Test, The Origin of the Dark Energy

The dark energy that corroded the reincarnation plane was a part of the reincarnation world's protective shield.

Its true function was to prevent the outside world from spying on the existence of the reincarnation world and pose a threat to the reincarnators inside.

After all, reincarnators had been active in many worlds and many years. Even if the outside world did not know about the plans of the Alliance of Order, they should have been able to sense a lot over the years.

He thought back to Han Bufan's description of the universe treasure and the space-time plan.

Although Li Yueming was a little shocked, he didn't find it strange." So, those dark creatures in the Darkness Invasion were the result of the collapse of the Reincarnation Mark's protective shield?"

City B's City Lord Li Fuwen stood up and replied,""The energy shield of the Reincarnation Mark itself is not harmful, and naturally, it will not give rise to anything that will harm the reincarnator..."Those dark creatures come from the chaotic world outside the protective shield. When the energy shield is intact, they can't threaten the reincarnation world. However, when the energy shield collapses and contracts, they are attracted to us and pour in endlessly from the weak point of the protective shield!"

" Many of the so-called 'dark creatures' are ghosts wandering in the universe. Due to our limitations, we are unable to trace the source of their appearance or the meaning of their existence. To us, their existence itself is an absurd 'nothingness'!"

Hearing this.

Li Yueming did not reply for a long time.

Obviously, he had to digest the meaning of Li Fuwen's information.

After a long while, Li Yueming finally came back to his senses and continued to ask in the Group chats,""In that case, what method do you use to replenish the energy of the universe treasure?"

He did not have to worry about any problems in the reincarnation world.

After all, even if the reincarnation world exploded tomorrow, as long as the reincarnation mark was still active, he could return to the main plane he originally belonged to through the reincarnation mark.

In other words, even if the planets outside exploded, he still had a home to return to.

However, the problem that had occurred in the reincarnation world was something that he had to pay attention to.

After all, if there was a problem with the Reincarnation Mark, then forget about saving the world in the future, it was unknown whether he could still live well in the future.

The Group chats was silent for a while.

In the end, it was the City Lord of Georgopol who stood up and answered,"After the Universe Treasure turns into the Reincarnation Mark, its own operation and the activities of the reincarnator are actually interconnected..."

The World Will of those Order Planets that have suffered setbacks in their development, or have problems with themselves, or whose reasons we still do not understand, will use some means that we cannot understand to contact the Mark of Reincarnation.

The World Consciousness will actively or passively invite the Reincarnation Mark to send reincarnators to the planet to help it complete missions that some native creatures cannot complete.

After the mission is completed, according to certain standards that we cannot judge, the World Consciousness will promise to pay some source luck and treasures as compensation to the Reincarnation Mark!

The Reincarnation Mark would integrate these missions and send reincarnators into the Reincarnation World to complete these missions.

The reincarnators would obtain reincarnation points to exchange for various weapons and items by completing missions. The reincarnation mark would collect some additional energy from these activities to open up the space-time path and maintain its own operation!"

Su Yue's message paused.

He seemed to have sorted out the complicated thoughts in his mind before continuing,"Through this self-sufficient internal logic, the operation of the Reincarnation Mark has always been relatively stable. Even if there are occasional fluctuations, it won't be too exaggerated!

However, for some reason, the energy fluctuations of the Reincarnation Mark had become more and more unstable over the years."

"Even if we and the Reincarnator Association consciously contribute some reincarnation points and items that can increase the energy of the Reincarnation Mark, it's only a drop in the bucket. It's still unable to make up for the deficit of the Reincarnation Mark!"

"It's also because of this that the so-called 'dark energy' has appeared over the past few hundred years. It has slowly eroded the living space of us reincarnators."

Su Yue's words were very long and contained a lot of content.

She was the only female among the ten administrators, and her attitude toward Li Yueming was the best among them.

Li Yueming listened carefully.

The operation logic of the Reincarnation Mark was not complicated.

Just as Li Yueming had guessed a long time ago, he maintained his operations by taking kickbacks.

The planet's will was the employer.

The Reincarnation Mark was the platform's middleman.

And this group of reincarnators were the chosen ones.

However, the purpose of the platform was different from the capitalists in his previous life who wanted to make money. It was to train and nurture the reincarnators to accelerate their growth.

Thus, his face was not hateful.

To the reincarnators, the reincarnation mark could be considered a towering tree that shielded them from the wind and rain.

After thinking about it, Li Yueming replied, "In that case, have you found a way to solve the problem of the collapse of the protective shield? If the Reincarnation Mark is unable to support us, the Reincarnators who reside in the Chaos, I'm afraid we will be finished in an instant!"

As if she knew that he would ask this, Su Yue quickly replied, "We've thought of many ways, but basically nothing works."

Chapter 739: The Ultimate Test, The Origin of Dark Energy (2)

"There is no doubt that the collapse and contraction of the protective shield is caused by a lack of energy. However, according to our bold guesses after many attempts, the reason for the lack of energy in the Reincarnation Mark is not because of us reincarnators. It is more likely that there is a problem with the Reincarnation Mark itself. If this is really the case, filling the energy deficit is only a temporary solution. Moreover, we reincarnators are simply unable to fill such a large energy deficit."

As for the specifics of what we need to do to cure the root cause, forgive us for our limited ability. I reckon that only you, who has a higher authority, can come into contact with it after obtaining all the authority!"

Hearing this, Li Yueming fell into deep thought.

There was a problem with the Reincarnation Mark, causing the protective shield to shrink and collapse. This would undoubtedly continuously compress the living space of the reincarnators.

But how could he know what was wrong with the Reincarnation Mark?

Besides, even if he took a thousand steps back and knew where the problem was, who could guarantee that he could make up for it?

He pondered carefully for a long time.

Li Yueming suddenly remembered that when he was calculating the reincarnation authority, the reincarnation mark mentioned two special terms. One was the 'ultimate examination', and the other was the 'special reincarnation dungeon'.

Furthermore, he had been reminded that the instance dungeon would begin in three months, so that he could prepare in advance.

If there were any special notifications from the Reincarnation Mark after the upgrade, other than the current Group chats, this was the only message that was worth paying attention to.

Of course, Li Yueming had his own guesses.

However, he was not stupid enough to self-destruct in the group.

After all, he had just entered this so-called administrator Group chats.

The members here were all famous City Lords in this world. Every one of them could be considered the strongest reincarnators.

Moreover, according to what Li Yueming knew about the assessment conditions for joining 'us', everyone who could enter this administrator Group chats should have obtained more than three SSS-class reincarnation scores!

In front of them, Li Yueming had higher authority.

There was still some white.

Moreover, what they said here could only be considered one-sided. Li Yueming had no way to judge whether it was true or false.

But he was unwilling to speak.

The normal administrators in the group were all curious about him.

H City's City Lord Fu Dalong: "@ Sole Administrator, Respected Senior Administrator, can you reveal your assessment results? We are very curious about this. After all, your authority is much higher than ours!"

City B's City Lord Li Fuwen: "Same request. I used to think that my administrator title was very authoritative and eye-catching. I didn't expect a high-level administrator to pop out now..."

Fu Dalong: "@ LiFuWen, what do you mean? Are you disrespectful to the senior administrator?"

Li Fuwen: "I'm not, I didn't. Pfft, don't label others!"

The City Lord of Georgopol, Su Yueqing, said, "Stop arguing. The senior administrator probably doesn't know if we are reliable or not. The information isn't for now. @ senior administrator, are you interested in coming to Georgopol as a guest?" I'll be the host and welcome you with the highest level of hospitality in Georgopol. You can choose any reincarnator girl in the city!"

Fu Dalong,[@ Suyue, uh, that...] Can I come and rub against it? Just rub against it!"

Li Fuwen: "+1, but I'm different from Fu Dalong. I'm not here to treat my guests. I mainly want to meet the senior administrator!"

With a few words.

Not long after, the atmosphere in the Group chats became heated.

The few of them looked completely different from their previous serious expressions.

Li Yueming didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

He really didn't expect that the Group chats of these reincarnators would be so lively and nonsensical.

It was no different from the Group chats of Qin Ritian and the others.

If not for the fact that the name of the Group chats was indeed different.

Li Yueming wouldn't find it odd if the city lords were Qin Ritian and the others.

However, no one seemed to have stipulated that top-notch reincarnators had to be serious and old-fashioned. They could not be silly.

Therefore, although Li Yueming felt like complaining, he still restrained himself from doing so.

Without knowing what the other party was like.

He had to be extremely careful when revealing information.

After thinking for a while, he replied,[Since you guys have answered so many of my questions without hiding anything, as a show of sincerity to make friends, I'm naturally willing to answer some of your questions...]

“However, I don't understand what the assessment results you're talking about are. May I trouble City Lord Jie Fu to answer me? Only then will I know how to answer!”

Seeing that he had really replied, the group fell silent for a while.

Although Fu Dalong, Li Fuwen, and the others were familiar with each other, they were obviously a little nervous in front of Li Yueming.

After all, they didn't know how much authority Li Yueming had.

However, according to their current authority, Li Yueming's authority was definitely not lower than theirs.

He might even have direct authority over them.

He could be considered their immediate superior.

Although most of them shouldered a certain amount of responsibility, so they were not worried about being demoted at will.

However, they couldn't afford to be careless when facing Li Yueming.

Fu Dalong, who was called by Li Yueming, quickly replied,“Sir, the assessment results refer to the reincarnation score you obtain when you complete our assessment. This is also the direct evaluation of the reincarnation mark on you. It is different from the evaluation of a normal dungeon!”

Hearing this.

Li Yueming touched his chin and pondered for a moment.

In that case, his score should be SSS-.

This result might cause a huge uproar outside, but it shouldn't cause too much of a commotion in this Group chats all of them had obtained SSS-rank ratings.

Of course, Li Yueming didn't care even if it caused a commotion.

Anyway, he had the authority and had absolute authority over this group of ordinary administrators.

He wasn't afraid that they would have any comments.

Therefore, Li Yueming replied,” So the assessment score refers to the score when you complete the 'our' assessment. Then my score is SSS-. It should only be considered average!”

As soon as he said this.

Instantly.

The entire group Group chats fell silent again.

And this time, the silence was longer than any of the previous times.

Li Yueming didn't know why they were like this.

Although the SSS-score was indeed considered outstanding, it was still not a problem.

However, since these people could become top reincarnators and the City Lords of super cities, it was impossible for them not to even have an SSS-rank score, right?

Just as he was wondering what had gone wrong.

Finally, someone replied in the Group chats.

Fu Dalong said, "SSS-rating..." Lord, I will kneel in front of you!"

Li Fuwen, [Is this what a senior administrator is like?] It's simply terrifying!"

Su Yue was speechless. Sir, how did you do it? Don't you think that the difficulty of testing our reincarnation instance dungeon is too high?"

Fu Wentao: "I'm already a fool. Back then, I really risked my life in the assessment. In the end, I only got an A-score. This can already be considered a unique existence in the group. An SSS-score... How ridiculous is it to obtain this?"

Li Yueming's SSS-rating was exposed.

The entire administrator Group chats almost exploded.

The group of administrators who usually boasted of being top reincarnators began to doubt their lives.

Now, they finally knew why Li Yueming was above them and became the only administrator in the Group chats.

F * ck.

The highest score among them was only A-, and most of them only got B or B+...

Under such circumstances, an SSS-rating suddenly popped up. If it was the same as their authority, then it would be a miracle!

Li Yueming only realized at this moment that the score for participating in the 'our' assessment was different from the score under normal circumstances.

No wonder his intuition told him that he had done his best in this reincarnation world. In the end, the Reincarnation Mark only gave him an SSS-rating.

It turned out that the highest rating of the other participants in the similar assessment was only A-rank!

Chapter 740: The Space Fragment Expands Again!_1

For instance dungeons related to the 'our' assessment, the grading method was ten times or a hundred times more difficult than normal instance dungeons.

Rich Dragon Su Yue and the others were the City Lords of the largest cities in the main world. They had indeed obtained an SSS-rank evaluation.

Even so, in the 'We' instance dungeon assessment, they could only get an A+ grade at most.

He had never even heard of someone with an SSS SSS-rating like Li Yueming.

Li Yueming only found out at this time.

In the Group chats, Fu Dalong could not help but say, "SSS-grade, how high is the authority of the lord? No wonder he could become the only high-level administrator!"

Su Yue also praised, "Indeed, there's always someone better than you. Sir, you've really opened our eyes!"

Seeing this situation, Li Fuwen, Fu Wentao, and the others hurriedly followed suit and praised.

All of a sudden, all kinds of bullsh * t flew in the Group chats, almost blowing Li Yueming up to the sky.

If the reincarnators in the outside world saw them bragging to Li Yueming, they would probably widen their eyes in disbelief!

One had to know that this group of people were the most powerful group of order managers among the reincarnators. Although they did not say it, they were proud in their hearts!

Even though they knew that Li Yueming was probably their boss, they were not afraid of him.

However, they could not help but feel a little unconvinced.

After all, they didn't know who this so-called only senior administrator was, nor did they know what special abilities this so-called senior administrator had.

It had suddenly climbed above their heads for no reason.

It would be strange if they weren't depressed.

However, due to the restriction of the Reincarnation Mark, they did not dare to do anything to Li Yueming.

However, he was still unconvinced in his heart.

And now, when Li Yueming told them the score he had obtained in the 'our' assessment.

Fu Dalong and the others immediately shut up.

He had no choice but to give her an SSS-rating.

He couldn't refuse to accept it!

Thus, after being convinced, the following communication was relatively simple.

"We haven't asked for your name yet. If you think it's inconvenient, you can use a code name!" Fu Dalong said."

Li Fuwen also echoed, "That's right, that's right. Sir, please give us a respectful title. In the future, we will first seek your approval before deciding whether to implement any decisions. Sir, you have the right to reject!"

Su Yue added, "Sir, you probably haven't fully understood the rights and responsibilities of an administrator. Simply put, before you joined the group, this administrator group was where the ten of us discussed and formulated policies for the reincarnation world!"

"The ten of us are the managers of the reincarnation world selected by the reincarnation mark. Our goal is to maintain the peace and stability of the reincarnation world and promote the steady development of the reincarnation world!"

"The Reincarnators Association is an organization that we created to prevent internal strife among the reincarnators. The system of guarding the city is also a policy strategy that we came up with after we held a meeting in this group..."

Li Yueming read through all the information carefully.

He quickly understood the ins and outs of the administrator's Group chats.

There were ten normal managers in front of him, and each of them had obtained at least three SSS-level reincarnators.

After triggering and passing 'our' test, they would have higher authority than ordinary reincarnators. They could use some of the authority in their hands to interfere with matters that the reincarnation mark itself could not easily interfere with.

For example, establishing order.

Another example was maintaining order.

After thinking for a while, Li Yueming replied, "My surname is Li. I just became an administrator not long ago. I don't know much about the current situation. Please forgive me!"

After seeing his answer,

In the Group chats, the group of normal administrators were also very polite.

They all expressed that if Li Yueming had any questions, they would tell him everything they knew.

Both sides exchanged pleasantries before Li Yueming stopped bothering them.

After all, he knew enough information now. It would be more reasonable to continue asking after digesting it.

He closed the Group chats.

Li Yueming slowly opened his eyes and heaved a sigh of relief.

Due to the existence of the 'our' assessment, this public reincarnation instance dungeon could be said to be the most difficult instance dungeon he had ever experienced.

It was also because of this that after so many years, his nerves had been very tense at all times.

Now, the dungeon was finally over.

Li Yueming's tense nerves relaxed.

Raising his arm to open the reincarnation mark, Li Yueming left the white reincarnation space and returned to the familiar and unfamiliar main material plane.

After waking up.

Li Yueming subconsciously looked at the time.

Good heavens.

This public reincarnation instance dungeon actually took him half a month!

It took him even longer than the previous reincarnations combined.

It seemed that it was because the level of this reincarnation dungeon was relatively high.

This was especially so when the world of reincarnating was upgraded to Level 9 for a period of time!

This was why the time in the outside world was much longer than normal dungeons.

Li Yueming estimated that if this wasn't a public reincarnation dungeon, the flow of time would have been even faster.

At this moment, it was daytime in the reincarnation world.

Star-Moon City's City Lord's Mansion was as quiet as ever.
