

My Dreamy Old Husband

Chapter 437

Considering the fact that Olivia's father was one of the few relatives of Elizabeth, Michael didn't want to have a fall out with Olivia. However, he wouldn't chase Sophia away because of her. Sophia is having fun on the set. Why would I chase her away?

Therefore, he waved his hand impatiently and gave an ambiguous answer, saying, "Alright, she'll leave in a few days. Just focus on your work."

The university would reopen in a few days. Hence, Sophia would have to leave even if she wanted to stay. Moreover, she had founded a gaming company with Stanley, so she would have to take care of the company as well. As a responsible woman, she would go back when she had had enough fun.

However, Olivia interpreted his words as that he would kick Sophia out of the set in a few days. Wiping off her tears, Olivia walked toward Sophia as the other actresses followed her in glee to watch the show.

With a haughty expression, Olivia crossed her arms and lifted her chin. "Taylor told you to pack up your stuff and leave his house! Well, he's a good man who doesn't say mean words. He's given you a few days to get ready to move out. You know what to do!"

Without uttering a word, Sophia pressed her lips together and walked away. Fine, I won't argue with them. I'm leaving the set in a few days anyway. These walk-ons only have a few scenes to play. Maybe they will be the ones who will leave first!

Watching her leave, the walk-ons cheered for their falsely-assumed victory. For the following days, they anticipated that Sophia be kicked out of the set.

In the afternoon, Richard arrived at the production site. Upon learning that Sophia's lies were exposed and that she had to move out of Taylor's house, he was looking forward to that day as well.

To make up for his wrongdoing of sleeping with the twin sisters, he would come to the set to accompany Xyla every day.

Meanwhile, he was waiting patiently for the day when Sophia would lose Taylor's protection and her expulsion from the set. Thereafter, he would lock her up in a remote place and torture her to get revenge for the humiliation she had brought upon him.

It seemed that everyone knew that Sophia would leave soon. Even Nicole, who focused on her work and rarely paid attention to gossip, found out about it, so she came over and asked, "They all say that you're leaving soon. Are you alright?"

Sophia was reading the news feed on her phone when Nicole came to look for her. Nonchalantly, she replied, "It's no big deal. The university will reopen in a few days, so I'll have to go back anyway."

Nicole knew that Sophia had a powerful background, so Olivia was unable to harm her. In spite of that, she was still worried. When she heard what Sophia said, she was finally relieved. "You're still a student?"

"Yes. I'm a student of Bayside University."

Soon, it was the fourth day since Sophia came to the set, as well as the second day after Taylor said that she would leave. In the morning, when she appeared at the production site in a walk-on costume, the other actresses surrounded her and derided her.

“Why are you still here? Do you want me to kick you out personally?” Olivia didn’t want to see her at all.

Since the drama was set in the modern era, the crew members never gave the walk-ons any costumes. Therefore, they had to bring their own clothes. Sophia bought a one-piece dress worth fifty from a stall near the film studio to be her costume and dirtied it so that she would look poor.

“This is none of your business. I’ll leave whenever I want to.” With confidence written all over her face, Sophia walked across the supporting actresses and reached for Nicole.

While she was still in sight, the supporting actresses started saying vicious words about her.

“What a shameless slut. How does she have the guts to stay at this place?”

“I think she’s looking for a chance to flip over the situation.”

Olivia flashed a victorious smile at them. “Girls, don’t worry. The director and my cousin have promised that they won’t allow her to take part in the drama again. Also, she’s leaving soon!”

Since Olivia has said so, Sophia must be doomed then, they thought. At that moment, they were anticipating the day when Taylor would chase Sophia out of his house.

Following that, Olivia suddenly asked in a mysterious way, “Do you remember what I told you all to do before? Have you gotten it ready?”

At the mention of it, their gazes beamed with energy.

“Olivia, don’t worry. There won’t be a problem. You can rest assured!”

“We have gotten it ready. There won’t be any mistakes!”

One day had passed just like that as the filming ended. Since there were no scenes that had to be shot at night, everyone was ready to return to the hotel.

Having had fun on the set for the entire day, Sophia was exhausted. At that moment, she just wanted to take a hot bath.

The atmosphere at the production site was different on this day. It seemed that something exciting was about to happen, but they all hid it from Sophia. Therefore, Sophia was clueless about it.

As expected, the surprise came when they got off work.

The sky was dark when all the lights on the set were suddenly turned off at the same time, including the street lamps. At that instant, the site was in absolute darkness. Such a surprise made Sophia, who was beside the cooks, scream.

In the dark, a firework shot into the sky and exploded. Bang!

As the firework exploded and glowed at the site, everyone saw that there was an empty space in front of them. All of a sudden, lights of various colors lit up as the bulbs were decorated beautifully around the site. Once switched on, dreamy colors permeated across the set.

It seemed that other than Sophia, most people knew of such a surprise.

Following that, the crew members held out sparklers in their hands, which added a tinge of romance to the site.

With upbeat music rising in the background, everyone was amazed when a group of young ladies in beautiful clothes were dancing their way into the site.

All of these young ladies were beautiful with fair skin and curvy figures. In fact, they were the walk-ons, who came from rich families and had practiced dancing since young. Dancing in short pants, they gave off an enthusiastic vibe as the crew members danced to the beat.

Staring at them with a cold gaze, Sophia wondered what they were up to.

The lead dancer, Olivia, danced her way to Michael and held his arm before pulling him to the center.

Michael frowned at her action, but seeing the ardent atmosphere at the moment, he had no choice but to follow her to the center. Then, the people around him took a few steps back to leave a huge space around him.

Olivia and the other actresses left the place. With a sudden change of the music, a woman in colorful clothes appeared.
