But as she opened the door , she forced herself to summon every ounce of energy and put on a radiant smile .

Rena , Mommys home Mommy Serena came running out of her bedroom in excitement , barefoot and ready to leap into Paisleys arms .

Paisley longed to scoop her daughter up and smother her with kisses , but having just come from the hospital , she didnt want to bring any of its lingering germ near her child .

Stop right there , and dont move , she said gently Serena pouted but obediently stopped in her tracks .

Mommy ... le a good girl , Rena .

I will take a shower and change my clothes , then Ill hug you Paisley said softly .

Maria quickly stepped in and scooped Serena up .

Rena , let your mommy take a shower first While Paisley showered , Serena stayed right outside the bathroom , refusing to leave .

She was like a little puppy guarding its owner , occasionally letting out small whimpers as if asking how much longer it would take ..

Paisley had no choice but to shower quickly .

As soon as she stepped out , Serena threw herself into her arms .

Picking up her daughter , Paisley planted two big kisses on Serenas soft , rosy cheeks .

All her fatigue and gloom melted away in that moment You havent eaten yet , have you ? Maria asked with a warm smile as she laid out a steaming breakfast .

Come eat quickly .

Youve been up all night .

so get some rest after breakfast .

Okay Paisley felt a wave of warmth fill her heart .

This was exactly what she wanted a cozy , lively home .

Honestly , her wish had always been this simple After breakfast , Maria urged Paisley to take a nap Serena , being an obedient child , kept herself occupied with picture books while her mother slept .

WE When she grew tired of reading , she went out to play with Maria .

Paisley ended up sleeping until the afternoon .

When she woke up , she found Maria teaching Serena how to read .

That reminded her it was time to enroll Serena in a kindergarten Oh , by the way , I got a call yesterday from Ms.

Johnson , Renas previous teacher , Maria said .

She mentioned shes now at a different kindergarten and asked if Rena had found a new school yet .

If not , she said Rena could join her there .

Serenas eyes lit up at the mention of Sophia .

I want to go to Ms.

Johnsons school Paisley knew how much her daughter adored Sophia .

Alright , wheres the kindergarten located ? Ill take Rena there later to check it out .

If everything looks good , well enroll her there Hearing that shed get to see her beloved teacher again , Serena was overjoyed and clamored for Maria to help her change into her prettiest dress While Serena got dressed , Paisley took the chance to check her phone and work emails .

As expected , she received numerous missed calls , unread messages , and a backlog of work emails .

She sighed and decided to return Lucys call first .

Ms.

Sutton , are you coming to the studio today Lucy asked .

nas best as you can , and if you cant , Not today .

Im taking Rena to visit a kindergarten later .

If its not urgent , put it on hold .

If its pressing , handle it as then let me know , Paisley said .

Lucy was competent , and Paisley trusted her judgment completely .

Got it Lucy replied , her voice suggesting she was multitasking typing while talking .

Oh , theres one thing that needs your confirmation .

Ms.

Flynn from Crown & Culture asked me to double check .

Are you sure youre okay with submitting your oil painting for their charity auction ? If so , Ill proceed with the contract .

Crown & Culture was a magazine dedicated to empowering women .

The funds raised from this charity auction would be allocated specifically to support girls in impoverished remote areas .

Paisley had reviewed the proposal Janet sent and found it meaningful .

Breaking her usual rule , she decided to contribute her painting to the cause .

Yes , go ahead One more thing .
