

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 120

Chapter 120 te with her .

Diana understood and thought , So Kayla is warning me not to compete Seeing that .

Diana didnt respond , Kayla continued , Marissa even used her connections to invite Mr.

Vaire .

Once I win that painting .

Mr.

Vaire will sign it for me .

Diana raised an eyebrow and looked at Marissa .

Did you invite that artist ? Although Diana didnt understand oil painting , she was knowledgeable about art , especially valuable art ... Nions painting was one of those valuable artworks , which was why it had an unusually high price .

One reason was that Nions painting was indeed beautiful , and the other was that Nion never publicly revealed himself , maintaining an air of mystery When Diana asked this , Marissa began to feel guilty .

The reason she said so was to make .

Kayla more grateful to her .

But in reality .

Nion had not been invited by her at all Marissa hadnt even met Nion .

He had decided to attend on his own accord .

However , Marissa had already boasted about her connections to Kayla , so she couldnt confess now .

Marissa ambiguously replied , I do have some connections that can reach Nion .

Upon hearing this , Diana didnt press further , thinking .

After all , Marissa had been with the Vanderbilt family for so long .

She having some connections isnt surprising After taking a deep breath , Marissa looked back .

Once she con rmed that someone was seated in Nions spot , she breathed a sigh of relief .

When she turned back , it seemed she caught sight of a familiar gure .

Paisley ? Marissa was startled .

Now , whenever she thought of Paisley , she would have a stress response , thinking . Could Paisley be here too ? But when Marissa widened her eyes to look closely , that gure had already disappeared .

She looked in other directions and , after con rming there was no sign of Paisley , fully relaxed .

Marissa thought .

It seems I was too sensitive and saw things .

How could I mistake any woman with Paisley ? Of course , it was not her .

Paisley harno right to enter this hall .

The guests present were all veri ed wealthy individuals , each worth at least a hundred million dollars .

Paisley couldnt possibly be among them As Marissa pondered , two more auction items passed .

Kayla grew a bit impatient and stood up to Marissa , saying , Marissa , Im going to the restroom .

In the restroom , Paisley was taking care of the two female teachers and a few girls to the bathroom .

The auction would take a long time , and the girls had drunk a lot of juice , so they took the opportunity to bring them to the restroom .

Thank you so much , Ms.

Sutton .

The two teachers shyly thanked Paisley Due to the lack of organization at the venue , the sta couldnt attend to these people from a poor village at the moment .

The children wanted to go to the restroom but didnt know where it was and were too shy to ask .

Since Paisleys paintings wouldnt be auctioned for a while , she took them out .

Its no problem .

I was just idle anyway ? The last girl to come out of the restroom was named Annie .

She had never been in such a clean restroom and looked curious .

It smells so good in here , and there are no bugs , and it doesnt freeze my butt * Seeing that Annies clothes were not neatly put on , Paisley wanted to help her x it , but one of the teachers beat her to it No , Ms.

Sutton .

How could I let you do this ? Annie , how come you cant even put your clothes on properly ! Although the teacher complained , her actions were gentle .

Paisley could see that the two teachers genuinely cared for these children .

Just then , a sharp female voice suddenly rang out .

Cosh , Who are you ? How did you get in here ? Youve made this place lthy .

Faisley frowned , feeling that the voice was quite familiar .

She turned her head and saw Kayla without surprise .
