The billionaire and his son want me back novel Chapter 168

Chapter 168 I know youre not stupid .

Its not worth it for those two.

But what absusit Rena ? That jerk is still Renas father , Emery said , getting angrier every she thought about it .

I have to ask , how did you ever end up marrying that jerk in the rst place ? This question had been brewing in Emerys mind for a long time .

She always wanted to ask but didnt dare , afraid of upsetting Paisley .

But now that they were talking about it , she nally let it out .

Well Paisley i teased with a smile .

I mean , hes hot ! Emery rolled her eyes .

You know Im not talking about that ! Paisley knew exactly what Emery wanted to hear .

After thinking for a moment, she spoke slowly, You know, I was three when my grandfather found me .

I lived under a lot of pressure until I was thirteen .

For ten years, Grandfather taught me everything he knew, not just the Ancient Medical Arts, but many other things.

Like brewing wine , painting .

and more During that time, except for the little sleep I got, I spent all my time trying to absorb knowledge .

l couldnt a Any time I slacked o and was caught by Grandfather , Id ord to slack o get scolded .

He would lock me up on the mountain .

No lights , no food .

I could only come down from the mountain when I could recite all the things he had taught me .

I lived that way for ten years .

Of course, I was grateful.

Without him, I might have frozen to death at three or been eaten by a wild animal on the mountain .

Later , he passed away , he left me a mind full of knowledge , countless books , and a considerable fortune .

It was then that I realized he was incredibly wealthy But I was only three or fourteen at the time .

He had taught me so much , except how to deal with people and live in a society .

A linle girl with much wealth naturally became a target for many people with ulterior motives .

After facing betrayal and su ering .

I began to hide my abilities and wealth .

I just wanted to live like an ordinary person .

30 Then , with the help of the police , when I was seventeen , I found my parents .

The police sent me back to the Sullivan family .

I thought they would be happy to nd me But it wasnt like that at all .

They had Brittany, and they loved her more.

Every time I had a con ict with Brittany , they always sided with her .

My mother even said through gritted teeth how she wished I had died outside .

When I rst heard her say that , I felt like I was three years old again .

Alone on a remote mountain , cold and scared , and the sounds of unknown animals lled the darkness .

That feeling of despair returned But there would be no grandfather to come and bring me back this time .

So, I chose to leave on my own.

After I left the Sullivan family, I met Dominick, I was sitting by the side of the road crying , and he was sitting there drinking away his sorrows .

I was a rejected orphan with nowhere to go He was about to take the position of the familys head, with so many people waiting to see him fail, trying to trip him up, thinking he couldnt bear the weight of the responsibility .

And we fell in love like that .

Then , when I was twenty , I married him because he said he wanted to give me a home .

A home , Emery .
