

The billionaire and his son want me back novel

Chapter 191

Chapter 191 wn eyes , his respect for her The last time Paisley had treated his boss , Leo hadnt been present to witness it , but now that he had seen it with his own grew immensely Who would have thought that their young neighbor , who also happened to be the mastermind behind Cloud Crest Winery , was a skilled healer .

with such remarkable expertise ? With the experience from last time , Max seemed much more composed this time as Paisley rolled up his pant leg for treatment .

As the searing pain in his leg gradually subsided , a faint , familiar fragrance drifted into his nose .

He recognized this scent .

The last time Paisley took Serena from him , he caught a whiff of it , too .

It lingered in his memory , just like the woman who carried it .

Guided by the fragrance , his gaze slowly fell on Paisley .

Her brow was slightly furrowed , and her eyes focused intently on the acupuncture point she was about to needle .

She was focused , careful , and beautiful With every needle she inserted , her brow would change with the force of her fingers , sometimes tightening , sometimes relaxing .

Suddenly , a sharp pain struck Maxs leg .

He looked at Paisley , noticing that her brow was deeply furrowed .

It seemed that this needle required a lot of strength from her .

He quietly watched her as she continued with the acupuncture , and gradually , he found himself absorbed in the moment until she nally exhaled , relaxed , and said , All done .

let it rest for forty ve minutes before I remove the needles .

Max momentarily snapped out of it , as if awakening from a dream .

He realized he had been somewhat rude , but fortunately , she hadnt noticed .

He smiled faintly , Thank you Sorry for the trouble .

Paisley raised an eyebrow .

If you had listened last time and rested for forty ve minutes , it wouldnt have hurt this much today She couldnt completely cure him after all , she wasnt a miracle worker .

All she could do was offer some relief .

Hearing Paisley mention the previous incident , Leo couldnt help but feel frustrated .

If he hadnt rushed over with people in such a hurry , he wouldnt have caused her to dislike him , and she wouldnt have prematurely removed the needles for his boss , Is there anything I can do Leo asked Paisley in a somewhat ingratiating tone .

Hmm Paisley nodded and handed Leo a prescription .

Go get the medicine according to this prescription .

She then looked at Max .

If you trust me , follow this prescription .

The one you used before was good , but the medicine was too strong .

Your body cant handle the extra nourishment , and it can have the opposite effect .

Max looked at the small table by the window where some medicine packages were placed , his expression becoming guarded and meaningful .

Paisley noticed it but didnt press further .

Max nodded and said to Leo , Get the medicine according to what Ms.

Sutton said Paisley was momentarily startled , curious how Max knew her last name .

They hadnt introduced themselves to each other , after all .

He must have learned it from Maria and Serena , she thought .

Just as Leo was about to leave , Max called him back , pointing to the medicine packages by the window .

Throw those out , Leo glanced at the medicine , surprised for a moment , but when he met Maxs gaze , he nodded rmly , grabbing the packages and quickly leaving the room Sorry to make you uncomfortable , Max said with a slight smile .

He gured that Paisley must have realized something , but chose not to call attention to it .

By the way , let me introduce myself .

My name is Max Godard .
